Friendly Exchange Tells of Kansas C. E. Conference

By Eli S. Wheeler, Kansas City Mo.

If you started from Elmdale, Kansas, and traveled around the world five times, then went to Portland, Oregon to visit Chester Hadley, guest speaker for the Conference, and returned to Elmdale, you would still have 1,000 miles to go before you would have covered as many miles as have been traveled by those in attendance at the 1936 Summer Conference of Kansas Yearly Meeting Christian Endeavorers which was in session from July 29 to August 2 at Camp Wood. In other words, over 130,000 miles were covered in order to attend Camp Wood this year.

The total number registered was 280. In addition, a number drove in for one or more services from Wichita, Emporia, and other points. One evening the Epworth League from Strong City visited us.

Chester Hadley, Superintendent of Oregon Yearly Meeting and father of the Christian Endeavorers there, was guest speaker. From a wealth of personal experience and a tender understanding of human nature, he has given very inspirational messages at the expository hour and the evening evangelistic service. Mrs. Hadley led the group in a time of quiet, restful worship and meditation during the quiet hour each morning.

The seven classes covered almost every phase of a young Christian's life. R. S. Nance gave an enthusiastic presentation of Christian Endeavor problems. Some have said following these sessions, "He makes you feel like you want to go home and work more than ever in C. E.!" "The Bible in Devotion and Life" was ably presented by Gervas Carey, Dean of the Bible Department at Friends University. Dean W. A. Young also of the Friends taught that subject which is nearest his heart in a class in "Christ in the Troubled World." Personal problems which must be met by young people today were faced frankly in classes taught by Fred Newkirk and Susie Shrauner, both pastors who have a sympathetic interest in young people. In talking to the girls, Mrs. Shrauner said, "Our unconscious influence is much greater than our conscious influence." Oscar Battin taught a class. We need not say that the subject was Stewardship. Professor Chas. Beals of Friends Bible College at Haviland taught a class on Christian vocation. In stressing the need of Bible training among laymen, he made this statement, "The pews make the pulpit."

Vespers were usually held by the lake where God's out-of doors emphasized the spirit of worship which was definitely present.

As usual there was a wide variety of recreational activities, which added to the physical and social benefits offered.

The two largest delegations this year were Wichita Quarterly Meeting and Haviland Quarterly Meeting, both having over 30 present. The group which traveled the farther-

Adieu Et Bonjour

With farewells also come the welcomes for the new day. Such is the case with things editorial. For some time, Milo Ross has been considering his resignation as Editor-in chief of our "FE," and his formal resignation was accepted at the semi-annual sessions of the Executive Committee at Twin Rocks in August. He has been editor for the past 25 months, and the paper has come into your homes throught that time. The "Friendly Endeavor" is now in its fifteenth year of publication. Everyone member of Oregon Yearly Meeting has made this monthly magazine, the small, become a vital part of the program of our church. Let us keep it going from month to month. We need its news, its inspiration, its devotional articles, its interesting columns for young people.

And who could be a better in-coming editor than Mildred Hadley of Portland. She has had a great deal of experience in editorial work having served for several years as editor of the "Oregon C. E. Bulletin," and on our own Lesson Helps. She will edit your October issue. Betty and James Bishop will take over the work of the Lesson Helps.

And, too, inasmuch as Mildred Raymond will be moving to Rosemere, Frederick Baker, our Yearly Meeting Secretary, has been asked to take the menial task of proof-reading, known by the dignified title of "Ass't Editor."

Mignon Macy of Scotts Mills, has accepted the task of handling society notes and feature articles. Mildred Hadley has a new plan for this work, but for the time being, at any rate, please send in all news to Mignon Macy, Scotts Mills, Oregon, by the fifteenth of each month.

Congratulations

Congratulations are in order for three of our societies. McKinley Ave., Tacoma Senior, won 1st place in the chart work last year, with 17,220 points. Star Senior was 2d and Newberg third. Fine work everyone!

