LUTES WEAR DOWN BRUINS FOR 3-1 WIN

NEWBERG, Ore. --- In a four-game match that featured numerous long rallies, few long scoring strings, and took over two hours, the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes wore down the George Fox University Bruins 3-1 in a Northwest Conference women's volleyball match Friday night (Oct. 13) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Lutes, who beat the Bruins 3-2 in Tacoma back on Sept. 15, made it three straight wins over George Fox with a 15-11, 15-10, 12-15, 15-2 victory. PLU climbed to 9-8 overall and 5-4 in the conference, while the home-standing Bruins fell to 5-10 overall and 3-6 in the league.

In the first two games of the match, the Lutes gradually worked their way to big leads, only to have the Bruins reverse the trend and make things close. PLU held a 13-7 lead in the first game and was up at one point 9-2 in the second before the Bruins made it interesting. In the third game, George Fox took a 14-6 lead before the Lutes reeled off six unanswered points to throw a scare into the home team. The fourth game was all PLU, however, as Jenne Heu-Weller served five winning points to open the game and the Lutes never looked back, out-hitting the Bruins .435 to -.036 in the finale.

Suzanne and Renee Beauchene led the Lutes on offense with 21 and 14 kills respectively, Suzanne hitting .383 for the game and Renee .293. Nicole Bostic led the Bruins with 16 kills and Jennifer Westerberg added 11. PLU out-hit the Bruins in the match .176 to .107.

With numerous long rallies, each team had over 100 digs in the four games, PLU recording 107 and George Fox 105. Six players on each team had double figures in digs, Annie Rolph and Jill Muhm of the Lutes with a game-high 25 digs each, while Bostic had 21 and Westerberg 19 to pace the Bruins.

Heu-Weller had 52 assists for PLU and Mindi Yost 44 for George Fox. Lynette Domench recorded seven blocks for the Bruins, while Mettie Burris led PLU with five before leaving the match early in the fourth game with a sprained ankle.

George Fox returns to the court Saturday night (Oct. 14), hosting conference leader the University of Puget Sound, unbeaten and ranked No. 8 in the nation, at 7:00 p.m. Pacific Lutheran visits Linfield College Saturday at 7:00 p.m.

The Bruins at one point held a 2-1 lead in games but could not put the Lutes away, eventually falling 10-15, 15-13, 16-14, 12-15, 5-15. It was the third straight loss for George Fox, which fell to 2-5 overall and 0-1 in the conference, while Pacific Lutheran improved to 5-4 and 1-0.

Middle blockers Shelly Schultens with 17 and Lynette Domench with 12 were the only Bruins in double figures in kills. Setter Mindi Yost passed off for 32 assists and led the defensive effort with a career-high 27 digs. Domench also had four solo blocks.

BRUINS START FAST BUT CAN'T FINISH OFF LA VERNE IN 3-2 LOSS

NEWBERG, Ore. --- After taking the first two games, the George Fox University Bruins appeared to have their 2000 women's volleyball season opener well in hand. It was not to be, however, as the University of La Verne Leopards rallied for a 3-2 win over the Bruins Friday night (Sept. 8) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The youthful Bruins, who have only two seniors and only two starters back from last year's 19-7 squad, could not put away the visiting Leopards, who were playing their season opener, and fell 15-10, 15-9, 8-15, 11-15, 10-15, dropping their season record to 2-3.

Outside hitter Amy Brummel, the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Year in 1999, led the La Verne comeback with 22 kills and 21 digs, while Stacey Lupu had 17 kills and Ryan Winn had 45 assists.

George Fox was led by freshman hitter Nicole Bostic, who had 18 kills and 14 assists, while sophomore hitter Lacey Langmade added 10 kills and 11 digs. The Bruins had six players in double figures in digs, led by sophomore setter Mindi Yost, who had 18 to go with a match-high 47 assists.

The Bruins will try to even their record Saturday (Sept. 9) with a neutral-site match against Seattle University, playing at Lewis & Clark College in Portland at 2:00 p.m. La Verne will play two matches Saturday at Lewis & Clark, meeting Willamette University at 12:00 noon and the host team at 7:30 p.m.

BRUINS MAKE IT TWO IN A ROW WITH 3-0 WIN OVER PIONEERS

NEWBERG, Ore. --- After a first-game struggle that saw them nearly blow a seven-point lead, the George Fox University Bruins took control quickly in the second and third games and went on to a 3-0 victory (15-13, 15-2, 15-6) over the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers in a Northwest Conference women's volleyball match Saturday night (Oct. 21) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

In the first game, the Bruins raced from a 4-4 tie to an 11-4 lead, only to have the Pioneers battle back to within one at 14-13. But George Fox middle blocker Shelly Schultens took advantage of a Lewis & Clark overpass to spike the ball for the winning kill. The second game was all Bruins, who scored the final nine points after an early 6-2 lead. In the finale, Nicole Bostic served five straight winning points to boost the Bruins from a 6-6 tie to an 11-6 lead, and Schultens eventually closed out the match with a service ace.

The Bruins had one of their best hitting nights of the year with an attack percentage of .242, recording 46 kills with only 17 errors. Jennifer Westerberg was the only Bruin in double figures in kills with 11 as 11 different players shared the attack wealth. Mindi Yost had 34 assists and a match-high 14 digs, while Westerberg had 11 digs and Heidi Vander Stoep 10.

The Pioneers managed only a .111 hitting mark and had no one in double figures in kills, Erin Comstock being the highest with eight. Lizzie Woodburn assisted on 26 of the Pioneers' 32 kills, while Comstock and Liana Dawson were high for Lewis & Clark in digs with 12 each.

George Fox, posting a two-game winning streak for only the second time this year, climbed to 7-11 overall and 5-7 in the league. Lewis & Clark dropped its sixth straight game and fell to 1-15 overall and 1-11 in the NWC.

