About George Fox

George Fox University enters its 106th year as one of America's Best Colleges. Nine times it has been given that designation by U.S. News & World Report magazine. Founded in 1885 by Quaker settlers as Pacific Academy, George Fox is one of the nation's fastest-growing universities. Enrollment has nearly quadrupled from 549 students in 1986 to 2,188 in the fall of 1996. About 1,300 are traditional undergraduates.

The University offers unique programs to its students. Every incoming freshman is given a Macintosh computer to use and keep upon graduation. When George Fox students reach their third year, they are eligible for the Juniors Abroad program, in which the University pays transportation costs for a three-week overseas study tour.

When Western Evangelical Seminary became part of George Fox in 1996, the college switched to university status. The University offers students a Christ-centered education and the choice of 35 undergraduate majors and 12 graduate degrees.

George Fox's most prominent alumnus is the late President Herbert Hoover, who attended Pacific Academy.

Athletic Affiliation

George Fox is a member of the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges (NCIC). The NCIC is leaving the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) for the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III. Currently a provisional member, George Fox and the NCIC will be eligible for NCAA national championship play in 1998-99. Until then, the NCIC will continue to compete nationally in the NAIA.

The NAIA is an autonomous association administering programs leading to 13 men's and 11 women's national championships. The NAIA includes about 350 four-year colleges and universities in 49 states and Canada. They are grouped in nine regions and 44 conferences.

The NCAA administers 80 championships in 21 sports for its member institutions, involving nearly 21,000 men and women student-athletes.

Women's Soccer Outlook 1996

Byron Shenk, George Fox's women's soccer coach, is hoping last year's injury-plagued season can be turned into a blessing in disguise.

Injuries caused him to use 17 different starting line-ups in 18 games. That meant plenty of playing time for almost everyone.

"All our injuries allowed our reserves to play," said Shenk. "It may turn out OK in the long run."

As the 1996 season starts, reserves who received game experience are being asked to replace key players. Gone are five starters, including forward Gegi Bonera, the team's career scoring and assist record holder, and four-year starting goalkeeper Nancy Propp.

Shenk could pencil in a starting line-up with nine or ten letterwinners.

"We have no superstars," said Shenk. "But we have a good balance on offense and defense."

It's a team that can look to the future. Only one senior is on the roster.

Shenk thinks his defense should be solid, although it absorbed a tough blow when senior defender Chris Gross (Sr., Central Kitsap HS, Bremerton, Wash.) was lost for the season with a thigh injury.

Goalkeeper Sarah Iversen (So., Rogers HS, Puyallup, Wash.) was a backup last season but started four games. In front of her will be sweeper Lisel Goertzen (Sr., Milwaukie HS, Ore.). Goertzen, an NSCAA All-West Region second-team selection last year, helped George Fox hold its opponents to 1.26 goals per game.

Shenk has three experienced players to fill two marking back positions. He expects to start Kara Erikson (Jr., W.F. East HS, Chehalis, Wash.) and either April Sterhan (So., Milwaukie HS, Ore.) or Beth Kahut

(Jr., LaSalle HS, Milwaukie, Ore.).

"We've got good speed in the backs," he said.

The midfield positions are up in the air. Returning will be Staci Morris (Jr., Camas HS, Wash.) and Kyla Yokers (So., Seattle Christian HS, Wash.), but Shenk is undecided on the other two spots.

Contending for a starting role is Columbia Basin Community College transfer Heidi Hughes (Jr., Sunnyside Christian HS, Prosser, Wash.).

Kahut — if she doesn't play defense — will join the midfielders, and Megan Brownlee (So., South Eugene HS, Ore.) could play either midfield or forward.

With the graduation of Bonera, Shenk says the Lady Bruin style may change a bit.

"Our offense will not be geared around one person as it used to be," Shenk said. "We'll try to be more aggressive on offense. We have a bit more team speed. We're looking at changing our formation and committing more people to offense. We'll use a little more high-pressure defense, and we want to make a quicker transition to offense — use the long ball a bit more. It'll be a learning process."

Returning forwards will be Sarah Bowder (So., Tigard HS, Ore.), Brownlee or Katrina Crabb (So., Hilo HS, Hawaii). They are joined by the lone freshman cracking the starting line-up: Jennifer Overstreet (Fr., Beaverton HS, Ore.), who won all-Metro League first-team honors at Beaverton High.

