Quaker Hill Conference Victories Outstanding

Quaker Hill Conference of 1939 is now spoken of in the past tense. Yet with what superlatives we may describe it! It is now a memory, yet a never to be forgotten one; memories of young people gathered about the altar dedicating their lives to Christ, memories of classes filled with inspiration, others, perhaps lighter memories yet nevertheless a part of Quaker Hill, of fun and fellowship through recreation.

Our own Yearly Meeting superintendent, Chester Hadley, as conference evangelist was certainly led of the Lord. His messages in both the evangelistic and inspirational hour were proof of it. On Tuesday evening when forty or more young people found Christ we decided that Conference had been reversed, but no, we were mistaken. It was only the beginning for throughout the entire conference young people sought victory and found it.

The classes this year were especially fine. For those who have often wondered just why Quakers believe as they do, Dr. Earl Barker's class in Quaker Doctrine settled many questions. Mrs. Barker led a very interesting and profitable class in Public Speaking, giving helpful suggestions on platform appearance, manners, and presentation

Wauna Mer Conferences Challenges Endeavorers To Spiritual Heights

By Howard Harmon

The eighth annual summer C. E. conference of Tacoma Quarterly Meeting was outstanding in the challenge it presented to the young people to become stalwarts of the faith. It was packed full of instructive teaching, sound counsel, inspiration and faith, for the Christians. To others it was the beginning of their spiritual life. To all it was a time of great spiritual blessing and uplift.

On Tuesday evening the conference was officially opened with a get together around a huge bonfire. At this time the conference leaders were introduced, choruses and conference songs were sung, and marshmallows toasted.

Wednesday morning brought the opening class sessions. Carl Miller presented the doctrines of the church in a most interesting way. His application of the truths to our daily living made it of vital importance to every class member. The study of the

SMASH YOUR IDOLS

By Paul Cammack

Heroic, fearless men like Gideon and Asa did it.

Have you put your muscles into your salvation? Have you utterly destroyed the idols out of your life and affections since you accepted Jesus as the one worthy of all your worship, or are you 'kidding' yourself that you can bow at the idol of dissipation which takes you out into the cheap crowd that talks in slang and emphasizes every other joy but the joy of the Lord and a clean life, and then come and worship acceptably the Christ of Calvary?

Paul Cammack

Listen, we are more vile than a Buddha worshipper if we madly prostrate ourselves before our civilized idols of: a new car, a refrigerator, a selfish education, a non-Christian boy-friend or girl-friend, an illegitimate caress, a sensual theatre production, a mind full of evil thoughts, a job—yes sir, we are worse than the heathen idolator because he has never heard of the matchless Christ who can be all beauty, majesty, and power to the soul.

We have been stunned by the worthiness of Christ. We are fearfully responsible when we refuse to obliterate the idols that God tells us to smash before He will accept our worship. "Thou shalt have no other Gods before me."

Will you use the axe of your will and the dynamite of the Word of God and shatter all of your idols?

Kansas Yearly Meeting Endeavorers Meet at Camp Wood for Summer Conference

By John Harvey

On the 25th anniversary of the beginning of the World War, over 260 young people from all parts of Kansas Yearly Meeting assembled for their annual Christian Endeavor Conference at Camp Wood, near Elm-dale, Kansas. We are rejoicing that it was possible for us to meet under such favorable circumstances, especially when we remember the events which took place exactly twenty-five years ago. May those things never happen again!

The conference theme, "Preparing for Service" was carried through in classes, vespers,

Idaho Takes Chart Honors

MELBA Y. P. SOCIETY AWARDED
PLAQUE; BOISE INTERMEDIATES WIN PENNANT.

The business session hour was approached with keen anticipation by the Boise Valley delegation. As President, Paul Cammack arose with plaque and pennant in his hands to make the announcement of the winning societies, a deep silence filled the tabernacle—for a minute.

Both Idaho societies are to be congratulated on their fine work. The competition was close, especially in the Young Peoples division in which Melba won first place.

