Dear Friend:-

When the Pacific College board made me president emeritus, after I had served as president for thirty years, their resolution provided that "he shall be free to serve the interests of Pacific College, the Society of Friends and the Kingdom of God as he sees fit and is able."

No definite plans for the more distant future have been made. I should be glad if I might later make an extensive trip among friends and Friends in America, with visits to Quaker centers, and especially Quaker educational centers, for any service for which way might open. But if such a trip is made it will not be for some months at least.

In the meantime I have more liberty than I have formerly had for services "for the Society of Friends and the Kingdom of God" outside of Pacific College. I wish to be busy and so far as possible helpful. If you have need for any service which I can render, I shall be glad to hear from you.

Sincerely your friend,

Levi T. Pennington
