A FRIENDLY ENDEAVOR

VOLUME I.

AUGUST, 1918

NUMBER 2

First Annual Summer Conference under Auspices of the Christian Endeavor of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends, to be Held at Ocean Lake Park, Tillamook Beach, August 21-30, 1918.

AS TO THE COST

The cost of any vacation varies so very much according to the financial ability of the party taking the vacation, that it is impossible to estimate accurately what is likely to be the average cost. A few facts will be of assistance in enabling individuals to figure out the cost for themselves.

The railroad fare, round trip from Portland, is $5.15, but the auto road is good and undoubtedly very many will go via that route.

A tent, including a cot and mattress, can be rented for $5.00 for the ten days.

The matter of board is perhaps the most difficult to determine, but arrangements have been made for an experienced cook, and opportunity will be given for all who desire to leave their cooking apparatus at home and board in together on a co-operative plan such as is used in the dining room of Pacific College and other places. Estimates of the cost per meal vary from 9c to 20c, and the actual choice lies with those who eat and who agree how simple the meals may be allowed to be. Nothing can be definitely ascertained until the close of Conference. It would be fine if all who came united in this plan, as eating together undoubtedly aids materially in a better acquaintance, but the management want it plainly understood that all are at perfect liberty to make whatever arrangements are most convenient for their own conditions. Every effort will be made to run the boarding establishment with little or no overhead, so that the actual cost of the food will almost represent the outlay. Children under three will be entertained free; three to six half rate, parents to accompany them, of course.

Let us pray that God will open the way financially for us individually and that we get faith enough to take this opportunity of studying to show ourselves approved unto God, workmen that need not to be ashamed.

THE PROGRAM

We reproduce herewith the same provisional program as appeared in last month's paper, but are glad to announce one very important and pleasing change. The definite hour for this change has not yet been decided upon, consequently it seems impossible to print a correction.

At the time the provisional program was arranged strenuous efforts had been made to have President Levi T. Pennington, of Pacific College, on the program for an hour a day straight through the conference. At that time it seemed impossible to him to accept such a place, but we are delighted to be able to state that he has now promised us that he will undertake a daily lecture on the Life of Christ. Those who have had the privilege of listening to President Pennington in his men's class on Yearly Meeting Sundays, or who have taken extension work under his leadership, will need no urging to make all arrangements not to miss this opportunity. He is a delightful leader, a magnificent scholar, and a close and humble follower of Him whose life he endeavors to study. This lecture hour will be a real feast. It is not certain as we go to press just what hour of the day this will occupy, but it may very likely take the place of the 10:20-12:15 period, or possibly an evening hour, whichever seems most likely to be convenient for a large and enthusiastic attendance.

There may, of course, be other changes on the program, and it is feared that possibly Miss Spann's health may prevent her attendance, but enough is certain for us to guarantee confidently that the program will be excellent, and well worth a trip to the coast to participate in it.

MORE SPLUTTERINGS!

"Verbosed," did I; "spread myself," eh?

If the superintendent of a concern doesn't have a right to "verbose," I don't know who does!

I'll "verbose" and "verbose" until an extra edition is necessary to handle the verbosity—if it gets you to attend the Conference! CHESTER A. HADLEY.

SOCIETY NOTES

PERTINENT PERSONALS AND POINTED PARAGRAPHS

A Condensed Record of the Happenings in Our Christian Endeavor Societies Throughout Oregon Yearly Meeting

SUNNYSIDE

The Misses Lila and Helen Bentley, and Marie and Julia Hall have just spent a very pleasant week's vacation at Twin Rocks, the only fly in the ointment being that their consciences smote them for not waiting until Conference time to go. We would be inclined to rub it in a little were it not for the fact that Marie could not alter her vacation dates.

The C. E. Society of First Church, in Sunnyside, are looking forward to a week of special evangelistic meetings which they are to conduct just prior to the Conference time. We have engaged Miss Lurana Terrell as the evangelist, and as we remember our motto, "For Christ and the Church," we hope and pray that our efforts will result in rich blessings to our members and be a real uplift to the Church.

The Misses Margaret and Minnie King are leaving this week end in company with friends who are motoring to Crater Lake. They should have something fine to report in the next issue of "A Friendly Endeavor."

Herman Oppenlander left for Vancouver the 29th of this month, and Cecil Brock expects to leave the first week in August. Both of these young men are members of the Christian Endeavor and will be greatly missed.

We expect to dedicate our new church building the 18th of August. Everyone is invited to attend. The evening service on that date will be a union service of the four Sunnyside churches.

