YEARLY MEETING GLEANINGS.

Elizabeth Ward

The sessions of the Yearly Meeting, from the opening meeting of ministry and oversight to the closing Evangelistic service, were blessed by the conscious presence of Christ, the great head of the Church, as we waited upon Him and sought the leading and direction of the Holy Spirit.

We were gratified with the presence of a goodly number of visiting ministers and missionaries, with minutes from respective Yearly Meetings, including Frederick B. Sainty, of London, England; Scott T. Clark, of Haviland, Kansas; R. Esther Smith, Superintendent of the Central America Mission at Chiquimula; Evangeline Reames, of Columbus, Ohio, and Gervas A. Carey, from Seattle, Washington. These Friends were acceptably in our midst bringing us messages of love in the Gospel, and greetings from their respective Yearly Meetings and Mission Fields.

Walter C. Woodward, from Indiana Yearly Meeting, and John Henry Douglas and sister, from California Yearly Meeting, were introduced and welcomed. Expressions of interest were manifest as epistles were read from various Yearly Meetings; our hearts were made to rejoice as we noted with interest the Evangelistic tone of many, and their zeal to carry the message of the Cross to the world. We, too, wish to share with them their joy of service.

Our Departmental reports brought profit and blessing to the entire meeting. The subject of Christian Stewardship was presented in an able address as a "vital part of the Gospel." The Bible teaching of giving under five heads: 1. Tithes; 2. According to means; 3. Beyond their Power; 4. Half of his goods; 5. All her living. The Literature address emphasized the knowledge of the Word as the only anchor for our lives and the necessity of the child becoming acquainted with the Word of God. The Bible School address presented the "Power of the Word" in its sufficiency for the salvation of the soul, and its absolute authority. Acquaintance with the Author dispels all doubt concerning the Word, and because of its power no apologies are needed for the Word. The presentation of the Temperance work aroused the Yearly Meeting to a high pitch of interest and enthusiasm. The Meeting adopted a proposal to send a message of commendation to Premier McKenzie King, of Canada, because of the action of that country in outlawing the exportation of liquor to the United States. An official protest was lodged against the cigarette advertising in periodicals, billboards and by radio. A strong protest was lodged against the recent publicity given to an article calling on the citizens of the United States to violate the 18th Amendment.

A good amount of work was done by the Peace Department and arrangements have been made to send out a Caravan of young ladies to give addresses again this summer. Their work was productive of much good last year.

Gratifying reports were read, both from Pacific College and Greenleaf Academy. The College reported the largest Freshman class in its history, with prospects for a larger one next year. The Departments of Education and Social Service gave other interesting information in their reports.

Many of us feel that advanced steps have been taken this year which will bring great spiritual blessing and ingatherings for the Kingdom of God, both at home and abroad. The Yearly Meeting unanimously united in calling Chester A. Hadley to fill a long felt need as Yearly Meeting Superintendent. Our Missionary Board aroused a great deal of interest in presenting a challenging program. After prayerful consideration of the subject, a new Mission field was adopted in Bolivia, South America. Carrol and Doris Tamplin, members of the Yearly Meeting, who have spent four years in the Guatemala, Central America, mission, of California Yearly Meeting, were called to take the work on that field as our first Missionaries to be sent out from the home land to that place.

Our Christian Endeavorers have been blessed in their work during the year. Two Bible Conferences are being planned for the summer. They have enthusiastically accepted the Missionary challenge of the Yearly Meeting and have undertaken to raise $300.00 for the year toward the support of Juan and Tomasa Allyon, native workers.

