CHANGING HOUR OF YEARLY MEETING SESSIONS

Concerning the proposition referred to this body by the Yearly Meeting, coming from Salem Quarterly Meeting, in regard to changing the time of opening the Yearly Meeting Sessions, we recommend as follows: That the time be changed from 10:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. We also recommend that the time for the inspirational address be decided by the clerk in consultation with the Evangelistic Board, and announcements be made on the program.

This recommendation was approved with the understanding that the change be for this year only.

30. The Superintendent of Bible Schools and Religious Education read the following report which was approved by the meeting. The statistical report appears in the appendix.

REPORT OF BIBLE SCHOOL AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The past year has been marked by a deeper interest in Bible Schools and Religious Education.

Reports have been received from every school in the Yearly Meeting, but the statistical part of some of these reports was not complete, so this summary does not tell all that has been done by the Bible Schools in our Yearly Meeting.

We will mention a few things being done by some of our schools aside from their regular work. A number of our schools give instruction in Temperance, Missions, Peace and Quakerism.

West Piedmont has recently provided better equipment and facilities for advancement of Bible School work.

Three new Union Bible Schools have been organized in unchurched communities.

The isolated school at Entiat, Washington, is doing practical home mission work by maintaining a Sunday School in a logging camp, with the average attendance of 25.

Bethany school at Seattle, Washington, has emphasized Bible memory work. One boy committed to memory every Golden text for the past two years.

East Tacoma, organized less than two years, now has an enrollment of 81. The new equipment for their Sunday School consists of chairs, sand table, blackboard, etc. They gave special programs at Christmas, Easter, Thanksgiving and Rally Day.

Twelve children in Springbrook School read the New Testament through the past year. This school gave $12 for Near East Relief work.

In the Rex School five children read the New Testament through the past year.

Quilcene, one of our smallest schools, sent in their report promptly, as usual.

Marion answered every question on the report blank.

Salem assists in a community Bible School recently organized.

Scotts Mills had a membership contest to increase its attendance.

Rosedale school purchased new song books.

South Salem has held two peace contests. All their offerings go to missions.

Although our report is lacking in some things, yet reports show a gain in fifteen points, including the number of schools, resident members, teachers and officers, average attendance, number of Primary, Intermediate and Adult departments, and number received into church membership from the Bible School, graded lessons, Vacation Bible Schools, amount given to missions and some other points. We are realizing more fully that half an hour of Religious teaching on the Sabbath day is insufficient, and believing that the Vacation Bible School can assist in supplying this felt need, we hope that in the coming year more of our churches will avail themselves of this opportunity of imparting more religious teaching through Vacation Bible Schools.

One religious leader has said: "The church which does not provide a Daily Vacation Bible School is delinquent in its duty." Better trained leadership is essential for most efficient work for both teachers and officers. A standard, orthodox, Teachers Training course of study will greatly aid in the preparation for teaching in the Bible School.

Bible memory, and story telling contests will increase interest in, and a love for God's Holy Word. A circulating library of well selected books, if properly used, would be of great benefit to any school.

The Bible School also furnishes a fine opportunity to impart special instruction in Missions, Temperance, Peace and Quakerism, which teaching is so much needed, and we hope that more of our schools will find time for teaching on these important subjects.

As Superintendent, I have given fifteen talks in Sunday Schools the past year, and have corresponded with all our Quarterly Meetings and with most of the schools in the Yearly Meeting and have endeavored to promote greater interest in Bible School work. We express sincere thanks to all the loyal workers in all our schools for their faithful service and fine cooperation in this work for the Master.

Respectfully submitted,

JENNIE R. PRESNALL.

Report of Teachers Training Superintendent

Since this was the first year of the department most of the time has been spent in finding out the conditions in the various meetings, and what resources were available for building a program covering several years.

From the reports received, by no means complete, many devoted teachers are handicapped by lack of training and opportunities to become more efficient in their work. On the other hand there are many who have had fine training and a rich life experience but would like the opportunity to keep up with later developments in religious education. The books on Teachers Training work are very limited in our small Sunday School libraries and often out of date. A number of teachers take the American Friend, Sunday School Times and one school subscribes to the International Journal of Religious Education for the use of its superintendents and teachers.

Many have expressed a desire for a circulating library which would be available for all members of the Yearly Meeting. Some books can be secured from the State Library Commission and some from local libraries. We would recommend that a sum, possibly of ten dollars per year, if continued over a period of years would enable us to start a small library of helpful literature, which could be kept up to date by additions from year to year. We would like to make out a reading course which would cover three years, for those who were interested in consecutive work. Others could read less widely but those who followed the course for three years would be given a certificate in recognition of their work.

Visiting other schools and attending county and state Conventions has furnished inspiration to those who have been able to avail themselves of such privileges.

We are realizing more and more the need for religious training which requires skilled, well trained leaders.

Respectfully submitted,

LYRA M. DANN, Superintendent.

E. R. Martin, Secretary of the American Sunday School Union, gave an interesting address on the subject.

31. The report of the Temperance Superintendent was read and approved:

TEMPERANCE REPORT

Number pages Temperance literature distributed .....	31,074
Number Temperance lectures .....	17
Number Temperance sermons .....	17
Number Temperance street parades .....	1
Number Temperance programs .....	29

Remarks: Reports from the quarterly meetings indicate that our membership is generally interested in the triumph of the temperance reform. Pastors, superintendents, Sunday School teachers and Christian Endeavor leaders have done educational work along this line.

Quarterly and World Temperance Sundays have been well observed. Sunday School classes have been actively engaged in temperance work. Encouragement has been given to educational authorities taking a stand against the use of tobacco by teachers and pupils.

Portland Quarterly Meeting superintendent witnessed the destruction of 1,053 cases of liquor taken from a Canadian rum runner. Friends in Portland have been very active in the purchase and distribution of temperance books and papers.

Superintendents of this department have raised and expended $63.39.

The warfare against rum and tobacco is not nearly won. Our opponents are growing bolder every day. As proof of this statement consider newspaper and magazine discussion of prohibition and magazine and bill-board advertising of tobacco. Among the friends of prohibition in some quarters there is a note of doubt as to the ultimate outcome.

A generation of young people is growing up that has not known the evils of the saloon. To these people when they become voters, the arguments of the opposition will seem more plausible. In view of this situation your superintendent would recommend the diligent promotion of scientific temperance instruction in the public schools. This is a fruitful field and one now much in neglect. As a general thing teachers and school boards are open to approach on this subject. Let us do our part to secure their cooperation.

Let Friends when possible lend their moral and financial support to the anti-saloon League and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

We believe the ultimate triumph of this reform can be secured only by agitation, education and prayer. Let us be faithful.

J. ALLEN DUNBAR, Superintendent.

The following protest presented by Levi T. Pennington was approved by the meeting and directed forwarded to the Press:

Oregon Yearly Meeting of the Friends Church would protest vigorously against the present bill-board, radio and periodical campaign for the increase of the use of tobacco, especially such use among women. We consider this habit a real menace, and this advertising a definite affront to us. We wish to commend all advertising agencies, publishers, etc., who are refusing such advertising at a material financial sacrifice.

The following appreciation was presented by Levi T. Pennington, and was approved by the meeting:

Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends in its Thirty-seventh Annual Session, would express our sincere appreciation of the attitude of Herbert Hoover, president of the United States, in the matter of obedience to law and law enforcement. We are grateful for his high ideals and his clear-cut expression of these ideals. We pledge our earnest support to him in his efforts to discharge in the fear of God the great responsibilities of his high office.

The clerk was instructed to forward a copy of this minute to Herbert Hoover.

32. The following visiting Friends were introduced and welcomed: Bertha Cox King, California Yearly Meeting, Sarah Jones and Nora Ellis from Nebraska Yearly Meeting.

33. The Printing Committee made the following report:

REPORT OF PRINTING COMMITTEE

We have attended to the object of our appointment, having had printed:

- 750 copies of the Yearly Meeting Minutes
- 500 blanks for the Christian Endeavor Department
- 1,000 programs for the Yearly Meeting

Submitted,

MARGUERITE P. ELLIOTT, Chairman.

