First Announcements and Updates from Tom-Tom in Spring 1972 from Camp Tilikum

George Fox University Archives

Thank You!

Illahee House is a functional retreat center due to the labor and gifts of many people. Not everyone painted walls all day on his 60th birthday—like Vic Thumberg, West Chehalem—but many people gave hours of free labor; some gave money, others materials. In doing this each has given a bit of himself to Tilikum's ministry.

Did You Know

. . . five white tail deer were seen recently in the meadow?

. . . over 120 people have used Illahee House since its opening?

. . . Dr. Voth's ecology class from George Fox College comes out weekly for study?

. . . four one-week day camps are planned for this summer?

. . . 5,000 fingerling rainbow trout were recently stocked in the lake?

. . . Director Gary Fawver will be camp pastor for Surf-Side Camp at Twin Rocks?

. . . Reedwood's Special Education class has had several exciting outings at Tilikum?

. . . Illahee is a Chinook word for earth, field, place where one resides?

. . . your group should have a summer retreat. Illahee House is delightfully cool, even on the hottest days.

Sending Our First Message

The Tilikum Tom-Tom will be published from time to time when we have news you'll want to know about. As the Indians received messages by tom-tom and then passed them on, will you share this news sheet with others?

Have a Nice Summer

Vacations, relaxation, family outings, fun, camp—summer associative words. I hope you get involved in Christian camping this summer. Involvement can take many forms—

- Attend as a camper.
- Be a counselor.
- Send someone who couldn't go without your help.
- Volunteer your skills.
- Share your interests.

A Tilikum Retreat Means Spiritual Advance

Tilikum has the elements for a meaningful retreat experience—facilities, food, atmosphere, recreational opportunities, and assistance in programing.

Spring, 1972

Dear friend of Tilikum,

As director of Tilikum, and on behalf of our board, I would like to invite you to a dedication and open house for our Retreat Center, Illahee House. There will be a brief 3:30 p. m. service on June 11, publicly seeking God's blessing for a long and fruitful ministry. You are welcome to stop by any time on that afternoon to see the facilities. Illahee House will be open for you to visit on the afternoon of June 18 as well.

Come share our joy in this facility and understand why we believe "that the hand of the Lord hath done this." (Isaiah 41:20)

In His service,

Gary K. Fawver

Contest Announced

Help us name our lake. Visit Tilikum, walk around the lake, sit by it, perhaps swim in or boat on it. Get to know it—then suggest an appropriate name. We'd like to have a name in keeping with our Northwest Indian theme of development.

There is no Hawaiian vacation for the winner, but we'd love to have you as our guest at Tilikum for a weekend if you come up with a winning idea.

A Record?

Over the last 40 years Clayton Brown, resident of Friendsview Manor, has worked on building crews at five different camps.

TWIN ROCKS—drew up plans for Hadley Hall. More recently supervised construction of the A-frame shelter.

QUAKER HILL—worked on three buildings including the log tabernacle.

QUAKER MEADOW—member of the first camp committee. Built a dormitory and worked on the dam for the lake.

CAMP KUMVYA—in Africa—helped build dining hall.

TILIKUM—built cabinets in Illahee House kitchen.

Congratulations, Clayton, and thanks for your willingness to be a good steward of your talents.