Many of our members were definitely helped and blessed at the annual Holiness Camp Meeting. Services were unusually full of power and the presence of the Lord everywhere felt.

SOUTH SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles and daughters Lyra and Eva, expect to go to Hood River for a vacation about the first of August.

Our pastor, Rev. H. Elmer Pemberton, has been doing his bit in the loganberry yards.

Robert Miller and son Albert are in Washington helping in the construction of a cantonment.

Wilford Vestle has been in the hospital in New York, suffering with pneumonia. He is in the navy.

A delegation of young people from the various Christian Endeavor and Epworth Leagues of Salem met at the home of Maxine Elliott, Sunday afternoon, July 21st, to plan for Union Young People's meetings to be held in the park the remaining Sunday evenings in July and through August. Union evening church services have been planned by the Ministerial Union.

HIGHLAND

Our music committee is at work. We try and have special music occasionally for the prayer meetings, and to have our song services lively and with good spirit. Many of our young people use their talent for singing in the church services. We make it a point in our prayer meeting to train the younger young people as much as possible, so they can take the place of the older ones in the future.

A lively business meeting and social was held at the home of our pastor, Mrs. Hockett, July 12th. After the business, the evening was turned over to the social committee, and they gave us a good time.

An enthusiasm is being manifested among our young people to attend the Summer Conference at Ocean Lake Park the last two weeks in August.

The young people all turned out and cleaned up the church yard, and then we all gathered at our president, Ellis McMillan's, home, and enjoyed ice cream and cake. A very social time was had by all.

Laura Commons and Hazel Keeler are in Portland, working in a millinery store.

Mr. and Mrs. Hockett are at Newport spending their vacation.

STAR

A joint missionary meeting of the C. E. and church was held on Sunday evening, June 30. A very interesting and helpful program was given.

Ardis Roberts, one of our faithful Endeavorers, has been very sick with diphtheria. She is improving slowly.

Since going to their home in the hills, two of our Endeavorers, Ethel and Lotus Couzens, have organized an Endeavor society. We are very much interested in their work.

Edna Elmore has gone to spend a few days in the hills with her sister, Olive Birch, and family.

John Davis has responded to the "special service" call, and is taking mechanical training at Pocatello, Idaho.

There is some prospect of our Endeavor uniting with the church on Sunday evenings, on account of there being so small an attendance of each.

Lamont Dunbar, who has spent some time in the home of his uncle, Sylvanus Haworth, and has recently been in the hospital with a broken limb, has so far recovered as to be able to leave for his home in Portland.

CHEHALEM CENTER

(Too late for last issue)

W. Ellis Pickett, who has been teaching in the high school at Healdsburg, Calif., spent a few days at home before leaving for Camp Lewis the 25th of June.

We had a very interesting C. E. meeting the evening of the 24th. Ellis Pickett led the meeting. Leora Hodson and J. Sanger Fox sang. Mr. Fox also gave a short talk.

Archie Pickard, who formerly lived here and was an active C. E. and church worker, visited his friends in the neighborhood previous to his departure to Camp Lewis.

Children's Day was observed June 30. A good program was given in the morning by the Sunday School and C. E. members. A basket lunch was enjoyed at the noon hour. Mr. Allen, a Sunday school worker of McMinnville, spoke in the afternoon. In the evening Clifford Barron led the C. E. meeting.

SECOND FRIENDS (PORTLAND)

Harry Tamplin left for France on July 2, to work in the Friends Reconstruction Work. A public reception was held for him at the home of our pastor. The Sunday School presented him with a leather bound vest pocket Testament, and the C. E. gave him a beautiful C. E. pin. His last words to the Church were that he was glad to go and serve his country in this great work, and that he intended to put his whole mind, body and soul into the work. Don't forget to pray for the boys.

Emel Swanson, our former president and superintendent of the C. E.s of Oregon Yearly Meeting, reported at Camp McDowell July 15. He has been accepted by the Service Committee for work in France, and we hope he will soon be released for that work. The Church gave a farewell meeting in his behalf Sunday, July 14, at 8 p. m. J. Allen Dunbar, Effie R. Tamplin and Rev. Lurana M. Terrell were the speakers of the evening. At the close of the meeting a tender prayer service was engaged in by all.

Mrs. Carr and her daughters Goldie and Alice and Mrs. Barker and her children have been serving their country at Springbrook for the past three weeks, by picking berries.

Goldie Carr, our music committee chairman and organist, has been missed during her absence in the berry patch.

Mrs. Arna Bass is on a visit up in Northern Washington. She is our missionary chairman, and Mrs. Carr will take her place while absent.

