CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETY ORGANIZED AT NAMPA, IDAHO

Long have the Endeavorers of Oregon Yearly Meeting awaited the announcement that a C. E. society had been organized at Nampa Friends Church of which Edward F. Harmon is the pastor. At last the glad news has come. Now the energetic C. E. superintendent of Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting has another society within his ranks to look after and that within his own church! We shall expect great things from this new society.

MILEAGE FOR NEW MEMBERS

The following is reprinted from the September issue of the Friendly Endeavor. If you have questions about counting mileage on new members, discuss the question with your Q. M. superintendent. "Count 500 miles for everyone outside who becomes a member of the society. By outsiders, one is meant who does not attend Sunday School or church services regularly."

March 15 is the important date for those responsible for chart reports to remember. Send them to your Quarterly Meeting superintendents at that time so they can be printed in the April issue of the Friendly Endeavor. Each society reporting by that date claim an additional 100 miles for their chart. Who will head the list this quarter?

The following are the superintendents of Christian Endeavors for each quarter:

Newberg, Wilbur Newby, 408 S. Howard, Newberg, Oregon.

Tacoma, Howard Harmon, 5223 N. Winfred, Tacoma, Washington.

Salem, Esther Cammack, Salem, Oregon, Rt. 4, Box 324.

Boise Valley, Edward Harmon, 723 13th Ave. S., Nampa, Idaho.

Portland, Myron James, 3740 S. E. Washington, Portland, Oregon.

Recently some reports have come in from two groups which were not printed in this issue for two reasons: One set was only a monthly report and would not give said society credit, and since the next quarterly report on chart standings is due within a short time it was felt that those societies would like to send in up-to-date reports to their superintendents and receive credit for so doing.

ALL REPORTS MUST BE FOR THE PAST THREE MONTHS PERIOD, NOT ONE MONTH. BE SURE TO ADD THE STANDING OF YOUR SOCIETY FOR THE PREVIOUS QUARTER TO THAT OF THIS FOR THE TOTAL MILEAGE.

False Health

He was ready for release from the Oregon Tuberculosis hospital. His cheeks were full and rosy; his eyes were bright. He was a very picture of health to the casual onlooker. His suitcase was ready and the car to take him home stood at the curb. Taking up his suitcase, with a last quick glance around the building which had been his abode for the last three years, he started down the steps. "What a fine world today," thought he, as he descended the steps. It happened on the last step; somehow he misstepped and fell . . . he would be all right soon . . . he just fell one step. But no . . . old disease symptoms returned. The little fall had unmade the benefits of three years. Back into the Sanatorium he went.

What a tragedy! Wait. Not so bad when you look around at us young people. Draw your lesson! We learn so slowly. Here we have been nurtured and helped by the church, Sunday School and Christian Endeavor all our lives. People have a right to think we have been healed of our disease of sin by the Physician, the Lord Jesus; that our lungs are now strong through their use in partaking of prayer and praise—the energizing oxygen of the soul.

The overwhelming tragedy is this: a mere obstacle in life, no bigger than a step, too often unmakes what the church and Jesus have been doing for us for years. An invitation to a questionable type of amusement and you go—you fall on that step. An unkind word from another and you answer in bitterness and cheap talk—you fall. A place to witness for Christ and you fail—you fall. A call to serve God and you go to a party—you fall on that step. And a fall means so often that we are carried back into the church to be a further burden to it.

We ought to be out living for God—skipping up and down the steps of doubt and worldly testings; victorious examples of real spiritual health! Have you had a false recovery from sin as the young man did from his consumption? He could not stand the test of one little bump. How much can you stand of the jars and temptations of the world and still be unhurt and strong for God?

PAUL CAMMACK

TWIN ROCKS BANQUET SATURDAY, APRIL 2nd TO BE GALA EVENT

Twin Rocks Banquet, forerunner of Twin Rocks Conference is to be held this year, Saturday, April 2, 6:30 p. m. at the Centenary Wilbur Methodist Church, S. E. 9th and Pine street, Portland, Oregon.