The Pioneers host Pacific University, the only team they have beaten this season, on Thursday (Oct. 26), while the Bruins visit Yamhill County rival Linfield College Friday (Oct. 27). Both matches are at 7:00 p.m.

PORTLAND, Ore. --- Setter Mindi Yost passed out 53 assists and led a quintet of Bruins in double figures in digs with 23, and the Bruins, already leading the Northwest Conference in blocks, recorded 13 more as George Fox University downed the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers 3-1 in women's volleyball action Saturday night (Sept. 23) here at the Pamplin Sports Center.

The Bruins, despite leading 14-6 and having a chance at game point, could not put the home-standing Pioneers away in the first game and eventually fell 14-16, but recovered to take the next three 15-10, 15-5, 15-8.

In addition to Yost's digs, Amy Forbes added 14, Heidi Vander Stoep 12, and Heather Peebles and Jennifer Westerberg 11 each as the Bruins outdug the Pioneers 102-75. WILDCATS COMPLETE SEASON SWEEP OF YAMHILL COUNTY RIVAL BRUINS

McMINNVILLE, Ore. ---Maintaining at least a share of second place in the Northwest Conference standings behind nationally-ranked University of Puget Sound, the Linfield College Wildcats dispatched the George Fox University Bruins 3-1 (15-5, 15-9, 12-15, 15-5) Saturday night (Oct. 27) here at Ted Wilson Gym, completing a season sweep of their Yamhill County rivals.

In the opening game, the Wildcats broke away from a 4-4 tie to out-score the Bruins 11-1 over the remainder of the game. The second contest saw the home team take an early 5-1 lead and stretch it to 11-4, but the Bruins mounted a challenge, cutting the lead to 12-9, before the Wildcats closed out the game.

In the third game, George Fox battled back from a 6-2 deficit as Heidi Vander Stoep served seven straight winning points, including back-to-back aces, to take a 9-6 lead, then hung on for the victory. Game four saw the Bruins jump out to an early 4-0 lead before Linfield rallied, reeling off eight unanswered points for an 8-4 lead and going on to victory.

Anna Gradek spiked 16 kills and Sara Kaiser added 10 to lead the offensive attack of the Wildcats, who out-hit the Bruins .151 to -.036. Denise Lum-Lung led a strong defensive effort with a game-high 18 digs and Gradek had six blocks. Katie Leitheiser passed out 35 assists.

The Bruins got an offensive high of eight kills from Jennifer Westerberg and 18 assists from Mindi Yost. Defensively, Heidi Vander Stoep was all over the place, leading the Bruins with 15 digs and five blocks.

QUICK EARLY LEADS BOOST LINFIELD PAST BRUINS 3-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Jumping out to large leads early in every game, the Linfield College Wildcats captured their fifth straight win, all against Northwest Conference competition, in defeating the George Fox University Bruins 3-0 (15-11, 15-8, 15-3) in women's volleyball Friday night (Sept. 29) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The home-standing Bruins dropped their second in a row and fell to 4-8 overall, 2-4 in the conference. The visiting Wildcats climbed to 7-4 overall and maintained at least a share of first place in the league with the University of Puget Sound at 5-0 in conference play.

In the opening game, Linfield jumped out to an 11-3 before George Fox rallied, cutting the margin to 13-11 before the Wildcats nailed down the 15-11 win. In the second contest, it was 10-2 Linfield at one point before the Bruins mounted a mild charge, but it was not enough as the Wildcats prevailed 15-8. In the third game, Linfield raced out to a 14-2 lead before the teams had gone through their service rotation once, and while the Bruins managed several side-outs to prolong the match, the deficit was too much for the home team to make up and they dropped the finale 15-3.

An accurate hitting attack was the key for Linfield as the Wildcats more than doubled the Bruins' attack percentage, .276 to .130. Andrea Beck had 11 kills for Linfield, while Anna Gradek and Denise Lum-Lung added 10 each. Katie Leitheiser led a quintet of Wildcats in double figures in digs with 15 and added 43 assists.

For the Bruins, Shelly Shultens was the only player in double figures in kills with 13, and had a game-high four blocks. Mindi Yost, last week's NWC Player of the Week, made 14 digs and passed out 34 assists. Amy Forbes chipped in with 10 digs and nine kills.

George Fox has an open date on Saturday, returning to NWC action next Friday (Oct. 6) at home against Whitman College at 7:00 p.m. Linfield visits Pacific University Saturday (Sept. 30) for a conference match at 7:00 p.m.

BRUINS WIN SEE-SAW BATTLE WITH BOXERS 3-0

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- In a see-saw affair that saw major lead changes in each of the first two games, the George Fox University Bruins prevailed 3-0 (15-12, 15-12, 15-9) over the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference women's volleyball match Friday night (Oct. 20) here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

George Fox took big leads in each of the first two games, surrendered all of them, then rallied for victory. Only in the third and final game did the Bruins lead the entire way.

In the first game of the night, George Fox's Shelly Schultens connected for eight straight service winners to give the Bruins the 9-2 advantage. However, Pacific's Erin Brady compiled a rally of her own, hitting eight straight winners, including two aces, to pull the Boxers ahead 11-9. The Boxers' Ann Kaltwasser made it 12-10, but then Pacific stalled as Schultens closed out the game.

Game two was a more balanced contest, although once again George Fox took an early advantage. The Bruins rushed out to a 9-6 lead before Sarah Hall hit four straight winners for the Boxers to knot the game at 10-10. The Boxers then took a 12-10 lead on two winners by Kaltwasser, but Mindi Yost rallied the Bruins to five straight points and the victory.

Errors spelled early doom for Pacific with the Bruins taking a quick 10-2 lead, including five straight points by Heidi Stuelnagel, to open game three. Chris Beck connected on five straight winners to bring the Boxers within three at 10-7, but the Bruins regained their composure to end the match, outscoring the Boxers 5-2 on the next two rotations.

