Men's and Women's Track and Field/ Cross Country Head Coach

Wes Cook

Wes Cook has turned George Fox University into a small college powerhouse in cross country and track and field.

In his 12 years at the Newberg institution, his men's and women's teams have become regulars at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) national meets. All four of his squads have finished among the top 15 in the nation, and they have occasionally reached up and knocked off NCAA Division 1 opponents.

In 1992, following the George Fox men's fifth-place and women's second-place finishes at the national meet, Cross Country Express magazine declared his cross country program best in the nation at the NAIA level. In George Fox's final year in the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA), his women's cross country team won the 1988 NCCAA national title with a record low score of 19.

His athletes have won 79 NAIA All-American awards and have performed just as well in the classroom, earning 50 NAIA All-American Scholar-Athlete awards. In 1995, George Fox was the only school to put both men's and women's teams in the top five of the NAIA cross country national meet team scholastic competition.

Cook's accomplishments haven't gone unrecognized. He was named National Coach of the Year in women's cross country by the NCCAA in 1988 and the NAIA in 1992. In the West Coast region (NAIA Area I), he won Coach of the Year honors for men's cross country in 1990 and 1992.

At the district and conference level, he's earned Coach of the Year honors 12 times, at least once in each sport he coaches. In 1992-93, he was named NAIA District 2 Coach of the Year for all women's sports.

He's been involved nationally as an NAIA national rater and served on the NAIA women's track and field games committee. He is a member of the U.S. Track Coaches Association.

A Nebraska native, Cook rose to the highest rank (Eagle) in the Boy Scouts of America before going on to become a four-time conference track scorer at the University of Northern Colorado. He set the school record at the 800-meter distance and helped the mile relay team to four consecutive conference titles. He was the national winner of the Holmes Award, given to the most outstanding senior in Alpha Kappa Lambda, a national collegiate fraternity.

In 1961, he graduated with a degree in physical education and history. He earned a Master of Arts in Teaching at Lewis & Clark College in Portland in 1975.

Cook served 26 years as a head coach at five high schools in three states. During his 15 years at Gladstone High School, his track and cross country teams finished as Oregon state champion or runner-up 10 times. His boy's cross country team went undefeated for 51 straight dual meets, and he was named Oregon class 2A (now 3A) High School Coach of the Year for all sports three times.

In 1983, his son Toby set the Oregon class 3A state record in the 1,500-meter race.

Cook has served as president of the Oregon Track and Cross Country Coaches Association and the Oregon Association of The Athletics Congress (now U.S. Track and Field). He's been active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes and summer track and basketball camps. He's led four international tour teams and has traveled to 15 countries.

Cook has spoken at clinics and seminars nationwide and authored articles in state and national publications.

In addition to his coaching duties, Cook also is associate professor of health and human performance at George Fox.

He has three adult children; Tammy, Toby and Brad.

Dave Guzman and 1997 400-meter national champion Ryan Chaney

Assistant Track Coaches

SCOTT BROWN came to George Fox as a student-athlete in 1987, the same year Wes Cook took the head coaching position.

A member of Madison High School's 1986 state championship track team, he earned first-team all-state honors in the 4x400-meter relay in 1987.

At George Fox, he was a four-year letterwinner in track and cross country and qualified for the NAIA national decathlon and 400-meter hurdles. Three of his years, he was the leading point scorer on the track team.

He earned his bachelor's degree in math teaching in 1991 and his Master of Education in 1998 from George Fox. After serving as an assistant coach at Clackamas Community College in 1992, he joined the George Fox coaching staff. His responsibilities are the hurdles, vertical jumps and combined-events. In his six years, he's coached 23 athletes at George Fox that have become NAIA All-Americans, and three that became NAIA national champions.

During the last two years, he served as the NAIA national women's track and field ranker. He performed the same task for the Northwest Conference in 1998. He also has written an article on hurdling titled "Hurdling 101" in "Sprinting and Hurdling" by Keeba Tolbert. He currently is collaborating on a book aimed at helping middle school coaches organize their track and field programs.

Brown currently is a math and science teacher at Fred Patton Middle School in the McMinnville School District. He lives in Newberg.

DAVE GUZMAN became the George Fox sprints and relay coach in 1994-95 after spending a dozen years guiding Salem Academy's sprinters to prominence at the state level.