Conferences Conclude Summer Season

By Milo Ross

Not having an August issue, the report of Quaker Hill Conference in Idaho may seem "old news," but of course all of us were not able to go. Lucille Hadley and Harold Roberts announced their recreation plan in keeping with the building of the new tabernacle, and the Fellers, Shakers, Peelers, and Constructors sawed a great many logs thru the week. Marita Williams finally carried off her side to victory.

The "Friendship," trusty craft that she is, has succumbed to the surgeons knife and had a new stomach and "inward parts" added. This enabled her to carry a capacity load on the moon-light excursion.

The evangelistic meetings resulted in the spiritual deepening of a good number of the young folk, according to Edward Harmon, Sup't. Coming as they did from the rich ministry of Charles Stalker at Star Camp Meeting, numbers answered the call of the Spirit to entire sanctification, and a knowledge of their life's work.

Next in order of time was Twin Rocks Conference. 351 were registered, states Esther Cammack, registrar, and well over 500 were in attendance over Sunday. With the lower meal ticket a greater percentage of campers ate at the "Club," necessitating the building of a dining hall annex. The record of the first meal had been 90, but this year on Monday evening 182 were served.

The sports idea centered around the theme of "Life Saving" and four coast guard crews made up the sides for competition. The crews answering to the names of Willapa, Umpqua, Coos Bay and Yaquina. The Wednesday afternoon get-together was featured by a pictorial history of life saving thru different periods of modern history, and the sides announced. Saturday "Beach Night" was changed to "Beach Afternoon," with the stunts coming at that time. Coos Bay won the stunt with Paul Cammack as a lighthouse and Carrol Tamplin and Edward Harmon caste in the roles of bachelor seamen. A moonlight ride on the ocean was promised for the evening, but as there was no moon, and the tide at ebb, the moon-struck people rocked on the bay instead.

The evangelistic meetings were times of marvelous victory. Real Holy Ghost conviction marked them from night to night, and over 130 were forward for help. On Thursday evening, Edward Harmon turned the meeting into a Birthday testimony period, and without so much as an altar song, up wards of 50 knelt at the altar of prayer.

Over $500.00 was raised to finish up the improvement projects.

American Lake Conference is just over and of course news is news. 75 were registered there. This is not quite as many as last year, but the changing of dates, and the lateness of the season made it impossible of any from Entiat to attend, and few from Quilcene.

est was the 14 who came over 700 miles from Friendswood Quarterly Meeting in Texas. Representatives from 14 Quarterly Meetings were registered, coming from 5 states—Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Colorado, and Texas. Among those present were 23 C. E. presidents, 14 vice-presidents and 12 secretaries and treasurers, a number of society pianists and chorists, also members of the prayer-meeting, lookout, missionary, social, music, and publicity committees. It is gratifying to know that the conference is actually reaching and helping our Endeavor leaders as well as training those who will be leaders in the future. Also it is interesting to know what sort of service Christian Endeavorers render the church, as indicated by the positions held by those in attendance at the conference. About 20 S. S. teachers were there, and a number of assistant teachers, also one S. S. Superintendent, Several S. S. and church pianists and chorists, a librarian, Monthly Meeting clerks and reading clerks, and chairmen or members of the Peace, Temperance, and C. E. Committees.

From the comments heard around the camp, there is no question but that conference was a decided blessing. One pastor who has moved into Kansas Yearly Meeting this year said, "We are certainly having a wonderful conference." Another said, "If I had known what it was, I would have made arrangements some way to have brought my wife."

Perhaps the most encouraging tribute given our conference was made by Pop Nance. He told us that the response made by this conference to his dry campaign plans two years ago was largely the thing which stimulated him to go on with it. We know the resulting vote in Kansas. He also told us that the example set by Kansas youth encouraged North Dakota in their efforts with the dry campaign there, so we can feel we have some part in that victory.

Besides the great blessings which have come to all those present, definite victories were won by a number of young people.

Surely, "The Lord hath done great things for us whereof we are glad."

CONFERENCES CONCLUDE SUMMER SEASON

Paul S. Cammack, Gordon Reece, and Richard Hendricks were chosen as sports captains, and the theme this year was "Out-Posts." Paul led the Salem Heights group, Gordon was leader for Rose Valley, and Dick captured the Vale side. Vale finally won by 3 points over Salem Heights.