Amy Forbes had 11 kills to lead George Fox, Heidi Vander Stoep had five kills and a .500 percentage, and Jennifer Westerberg finished with eight kills. Yost had ~~20~~³⁰ assists and a match-high 19 digs.

Erin Akre led the Boxers at the net with seven kills and a .250 hitting percentage, Kaltwasser also had seven kills, and Brady finished with six kills, two aces and a .250 percentage. Beck led the Boxers with ~~16~~²⁴ assists.

George Fox improved to 6-11 and 4-7 in the conference with the win, while Pacific dropped to 3-13 and 0-11 in the NWC. The Bruins return home Saturday (Oct. 21) to take on Lewis & Clark College at 7:00 p.m., while the Boxers take to the highway Saturday, playing a 7:00 p.m. contest at Pacific Lutheran University.

In the opening game, Pacific jumped out to an early 3-0 lead before the Bruins rallied to go up 4-3. Lacey Langmade then served 10 consecutive winning points as the Bruins took control 14-3 and went on to win 15-3.

In the second game, the Boxers again forged ahead, leading at one point 9-3, before the home team recovered. Down 10-11, Heather Peeples served consecutive aces to give the Bruins the lead for good, and later in the game added another ace, helping the Bruins to the 15-12 win.

In the final game, it was Bruins' turn to start quickly, taking a 6-0 lead and eventually stretching it to 12-3. Bruins coach Steve Grant pulled several starters at that point and the Boxers took advantage, cutting the lead to 14-11 before the Bruins notched the final point.

Jennifer Westerberg with 13 kills and a .281 attack percentage and Nicole Bostic with 10 kills and a .318 percentage led the Bruins on offense. Defensively, Mindi Yost had 17 digs, Peeples 13, and Westerberg 12, and Shelly Schultens added 4 blocks. Yost passed out 39 assists.

BRUINS OVERPOWERED BY NATIONALLY-RANKED LOGGERS 3-0

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Showing why they are considered a top-10 team, the University of Puget Sound Loggers spotted the George Fox University Bruins early leads in two games, then roared back to post a 3-0 victory (15-5, 15-3, 15-7) in Northwest Conference women's volleyball action Saturday night (Oct. 14) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

In the opening game, the Bruins jumped out to a 5-1 lead against the Loggers, who are ranked No. 8 nationally in NCAA Division III and No. 1 in the West Region. UPS responded, however, by reeling off 14 unanswered points to take the opener 15-5. The Loggers led from start to finish in the second game, leading 14-1 before the Bruins managed a couple of additional points to make the final score 15-3. In the finale, George Fox again led early at 4-2, but UPS recovered to go up 13-4 as both teams began to give their reserves some playing time. The Loggers eventually closed out the match 15-7.

Karen Elmgren, the NWC Player of the Week the last two weeks, posted a game-high 16 kills while hitting .433 for the match. She was the only player in double figures as the Loggers out-hit the Bruins .262 to .071 and recorded 45 kills to only 26 for the home team. Jennifer Westerberg had eight kills to pace the Bruins.

BRUINS FALL IN THREE STRAIGHT TO UNBEATEN LOGGERS

TACOMA, Wash. --- They may not have been the pre-season conference favorites, but the University of Puget Sound Loggers continued to serve notice that they will be a force to be reckoned with in Northwest Conference women's volleyball this season, handing the George Fox University Bruins a 3-0 setback Saturday night (Sept. 16) here at Memorial Fieldhouse.

It was the second time the two teams had met this season (they played on Sept. 2 in the Pikes Peak Challenge in Colorado Springs, Colo.), and the result was similar to their first meeting, the Bruins falling this time by scores of 7-15, 6-15, 6-15.

Outside hitter Eileen Gamache and middle hitter Karen Elmgrem combined for 30 kills in the match as the Loggers hit .282 to .008 for the Bruins. The Bruins committed 28 hitting errors. George Fox was led by Amy Forbes with eight kills and Jennifer Westerberg had six. The Loggers also dominated net play with 13 blocking assists. Lindsy Weber led Puget Sound in assists with 46 and Mindi Yost had 22 assists for the Bruins.

George Fox led 2-1 in the first game before the Loggers ran off a string of points, putting UPS in the lead 10-7, and they finished out the game by a score of 15-7. In game two, the Loggers jumped ahead 9-1 before the Bruins could rally back to a 10-6 score, but UPS put it away by running off five straight points for the 15-6 victory. Game three had the Bruins with the early lead 2-1, only the second time the Bruins had led all match, but the Loggers put a string of points together to take a 7-4 lead and cruised to a 15-6 win.

UPS won its eighth in a row and is now 8-0 overall and 2-0 in the NWC. George Fox falls to 2-6 overall and 0-2 in NWC. The Loggers play at home this Wednesday (Sept. 20) at 7:00 p.m. against Pacific Lutheran, while the Bruins host Pacific University on Friday (Sept. 22) at 7:00 p.m.

On another scheduling note, the Bruins and Lewis & Clark Pioneers have switched home sites for their two matches due to a scheduling conflict the Pioneers have for their Pamplin Sports Center on Oct. 21. The two will now play in Portland on Sept. 23 and in Newberg on Oct. 21, with the 7:00 p.m. start times remaining the same.

WALLA WALLA, Wash. --- Offensive inconsistency, a problem for the George Fox University women's volleyball team throughout most of this season, reared its head again Friday night (Nov. 3) here at the Sherwood Center as the Bruins dropped a 3-0 decision (15-6, 15-8, 16-14) to the Whitman College Missionaries in a Northwest Conference encounter.