34. The Finance Committee made the following report on the matter referred to it according to minute 24:

We recommend that the Near East Relief committee be allowed to take an offering at the doors at the close of the session.

35. A partial report was read from the Nominating Committee and appears in the Directory.

36. The inspirational sermon was given by Gervas A. Carey.

37. The meeting adjourned to meet at 2:00 p.m.

FIFTH DAY 2:00 P. M.

38. The meeting convened according to adjournment.

Epistles from Western, North Carolina, California and Nebraska Yearly Meetings were read.

39. The committee appointed to prepare a ruling on the question from Portland Quarterly Meeting made the following report which became the action of the meeting:

Your committee appointed to consider the question from Portland Quarterly Meeting reports that it knows of no discipline or precedent in this Yearly Meeting providing for the reception of ministerial credentials by the transfer of membership.

On this basis the committee recommends the ruling that under present conditions ministers from other denominations be received as members only.

The committee considers the subject of sufficient importance, however, to recommend that a committee be appointed to study this matter and investigate the procedure of other Yearly Meetings and report to next Yearly Meeting.

GERVAS A. CAREY, Chairman.

The appointment of the committee was referred to the Nominating Committee.

40. The Nominating Committee submitted a partial report. It appears in the Directory.

Since membership of the Quarterly Meetings determines the ratio at which members may be appointed on the Evangelistic and Church Extension Board, Portland Quarterly Meeting is entitled to another member, and the Nominating Committee was instructed to add one more member from that meeting.

41. The report of the Evangelistic and Church Extension Board claimed the attention of the meeting.

REPORT OF THE PASTORAL, EVANGELISTIC AND CHURCH EXTENSION BOARD

In presenting this annual report, it is with grateful hearts for advancements made and a feeling of regret where such is not shown.

Working under the same plan as the year previous, Quarterly Meeting Superintendents have had charge of the work in their respective Quarters, co-operating with the Executive Committee by correspondence and visitations. We believe there has been an earnest and sincere effort, on the part of all on whom the responsibility of the work has rested, to advance the work in the various places.

A year ago permission was given the Board to send a representative to the various Quarters as need might arise. In July 1928, Frederick J. Cope and Oliver Weesner visited Meetings in Tacoma Quarter, and in March 1929, Frederick J. Cope and Chester A. Hadley visited the sessions of Tacoma Quarterly Meeting, in the interests of the Board. By direction of the Executive Committee, the President of the Board visited Boise Valley Quarter, having the privilege of attending the sessions of that Quarterly Meeting in November 1928, enjoying their fellowship and also attending services at three of the local meetings. In May 1929, he also visited the Klamath Indian reservation with representatives of the Nazarene Church relative to that denomination's taking over the work at Sprague River, Oregon. This trip was made at a very nominal expense to the Board through the courtesy of the Southern Pacific Railroad issuing a pass for the trip.

During the past year it has been our purpose to keep the expenses of the Board at a minimum, members of the Board having met a number of times at their own expense. We find we have been to too much unnecessary expense in the past, as the railroads are willing to issue trip passes to the president or vice-president of the Board who are ministers.

The following allowances have been made from funds at the disposal of the Board toward the assistance of various points throughout the Yearly Meeting. The amount stated is per month for all or part of the year. To established meetings: In Salem Quarter: Marion, $15; Rosedale, $15. In Newberg Quarter: Sherwood, $10; Middleton, $5. In Boise Valley Quarter: Boise, $20; Melba, $20; Valley Mound, $20. In Tacoma Quarter: Bethany, $30. To extension points: In Portland Quarter: Vancouver, $50; Kelso, $25. In Tacoma Quarter: Northeast Tacoma, $25.

The work at Northeast Tacoma has been under the care of Wendell and Marjorie Votaw. The reports from this place are encouraging.

Kelso has been in charge of Walter and Gladys Hadley Cook, and progress has been made. A local business meeting has been set up. The willingness to labor and sacrifice on the part of these young people, both at Kelso and Northeast Tacoma, is worthy of much commendation.

At the request of the Evangelistic Board, Everett E. Scotten took charge of the work at Vancouver, Washington, the first of last September. Through the earnest, persistent labor and sacrifice on the part of Mr. and Mrs. Scotten, assisted by Friends at Vancouver and in Portland, a neat, church building has been erected. This building was dedicated with appropriate services on April 21, 1929. Many Friends from Portland and elsewhere attended and responded toward the elimination of the church debt. Steps are being taken here to establish a Monthly Meeting. The work of this pastor and his wife is very worthy of our commendation, prayers and financial help.

We are informed that at Weyerhaeuser, Washington, a community about twenty-five miles southeast of Tacoma, Mrs. Christie Wing has a growing work and a Monthly meeting is in the process of being established.

No worker has been maintained on the Klamath Indian reservation the past year. Negotiations with the M. E. Church official, mentioned in the report last year, did not develop. But recently similar negotiations have been entered into with an official of the Nazerene church.

The activities of the Christian Worker's League have been under the special direction of the vice-president of the Board, Chester A. Hadley, who will give the report of work accomplished by the League. And as the tent purchased by funds raised during the sessions of the Yearly Meeting a year ago has been used exclusively by the League, information concerning the tent will be included in his report.

The matter of securing a Superintendent, referred to this Board a year ago, has been given prayerful attention. At a meeting of this Board held during the sessions of the C. E. Conference at Twin Rocks, a special committee was appointed to have the matter in charge. This committee after correspondence and meeting for counsel, agreed to ask Arthur B. Chilson to allow his name to be presented for this position, but his reply indicated his heart was still in Africa, and he could not see his way clear to consider the place. Later the committee agreed to ask Gervas A. Carey to accept the position, who, after much deliberation, stated he had no light in that direction. Realizing the serious handicap of being without some one to direct this work, visit the field and coordinate the activities, we feel that we should continue the policy of last year as outlined in Minute No. 35 of the 1928 Yearly Meeting Minutes.

Feeling the great need of an extension policy on the part of this Board if Oregon Yearly Meeting is to advance as we believe it should, we would not feel clear if we did not make some suggestions, that in our judgment, would, in a measure at least, make possible such advancement.

No adequate extension work is possible without sacrifice, without funds, and without workers. As to workers, there are now more than can be used under our present arrangement, and more are coming on every year. And because so few openings are available, we are losing efficient workers who feel they must go elsewhere for Christian service.

It would seem that if a policy could be agreed upon whereby older established meetings, now being assisted by funds from the Yearly Meeting, would increase the support on the local field so as to release a part or all of the support now allowed by the Yearly Meeting, in order that it may be used at new extension points; and all allowances made by the Evangelistic Board for such support be made on such a basis that the local field raise a certain per cent in proportion to that allowed by the Board; and that all such allowances made by the Board be reduced year by year until such allowance should cease: some such plan would place a definite responsibility on the local field, and would also release, year by year, funds to be used for new extension work.

Such a policy would no doubt in some instances mean a real sacrifice, but one that would bring returns in funds made available for extension work, and would save to this field the service of a number of these young workers. Therefore we earnestly solicit your prayerful interest and cooperation in this vital need, that Oregon Yearly Meeting may advance and occupy this field for which it is responsible.

With heart-felt appreciation for the cooperation, and manifest sympathy of Friends generally during the past year, we respectfully present this report,

On behalf of the Board,

EDGAR P. SIMS, President.

This report with its recommendation was approved.

51. A partial report was read from the Nominating Committee. It appears in the Directory.

52. The subject of Peace and Arbitration claimed the attention of the meeting.

The following report was read from the Superintendent of the Service Committee:

REPORT OF YEARLY MEETING SUPERINTENDENT OF SERVICE COMMITTEE

At our last annual gathering I was surprised at the meeting's action in again continuing the office of Superintendent of Service Committee Work.

During the past year I have endeavored to obtain some connection with the different meetings of the Yearly Meeting. Some 40 letters were sent out containing samples of literature together with the request that Meetings indicate the quantity of such literature that could be used in acquainting the membership with the work and program of the American Friends Service Committee. Again I was surprised as not receiving a single reply.