Following are the scores for the five highest Young Peoples societies:

Melba	119,150
Greenleaf High School.....	111,336
Prune Hill.....	99,793
Greenleaf Y. P.....	99,175
Chehalem Center.....	77,832

Following are the scores for the four highest Intermediate societies:

Boise	92,205
Sunnyside	60,285
Greenleaf	42,190
Oak Park.....	11,553

"Adventuring With Christ" In All of Life's Activities Twin Rocks Conference Goal

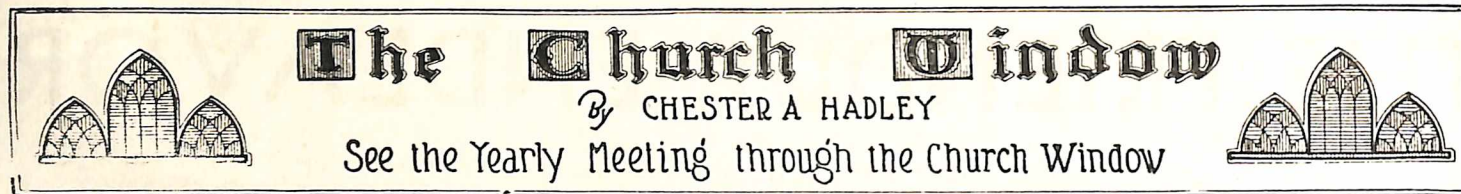

"I Am Ready" was not only the theme of Twin Rocks Conference, but also the spirit manifested throughout the week by the 376 registered attendants. "I Am Ready" to learn, to play, and to follow Christ was shown by the eagerness with which class work, sports and services was entered into by each one.

In this day of widening our circles more is needed to be known about presenting Christ to others in personal evangelism. Carl Miller's class "I Am Ready to Win Others" answered many of these questions in the minds of class members.

Like problems about Sunday school work were solved by Helen Wylie Clapp, in her class "I Am Ready for Sunday School Leadership."

Every true child of God desires greater fellowship with Him. In the class "I Am Ready to Walk with God" by Herman Macy, some valuable help was received by each one.

The class "I Am Ready to Face Coming Issues" under the direction of Walter Lee,

Greeting from Bolivia To Oregon Friends

By Esthel Gulley

"The Lord shall preserve thy going out, and thy coming in, from this time forth, and even for evermore." Ps. 121:8. This was the four-fold promise that Carroll Tamplin gave me as I was about to leave Bolivia.

The missionaries and many of the believers wished special greetings sent to friends of Oregon Yearly Meeting. Their prayers are fervent in your behalf even as yours are toward them.

The memory of the parting is still so vivid, the farewell words, the waving hands at the station in La Paz, the separation of pals at the port on Lake Titicaca to where Helen Cammack accompanied me, the fluttering handkerchief, a speck in the distance and finally the shore itself fading into mist before my eyes.

The friendly sea gulls followed the ship across the small lake, through the straits and out into the larger one. They seemed to say to me, "We are glad that you came and loved us. Come back to us."

My trip, though long, was intensely interesting. It included experience on an English and a Japanese boat and a ten-day lay over in the Canal Zone. The sensation of descending the high Andes to sea level is a bit like falling in one's dreams from a dizzy height. However this was tame compared to the thrill of being let down in the swinging chair into the boat below. When swinging in mid-air I could look down and sometimes see the boat beneath me ready to receive me and the next minute to see it wrenched out of position by the waves.

It was good to be on an English boat—yes good, but so strange. Every one looked sickly, I felt that I dare not think lest I be understood. The sight of the Stars and Stripes at Panama sent the tingle down my back. It was my flag!

The feeling of being detached from those endeared to my heart and unattached as yet to the other shore brings a peculiar loneliness until friendships are formed on board. But what meant more than all was the companionship of my Father. The time of day that I loved best was night when darkness shut me in closer to Him.

If you have never been away from the homeland a long time you would not understand the experience of pulling into harbor and hearing your name called across the waves.

The climax however came at the last when I reached home. After all there is no place like home sweet home.

I anticipate seeing all of you personally soon. May our fellowship together this coming year be mutual and blessed of the Lord.

ON FURLOUGH

ESTHEL GULLEY
Missionary to Bolivia

Esthel Gulley Home On Furlough

Leaving La Paz, Bolivia, June 19, Esthel Gulley arrived in Springbrook August 7. She landed at San Pedro, California, as her boat did not come to San Francisco. She visited with Mrs. Elwood Bulgin at Long Beach for several days then came on to visit her sister in northern California.

Oregon Yearly Meeting welcomes her home. The Missionary Board extends to her a most hearty welcome and greeting, and we hope to make her stay here during the year one of spiritual and physical blessing.

Esthel Gulley To Have Two Months of Rest

The newly adopted regulations for our mission field and missionaries requires all missionaries upon their return from the field to take two months of complete rest, and the Executive Committee met at Salem Quarterly Meeting August 19 and confirmed this ruling again. They are asking that under no circumstances is Esthel Gulley to be asked to speak in public. This may seem hard to some of us who want to hear from her but our missionaries coming down to the low level of this country after living two and one half miles high for four or five years need that time to adjust themselves to the new condition. PLEASE CO-OPERATE WITH THE BOARD IN THIS.

