NATALIE HARRINGTON

Head Coach (2013-)

Natalie Harrington, a former women's lacrosse high school All-American and star player at NCAA Division I Fresno State University, is the first head coach for the new women's lacrosse program at George Fox University, which will play its first season in the spring of 2014 as the school's 16th intercollegiate sport.

Harrington hails from Oregon City, Ore., where she played for four years under coach Dara Kramer at Oregon City High School. In leading the team to the Oregon 6A state championship in 2009, she was named the title game's Most Valuable Player, and was later a candidate for the Oregon Sports Award's Johnny Carpenter High School Athlete of the Year.

At Fresno State, Harrington was a two-time team captain while playing at various times as an attacker, midfielder, and defender. She was named the Bulldogs' Player of the Year as a junior and Attacker of the Year as a senior. Graduating this past May, she earned her bachelor of arts degree in Communications.

Harrington served at numerous lacrosse clinics for Fresno State working with elementary, middle, and high school girls, as well as at various lacrosse camps and activities around the Central Valley of California. She was also active in the community, working as a member of the "Big Heroes, Little Heroes" mentoring program and interacting with patients at sporting events sponsored by the Central California Children's Hospital.

In the summer a year ago, Harrington taught at the Lacrosse Northwest camp in Oregon, and directed the Clackamas Lacrosse Youth Camp for girls in June. In July 2012, she taught at both the Stanford University High School Camp and the Stanford Elite Camp for advanced high school players and Division I prospects.

Athletic Director Craig Taylor says of the university's newest coach, "Natalie's energy, enthusiasm, and lacrosse mentality make her a perfect fit for a startup program like ours. Her lacrosse credentials are impeccable, having come from one of the best high school programs in the state and then going on to a stellar career at a major college. We believe she will be a strong ambassador for George Fox lacrosse around the state, the conference, and throughout Division III."

Harrington is a published author of the children's fantasy books, "Griffin's Calling", "Griffin's Temptation", and "Griffin's Legacy", all released under the pen name of N.R. Rose by Tate Publishing.