Newberg Monthly Meeting gave some attention to the work of the service committee. The Christmas offering was forwarded to the committee. Once each quarter some phase of the work or program of the American Friends Service Committee was presented in the closing exercises of the Sunday School. These reports contained items of interest regarding the work of the Service Committee in foreign countries as well as work in this country among miners, negroes, under fed children and in such other places as opportunity for service opened.

The local Service Committee has cooperated with the Peace Committee in sponsoring the Youth Peace Contests which have made possible the gold medal contest being held as part of this program. The medals for these contests are provided by the American Friends Service Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

MILO P. ELLIOTT,

Selections were read from the report of the American Friends Service Committee.

The meeting directed that excerpts of this report be printed in the Minutes. They will be found in the Appendix.

The request that two members be appointed to represent this Yearly Meeting on the American Friends Service Committee was granted. The appointment was referred to the Nominating Committee.

The Peace Superintendent read his report and recommended that the usual appropriation of twenty-five dollars be allowed for the use of this department. The report was adopted and the recommendation referred to the finance Committee.

PEACE REPORT

TO OREGON YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS, NEWBERG, OREGON.

DEAR FRIENDS:

Sometimes the fact that we are near to it makes a small object look large; sometimes the fact that we are actually in a great movement and moving with it blinds us to the speed with which that movement is advancing.

To some of us at least the signing of the Multi-lateral treaty renouncing war as an instrument of national policy seems a thing of tremendous moment; to some of us who touch the world of opposition to peace and can thereby judge the speed of our own movement, it appears that peace is making remarkable advance during these days.

The most marked achievement of the year has been the signing of this Multi-lateral treaty. That great nations should have been willing after all these bloody centuries to look war in the face, to recognize it as evil, and to renounce it, is something that the advocates of peace even twenty-five years ago would hardly have dared hope to see in their life time. It is truly a great advance, and one which should help all lovers of peace to take courage and move forward.

Peace Question not Settled

Great as this advance has been, however, it would be inexcusably foolish optimism to consider the peace question as settled. Herbert Hoover's statement that peace can not be made by pacts and international agreements, but must be made in the hearts of men, is a truth of which we must not lose sight.

The three-fold task of the lovers of peace if the world is to avoid another great war involves the intellectual task of enlightening the world as to the evils of war and the blessings of peace; the task of building up the right emotional attitude of love for peace and love for all mankind throughout the world; and the development among millions of people in all lands of a definite will-to-peace which shall make it obligatory on the rulers of the nations to find pacific means for the settlement of all international differences.

In this three-fold task of building world peace every member of the Society of Friends should be engaged.

Work of the Year

It is difficult to secure anything approaching a complete record of the activities of the year in regard to peace. Many of the peace activities of the Yearly Meeting have been carried on by individuals and not through any connection with the peace committee. They are therefore perhaps not the proper subjects for report, and if they were, nothing but a personal canvass of the membership and a high degree of memory on the part of the member-ship could give complete information.

The work which has been done during the year may be divided into several classes, a few of which shall be mentioned.

First, public meetings with peace addresses. Some of these have been regular meetings of the church and some special peace meetings which have been arranged with special addresses on the subject of peace. Of peace meetings of the kind suggested, there have been nearly or quite a score. Again this year a number of meetings have put forth no special effort of any sort during the year so far as reports indicate.

Second, peace contests. A number of independent contests are held each year, but for the most part the contests during the past year have been along the line suggested and promoted by the American Friends Service Committee. These contests have been held in various Quarterly Meetings, and in Newberg Quarterly Meeting six contests have been held and the winners of the silver medals in these contests will compete in a gold-medal contest at this session following this report.

Third, communications to government officials. These communications, addressed to the President of the United States, to Senators and Representatives, and to other public servants, have gone in some cases from local meetings, in some from Quarterly Meetings, and in very many cases individual communications by individual Friends, which are probably more effective than any other form of appeal to public officials.

Fourth, the promotion of peace information through literature. The Yearly Meeting Peace Committee has again provided subscriptions to the Messenger of Peace for all pastors in the Yearly Meeting. In addition membership in the Oregon Council for Prevention of War has been promoted in this state, each membership in which provides a subscription to the bulletin of that national organization. Other peace literature has been distributed by Monthly Meetings and by individuals interested in peace to the extent of thousands of pages.

There are many other ways in which peace has been promoted by members of the Yearly Meeting. Perhaps a miscellaneous account of some of these will be of interest.

One pastor has given several peace addresses outside of his own church.

One meeting gave a peace program which was largely attended and much enjoyed.

Various meetings have had peace discussions in their Christian Endeavor Societies.

Some of our meetings have a peace program of some sort in the Bible School once each month.

Frederick J. Libby, executive secretary of the National Council for Prevention of War, has been aided materially in carrying out his itinerary in Oregon through the help of Friends, and has spoken in a number of our meetings during the year.

The chairman of the peace work in one of our meetings has compiled a reading list on peace and has presented this list at various times to the public.

Two young Friends from Pacific College spent ten weeks last summer in the Peace Caravan work of the American Friends Service Committee.

A peace program has been put on at two Quarterly Meeting sessions.

Numerous Friendship Bags were sent from various meetings to the Mexican school children, in co-operation with the Committee on World Friendship Among Children.

Peace envelopes have been widely used by our people during the year. One Quarterly Meeting bought and distributed 500 of these envelopes.

A number of our members are cooperating with the W.C.T.U. through their peace departments. One man, who is an honorary member of the W.C.T.U., headed the local peace work of that organization.

The Yearly Meeting Superintendent, in addition to the reports already made, has, during the year, given 17 peace addresses, most of these being given to audiences outside the Society of Friends.

A Peace booth was maintained by one Peace Committee at the Pacific College Community Fair.

Suggestions for Next Year

The retiring superintendent would make some suggestions for all peace committees for the coming year.

First, plan your work. There should be a meeting of the peace forces of each quarterly meeting early in the year, at which time definite plans should be made for peace work in every meeting of the yearly meeting during the year.

Second, work your plan, and work it early. Get things under way before the rush of the winter and spring are upon you.

Third, stress the work among children. One generation which really loves peace would settle the question of international warfare. Good-will grows well in young hearts.

Fourth, always remember that peace is a cardinal doctrine, not only of Friends but of Christ. His blessing upon peace-makers, his constant emphasis upon the love and good-will which would make war impossible, his unfailing forward-looking attitude should inspire every Friend to be a center of peace-promotion, backed by that "spirit which takes away the occasion of all wars."

Respectfully submitted,
LEVI T. PENNINGTON, Superintendent.

The following program was presented:

A gold medal contest was held at which six boys and girls brought the subject of Peace very vividly before us. The successful contestant was Ronald Sherk.

An interesting pageant was presented by several young people of the Methodist Church of Newberg.

J. J. Handsaker, Regional Director for the Near East Relief, brought some report of that work. An offering was taken amounting to $72.97.

53. Gervas A. Carey again brought to us the inspirational sermon.

54. The meeting adjourned to meet at 2:00 p.m.

SIXTH DAY 2:00 P. M.

55. The meeting convened according to adjournment.

56. Epistles were read from New England and German Yearly Meetings.

57. Robert C. Smith, Representative from Salem Quarterly Meeting, asked to be excused from further attendance on the sessions of this Yearly Meeting.

The meeting excused him.

58. A further report from the nominating committee was read, approved, and appears in the directory.

59. The following Summary of the reports on State of Society was read, approved, and directed printed in the minutes.

SUMMARY OF THE REPORTS ON STATE OF SOCIETY

All meetings for worship have been regularly held excepting those dismissed for Yearly Meeting and some Quarterly Meeting rallies.

The attendance at Sunday morning services seems to be good, with a number of meetings noting an increase.

Generally the Sunday evening services are not so well attended, and is a matter of concern. Two reports note that an increasing number of those outside the membership are attending regularly.

The character of the ministry is good, tending toward bringing the membership into better spiritual relations and winning those to Christ who have never known Him.