Gospel Translation Nears Completion

Carroll Tamplin, chairman of the translation committee for the American Bible Society writes, "I have my meals with the other three 'bachelors' (nationals) but I have my bed room separate. My room is the clinic room—spick and span, bright and light—. It was very cold the first weeks but now I have a gasoline lantern to replace my candles and a small kerosene 'primus' burner with a reflector for heating so I am able to use my evenings to better advantage. During the day we work long hours in the study."

It is nice to be near the lake. Weather has been going through a change and we had snow for two days, but it is bright, clear and cold again. According to our present schedule we shall be through with revision work by October 15. At times we are ahead of our assignments and at others behind, just now we are behind. We finished our revision of the manuscript of St. Matthew this evening, but have yet to finish our study of the final copies for typographical errors. I trust we may finish that tomorrow and be ready to start on St. Mark next Monday."

Rev. Chester A. Hadley,

Portland, Oregon.

Dear Hadleys:

Time and time again as the "Friendly Endeavor" or "The Soul-Cry of the Aymara" has come to our home and we have read of the work of the FAITHFUL GROUP in Bolivia, has my heart longed for money to send to help them in their need, and how our hearts have rejoiced as we have read of the work of the Oregon Yearly Meeting in real Evangelism both at home and on the field and how happy we would be to again worship with you, and fellowship with you and many of the "friends" of other days, though we read often with sadness of the "going on before" of some whom we have loved and had sweet fellowship within these days, but isn't it just wonderful THAT we CAN MEET at ONE common MERCY-SEAT anyway, and feel our own souls refreshed and encouraged as we remember that TIME nor DISTANCE can separate these who thus wait before HIM who is our LIFE and our JOY. Truly HE is our all in all, and we do rejoice in HIM.

We are sending a very small check to be used as the need may be in Bolivia, and just pray that God may multiply it many fold in the salvation of many precious souls,

Pastoral Changes

Newberg Calls
Gervas Carey

Gervas Carey, a former pastor of the Newberg Monthly Meeting, has accepted a call to serve the meeting again as pastor. He will assume his duties September 1st.

We welcome him back to Oregon and pray God's blessing on him as he begins his ministry at Newberg.

Piedmont Pastor Resigns

George Moore resigned as pastor of the Piedmont Monthly Meeting following Oregon Yearly Meeting. He expects to continue his work on his Master's degree and is taking work at the University Extension Course in Portland this summer.

George Moore has done exceptionally fine work at Piedmont. The congregation has increased in attendance, material improvements have been made on the building and the indebtedness on the church has been reduced. As yet, a pastor has not been secured.

Calvin R. Choate Goes To Tacoma

After one year in Evangelistic work, Calvin Choate has accepted a call to Tacoma Monthly Meeting. He will begin his work there September 1st.

Paul Mills, the retiring pastor, will be available for evangelistic work after that date.

Riverside Calls Kansas Pastor

Lealdus Mardock, who served Riverside Monthly Meeting for the past three years, has resigned and accepted a call to the Center Point Community church. Riverside has called Merle A. Roe from Kansas as their pastor. He will assume his duties September 1st.

Ontario Heights To Have New Pastor

Calvin Hull and LeRoy White have resigned as co-pastors at Ontario Heights and Edward Baker, who has been at Center Point for the past four years, has accepted a call to serve that meeting. Calvin Hull and LeRoy White have done good work in this pioneer field and much credit is due to them for their sacrificing spirit in caring for the work along with their own interest on their ranches which they have cared for during their term of the pastorate.

Carl and Minnie Miller Become Vancouver Pastors

Vancouver Friends Church announces that starting September first Carl and Minnie Miller become pastors of that church. Carl and Minnie Miller have been located at the Newberg Friends Church for nine years where they have faithfully proclaimed the Gospel in that quarterly meeting.

AMONG THE OUTPOSTS

Central Park Increases
In Numbers

There is a growing interest in the Sunday School and church services in this field. Some new contacts are being made that have increased our numbers.

A middle aged man, living in this community had a light stroke of paralysis and being taken to the hospital, immediately asked for Milo Ross of Greenleaf to come and pray for him. Brother Ross was in California at the time, but a fine Christian nurse in the hospital prayed this man through till he found Jesus as his Saviour. Since then as soon as he became strong enough, he has attended the services at Central Park part of the time and occasionally goes to the Friends Church in Star.

Lake Lowell Has No Summer Slump

Instead of a summer slump, this school has had an increase in attendance.

Mrs. J. T. Settle and Ruth Hawley are the faithful workers in this needy field.