The Evangelistic tone of the Yearly Meeting was splendid throughout. Scott T. Clark, of Kansas, brought inspiring and forceful messages each evening, which resulted in conviction and a goodly number found their way to an altar of prayer. The inspirational messages of Gervas A. Carey were times of feeding upon the Word of God. One outstanding message will be remembered by many as exceedingly profitable, on "Hope's Confirmation." Romans 5:5. 1. Hope's confirmation rests upon an objective basis, Christ. 2. Hope's confirmation is finally subjective. The love of God shed abroad in our hearts. The Holy Spirit bears witness with our spirits. This is the mystical element of Christian life and experience. It is a mistake to question whether Christianity is a life or a doctrine—it is both. It must be the eternal truths of God received; a hope implanted; an objective revelation vitalized and confirmed by the Holy Spirit. Quakerism, according to the life and teachings of George Fox, is Evangelical Mysticism. The highway has ditches on either side; on one a lifeless orthodoxy where the letter alone is maintained apart from the life; on the other side a philosophical mysticism which is either non-Christian or anti-Christian. History of Friends finds its continued life and power along the middle of the highway, while some have approached the edge and gone into the ditch on either side.

The Yearly Meeting was saddened this year by the absence of Marguerite P. Elliott, Recording Clerk for 25 years, due to the sickness and death of her husband, Frank A. Elliott.

Thanking God for His presence and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, with hearts inspired and encouraged, we go forth to the fields that are "already white unto harvest," trusting Him for greater achievements for the Kingdom of God during the coming year.

All eats are fine today, all eats are fine—but what if you don't get any? $5.00 insures you the best of meals for a week at Twin Rocks.

Twin Rocks awaits your coming, July 29th-August 3rd.

THE MISSIONARY CHALLENGE.

"The fields are white unto harvest." Shall we as Christian Endeavorers garner some of the ripened sheaves in foreign lands? This year we have one spot on the globe which we can call ours and for which we are responsible. The Yearly Meeting has decided to support a mission in Bolivia which will belong to Oregon Yearly Meeting. A small mission is already in existence, which was started by Juan and Tomasa Allyon, who were trained in Guatamala mission. There is already a congregation of about 70 people, a small Bible Training School and other work there. Carroll and Doris Tamplin will go as our first missionaries from the homeland.

Juan and Tomasa Allyon, with their three children, are in Bolivia now carrying on the work. They are splendid workers. Juan reads, writes and speaks Spanish, English and the Ayamara dialect of the Indians of La Paz, Bolivia. He is wise in planning work and faithful in performing his tasks, as shown by the success of the little mission thus far. The great need of the field was for more workers and support from a large body of Christian people at home. This task Oregon Yearly Meeting has undertaken.

Would not it be fine if the Christian Endeavorers, Seniors, Intermediates and Juniors could have a part in supporting Juan and Tomasa in Bolivia? Then we could send our money and pray for them and feel they are preaching and working for us in that needy field. You will not be disappointed in your wish, for at the business meeting of the Christian Endeavor at Yearly Meeting it was decided to adopt Juan and Tomasa as our native workers and pay $25 per month toward their support. Each society will keep their missionary money separate from all other money and send it to Milo Ross, Treasurer, who will forward it to the Yearly Meeting Treasurer. It will need to be sent in month by month so we can pay promptly. It has been the hope of the Endeavorers for many years to have just such a program of work as we have this year. Let us arise and meet the challenge of spreading the gospel in Bolivia where there are so many needy, hungry hearts waiting for the gospel. Pray for Juan and Tomasa Allyon and then give to their support through the Christian Endeavor Society!

GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT.

The Christian Endeavorers are glad to announce that Chester Hadley, the Yearly Meeting Evangelistic Superintendent, will also be the General Superintendent of Christian Endeavor. Each society will be happy to have him visit them in any problems they have. Chester Hadley has done much for the young people of Oregon Yearly Meeting and he has cheerfully consented to do more. Our thanks goes to him for the past and we pledge our loyalty and support for the future, and pray God's blessing upon his as he continues to help us in our lives, both as a group and as individuals.

Send your $5.00 quick so the mails won't be crowded the LAST DAY, July 15th.

REPORT OF BUSINESS MEETING.

At the semi-annual business meeting of the Christian Endeavor of Oregon Yearly Meeting, held Saturday afternoon, June 14th, several important matters were decided.