BRUINS USE BALANCED GAME TO DEFEAT WHITMAN 3-1

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Playing perhaps their best all-around game of the year, the George Fox University Bruins used both a strong offensive attack and tenacious defense to defeat the Whitman College Missionaries 3-1 (15-7, 15-9, 4-15, 15-11) in a Northwest Conference women's volleyball match Friday night (Oct. 6) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins outhit the Missionaries .182-.144, their third-best attack percentage of the season, with Amy Forbes contributing a game-high 17 kills to lead the way while hitting .295. Nicole Bostic chipped in with 11 kills and Jennifer Westerberg added 10. The Bruins also showed a strong serving game with nine aces, led by Shelly Schultens' four.

Five Bruins reached double figures in digs as the home team saved 77 attacks to 63 for the visitors from Walla Walla, Wash. Bostic had a game-high 21, followed by Forbes with 14, Westerberg and Mindi Yost with 11, and Bree Stairs with 10. Yost passed out 50 assists.

For Whitman, Kelly Williams had 14 kills and 13 digs, Jill Huber had 12 kills and 16 digs, and Valarie Hamm added 13 digs. Claire Novotny had 39 assists.

George Fox led 11-2 at one point in the first game and 10-4 in the second, while Whitman scored six straight to open the third game and built up a 12-2 advantage. The fourth game was a see-saw affair with five lead changes, and the Bruins' final winning margin of four was the largest lead either team had in the game.

George Fox snapped a two-game skid with the win and improved to 5-8 overall, 3-4 in the conference. Whitman dropped its fifth match in the last six and fell to 11-7 overall, 3-5 in the league. The Bruins host Whitworth College Saturday (Oct. 7) at 7:00 p.m., while the Missionaries are off until next Friday (Oct. 13), when they will visit Pacific University at 7:00 p.m.

The Bruins, falling for the fourth straight time, ended with a 7-15 overall mark and a 5-11 record in the conference. The Pirates' win, which assured them of no worse than a tie for third in the NWC, improved their record to 17-8 overall and 12-4 in the league, their best regular season mark since 1991.

In the third game, Whitworth again took a big lead at 12-6 before the Bruins rallied to win the last nine points and the game. In the fourth game, the Pirates survived another scare after taking a seemingly-comfortable 13-6 lead, only to have George Fox get within 14-12 before the match ended.

HOME SEASON ENDS FOR BRUINS WITH 3-2 LOSS TO WILLAMETTE

NEWBERG, Ore. --- George Fox University's women's volleyball team closed out its 2000 home season on a disappointing note Saturday night (Oct. 28) here at the Wheeler Sports Center, falling 3-2 to the Willamette University Bearcats in a Northwest Conference encounter.

The visiting Bearcats rallied from behind twice to win the match, prevailing 6-15, 15-11, 10-15, 15-7, 15-8. In the first game, the Bruins broke a 4-4 tie with 10 unanswered points and coasted to the win, but the second game was a nip-and-tuck affair, neither team holding more than a three-point lead until the final winning Willamette margin.

The third game saw the Bruins race out to a 6-1 lead, only to have the Bearcats come back for a brief 7-6 advantage, but George Fox scored six of the final seven points to go up two games to one. The final two games belonged to Willamette, however, the Bearcats leaping in front 11-2 to take command in the fourth, and taking an 8-4 lead in rally scoring in the fifth that the Bruins could not overcome.

Jenni Linden led the Willamette attack with 17 kills and a .405 attack percentage as the Bearcats out-hit the Bruins .184 to .137. Kelly Sorenson added 15 kills and Kelli Truax 10. Sorenson, who leads the nation in digs per game (5.99) had only 22 in the match, but it led the team. Lindsay Wetzler with 21 digs and Linden with 20 also chipped in defensively, while Shelly Patton had a match-high seven blocks.

For the Bruins, Jennifer Westerberg pounded out a match-high 19 kills, and was joined on offense by Amy Forbes and Shelly Schultens with 13 each. Schultens led the way at the net with five blocks, while Yost passed out 45 assists.

George Fox fell to 7-13 with the loss, 5-9 in the conference, and closed out the home slate with a 3-6 mark at Wheeler. Willamette improved to 9-12 overall and 6-7 in the NWC. The Bruins visit Whitman College Friday (Nov. 3) while Willamette hosts Pacific Lutheran University Friday, both conference contests at 7:00p.m.

BRUINS DROP SEASON FINALE 3-1 AT WHITWORTH

SPOKANE, Wash. --- Concluding their swing through eastern Washington and their 2000 season on a down note, the George Fox University Bruins dropped a 3-1 decision (4-15, 15-13, 9-15, 4-15) to the Whitworth College Pirates Saturday evening (Nov. 4) here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse.

The Bruins, falling for the fourth straight time, ended with a 7-15 overall mark and a 5-11 record in the conference. The Pirates' win, which assured them of no worse than a tie for third in the NWC, improved their record to 17-8 overall and 12-4 in the league, their best regular season mark since 1991.

Kristen Turner led a quartet of Pirates in double figures on offense with 18 kills, while Abby Jo Hornstein and Lindsey Wagstaff added 13 and Jill Vaughan 11. Jennifer Westerberg was high for the Bruins with 12 kills and Amy Forbes, playing her last game as one of two seniors on the squad, added 11. The Pirates out-hit the Bruins .263 to .104, making 70 kills to only 40 for George Fox.

Whitworth held a similar advantage defensively, recording 93 digs to only 61 for George Fox. Gretchen Smith led five Pirates in double figures in digs with 17, while Westerberg had the most on the Bruins with 15. The Bruins did hold an edge in blocks, 9 to 6.5, with Shelly Schultens posting a game-high six blocks for George Fox.

After a convincing win in game one, Whitworth held a 13-9 lead in game two, but George Fox rallied to score six straight points for their only win of the match. The Pirates held an 8-1 lead in the third game before the Bruins came back for an 8-8 tie, but the home team outscored the visitors 7-1 the rest of the way. The Pirates were never seriously threatened in the finale.

