Minutes of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends 1934

FOURTH DAY 9:30 A. M.

1. Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends met in its forty second annual assembly at Newberg, Oregon, at 9:30 A. M., Sixth Month 13, 1934.

2. In the opening devotional hour I. Gurney Lee brought an impressive message from the fifteenth and sixteenth chapters of John. The Presiding Clerk added to this a few remarks on the importance of keeping the spiritual uppermost in our thinking and of letting the Spirit of the Lord direct in all the business transactions of the Yearly Meeting.

3. As the names of representatives and alternates were read, ninety four persons responded. Absent representatives* Alternates serving†.

4. The following were named to serve on the Finance Committee:

Newberg: J. Harlan Smith, Denver B. Headrick, Helen Wood.
Salem: B. C. Miles, Jos. W. McCracken
Portland: Charles A. Beals, Calvin R. Choate, Walter P. Lee.
Boise Valley: Frank D. Roberts, A. Clark Smith, J. William Jones.
Tacoma: Verna Brennan, L. C. Russell, Elizabeth Haldy.

5. The Nominating Committee was read as follows:

Newberg: Mary C. Sutton, Pearl Weesner.
Salem: Marguerite P. Elliott, Mary Sims.
Portland: Anna Coffin, Grace Hadley.
Boise Valley: Fred C. Harris, Clayton S. Brown.
Tacoma: M. Ethel Cowgill, I. G. Lee.

6. A minute was read for David E. Henley, a minister of Whittier Monthly Meeting, California Yearly Meeting, a professor in Whittier College, endorsed by Whittier Monthly Meeting, and Whittier Quarterly Meeting. L. Clarkson Hinshaw of Berkeley, California, and Gervas A. Carey of Seattle, Washington were present by invitation of the Evangelistic Board for service during the sessions of the Yearly Meeting. These Friends were welcomed by the Yearly Meeting and responded briefly to this welcome.

7. Letters were read from two aged friends now no longer able to attend the sessions of Yearly Meeting: Anson Cox and Jane Rittenhouse. The clerks were directed to reply to these.

8. The absence of two members who have been much used in the activities of the Yearly Meeting for a number of years was noticed: Effie R. Tamplin and Elizabeth W. Ward, both now seriously ill. Levi T. Pennington, Marguerite P. Elliott and Edward Mott were appointed a committee to send letters of sympathy and greeting to these Friends.

9. The following persons were named to prepare returning minutes for visiting friends: Merrill M. Coffin, Charles I. Whitlock, Calvin R. Choate.

10. The following were appointed to serve as a press committee: Levi T. Pennington, Charles A. Beals, Edward Harmon, Walter P. Lee.

11. Information from Portland Quarterly Meeting in regard to the schedule for holding the Quarterly Meetings throughout the year was read and directed to be printed in the directory.

12. The communication from Portland Quarterly Meeting in reference to the usage as to statistical reports, was referred to the Representatives for their consideration.

13. The following communication from Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting was also referred to the Representatives:

To Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends

Held at Newberg, Oregon 6th month 12th, 1934:

Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting of Friends recommends that all Bible School Superintendents be appointed by the Monthly Meeting in the same manner as its clerks and other officers are appointed, thus providing a uniform method of appointment throughout the Yearly Meeting.

Taken from the minutes of Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting of Friends held at Star, Idaho 5th month 26th, 1934.

J. Allen Dunbar
Bertha M. Eichenberger,
Clerks.

14. The following communication from Boise Valley

Quarterly Meeting was also referred to the Representatives:
To Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends

Held at Newberg, Oregon 6th month, 12th, 1934:

Feeling a concern for the necessity of being able to give a reason for the hope that lieth within us in a simple concise way, and after prayerful and careful consideration of the question, Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting recommends to Oregon Yearly Meeting that the Apostles Creed be adopted for use in the Bible Schools throughout Oregon Yearly Meeting, with the substitution of the words "Church Universal" in place of the "Holy Catholic Church".

Taken from the minutes of Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting of Friends held at Star, Idaho, 5th month 26th, 1934.

J. Allen Dunbar,
Bertha M. Eichenberger,
Clerks.

15. The request from Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting in regard to the revision of report blanks for the department of Home Missions and Social Service was referred to that department for consideration.

16. The following communication from Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting was referred to the Representatives.

To Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends

Held at Newberg, Oregon 6th month 12th day 1934:

Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting of Friends recommend that the Yearly Meeting formulate a uniform set of questions, dealing with the fundamentals of the Christian faith and practice, and that these questions be presented to all applicants for church membership, for their signature.

Taken from the minutes of Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting held at Star, Idaho, 5th month 26th day 1934.

J. Allen Dunbar,
Bertha M. Eichenberger,
Clerks.

17. Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting requested that the Yearly Meeting make an appropriation for the "Friendly Endeavor." This request was referred to the Finance Committee.

18. A favorable reply to the resolution passed by the last Yearly Meeting in Minute 54 was read from Senator Frederick Steiwer.

19. Epistles were read from Dublin, Syria and Palestine, Germany, New England and New York Yearly Meetings.

20. At the request of the chairman of the Epistle Committee the name of Alice Roberts was added to the committee to take the place of an absent member.

21. The Recording Clerk was directed to secure a typist.

22. The Clerk instructed the Representatives as follows:

(1) To propose to the next session of this meeting names of persons to serve as Presiding Clerk, Recording Clerk, Reading Clerk and Announcing Clerk.

(2) To determine a ratio for raising funds and distributing documents.

(3) To propose funds to be raised for church work, and to nominate a Friend to serve as Treasurer for the ensuing year.

(4) To propose the name of one person in each Quarterly Meeting to receive and distribute documents.

(5) To propose names of persons to serve on the Printing Committee.

23. At 11:30 Gervas A. Carey brought a message on the theme, "Compulsory Self-Sacrifice." Following this Rachel Pemberton sang, "Beautiful Garden of Prayer."

24. The meeting then adjourned until 2:00 P. M.

FOURTH DAY 2:00 P. M.