Between fifteen and twenty were at the altar for help. The ministry of Joseph Reece was greatly appreciated and owned and blessed of the Spirit.

On Sunday afternoon, James Simpson, Conference manager, plead for the purchase of property and the erection of a permanent Conference Home, and $157.00 was pledged to this fine cause.

And so ends another wonderful Conference season! One minister who has been a member in many different meetings thruout America, stated recently that God has given us the finest C. E. Program of any Friends group. A pastor in a sister denomination told the writer recently that we have the best young people's program of any church in the Northwest. We humbly give all praise and glory to our Lord and for His call to the hearts and lives of young folk which have made our Conferences successful. Let us begin now to offer winter season activities for our youth which will help them to stand thruout the year. And, too, now is a good time to begin planning and praying for the Conference season next year.

PEARSONS VISIT LAKE TITICACA

Casilla 544
La Paz, Bolivia, S. A.
July 1, 1936

Dear friends:

First I want to tell you about our trip to Lake Titicaca, and then if I have time, about other things.

We got up at five o'clock on a cold and icy morning, got our things together which were mostly packed. Got four men to carry them and started for the truck about eight blocks away. There were four of us beside a native boy, Helen Cammack Julia, Donny and I. We were lucky to get seats in the cabs of two trucks so all rode comfortably. We arrived at Puerto Perez, on the lake, before noon and had our dinner in the new home there. We wanted to get the boat out, warm up the motor, and get things arranged so we could leave early the next morning, but the wind was very strong, and the waves very high, so we could not take the boat out. We arranged the boat the best we could, and Julia, Donny and I slept in it that night. Helen slept in the new house. That night it rained, hailed, lightninged and thundered. The waves were high and the boat rocked. Donny rolled out of bed three times and I got up a fourth time to put another rope on the boat for fear it would drift away with us.

We awoke after a bad night and got an early start. Everything was covered with ice, and was it cold! I! Brrrrr! Hardly had we started when the wind came up and we battled our way all the way to Chicharo through heavy seas. Waves poured over the prow until we couldn't see through the glass windows, the motor didn't work right part of the time, and there was some doubt but what we might be swamped before we got there, but the Lord was ever mindful of us and took us through in safety, as we were much in prayer. It took us over four hours, and we should have made it in less than three. We were feeling all in when we arrived, but they gave us a nice dinner and we rested in the afternoon until three. We had a long song service, then preaching and an altar service when eight bowed at the altar or rather on the ground in front of the organ, for some definite work in their hearts. Our dinner consisted of mutton soup, a dish of boiled potatoes and a fried egg a piece.

It was dark by the time meeting was over so we went to bed early, after supper, of course, for an early start in the morning. Helen slept in a house nearby, while Julia, Donny and I slept in the launch.

The next morning the boat was frozen in with ice and with frost everywhere. This was the coldest morning of our trip although we had ice every morning. After an early breakfast we left for Amakari. This time the sea was smooth and the motor ran to perfection, and we made it in less than an hour. Here we spent the day visiting, taking pictures, wandering over the hills and marveling at the beautiful blue Titicaca, and the wonderful view. At 5 o'clock we had our service, and it was beautiful too. Here we had our largest crowd, and more than fit-

And also, she states that the Resolutions committee at Twin Rocks omitted the splendid work of the orchestra. Such committees are still human, and such things will happen, won't they?

QUESTIONS ALREADY

Ed. Harmon shows real interest in our new chart by sending in some questions. We print the questions and answers here so that you may also know the decisions.

- Will it still count 10 points for singing in home church services; in own revival meetings will it count 10 points? (10 points for each)
- What Friendly Endeavor Quota will the society count, the 1936 one or the 1937 one that will appear in the Friendly Endeavor or January 1, 1937? (the 1937 quota)
- Will membership as found on September 1 be the one in deciding the goal or will this be changed as new members come in? Tithing is an example. (Yes, set your goals by your membership of September 1.)
- Where a society is made up of both Seniors and Intermediates how will they pay their budget? (If the society lists itself as a senior society, all pay 50c; if listed as an Intermediate society, all pay 25c)
- How about two societies working together? (That is all right but the combined memberships will have to be counted in the percentages set down in the goals.)

