 Another Hot Start:

The Bruins' 8-1 record equals last's year mark after nine games, with their only loss this season to No. 3-ranked Juniata College in the second game of the Gettysburg College National Invitational Tournament on Aug. 31. The Bruins' best record ever after 10 games was a 9-1 mark by the 1988 and 1998 teams. The 1988 team eventually climbed to 15-1, while the 1998 team won its first two, lost, then won 20 in a row for a 22-1 record. That 1998 group went on to become the only George Fox team to participate in the NAIA National Tournament and finished 31-8.

 Conference Makes Big Splash:

As a group, the nine-team Northwest Conference has gone 42-19 (.688) vs. non-conference competition in the early going. The six teams in NWC who are above .500 at this point have together gone 37-6 (.860). The George Fox Bruins have certainly done their part, going 8-1 outside the league to start the season.

LAST WEEK'S GAMES:

9/10 – GEORGE FOX 3, WARNER PACIFIC 0: Bruins Knock Off Knights but Cascade Match Cancelled

PORTLAND, Ore. – Scheduled to play two non-tournament volleyball matches in a single day, the George Fox University Bruins had to settle for a 3-0 win only over Warner Pacific College here Tuesday afternoon (Sept. 10), as the evening match with Cascade College was cancelled when no officials showed up to call the games.

The Bruins, 8-1 on the season, defeated the Knights 30-17, 30-20, 30-20 in a 4:00 match at C.C. Perry Gym for their seventh straight win, while Warner Pacific fell to 0-2. Traveling over to nearby Cascade for a 7:00 match, the teams sat around until a high school match finished up at 7:30, then played a scrimmage game that did not count on either team's record because of a lack of certified college referees. The Cascade match will not be rescheduled.

In winning the Warner Pacific match, George Fox made very few mistakes on offense, recording 45 kills and only nine errors while hitting .269. Bruin coach Steve Grant subbed for most of his regular in the third game, and as a result, there were no Bruins in double figures in kills, Nicole Bostic, Angela Burright, and Brandy Mailer also posting eight kills to lead the way. Mindi Cotner had 18 assists in two games while Jamie Schantin had nine as the third-game setter.

Defensively, Cotner had 17 digs, Bostic 14, and Mailer 13, while Shelly Schultens had five blocks. As a team, the Bruins, who are averaging almost four blocks per game, had nine in this match, and held the Knights to a .118 attack percentage.

8/1 – Bruin Volleyball to Open 2002 Season in Historic Gettysburg

NEWBERG, Ore. – A tournament in historic Gettysburg, Pa., site of perhaps the most famous battle of the American Civil War, will provide a sensational opener to the George Fox University 2002 women's volleyball season, one in which the Bruins hope to challenge for the Northwest Conference title.

The Bruins will join Ithaca College, Juniata College, and host Gettysburg College in the Gettysburg National Invitational Tournament Aug. 30-31 to start the season, followed the next weekend by five matches in two days Sept. 6-7 in the Whitworth Tournament in Spokane, Wash. Non-conference duels with Warner Pacific, Cascade, and NCAA Division III perennial power Colorado College dot the schedule, which also includes a full slate of 16 conference games.

George Fox caught the rest of the league by surprise last year and finished third at 11-5, with a 19-5 overall record that included a 7-0 start. With eight letterwinners returning, including five starters, the Bruins hope to push last year's top two, nationally-ranked Whitworth and Puget Sound, for the top spot.

Leading the Bruins into the new season are First Team All-Conference setter Mindi Yost, Second Team All-Conference middle blocker Shelly Schultens, and Honorable Mention All-Conference outside hitter Nicole Bostic. Bruin coach Steve Grant begins his 21st year at the helm of the George Fox program with a 450-271 record, ranking in the top 20 in career wins among active coaches in Division III.

The complete 2002 George Fox volleyball schedule is attached, and may be also found at the University web site at www.georgefox.edu/athletics. Fans are encouraged to call the GFU sports hotline at 503-554-3868 for the latest results and updates on Bruin athletic teams.