A new work was opened at Lake View schoolhouse in April. Mr. J. F. McIntyre from Riverside and his daughter, Mrs. Johnson, canvassed this field and decided to begin, and asked Greenleaf to help them. The interest seems to be quite good. Average attendance about 25. Cecil Long and others from Greenleaf have had charge of the church services.

Fargo Supplied by Senior and Intermediates from Greenleaf

This point is being supplied by groups from the senior and intermediate endeavor since Everett Tuning took the pastorate at Owyhee Heights.

Perhaps it would be interesting to give the distance from Greenleaf to these varied outposts.

Central Park—18 miles.
Lake Lowell—10 miles.
Lake View—16 miles.
Fargo—7 miles.

Joint Tent Services Start

Under joint sponsorship of the Camas and Prune Hill Friends churches a tent meeting was begun August 22 in Washougal, Washington with A. Clark Smith of the Second Friends Church, Portland, Oregon, as the evangelist.

Clair Beeler, song leader and soloist from the Camas Nazarene Church has been in charge of the music each evening. Hazel Parker of McKinley Avenue Friends church has been chalking pictures as a special song was sung by Clair Beeler.

Attendance for the first week was 57, 70, 60, 48, 76 and 115, with an average attendance of 71 for the week.

Children's Meetings have also been started under the direction of Miss Olive Terrell of Camas and Hazel Parker of Tacoma.

The meetings are being held with the expectation of establishing a Holiness church in this growing city of 1400 inhabitants.

Rose Valley Continues Work
On Church

The Rosevalley Friends have been helped in their building program by the sale of half of the five acres which they have just finished paying for. The Board and the Trustees gave them permission to sell one-half of the lot if they could get a suitable buyer. Carey Jessup, pastor of the Entiat meeting, heard of the proposition and after looking over the land, decided to buy. We are glad to have it owned by a Friend who will have the interest of the meeting at heart.

Zenas Perisho Faces Hard Problem

The mill at Unity, Oregon where Zenas Perisho has been preaching closed down recently in such financial condition as to be unable to pay the workmen their wages. This hit the Perisho family pretty hard as he had nearly $200.00 coming and of course was counting on it to help in the winter. He was chosen by the State Labor Commission to help close the accounts of the workmen and will receive something for this work, but if the men realize one-third of what is coming to them they will be fortunate. The men have moved their families away and it leaves the work there in an unsettled condition, but plans are being made for a revival meeting to be held in August if possible. The outcome of the meeting will help to determine whether the meeting will continue. We must lift them to the throne during these trying times.

Owyhee Heights Needs More Room

While we do not consider Owyhee Heights an outpost like these others, we are glad to report a growing interest there under the leadership of Everett and Virena Tuning. Their greatest need just now is more room for the growing congregation.

The contract for a school house has been let, so they hope to be able to move into larger quarters in a few months.

Everett Tuning was given the job of driving one of the Homedale school busses and will move into Homedale for the winter. The Quarterly Meeting is helping him purchase a house and three lots and he hopes to drive out to Owyhee Heights from town to carry on the work. It is about 8 miles out. Let us remember them in their work and pray God's blessing upon Everett Tuning as he takes this field as his pastorate.

Edward and Ruth Haldy New Chehalem Center Pastors

Chehalem Center Friends Church announces that with the resignation of Abram Astleford, that they have secured the services of Edward and Ruth Haldy of Monroe, Oregon for their church and that the Haldys are expected to begin their work there with the opening of the church year in September.

The labor of love of the Astleford's at Chehalem Center is truly appreciated. Their plans for the future is not known at this time.

of speeches. Since Boise Valley has been reaching out into so many new communities the class, Outpost Methods, by Milo Ross was especially beneficial. Certainly all who love the book of Romans and enjoy reading it found a blessing in Everett Craven's class Studies in Romans.

The peppy group of Intermediates and Juniors at Conference just cannot be overlooked. As we went to our classes we couldn't help but notice the Juniors listening eagerly to the enthusiastic Grace Roberts, their leader. The Intermediates were heard talking in a jubilant manner about their class under the capable leadership of Thelma Green and Hazel Williams.

Under the leadership of Beatrice Stephens and Keith Williams the different cars (sides), Fords, Plymouths, Hudsons, and Chevrolets made many happy trips. Ball games were played, trips to Brundige and No Business lookouts were made, and on the Saturday night launch trip, cupid's special, ran in to rough water. None of the cars backfired, or broke down. Each one made the week's journey in fine shape but we are not telling who came in first.

We were very glad to have William Murphy with us this year. The sacred concert Sunday afternoon bespoke the value of the chorus class. All who attended were uplifted by the songs so well sung and capably directed.

Yes, the Quaker Hill conference of 1939 was truly one to "Establish in the faith" all of the 200 who attended. For this we can only say, "Thank God."