With few exceptions the spiritual life of the members is reasonably good and they are striving to live in harmony with each other, and usually their dealings with the world are commendable.

Two reports state that a good many have been dropped from the membership the past year for habitual non-attendance and other reasons.

A goodly number have daily family devotions.

All reports speak of a growing interest in religious matters on the part of the young people and a number are engaged in active Christian work. The gift of the ministry has been recognized in some and proper encouragement given.

Some of the members have been giving good service in city missions, jails, State Institutions and hospitals.

60. The attention of the meeting was turned to the work of the Foreign Mission Board.

The Statistical report was read and approved. This report appears in the Appendix.

The report of the Superintendent was acceptable to the meeting and was as follows:

REPORT OF BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

The following report, together with the tabulated statistics presented herewith, have been gathered from the five quarterly meetings of Oregon Yearly Meeting.

Missionary stories, letters, and other items of interest are presented once a month in the Bible schools at Chehalem Center, Salem, South Salem, Rosedale, First and Second Churches in Portland, Greenleaf, Boise, Star, Springbrook, Tacoma and Bethany; Newberg has these exercises, each month, in the primary, junior and senior departments; and Rex, Marion and Valley Mound have them in their schools irregularly. Thirteen special programs have been given in the Bible school at Boise; and in one of the schools of Tacoma Quarterly Meeting there have been five programs and six short talks.

At the First Church, in Portland, an evening's program was presented by the Junior Christian Endeavor; Greenleaf had an all-day missionary meeting; and a missionary social was given at the Second Church, in Portland. A quarterly meeting program was given in Tacoma Quarterly Meeting, under the direction of the Superintendent of missionary work. Marion presents a public program in the evening of the fifth Sunday in the months which have five Sundays. At Springbrook, the missionary committee has charge of the regular prayer meeting, once a month; at Chehalem Center, the regular prayer meeting, once a month, gives special attention to missions; and at First Church, in Portland, the missionary committee meets once each month, for prayer and business. Entiat has a bulletin board, where missionary pictures and other interesting information are displayed.

Salem had a special book-reading contest; and Chehalem Center gave special attention to reading missionary books, during the month of March.

One of the regular offerings each month, with all of the birthday offerings, are given to missions, by the Bible schools at Valley Mound, Salem, Springbrook and Second Church in Portland. All Bible school offerings at South Salem are given to missions. The Missionary society at Salem Meeting gave $15.00 for missionary work. At the First Church in Portland, the sum of $52.22 was raised by the use of mite-boxes.

Melba sent a box, valued at $5.00, to one of the missions, and gifts, valued at $5.00 to some of the missionaries. The Second Church in Portland sent gifts, valued at $12.88, to some of the missionaries; and Bethany sent a box which was valued at $10.00. The First Church in Portland sent $35.00, and Newberg $10.00, as gifts to the Chilson Family West Piedmont Bible school sent $10.00 to Central America, and $8.85 to the N. H. A. Missions in North China. Salem Church, Bible school, and Missionary society, together, sent $139.00 to other fields. Rex union C.E. gave $5.00 to send Testaments to South America. Salem sent picture rolls to South and Central America; Rosedale sent picture rolls and dispensary articles to some field; and Scotts Mills sent bandages to a hospital in China. The Second Church in Portland gave $51.86 for China famine relief.

First Church in Portland had a memorial service for Margaret Smith, who died in India; this service being held in connection with one of their mite-box meetings.

The Second Church in Portland reports that arrangements are made each month, to have some one write a friendly letter to Carroll and Doris Tamplin.

Salem Quarterly Meeting reports that one of their members has finished a mission study course.

The financial program adopted last year, by the Yearly Meeting, has been very conscientiously fulfilled by the Board, except that there will be one more remittance on the support of the Chilson Family, which remittance is not yet due, but will be sent before the end of this month. We have supported the Chilson Family according to promise; and have provided, in full, the funds for the expense of returning Jefferson Ford and wife to the field in Africa.

Respectfully submitted,

F. J. COPE, Chairman.

61. The following recommendations were proposed by the Missionary Board and were approved by the meeting:

TO OREGON YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS:

During the past year the Foreign Mission Board has given careful and prayerful attention to the formulation of a program for the future missionary activities of the Yearly Meeting. We have communicated with the missionary boards of California and Ohio Yearly Meetings and with the American Friends Board and have met in conference with Charles O. Whitely, Executive Secretary of the American Friends Board of Missions, relative to work in Africa; with R. Esther Smith relative to the work of the California board in Central America, and the further possibilities of work in Bolivia, South America, and with Louise Ellett, secretary of the board of Ohio Yearly Meeting, relative to their work in India and China.

We have constantly sought the will of the Lord and an understanding of the interests of the membership of Oregon Yearly Meeting. We are convinced that the major interests of the Yearly Meeting are divided to such a degree that there appears to be no probability that these diversified interests can be united on any single field. We therefore recommend the following program of action:

First, as Regards Funds:

That the cash balance in the treasury following Yearly Meeting be divided into two equal parts and entered to the credit of separate accounts to be designated the African and sinking Funds.

That, hereafter, individuals or meetings throughout the Yearly Meeting be granted the privilege of designating the fund to which their contributions shall be applied and that all treasurers be instructed to use the utmost care that their records and remittances to the Yearly Meeting treasurer indicate all designated funds. That all undesignated contributions shall be divided equally between the two funds.

Second, as Regards Activities:

From the African funds as soon as the amount is sufficient there shall be purchased a Ford car for the use of Jefferson Ford, said car to remain for the further use of the evangelistic department of the African mission in case the Fords return to America before it is worn out.

Thereafter, the African funds shall be invested by the Yearly Meeting treasurer in interest bearing securities to accumulate a fund sufficient to outfit and return the Chilson family to the field upon the expiration of their extended furlough which has been necessitated in order that Esther and Rachel may complete their college work. The current income of this fund shall then be applied on their support. Should the Chilson family not return to the field the accumulated fund shall be applied to work in Africa as approved by the Yearly Meeting at that time. The first $1,000 of the sinking fund shall be sent to the treasurer of the Friends Mission of Guatemala and Western Honduras. Thereafter the balance shall be allowed to accumulate as the nucleus of a fund with which to begin work on a field to be selected after further investigation and reported for the approval of the Yearly Meeting next year.

We recommend that the Yearly Meeting undertake to raise at least $4,000 for missions during the coming year. We will then be able to judge more reasonably in regard to the proportionate distribution of the designated funds and to plan the scope of our work accordingly.

Third, as Regards Promotion:

We recommend that the approval of this joint program shall be construed as an authorization of the Board to promote the combined interests of the two fields throughout the Yearly Meeting in order that Friends may be kept informed as to the progress of each field and the needs and use of both funds.

The general administrative expenses of the Board shall be met by the two funds on an equal basis. The expenses of any special promotion of one field alone shall be met by the funds of that particular field.

62. The following report from the Representative Body was read and approved by the meeting:

In regard to the communication from Tacoma Quarterly Meeting: "That Oregon Yearly Meeting request Puget Sound Quarterly Meeting of Indiana Yearly Meeting to join Oregon Yearly Meeting."

After due consideration the Representatives would suggest the following reply:

"That Oregon Yearly Meeting will be glad to sympathetically entertain a request from Puget Sound Quarterly Meeting at any future date that said quarterly meeting should make such a request."

63. The finance committee recommends that the request of the Evangelistic Board for an appropriation of $2,500 be granted. The meeting favored the recommendation.

We have considered the request of the Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting forwarded to this body from the Yearly Meeting in regard to obtaining reports of the All Friends Conference and in light of the probability of adequate reports being available thru other sources we recommend that the Yearly Meeting take no action in the matter.

64. The Evangelistic Board made the following recommendation which was adopted by the meeting:

"We call the Yearly Meeting's attention to the sharp reduction of $1,000 in our askings this year and make the following explanation: It is not because of a diminishing field, nor fewer demands, but with an honest attempt to meet the economic situation. We believe, however, that by visiting the Monthly Meetings individually and presenting a statement of the conditions and needs of the work, we will receive sufficient added funds to meet our program, and that every meeting will feel a vital connection with the Yearly Meeting as it shares in maintaining and extending the work of the Board.