The Conference culinary trio, consisting of Grace Hadley, Bertha Heacock and Bessie Gardner will be present with their many years of experience to satisfy the strange feeling that craves satisfaction in one part of the anatomy at this time of the year. This is one time when people forget about diets and calories and thoroughly enjoy food midst intrepid enthusiasm and Conference hysteria.

Phyllis Macy, Program Chairmen for the gala events of the evening is to be assisted by Esther Miller, Esther Cammack and Eilene Kenworthy. Each member of this quartet is known to have an innate bent of mind with remarkable endowment for special pursuit in conference programs. Anyone of the group arouses gleeful anticipation when responsible for conference events and with four of them surely the evening's agenda will flit the minutes into hours.

Betty Bishop is to be in charge for the decorations of the dining room. Being a former High School Home Economics teacher we can expect the finest aggregation of color schemes for the evening. You will be in your best mood on this evening for each color will be on the best of terms with its neighbors.

Old man gloom will not be able to preside over any part of the banquet this year as there will be plenty of room for all deserving to attend the banquet. The only gloomy thing about banquets of the past has been the lack of room for all who would like to attend. Since you are to be one of the four hundred or more to attend the banquet you will want to know that tickets will be 35 cents each or two for 70 cents.

LENTS FRIENDS HEAR EVANGELIST HARDING

Rev. U. E. Harding, pastor of the Sellwood Church of the Nazarene, held a stirring revival campaign at Second Friends Church, beginning February 13. A week of intensified prayer was held by the church preceding the revival.

Miss Cecelia Asberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel V. Asberry, and Melvin J. Bohl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bohl, were united in marriage in beautiful but simple rites, solemnized before a large congregation at the close of the regular services Sunday, January 30.

Bridesmaid was Miss Adeline Seifert; best man was Lenox Blatchford and ushers were John Lewis, Jack Laughlin and Dell Lamb. The pastor, Rev. Calvin R. Choate, read the ceremony. Following the wedding the bridal party, close friends and relations and fellow Aeronauts members joined in the reception in the social rooms. A short honeymoon followed.

NAMPA BLOSSOMS OUT WITH NEW C. E. SOCIETY JUST ORGANIZED

On Friday evening, February 4, our first Family Night was held, with a good sized crowd present. Milo Ross of Greenleaf and our pastor, Ed Harmon, showed pictures on slides of their trip last summer while attending the World Conference of Friends at Philadelphia.

It made us wish we could have been there, too. Maybe we can go to the next one.

We are glad to report that on Sunday evening, January 23, the young people marshalled their forces and organized a Christian Endeavor Society.

Since the society is so young there is urgent need that everybody get busy, so we are diving right into the work and hoping that our report will not look too badly when the final reports of the contest are summed up.

The officers in the C. E. are Doris Farmer, president; Elvin Moon, vice-president; Mary Rinard, secretary-treasurer; Wayne Antrim, pianist; Ina Moon, song leader; Eileen Tomlinson, chairman prayer meeting committee; Edith Antrim, chairman missionary committee; and Harold Willhite, chairman Lookout committee.

On Wednesday evening after prayer meeting, we surprised our pastor with a "pounding" and a social hour.

On February 3, our pastor and a number of the Christian Endeavorers attended a banquet given by the young people of the Presbyterian Church here in Nampa. Everybody had a good time.

On Sunday afternoon we had the privilege of going with Miss Hugh's Gospel Band to conduct services for Anson Cox and others in the home where he is now living.

It seemed so good to hear his voice again in prayer and testimony.

NEW OFFICIALS VOTED IN AT HIGHLAND

On January 21, our C. E. enjoyed a very entertaining social at the parsonage. The regular monthly business meeting was also held at that time.

Our Gospel Band had charge of the Young People's meeting of the Salvation Army on January 30. Miss Esther Hunt, a missionary from Bolivia, who is visiting in Salem, gave a very interesting talk.

We have been grieved by the passing of Jennie Presnall, one of our older members in the Monthly Meeting.