MATCH MAKING

Under the point "Friendship" in our new chart you need a partner society in order to get your communications started. No names are attached to this article, for if you think you could have picked better matches, we do not want you blaming anyone. SEE?

Here they are: Newberg Senior—Melba Senior; Newberg Intermediate—Greenleaf Intermediate; Tacoma Intermediate—Gates; Rosedale Senior—Woodland Senior; Rosedale Intermediate—Star Intermediate; Scotts Mills—Vale; Highland Senior—Riverside; Highland Intermediate—Tacoma Intermediate; South Salem—Quilcene; Marion—Prune Hill; Lents—Tacoma Senior; Portland Senior—Star senior; Portland Intermediate—Melba Intermediate; Piedmont—Boise; Vancouver—N. E. Tacoma.

If your society has been left out or your partner society is unresponsive, write your troubles to your Q. M. Sup't or to any of the executive members.

We suggest you start letter exchanges by having your secretary write an official letter to your friend society getting a list of the names and addresses of its members.

AROUND THE YEARLY MEETING

A serious accident marked the return of a group of Chehalem Center folks from Twin Rocks three weeks ago. They were riding on a shingle load in the large semi-trailer when the semi-trailer skidded off the highway near Willamina, overturning itself and being uncoupled from the truck proper. The crowd was thrown out with the load of shingles on them. Lawrence Baker was most seriously injured and fears were had for his recovery. Bonny Newton, and Cecil and Paul Strait were also confined to a hospital. At this writing these folk were still in the hospital. Letters at R. F. D., Newberg, Oregon would be greatly appreciated, no doubt.

VANCOUVER C. E. OFFICERS NAMED

The officers of Vancouver C. E. for the coming year are: President, Raymond Stone V. P., Ruby Nylander; Sec., James Bartlett; Corresponding Secretary, Jane Fich; Treas., Evelyn White; Prayer Meeting Chairman, Esther Brouger; Missionary Chairman, Mrs. Filer; and Social Committee chairman, Luella Christopherson.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Jessup of Indiana, parents of Geneva Eichenberger, are spending the summer in and around Vancouver.

Rachel Morrill writes from Entiat as follows: "On June 23, just a week before the great event, our C. E. sponsored a kitchen shower for Robert Morrill, the bride-groom to be. He was a little to smart for us and smelled something and when everyone came in he wasn't at all surprised. He received several fine gifts.

"One of our members attended the State C. E. Convention in Wenatchee, and said it was more than worth while."

Frederick Baker observes in his "Out-post News" that Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting has set up a new Monthly Meeting for the past three years: Woodland, Nampa, and Vale. What point next?

PRUNE HILL-MT. PLEASANT ARE ACTIVE THRU SUMMER

Thirty-two attended Twin Rocks Conference through the efforts of the Prune Hill Society.

$100.20 was deposited in Twin Rocks Bank and turned over to the conference management.

Prune Hill Society secured two free dining club tickets.

The tent meeting held July 22 to August 2 was a real success; Edward Harmon, Lucille Hadley and Marie Ellis were the workers.

The D. V. B. S. had an average attendance close to 40. Attendance for the Evangelistic services was about 35.

We have a new piano which was given by a family in the community and the building has been kalsomined, and painted inside.

We now have two S. S. busses in operation. Mary Allen, Parish worker for the Prune Hill — Mt. Pleasant Circuit is on the go all of the time.

Stewart Richey and Violet Braithwaite are helping in the S. S. at Mt. Pleasant.

A Christian Worker's League Meeting started at Mt. Pleasant Grange Hall on August 19 with Frederick Baker as Evangelist.

SUBSTANTIAL WORK MAINTAINED AT ROSE VALLEY

Oscar and Ruth Brown have now moved out to Rose Valley, seven miles from Kelso. In July, a wonderful meeting under the auspices of the Christian Worker's League was held there, with Hubert Mardock, Dorothy Sterner, and Mary Colver as workers. Oscar reports that many heads of families were converted during the series, and that twenty-seven definite victories were gained.

