SOCIETY NEWS

PORTLAND-FIRST CHURCH.

Everett Heacock and family, and Ernest Wright and family, motored to the beach this week to spend several days vacation.

The unmarried men were to play ball against the married men Tuesday evening, July 22. Everybody came but the married men. We wonder why?

FOOT BRIDGE NEAR COLLEGE

The S. S. classes have been taking turns leading the summer prayer meetings. The attendance at the prayer meeting has constantly been on the increase. The last one was held in the main auditorium. Not only has there been an increase in numbers, but in spiritual blessing as well. Three were at the altar of prayer last meeting. Souls are finding God.

The Summer Holiness Camp Meeting is now in progress. Several of our young people are camping there. Rev. C. H. Babcock is back again this year, with Rev. J. C. Henderson from Columbus, Ohio. Let all the Christians pray that these meetings may reach many souls.

The Christian Endeavor meetings will be discontinued during the camp meetings.

See us at the Conference.

STAR

Alice Lewis, a missionary from Tokio, Japan, spoke Sunday evening, July 6th. She told of the Friends' work there. The other churches of the town were asked to join with us. The service was very interesting and beneficial, increasing our knowledge of the work there.

Our pastor, Eli Perisho, led the C. E. meeting on "Our Denominational History and Principles." The young people feel as if they knew a great deal more about our church than before. The meeting was indeed helpful and inspiring.

Annis J. Brady returned home from Long Beach, California, Sunday morning, June 22. Failing health of her mother, Rebecca Jones, shortened her stay.

Our pastor has been asked to be one of the teachers at the Yearly Meeting C. E. Conference at Newberg this year and is planning to be present.

The Endeavorers are indeed glad to help support a native worker in Central America.

A very pleasant social time was had by the Endeavorers and the Epworth Leaguers at the Cone home, Wednesday evening, July 23.

A number of our people have been on camping trips of a few days the past month.

Aaron Pickard and son, Arthur Hadley, also Walter Hadley and wife, went to Pine near the headwaters of the Boise River, and all enjoyed the fishing.

The McKibben family came back much refreshed from a trip to Pine Flat. They were so delighted with outdoor life that they find it hard to confine themselves to the house since coming back.

We are expecting our President's new Ford to be used in the advancement of our C. E.

ANNUAL REPORT

C. E. Y. M. Minutes.

The C. E. meeting convened shortly after 4:00 p. m. in the German Methodist Church, opening with prayer by Blaine Bronner. All minutes of the preceding year were read and accepted.

Chester Hadley gave a report of the committee on arrangements for the next conference which is to be held at Newberg, Aug. 25 to 31.

The following is the report of the Publication Board:—

"The Publication Board of the C. E. Union leave to submit their first annual report.

One year's experience in the publication of our little paper "A Friendly Endeavor" has given us opportunity to try the experience. The results have not been altogether unsatisfactory. There is now a circulation of something more than 300 copies per month, going into seven states and six foreign countries.

We have finished our first year free of all debt and in a straw vote published in the last issue an overwhelming sentiment seemed to be in favor of continuance of the paper, and if the expression is any indication of the future there certainly should be little hesitation in attempting a new year.

We need a large subscription list, and as soon as conditions warrant, four more pages added, so a larger diversity of interests of the young people can be served.

We recommend that the paper be continued and that the C. E. Union of the Y. M. be asked for an appropriation of $50.00 for the use of the Board.

We feel a hearty vote of appreciation should be given those who have given so unstintingly of their time and strength to the editing, publication and posting of this paper.

H. L. Cox, Chairman.

Much appreciation was expressed of the labors and results of the Editor of "A Friendly Endeavor."

The recommendation of the Publication Board for an appropriation of $50.00 for use of the Board was accepted.

The Statistical Report was read and accepted.

The following report of the Nominating Committee was read and accepted:—

"We, the members of the Nominating Committee, recommend for Yearly Meeting Superintendent—Chester A. Hadley, Assistant Superintendent—Blaine Bronner.