The kind invitation of the South Salem C. E. to a social February 11, was appreciated and we enjoyed very much the evening they had planned for us.

Our pastor, Clio Brown, is organizing an extensive evangelistic campaign, and is soliciting the efforts of the members in personal work.

New officers are: President, Elvett Brown; vice-president, Evelyn Beckett; secretary, Thelma Rose; treasurer, Alta McKee; prayer meeting chairman, George Smith; lookout chairman, James Armstrong; social chairman, Betty Biles; missionary chairman, Elizabeth Brown; temperance chairman, Wendell Armstrong; chart chairman, Thelma Rose.

PRUNE HILL HAS OLD FASHIONED BASKET SOCIAL

An old-fashioned basket social was held at the home of the Ross Crisman family on Prune Hill Tuesday evening, February 15. Twenty-five members were present, but as the girls were in the minority their average being about one and a half men to a basket, which made all the more fun. Games and refreshments added to the enjoyment of the evening. Baskets were purchased with white beans.

Sympathy is extended to Mildred Hadley, due to her illness of late. Mrs. Viva La France is reported to be in better health.

Our skating party at the new roller skating rink at Union and Lombard was unusually successful. A large crowd of 65 members were represented from Prune Hill and Oak Park churches. Refreshments were served.

February 4, members from our C. E. gathered at the home of Miss Mildred Hadley in Portland to fold the month's issue of the Friendly Endeavor and to work on the scrap books for the "Around the World" competition.

SPRINGBROOK REVERBERATIONS

The Senior C. E. Society met with Stella Hubbard January 13 for our business meeting and social. We enjoyed a potluck supper with lots to eat. Calvin Wilkins and Harold Hodson had charge of the social hour, their birthdays being in January. New officers elected for the next six months were: Lenore Butler, president; Calvin Wilkins, vice-president; Kathryn Williams, secretary-treasurer.

On Sunday evening, January 23, Evangelist O. J. Morris brought the message to our meeting. A good crowd attended and the meeting was blessed of God.

Our pastor, Denver Headrick, has gone to Melba, Idaho, to hold revival meetings. We miss him very much. Perry Macy brought the message Sunday morning, February 6 Wilbur Newby of Newberg has charge of the Sunday evening services while our pastor is gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Knight from Colorado are here visiting Newbys and other relatives. We are glad to have them in our meetings.

A farewell party was given the Dunn family the latter part of January by some of the younger people. We will miss these friends from our Sunday School.

NEWBERG NEWS

Greetings again from the Newberg Christian Endeavor!

The Newberg Quarterly Meeting was held February 11, 12, 13. Sunday afternoon the Christian Endeavorer had its meeting. During the business meeting plans for the Twin Rocks banquet were discussed. Also a nominating committee for Quarterly Meeting officers was chosen. A student of Pacific College, Stanley Keller, who is pastor of the church of the brethren here in Newberg, brought the message after the business meeting.

Our Gospel Team has been going out every Sunday evening witnessing for the Lord. We hope that we have been helping others and have been giving them a better understanding of our Lord. However, witnessing for Him gives us a blessing and keeps us closer to Him each day.

DENVER HEADRICK SERVING IDAHO CHURCH AS EVANGELIST

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Grovem are the parents of a son born January 26. Mrs. Grovem was formerly Edna McClintock.

The revival meetings are well in progress with Denver Headrick as evangelist. Great things have been accomplished. By God's grace, and the faithfulness of his people, we are expecting greater works to come to pass.

Loren Burton is recovering nicely from an appendix operation, we are glad to report.

Our new C. E. president is Donald Potratz. Assisting him as officers are Francis Davis, secretary-treasurer; Vice-president, Elmer Davis; Gospel Team leader, Keith Smith; prayer meeting chairman, Jim Selby; Elenita Mardock, head of music committee; Lela Montgomery, social committee.

New lights have been installed in the church auditorium. They are noticeably more agreeable to the eyes.