A neighbor recently gave six acres of land for the pastor, and Oscar has already begun the erection of a parsonage.

Sixteen from Woodland were present at Quaker Hill Conference. Dillon and Fern Mills are encouraged in the Lord and report that their C. E. society is going to furnish the shakes for the Tabernacle at Payette Lakes and also that they are looking forward to the time when they will be able to build a church of their own, rather than using a school house.

Dillon reports that two young men were going about the community with a petition, trying to get 60 per cent of the people to favor holding a dance in the school house. The petitioners were making good headway until Sunday night when they were both converted.

Word has been received here that British Columbia and Alberta Quarterly Meetings, in conjunction with Puget Sound Quarterly Meeting of Indiana Yearly Meeting, will annually hold a meeting at Quaker Cove under the title of the Northwest International Conference of the Religious Society of Friends.

CHANGES TAKING PLACE AT ROSEDALE

A great many needed repairs and improvements have been made on the church and parsonage at Rosedale. Over $200.00 has been raised for this work during the last year, consumating in over 550 hours of labor being given by 21 different individuals. The list of improvements follows: painting the parsonage and shingling two sides of the roof, raising the kitchen floor and laying a double floor, and shaking the south exposure, repairing the well, painting the church, reflooring the church basement and finishing the interior of the basement walls, putting up a bell, building a kitchen for the use of the Entertainment Committee, adding a fireplace room for the use of the Intermediate C. E., building a new basement stairway, and doing a great deal of the finishing work in the balcony rooms, etc., which was not done when the church was built 16 years ago.

Since Twin Rocks Conference, a Saturday

Night Club has been organized by the pastor to maintain wholesome activities for the young people for whom the church is responsible.

Francis Ohse, our new minister united with our meeting at the last monthly meeting, and we are looking forward to his coming the third week in September.

A farewell was held for Milo and Helen Ross on Friday evening, September 28th, before their leaving for Idaho on the 30th.

T. Clio Brown, pastor at Highland, has been absent from that meeting since early in July, and his son, Richard has been taking charge of the Sunday meetings. Clio has been evangelist for four camp meetings in the limits of Nebraska, and Kansas Yearly Meetings. And, then, too, he couldn't resist Oscar's salesmanship and went East to buy one of those new Nashes. And it has an Over-drive!

The good folks at Gate, Oregon, where Clyde and Mary Thomas are leading the work, were happy to have been able to send six delegates to Twin Rocks Conference. This was the first year for any of them.

A new bulletin board for Salem Heights Community Church has just been built and hung by a Salem sign painter, and is attracting a good deal of favorable comment.

Two of our members, Mary and Bertha Skelton were privileged to go to Twin Rocks. A farewell for our pastor, who is leaving September first, was held on Saturday evening August 29th.

During the vacation period of Joseph and Pearl Reece, of First Church, Portland, Carl and Minnie Miller of Newberg, spoke at the Portland church.

Word has arrived that Ivan Adams, who has just received his B. A. from Asbury College, will be the new Principal at Greenleaf Academy.

CHESTER AND GRACE HADLEY TAKE LONG TRIP

A long way back in July, Chester and Grace Hadley left for Camp Wood, Kansas, where he was to be the evangelist for the Kansas Yearly Meeting C. E. Conference. The Lord blessed his ministry there, as is voiced in this letter:

Dear Milo Ross: I personally wish to state that it is impossible for us to tell you how much it meant to our young people and pastors as well, to have Chester and Grace Hadley with us. We are truly grateful to you of Oregon Yearly Meeting for allowing us the great privilege of "borrowing" them for our Conference. We know that our entire Yearly Meeting will be wonderfully helped and blessed by their ministry.

We feel that Oregon and Kansas Yearly Meeting have much in common, and we pray that we may be drawn closer together, that the full Gospel of Christ may be better carried to Friends and all under our influence.