Secretary and Treasurer—Hazel Keeler Superintendent for Newberg Quarter—Louise Hodgkin

Superintendent for Salem Quarter—Carl Miller
Superintendent for Portland Quarter—Lila Bentley
Superintendent for Boise Quarter—Zenos Perisho

Carol Heston, Correspondent
On behalf of the Committee,
Marie Hall, Chairman.
The meeting adjourned to meet at Newberg, Aug. 25 to 31, in Summer Conference.

ROSEDALE

Rosedale is still up and at it, even if we haven't reported for a few times.

Everybody is exceedingly busy with loganberries just now. Salem is the reddest, juiciest spot on earth just now.

The C. E. meeting on July 20th was held out doors.

J. M. Gardner and C. A. Hadley, with their families spent two days in Portland visiting.

Rosedale is the proud possessor of a fine new organ and we are planning a dedicatory service the 3rd Sunday in August, to which you are all invited.

SCOTTS MILLS

Our C. E. is still alive and very interesting, although not a large attendance. We were greatly helped by Jos. Smith's meetings; also were made glad by having Gertrude Cook with us eight days in attendance at the Jos. Smith meetings.

Mrs. J. E. Coulson, one of our faithful C. E. members, has been quite sick. She seems better at present, but not able to meet with us.

Bro. Harris gave us a fine missionary sermon last Sabbath morning. In the evening Mrs. Harris preached and we had a blessed time because of God's presence.

We are so sorry that Bro. and Sister Harris will leave us in September.

David Delano has returned from a two weeks' visit at Rockaway beach. He reports a good time.

BOISE

The attendance at our Christian Endeavor meetings and church services is much better than it has been. We as Endeavorers are trying to increase our attendance each month and grow in interest. There is good interest being manifested.

FOOT PATH NEAR COLLEGE CANON

Our Endeavorers are trying to memorize one good helpful hymn each month. We have learned three and find it very helpful, also a joy.

Our last social and business meeting was held at the home of Marion Warden.

On July 13, we had a very interesting lesson on Our Denominational History and Principles. At this meeting Zenos Perisho, our Quarterly Meeting Superintendent, gave us a short talk.

Our pastor, Ernest E. Taylor, was appointed Quarterly Meeting Superintendent, and has found it necessary to change pulpits with two of the pastors in the Quarterly Meeting. July 6 Charles Whitlock, of Greanleaf, preached for us. We enjoyed very much his messages on "Therefor let us not sleep as do others" and "I will come to you." July 13 Jesse Miles visited our meeting and preached on the "Second coming of Our Lord." We were glad to have Bro. Miles with us. July 20, Will E. Jones, of Valley Mound, brought the messages, "Opportunity," Gal. 6:10, and "The Faithfulness of God to those who will be true to Him." These were very inspiring messages.

SPRINGBROOK.

July 6th, after the regular morning service, Olive Ramsey, one of our most faithful members, and Frank Fisher, of Caldwell, Idaho, were united in marriage. The new couple intend to take up pastoral work near Spokane.

Stella Hubbard, our C. E. President, is attending Normal School at Monmouth.

We, as a community, have been very busy with blackcap harvesting, but we are through with the rush now.

Several young people from Portland and elsewhere, who have been picking berries here, have attended our society meetings and are an inspiration and help to us.

We need your prayers.

"The power of the pulpit is determined to a large degree by the ear of the pew. Does your pew have ears?"

PORTLAND SECOND CHURCH

The C. E. held their monthly business meeting and social Friday, July 11, at the home of the Tamplin's. The meeting began with a goodly number present, and they kept coming until there were about 30 present, when refreshments were served. Several items of interest were discussed and a good degree of interest shown. One special action taken was to pledge their support to the paper, "A Friendly Endeavor," published by the Y. M. C. E. Union and to give the money usually pledged to the city union each year to the support of the paper. They also voted to raise money to buy new song books for the church. Martha Isler

How much have you prayed for the Conference?

We hope that everyone who is privileged to attend the Holiness Camp Meeting at Portland will carry a few of the "splashings" over to the Conference.

Please note carefully the announcements in this issue concerning the Conference.

We especially urge you to attend to your registration. Send all mail to Mr.
Floyd Perisho, Newberg, Oregon.

