TONIGHT'S GAME

Tonight's game has more than the usual rivalry between Yamhill County's two colleges. It's the first game of the last year in "Hester Dome." It's also the first home game for new Bruin boss Sam Willard. And the contest is a reunion of sorts between GFC's Tom Hewitt and Linfield's Mark Wickman, who played together last summer on the same Ventures for Victory team touring South America.

The Bruins and the Wildcats both bring 1-1 marks into the contest with splits in their games in the NAIA District 2 Tip-Off openers. Linfield defeated Eastern Oregon then lost 99-81 to Northwest Nazarene, while the Bruins were stopped in double overtime by Lewis and Clark College then conquered Oregon College of Education 86-80 Saturday night. In their 13 meetings since initiating competition five years ago, the Bruins have an 8-5 advantage, including the two games last season that could not have been closer. The Bruins topped the Wildcats in the first contest, 123-116 in a four-overtime affair, then were edged 89-87 at the buzzer here in Hester Gym.

After two contests Dave Adrian is the scoring leader with an 18.0 average, followed by Gary Chenuault with 14, Hewitt with 13.5, Tim Hardie with 12, and Paul Cozens at 10.5. Cozens also is the rebound leader with 26. Hewitt is tops in assists with 12.

WELCOME ALUMNI AND FRIENDS

George Fox College alumni and friends are invited to participate in the after-game receptions held after each home ball game. The informal times of meeting friends and classmates around free punch and refreshments are held in Alumni Lounge in Minthorn Hall just south of Hester Gym. You're invited after each game to join in the sharing.
