WOMEN'S GAME - 12:00
MEN'S GAME - 2:30 PM

WOMEN'S NOTES:

Bruins, Looking for Weekend Split, Host Lutes

George Fox looks to rebound from Saturday's 1-0 loss to Puget Sound today when the Bruins host Pacific Lutheran. The Bruins played great defensively against the Loggers, and the lone goal was scored when Dusty Marcell collided with GFU keeper Cori Wulf. Marcell was able to pass to teammate Liz Hutchins who scored on the backside empty net.

Karli Holub, Noelle Miller and Jen Overstreet have accounted for 17 of the Bruins' 20 goals this season. The trio look to continue their reign atop the NWC scoring list, and currently hold the top three spots individually.

Pacific Lutheran enters today with a record of 2-4-0 overall and 1-2 in conference. The Lutes are coming off a x-x decision yesterday against xxx.

Next Saturday the Bruins travel over to McMinnville to face Linfield at noon, followed by a Sunday matchup against Willamette in Salem. After that weekend, GFU will look for a home-field advantage, as five of the final seven games are at Morse Athletic Field.

MEN'S NOTES:

Bruins Hope to Rebound vs. Pacific Lutheran

Playing what coach Manfred Tschan said would be "the best team we'll have played yet", the Bruins held their own but still came up on the short end of a 2-0 score yesterday afternoon against the Puget Sound Loggers, who have recorded six shutouts in their first 10 games!. The Bruins will try to bounce back into the win column this afternoon against one of four teams tied for fifth place in the Northwest Conference with a 1-3-0 mark, the Pacific Lutheran Lutes.

Defense has not been the problem for PLU; through their first five games, Lute keepers Jonas Tanzer and Nate Wiggins have only allowed seven goals, and the Lutes as a team have only allowed 10 shots on goal per game. PLU has struggled on offense, however, scoring only eight goals themselves to rank last in the conference.

The top point producer for the Bruins, who are seeking their 14th straight winning season, is Merrick Brownlee, who is seventh in the league at 1.29 points per game (3 goals, 3 assists). Bryan Erickson and Jamie Johnson are tied for 10th at 1.14 (3 goals, 2 assists each).
