KOIN, The Journal,
Portland, Oregon.

Gentlemen:--

Some time yesterday -- I wish I could tell you the hour, but I cannot -- there was a broadcast, Columbia, dealing with the problems of the conscientious objectors who during the war have been doing "work of national importance under civilian direction." Would it be possible for me to secure a copy of this address, even though I cannot tell any more about it than I have? If you do not have copies of these broadcasts, could you give me more information as to when it was given and by whom, and suggestions as to how I might secure a copy?

Assuring you that I shall appreciate this courtesy if you can grant it, I am

Sincerely yours,

Levi T. Pennington.