25. The meeting met according to adjournment and engaged in a short time of prayer.

26. The following committee was appointed to check and correct the list of ministers of the Yearly Meeting: Rebecca W. H. Smith, Alice E. Edmundson, Anna W. Benson, Lois Jones, Lewis C. Russell.

27. The report of the Representatives on clerks to serve during the Yearly Meeting was read and approved as follows:

Presiding Clerk: Edward Mott.

Recording Clerk: Marguerite P. Elliott.

Reading Clerk: M. M. Coffin.

Announcing Clerk: Charles Beals.

28. Names of persons to receive documents will appear in the Directory.

29. We recommend, that instead of the proposition made by Portland Quarterly Meeting, each quarterly meeting appoint a statistician to whom the monthly meeting statistician shall send a duplicate when he sends one to the Yearly Meeting Statistician. (Recommendation of Representatives).

30. An expression of appreciation was given for the services of Sophia E. Townsend as Recording Clerk, who had requested to be relieved this year because of other duties.

31. A minute was read for George A. Scherer, a minister, (who has taught in Pacific College the past year) from Kokomo Monthly Meeting, Indiana, endorsed by Kokomo Quarterly Meeting. He was accorded the usual welcome, and since he is returning home in time for Western Yearly Meeting, the meeting united in requesting him to carry the greetings of Oregon Yearly Meeting to that Yearly Meeting.

32. Epistles from North Carolina and Baltimore Yearly Meetings were read.

33. Report of the Christian Stewardship Department.

Altho most of the meetings have had no special funds, some very efficient work has been done this past year. One meeting from Salem Quarter reports last year a total of $678.02 raised by tithes and $24,-103.85 raised the past 17 years. Boise Valley reports addresses at the Payette Lake C. E. conference, programs on Stewardship at the November and February Quarterly Meetings, and special sermons in the different churches at various times. One chairman made the following splendid remarks: "The principles of Stewardship are very well accepted as the logical, practical, and scriptural method of church support. Those with regular incomes almost without exception abide by these principles."

Marie Haines, Y. M. Superintendent

34. The report of the Literature Department claimed the attention of the meeting at this time. An interesting talk on the subject was given by Edward Harmon.

All of the monthly meetings show increased interest and activity along the lines of Literature.

A large number of Sunday School papers and supplies from Star were sent to the work at Woodland, and also to the new field at Vale. Boise mended and supplied missing numbers in old song books and sent them to Vale. Extensive Home Department work done by Curtis and Margaret Morse at Woodland and vicinity is most encouraging. They use papers sent by Greenleaf, and Melba. Springbrook reports Sunday School helps sent to Portland jail. Middleton reports that twelve families have read a series of sermons on the book of Revelation. Newberg has had a reading contest in the Junior Department of the Sunday School which was very worth while.

We cannot tabulate the uplift and influence of the reading of the Scripture, tracts, papers and books, but we know that there was much thought and prayer regarding it, so we leave the results in the hands of our Saviour.

Grace Hadley, Superintendent.

35. A partial report of the Statistical Secretary was read, approved by the Meeting, and appears in the Appendix. The following item was considered of special interest: There has been a total gain in membership of two hundred and forty, a net gain of forty-three.

36. The Executive Committee of the Yearly Meeting made the following report with recommendations:

The Executive Committee met in April, 1934 and after careful consideration adopted the following United Budget for the year beginning September 1934, and ending September 1935.

FIFTH DAY 9:30 A. M.

38. The meeting convened according to adjournment and after a short period of silent devotion the Clerk led in a vocal prayer.

39. The minutes of the previous day were read and approved.

40. An interesting report of work being done was received from Everett Scotten, who is located in California at the present.

41. The London General Epistle and Indiana Yearly Meeting Epistle were read.

42. The following communication was received from the Trustees and their action was approved by the Meeting.

In order to remove the cloud from the title to his property at Scotts Mills, David Delano asked the trustees of the Yearly Meeting to give him a quit claim deed to his property.

It seems he was applying for a loan, and the inspector on looking over his abstract, found a clause in a deed stating that if this property or any portion of it should ever be used for the manufacture, or sale of intoxicating liquor, the title shall vest in Oregon Friends Church, so the inspector says this is a cloud over his title and he wants this cleared.

So the trustees gave him a quit claim deed to his property, and now ask the Yearly Meeting to sanction their action, and further to authorize the trustees to settle any similar cases that may arise in the same way.

A. R. Mills,
B. C. Miles,
Trustees.

I am truly sorry not to be able to be present at Oregon Yearly Meeting in person this year to render my report on the work done in our Bible Schools but am praying that the Holy Spirit Himself may be so manifestly present to direct and lead in the work that shall be done and the problems that shall be presented, that the coming year shall indeed be as good, if not much better, than the past one has been, so that when we shall finally stand before Him, whose we are, and whom we serve, we shall hear that "well done, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

While there has been no very marked increase, numerically, there has, however, been a healthy growth in some of our schools, the most outstanding one being in the Home Department of our work at Woodland, Idaho, where Curtis and Margaret Morse are doing a truly pioneering work among the neglected mountain people of that section. They have an enrollment of 170 in that department.

Several of our schools are in charge of work where Bible Schools are conducted by their members held in public school buildings.

There has been a very marked increase in the interest in missions throughout the Yearly Meeting, one evidence of which is the much greater amount that has been given as compared with last year, which was $887.18, and when viewed in the light of the present financial stringency, we cannot help but feel like pressing on. Truly our God is able to make all grace abound, and no good thing will He withhold if we walk uprightly and are faithful to Him and keep our interest in missions keen.

Contests have been held and have been fruitful in increased attendance and interest in several of our schools.

Bibles and Testaments have been given out as rewards of merit, and an increased interest in the precious word has been stimulated through the memorizing of verses and the learning of the books in their order to be repeated and given during closing exercises.

Sick members have been visited, and remembered with flowers, and absentees have been kept after in an effort to get them back into the school and church with some degree of success.

We wish to thank every one who has helped in this great work and pray that we may all be found faithful unto the end.