The change of the Constitution of the organization and the missionary program will be found elsewhere in this paper.

It was decided to use the same program of work on the charts, changing the missionary part of it to suit the present work. Everyone now knows what it means when he hears the word "chart" mentioned; so the work on the charts can go forward with bigger and better success.

Every Christian Endeavorer should be rejoicing, for it was unanimously approved that Chester Hadley be made Christian Endeavor Superintendent of Oregon Yearly Meeting. Let everyone pray for this new opportunity.

Please take notice! Since it is hard to get an accurate statistical report of the Christian Endeavor Societies every year, a plan of counting members was adopted. Those who are not at home for part of the year, at school, for instance, might be put on an "absent active" membership list, but in making any report the member is counted where his church membership is and not where he is temporarily attending Christian Endeavor.

The report of the nominating committee was read as follows and accepted:

President, Walter Lee; Vice-President, Laura Cammack; Secretary, Elizabeth Ott; Treasurer, Milo Ross; Quarterly Meeting Superintendents: Portland, Mildred Hadley; Salem, Margaret Coulson; Tacoma, Clara Berg; Boise Valley, Carol Heston; Newberg, La Verne Hutchens.

Let each one pray for the guidance of the Lord in all that the Christian Endeavor stands for and in all of its activities for the coming year.

Christian Endeavor Topics.

July 13th, 1930.

Topic—Worth While Hobbies. Psalms 8:3-9.

In this case we are not to understand hobby to mean the thing we are most vitally interested in. We would not want to call the salvation of souls a hobby in the sense this topic suggests. What we have in mind in this instance is a profitable relaxation from routine duty. Something that is taken up on the side to relieve from strain and to add variety. It can be very beneficial. To what extent would it have to be carried to become a detriment? A sin?

I knew a girl who had a hobby collecting pitchers. She had dozens of them of all descriptions. Beautiful China and glassware from home and abroad. It gave her an interesting diversion and an incentive to study China, pottery, hand decorating and art. Some may choose music in various forms, others might prefer poetry, golf, fishing, geology, autographs, stamps, photography, old books, antiques, pets, birds and fancy work.

I think what we need to get out of this lesson are the benefits and the dangers of hobbies.

There should be several expressions from different members to bring out both thoughts.

July 20th, 1930.

Topic—Some Good Summer Reading. Ecclesiastes 12:11, 12; I. Timothy 4:12-13.

For Bible Study—

Books that build. The lesson in Ecclesiastes in history. I. Cor. 10:1-12. Books with messages. Dan. 6:10-24. Books of biography. John 21:24, 25. Books worth assimilating. Ezek. 2:6-10

There should be a healthful variety in the summer reading, everything from fiction to science. Books of history are worth-while because they contain the experience of others. Essays are valuable because they give us the views of thinkers. Humorous books are a real benefit. Books that inspire, that strengthen character, that make us think are the worth-while companions for the summer reader. We should be as careful about what not to read as we are what to read. Beware of the cheap, frothy literature that floods the news stands but which is far worse than nothing. Christians should support religious magazines. The more subscribers they have the better material will they be able to print.

You might even take a peek and see if your society is paid up on the Friendly Endeavor. If not, get to work.

July 27th, 1930.

Topic—Missions in Changing China. II. Chronicles 15:1-7.

God uses all human agencies to change China and open the heart to the word. Commerce and politics, which mean contact with the outside world, are working change.

The influence of Christ steals into the minds of a people long before they publicly confess Him. This is happening in China, as witness the improved condition of women.

Christ works through His people. His best contact with China is through consecrated missionaries.

Even world events may help to change China. The return of the Boxer indemnity by America, and the use of the money to educate Chinese, have already worked great changes.

But China needs Jesus. Smokestacks in Peking do not mean that souls have found God. Street cars in Honan do not indicate that salvation has reached the people. Steel mills, mines, shipping, trade, railroads—all immense changes, but what we want to see is the heart of China brought to a saving knowledge of Christ.

August 3rd, 1930.

