CONTEST PITS STRONG NWC, OCC TEAMS

Two teams that got off to big starts last week and are tabbed as powers again in their respective conferences go at it this afternoon on Palatine Hill. Both the Pioneers and Wolves won last weekend, Lewis and Clark thumping Eastern Oregon, 47-6, and Oregon College of Education upending Pacific, 36-7.

Coach Fred Wilson's Pioneers will be out to keep a couple of streaks alive today. They'll be fighting to keep a Griswold Stadium win streak going as well as to maintain an unblemished record against the Wolves. Lewis and Clark has won eight straight on the Hill with its last home loss back in 1965—a 14-13 heartbreaker to College of Idaho. The Pioneers have not been beaten by the Wolves in four outings since the series began in 1947. Their latest success was 28-0 in 1962.

The invaders harbor plenty of talent in their pack. Leader is Bob Ziegler, top ground gainer in the Oregon Collegiate Conference last year. His running mate at halfback is Dennis Sydow, the Wolves' regular quarterback last season who was moved to half to take advantage of his running power.

The Pioneers feature a 1968 offense led by two-time all-conference quarterback Skip Swyers, hard running fullback Tom Boyle (LC's leading ground gainer for the past two years) and a compitent front line headed by senior guard Vic Carlson and junior center Ron Sopko.

The Orange and Black also boasts a sparkling defensive unit, figured to be one of the best and most experienced in the conference. The defensive line is anchored by all-American candidate Bill Bailey, all 265 pounds of him, at right tackle. Other stalwarts on the defensive unit are end Denny Colvin, middle guard Steve McNutt, linebackers Denny Walter and Wes Bigham and back Jon Jaqua.

Outcome of today's game will rest on the ability of the Lewis and Clark defense to contain Ziegler, Sydow & Co., and Swyers to get a potent attack going against the "half ton" OCE defensive line that averages 222 pounds per man.

FATHER VS. SON TODAY

A sidebar "father-son" battle will be going on today. Whatever the game's outcome, you know Bill McArthur (the coach) and Mike McArthur (the Halfback) will be discussing this clash for some time to come in the McArthur household in Monmouth. You see, Bill is head coach of the Oregon College of Education team while Mike, a junior at Lewis and Clark, is in the starting Pioneer backfield. Bill is dean of Northwest college football coaches, piloting the Wolves for 21 years. That means he was at the OCE helm a year before Mike was born.

GAME TELEVISED LIVE, IN COLOR

Football fans in Oregon and Southwest Washington will be "where the action is in Griswold Stadium" this afternoon via television. KPTV, Channel 12, is carrying the Lewis and Clark-OCE game live and in color. Frank Bonema and Don Holt are doing the play-by-play. KPTV is also scheduled to carry the Nov. 2 homecoming game with Willamette. Welcome Frank, Don and KPTV!

NEW PAMPLIN SPORT CENTER is the building under construction across from the stadium. Architect's concept above shows elevation including former gymnasium (on right) which will house new swimming pool. Plans call for completion of building in early 1969. Architects are Stanton, Boles, Maguire and Church.

PIONEER 'SPOTLIGHT'

BILL BAILEY

Big, quick linemen are a scarce commodity in football today, especially in the small college ranks. Lewis and Clark is fortunate to have one of these in Bill Bailey, a 6-5, 265 pounder from Astoria.

Professional teams have been trailing him since last fall, when the big man terrorized opponents backfields. Bailey was a unanimous All-Conference selection, and was given recognition on the Associated Press Little All-Conference selection, and was given recognition on the Associated Press Little All-Northwest team. Various other awards were garnered by the big fisherman, as his outstanding ability came to light in his junior year.

Bill has been clocked at 5.0 seconds for the 40 yard dash, a figure which indicates enough speed to qualify him for the professional ranks. Opposing coaches are amazed at his outstanding straight-ahead power, and his ability to recover and make a tackle. Perhaps his biggest asset is his quick pursuit movement, as many of Bill's tackles are made on the opposite side of the field.

Big Bill has impressed the entire coaching staff this year with his extra hustle and determination in continuing to improve upon his great gridiron performance of last season.

This week's Pioneer spotlight shines on Bill Bailey, an All-American candidate, and one of the finest linemen in the history of Lewis and Clark.
