A STORY OF SANTA

OOO

This is a story about where Santa came from. Where he really came from, no one in this part of the country really knows, since it's so near to Christmas one can make a guess where Santa might come from. Well, Children Santa might have come from the North Pole. Well he might have, because he has a sleigh, he also have a team of eight (8) reindeer, he also dresses warm. But he do not seem to wear warm muk-luks, he wears boots, so Santa might have come from Santa-Fee to give good boys and girls Christmas presents. He starts his journey around the world on Christmas Eve, bringing Christmas presents both to the rich and poor. Bringing happiness to all, he flies through the air. Well of course he can fly, he have a team of eight(8) reindeer that can fly through the air, so that he can bring presents and happiness to young and old alike, also saying

THE CHRISTMAS GREETING

OOO

All men and women and children are happy that Christmas is almost here. There will be lots of people in church. I am very happy Christmas is almost here. My piece starts like this a welcome. I have eight lines, I've learned all my lines. I will say my piece loud and clear so people can hear. I am very happy Christmas is almost here and my happiness will be in Christmas twenty five. Tim and Rosaire are happy too. I don't want children to fight around here. We all should be happy too. We will have a good feast. We will all be happy. All children should be happy. I should be real happy. I am very happy. I am waiting to have Christmas here to say my piece. Now I better have fun.

We might sing a song, its called Silent Night. I think the girls will sing the ~~first~~ first one and us boys the third one. And all of us will sing the last one. White people should be happy too. The children are waiting too. We will be eating food like last Christmas. People will give us gifts.

I wish Mr. Perry and his family and Isaac and Shirley will be here at Christmas. Isaac said he have lots of friends in school. They don't fight him. Isaac said in his letter he is very happy too. He have neighbors so far away from him. I am glad he have lots of friend. We are all happy too. You should be happy too.

I have to make long too-sah-you-ah.

SANTA WILL BE COMING TODAY !

OOO

A surprise is in store for all the children of Noorvik, for Santa Claus is coming to town today!

The last we heard, Santa was heading in this direction but was having some trouble with his reindeer. Maybe one of the men will have to go out after Santa by sno-traveler to get him here in time.

So all you children keep your eyes open today and maybe you'll see Santa Claus coming.

COMPLAINTS FROM SNOW TRAVELER
OWNERS

OOO

The kids have been jumping on snow travelers and on the sleds they are towing.

It is very dangerous to jump on a moving vehicle or what ever the vehicle is towing.

Some one could get hurt, not just broken bones, could be the end of life for some one.

Kids! do not get on a moving snow traveler or the sled.

If the owner tells you not to ride, do not get on.

Parents of the children, please tell your children not to jump on moving vehicles. A snow traveler is also a motor vehicle.