HOME SEASON ENDS FOR BRUINS WITH 3-2 LOSS TO WILLAMETTE

NEWBERG, Ore. --- George Fox University's women's volleyball team closed out its 2000 home season on a disappointing note Saturday night (Oct. 28) here at the Wheeler Sports Center, falling 3-2 to the Willamette University Bearcats in a Northwest Conference encounter.

The visiting Bearcats rallied from behind twice to win the match, prevailing 6-15, 15-11, 10-15, 15-7, 15-8. In the first game, the Bruins broke a 4-4 tie with 10 unanswered points and coasted to the win, but the second game was a nip-and-tuck affair, neither team holding more than a three-point lead until the final winning Willamette margin.

The third game saw the Bruins race out to a 6-1 lead, only to have the Bearcats come back for a brief 7-6 advantage, but George Fox scored six of the final seven points to go up two games to one. The final two games belonged to Willamette, however, the Bearcats leaping in front 11-2 to take command in the fourth, and taking an 8-4 lead in rally scoring in the fifth that the Bruins could not overcome.

Jenni Linden led the Willamette attack with 17 kills and a .405 attack percentage as the Bearcats out-hit the Bruins .184 to .137. Kelly Sorenson added 15 kills and Kelli Truax 10. George Fox fell to 7-13 with the loss, 5-9 in the conference, and closed out the home slate with a 3-6 mark at Wheeler. Willamette improved to 9-12 overall and 6-7 in the NWC.

BRUINS WIN SEE-SAW BATTLE WITH BOXERS 3-0

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- In a see-saw affair that saw major lead changes in each of the first two games, the George Fox University Bruins prevailed 3-0 (15-12, 15-12, 15-9) over the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference women's volleyball match Friday night (Oct. 20) here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

George Fox took big leads in each of the first two games, surrendered all of them, then rallied for victory. Only in the third and final game did the Bruins lead the entire way.

In the first game of the night, George Fox's Shelly Schultens (So., MB, The Dalles, Ore.) connected for eight straight service winners to give the Bruins the 9-2 advantage. However, Pacific's Erin Brady compiled a rally of her own, hitting eight straight winners, including two aces, to pull the Boxers ahead 11-9. The Boxers' Ann Kaltwasser made it 12-10, but then Pacific stalled as Schultens closed out the game.

Game two was a more balanced contest, although once again George Fox took an early advantage. The Bruins rushed out to a 9-6 lead before Sarah Hall hit four straight winners for the Boxers to knot the game at 10-10. The Boxers then took a 12-10 lead on two winners by Kaltwasser, but Mindi Yost (So., S, Sisters, Ore.) rallied the Bruins to five straight points and the victory.

Errors spelled early doom for Pacific with the Bruins taking a quick 10-2 lead, including five straight points by Heidi Stuelpnagel (Jr., MB, Portland, Ore.), to open game three. Chris Beck connected on five straight winners to bring the Boxers within three at 10-7, but the Bruins regained their composure to end the match, outscoring the Boxers 5-2 on the next two rotations.

Amy Forbes (Sr., OH, Jackson, Wyo.) had 11 kills to lead George Fox, Heidi Vander Stoep (Jr., OH, Woodland, Wash.) had five kills and a .500 percentage, and Jennifer Westerberg (So., OH, Vancouver, Wash.) finished with eight kills. Yost had 30 assists and a match-high 19 digs.

Erin Akre led the Boxers at the net with seven kills and a .250 hitting percentage, Kaltwasser also had seven kills, and Brady finished with six kills, two aces and a .250 percentage. Beck led the Boxers with 16 assists.

BRUINS MAKE IT TWO IN A ROW WITH 3-0 WIN OVER PIONEERS

NEWBERG, Ore. --- After a first-game struggle that saw them nearly blow a seven-point lead, the George Fox University Bruins took control quickly in the second and third games and went on to a 3-0 victory (15-13, 15-2, 15-6) over the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers in a Northwest Conference women's volleyball match Saturday night (Oct. 21) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

In the first game, the Bruins raced from a 4-4 tie to an 11-4 lead, only to have the Pioneers battle back to within one at 14-13. But George Fox middle blocker Shelly Schultens took advantage of a Lewis & Clark overpass to spike the ball for the winning kill. The second game was all Bruins, who scored the final nine points after an early 6-2 lead. In the finale, Nicole Bostic (Fr., OH, Spokane, Wash.) served five straight winning points to boost the Bruins from a 6-6 tie to an 11-6 lead, and Schultens eventually closed out the match with a service ace.

BRUINS MAKE IT TWO IN A ROW WITH 3-0 WIN OVER PIONEERS

NEWBERG, Ore. --- After a first-game struggle that saw them nearly blow a seven-point lead, the George Fox University Bruins took control quickly in the second and third games and went on to a 3-0 victory (15-13, 15-2, 15-6) over the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers in a Northwest Conference women's volleyball match Saturday night (Oct. 21) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

In the first game, the Bruins raced from a 4-4 tie to an 11-4 lead, only to have the Pioneers battle back to within one at 14-13. But George Fox middle blocker Shelly Schultens took advantage of a Lewis & Clark overpass to spike the ball for the winning kill. The second game was all Bruins, who scored the final nine points after an early 6-2 lead. In the finale, Nicole Bostic served five straight winning points to boost the Bruins from a 6-6 tie to an 11-6 lead, and Schultens eventually closed out the match with a service ace.

The Bruins had one of their best hitting nights of the year with an attack percentage of .242, recording 46 kills with only 17 errors. Jennifer Westerberg was the only Bruin in double figures in kills with 11 as 11 different players shared the attack wealth. Mindi Yost had 34 assists and a match-high 14 digs, while Westerberg had 11 digs and Heidi Vander Stoep 10.