Other freshmen expected to contribute off the bench are midfielder/defender Jennifer Rahm (Fr., South Eugene HS, Ore.), midfielder Kayla McKinstry (Fr., Canby HS, Ore.) and defender Valerie Cole (Fr., Sheldon HS, Eugene, Ore.).

George Fox's lone senior, Lisel Goertzen, will anchor the defense.

Another newcomer is assistant coach Nik Goertzen, older brother of Lisel Goertzen.

"Nik has brought a lot to us," said Shenk. "I think he gives us some real freshness."

Previously, Goertzen was an assistant coach at Canby High School.

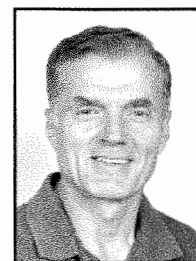

Looking ahead to George Fox's second year in the Northwest Conference, Shenk's main concern is depth. During the first days of practice, just 14 of the 19 players out have been healthy.

Although their overall record was 6-10-2 last year, the Lady Bruins made a late rush for the conference playoffs. George Fox won three of its final four games and finished one spot shy of a playoff berth.

"We hope to build on our strong finish and carry it on to the new season," said Shenk. "This team has the potential to be better than last year's."

George Fox plays a non-conference contest with Seattle University in its home opener Saturday (Sept. 7). Since Sept. 17, 1993, the Lady Bruins have a 15-2-5 record on Morse Field.

The schedule includes a trip to California, where George Fox will compete against NCAA Division II competition at Humboldt State University.

Head Coach Byron Shenk

Byron Shenk has built George Fox's women's soccer program from infancy to conference contender.

He was the program's first coach in 1991. His first squad was made up almost exclusively of freshmen but won its first game and advanced to the NAIA District 2 semifinals. The next year,

George Fox ranked in the NAIA's national top 20 poll after upsetting No. 1-ranked and defending national champion Pacific Lutheran University. The 1992 and 1993 teams both advanced to the district championship game.

In 1994, George Fox recorded its best ever record at 9-3-3. The team outscored its opponents 58-17, ranking in the NAIA's top 20 in offense and defense.

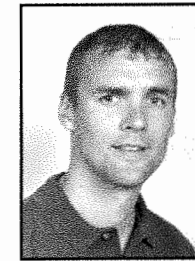

Coaching honors have come with the team successes. In 1992, he shared the National Soccer Coaches Association of America Coach of the Year award for the West Region. He was named NAIA District 2 Coach of the Year in 1992 and 1993.

Shenk's players are well-cared for. He is a certified athletic trainer and strength and conditioning specialist. He earned a doctorate in education in sports medicine from the University of Virginia and a master's in physical education from the University of Oregon.

He is chair of George Fox's Department of Health and Human Performance.

Shenk has plenty of coaching experience. He coached men's soccer for 18 years at Eastern Mennonite College in Virginia and three years at Goshen College in Indiana.

Shenk and his wife, Ina, live in McMinnville.

Assistant Coach Nik Goertzen

Nik Goertzen joins George Fox's coaching staff as an assistant this season.

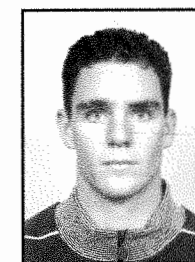

He has four years of soccer coaching experience as an assistant for boys and girls high school teams.

He was a 1987 graduate of Clackamas High School, where he was a cross country, basketball and track athlete. He earned a degree in speech communication and public relations from Oregon State University in 1991.

His sister Lisel is George Fox's starting sweeper.

Goertzen currently works as at Wilsonville High School where he will be varsity girls basketball coach in 1996-97. He lives in Southeast Portland.

Assistant Coach Jeff Nelson

None have better credentials to be George Fox's goalkeeper coach than Jeff Nelson. A 1995 George Fox grad, he was named NAIA National Goalkeeper of the Year by the Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America. Three different national associations have labeled him an All-American.

A North Medford High School graduate, Nelson holds George Fox season and career records for most shutouts, fewest goals allowed, and best goals-per-game average.

Nelson has played two seasons with the Cascade Surge professional soccer team in Salem, Ore. He and his wife, Christy, live in Newberg.