"CAMPFIRE" SUBJECT OF ROSEDALE PASTOR

Thirty young people met in the church basement on January 21 for a social time and pickles and juice. Ave Brown from Highland C. E. and Phyllis Macy from South Salem

OBITUARY

Jennie R. Presnall, daughter of Benja and Susanna Lamb, was born at Amboy, Indiana, June 30, 1863. She was a birth-right member of the Friends Church and was always earnestly active in its various activities.

She was married to Robert Ridgway at Amboy in 1887. Together they worked in the Sabbath School and church and went as delegates to the Worlds Sunday School Convention held at Jerusalem in 1904. Her husband was called to his reward in the year 1908, after which she gave more and more of her time to religious organizations.

She was united in marriage to Lindley M. Presnall of Seattle, Washington, in 1914. They moved to Salem, Oregon, a few years later and made this their permanent home. He was called by death in 1928.

Jennie was known for her kindness and hospitality. Her home was open day and night to visiting Friends. A veritable prophets chamber awaited any Friends ministers or missionary families. She was converted when quite young. She was associated with the Sunday School work both in the county and Yearly Meetings of Indiana and Oregon. The W. C. T. U. was most dear to her heart and she served as a state director in Oregon for many years. Stricken in health for the past few years, yet she attended the church she so dearly loved often, at much cost to her strength.

She departed this life the morning of the 25th of January. The Lord has taken her home where sorrow and suffering are o'er. Mat. 10, 41:42.

Mrs. Presnall's love for the Lord's work was evidenced by the very substantial consideration in her will for the Yearly Meeting Home and Foreign Missionary work.

The funeral was held Thursday, the 27th at the Highland Friends Church, the pastor, T. C. Brown, officiating. Interment was made in the Salem cemetery.

Through The Heyhole

C. E. were present.

Our society has recently elected new officers, the principal ones being: Lucille Lehman, president; Laurence Lehman, vice-president; Ivan Bing, secretary-treasurer; Allmon Lehman, prayer meeting chairman; Laurence Lehman, Lookout chairman; Esther Cammack, missionary chairman; Halbert Kemper, social chairman; Lloyd Brown, organizer of Gospel Band.

Several new young people are attending our C. E. meetings, some being Mary Lou and Jim Norris, and Mary Joe Heinz.

In the evening of February 6, our pastor, Frances Ohse, brought an effective message on "The Campfires of the New Testament." To create atmosphere, a fir tree, a log, and an imitation fire made a woosy scene on the platform.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY ACTIVE

The Women's Missionary Society of Prune Hill Friends Church is beginning work on hospital supplies for the African National Holiness Missionary Society, according to Mrs. Frank L. Barber, president. They have also sent seven layettes to the field of the association in China.

Mrs. Ross Crisman will be host to the group March 10. There will also be another meeting on March 24.

VERDICT OF THE AGES

Early Egyptian Tomb
His earthly tenement was shattered by beer and wine, and his spirit departed before it was called for.

Solomon 1000 B. C.
Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

Buddha 550 B. C.
Drink not liquors that intoxicate and disturb the reason.

Xenophon 300 B. C.
Temperance means, first, moderation in healthful indulgence and, secondly, abstinence from things dangerous, as the use of intoxicating wines.

Chaucer 1430
Character and shame depart when wine comes in.

Shakespeare 1600
O thou invisible spirit of wine, if thou hast no name to be known by, let us call thee devil!

Abraham Lincoln 1842
Liquor might have defenders, but no defense. Whether or not the world would be vastly benefited by a total and final banishment from it of all intoxicating drinks, seems to me not an open question.

Gladstone 1898
The ravages of drink are greater than those of war, pestilence, and famine combined.

M. Georges Clemenceau 1920
It is definitely settled that alcohol is a poison; a poison destructive of human energy and, for this reason, for society as a whole.

Sir Wilfred Grenfell 1928
Alcohol has wrecked more lives, starved more children, and murdered more women than any other single factor.

Thomas A. Edison 1930
I still feel that prohibition is the greatest experiment yet made to benefit man.

Chester Rowell 1930
One drink is too many for the man at the automobile wheel, and the danger point is far short of the drunken point in nearly all of the occupations of life.