Mimeographed outlines for each of the classes at Quaker Hill were prepared by the teachers and are available at 10 cents each or all four outlines for 25 cents. These may be obtained from Edward Harmon, 723 13th Avenue, South, Nampa, Idaho.

TEMPERANCE

The Brewer's Bountiful Benevolence

By Charles Haworth

In a series of advertisements run in local and national papers the United Brewers Industrial Foundation is telling the world of their bountiful benevolence. When they do their alms they believe in sounding a trumpet before them. An advertisement in a recent local paper announces that they came "to the the rescue" of the taxpayers in Oregon last year with $623,483.67. Since when has paying our taxes become a virtue to be bragged about? They are not the only tax-paying industry in the state. Their $623,000 is only a drop in the bucket. The Oil Companies paid a motor vehicle fuels tax alone of $11,246,190.76 in 1938 and say nothing about it in their advertisements. Every industry and merchant pays taxes, but do not advertise that as a reason for using their products. They advertise and sell their products on their own merits. However we must admit that the Brewers are hard put to it when it comes to advertising their product. The Liquor Control Commission will not allow them to say that beer is good for the consumer, for it is not. Neither can they say it is not harmful, for it is, so what can they say? All that is left to say is to brag about their contributions to relief and old age assistance.

Let's think a minute. Don't you remember how they promised to "balance the budget", to solve the unemployment problem, to float the nation to prosperity on a sea of beer?

They boast of their help to the farmer! Haven't we seen the hop growers begging the government for the past two years to buy their old hops and dump them out as fertilizer?

But, after all, who pays the taxes? We who drive automobiles know that we pay the gasoline tax, and the Oil Companies know it too, and, therefore, say nothing about it. Just as surely the beer drinker pays the beer tax, but the Brewers take all the glory to themselves. They say nothing about the added burden of relief because father spends for beer what should buy bread, nor the great increase in the number of patients admitted to the State Hospital because of alcoholism, nor the heavy financial loss caused by auto accidents in which alcohol was at least a contributing factor. Add these up and their $623,483.67 leaves them decidedly in the red as public benefactors.

New 1939-1940 Society Quota Announced By Treasurer

By Lawrence McCracken

You will notice that the new quotas are based on one dollar per member for all young people and high school societies instead of eighty-five cents. Also the Intermediate's quotas are based on fifty cents ($.50) per member instead of sixty cents. It was felt that this new rate is a better apportionment of the budget.

We are expecting a great year ahead spiritually and to do our part we must keep our quota money coming in regularly. If every month all local C. E. Treasurers would send in a payment on the quota money, it would help keep the Yearly Meeting work running smoothly and also sustain interest in the number of points earned on the chart by so doing. Every quota payment no matter how small is greatly appreciated.

Perhaps you will be interested in knowing that last year twenty-three of the thirty-four Endeavor societies paid their quotas 100 percent. Surely we should thank the Lord, and at the same time let's pray and work to make this a banner year with all societies paying their entire quota.

The new quotas for the new year 1939-1940:

Prune Hill C. E. Group Has Busy Summer

Twelve of our group attended Twin Rocks for the full week of Conference; three more came down during the week and two over the week-end, making a total of seventeen present. Each one enjoyed it and would like to have stayed longer.

A tent meeting is being held at Washougal. The meetings started August 21 and are to continue for two weeks.

Instead of having the regular Sunday night services on August 13 and 20, the Friends went to Orchards to attend the Clark County Holiness Camp Meeting.

We had the pleasure of having Dr. Levi T. Pennington, president of Pacific College, bring a message to us Sunday morning, July 23.

Due to the absence of our pastor, Frederick Baker, the Sunday of July 23, the Christian Endeavor gospel band had charge of the service Sunday evening.

Those taking part were: Frances Cool, John Morasch, Clynton Crisman, Burdell Knoble, Leila Crisman, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dorman, and Alvin Cadd. Don Lindgren led the testimony service.

Cupid Visits Piedmont Christian Endeavorers

The regular monthly business meeting and social of the senior C. E. was held Friday evening, July 28 at the home of George and Evelyn Moose. Following the business discussion, Cupid's messenger via the Golden Gate limited, brought in a note which was eagerly opened and found to contain an announcement of the engagement of Betty Stevens to Howard Adams and Alice Dau to Edgar Haworth. Those present expressed heart-felt interest and best wishes for their success and happiness throughout the coming years. Refreshments of punch and cookies were served.

