

1-1-2012

Contributors -- Quaker Religious Thought, no. 119

Howard R. Macy
hmacy@georgefox.edu

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/qrt>

 Part of the Christianity Commons

Recommended Citation

Macy, Howard R. (2012) "Contributors -- Quaker Religious Thought, no. 119," Quaker Religious Thought: Vol. 119, Article 10.
Available at: <http://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/qrt/vol119/iss1/10>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Commons @ George Fox University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Quaker Religious Thought by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ George Fox University.

CONTRIBUTORS

STEPHEN W. ANGELL is Leatherock Professor of Quaker Studies at Earlham School of Religion. He is a member of Oxford Friends Meeting of Ohio Valley Yearly Meeting. He grew up in Quaker meetings in Pennsylvania and New York, including Westbury Meeting on Long Island, very near where Elias Hicks had lived. Although united by that time, anyone could still see the separate meetinghouses that had been built for the Hicksites and the Orthodox on the Westbury Meeting grounds. He became convinced that healing splits and reconciling Friends was blessed and essential work for God's people.

JOSHUA BROWN has been serving Friends since 1977 in New England, New York and Indiana Yearly Meetings. He is currently serving as pastoral minister at West Richmond Friends Meeting in Richmond, IN.

PAUL BUCKLEY attends Community Friends Meeting in Cincinnati, Ohio. He is a Quaker historian and theologian, known among Friends of all stripes for his workshops, short courses, and retreats. He also teaches occasionally at the Earlham School of Religion. Paul has written books on William Penn and Elias Hicks. He also has a great interest in how Quakers read scripture, authored a widely-used pamphlet on the Lord's Prayer, and co-edited The Quaker Bible Reader with Stephen Angell.

DAVID JOHNS is Associate Professor of Theology at the Earlham School of Religion. During Spring semester 2012 he was Scholar in Residence at the Centro de Estudios EcuMénicos in Mexico City and later was Scholar in Residence at Reedwood Friends Church in Portland, Oregon. While at Reedwood he presented two short courses: "Doing Theology in a Quaker Mood," and "Migrant, Pilgrim, Passport(ed) People." He recently edited a collection of Maurice Creasey's writings, and a collection of his own work, Quakering Theology, will be available soon from Ashgate Publishing.

JIM LE SHANA is the Vice President of Academics and Director of the MA in Transformational Leadership at Barclay College in Haviland, Kansas. He is one of the founders and the current chairman of the Friends Center, the seminary experience for Friends leaders at the Graduate School of Theology of Azusa Pacific University and a member of the Board of Trustees of George Fox University. Prior to moving to Kansas, Jim served as a pastor for 30 years at Rose Drive Friends Church in Yorba Linda, California. As a partner with Bridge-Building Church Consultants, Jim offers coaching, counseling, training, and consulting to pastors and other church leaders in a variety of settings

60 • CONTRIBUTORS

HOWARD R. MACY is Professor Emeritus of Religion and Biblical Studies at George Fox University in Newberg, Oregon. He participates in the life and worship ministries of Newberg Friends Church, and he continues to write and to serve in public ministry as way opens. The book Stepping in the Light, from Friends United Press, gathers many of the articles he has written for Friends.

CAROLE DALE SPENCER is Associate Professor of Christian Spirituality at Earlham School of Religion in Richmond Indiana. She is a recorded minister in Northwest Yearly Meeting of the Friends Church in Newberg, Oregon, and a member of Reedwood Friends Church in Portland, Oregon, and a sojourning member of West Richmond Friends Meeting in Richmond, Indiana. She is the author of Holiness: The Soul of Quakerism, Paternoster, 2007.