Topic—Chances to serve Christ in summer. John 6:1-14.

Offer your services to the Sunday School superintendent for substituting while the teachers are away on vacations. He will appreciate it, and it will be a blessing to you.

Help in the vacation Bible schools. It is an opportunity to meet children

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

This year promises to be one of the greatest in the history of Christian Endeavor. We now have a General Superintendent, Chester Hadley, who will be of great help to the societies when he visits them. We have a Junior-Intermediate Superintendent in the person of the Vice-President, to promote the interests of those societies throughout the Yearly Meeting. We have a challenging missionary program which will help develop our prayer life and help us to know the pleasure of giving to help win souls in Bolivia.

Let us make this year one of faithful work and prayer and then God's rich blessing will be upon us.

Rose Allen was elected Missionary Superintendent. Her duties will be to keep in touch with our missionaries in Bolivia and send news of them and their work to the paper and to each society.

Watch the next papers for more news of Bolivia. R. Esther Smith will write some articles for us. She has been on the field and can tell us much that we want to know.

Hurrah for South Salem! Another society paid up on the quota!

Remember all charts are to be in at Conference.

Are you a member of the Dining Club yet? Get your $5 in QUICK for it is almost the 15th of July.

LAST CALL FOR CHARTS.

Every muscle tense, eyes straight ahead, forward angle of body and head thrown back—yes, a racer ready to snap the tape at the finish line!

Endeavorers, onward, forward for this last great effort on the charts! Begin counting minutes and seconds with attainment of goals in view! Now is the time for that last big rally that brings the winter's work to a satisfying consummation.

Be sure to bring your chart to Conference, no matter how many or how few the seals are. We want every society represented by a chart on August 2nd at our big business meeting at Twin Rocks.

We are counting on you to do your best this last month!

PROSPECTING.

One, two, three, four, five, six, seven,seventeen; yes, everyone is here—now to begin.

What are you to say? Talk about Twin Rocks! Don't you know that is what we travelled fifty-two miles for?

Probably if the proverbial little bird had been around Kelso on Monday evening, June 23rd, he might have heard just such remarks as the above.

No rally would have been complete without Chester Hadley laying the foundation with the history of the Conference. Well then, might such bits of "pep" appear as "How Do You Do, Chester Hadley, How Do You Do." Emil Swanson's "bit" of chalk and a big piece of paper told many "Tales" about Twin Rocks from the ocean into the grounds. Highlights of this year's program by Helen Cammack then challenged the sands for interest in spite of the glorious sunset pictured a minute before. To be able to give a reason for anything is a fine fault. Allen Hadley certainly knew why he liked to go to Conference and no doubt but that some Kelso Endeavorers will agree with him after August 3rd. Milo Ross' word picture of the sports, from winning the races to swimming the lake, and, yes, even deep sea fishing made each of us wish that we were either lean and lank or salt water sailors so we might bring home some of the prizes. $$$$ then claimed attention for a time. We will venture to say that there will be at least one club of ten in the dining room this year. Father and Mother Cope each gave words of welcome to new and old "Conferenceites" alike. A trio composed of Doris Gardner, Grace and Elizabeth Hadley sang the Conference song of 1929 and at the close of the service the entire group joined in two old Conference favorites.

As we left for the return trip to Portland, the last words we heard were, "See you at Twin Rocks." S. O. S.

July 15th is nearly here! Have you sent your $5 to Chester Hadley so you can eat for that price at the Dining Hall this year? Another day or two will be too late. ACT NOW! Help make the 100, so the plan will succeed. It is to your advantage to be prompt. Delay means danger. The money must be on hand to get cash prices.

Chester Hadley's address is 229 E. Thirty-fifth Street, Portland, Oregon. Don't forget!

$5.00 lost, strayed or stolen—send to Chester Hadley before July 15th.

who do not go to Sunday School, and you may have a chance to invite them.

Help the church with its heavy responsibilities of providing recreation for the young people. Commercialized recreation has made it imperative that the Church provide clean and healthful play for its young people. Let us give them the best, and make the recreation church-centered. At present it is movie centered.