The Pioneers managed only a .111 hitting mark and had no one in double figures in kills, Erin Comstock being the highest with eight. Lizzie Woodburn assisted on 26 of the Pioneers' 32 kills, while Comstock and Liana Dawson were high for Lewis & Clark in digs with 12 each.

George Fox, posting a two-game winning streak for only the second time this year, climbed to 7-11 overall and 5-7 in the league. Lewis & Clark dropped its sixth straight game and fell to 1-15 overall and 1-11 in the NWC.

The Pioneers host Pacific University, the only team they have beaten this season, on Thursday (Oct. 26), while the Bruins visit Yamhill County rival Linfield College Friday (Oct. 27). Both matches are at 7:00 p.m.

BRUINS WIN SEE-SAW BATTLE WITH BOXERS 3-0

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- In a see-saw affair that saw major lead changes in each of the first two games, the George Fox University Bruins prevailed 3-0 (15-12, 15-12, 15-9) over the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference women's volleyball match Friday night (Oct. 20) here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

George Fox took big leads in each of the first two games, surrendered all of them, then rallied for victory. Only in the third and final game did the Bruins lead the entire way.

In the first game of the night, George Fox's Shelly Schultens connected for eight straight service winners to give the Bruins the 9-2 advantage. However, Pacific's Erin Brady compiled a rally of her own, hitting eight straight winners, including two aces, to pull the Boxers ahead 11-9. The Boxers' Ann Kaltwasser made it 12-10, but then Pacific stalled as Schultens closed out the game.

Game two was a more balanced contest, although once again George Fox took an early advantage. The Bruins rushed out to a 9-6 lead before Sarah Hall hit four straight winners for the Boxers to knot the game at 10-10. The Boxers then took a 12-10 lead on two winners by Kaltwasser, but Mindi Yost rallied the Bruins to five straight points and the victory.

Errors spelled early doom for Pacific with the Bruins taking a quick 10-2 lead, including five straight points by Heidi Stuelnagel, to open game three. Chris Beck connected on five straight winners to bring the Boxers within three at 10-7, but the Bruins regained their composure to end the match, outscoring the Boxers 5-2 on the next two rotations.

Amy Forbes had 11 kills to lead George Fox, Heidi Vander Stoep had five kills and a .500 percentage, and Jennifer Westerberg finished with eight kills. Yost had ~~20~~³⁰ assists and a match-high 19 digs.

Erin Akre led the Boxers at the net with seven kills and a .250 hitting percentage, Kaltwasser also had seven kills, and Brady finished with six kills, two aces and a .250 percentage. Beck led the Boxers with ~~16~~²⁶ assists.

George Fox improved to 6-11 and 4-7 in the conference with the win, while Pacific dropped to 3-13 and 0-11 in the NWC. The Bruins return home Saturday (Oct. 21) to take on Lewis & Clark College at 7:00 p.m., while the Boxers take to the highway Saturday, playing a 7:00 p.m. contest at Pacific Lutheran University.

BRUINS FALL IN THREE STRAIGHT TO UNBEATEN LOGGERS

TACOMA, Wash. --- They may not have been the pre-season conference favorites, but the University of Puget Sound Loggers continued to serve notice that they will be a force to be reckoned with in Northwest Conference women's volleyball this season, handing the George Fox University Bruins a 3-0 setback Saturday night (Sept. 16) at Memorial Fieldhouse.

It was the second time the two teams had met this season (they played on Sept. 2 in the Pikes Peak Challenge in Colorado Springs, Colo.), and the result was similar to their first meeting, the Bruins falling this time by scores of 7-15, 6-15, 6-15.

Game three had the Bruins with the early lead 2-1, only the second time the Bruins had led all match, but the Loggers put a string of points together to take a 7-4 lead and cruised to a 15-6 win.

UPS won its eighth in a row and is now 8-0 overall and 2-0 in the NWC. George Fox falls to 2-6 overall and 0-2 in NWC.

COACH STEVE GRANT (426-257 in 19th year at George Fox, 426-257 in 19th year overall):

On Pacific Lutheran: "I thought we played much better against PLU that we did last week. I know we had fewer unforced errors. We were in it all the way until the last game. PLU is a good hitting team, but I think they miss their All-Conference setter from last year and don't appear to be quite as sharp as they were."

On Puget Sound: "We made 'way too many hitting mistakes and were hitting balls into the net all night long. UPS appears to be the class of the conference this year and won't lose many matches."

On this week's opponents: "I haven't seen Pacific, so all I know about them is the latest I've read from their press releases. Lewis & Clark I have seen, and with their new coach, they are a much-improved ballclub, even though their record doesn't show it yet. Any road game is going to be a challenge for us this year, and this one will take our best effort, I'm sure. One of the things we want our team to do is keep an eye toward the big picture and not get frustrated by each individual setback. Each game for us is like a deposit in the bank of experience, but we aren't at the point yet where we can go any time we want to and make a 'withdrawal' on our experience to win a match."

BRUINS START FAST BUT CAN'T FINISH OFF LA VERNE IN 3-2 LOSS

NEWBERG, Ore. --- After taking the first two games, the George Fox University Bruins appeared to have their 2000 women's volleyball home season opener well in hand. It was not to be, however, as the University of La Verne Leopards rallied for a 3-2 win over the Bruins Friday night (Sept. 8) at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The youthful Bruins, who have only two seniors and two starters back from last year's 19-7 squad, could not put away the visiting Leopards, who were playing their season opener, and fell 15-10, 15-9, 8-15, 11-15, 10-15, dropping their season record to 2-3.

Outside hitter Amy Brummel, the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Year in 1999, led the La Verne comeback with 22 kills and 21 digs, while Stacey Lupu had 17 kills and Ryan Winn had 45 assists.

