Pacific College Bulletin

Volume XL

FEBRUARY, 1948

Number 4

Published Quarterly by Authority of the Board of Managers of PACIFIC COLLEGE
Newberg, Oregon

Entered as second class matter June 22, 1908, at the post office at Newberg, Oregon, under Act of July 16, 1894.

SECOND SEMESTER 1947-48

The second semester of this school year opened on February 2nd with registration. Classes opened on the morning of February 3rd. Enrollment dropped somewhat over the high for the first semester, with a total of 151 registrations. Below are some interesting facts concerning the new student-body.

First of interest, is the fact that there are 85 men and 66 women. Of these, 36 are married. Veterans are numerous. Our statistics reveal that there are 52 G.I.'s. Pacific also has one G.I. woman, Annabel Armstrong.

The sophomores lead the classes in the number of students, with 48 on their roll. The juniors are second with 42 members, followed by the freshmen with 34, and the seniors with 15. Eleven are registered as special students. One of these, William Thomas, is taking a post-graduate course in preparation for his Th.B. degree.

Oregon leads the states as the permanent address of the students, with 95 listing it as their home state; Idaho follows with 30; Washington has sent us 13; while California claims 8. Alaska has sent 3 students and Kansas and Canada 1 each. Of the whole group, 44 list Newberg as their home.

Perhaps the most interesting compilation is that of church affiliation. The figures reveal that there are 111 from the Friends Church in college. The Methodists are second with 7, followed by the Baptists with 5, the Nazarenes with 4, and the Free Methodists with 3. Two students come from a community church, and 2 each come from the Lutheran, Christian, Evangelical United Brethren and Assembly of God. One student comes from each of the following churches: Congregational, Christadelphian, Catholic and Presbyterian. Seven students did not indicate a church preference.

Portland Auxiliary Pacific College Banquet

On Thursday evening, February 19th, the basement of First Friends Church, in Portland, was the scene of the annual Pacific College banquet, sponsored by the Portland Women's Auxiliary. More than 150 people were in attendance to enjoy a full evening of entertainment.

The position of toastmaster was very capably filled by Roy Clark, professor of Music at Pacific College. The following program was given: Invocation, Walter Lee; songs by the "Four Flats" male quartet; piano solo, Carl Reed; reading, Lucy Clark; trumpet solo, Helen Cadd; a skit on early Quakers (in authentic costume), by Carl Reed, Helen Willcuts and Lucy Clark. The evening reached a fitting climax with a vocal solo by Dick Cadd, and more numbers by the quartet. Mary Sandoz then presented the financial needs of the college, urging everyone to be liberal in his donation. The committee reports that $268.00 was collected by the project.

The tables were very cleverly decorated with gold centers and ivy runners, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the delicious meal. The menu consisted of tomato juice, Ritz crackers, salmon loaf, peas and carrots, vegetable salad, rolls and butter, cherry pie, and coffee.

The women of the Auxiliary are to be commended for their efforts in so worthy a project.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT CHRISTIAN UNION

The purpose of the S.C.U. is to further all Christian activities on the campus and to provide varied activities enabling every student who so desires to participate in some phase of Christian work.

The S.C.U. publishes the Student Handbook, sponsors a formal reception for new students near the beginning of each semester, plans weekly student prayer-meetings, and sponsors a week of special evangelistic services. Deputation work is carried on throughout the year. Religious meetings of a varied nature are held on S.C.U. chapel-day each week.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The I.R.C. purposes to stimulate intelligent discussion of international affairs. Bringing to the organization some historical perspective and a vital interest in current events, the members strive to think actively toward world peace.

The club operates under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, which makes available each year for its members several books on current international topics.

The club meetings are varied in form. Membership is open to any person interested in such discussions.

PACIFIC ACTORATORS

Pacific Actorators is a speech and dramatics club set up in the spring of 1944. The club functions in connection with the Dramatics Department. Many fine plays and dramatic works are produced each year.

TREFIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Trefian Literary Society is made up of college women and holds its meetings every other week. It purposes to acquaint women students with parliamentary procedure and to provide stimulating cultural programs. Officers are elected each semester. The carefully planned programs are varied and interesting.

GOLD "P" AND GOLD "Q"

The Gold "P" Club for lettermen, and the Gold "Q" Club for women who have won letters, promote athletic and other student activities, in addition to the men's and women's athletic associations with their larger membership.

FOREIGN MISSIONARY FELLOWSHIP

The Student Foreign Missions Fellowship, Pacific College Chapter, is affiliated with the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, an international organization which functions in educational institutions as an interdenominational vehicle for evangelizing students and helping them grow in the Christian faith. The Foreign Missions Fellowship has as its aims the study of foreign fields, the acquaintance with particular needs of foreign fields for members already having calls, and the giving of opportunity for others to find the place God has for them in mission work.

STUDENT MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The S.M.A. is made up of those students who have a definite call to full-time service as pastors, evangelists or missionaries. Meetings are held every other Tuesday evening for the purpose of discussing the mutual problems of the future work of the members. Speakers are various ministers of the Friends church and interested members of the faculty. Paul Mills, head of the Bible Department, is advisor to this group.

PACIFIC COLLEGE FLYING CLUB

The Pacific College Flying Club was organized in the spring of 1947 to promote interest in aviation among the faculty and students of the college, and to make possible training at economical rates and in a moral and spiritual atmosphere. Membership in the club is open to all students and faculty members who are interested. The club owns an Aeronca Champion plane for the use of its members.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

A selected group of about forty voices is organized for concert tours and home appearance upon formal occasions. Membership is open to anyone who can meet the rigid requirements. Emphasis is placed upon spiritual, meaningful, and artistic interpretation of sacred choral literature.

SCENES FROM "FOLLOW THOU ME"

"Follow Thou Me," a unique religious drama, was presented by the Actorators Club Friday, March 5, under the direction of Miss Lucy Clark. The action takes place in the throne-room of Pilate in Jerusalem.

Claudia, Pilate's wife, having summoned the local prophetess to foretell the future, learns that she will be connected with the greatest and most dreadful happening on earth, but she will not be able to keep it from being. This turns out to be the crucifixion of Christ. Three days later, however, Pilate's household learns that Christ has risen and that the city is in great turmoil.

Shortly after this is learned, Daniel, the scribe of the household, is seized by the priests who have found out that he is a follower of Jesus. He is saved from certain death by the sudden intervention of Lucius, a captain of Pilate's guard, who carries him to safety for a time.

Those in Pilate's household, however, fear that Lucius has had Daniel imprisoned and perhaps killed until Lucius and Daniel come again to the house and tell all that has transpired since they disappeared. Daniel has come back to marry Elizabeth and take her to Caesarea where he will be a teacher of the precepts of Jesus, and Lucius has decided to return to Rome where his home will ever be a refuge for the believers of Christ.

PERSONAL HABITS

Pacific College is maintained by Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends Church. The church Discipline states:

"All members are earnestly warned against the use of all alcoholic beverages, and of other habit-forming drugs; they are warned also to abstain from the use of, or traffic in, tobacco. The effects of all of these tend toward physical, mental, and moral injury."

The college administration likewise advises against the use of alcoholic beverages and tobacco, forbids their use on the campus, and reserves the right to request the withdrawal from school of any student whose conduct in these matters is objectionable.

Dancing is not approved as a social function of the campus.

It is recommended that students who object to the above conditions enter schools where these activities are a part of the campus life.