Serve Christ in the summer by keeping your own spiritual condition away above par. Pray much, study the Bible and keep interested in eternal things. Then when the fall work opens up you are ready for it, and will not need a revival meeting to get you in condition. Last, but not least, Go to Conference.

Society Notes

BOISE

March 25th the Christian Endeavor topic was a missionary lesson. Rose Koch, chairman of the Missionary Committee, led the meeting. The meeting was in the basement of the church and the chairs were arranged in a semi-circle around a camp fire. The meeting was very interesting.

June 1st La Veta Osborn led the meeting. The chairs were arranged in the shape of a question mark and the topics were written on paper cut in the shape of a question mark.

June 10th the Sunday School picnic was held. The children were taken to the park about 4:00 o'clock, with the teachers. The older people came after work hours and lunch was served about 6:30 o'clock.

SCOTTS MILLS

The May Christian Endeavor business meeting and social was held at the home of E. W. Coulson. Our social committee always has something interesting planned.

On Sunday evening, June 8th, Rev. Wm. Allen preached the Baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class of Scotts Mills High School.

Ruth Kellogg and Newton Allen are at home, having attended the Portland Bible Institute the past year. Newton was in the graduating class.

As most of our people attended Yearly Meeting on Sunday, all services but Sunday School were dismissed that day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brougher, in company with Dr. and Mrs. John C. Brougher, motored to Seattle to meet Miss Lila Brougher, who is returning from her work in Sitka, for a two months' vacation. They went on to Everett, Washington, to visit J. Harvey Brougher, before returning home.

GREENLEAF

Miss Evangeline Reems, Field Secretary of the Friends Rescue Home, Columbus, Ohio, visited in the community and gave us some very interesting messages.

The monthly business meeting and social was held at the T. L. Williams home June 6th.

The members of Mrs. Choates' Sunday School class gave a Travel Party in her honor at the F. D. Roberts home June 6th. The different members of the class came in costumes representing the different nationalities, each presenting their passports at the door. Refreshments were bought from news girls who passed through the train.

We are glad to have our college friends back in our Endeavor again, among them Margaret Jackson, from Penn College; Ruth Myers, Evert Tuning, Howard Adams, from Portland Bible Institute; Pauline Crew, Onen Winslow, Lillian Barnes, Ralph Choate, Generva Street, from Pacific College.

Lolita Hinshaw, from Los Angeles Bible Institute, is expected home by June 22nd.

Ruth Crozier and Dilla Tucker, who are planning on going to Europe to attend the World's Christian Endeavor Convention, to be held in Berlin, will be accompanied by the Choates and Charles Beals as far as Indiana.

We will greatly miss Olive M. Terrill, who goes to Los Angeles Bible Institute next year to prepare for gospel work.

The Christian Endeavorers, of Caldwell District, are going to have a rally here June 27th. We are going to have a wienie roast and a good social time together.

PIEDMONT

We were privileged to have with us E. Arthur Lewis in a three weeks revival campaign. His stirring messages and songs were a challenge to each one of us to do our utmost in winning others for Christ. We feel that definite work has been done in our midst, for which we thank God.

Several of our members have recently graduated. They are Marjorie Burns and Johanna Eizema, Girls' Polytechnic School; Helen Ritter and Leone Burns, Jefferson High School; Mildred Merz, Oregon Normal. Leone Burns received a scholarship to Linfield.

Mr. and Mrs. James Raymond and family are spending a few weeks at Jennings Lodge.

Mr. Guy Rinehart is visiting relatives in Idaho.

On June 16th R. Esther Smith showed pictures of Central and South America. Our hearts rejoiced as we heard what is being accomplished in that field.

FIRST FRIENDS OF PORTLAND

R. Esther Smith gave us her illustrated message on the work in Central and South America one evening. Evangeline Reems preached for us one Sunday morning, telling something of her work in the Girls' Rescue Home at Columbus, Ohio, of which she is the founder. Wallace Gill also preached for us one Sunday morning. The Lord richly blessed us together at each service.