This summer a number of our group have been spending their vacation traveling to various points of interest. Barbara and Phyllis Tuttle visited both the New York and San Francisco World Fairs. Naomi and Leona Brown returned recently from Oklahoma where they visited friends and relatives. Ruth Huff and Anna Bischoff had an enjoyable trip to the San Francisco Fair. Robert Mott spent his vacation visiting the various exhibits at the Fair.

RIVERSIDE

Merle R. Roe of Alton, Kansas, will arrive September 1st to take up the work, Mr. Mardock, having resigned April 1st. He will serve as pastor at Center Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts and Edwin are leaving August 15th for several weeks vacation in California.

Letha Larrance returned home July 30th from Portland where she attended summer school.

Four of our young people attended conference at Payette Lakes: Maxine and Adaline Pettys, Clarence Birch and Edwin Roberts.

Nothing is so weak as human strength, and nothing so strong as human weakness.

Salem Rally Held At Silverton Park

Salem Quarterly Meeting C. E.'ers gathered Sunday afternoon August 20th under the tall firs of Silverton Park for their rally. Music under the leadership of Phyllis Cammack, was aided by a saxophone for an instrument. Paul Cammack ably presented the Chart Work, placing the responsibility under each project where it should fall. Elvett Brown challenged the young people to "lay aside every weight" and strike out for God the coming year. A good attendance of 60 or more met under the open skies, and enjoyed fellowship with each other.

Tacoma Gospel Band Hears Converted Sailor

The young people's gospel band met July 25 at the church for a dinner and to begin a new year. The speaker was Morris Dedrick. He was converted while in the Navy, and is now attending Los Angeles Bible Institute. He had been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Dedrick and sister, Mary Jane, and brother, Nelson, during the summer. Cornell Odegard will continue his able leadership of the band.

Church services were laid down for two Sundays, July 30 and August 6 in order that we might attend the campmeeting held July 27 to August 6. The meetings were held in the newly finished tabernacle which was dedicated in the afternoon service, Sunday, July 30. Evangelists were Rev. David Fenwick of Houlton, Oregon, and Rev. Z. T. Johnson, Ph. D., executive President of Asbury College, with Josephine Fich as children's worker. Willard R. Hallman and Mrs. Hallman had charge of the music.

The Senior and Intermediates held their July business meetings and socials at Sparaway Lake. The groups enjoyed swimming together and then separated for their business meetings and a wiener roast for the seniors and a watermelon feed for the intermediates.

Clarence Scudder To Enter Evangelistic Work Soon

Clarence Scudder, who has been pastor of Soap Lake Mission church for the past five years, is entering the evangelistic field this fall. He is a member of Piedmont meeting and a recorded minister of the gospel in the Friends church. Mr. Scudder graduated from Portland Bible Institute in 1929. Anyone wishing to contact him relative to work may address him at Soap Lake, Washington, Box 297, or through Chester Hadley, 3270 S. E. Salmon St., Portland, Oregon.

or that it may help to bring to some of the dear ones there just something they may be needing to "carry on" the work. How we wish it could be many time more, but God knows how much He can trust us with, so we leave the results with HIM.

We are as ever your Friends,

Cupid Makes Announcement At Twin Rock's Conference

Sometimes early and sometimes late Cupid will always make a date. "Edward and Lois," so Cupid said "Along in the future, will be wed." A cargo of romance each one of us sends With love and best wishes from Conference friends.

Congratulations are extended to Lois Morrill, of Entiat, Washington, and Edward Harmon, of Nampa, Idaho, by their many C. E. friends.

BYRD-OKSNESS

By the pool in the garden of the home they are to occupy at 1411 East Harding Way, Stockton, California, Miss Myrtle May Byrd, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Byrd of Tacoma, Washington and Mr. Theodore Oksness, son of Mrs. L. S. Oksness also of Tacoma, exchanged their marriage vows. The ceremony was conducted in the presence of a few friends by Rev. Hilmer Larson, pastor of the First Lutheran church, at 11:00 o'clock in the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Doty of Tacoma, uncle and aunt of the bride, were the couple's attendants.

The bride wore a light blue jacket costume, with hat to match and other accessories in white. Her flowers were orchids in corsage arrangement.

The honeymoon was spent in San Francisco.

The bride's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Doty came down from Tacoma for the ceremony.

The wedding scheduled for September 9, was moved up because Mr. Oksness was transferred to Stockton by the company for which he works.

Kansas Yearly Meeting

meetings for worship, and other phases of the conference, in a very pleasing manner.

Charles Devol, missionary to China, brought us very helpful messages centering around the theme, "My Life Work." Roy Knight, of Haviland, very ably led in the singing, assisted by Katherine Kankhauser at the piano, quartets from Marion college, Friends university, Haviland Bible college, and Gate, Oklahoma, and ladies trios from Emporia, Wichita, and other places.