We further ask for the privilege of presenting our financial program in the various Monthly Meetings of the Yearly Meeting as the opportunity arises and to receive added funds from the meetings."

EDGAR P. SIMS, Chairman.

FROM THE EVANGELISTIC BOARD TO OREGON YEARLY MEETING

In view of the fact that a large number of our young people are being called into the ministry, the urgent need for church extension work, and the problem of financing some of our weaker meetings make it necessary for us to adopt some different financial system.

In order to meet the present need we recommend that in the future, all appropriations made by the Evangelistic Board to established meetings, be on the basis of a percentage of the amount the meeting itself shall raise. To determine the proper percentage each meeting asking for help shall be required to make a thorough canvass of the entire membership and other interested parties, secure pledges and report the amount subscribed to the Evangelistic Board on suitable blanks for this purpose provided by the Board, appropriations to decrease just as fast as the resources of the meeting will justify.

By direction of said Board,

MARIETTA LEWIS, Secretary.

65. The meeting adjourned to meet at 9:30 a.m. Seventh day.

SEVENTH DAY 9:30 A. M.

66. The meeting met according to adjournment and settled into a period of devotion.

67. The Bible School Superintendent requested that permission be granted the Bible School department to form a Daily Vacation Bible School division. This met with the approval of the meeting.

68. The committee on Returning Minutes made the following report which was acceptable to the meeting:

The following report of the President of Pacific College was read and approved:

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF PACIFIC COLLEGE FOR 1928-1929

It is with a sincere sense of gratitude to God that I present this my eighteenth annual report as president of Pacific College. Not only do I feel grateful to God from whom comes every good gift and every perfect gift, but I am grateful to those servants of His through whom these good gifts come to Pacific College, whether the gifts be money, or prayers, or service, or friendly counsel, or what not.

Scholastic Work of the Year

The college has had a good year from the scholastic standpoint. A faithful and well prepared faculty have done excellent work, and the work of the student body has been in the main carried on with earnestness and success.

The college conferred fourteen degrees this year. The Bachelor of Arts degree was conferred upon Rosa Aebischer, Charles A. Beals, Glen E. Brown, Sanford L. Brown, Everett J. Gettmann, Gwendolyn M. Hanson, Stanley F. Kendall, Velda J. Livingston, Rachel A. Lundquist, Conway Glen Rinard and Arthur H. Winters; and the Bachelor of Science degree upon William M. Sweet. Eva Campbell Knight, who received her degree 1915 before Pacific was recognized as a standard college of Oregon, was regraduated as of the class of 1929; and Harriet E. Hodgkin of the class of 1923, who completed her work during the summer of 1928, was re-graduated as of the class of 1928.

The award of highest honors of the class of 1929, from the standpoint of character and scholarship was made to Rosa Aebischer.

The Junior Prize for this year, for character and scholarship during the Junior year, was awarded to Genevieve H. Badley.

The J. Wilbur Elliott Memorial Award, given by Milo P. and Olive Elliott and family in memory of their son who met a tragic death during his Freshman year, was awarded to Doyle F. Green for the greatest contribution in Christian life and service made by a Freshman during the past year.

Five students completed the Commercial work and received the Commercial diploma. They were Florence E. Elliott, Dorothea A. Woods, Rosa I. Bisbee, Arloene Davey and Ione LaVerne Hutchens.

Eight students graduated from Pacific Academy, the preparatory department of the college. They were Lillian I. Barnes, Mary Sue Binford, Irene Brown, Arloene Davey, Errett E. Hummel, Ione LaVerne Hutchens, Dennis H. McGuire and Ralph E. Moore. Damon McKibben had ample work for graduation in addition to a considerable amount of college work completed, but was not graduated because of a deficiency in Foreign language; Rosa I. Bisbee had sufficient work in quantity but lacked a required subject.

The Pacific College scholarship, the highest award given to a graduate of the Academy, went to Ione LaVerne Hutchens, who had a remarkable high scholarship record as well as the character requisite to the awarding of this scholarship. Two others in the class, however, were of such high rank that they would have won the scholarship in most of the classes which complete the work of the Academy. This was true of Arloene Davey and Dennis H. McGuire, both of whom were given honorable mention by the faculty, and the latter was entitled to special recognition because he had completed the four year's course in three and one half years.

Extra Curricular Activities

No teacher can hand an education to a student. If a student becomes truly educated it must be because of his own activity; and much of this activity comes outside of the regular curricular work of the institution.

Doubtless the most important student organizations in the college are the Christian Associations, with their various activities intended to develop body, mind and soul. The regular weekly meetings of these associations, the Bible and Mission study classes maintained by them and the deputation work not only develop the students themselves, but make a real contribution to the advancement of the kingdom of God.

The athletic work of the year has gone on with marked satisfaction under the direction of Emmett W. Gulley who came to the college last fall as director of Physical Education in addition to his work as acting professor of Economics and Sociology. Soccer was the main fall sport for men, basketball the chief athletic interest during the winter, and baseball, tennis and track in the spring.

Under the direction of Dorothy Verplank the girls played volley ball, indoor baseball and tennis, and did some track work. Competing almost invariably with colleges far larger than Pacific, we have a decidedly creditable proportion of victories in athletic contests each year. Better than this, however, is the splendid record for gentlemanliness and true sportmanship for which Pacific College is known wherever its athletic teams have played.

In intercollegiate oratory and debating the students' response this year has not been so satisfactory as in some other years. It is hoped that along this line and the line of literary society work the students, and especially the men students, may show an improvement in future years.

Pacific College has had an excellent men's Glee Club this year, which, in addition to a large number of occasions in which they have assisted in programs, gave three full evening concerts, one at the college, one in the First Friends Church in Portland, and one in the South Salem Friends Church. They have also done a real service for the college in singing in high schools; and there is no doubt that the student body will be increased next year through this contribution.

Through the cooperation of the student body, the faculty and the board, Pacific College received some worthwhile publicity by means of a float in the Portland Rose Festival parade.

The college maintains the Lyceum Course which in point of continuous existence is the oldest in the Pacific Northwest and probably the oldest on the coast. Next year the course will be decidedly unique, with five numbers being secured through a Lyceum Bureau, and five being furnished by the college itself; two lectures by members of the faculty; two concerts, one by the School of Music Faculty and one by the Faculty Male quartet; and one program provided entirely by the student body.

Two young men Friends of the college spent ten weeks last summer in the peace caravan work under the direction of the American Friends Service Committee. A team consisting of three young women, all members of Friends, will carry on this peace caravan work this summer.

Change in Policy

There has been a change in the policy of the college which many have regretted to see, and which the college authorities have greatly regretted to make, but which has seemed imperative. This is the reduction of the work of the college to work of full college grade only, except that for the coming year the fourth year class will be cared for as sub-Freshmen and will graduate next year as the last class from Pacific Academy unless conditions should later warrant the resumption of this preparatory work.

The reasons for this change of policy should be generally understood by Oregon Yearly Meeting, and the college management will be glad to go into a more detailed explanation for any one who desires additional information on the matter. A few of the considerations which led to this change should be mentioned here, however.

One of these was the feeling on the part of supporters of the local high school that Pacific Academy was a rival to the institution which every one in Newberg has to support, and there has been a resultant feeling of antagonism which has prevented the college from securing the full measure of local support that it otherwise supposedly might have had. We have been assured not only that the college will have a greater local financial support, but will receive a larger share of the worthiest students from the high school through the elimination of this competition with the local high school.

A greater difficulty, however, has been the difficulty of securing students and especially Friends students from outside of Newberg. Parents seem to have a growing conviction that high school age is too young for students to be away from home. Of regular Academy students who are members of Friends, for three of the last four semesters there has been only one outside of Newberg Quarterly Meeting, and for one of these semesters not a single one. Even among local Friends there has not been the support of the Academy itself which seemed to indicate a general conviction of the necessity of its maintenance. There have been more Newberg Friends students in the Newberg High School the past year than in Pacific Academy.