Respectfully submitted,

W. C. Eichenberger, Superintendent.

In the absence of W. C. Eichenberger the report was presented by A. Clark Smith, who followed with an interesting message, and some timely remarks were given by several Friends. The report was approved by the Meeting. The Bible Schools, whose reports had been delayed were requested to send reports to be incorporated in the minutes, and that this be attended to before Yearly Meeting closes.

44. The report of the Department of Temperance was received and approved by the Meeting. This report follows:

As your Temperance Department reviews the events of the past year it is to record an unbroken series of disappointments and moral breakdowns. We witness the culmination of a campaign whereby the camels design has been unraveled from the fabric of the constitution. False propaganda has been substituted for scientific fact. Vices have been exploited as virtues and recovery has been made contingent on the legalizing of the liquor traffic.

We confess disappointment at the people who listened to this propaganda, also at the apathy of professed Christians and temperate citizens, who by neglecting the responsibilities of citizenship, permitted the evil interests to triumph.

The Eighteenth-amendment was repealed by the ballots of only one fifth of the eligible voters. We trust no members of our denomination are included among the defaulting four-fifths.

The Bible tells us "In Egypt there arose a new king, who knew not Joseph." Likewise in America, we have a new leader, unfriendly to the cause of sobriety, and who is committed to a policy of rum and ruin. In city and state governments sanity and reason has given away to the liquor crowd. Present situations certainly reveal an alarming condition.

Many who advocated "controlled liquor" now realize their ropes have become entangled in a hopeless snarl and they are afraid of this thing they have created.

A thorough dry cleaning is imperative and we trust will soon be under way. In common with other temperance people, we have been and are stunned by the reverses we have met. Although seemingly inactive, we are watching the traffic and are seeking a workable plan in which all dries can unite to free the land of this blighting curse.

45. A communication from Salem Quarterly Meeting was read and referred to the department of Temperance. To Oregon Yearly Meeting:

Salem Quarterly Meeting, at its session in Fifth month 19th, 1934, directed that a communication be sent to the State Liquor Control Commission of the State of Oregon, expressing our appreciation of their efforts to stop the violation of the law in regard to the display of signs advertising alcoholic beverages, and calling to their attention the continued violation of the spirit of the law, by substituting signs, such as "Draught On Tap"; Also the vehicles traveling the streets and highways, bearing signs such as "Salem Beer", and urging that these be forced to cease such violations.

We further called to their attention the advertisements displayed in newspapers, which we understand to be in violation of the law.

The Quarterly Meeting further directed that this matter be called to the attention of Oregon Yearly Meeting, and asked that the Yearly Meeting be requested to take such action as they may deem proper in this matter, which, we feel, contributes to the debauchery of our youth, and stands as a disgrace to the church and the principles for which we stand.

Signed on behalf of Salem Quarterly Meeting,
E. Worth Coulson, Clerk.

STATISTICAL REPORT OF TEMPERANCE DEPARTMENT

- 25 Temperance addresses were given.
- 27 Sermons recorded wherein the subject of Temperance was given prominence.
- 108 Talks.
- 32 Temperance programs.
- 6,100 Pages of literature distributed.
- 16 Meetings report talks or special features on Temperance Sundays.

$103.29 has been used in this work. This includes $6.35 used by the Executive department out of $10.00 received from the Yearly Meeting Treasurer, leaving a balance of cash on hand of $3.65.

Dr. Brougher has given several talks in other churches on the evils of narcotics. These were illustrated by lantern slides.

Many churches report co-operation in community programs and much activity during the repeal campaign. Two members were candidates for dry delegates to the repeal convention.

Eight or ten letters were sent the Sunday Oregonian and the Sunday Journal protesting against the alluring cigarette ads in the comic sections. Answers were received and the advertising contracts cancelled. Most of the members of Second Friends Church signed a petition that resulted in the elimination of a troublesome beer saloon from the neighborhood of their church.

W. M. Heacock, Superintendent of Temperance.

The following original poem was read by Lulu Heacock.

WILL YOU?

Lulu Heacock

Some ten or fifteen years from now
When you go out to dine,
If some one offers a cigarette
Oh little girl of mine,
Will you pick up the filthy thing
With dainty finger tips
And after some persuasion
Place it between your lips?

Will you accept, if offered
A glass of sparkling wine
And drink with your companions,
Oh little girl of mine?

You with the golden curls—
Eyes of deepest blue,
My little girl I love so well,
Will you?

The Superintendent gave an interesting message.

46. The inspirational message was given by Gervas A. Carey.

47. The meeting adjourned to meet at 2:00 P. M.

FIFTH DAY 2:00 P. M.

48. The meeting convened according to adjournment. A period of silent worship ensued.

49. The committee on Letters to Aged Friends reported that it had attended to the object of its appointment.

50. A partial report of the Nominating Committee was read, approved, and appears in the Directory.

51. The Treasurer made the following report which was satisfactory to the Meeting.

52. The Auditing Committee submitted the following report which was accepted by the Meeting.

The Auditing Committee has audited the treasurer's books of the Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends and found them to be correct and in very good condition.

Respectfully submitted,
Cecil F. Hinshaw, Chairman.

53. The Friends listened with marked interest to the report of the General Superintendent, Chester A. Hadley.

Introduction and Resume

This is my fourth Annual Report as Superintendent of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends.

A brief resume of that time discloses the fact that it covers, perhaps, the most trying and distressing period, through which we have ever passed.

From a feeling of security and permanency, wealth and power, our country and the world, rapidly plunged into uncertainty, poverty, distress and upheaval.

This general condition did not leave the church and its program alone. Throughout Christendom the devastating influence of world conditions wrought havoc with its financial and material plans until retrenchment and re-adjustment became the order of the day.

Gradually the adjustments are being made and out of the bitter experiences of these trying days the church is learning some invaluable lessons. The "Horses of Egypt" and "The arm of flesh" have proven poor substitutes for the real source of power, permanency and blessing. We are learning that Spiritual blessings and victory do not depend entirely upon material abundance. And as we learn this lesson then our faith rises to the level of Divine resources and the "Windows of Heaven" open and spiritual victories are won.

