Dear Pastor:

In stopping at the Auditorium Monday afternoon to fill mail orders for our concert next Monday night, I ran across a pastor buying a block of 35 tickets! What had happened was a number of couples in his congregation had decided to make this event a special time of fellowship together. This struck us as such a good idea that we felt like sharing it with you. There are still choice tickets available at the Auditorium and other outlets. Perhaps you or some interested laymen can put together such a group even yet--including some non-Christian friends. The concert will be a unique blend of fun, entertainment and Christian witness and many feel it will afford ideal opportunity to influence their unchurched friends toward Christ. We're praying that the Holy Spirit will use the entire evening to God's glory!