Josephus Daniels 1930
The man who opposed prohibition and says in the next breath that he could never tolerate the return of the saloon, either is practicing deception or he does not know that as surely as night follows day, the fall of prohibition means the reenthronement of the saloon.

PRUNE HILL FRIENDS CHURCH AT THE CROSS ROADS

By Frederick Baker

Voters in the Camas School district will decide March 5th whether the school board is to be authorized to sell the Prune Hill school property which has been occupied by Prune Hill Friends Church for forty-one months. The proposition on the ballot will call for a minimum price of $800.00 cash or $900.00 on contract and the sale will be subject to certain restrictions, principally that the building will not be used as a tavern or roadhouse and that alcoholic liquor will not be sold on the premises.

The question arises, should Prune Hill Friends Church follow the trend of so many Churches today, move into town and serve the rural district by auto and bus, or to continue on as a rural church? That question answered will be the deciding factor as to whether to make a bid on the local building. The question is especially pertinent now inasmuch as plans were being worked out for a building at Oak Park in Camas and one larger plant in the city could serve both localities.

The question cannot be adequately decided without knowing what the community attitude is. Do the people of the community desire a local community church and Sunday School? The hearty response to the work during the past years would seem to indicate that the community project is favored.

Prune Hill Friends Sunday School and Church was started with the conviction that successful work could be conducted in rural districts. The providence of God has been seen time and time again in the history of the work. The Providence of God will be the deciding factor in the continuance of the work on the hill. If it is not possible to secure the building, it might be the providence of God directing that the trend should be to the city.

HOW THE PARISH PAPER IS FINANCED

It costs four cents a copy to send this parish paper to your home each month. This is partially financed by advertising. Whenever enough advertising is not secured someone has to foot the bill. Is your Sunday School or Church doing anything to make possible the continuance of the parish paper? One dollar a month from each Sunday School as a donation or the securing of an ad or an individual subscription would help lift a heavy load of responsibility. Business men are glad to advertise if it is a paying investment. Are you helping them to realize that it pays to advertise by trading with them?

The thought-provoking articles each month by Paul Cammack, president of Friends Christian Endeavors throughout the northwest are worth paying a dollar a year to receive.

But then nothing will be done about this appeal unless someone in each community starts the ball to rolling. Oh, that someone would fill the gap.

FIRST FRUITS FOR FURNACE FUND

"Mr. Baker, here is $1 for the furnace," said a young man recently. This was the first fruits toward the furnace fund with the goal in mind of "ending forever cold feet at Prune Hill Friends Church."

Announcing that the heating system has been greatly improved and other work will be done as funds come in. Heat should be piped to several class rooms and an electric fan is needed to facilitate circulation.

QUAKER COLLEGE TEAM AT PRUNE HILL CHURCH

The Pacific College Quaker Gospel Band is to be present at Prune Hill church Sunday, March 13 for the evening church service at 7:30 p. m.

OAK PARK

A Woman's Missionary Society was organized at Oak Park, January 20, at the parish home. The officers chosen were: President, Mrs. A. Beauchamp; vice-president, Mrs. Willits; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Atteberry, and chairman of the work committee, Mrs. Shaffer, Mrs. Joseph Reece and Mrs. Ward Haines from First Friends Church, Portland, were present and gave helpful messages.

Oak Park Sunday School has had an average of more than 50 since the first of the year. The present enrollment is 60.

One of the most interesting and helpful services of late was that conducted by a Gospel Band from Portland Bible Institute Sunday evening, February 6. Two girls were saved at the close of the service.

Robert Morse, a cousin of Olive Terrell, was dinner guest at the parish home Sunday, February 20, and also preached in the evening service.

Clifford Good, one of our faithful young people, is a student in Portland Bible Institute this semester.

Our Oak Park prayer meeting February 17 was greatly enlarged and enriched by the presence of friends from Mt. Pleasant Friends Church.

Mrs. Viva La France was a guest of Miss Allen and Olive Terrell for a few days, while convalescing from a recent operation.