A third and still stronger reason for the discontinuance of the Academy has been found in the difficulties attendant upon the maintenance of college standards when a preparatory department is maintained by the college. All standardizing agencies hold that it is bad educational policy for a college to maintain a preparatory department on the same foundation; and Pacific College has been advised by every inspector under the United States Bureau of Education to discontinue its Academy. Not until this year has the college management been willing to do this; though they have seen every other Quaker college in America give up its preparatory department; and have seen every other standard college in Oregon lay down its preparatory department; and every college in the association of Independent Colleges of Oregon except one which has this year closed its doors entirely, at least for the present. It is not that Pacific College desires to be like other institutions, as Israel wanted a king to be like the nations round about. It is because it is undeniably more difficult to maintain a college on the proper basis if preparatory students are on the same campus and in the same student body.

A final difficulty which has been found in the continued maintenance of the preparatory department is the financial one. The difference between Academy tuitions and the salaries of Academy faculty members is above $4,500, with the difference on the wrong side. If all other expenses properly chargeable to the Academy were made, such as light, heat, janitor service, upkeep, repairs, etc., it is likely that the cost of the Academy above academy income would be shown to be not less than $5,000 per year. Not all this will be saved next year, since we are caring for the fourth year Academy class; but it did not seem right to the college authorities to require the Friends of the college to bear this additional burden of $5,000 per year when the benefit, so far as the Society of Friends is concerned, was confined almost entirely to Newberg Quarterly Meeting.

For these and for other reasons the Academy and Commercial work are being discontinued and the work of the college confined to that of full college grade only.

Faculty Changes

The discontinuance of the Academy and Commercial Department, with other normal faculty changes, will make the faculty for next year differ decidedly from that of this year. There is very little change in the faculty of the college proper, however.

Through the discontinuance of the preparatory and Commercial work Pacific will be without the services of Mary L. Johnson, Hubert E. Armstrong, J. Winford Mather, Dorothy Verplank and Horace C. Terrell. The return of Floyd W. Perisho, professor of Chemistry, to his work here after another year of graduate work in the University of Iowa releases Helen Hester Wood, who came to the force for the single year. Dwight W. Michener, professor of Economics and Sociology, who has been on leave of absence this year, has presented his resignation which has been reluctantly accepted, and the work of this department will be handled for 1929-30 by Professor Emmett W. Gulley and Professor Perry D. Macy. Laura A. Betts has resigned as Librarian and her place has been filled by Marie Louise Gould, who is taking her B. S. degree in Library Science from the University of Washington this month. The rest of the faculty remains intact, consisting of Levi T. Pennington, president and professor of Philosophy and Religious Education; Oliver Weesner, professor of Mathematics and Physics; Russell W. Lewis, professor of English and Literature; Floyd W. Perisho, professor of Chemistry; Perry D. Macy, professor of History and Political Science; Chase L. Conover, professor of Psychology and Education; Bertha McCracken, professor of Spanish; Mary C. Sutton, professor of Biology; Emmett W. Gulley, director of Physical Education and acting professor of Economics and Sociology; Alice B. Myers, professor of German and French; Emma Mendenhall Hodgkin, instructor in Latin and English; Eva Hummer Hull, teacher of Piano and Violin; and Alexander Hull, teacher of Voice and Cello, etc.

To this force has been added Esther Binford, who was on the Pacific College faculty from 1925-28 and who returns after a year of graduate work in Columbia University. She will have charge of Physical Education for women, will be an instructor in English, and will have charge of the dormitory for women.

Financial Work of the Year

One year ago plans were being made for the putting on of a $100,000 banquet in Portland to add a necessary sum to the permanent funds of the college in order that it might retain its recognition as a standard college. The death of Eric V. Hauser interfered with the success of this campaign as originally planned, and there remains nearly half of the entire sum yet to be raised. A banquet was held June 3, to which were invited all who had made contributions of $100 or more and a number of other Portland people whom it is hoped to interest in Pacific College.

The effort for the rest of the fund must be continued and it is hoped that the friends of the college will see to it that this fund is quickly completed, that the college may not lose the recognition for which it has worked so long.

Field Secretary Employed

For the financial work of the college and also quite as much for the securing of new students the college early in 1929, employed E. C. Newberry, who is serving faithfully and efficiently in this double task. Friends are urged to give him every possible co-operation as he labors for the advancement of Oregon Yearly Meeting's college.

With a clear realization of the difficulties that are still before us, but with the feeling that there has been real accomplishment, we face the coming year with the prayer that God's blessing and guidance may be ours beyond our poor deserving.

Respectfully submitted,

LEVI T. PENNINGTON, President Pacific College.

The meeting appreciated the report of the Woman's Auxilliary to Pacific College. The report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO PACIFIC COLLEGE--1928-1929

The membership roll shows 110 paid up members.

For the third time a three-day Community Fair was held which proved both profitable and pleasant. Over $800 was realized from this effort.

280 quarts of fruit was canned and placed on the shelves for the use of the dining hall.

Many improvements were made at the men's and women's dormitories. A stand lamp was purchased and new rugs laid on the living room floors, net curtains and drapes were hung at the windows, and some new blinds and drapes were hung in the college building.

A velour valance, matching the stage curtain was made and hung at the top of the chapel stage. The old rubber treads on some of the college stairs were replaced by new ones. Useful articles for the kitchen were provided from time to time.

The Portland branch of the Auxiliary generously furnished feather ticks into which the local ladies transferred feathers from the old pillows, making twenty-five nice new three-pound pillows.

Three banquets were given from which over $45 was realized.

$64.60 was paid for gravel placed on the new drive north of Kanyon Hall.

Three years ago a pledge of $2,500 was made toward the maintenance of the college to be paid in $500 yearly payments. $1,852.74 has been paid, leaving $647.26 to be paid in the next two years.

Respectfully submitted,

REBECCA PENNINGTON, President Woman's Auxiliary.

It has been a pleasure to work with the children this year.

We have sought to bring to them those lessons which would stimulate their desire for the deeper spiritual things, desiring that they may not waste valuable time in mediocre living while the fields lie white before them, awaiting strong vigorous hands to reap the ready harvest.

May Oregon Yearly Meeting continue to cherish and guide her heritage in the children.

89. The Superintendent read the report which was approved and is printed below:

REPORT OF THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Humbly grateful to a loving Heavenly Father for His blessings to us, the Christian Endeavor submits the following report:

The Christian Endeavor has shown real progress in several lines during the past year. The reports of the superintendents indicate constructive activities in the different Quarterly Meetings and Monthly Meetings.

Since the fellowship and unity of our C. E. societies is largely maintained by Quarterly Meeting rallies and union services, we are encouraged by the reports that several have been held during the year. Fifteen of such services have been held throughout the Yearly Meeting.

The annual banquet was held at Newberg this year with an attendance of about 340. This was a time of fellowship, blessing and inspiration. We wish that such occasions could be more frequent.

The urge to service for our Lord Jesus Christ is finding expression in our C. E. societies in various ways. One society is holding mission services once a month; another is holding jail services twice a month; while another has held a week's revival services in its own church with some good results. Others have presented programs and conducted services for worship in their own churches.

Some of our societies have exemplified the spirit of our Lord and the church by the giving of food and clothing to the poor at Thanksgiving and Christmas time.

Tithing has been encouraged among the young people of one Quarterly meeting with gratifying results. The Twin Rocks Conference was a time of real blessing and help to our young people. The attendance was quite large, reaching a record mark of 580 on Sunday morning. The new auditorium was completed and is entirely paid for. This has been a great cause for rejoicing among us. A very fine plant is being developed at Twin Rocks, but there is much yet to do.

Later in the summer a second conference was held at Perry, Oregon, so that Boise Valley Quarterly meeting might enjoy the blessings of a conference. This conference was well attended and was so successful that another is being planned by Boise Valley Quarter this year. We are praying for and anticipating with a great deal of pleasure both conferences this summer.

The Friendly Endeavor has successfully completed another year. The financial support of the paper by the members of the Yearly Meeting has been marvelous. For the year 1928, the entire quota for the Yearly Meeting was paid in full.