We are very sorry to lose our pastor to the Yearly Meeting and feel we will not be able to get along without him. Our loss is surely the Yearly Meeting's gain.

Myrna James and Harris Higgins announced their engagement at a birthday supper in honor of Glenna and Richard Neiland one evening this past month. We wish them every happiness.

Frank Cole and Genevieve Badley were married at a lovely church wedding the evening of June 17th. A reception was held in the basement of the church following the ceremony. Genevieve and Frank both graduated from Pacific College this year. May the Lord bless them and make their lives a blessing wherever they go.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmor Hall are visiting here for a few months this summer. Mr. Hall's brother and wife and mother-in-law, from Alliance, Ohio, are here with them. We are glad to welcome them back even for a short time.

Professor Cowen entertained the members of the choir in his home for a social evening the last Friday in the month.

Gerald Morrison and his wife were home for a short visit over one weekend. We are glad Mrs. Morrison, Senior, is able to be out some again.

The Sunday School observed Fathers' Day with a short program during the opening exercises the 8th of June. Prizes were awarded the heaviest, the thinnest, the youngest and the oldest father. Asbury Haworth, Eben Snow, Max Berg and Mark Ellis won the prizes in order named.

SECOND FRIENDS

We have had the privilege of having R. Esther Smith, of Guatemala, with us for two services recently. On the morning of June 1, she preached for us, a stirring missionary message, and the following evening showed her pictures of Central and South America.

On the evening of June 1, Rev. Wallace E. Gill, of Bellingham, Washington, preached for us. Our pastor and his family have known Wallace for almost thirty years, so that they were especially glad to have him with us.

On Monday evening, June 9th, and again on Sunday evening, June 15th, Evangeline Reems, for 25 years superintendent of the Friends Rescue Home in Columbus, Ohio, was with us and told of her work. It was especially interesting to us because the Friends Rescue Home was organized in the home of our pastor, F. J. Cope, when he was pastor of Highland Avenue Meeting in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. William Lemke, a student of Portland Bible Institute, preached on Sunday morning, June 15th, while the pastor was at Yearly Meeting.

The Berean Bible Classes met with Mrs. Williams on June 18th for their business meeting and social.

Mrs. Lydia Swanson had the misfortune to fall a few days ago. She suffered a fractured upper arm and dislocated shoulder, so that she will be kept in for some time. We sympathize with her and hope for a speedy recovery.

At our last Monthly Meeting nine persons were received into membership with us. We are thankful for each one.

If the attendance at our prayer meetings continues to increase, we shall soon have to move into the main room of the church. On June 19th we had 79 present and several who usually attend were kept at home by illness.

The Christian Endeavor business meeting and social was held at the home of Dell Lamb on Friday evening, June 20th. Games were played and ice-cream and cake were served for refreshments.

On June 21st occurred the marriage of Charles A. Daniels and Genevieve L. Burd at the home of the pastor, F. J. Cope. Genevieve has been a member of our Sunday School for several years.

TWIN ROCKS PROGRAM.

6:45—Rising Bell. (Yawnin' in the Mornin').

7:15—Breakfast (Biscuits are fine today).

8:40-9:20—Classes.

Missions—Carroll and Doris Tamplin (They have been in Central America and will have wonderful things to tell you. They have belonged to the Conference a long time, in fact, were at the first one. Probably, if you could see some of the pictures of 1918 Conference you would learn some interesting things about them).

Teachings of Jesus—Charles Haworth (He is the pastor at South Salem and has been in Cuba. He will have some interesting things to tell you).

9:25-10:15—Classes.

Essentials of Character—Edward Mott (He has some splendid things to tell his class which will be practical. He is sincerely interested in each one developing a strong character and his class will be inspirational, giving a real challenge to life, such as young people like to face).

Prophecy—Edgar Sims (This is a subject that interests every young person and the teacher knows much about it, so you will not be disappointed in any way).

