Visionaires Sing at Presidential Breakfast

Speeding home from the Manila Crusade where they were featured, World Vision's radio quartet, The Visionaires, sang at the annual Presidential Breakfast at Washington, D. C.

Because of affairs of state President Eisenhower was unable to attend this year's breakfast. His greetings were presented by Vice-President Richard Nixon to a capacity crowd of Congressional, government and religious leaders from all over the nation.

The Visionaires also sang at various meetings of the International Christian Leadership Convention that followed, highlighted by the annual banquet where Billy Graham was principal speaker.

Following the ICL convention the quartet appeared in meetings on the east coast with World Vision Representative Rev. Frank Weller.

Dear Mr. Pierce:

I am a boy 8 years old. I am sending this 25c to help make a church in Formosa. I heard your radio program and I wanted to send it.

Ronald

Letters

Dear Radio Partner,

We listen each Sunday Morning to your broadcast and receive a blessing from each one. Especially last Sunday A.M. with the Missionary, Mrs. Lillian Dixon, giving her report of the wonderful work with the Formosans. Enclosed find a check for one hundred dollars for the use of that particular Ministry. This is part of my tithe and in loving memory of my husband who was killed while at work just 3 years ago at Christmas Time.

Thankful to say he was a saved Christian as are both my children.

We are praying for your work also and hope for your great success at this season, and in the coming year.

L. P.

Dear Dr. Pierce,

I listen to your program as I travel home on Sundays from visiting my husband in the hospital. He was stricken with severe bulbar and spinal Poliomyelitis in July of last year. I hope you will add your prayers to ours for his recovery.

We surely pray for World Vision and all of its work for our Lord. May He richly bless you and continue to use you in a mighty way.

Mrs. L. S.

Dear Friends:

Since the recent service which your group held in our church, the First Baptist of Burbank, the Lord laid it upon our hearts to "Convert" our second car (which I called the Lord's car anyway!) into cash where it might be doing a lot more good.

We pray the blessing of God in the using of this portion of our "Chevy." We know He is blessing your Ministry with these dear little children.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C.
Burbank, California