Doris Mann, our prayer meeting committee chairman, has returned from her vacation at The Dalles

Wilda Mann, our flower committee chairman, has also returned from The Dalles.

Edna Burns, our excellent social committee chairman, has returned from a two weeks visit at her folks in Hoquiam, Wash., bringing back with her, her sister, Myrtle, a member of this society.

We are expecting Dora Dunbar, our efficient secretary, home soon from a few weeks vacation visiting her relatives and doing her part to save the fruit around Springbrook.

Lamont Dunbar, one of our former secretaries, and who has been away during the past year, is at home recovering from a broken leg. He is improving rapidly and is able to get around now with the use of a cane.

We have taken two active and two associate members into our Endeavor during the past month. We feel that God is working among the young people.

We dismissed our C. E. during the Oregon Holiness Camp Meeting, which was held in this city, and united with the Union Young People's services on the camp grounds.

The following members of our society camped at the camp grounds: Lurana M. Terrell, Martha Isler, Sanger and Theodora Fox, Violet and Mable Littlefield, and Wilbur and Gladys Haworth.

The following C. E.s attended Camp Meeting Sunday, July 21, 1918: Doris Mann, Wilda Mann, Gordon Mann, Carroll Tamplin, Kenneth Tamplin, Mr. and Mrs. Tamplin, Mr. and Mrs. Barker and Mr. Carr.

Kenneth Tamplin has returned from a two weeks vacation in the country, picking berries.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar spent Sunday, July 21, at the Chautauqua at Gladstone Park.

We are hoping to have at least three or four at the Ocean Lake Park Conference.

WEST PIEDMONT

Although West Piedmont has no Christian Endeavor Society at present, it is to be hoped that this omission will not long be allowed to remain.

Several members and attenders from this point were in attendance at the camp meeting of the Oregon Holiness Association.

SCOTTS MILLS

Our Christian Endeavor Union reorganized a few weeks ago with E. W. Coulson, president; John Brougner, secretary, and Olive Merry, organist. We have a very interesting C. E., though rather small in numbers.

We miss our pastor very much, as he of course was one of our leading members. We hope to soon have him with us again.

Raymond Taylor, of Vancouver, Washington, who is now working for W. L. Taylor, led our C. E. prayer meeting July 14. Ray is a good Christian worker.

Ethel Cox led our C. E. prayer meeting July 21st. We had a feast of good things from Psalms.

A letter from Will McGee, in the Reconstruction Work in France, says he is getting along very well. He is helping build houses for the refugees.

Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg, of Long Beach, Calif., will move to this place soon. We are expecting much help from the young folks of the family in our C. E., as well as in the church work. Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg are the parents of Mrs. C. G. Thomas. We welcome them in our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Bartholomew have lately moved to Scotts Mills from Sellwood. They are good C. E. workers and will be a great help to our Union.

Clyde Thomas has, mostly, filled our pulpit during the absence of our pastor. We have had good meetings all the time.

Our society is, and has been for several years, supporting a Biblewoman in Japan.

Our C. E. meets the last Sunday of each month with the Christian C. E. of this place. A leader is appointed from each society for the evening. The meetings are doing much good, we believe.

Our pastor, Fred Harris, turned up at Portland in attendance at the Oregon Holiness Camp Meeting, July 22d. While the Government was responsible for his trip back East last April, he was enterprising enough to use it to his own ends, and brought back with him a new acquisition—a wife. She was Miss Emma Budman of Muncy, Pa., and they were married June 20th. He will be back home by August 1st.

SHERWOOD

Ralph Knight is daily expecting his call to sail for France, to enter the Friends' Unit of the American Red Cross there. We shall miss him much.

Mr. E. A. Hagey accompanied the pastor and his family, Rev. Geo. V. McClure, to Portland, to attend the Holiness Camp Meeting there. Mr. McClure expects to devote his time to the upbuilding of the Endeavor Society, as he feels a great burden for this branch of the work.

A number of our young people are away temporarily, but we expect them to be active upon their return.

Middleton young people cooperate with the society at Sherwood.

NEWBERG

(Perhaps this little (!) point has no C. E. Society? — or maybe no "live wires"! — Ed.)

REX

We are sorry to lose Ruth Kane and her mother, who have moved to Newberg.

Jay Ditto is also no longer able to meet with us, having been called by the draft. He reported to a California camp. His wife is working in Portland.

Halcyon Wiley has received a call to act as county look-out committee chairman.

Among those in attendance at the Oregon Holiness Camp Meeting were seen Halcyon Wiley, Rev. Geo. V. McClure, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Saint and baby Eleanor.