Quaker Heroes (Intermediate)—Marjorie Votaw (This will be an intensely interesting class and you know that Marjorie can tell exciting stories so you can nearly feel that you are the one having the experience. Well, she has some true stories to tell you about some young people in the Quaker Church a long time ago).

Children's Meetings—Ethol George (Every Junior will want to be on hand this year for this meeting. Mrs. George has done this kind of work for many years and knows how to do it just right so you will have a good time. This is the first time she has been able to do this for the Conference for many years).

10:10-11:10—Inspirational Hour (This will be a surprise package and you will need to be there to know just what is coming. On Saturday there will be the business meeting).

11:15-12:10—William Wright (He knows how to wave the baton and get the music. You be there and see if he does not give you a good time).

12:15—Dinner, Chester and Grace Hadley (What's the matter with the Hadleys? They're all right! All eats are Always fine!).

1:30-5:00—Recreation, Walter and Gladys Cook (Water sports, bathing, ball, hiking, deep-sea fishing, etc., etc. they will have ready for you. They know how to give a person a good time so give them a chance at you).

5:30—Supper (Everybody happy? Yea, bo! as soon as I get something to eat, I'm as hungry as a bear).

7:30—Evangelistic Services, Samuel Mosher, Evangelistic Superintendent of Ohio Yearly Meeting (You will like Mr. Mosher, for a little bird flew across the mountains and told us that he smiled so pleasantly and liked young people so much himself that everybody would love him).

Twin Rocks Conference—July 29th-August 3rd.

Aunt Cora's Column

PLAY FAIR TO YOURSELF.

"So you lost the match this morning," Betty said as Bob flung himself wearily on the grass beside her. "What was the matter, Bob; you didn't play as good as usual? I was terribly disappointed in you."

"I played all right," Bob defended himself. "But the sun was in my eyes and I couldn't see very well. Another thing, Tom Greene is sore at me ever since I won over him at Greensborough the other day and I know he didn't referee fair. Jim told me the ball was out when he called it in twice. I'm never going to have him referee when I play again."

"I don't think I would say that," Betty protested. "You know Jim would like to make trouble between you and Tom, and anyway Tom isn't the sort to hold a grudge even if he had one, and I don't think he has."

"That's right, stick up for Tom Greene against your own brother," Bob said sarcastically. "I suppose you're glad I was beaten this morning."

"Why, what is the matter, Bob?" Aunt Cora said gaily. "You look like a thunder cloud this lovely summer morning. Surely, the loss of a mere game wouldn't give you a face like that."

As Bob said nothing but continued to glower at his tennis racket, Betty spoke up, "Just because I'm trying to tell him he played rotten this morning, he gets angry and tries to lay the blame on someone else."

"Come now, Bob," Aunt Cora said laughingly, "Be a good sport and own up that you were off key this morning. Haven't I heard you say yourself that if there was anything you hated it was a poor sport?"

Bob looked up sheepishly. "It is hard to own up you're licked, isn't it? I know Phil is a better player than I am, but it's hard to say so."

"It's a great game, this trying to fool ourselves and other people," Aunt Cora said. "But mostly we don't succeed in doing either. If you don't mind another example, Betty, I'll take you. Remember the box of candy Uncle Roger gave you the other night? I heard you say first that you weren't going to touch it until the next day. Then, you said, 'I'll just take one little piece. But that tasted so good, you tried another, only one more mind you, and when I looked in the box after you had gone to bed, it was half gone.'"

Betty joined in the laugh. "You are right, Aunt Cora," she said. "I thought about after I had gone to bed."

"But that is not the worst," Aunt Cora went on. "I'm afraid we try to fool the Lord the same way too often. Haven't you ever excused yourself for not testifying because someone else didn't? Or haven't you jumped into bed without praying because you were too tired? Surely, you promised yourself, it will never happen again. And your Bible reading; do you ever think, one day won't hurt to miss?"