Sincerely Yours for Christ,
(Signed) Eli S. Wheeler
Then, they motored on to Washington, D. C., where their daughter Elizabeth is on the staff at the Treasury Department. After a few days there, they traveled on to Ohio, where Chester visited with one of his sisters, and attended Yearly Meeting at Plainfield.

PEARSONS VISIT LAKE TITICACA

teen bowed at the altar of prayer in this highest Quaker church in the world. If you could only visualize these poor Indians saved and filled with the power of the Holy Spirit, it is wonderful. We had eaten before the service, so off we went to bed for another early start in the morning. Helen slept in the parsonage in a room prepared for visitors, and we slept in the launch.

We slept a little late this morning, but got off by seven-thirty. The water was smooth and the motor ran fine, so we made it in a little over an hour. Here we climbed way up the side of a mountain, and had our little service in the small patio of a believer's home. It was another beautiful service but with only a few believers in attendance. Some fifteen gathered for our coming. After the service we were fed royally, first with boiled corn on the cob, boiled potatoes in their jackets, and okas, a vegetable similar to the potato but sweeter. Then we were served with more boiled potatoes peeled, with some kind of herb, and fried guinea pig. Say, if you want to eat some choice meat, try guinea pig. It is delicious, juicer and sweeter than rabbit or chicken. Um! Um! Don't it make your mouth water? Then on top of that, fried eggs. It was a royal dinner. We wended our way down the hill to the boat and spent the afternoon visiting and taking pictures, and after an early supper to bed for and early return to Puerto Perez in the morning.

Another morning of ice and frost, bitterly cold, but we got started early. When we got out of the bay we met heavy seas again. The wind had come up early again and we had heavy going. Waves again dashed clear over the boat until the spray reached the open part where the motor was, in the rear. The motor worked well, however, as I was getting used to it more and more all the time. At last the wind died down and the last third part of the way, the seas were as smooth as glass. It is queer how quickly the waves pile up and how quickly they calm down. We arrived in a perfect sea with a perfect working motor.

The truck driver who was to take us back to La Paz, wanted to charge us thirty-five bills for the return trip. We had our stuff all loaded and he thought he had us for there were no other trucks. We decided to stay overnight rather than pay that amount so we unloaded, but he wanted to take us so we argued the matter over, and jewed him down to sixteen bills which was even then too much, but we wanted to go, so agreed to that price. I rode on the back of the truck while the girls rode in the cab with Donny. The road was dusty and I was simply covered with dirt until one could not tell if I was white, red, brown or black.

It touched my heart to find believers way out there on the other side of the lake, living sanctified lives, wholly given over to God and bringing others to Him daily. Tata Ciprimano Mamani is a wonderful pastor, a good preacher, and knows how to deal with the people. He is the right man in the right place. We are privileged to have this consecrated worker in our field. Nothing ever ruffles him or is he easily led, except by the Spirit.

Another thing that touched my heart was the generosity of the people in their poverty. Hardly can they scratch a living from the land, but they must share with us. They have but two or three chickens apiece, two or three pigs, perhaps a dozen sheep and a quarter acre of ground. Out of their poverty they gave us three gasoline boxes of corn, potatoes and okas and about two dozen eggs. It was wonderful, words cannot express it, and they wanted to do more. Some got down on their knees to us. They love us so it makes us want to be more faithful in giving out the gospel to these hungry people who have been duped by the Catholics for so long. Oh that our lives could tell more for Him! The discomfort of the cold on the lake and the discomfort of a crude mud houses is outweighed by their appreciation and the knowledge that we are serving our Master.

We arrived home about five p. m. tired and dusty. After supper and heating water in pans buckets, and tins, a good hot bath and to bed praising the Lord for the privilege of serving Him in His vineyard where He has called us.

Our health remains good in this latitude, we note no unusual discomfort and we are feeling fine. We are taking lessons in the Aymara language three times a week and each have a service about two times a week, beside a multitude of other duties pertaining to missionary life. Each day brings its new problems. One day dealing with a love-sick man who can't have his sweetheart, and getting a believer out of jail were only two of the things I did recently.

I must close, with Christian love to all, write as you can, we are

Yours for the Master

Howard Pearson.