NEWS AND UNITY

Paul exhorted the Ephesians to walk worthy of their vocation, "endeavoring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace." With the common starting point that our vocation is that of a Christian Endeavorer, may we not feel that the mission of "A Friendly Endeavor" is to encourage more unity among us who already have a common bond of peace?

Let us see to it, then, that reports of our activities may not only be aimed to unite our scattered societies by making us better acquainted with the names and doings of our individual Christian Endeavorers, but may also inspire and encourage us in our endeavors to be Christians and to grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

News in our columns should be either personal and intimate, or educationally inspiring, preferably both. Vague references to numbers being absent or present or to good times being had would scarcely fill the bill. Detailed reports of the conduct of a meeting which had direct inspirational results, especially if combined with the names of participants, elections of officers, new ideas, new members, or reports of good committee work, if attractively reported, should help much in keeping our Christian Endeavor spirit united for Quakerism.

PRACTICAL PROBLEMS

"A Friendly Endeavor" is either needed or it is not. If it is needed, we cannot afford to be without it whatever the cost; if not needed, time and effort used in keeping it going is more than wasteful. The only possible criterion is the reception it receives. In some places there was considerable delay in getting the July number distributed and we have heard of some who have never even heard of it, and yet they are C. E. members in good standing. We hope this month's distribution may be bettered. In spite of obstacles, however, paid subscriptions have been coming steadily in, and make us feel that at least some feel that the effort is worth while. The real burden of the paper does not fall upon the editor, for he is only an employe (?) of the Yearly Meeting Christian Endeavorers. The real burden falls upon the Yearly Meeting Superintendent, Chester A. Hadley. He in turn distributes it among his four Quarterly Meeting Superintendents, and they look to the local society presidents to push the matter. This from an inspirational and educational standpoint only, however. The real support, the real burden, lies with the individual young people, for only as they actually subscribe and pay their 50c a year subscription can the paper be sustained. In setting the price at 50c it was calculated that each meeting could secure as many subscriptions as their total active and associate membership, and only by actually reaching this quota can the expense of the paper be met. In all societies there are several members in one family, consequently one subscription per family would not fill the quota, and we shall have to go outside the ranks of our Christian Endeavor members to look for help; we shall have to appeal to the other members and attenders of our Monthly Meetings at large. What is the combined total of your membership? That is your minimum quota of subscriptions. Who will be the first to go over the top?

THE CONFERENCE

The one supreme topic of conversation among our young people now is the Summer Conference to be held at Ocean Lake Park, August 21 to 30. With no reserve whatever we recommend to our readers attendance at this First Annual Summer Conference. The expense will not be great, certainly no greater than the average vacation, probably much less. The enjoyment, we anticipate, could hardly be greater, while the opportunity to get closer together and better acquainted will be unparalleled. Greater than them all, however, we believe will be the spiritual uplift, educational opportunities, and mental inspiration to be derived from the course arranged for the morning hours. Will you meet me at the Conference. Please come.

Mr. and Mrs. McClure and family have just returned from a much-needed and very pleasant rest at Neskowin Beach, where they spent about a week.

ROSEDALE

The members of this society were very much pleased with the first edition of the "Friendly Endeavorer." We have seven subscribers.

At our business meeting the Endeavorers decided that all who could would go to Cloverdale school house every second and fourth Sunday of the month, to assist Mr. Hadley, who is preaching there on those Sundays.

The meeting July 14 was led by Jack Turnbull. The topic was "Favorite Parables." We had a very good meeting.

Lesta Cook visited our society Sunday evening, July 21.

Monday evening, July 22, a farewell social was held for Floyd Bates, who is to entrain Thursday for government service. He hopes eventually to get in the Reconstruction Unit.

At the C. E. Meeting Sunday evening, July 21st, about sixty dollars was pledged to the missionary work.

The meeting July 7th was held on the church lawn. The topic was "Our Abilities for Christ," the leader Harry Pearson. The business meeting was held afterwards, and loju was served by Mrs. Hadley.

SPRINGBROOK

(Items conspicuous by their absence—wake up, Springbrook.—Ed.)

MARION

J. C. and Daisy Wilson spent a profitable and pleasant time camping at the Portland Camp Meeting.

Mrs. McNeill also camped on the Holiness Association ground.

Myrtle and Lewis Russell, our pastors, are away in California upon a visit to Mr. Russell's father. Mrs. Presnall is supplying in the pulpit during their absence.

Remember August 21-30.

Meet me at Ocean Lake Park.