There has been a wholesome increase in membership during the year, such increase being contributed to by the senior, intermediate and junior societies. This is indeed encouraging. We are glad for the junior and intermediate societies as well as the senior societies, and we sincerely hope and urge that they be organized in those meetings which have none at the present time.

We feel that the spiritual condition of the young people is good and we pray God that He will help us to dig deeper into spiritual things.

Praise, honor, and thanksgiving be unto our Lord and Master for the privilege of serving in this great harvest field.

Plans are being made for the coming year which we believe will unite our members into a closer bond of fellowship.

We face the coming year with no discouragement, with determination, and with a forward and upward look. Trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for strength, we promise Him that we will strive to do that which will most effectually build up His Kingdom.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER P. LEE, President

ALETHA I. ALLEN, Secretary.

The Statistical report was read and is printed in the Appendix.

90. The Meeting of Ministry and Oversight submitted the following report:

"Oregon Yearly Meeting of Ministry and Oversight met in its annual session 6th month 11th, 1929, with almost all of the representatives present. Also again on fifth day morning.

We gratefully acknowledge the precious presence of the Lord in these sessions and in His name go forward to the work of the coming year.

At the eleven o'clock meeting Edgar P. Sims presented the needs of the Evangelistic and Church Extension Board; a subscription and collection was taken which amounted to $575.65.

Gervas A. Carey brought the message.

The three o'clock meeting was in charge of the Christian Workers League. The following resolution was passed and older Friends showed their appreciation by asking permission to incorporate it in the minutes:

"Whereas Oregon Yearly Meeting has so heartily demonstrated her sympathetic attitude toward the Christian Workers' League by encouraging words and by expressions of sympathy;

Whereas: She has so enthusiastically supported us by her earnest prayers and ready financial assistance;

Be it hereby resolved that we express to her our heartfelt gratitude and sincere appreciation.

On behalf of Christian Workers' League.

Appendix

EPISTLE FROM LONDON YEARLY MEETING OF THE SOCIETY OF FRIENDS

Held in London from the 23rd to the 29th of Fifth Month, 1929.

TO FRIENDS EVERYWHERE:

DEAR FRIENDS:

In our meeting this year we have been stirred by a sense of joy and hope. That this should happen when we have been brought, through the year's work, into such close fellowship with those suffering in the coalfields with the ill-housed and underfed, may seem strange. The stirring is not due simply to the fact that we have been permitted to serve our fellows, though this is cause for humble rejoicing; it comes from a conviction, discovered in the doing of the work itself, that we are, as it were, living in the spring-time of the Spirit. Who knows what may open up before us if we step out with courage and reverence to greet the summer?

We can look in scarcely any direction without seeing things which claim our sympathy or threaten the peace and prosperity of mankind; and we are glad that not a few who might be with us to-day are led into public service at this election time in striving to deal with the nation's problems. We have been reminded of all the young life around us so full of possibilities. In our own Society and in the neighborhood of many of our Meeting Houses are large numbers of young people to whom we have something to give and from whom we have much to learn. Unemployment is a menace to many families and to the common weal, and overcrowding produces conditions we hardly dare to contemplate. For very many it is true to say that the spiritual and moral sides of life are so largely determined by economic conditions as to give them but the faintest hope of finding their way into the abundant life. That many, so adversely placed, do win through gloriously must ever constitute a great challenge to those who have grown up in space and leisure, without which they might now themselves be destitute or worse. Nor is our civilization by any means free from the shadow of war which puts fear in place of freedom into many hearts and homes. What right then have we to joy or hope unless we respond to this challenge in the spirit of Christ?

In our experience there is unique value in the meeting for worship held in life and power. The basis of such a meeting is the presence in our midst of Him whom we recognize as Love and Truth, discovered in the silent waiting, drawing us to Himself and to one another, opening mind and heart to fresh visions both of the world and of Himself, giving us guidance and power for everyday life. This is a very wonderful thing. In many of our meetings such experiences are not uncommon. In others they may be rare. Perhaps we do not wait long enough in living silence that the life of God may stir our hearts as the sap presses up to open the buds in spring. Perhaps, preoccupied with our own concerns, we think too little of other worshippers, lacking that spiritual sensitiveness which is itself so rich a gift of the Spirit.

Whatever the state of any particular meeting, we would call our friends to a large faith in its possibilities. We would ask those who find little help to come in and give their best. We believe that more of our members should be coming forward to dedicate their gifts in a special way to the vocal ministry. Our Society has been nourished largely through the prophetic word coming direct from the heart, though often enriched by continued study and the treasures of a well-stored mind. Shall we not pray that more prophets may be raised up in whose hearts the word of God burns like a fire and who take pains to fit themselves to deliver it? At the same time we are not forgetful that in our meetings for worship every single one can share, and is called to share, in the silence or in the word that grows out of it.

Above all we see our meetings as an adventure of the Spirit where new things may happen at any time, focal points from which spread out fresh life and power. Those who share our meetings in this way are taking part in a creative act. For this as for all truly creative work the divine inbreathing is essential. Those who in the past have done the greatest service for their fellowmen, have not simply seen and taken hold upon the divine strength, their experience has rather been that God has laid hold upon them, and that henceforth it was not they who worked, but God who worked through them. Human personality holds no greater possibility.

The profusion of nature's experiments encourages us to a lavish scattering of the seeds of friendliness and help. Where these may fall we cannot tell. Many may be devoured by birds and many fall upon stony places. (Mark iv. 4, 5) But the glory of the way of Christ that we delight to scatter without stint and without reserve. For He comes to us not with a devastating demand but with a munificent offer. As we accept it with joy we catch the spirit that made it. Life is enlarged in an amazing way as we pour out of our best. We are not expected to give more than we have, but in giving what we have we are surprised to find that we gain and have more to give than we ever dreamed possible. Such is the arithmetic of the divine life in man!

Children are we all on the shores of immensity, seekers who have found treasure but who never lose the zest of seeking. Let no-one think that in association with the Society of Friends he comes to a body whose growth has finished and whose form is rigid. As a group we are out together on adventures of fearless goodwill and we want all who have that spirit to share in the conflict with evil and in the creative tasks of the future, refashioning our Society to ever larger ends. We have no formal creed and it has been said that "Quakerism in dispensing with creeds holds out a hand to the scientists." Not merely to men of science but to all who have their attitude to life, we would say, "Come and share with us the joy of discovering in this new age the meaning and power of the eternal truth and beauty and love. We want your help, we gladly share such experience as we have."

For "rejection of creed is not inconsistent with being possessed by a living belief." (Swarthmore Lecture, 1929.) "The knowledge we hold so enthusiastically" may not "survive in the letter," (Swarthmore Lecture, 1929.) but we have "a sureness that we are on the road." (Swathmare Lecture, 1929.) Our fellowship is a very real thing, created by a vision of God in Christ and bearing witness to the reality of a religious life grounded in sincerity and issuing in service.

The Word of God could never be fully expressed in human speech; it had to be made flesh. (John i, 14.) So in human terms we see the Life of our life, ever expanding, ever opening to us new vistas of possibility for ourselves and for society. The individual is perfected in the larger fellowship of the common life and harmony is discovered through variety. Flinging ourselves gladly into the forward march of the sons of God we know something of the power of an endless life and out of our very distresses are born the hope and joy with which we go forth in this spring-time of the Spirit..

EXTRACTS FROM REPORT OF AMERICAN FRIENDS SERVICE COMMITTEE

TO OREGON YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS, HELD AT NEWBERG, OREGON.

DEAR FRIENDS:

The American Friends Service Committee has completed its twelfth year of work

Four major standing concerns are represented by four sections, entitled respectively: Foreign Service, Home Service, Peace and Interracial Relations. Three branch offices have been in action since June 1st or longer. They are located at Boston, Mass., Richmond, Indiana and Pasadena, California.