A new innovation at Camp this year was a group of classes under the general heading, "Christ's Way for Youth." In these classes, the leaders discussed problems vital to the life and happiness of young people of various ages. Alfred Smith, Lela Battin, and Bertha Cressman had charge of these discussions, which were instructive and inspirational.

Gerald Wood led a class on "Christian Youth Faces a Disturbed World" in which some of us came to grips with the larger problems which face us as Christian young people. A group under the leadership of Richard Wiles studied "What Friends Believe," emphasizing the positive beliefs of Friends. A junior and a senior C. E. methods class met with Jennie Sanford and Lela Morrill, respectively. From the rising bell in the morning to the last blink of light at night, Camp Wood teemed with young life of the highest type, and many went home with new victory in their hearts.

Wauna Mer Conference

book of Ephesians led by Dr. Earl Barker was truly a light house of truth as he unfolded the teaching of this epistle. Again and again we saw more clearly the wonders of our Christ and glorious privilege of serving Him. Chester Hadley's class on Youth Problems answered many questions for young people and helped them to establish convictions of Christian conduct and righteous living. His presentation of these problems and the Christian attitude toward them was both beautiful and challenging.

The inspirational hour and evening evangelistic speaker was Frederick Baker. His messages centered around Christ:

- "The Incomparable Christ";
- "The Magnetic Christ";
- "The Compassionate Christ";
- "The Satisfying Christ";
- "The Suffering Christ";
- "The Appealing Christ";
- "The Revealing Christ";
- "The Praying Christ";
- "The Resurrection Christ";
- "The Reigning Christ";

Through these spirit-filled messages about twenty-five people realized a need in their own hearts that only the glorious Christ could satisfy.

Marie Ellis and Esther Mae Weesner were in charge of the music. It was a privilege to have these two as song leader and organist for the conference.

Cornell Odegaard was in charge of the recreation. Keen competition between the three sides was in continual evidence. The treasure hunt created much interest and excitement.

Not to be forgotten are the pair of famous Wauna Mer cooks, Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Harmon, who accomplished the seemingly impossible, feeding the hungry horde three times a day, in a most satisfactory manner. Their efficiency in this department helped to make more effective the other features of the conference.

The Lord's richest blessing was evident from the opening service to the final benediction. Hearts filled with praise to overflowing for His leading, helping, and abundant blessing have accepted the challenge to press on for Him within the reaches of Wauna Mer conference and Oregon Yearly Meeting.

Twin Rocks Conference

was extremely interesting and thought provoking. The first two days Joseph Reece led the thinking on "What about War—and Me?" Chester Hadley's frank approach to young people's problems in another class period was appreciated. Self control and discretion were urged in young people's friendships, telling of the peril of lowered standards. "How many cigarettes can I smoke and still be a Christian? And what about the movies?" was cleared up in another period, with Walter Lee leading. George Moore helped us face that issue of being persecuted, urging us not to bring any unnecessary amount on ourselves by our foolish faults, but taking the stigma of Christ when it came, bearing His reproach.

The two Intermediate classes were of real challenge to these wide awake young people. Orpha Cammack's class by experience learned more about becoming Christian Endeavor leaders. Frederick Baker's class "I Am Ready to Play the Game" discussed the true basis for Christian character in the life of young people today.

The concert, under the direction of Marie Ellis, as conductor, and assisted at the piano by Esther Mae Weesner, was an inspiration to the large crowd which filled the tabernacle on Sunday afternoon. Frank Davies, conference evangelist, added to the enjoyment of the hour with his piano solos.

The children's classes under the leadership of Virginia Heacock and Mildred Hadley were well attended. Interest in the class was revealed by the work accomplished and given in the Junior demonstration on Sunday afternoon.

The sports, this year, played no small part under the guidance of Walter and Gladys Cook, Betty Lou Gardner and Max Collier. Four Indian tribes vied for honors throughout the work in the usual sports, also in archery contests, Indian golf, and the daily council ring. The Indian oyster bake on the beach was an innovation the opening day, and the huge bonfire Saturday night brought the week to a fitting close. Well done, Indian Chiefs!

"Adventuring with Christ" was the theme of the opening sermon by Frank Davies of Long Beach, California.

He counselled Friends in a challenging appeal to dig beneath the veneer of the world's idea of things and to see that the devil is setting the stage for each individual. He revealed that it was the privilege of every Christian to gloriously triumph over this subtle foe.

On Wednesday morning Mr. Davies spoke on "The Censorship of the World Against the Things of God." "We must break the censorship of the world against God in the home, in the school, and everywhere," he declared.