In his eight seasons prior to joining the George Fox coaching staff, 30 of his relay teams qualified for the Oregon Class 2A state meet, 29 scored points and 17 took state titles. Six athletes won individual state titles.

In four seasons at George Fox, he has coached nine relay teams to NAIA national meet appearances, five scoring points with top-eight finishes.

Guzman has 22 years of track and field coaching experience, including three years as co-founder and president of the Santiam Striders Track Club.

A graduate of Linfield College, he owns an insurance business in Salem.

He and his wife, Judy, live in Kaiser, and have four children.

JOHN LUCCIO draws on 41 years of coaching experience to help George Fox athletes in the throwing events. He has been an assistant coach at George Fox since 1989, mentoring his student-athletes to two individual national titles and four other All-American finishes.

His resume includes a five-year stint as assistant track coach at University of California-Santa Barbara, where one team finished as the NCAA national runner-up.

He went on to high school head coaching jobs at Illinois Valley (Cave Junction, Ore.) High School and Sherwood (Ore.) High School. His Sherwood boys and girls cross country teams both won district titles. At Illinois Valley, his girls cross country as well as boys and girls track squads all won district championships. The girls cross country team took third in the state.

Luccio lettered in track and football while earning a bachelor's degree at Bowling Green State University in Ohio. He went on to earn master's degrees at Bowling Green and the University of Oregon.

Luccio continues to be active. He competes in master's division track and field competition, ranking in the nation's top-15 in javelin, 300-meter low hurdles and triple jump.

He recently retired after 39 years of teaching health and physical education in Oregon and California. He and his wife, Margaret, have seven children and live in Wilsonville.

First-year assistant coach JOHN SMITH is one of the top decathletes in the U.S.

He ranked 34th in the nation after scoring a personal-record 7,311 in 1997. Smith competes for Oregon International and won the University of Oregon Invitational decathlon and took second at the Rocky Mountain Invitational Decathlon.

Smith graduated from George Fox in 1996 after twice winning NAIA All-American titles in the decathlon. Smith holds top-10 marks in eight events at George Fox including the second-best mark in the pole vault.

Smith is a graduate of North Bend (Ore.) High School, where he earned all-state honors and set the school record in the triple jump. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and human performance (fitness management emphasis). He has been an assistant track coach at Cascade College in Portland, Ore., and a

Looking Back at Significant Bruins in History

Although George Fox's track and cross country programs have achieved most of their national success in the last few decades, they follow an impressive tradition. George Fox student-athletes have been earning distinction since the late 1800s.

Roy Heater (1898-1902)

Roy Heater may have been the finest athlete in the Pacific Northwest at the beginning of the 1900s. In 1902, the Oregonian newspaper wrote that Heater was "recognized as the best all-around athlete ever turned out in the Northwest."

He beat the world record holder at the 1905 National Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) Track and Field Championships to win the pole vault competition. Using a wood pole, he cleared 11-feet, 6 inches. At track meets attended by colleges of all sizes, he would win multiple events, in one meet finishing first in seven events.

In 1902, the Oregonian listed him as the owner of four Pacific Northwest track records.

He became one of the leading track mentors in the Northwest, coaching at George Fox, Willamette University, Pacific University and Oregon State. Among his students were Slats Gill and A.C. Gilbert, who went on to break the world pole vault record at Yale University.

Roy Heater

Janet (Johnson) McClurg (1961-65) was a world-class athlete, winning the 1964 U.S. Track and Field Federation 100- and 220-yard national championships.

She finished sixth in the pentathlon at the 1967 Pan Am Games and her 1967 400-yard time of 53.6 ranked ninth in the world.

Bob Hadlock (1965-70) was George Fox's first NAIA track All-American and the first to be selected in a professional draft. Hadlock made it to the NAIA national meet three times, finishing third in the 1968 shot put. After being named a football All-American in 1970, the 6-foot-6 defensive tackle and center was drafted by the Detroit Lions of the National Football League.

Curt Ankeny (1970-74) was one of the Northwest's top athletes in the early '70s. He was named 1973 NAIA District 2 Athlete of the Year for all sports. He was a three-time track and field NAIA national meet competitor, finishing third in the 1974 marathon. He twice finished 17th at the national cross country meet. Ankeny set NAIA District 2 records in winning the district marathon and six-mile races. He also captured the three-mile title and the cross country championship twice. He was inducted into the 1984 NAIA District 2 Players Hall of Fame.