In our foreign work we have continued to enjoy the great privilege of cooperation with Friends in England through their Friends Service Council. Thus under joint Anglo-American auspices are maintained Quaker centers in six of the principal capitals of Europe: Paris, Berlin, Vienna, Geneva, Warsaw, and Moscow. In addition we have joined with English and German Friends in their center in Frankfurt and have supplied nurses aides as in previous years to the maternity hospital in Chalons which grew as a permanent monument out of our relief work in France. In the past year, two permanent memorials of the relief work in Germany of which ours was the major part, have been established. One is a bronze tablet in the National Headquarters of the German League of Private Welfare Societies in Berlin. The exercises at the dedication of this monument bear witness to the lasting impression made upon the German nation by the spirit of our enterprise. The other is the establishment at Breslau of a child clinic. Using the last four thousand dollars of the millions put at our disposal since the war for German child relief, the Breslau clinic marks the close of a striking chapter in the history of Quakerism.

Through the generosity of a Friend in New York, we are permitted annually to draw to Geneva two American teachers of economics or history who by studying in that center are qualified on returning to America to broaden the horizons of their students with the contagious enthusiasm of experience in the atmosphere of international cooperation and government.

To these European embassies we have this year added at Tokio, Hugh and Elizabeth Borton, who still while studying Japanese language and history are already beginning to express our ideal of goodwill to the Japanese people. This work is carried on in cooperation with the Foreign Mission Board, of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, Arch street. Another young and devoted couple, Harry and Rebecca Janney Timbres, after the prolonged delay and sacrifice of a thorough medical course, are about ready to become our ambassadors to India. It has been the long cherished hope of Rabindranath Tagore, that a Friend should be associated with him in the work at his international settlement at Santiniketan. A new hospital has been built and the services of a doctor and nurse were urgently needed. Harry and Rebecca Timbres were eminently qualified for this service and have been accepted by Tagore with expressions of deep satisfaction.

Our peace activity (apart from cooperation on behalf of Friends with many national movements) has followed several fresh and original lines. The Peace Caravan, so far as we know, is our own invention. We have not patented it, but we know that it has captured the imagination of many persons besides the young Friends who have engaged in this itinerant summer campaign of peace propaganda. Last summer the number of teams was increased to eleven and they were active in states from Massachusetts to Oregon. It is gratifying that we are securing the support of college student groups in sending out these teams. We were provided besides with resources to include two prohibition teams. The caravan team made up of boys from Pacific College selected and largely directed by Levi T. Pennington, worked for ten weeks in portions of the territory covered by your Yearly Meeting.

One of last summer's Peace Caravans consisted of two young colored speakers. But our principal appeal to the latent peace interests of the Colored Race is by our partial support of and active cooperation with the American Interracial Peace Committee. Alice Dunbar-Nelson, its secretary, by constant opportunities for speaking before National organizations and special meetings, has had an enviable opportunity to lay before members of her race, as has never been done on such a scale before, the opportunities they have to contribute to the peace convictions of the American public. Her work also provides her with opportunity for newspaper publicity. We regard our association with this work as appropriate expression of the United Quaker concern on matters both of war and race.

Another interesting development during the past year is a peace press bureau conducted upon a modest scale. To about one hundred and twenty-five newspapers in several states we are supplying frequent news releases or editorial comment calculated to show the peaceful implications of current events in international relations. These are specially prepared by Lucy M. Thruston in our office.

During the present school year we have been promoting in schools throughout America a series of Peace Declamation Contests. About two hundred contests have been held. Both the speakers and their hearers in each contest have been in this way encouraged to "think peace." To make available a suitable collection of pieces for these children our secretary, Anna B. Griscom, selected and edited for us the attractive and widely sold book entitled "Peace Crusaders."

While speaking of Publications we should also mention two others, which, as narratives of our Committee's history, we hope will assist both Friends and others to catch whatever has been worthy in our work. Edward Thomas of New York, put into book form under the title "Quaker Adventures" some radio talks given from their most thrilling experiences by some of our workers returned from abroad. A more analytical summary, principally based on the records of the American Friends Service Committee, is the book by Lester Jones, called "Quakers in Action."

The home service section reports that in response to our appeal to young people to endeavor to render service of national importance in times of peace thirty-nine young men and women have been engaged in some form of social work during the past year. Of this number nine were engaged in settlement work, four in reform work, seven in Indian school work, fifteen in the southern mountains, four in other lines. Furthermore during the summer months three representatives of the Service Committee were carrying on social service work in Barnesboro, Penna., among the families of the miners.

One more field of activity will be entered into through the service of two young Friends, Patrick and Caroline Biddle Malin, who have been added to the staff of the American Friends Service Committee for work in the colleges and among Friends groups. Their chief concern is the application of religion to life, especially in the realm of economic relations.

1. We are fully aware that the war emergency is over. We have no desire to continue as a separate organization for purely emergency purposes. But we have discovered a widespread conviction among Friends who really know the Society of Friends as a whole that the Service Committee is needed as much in 1929, as it was in 1917. The increasing sense of unity within the Society and the public confidence in Quakerism and interest in its ideals demand a flexible but representative common mouthpiece and agency.

2. Our immediate tasks include, much more than in the past, work within the Society of Friends. If we are to match our unprecedented opportunity at home or abroad with any worthy service we must ourselves be better Friends. The degree to which most of the 110,000 Friends actually realize and express our ideals falls far below our reputation and our capacity. This committee wishes to bring home to our membership everywhere the social implications of our religious principles and to cultivate the spiritual force latent in our message of goodwill.

3. Where local meetings are effectively doing this we can best leave local work to existing organizations. But we can strengthen weak groups or isolated individuals and give an interchange of experience and conviction. We can also work in close harmony with those already at work. In Germany, in New England, in Japan and in many other small and large American Groups we are in the fullest cooperation with the local Quaker organizations.

4. We wish especially to encourage national mindedness in our outlook on Quakerism. Under our care there is to be held at Oskaloosa, Iowa, from September 3rd to 9th, the long expected 1929 Friends Conference. Through personal fellowship of representatives from all corners of Quakerism we hope that we shall make progress there in thinking of the total Society at its total task. No group of American Friends can say to the other "I have no need of thee." We are one body, though many members.

5. The Service Committee is aware of the necessity for rigid avoidance of overlapping. Take the work for peace for example. Outside the Society of Friends are numerous peace organizations. Some are doing admirable work, which the Service Committee could not and should not attempt to duplicate. But there remains types of peace work which no other organization is doing and some of these we alone are really able to do. We believe that the statesmanlike leaders in all outside peace organizations welcome heartily the existence of a permanent and united Quaker organization that can crystallize Quaker sentiment and can contribute the prestige and influence of our long tradition. Along such distinctive lines our future lies.

As an illustration we may mention at this point a conference held at Browns Mills, N. J., the first week in April. This was a conference on War's Challenge to Christianity. Over two hundred were present, mostly young people engaged in or training for religious work; sixteen of our leading theological seminaries were represented by ninety young men students. It was absolutely fitting that the Society of Friends should sponsor such an undertaking. If the religious leadership of America should now be prepared to take an abolitionist view of war, future American Patriotism would sheathe the sword.

Before concluding we must refer to the two matters of personnel and finance. Last spring, Rufus M. Jones, having served as Chairman of the Committee ever since the beginning asked to be released. A few months later Wilbur K. Thomas resigned as Executive Secretary. Our enterprise will always be deeply indebted to these energetic statesmen and apostles who for a decade have piloted it through the ever recurring crises of war and peace. Before the public they have been our spokesmen; among ourselves they have given our work direction and prestige. Perhaps these changes only underscore the inevitable changes which our work must expect as it continues to minister to our changing needs. Since February, Anna B. Griscom has been acting as Secretary in charge. We are glad to announce that Clarence E. Pickett of Richmond, Indiana, has been appointed Executive Secretary. He is well known to both eastern and western Friends, and we believe he will be another uniting factor in our growing understanding of each other.

We have referred both to the past and to the future. But our face is toward the future. May we not accept the injunction of the unknown ancient saint who said: "Look now forwards, and let the backwards be."

Signed on behalf of the American Friends Service Committee, May 7th, 1929,

HENRY J. CADBURY, Chairman

ANNA B. GRISCOM, Acting Secretary.