"It's all too true," Bob sighed. "If we would be honest with ourselves!"

"If we only would," Aunt Cora echoed. "And with the Lord's help, we can be."

CHANGES IN THE CONSTITUTION.

Societies Notice! These changes were presented at the business meeting at Yearly Meeting and now are presented to you. Will each president read these to your society, vote upon them and report the vote to Elizabeth Ott, Secretary, 1086 East Salmon Street, Portland, Oregon? This method of amending the Constitution was provided in order that each society would have a voice in the business whether they had a representative at Yearly Meeting or not. Please be prompt!

In order that it be possible to have a Junior-Intermediate Superintendent, the Executive Committee recommends that the Constitution read thus in Article 6, Section 1 regarding the Vice-President: "The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in his absence, shall generally assist the President, and shall hold the office of Junior-Intermediate Superintendent of Christian Endeavor."

The Executive Committee also recommends the following changes in order to adequately care for the finances and make provision for the Yearly Meeting Evangelistic Superintendent this year to be also the Superintendent of Christian Endeavor: That the office of Secretary-Treasurer be made into two offices and that the paragraphs of the Constitution regarding those offices read as follows: "Secretary—The Secretary shall record the minutes of the Executive Committee and regular business meetings of the Union; shall notify all officers of their appointment; shall compile the annual statistical report of the Christian Endeavor for the Yearly Meeting Minutes; and shall present a summary of the activities of the Executive Committee to the semi-annual Christian Endeavor business meeting held at Yearly Meeting."

Treasurer—The Treasurer shall keep all money belonging to the Union and pay out only such sums as are directed by the President, by order of the Executive Committee; and shall make a semi-annual report of the finances, one at the Yearly Meeting, and one through the medium of The Friendly Endeavor.

That in the paragraph regarding Quarterly Meeting Superintendents, the phrase "Yearly Meeting Superintendent of Christian Endeavor" be changed to read "Yearly Meeting President of Christian Endeavor."

That the word Secretary-Treasurer be divided into the two words "Secretary and Treasurer" wherever it appears in the Constitution, namely in Article 5, Section 1; Article 6, Section 1 and Article 7.

That in Article 5, Section 1, the words "who shall be the Yearly Meeting Superintendent of C. E." be stricken out.

These provisions in regard to the Yearly Meeting Superintendent are desired because the president is also Superintendent as it now stands, and the Union desires this year to have a General Superintendent besides the President.

Please consider these and send your vote to the Secretary immediately.

THAT'S WHERE THE CONFERENCE IS.

Out where the Twin Rocks are silently standing.

Out where the lake lies with many a landing;

That's where the Conference is.

Out where the sands gleam a little brighter,

Where waves that roll are a wee-bit whiter;

Where the hearts of all are a trifle lighter.

That's where the Conference is.

Out where a cool breeze is always blowing,

Out where one meets friends who are worth knowing;

That's where the Conference is.

There's lots of studying and lots of playing;

You hear things said that are worth the saying;

And everyone feels like forever staying,

Out where the Conference is.

Twin Rocks beach is just a little different than any other beach to the Christian Endeavorers. What makes it so? It has sand, logs and whitecaps like other beaches. Why do we love it so? You know how glad you are to get home after being away several months. Just so each Endeavorer feels when he reaches Twin Rocks. Our Christian Endeavor Home is there. Does not the sand gleam brighter and waves roll whiter? It would seem so to us who have played with friends at Conference, have learned new things from the Bible together, found Jesus as our Savior, or felt his call for our life service as we kneeled on some spot at our Endeavor Home. Truly the hearts of all do seem lighter there as we work and play with other young people and meet the friends worth knowing. Such vacations as Twin Rocks offers are rare in the world and yet we are offered them at such a cheap cost!

Let not one of us miss the Conference this year, for it is a real Home-Coming week when we can meet with all our friends and enjoy life together for a week! No home is complete if part of the members are absent. Just so the Conference Home will not be complete unless YOU are there!

This is the place young Friends love best.