George Fox was led by freshman hitter Nicole Bostic (Fr., Spokane, Wash.), who had 18 kills and 14 assists, while sophomore hitter Lacey Langmade (So., Camas, Wash.) added 10 kills and 11 digs. The Bruins had six players in double figures in digs, led by sophomore setter Mindi Yost (So., Sisters, Ore.), who had 18 to go with a match-high 47 assists.

BRUINS FALL IN FOUR GAMES TO IMPROVED SEATTLE TEAM

PORTLAND, Ore. --- Last year's Seattle University women's volleyball team struggled to a 2-20 record. This year the Redhawks appear to be much improved, as the George Fox University Bruins found out here Saturday afternoon (Sept. 9) at Lewis & Clark College's Pamplin Sports Center, dropping a 3-1 decision to the visitors from Washington.

The Bruins fell 8-15, 12-15, 15-5, 10-15, for their second loss in a row. Only in the third game, when they got off to an 8-0 lead and hit .296 for the game, were the Bruins able to maintain any kind of consistent attack.

George Fox was led on offense by Jennifer Westerberg (Jr., Vancouver, Wash.), who had 15 kills and hit .367 for the game. Nicole Bostic added 14 kills, and Shelly Schultens (So, The Dalles, Ore.) had 11 before leaving the match in the fourth game with a slightly sprained ankle. She is expected to return in time for next weekend's games.

Bostic had a game-high 26 digs on defense for the Bruins, Westerberg had 18, and Mindi Yost added 16 digs and a game-high 49 assists.

For Seattle, Clare Fontana led the way with 17 kills and 23 digs, while Lora Burris added 12 kills. Marie Horner chipped in with 17 digs. Cassandra Hussey and Lindsay Somner split setting duties with 29 and 22 assists respectively.

BRUIN BITS:

 Freshman outside hitter Nicole Bostic received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference Player of the Week for the week of Sept. 4-10. Bostic recorded 32 kills and 40 digs in a pair of Bruins losses to La Verne and Seattle. She had 14 kills, hitting .143, and 26 digs vs. La Verne, with one assist and two block assists. Against Seattle, she had 18 kills, hitting .212, with 14 digs, two blocks solo and two block assists.

 Bostic and sophomore setter Mindi Yost were both named to the All-Tournament Team at the Pikes Peak Challenge Sept. 1-2. Bostic had 35 kills, 30 digs, and seven blocks in four matches, while Yost had 181 assists and 49 digs in the tournament.

 After a 19-7 season (12-4 NWC), George Fox was picked third in in the 2000 pre-season coaches' poll, receiving 58 total points.

COACH STEVE GRANT (426-255 in 19th year at George Fox, 426-255 in 19th year overall):

On the La Verne and Seattle matches: "Our biggest struggle this weekend was ballhandling, particularly our serve receptions. We have to work on getting the ball to our setter in better position. On the upside, our attitude is still positive, and our hitters are getting stronger, hitting harder and more intelligently at times. We still have a few people who are not at full strength -- Shelly Schultens twisted an ankle against Seattle, although she's expected back for the weekend, and Jen Westerberg is about over an early-season injury -- but we'll be all right when we have everybody healthy and they get some more experience."

On the Pacific Lutheran-Puget Sound conference games: "Well, at least we get the toughest ones out of the way first! PLU and UPS are two excellent teams; we've already seen what UPS can do, and PLU is the conference favorite. We'll give them both a battle, though."

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. --- After falling 3-0 to Northwest Conference rival the University of Puget Sound earlier in the day, the George Fox University Bruins rebounded to stun tournament host Colorado College, 13th-ranked in the NCAA Division III pre-season poll, 3-2 in the Pikes Peak Volleyball Challenge here Saturday (Sept. 2).

The Bruins fell to the Loggers of UPS, who won the tournament with a 4-0 record, by scores of 4-15, 8-15, 9-15, but rebounded to defeat the host Tigers 15-13, 3-15, 15-13, 2-15, 15-11. GEORGE FOX VOLLEYBALL

George Fox 2000 Volleyball Pre-Season Outlook ---

BRUINS MUST OVERCOME INEXPERIENCE FOR SUCCESSFUL 2000 SEASON

With the loss of four starters and one part-time starter, including three All-Conference performers, the George Fox University Bruins will have to overcome a world of inexperience if they are to scale the heights of the Northwest Conference during the 2000 volleyball season.

Last year's team posted a 19-7 record, the 13th straight winning season for the Bruins, went 12-4 in the conference to tie for second, and just missed an at-large bid to the NCAA Division III Tournament with a tough five-set loss to Pacific Lutheran, which went on to post-season play, in the home finale. Repeating such efforts will be a real challenge for the Bruins and veteran coach Steve Grant.

"There's no doubt we have some huge holes to fill," admits Grant, whose 18-year record, all at George Fox, is 424-251. "This will be the youngest group I've had in many years, and youth coupled with little experience by the returning players is a difficult combination. Still, we have some potential, and have made significant improvements in pre-season, so we have a lot of hope."

Bruins Lose Three All-Conference Players

The Bruins no longer have the services of outside hitter Sharon Barnett and middle blocker Beth Davis, both First Team All-NWC selections, and Second Team All-NWC middle blocker Wendy Clark. Barnett was conference Player of the Year for the second year in a row, led the league and was 24th in the nation in kills (4.21 kpg), and ended her four-year career as the all-time Bruin leader in kills (1,449) and digs (1,641). Davis led the NWC in blocks (1.39 bpg), topped the team in digs (275), averaged 3.54 kills a game, and was seventh all-time in career kills (1,123). Both Barnett and Davis were NCAA All-West Region, while Davis was a GTE Academic All-America District VIII pick. Clark was 16th in the nation in blocks (1.27) and averaged 2.58 kills a game.

"Barnett and Davis were impact players as freshmen, and we just don't have anyone now who can step in and contribute the way they did in their first year," Grant says.