Steve Blikstad (1975-79) was George Fox's first NAIA national champion. He won NAIA All-American awards three times in track and once in cross country. After taking second as a sophomore and third as a junior, he took the steeplechase national title his senior season. In track, Blikstad broke five school records and helped set two school relay records. He competed at the NAIA national cross country meet four times, earning All-American honors for his 19th place finish in 1976.

Jill (Jamison) Beals

(1988-92) was George Fox's first student-athlete to be inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame. She was a three-time 10,000-meter national NAIA champion and set the national meet record. She also ran to NAIA national runner-up finishes in the 5,000-meter race and the cross country race. She helped George Fox's women's cross country team to its first-ever No. 1 national ranking.

*Jill (Jamison) Beals

named NAIA District 2 Female Athlete of the Year and went on to win the 1992 Seattle Marathon in her first try. At George Fox, she set records in six events.

In 1992, she was a finalist for the Hayward Award, given to the top amateur athlete in Oregon.

Aaron Young (1991-92; 93-96) saved his best for last, winning the NAIA national triple jump with a career-best and school record 48-11 effort his senior season. Young, as a junior, had finished sixth in the triple jump. He also was a national high jump competitor, an event he had won at the Oregon Class 4A high school meet.

Becci Harper (1995-97) won back-to-back NAIA national javelin titles and was an all-conference basketball player at George Fox. She set the school record with a javelin throw of 156-11 as a junior.

Ryan Chaney (1993-97) won the 1997 indoor and outdoor NAIA 400-meter titles and was named the spring at-large GTE Academic All-American of the Year.

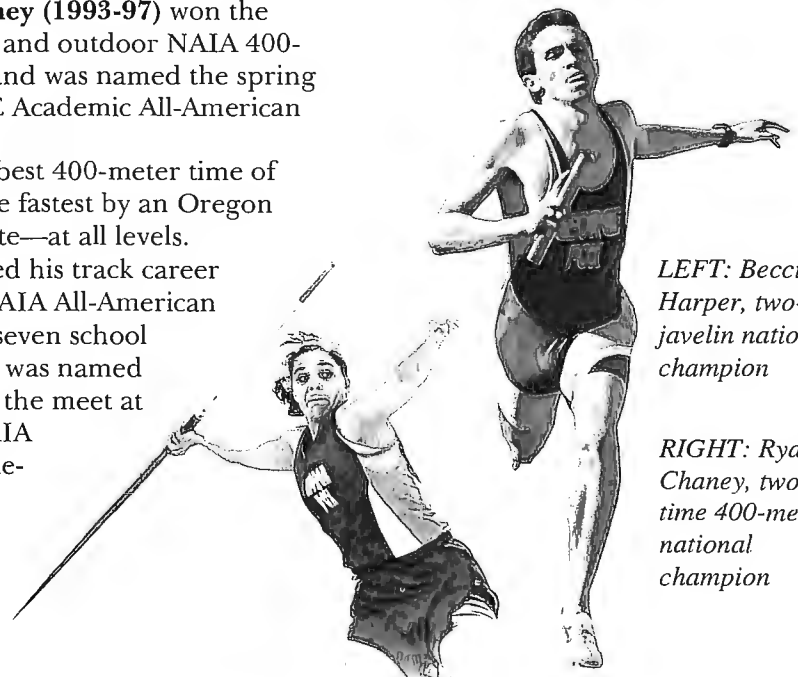

Chaney's best 400-meter time of 45.98 was the fastest by an Oregon college athlete—at all levels.

He finished his track career with eight NAIA All-American awards and seven school records. He was named co-athlete of the meet at the 1997 NAIA Northwest Regional Meet.

Chaney qualified and went on to compete in the 1997 USA Track and Field Championships.

Nancy Rissmiller (1994-98) was named the 1996 NAIA Female Athlete of the Year for all sports by College Sports magazine. During her four-year career, she won two NAIA national high jump titles and earned 11 All-American awards as a track and basketball athlete. She earned four high jump NAIA All-American honors, two 4x400 relay NAIA All-American awards, three NAIA All-American Scholar-Athlete honors, one NAIA Div. II basketball All-American listing and a place on the GTE Academic All-American spring at-large team.
