GEORGE FOX COLLEGE
ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
NEWBERG, OREGON 97132

January 4, 1968

Dear Friends:

We are happy to announce to you that the Alumni Association of George Fox College is sponsoring a concert by the Four Flats Quartet on Sunday, January 28, at 3:00 p.m. at the Newberg High School gymnasium.

The Four Flats began singing together in 1946 while students at George Fox College. Members of the quartet are Dick Cadd, Ronald Crecelius, Norval Hadley, and Harlow Ankeny. During their college career they gained acceptance in the Northwest as well as across the nation. They were well known for their barbershop-style entertainment, but equally as famous for their spiritual emphasis. Following their graduation they entered separate fields of service, continuing their singing on a part-time basis. During this time they travelled some in the interest of missions. Opportunity later came for them to give full time to music and evangelism for a few years as the World Vision Quartet. However, since 1962 they have been occupied in separate areas of endeavor.

Currently the members of the quartet are engaged in the following ministries:

Dick Cadd and family are missionaries to the Philippines under Overseas Crusades. They are presently on furlough.

Ronald Crecelius is the Director of Church Relations at George Fox College in Newberg, Oregon.

Norval Hadley lives in Arcadia, California, where he is Assistant to the President of World Vision, Inc.

Harlow Ankeny is manager of the Barclay Press located in Newberg, Oregon.

The Alumni Association has invited the Four Flats to present this Reunion Concert for your blessing and inspiration. We will appreciate your announcing this concert to your church or organization.

An offering will be taken that afternoon. Thank you for your assistance in publicizing this concert.

Sincerely yours,

President, Alumni Association