Also gone are starting defensive specialist Stacie Wilton, who totaled 122 digs, and setter Tristan Nicholas, a part-time starter who was second on the team in assists (419) and assist average (9.31).

Returning Starters Are Young

Shouldering the leadership roles as returning starters are middle blocker Shelly Schultens (So., The Dalles, Ore.) and setter Mindi Yost (So., Sisters, Ore.). Schultens was third on the team in blocks (65, 0.81 bpg), fifth in kills (131), and led the team in service aces (19). Yost led the Bruins in assists (607) with a per-game average of 11.45, which would have led the conference and ranked 20th nationally had she played enough games to qualify.

"Shelly is switching from right outside hitter to middle blocker," Grant notes, "and is rapidly making the adjustments needed to be productive in that spot. Mindi has the potential to be the best defensive setter here since Jamie Suehiro in '93, and she's a solid setter whose decision-making and location are improving day-by-day. She gives us a solid foundation to build around in a most important position."

Expected to move into the lineup as key players are left outside hitter Jennifer Westerberg (Jr., Vancouver, Wash.), who was third on the team in digs (155) and fourth in kills (135), and right outside hitter Heidi Vander Stoep (Jr., Woodland, Wash.), who recorded 105 digs.

"Jen is our most experienced returner as a junior," says Grant, " and brings some explosiveness to our outside attack. Heidi is a bit short for an outside hitter but is very quick and a pretty good blocker. She's also an excellent defensive player who could see some time as a defensive specialist."

Two other veterans who will compete for playing time at outside hitter are the team's only seniors, Amy Forbes (Sr., Jackson, Wyo.), who had 85 kills and 92 digs, and Bree Stairs (Sr., McMinnville, Ore.), the daughter of George Fox athletic director Craig Taylor, had five kills and 45 digs as a reserve.

"Amy has great jumping ability and has been focusing on her jump technique and arm swing, which should increase her production," says Grant. "Bree is our team captain, a leader both on and off the court, and can play defensive specialist as well."

Lynette Domench (So., Battle Ground, Wash.) moved up from the junior varsity in mid-season and showed promise as a middle blocker with 11 kills and four blocks. Says Grant, "Lynette is still trying to adjust to the intricacies of college play, but she's very athletic and very quick and is constantly improving."

Top Newcomers

With the addition of Lacey Langmade (So., Camas, Wash.) from the junior varsity program and newcomer Nicole Bostic (Fr., Spokane, Wash.), the left outside hitter position will be the team's deepest this year. "Lacey is a very intelligent player who makes few mistakes, spreads the ball around, and is a good blocker," Grant says. "Nicole has impressed as a pretty strong hitter, good passer, and with a maturity beyond her years."

At middle blocker, Blue Mountain Community College transfer Heidi Stuelpnagel (Jr., Portland, Ore.) and rookie Jeni Nelson (Fr., Seattle, Wash.) will compete for playing time. "Heidi has the potential to be the best middle blocker on the team," predicts Grant, " while Jeni has been a pleasant surprise. Both are also candidates for the right outside hitter position."

Laura Bonner (Fr., Kennewick, Wash.) is another potential outside hitter, while Heather Peeples (Jr., Olympia, Wash.), a transfer from Vanguard University, is a leading candidate for the defensive specialist starting spot. Tausha Doramus (Fr., Greenleaf, Idaho) will spell Yost at setter. Two other players from the junior varsity program, Sara Sendele (So., Weiser, Idaho) and Angie Frank (So., Lebanon, Ore.) will provide depth as outside hitters / defensive specialists.

Summary

"The key to our success this year will be if we can learn to play wisely on the offensive end," Grant says. "We will be scrappy and defense-oriented, badgering our opponents by digging and keeping the ball in play, and I expect us to improve throughout the season as our hitters grow more confident."

GEORGE FOX VOLLEYBALL

BRUINS PICKED 3RD IN NWC; SEASON OPENS SEPT. 1

NEWBERG, Ore. --- George Fox University, co-runner-up in the Northwest Conference volleyball race last year, has been picked to finish third in 2000 in the pre-season poll of conference coaches, while defending champion Pacific Lutheran University is a heavy favorite to repeat its title.

The 2000 campaign gets under way for the Bruins on Friday, Sept. 1, when they take on Howard Payne University at 11:00 a.m. (PST) in the Pikes Peak Challenge in Colorado Springs, Colo.

The Bruins, who were 19-7 overall and 12-4 in the NWC last year, tied for second with Willamette University, one game behind PLU, which was 13-3 in the league, 20-6 overall, and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division III National Tournament as the NWC's lone representative. The Lutes received eight first-place votes and 88 points from the coaches.

The University of Puget Sound (10-14, NWC 7-9) was picked second with 63 points and received the only other vote for first, followed by George Fox with 58 points, Willamette (17-9, 12-4) with 54, Whitworth College (11-14, 8-8) with 49, Whitman College (15-12, 11-5) with 41, Linfield College (10-13, 6-10) with 34, Pacific University (7-16, 3-13) with 14, and Lewis & Clark College (0-24, 0-16) with 13.

The Bruins lost four starters, including two-time NWC Player of the Year outside hitter Sharon Barnett, First Team All-Conference middle blocker Beth Davis, and Second Team All-Conference middle blocker Wendy Clark. The two returning starters are sophomore hitter Shelly Schultens and sophomore setter Mindi Yost, so the Bruins will be relatively young and inexperienced this season.

Veteran coach Steve Grant returns for his 19th year as the team's mentor, bringing a 424-251 record in his 18 seasons at George Fox.

The Bruins will face Concordia University-Austin, Puget Sound, and the host team, Colorado College, in the Pikes Peak Challenge before returning to Newberg for their home opener on Sept. 8 against the University of La Verne. The Bruins also entertain Seattle University before beginning a 16-game conference schedule Sept. 15 at PLU.