"The Rule of God in the Heart" was the subject of the Wednesday evening message. Luke 12:32. Four "no admittance" signals to the Kingdom of God were outlined: "no admittance except to one who is born again, except to one of a teachable spirit, except to one who repents, and except to one who is pure."

After laying a sound foundation, Frank Davies, in his closing message to the 500 present, made his appeal to the youth of Oregon Yearly Meeting to count the cost, (Continued in Next Column)

DONALD BILES

Donald Richard Biles, aged four years, eleven months, and twelve days, passed from this life July 10 as the Wilson Biles home burned to the ground. The child lay sleeping in the upstairs when fire was discovered. The flames made the child's rescue impossible.

Since his infancy, Donny has been in faithful attendance at church and Sunday School. We shall miss him, but how truly grateful we are that Christ saw fit to take him home to spend eternity with Him.

Funeral services were held in the Highland Friends church with Edgar P. Sims officiating. Many lovely flowers and a large attendance at the service were evidences of the heart-felt sympathy of the many friends of the Biles family. Donny was laid to rest in the Belcrest Cemetery, about a quarter of a mile from his birthplace.

Surviving are his father and mother, two sisters, Ruth Esther and Betty, and two brothers, John David and Harold.

The new pastor will be settled in time to be host to the sessions of Portland Quarterly Meeting held September 8, 9 and 10 at the Vancouver Church.

The opening at Vancouver Church came about through the resignation of Alison and Inez Rogers who have faithfully labored during their stay at the Vancouver Church. Their plans for the future are not definitely announced at present.

adventure with Christ and live with God to the full throughout the entire year. "The only narrow thing about Christianity is the door that leads into it" said the speaker. "After one enters therein there is the vast universe of God's spiritual universe to explore."

Approximately fifty young people outwardly accepted the challenge, but inwardly everyone in attendance, ready to do the will of God, made great spiritual advancement.

DR. DAN GILBERT

Dr. Dan Gilbert, author of "Crucifying Christ in Our Colleges", "Our Retreat from Modernism", "The Vanishing Virgin" and a number of other books will speak in Camas, Washington on Monday, September 25.

Dr. Gilbert is travelling throughout the entire country presenting "The Other Side of the Question" in "The Truth For Students Movement." This movement is "A movement dedicated to carrying to students of educational institutions 'The Other Side of the Question'" the case from the Christian viewpoint.

The location of the Monday night meeting is not definitely settled, but it will probably be a union meeting in the High School Auditorium.

Friends-Nazarenes To Have Union Bible Institute

Under joint direction of the Friends and Nazarene Churches a Union Bible Institute will be held for six weeks this fall, beginning on Tuesday, September 26, 7:30 p. m. to 9:40 p. m. and closing on October 31.

The sessions of the institute will be held in the Camas Friends Church.

Committees from the two denominations are working out a program for the school which will probably include "Youth Problems"; "Bible School Leadership"; Bible Interpretation; "Preaching The Gospel"; "Bible Prophecy" and "The Sin Question".

The popular Bible Institute Chapel service will again be held this year.

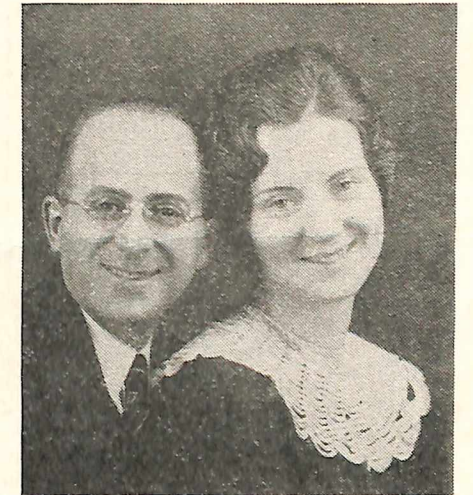

Registration for the six week's institute will probably be fifty cents, the same as last year.

Enrollment should reach one hundred this year in the school.

With 273 points more than last year the Prune Hill Friends Christian Endeavor Society last year's winners, placed third in the Northwest Christian Endeavor work for 1938-1939.

Winning first place for 1938-1939 was the Melba Friends Christian Endeavor Society, Melba, Idaho, where Glen and Elizabeth Haworth are the leaders. Second place went to the persistent Greenleaf High School Society, where Milo and Helen Ross are in charge.

During the past three years the Prune Hill Society has placed fourth, first and third. 1939-1940 presents to the society an opportunity to again win first place and to permanently secure the Friends Bronze Northwest Christian Endeavor Plaque which becomes the property of any society winning it for two years. The background for this is a society that has a burning heart for God. Winning on any other basis would be a tragedy.
