AH-NUK-TUCK
O

We had a game at Armory. We played games about Ah-nuk-tuck, Boy! it was a lot of fun too. Our captain Willard Outwater was lose that game and Rollyn Kagoona won the game. In New Years Day, boy, we played games, we quit around 9 O'clock in the morning. And so we had a dance again. Tony Foster was a singer like Buck Owens. Boy, it was tough to play games like pulling with your fingers.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT
OOO

We left from here on the 28th of December for the basketball tournament at Kotzebue. When we reached Kotzebue, one man that was to play in the tournament directed us to stay in the places of relatives. He told us to go to the school at 2 o'clock to practice. After we practiced for 3 hours we were invited to eat dinner at Ferguson's Restaurant. A chubby man gave us reindeer stew, salads, beans, bread, coffee and dessert.

We talked a while and went home to change our clothes and went to the basketball tournament to play at 6 P.M. We first played Cape Lisburne Air Force team and we lost. Many people would cheer when one of our men made a basket. We played again at 9 P.M. against Kotzebue Lions. We didn't play very well because we were tired. We stayed another day but we did not play again. So on the next day we went home.

MISTAKE MADE
O

In the last issue a mistake was made. The sign in the coffee shop that reads "Minors under 18 not allowed in coffee shop unless they come to buy" was not posted by Charlie Harvey. It was posted by the coffee shop owner. Our apologies for the error.

THANKS TO WOOD-GATHERERS

OOO

A hearty thanks goes to all those who helped get wood to heat the Church for Christmas week.

Jack Pungalik, Sidney Foster, Daniel Foster, and Joe Mazurak cut trees. Joe Field, Daniel Sheldon, Walter Morris, Robert Newlin, Tommie Tebbits, Raymond George, and Earl Parisho hauled the wood by "sno-gos". Some of them made several trips. Leslie Coffin, Danny Thompson, Matthew Melton, Tony Foster, Jackie Snyder, and Albert Sheldon were at the church to cut and pile the wood.

We all appreciate this help.