PRUNE HILL NEWS

Mrs. Lawrence La France has been ordered by the doctor to rest for several months, but is steadily improving from her illness.

Miss Mildred Hadley has been absent from church for two weeks, due to complications resulting from an imbedded ulcerated wisdom tooth. She returned to work at Meier Franks Company on February 23.

The advertisers make possible the circulation of this parish paper into about 300 homes. Please let them know when you patronize them.

The Sunday evening services on February 13 were under the auspices of the Gospel Band from Albany College, Portland, Oregon. Those participating were: Myron James, William Lindsay, Frederick Baker, Roberta Crawford, Ruth Harvey, Alvin Garretson and Myra Matlock.

Sunday, February 20, Richard C. Kneeland, Yearly Meeting treasurer, spoke to the C. E. members on Stewardship. In the service to follow, Walter Lee, Yearly Meeting financial secretary spoke on Church Loyalty.

Be wise, advertise; be wiser, be a patronizer.

a good account of you, while you and I are permitted to live on earth—and when the evening call is heard, come home one and all of you, bringing your sheaves with you. God bless you. Farewell.

FIRST FRUITS FOR CHURCH BUILDING AT PRUNE HILL

"I will pledge a dollar for myself and for each member of my family toward the purchase of the Prune Hill school house," said a resident of Prune Hill interested in the work of the Sunday School and church.

Although no official action has yet been taken by the Camas school board it cannot be expected that the building on contract could be secured for less than $50 down and $15 a month.

Contributions and pledges for the building will be welcomed from those interested in seeing the work of the Sunday School continue in serving the community.

MT. PLEASANT

The Ladies Auxiliary of Mt. Pleasant Friends Church was resumed Friday, February 18, after a lapse of three months or so. The meeting was held at Mrs. Mollie Miller's home. It was decided to continue the group in connection with the Sunday School. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Swartz Friday, March 18.

The E. C. Knepper family from Mt. Pleasant are moving to California. Their loyal support will be greatly missed at Mt. Pleasant Sunday School and Church.

Robert Morse, Portland Bible Institute is the supply minister at Mt. Pleasant Church.

Attendance has been small at Mt. Pleasant this winter, but the work continues on.

WEST MILL PLAIN NEWS

Glen Haworth, minister at West Mill Plain has recovered from a siege of illness.

Sixty-five attended the showing of the missionary pictures Friday, February 11.

Mary Allen and Olive Terrell, parish workers for the Prune Hill Circuit of outposts have been meeting with the West Mill Plain people in planning parish visitation work.

WELCOME TO BEGINNING SOCIETY IN NAMPA

As editors are wont to do, ye society editor has asked for Nampa news several times to date. "We don't have any C. E." was the reply, "but when we have one we'll send you news." That glad day has at last arrived, and we are indeed gratified to get their initial venture in news reporting. More power to their new society and C. E. reporter, and pastor, Ed Harmon.

WE CAN

By Paul Commoek

"We must" is commanding, but "We Can" is challenging. We can and we will! Did you know that our Church is growing at home and at Bolivia? You belong to a "going concern." The Lord is blessing our church.

Right now we young people are faced with a challenge. That means we will take it. "We can and we will." Fred Baker expresses the challenge in a recent letter:

"I am wondering if you could write an article for the F. E. that would stir some young people who read the paper in different parts of the country to rally to the pledge appeal. Only through great help from God and much work by those of us interested can the 1,000 pledges be received. Today we have about 315 of them, which is far from the goal, but slowly it is climbing towards the mark. Boise Valley has asked for 200 more pledge cards."

Young person, the Church is asking you if you will help build several buildings here in the yearly meeting vicinity and complete the chapel in Bolivia in the next three years. If you accept the challenge, as every red-blooded C. Eer. will, get a pledge card and sign up that you will give one dollar towards each of the projects undertaken in the next three years. It doesn't cost anyone much. This way all work together: each bears a little of the burden and a great work comes out of it.

Are you now accepting the challenge? One can hardly see how either God's work or your spiritual vigor can be benefitted by delay.

Fellow pledger: PAUL CAMMACK.