A record has been broken. Someone who signs himself "a lonely friend" is so comforted and blessed by the monthly appearance of A Friendly Endeavor, that he sends money for TWO YEARS subscription. This "lonely friend" is in California, and his home formerly was Rex, Oregon.

The subscriptions and renewals are coming in a few at a time. Keep in mind that we need 400 subscriptions. At present we have 57 new subscriptions and renewals.

NEW FACES IN OLD PLACES.

Everything changes in this world—even our pastors. We are announcing a few of these. Mary Hornady Pressnall, of Marion, has had a regular old-fashioned concern to go to Woodland, Idaho, and if not already there will soon begin work there. Elwood Hodson, formerly of Chehalem Center, has gone to Cloverdale School District near Turner, as pastor. This work was, until recently, in charge of Chester Hadley, of Rosedale.
Calva Martin leaves Quilcene and goes to Chehalem Center, and J. Sanger Fox assumes responsibilities at Quilcene. It's like playing checkers isn't it? Well our prayers go with each of these as they take up their work. God bless them every one.

"Jesus is the Way." Have you invited anyone to walk in it?

VOTES STILL COMING IN.

Dear Editor:

Just received the May issue of the "Friendly Endeavor" and note with interest your query; "What Shall be done with a Friendly Endeavor, now it has one candle in its birthday cake?" I cannot bring a society vote but feel I want to voice a sentiment.

The Lord has blessed this paper the past year, and I say "A Friendly Endeavor" should see so many more anniversaries that it will take "cakes" and not "cake" to hold the candles. The price?
It would be cheap at one dollar per year.
We get it for less than half price. I wonder if "A Friendly Endeavor" has been a greater blessing to myself than to those at home? Perhaps distance lends enchantment. But I am sure I would consider it worth as much tho I were at home. It brings us together. Societies will certainly be blessed by their workers reading articles as have appeared by our good Ministers of the Yearly Meeting.
Some of them I have reread several times. I believe it is one way God has chosen to further the work in Oregon Y. M. Isn't it inspiring to see the "personals" from all the Societies? Makes you feel as tho you had a personal word from all of them. And the last issue contained the name of another organization being perfected with seventeen members. How would you find out all this without the paper?

Money talks. I am sending another letter to Portland today that will result in my subscription being paid for another year, immediately.

I pray God will see fit to pour out His spirit in full measure on Oregon Y. M.
this year, at least a double portion of last year's blessing which I feel has been so wonderful.

Sincerely,
J. Emil Swanson, France

I WILL—BUT I WON'T.

"I'll go where you want me to go, dear
Lord,
But don't ask me to sing in the choir,
For then, although I have promised, dear
Lord,
I'm afraid to become a liar.

I'll go where you want me to go, dear
Lord,
Over mountain, or plain or sea,
But don't ask me to teach a Sunday-School class,
For that is unpleasant to me.

I'll go where you want me to go, dear
Lord,
But I'm not much use anywhere,
So if you don't mind, if you please, dear
Lord
I'd rather just sit in this chair."

PORTLAND SECOND CHURCH

and Bertha Barker were appointed leaders to divide the society into equal numbers and enter into a friendly contest to raise the money. The losing side is to entertain the winning side some evening by singing the new songs in the new song book.

The reports of the Lookout Committee,
Missionary Committee, and the Flower Committee, were especially good, showing that the committees were hard at work.

After the business meeting a pleasant hour was spent in games and singing.
The society was especially glad to have Edward Smith with them again; also an old Endeavorer of past years in the person of Olive Ramsey, now Mrs. Frank Fisher, and her husband, who were visiting their sister, Mrs. Tamplin. Refreshments were served and everybody went home in a good humor.

In spite of the hot weather the C. E.'s are pushing the work ahead.

The last two C. E. prayer meetings have been spent in the study of Our Denomination, its doctrine and history.
Much interest is being shown.

Have we, the Young people of Oregon
Yearly Meeting, the experience in heart which our forefathers had,, that we would, gladly go through persecution and even death for our Heavenly Father's sake and for the principles we hold as a Quaker Church? If we haven't, why haven't we? This experience of our forefathers is for us young people of today as well. Thank God we believe we have that kind of young people in Oregon Yearly meeting today.

When the "Outlook" is dark, try the "Uplook."