To properly interpret and evaluate our endeavors remains within the province of Him who knoweth all things. Our best efforts seem so feeble in the light of the challenge, that there is no room for boasting. Yet Oregon Yearly Meeting has been signally blessed during these trying years. Depleted financially, until our total askings at present are reduced nearly 50% below what they had been in years past, we are seeing the blessings of God poured out in lavish abundance upon the work of our hands.

As I undertake this report I pause and pray that it may be an inspiration to us so that if possible every member of Oregon Yearly Meeting may see the vision and respond to the call to do their utmost for God.

General Statistics

We have a total membership active and associate of 3178 as against 3135 of last year, a net gain of 43.

We have 23 established Monthly Meetings, two points having local business meetings and at least 6 outpost points where Sunday School is carried on regularly.

Activities of Various Boards

Satisfactory work has been done by all of the Boards. The limited amount of financial help given to most of them makes it difficult to do as much as might be done otherwise. Each Supt. deserves credit for the results accomplished under such circumstances.

The challenge of world conditions has called our Peace Department to active service and the report shows gratifying results.

One year of "Wet" regime has created fertile field for the Temperance Dept. and every effort possible has been put forth to meet the tragic conditions that have followed our national debauchery.

The Bible School Dept. shows a good degree of life and vitality, and is serving as a "feeder" to the Church, both in converts and members.

As in the past the Christian Endeavor Dept. has efficiently met the need of our young people. Three Summer Conferences were held in the following places respectively: Paytte Lakes, Twin Rocks and American Lake. These Conferences have come to mean much in the lives of our young people.

The Friendly Endeavor, our Yearly Meeting paper has been carried on by this Dept. in spite of financial difficulties that have threatened its existence. This paper is coming into a place in the life of our Yearly Meeting that deserves much consideration. It serves as a news medium for our home and foreign work and should be subsidized to a degree by the Yearly Meeting.

Our Evangelistic and Church Extension Dept. has had a most satisfactory year. Doors have opened and have been entered. Early in Sept. of 1933 a Monthly Meeting was set up at Woodland, Idaho, where Paul and Wilma Mills have labored so faithfully. Curtis and Margaret Morse feeling a definite call to work in that locality, moved to Woodland last fall and have rendered real service in the Home Department work of the Sunday School. Homes and communities have been opened to them in their house to house visitation and Sunday Schools and preaching points are following as the results of their labors. These fine young people merit our prayers, and interest in their work.

Rosemere, a point in the suburban districts of Vancouver was turned over to Portland Quarterly Meeting by Mrs. Emma Mills, she feeling that her work was finished. Mrs. Mills made a most generous offer of the Church Building and Parsonage to the Quarterly Meeting and after prayerful consideration it was accepted. Miller and Hazel Porter have taken the work and God is blessing their efforts. Already the attendance has increased by 30% since they started. Shall we not remember them in prayer.

Evert and Virginia Tuning have had charge of the outpost work at Center Point out from Greenleaf Meeting. This point has been under the care of Greenleaf Friends for a number of years, and while it may never become a Monthly Meeting it serves a community where the Sunday School is of real value to the children.

Perhaps the most gripping item under Extension work is that of the "East Bench Vale Friends Meeting." Mr. Truman White and family of California Yearly Meeting moving into this new irrigation project two years ago soon felt the need of religious services in the rapidly growing community. They opened their home and invited their neighbors in. Soon the house was filled to capacity and they felt the need of larger quarters. A call was made to Boise Quarterly Meeting Supt. and in response, after careful consideration both the Yearly Meeting and Quarterly Meetings Boards approved the field and in a short time a temporary Tabernacle was erected which will serve them until a permanent location can be secured. The Tabernacle is built on a piece of ground leased from a neighbor for nine months. This work properly cared for bids well to become an established Monthly Meeting. At present the pastoral care of the meeting is in the hands of Eugene Hibbs who has charge of the Gospel Band activities of Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting.

The Worker's League rendered valuable service during the summer months and were kept busy until late in the fall. The tabulated results of their meetings will appear in the statistical reports.

Boise Quarterly Meeting has formed a Gospel Band composed of young people who volunteer to hold either Week-end meetings or supply in the regular Sunday services. About fifty young people responded and they divide into smaller groups and under the leadership of an older person go wherever they are called. This has proven a source of spiritual blessing to the young people and wherever they have gone their ministry has been very helpful.

Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting secured the services of Nelson Nice evangelist from Kansas Yearly Meeting. His ministry was sound and evangelistic and each meeting reports lasting benefit from his services.

Frederick Baker and Edward Harmon were again used in several of our meetings, Portland Quarter having engaged them for their meetings.

W. E. Cox, Methodist Evangelist held a series of meetings for Entiat and they report a good revival with spiritual victories.

Herman L. G. Smith a pastor in the Nazarene Church was engaged in a successful revival at Melba, Idaho.

Ezra Pearson, having expressed a concern to hold meetings in Boise Quarterly Meeting was liberated for this service and God richly blessed him and the meetings in the discharge of this concern.

The Supt. held two meetings during the year, one at Newberg the other at Tacoma.

Chehalem Center reports a gracious revival under the leadership of Alec Jeffries and Ernest Baker.

The number of seekers at the altar this year totals 1209. This includes reports from the Christian Workers League and Summer Conferences as well as the regular reported work of the Pastors in their meetings. This report exceeds that of last year by 185 and a review of our report of seekers at our altars for the past five years reveals the interesting fact that this year exceeds that of 1930 by 943 the report that year being 262. This is a real source of thanksgiving and proves the statement made at the beginning of this report that spiritual blessings and victories do not depend upon material blessings.

Pastoral Situation

Few changes were made in the pastoral situation this year. Glen Rinard closed his ministry at Highland and accepted a call to serve Riverside Monthly Meeting. Clio Brown resigned at Sherwood to take the work at Highland and Allison Rogers, pastor at Middleton undertook the double duty of serving Middleton and Sherwood as pastor. This arrangement has proven highly satisfactory. The work in both places has prospered under his care. All of the other meetings retained their pastors as reported in the minutes of 1932.

The pastoral situation for the coming year cannot be given. It is hoped that final arrangements can be reported before the minutes are printed so that they can appear therein properly noted.

Missionary Department

The report of the missionary activities of the year will be brief owing to the fact that we have an extensive program reported from the field by Carol Tamplin. This report will deal chiefly with the activities at home, items of general interest relative to our own response to the program. The statistical report is encouraging indeed. Our askings of last year were $3,000.00. Our report to date indicates that $2,961.45 of this amount has been raised. It is of course understood that some of this money has been in the nature of personal gifts, but the larger share of it came from the Monthly Meetings in response to financial appeals made by the Superintendent for that department in the United Budget.

It is also interesting to note that whereas in the beginning of our Bolivian program approximately half of our finance was designated to other fields—this year of the total amount of $3,802.93 raised by the church and departments for all missionary work only $841.48 was directed to other missionary fields. This shows an increasing interest in our own program and while we must not selfishly close our eyes to other needs in other fields, yet with the challenge of our field and the limited number of members in Oregon Yearly Meeting it becomes imperative for us to conserve our own financial resources for the work which we have undertaken.

I wish personally to express appreciation for the hearty response that every meeting has given to the presentation of our program.

May we continue in this same spirit of love and sacrifice to carry on the coming year.

Personal Activities

The year has been one of busy activities. Shortly following our Yearly Meeting I attended American Lake Conference held by Tacoma Quarterly Meeting for their young people, serving as their Evangelist. God richly owned these days together in spiritual and recreational blessings. Twenty seven seekers knelt at the altar and found spiritual blessings for their needs.

At Quaker Hill and Twin Rocks Conferences I conducted the study classes in Home and Foreign Missions. Arthur Chilson conducted the Evangelistic services at both Conferences. God richly blessed him in the salvation and sanctification of seekers. Two hundred and twenty-five (225) in all knelt at the altar of both places.

In October I visited Kansas Yearly Meeting as their Evangelist. They were gracious days of spiritual blessing and fellowship, leaving a memory precious indeed. While very little outward results were visible, there was a deep spiritual tone to the meeting and we felt God's hand of blessing and direction in our ministry.

In April I was privileged to have the inspirational address in the Capitol District Christian Endeavor Convention at Boise, Idaho.

I have also prepared pictures of the home and foreign fields which I have shown in most of the meetings presenting the program of the Yearly Meeting for the coming year.

The number of sermons and addresses is 117. Miles travelled: over twenty-five thousand (25,000). The actual expense of this extensive travelling is only $131.50 to the Yearly Meeting.

The courtesy of the railroads in extending annual passes to the Superintendent materially reduced this item of expense to the Yearly Meeting. They are: Southern Pacific; Union Pacific; Seattle, Portland and Spokane; Great Northern and Northern Pacific.

The editing of the "Church Window" in the Friendly Endeavor is a pleasant though exacting task which occurs each month and we trust that it proves a blessing in the homes of our membership. Besides the regular duties I have held numerous conferences with meetings and pastors and young people wanting special help.

We Face the Future

Reduced though we are in material blessings our statistics have proven that God can and does bless us. He has opened doors at home and abroad to such an extent that only as we face the future in humility, in prayer and in honest endeavor can we hope to discharge the obligation that rests upon us. WE MUST NOT FAIL. The shadow time of our Lord's return should serve as an extra incentive, causing us to put forth every effort to meet the opportunities that God has so lavishly bestowed upon us in this great northwest country. We have been making steady progress during the past years and we must not stop now.

I call every member of the Yearly Meeting first to his knees in prayer and then to his feet in action. May God richly bless and direct us to His honor and glory.

Chester A. Hadley, Superintendent.

54. The following recommendations were made by the Executive Committee which were approved by the Meeting.

The following propositions were favorably considered by the Executive Committee and directed to the Yearly Meeting for their consideration and action.

It was suggested by the Superintendent that the wording of the duties and functions of the Executive Committee be changed to read, "To consider, adopt, and present to the Yearly Meeting, as information, a united financial program." Taken from the minutes of Executive Committee. April 5, 1934.

A recommendation was made and accepted that a change in the name of the position of financial Secretary be made to read, "Financial Sec." instead of "United Budget Financial Secretary," also that he be made a member of the Executive Committee by virtue of his office. (Taken from the minutes of the Executive Committee, held April 5, 1934.)

It was moved, seconded and carried that we recommend that C. A. Hadley be retained as Superintendent at a salary of $1,200 and traveling expenses not to exceed $150.00 and that these be a part of the fixed expense. (Taken from minutes June 13, 1934.)

Oliver Weesner, President.

Grace Hadley, Secretary.

55. The statistical report was read by the President of the Evangelistic and Church Extension Board, was approved by the Meeting and appears in the appendix.

A trio from Piedmont Church sang.

Paul Mills, Oscar N. Brown, Charles A. Beals, and Lewis C. Russell, workers at the "outposts" of the Yearly Meeting were introduced and gave intensely interesting, though short, reports of their work.

56. Report of the Christian Workers League was read and approved by the Meeting.

The past year has been one of activity for the members of the Christian Workers League. The young Friends in this organization are realizing the privilege of being bound together in a circle of christian fellowship which has as its aim—AGGRESSIVE CHRISTIAN EVANGELISM.

As the members of the League come in contact with other young people from groups other than their own, a longing for such an organization as The Christian Workers League has been expressed.

There is a deep sense of gratitude in our midst—first to Almighty God and next to the people of Oregon Yearly Meeting for encouraging their young people in this work.

57. The meeting adjourned to meet at 9:30 A. M. Sixth Day.

SIXTH DAY 9:30 A. M.

58. The meeting convened according to adjournment and settled into a short period of devotion. The minutes of the previous day were read and approved.

59. The committee appointed on the editing of the discipline, according to the direction of the Yearly Meeting last year, reported that the work had been attended to. The report was approved and the same committee appointed to have a sufficient number printed. The raising of funds for this purpose was referred to the Finance Committee.

60. The following resolution was presented by the Temperance Committee and approved.

Oregon Yearly Meeting, in its forty-second annual session, again expresses its devotion to the cause of temperance and its opposition to the use of the poisons, alcohol and nicotine which have done so much damage to the human race, physical, mental, moral, social and spiritual. We pledge ourselves anew to education, through all the agencies of our church, that shall lead to individual abstinence and obedience to law and to the support of law enforcement on those who will not obey the law.

We express anew our conviction that the solution of this question must eventually include governmental action making the liquor traffic illegal, with public sentiment which shall make this legal provision effective.

Approved by Temperance Department,
W. M. Heacock, Superintendent of Temperance.

The communication from Salem Quarterly Meeting Minutes was referred back to the committee for recommendation. Edgar P. Sims was added to the committee. (Minute 45).

61. The following reports from the Peace Department were read and approved:

Report of the American Friends Service Committee.

Report of Superintendent

The American Friends Service Committee is an incorporated body under the laws of the state of Pennsylvania, and represents most of the twenty nine American Yearly Meetings*. The Committee functions through a Board of Directors and an executive staff. The three major divisions of the work of the committee fall under these headings: Foreign Service, Home Service and Peace.

This committee came into being as a result of the World War. Wide spread devastation in France, her civilian population either driven from home or left helpless without doctors, nurses, teachers, farmers, and workers in all trades and professions, created an emergency which we, as Americans, felt we could not ignore. So the A. F. S. C. was formed. Immediately voluntary contributions to finance the relief work began pouring in from Friends and others in every section of our country. From September 1917, when the first unit of volunteers sailed for France on their mission of love and mercy, until June 1919, the mission grew steadily. Then, because French workers, released from the army, were coming home again, the need was less, and the year following saw the decline and close of the work in France.

Through the succeeding years many relief projects such as the feeding and clothing of children have been carried on in the leading population centers of Europe, as well as in certain sections of our own country. This brief bit of historical review is inserted merely to refresh the memory.

During the year just closed, because no great emergency was at hand, the Foreign Service work has not been large in comparison with former years.

The Home Service work has been more extensive. It has included the following lines of endeavor: child feeding; supplies of clothing; health and sanitation; co-operative shops; school and playground supervision; and subsistence homesteads.

The last named is a back-to-the-land project in western Pennsylvania for families of a labor group left permanently unemployed by a declining industry.

*Orthodox, Conservative and Hicksite.

The Peace Section has worked along three lines:

1. Institutes of International Relations at various colleges and universities.
2. A news service to furnish peace news to the press of our country.
3. Peace Caravans, made up of college students who, during summer vacations, made extensive trips about the country, speaking and giving educational programs in the cause of Peace in schools, churches, and other available places.

By far the greater part of all money expended by the Committee during the year was for food and other supplies furnished to families of the unemployed in the coal mining sections.

Cash received by the committee from within limits of Oregon Yearly Meeting amounted to fifteen dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

Ward L. Haines, Superintendent.

Report of the Peace Superintendent.

To Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends:

The past year has been one of great world unrest, with many things to discourage the faint-hearted worker for peace, but to serve as a challenge to the peace worker who believes that God cannot be defeated and that under His blessing those who serve Him faithfully can accomplish that which pleases Him.

The ominous situation in the Far East continues to cause concern on the part of all lovers of peace. There is a wide-spread feeling that the United States should take the lead in the effort to restrain Japan from any attitude or action which would menace the peace of the world; but unfortunately there are things in our remote and more recent past which render such leadership extremely difficult. Though we insist that our Monroe Doctrine is purely benevolent in its intention, and for the benefit of the weaker nations of the Western Hemisphere rather than ourselves, the "Yankees of the East" have used this doctrine which we have long maintained, sometimes not too manifestly with pure unselfishness, as an excuse for their own attitude in Asia. But worse than this is the definite hostility toward the United States felt by Japan because we slapped this then friendly nation in the face a few years ago when we excluded the Japanese from immigration into the United States instead of putting them on a quota basis, which would have accomplished practically the same result without giving offence. The fact that we have never rectified that piece of folly has robbed us of our influence in Japan, which nation seems ready to defy the world in its determination to advance its own interests on the mainland of Asia at whatever cost.

This far eastern situation has been matched or perhaps exceeded in seriousness by the conditions in Europe. With the apparent irreconcilable differences between France and Germany, the situation was bad enough before the rise of the Nazis regime in the latter country. With the apparent defiance of world opinion on the part of the Hitler government, no man is wise enough to predict the future course of international events.

There is strife in South America, antagonism and fear among the European powers, a menacing situation in Asia, and unrest and belligerency in America as in many parts of the world.

And in view of the world situation, with the United States sharing the responsibility with other powers, there is grave danger that the Disarmament Conference may break down entirely, and that the great powers of the world, even in this time of depression, may enter another suicidal race of navy building and other preparations for the destruction of human life.

What should be our attitude in the face of all these world conditions? Shall we despair, cease our activities, and throw away those forces and organizations which have been used to prevent some wars and to build up the sort of world-attitude which will make peace possible? Or shall we not rather trust in God, who gets His will accomplished in the world, though humanity may keep Him waiting for centuries before they will co-operate with Him? Shall we not redouble our activities to prevent the things that lead to war and to "follow after the things which make for peace?" Shall we not seek earnestly to make our own denomination an intelligent and united force for peace, and support and co-operate with those organizations which are working in the interests of world peace, even though we may not in everything agree with them?

Our task is two-fold, having to do first with our own members and then with the rest of the world.

That we need much enlightenment among our own members should be manifest to us all. We of Oregon Yearly Meeting may be far in advance of some other denominations or even of some other parts of our own denomination in our understanding of the Quaker Peace position and our reasons for holding that position, though it might be esteemed as lack of humility for us to think so, even if we did, in proportion to our numbers, have so large a proportion of real conscientious objectors among our young men and send proportionally a larger number of our young men and women in war relief service under the American Friends Service Committee than any other Yearly Meeting in America. But some of our young men called in the draft or facing the urging toward enlistment in 1917-18 were sufficiently put to it to know exactly "the reason for the hope that was in them." And if one may judge by the supine inaction of many Friends on this question, it would seem that many of us need teaching on the subject of peace, "line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little and there a little."

But with all our short-comings, we probably occupy as advanced a position as any of our sister churches on this very important question, and a more advanced position than most. Among other churches, therefore, is a fruitful field for the promulgation of the Christian principles of peace. And in the great masses of people outside the churches there is a still larger field for our peace teachings.

There is an open door in many places for the promotion of peace principles through other churches. A man able to speak intelligently and convincingly on this theme will have many opportunities in churches that are rapidly advancing in their peace views and in others where they are seeking the light without having yet found much of it.

Mass meetings on the subject of peace can also be promoted by Friends, without the co-operation of other churches if necessary, but preferably with such co-operation.

There are numerous organizations working in the interests of peace with which most Friends feel that they can co-operate even though they do not approve of all the folks who are in these organizations nor even of all the purposes for which some of them work. The League of Nations International Association, The Association for International Friendship Through the Churches, the Woman's International League for Peace and Freedom, various organizations for the promotion of American adherence to the World Court, agencies for the righting of the mistake made when we excluded the Japanese, The National Council for Prevention of War, The American Peace Society, The Peace Association of Friends in America and The Peace Section of The American Friends Service Committee are some of the agencies and organizations through which Friends may work and with which they may co-operate. It is not necessary for us to agree in everything in order that we may work together—if it were a good many of us would have to work entirely alone. The cause of peace is so important that we may well join with those who are with us in this cause, even though we may differ widely in other matters.

One of the Monthly Meetings, in its suggestions for peace work, said we should "Pray the Lord to help us to promote peace among the membership before we talk world peace." It is a good suggestion, unless we should say "While we talk world peace" rather than before we talk world peace." But that report evidently expressed the actual attitude in that meeting, for the report read, "Number of public meetings held in the interests of peace, none; number of peace sermons and addresses, none; numbers of peace contests, none; communications to government officials, by resolution or other meeting action, none; by personal communication, none; by petition, none;" and so on throughout the report.

Unfortunately this report was not unique as to the quantity of work done. One pastor stated that he had not known anything to do in the interests of peace. Others of our members, if they did know what to do, certainly failed to do it.

The statistical report, so far as statistics were given, shows a commendable effort in some parts of the Yearly Meeting; and so far as the record shows, no activity in the peace movement in others. According to the reports as presented there were 4 meetings held in the interests of peace; 22 peace sermons and addresses were given; with no peace contests. No accurate account was kept of the number of pages of peace literature distributed. Communications were sent by 1 meeting of public resolution to government officials, 90 personal communications were reported; and 3 petitions signed by 90 individuals.

In one Quarterly Meeting a Peace Makers' Library, composed of about a dozen well selected books and pamphlets on various phases of the peace question, was for six months in one local meeting and three months in another. No accurate count was kept of the use of this library, but both places reported that it was used quite extensively. The peace superintendent of the Quarterly Meeting explained its purposes in three sessions of that Quarterly Meeting; and has offered to present the matter to the Yearly Meeting.

At one of the meetings the peace committee uses ten minutes of the opening exercises of the Sunday School once each month to present the cause of peace through news items, readings, etc.

One Sunday School gave a short dialogue on peace at the closing exercises of the Sunday School.

One Quarterly Meeting superintendent offered a speaker to all the local meetings in his Quarterly Meeting, but only two meetings responded.

Among the suggestions for the betterment of the peace work the coming year, were the following:

A fund for peace literature for distribution.

The observance of Peace Sunday in each meeting.

Conferences on the subject of peace which will reach many people outside of our own membership.

The Yearly Meeting Superintendent has given a score of addresses during the year dealing with the subject of peace. These have been given to churches, ministerial associations, colleges, service clubs, teachers institutes, over the radio, etc.

Any comments on our work which appear in this report are written not with the desire to be harshly critical but with the wish to "stir up our pure minds by way of remembrance" that we of the Society of Friends have had committed to us in a peculiar way the message of peace on a definitely Christian basis. Let us not fail the Prince of Peace in His efforts to bring about the fulfilment of the expression which the angels sang on the holy night of His birth, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, good will toward men."

With the hope that during the coming year we may more earnestly advance the cause of peace which should be so dear to every Quaker heart.

Respectfully submitted,

Levi T. Pennington, Peace Superintendent.

S. B. Laughlin presented and explained a Peace library which he had prepared and circulated in Salem Quarterly Meeting.

62. Epistles from Iowa, Indiana, and Wilmington Yearly Meetings were read.

63. The reports from the quarterly meetings on State of Society were read and the clerk directed to make a summary and report to a future session.

64. Gervas A. Carey brought the inspirational message based upon certain portions from the 3rd chapter of Psalms and the 14th chapter of Romans.

A quartet brought a message in song at the close of the morning session.

65. The meeting adjourned to meet at 2:00 P. M.

SIXTH DAY 2:00 P. M.

66. The meeting convened according to adjournment. A few minutes of quiet devotion followed.

67. The following resolutions from the Peace Department were read and approved by the Meeting.

Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends, with its membership in Oregon, Idaho, and Washington, in its forty-second annual session reiterates the traditional position of Friends, that all war is wrong and inconsistent with the teaching and spirit of Jesus Christ.

We urge upon our own membership a very earnest effort to make our Yearly Meeting a united and intelligent force for the promotion of peace. Especially do we urge that our younger members be thoroughly instructed in the fundamental basis of our peace testimony.

We urge all our members to co-operate with other agencies for the promotion of peace and to strive earnestly to secure full liberty of conscience for all others as well as ourselves.

We again urge our representatives in the United States Senate to support and secure the adherence of the United States to the World Court.

We urge the President and Congress of the United States to repeal the law excluding Orientals from admission to the United States and to put all nations on a quota basis.

We protest against compulsory military training in educational institutions, especially in those supported by public taxation.

We urge that all who are in places of authority put forth every effort for the promotion of international disarmament and of the spirit of mutual understanding and good will which removes the occasion for war and furnishes better safeguard than armies and navies and means of destruction.

68. The report of the nominating committee was read, approved and appears in the directory.

69. The epistle from Ohio Yearly Meeting was read.

70. Marian Gilbert requested that she be relieved from further service as a representative. The Meeting granted the request.

71. The Permanent Board made the following report which was approved by the Meeting.

The Permanent Board of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends Church met in regular session Sixth month 13, 1934.

A memorial for Katherine Lundquist was presented, read, and directed forwarded to the Yearly Meeting, with the recommendation that it be filed with the documents of the Yearly Meeting.

We appoint Joseph McCracken to fill the place in the Board made vacant by the death of Enos Presnall.

We appoint Emmor W. Hall Clerk for the next year.

Emmor W. Hall, Clerk.

72. The work of the Foreign Mission Board was presented at this time.

73. Ida J. Lee led the meeting in earnest prayer, this was followed by an appropriate song by the quartet.

74. The Superintendent read the following report which was accepted by the meeting.

FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE FIELD SUPERINTENDENT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS OF OREGON YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS CHURCH IN LA PAZ, BOLIVIA

Sixteenth day, Fourth month, Nineteen hundred thirty four, La. Paz, Bolivia, S. A.

The time for presenting a report has again arrived. As we prepare the report we are aware of the fact that many discouraging circumstances have presented themselves during the course of the year. But frequently the most abiding work is accomplished during the apparently fruitless time. Not that we feel that the year's activities have been fruitless; but that they have encountered difficulties we cannot deny. And we would not deny it, for by acknowledging it we both solicit the uplift of your intercessory prayer on our behalf and lay upon you that part of the burden that you will so gladly bear and should bear if we are, in the fullest sense, to be co-laborers. The year 1934 has presented many difficulties, but we are not discouraged; many problems, but we are not confused; much opposition, but we are not defeated; many heart-aches, but we are not heart-broken. We thank God that in all these things we are MORE THAN CONQUERORS.

Before turning to other matters we should first ask you to SHARE WITH US THE FOLLOWING BURDENS:

The War in the Chaco

We are nearing the completion of two years of intensive fighting with the neighboring republic of Paraguay. This is a longer period of time than that in which the United States was involved in the World War. Men from 17 to 39 years of age are in the ranks. We have seen the cities, villages and countryside stripped of its vibrating youth and fathers of families. In the chapel the benches have been emptied one by one of their youth and middle-aged men, until at times there have been only one or two elderly Indians on the men's side of the house. The authorities as well as the public, are war-minded. The situation of the foreigner is precarious because of the biting fear of spies, thus limiting our freedom of movement for evangelization. And still the war rages; there are no indications (at the time of this writing) that it may end soon. Few are the homes which are not draped with crepe; and our hearts weep with the weeping heart of the nation to which God has sent us with a message of comfort and hope, but with such limited liberty to minister that message.

The Workers

If the workers were few in the years past, they are now almost entirely non-existent. The Ayllons are removed to far-away Central America. Bernardo Paredes, the Indian pastor in Sopocachi, suffered the fracture of both legs and for five months has been unable to fill his place. Of some 18 young men (12 of whom were preparing definitely for the work of the Gospel) not one remains. Some have entered the service as soldiers; one of them has returned wounded and at least one is known to be a prisoner of war in Paraguay. From the others we have not heard for several months. Some could not withstand the persecution and bloodshed and so deserted from the army. Others could not muster the courage to answer the call to arms and take their stand as conscientious objectors, and have taken to hiding. And just lately our last and only interpreter (among the Indians) was called to the colors. Don Felix Hermosa, who has been located at Pio Perez for a month in the absence of the Tamplins from there, has been called back to La Paz to take over the main burden of the work here and act as interpreter. This has cut down still further our force in the field. Due to bad roads, high rivers, and total lack of workers with whom to travel the motorcycle is temporarily discontinued as an evangelizing agency. Looking out over the whitened fields we have seen the already too few workers snatched away. And of these we know not how many may be fit for Gospel service even after the war closes.

The Believers

Weakened by centuries of vice and the twisted conception of sin that Rome gives, many of the believers are easy victims of temptation. Our hearts were nearly broken to learn that one believing family during the missionaries' absence, had been tempted and fallen into the sin of again drinking and dancing during the great Carnival Season. Another believer, because he was poor and needed clothing for his family, returned to the practice of his profession before conversion—witchcraft. Still others had disputes among them and went to court before the unbelieving authorities. We thank God that all of these have returned to their faith; but they need your prayers that they may be firmly established so that they may be able to stand the terrible persecutions that come to them in order to make them return to the Fold of Rome.

The Indian Uprising

Oppressed and despised for many centuries by the "whites" the Indians thought that they were justified in refusing to go to the Chacoa in the service of the Government. They rose up in rebellion against all who tried to force them to go. Some authorities were brutally murdered by them, as well as several farm proprietors. And since the Church of Rome is bound to the State in Bolivia, the clergy thought it their duty to encourage the Indians to answer the call to the colors. To such an extent were the Indians aroused by their ancient hatred of the white man and by certain communistic agitators, that they even attempted the lives of the priests. The government speedily dispatched troops to put down the uprising, which they did ruthlessly, shooting down the Indians with rifle and machine-guns and burning their straw-roofed huts—until everything was quiet.

Then Romanism, always ready with calumny, through their publication "La Defensa", tried to fasten the responsibility of this uprising on the MISSIONARIES, basing their venomous arguments on the fact that in the pockets of some of the corpses were found copies of the Gospel. This was supposed to be self-evident that we were the instigators of the rebellion. And to make the situation worse, the rebellion actually took place (in one section) in a part of the country that we had evangelized from house to house during the last dry season. For lack of a protestant press we were not able to defend ourselves; though, by the same kind of reasoning, it could have much more easily been proved that the priests were the instigators for on the bodies of practically all of the rebellious were found roman scapulars, bracelets and rings with the sign of the cross, catechisms and prayer books. But they poured out these lying accusations for several weeks, to their hearts' content. Though the intelligent public knows that these accusations are false, still, among the ignorant classes, they found considerable favor and it has made our work more difficult.

Jesus said, "Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you, LYING, for my sake. Rejoice and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven." That is a hard saying—but He proved it so, didn't He?

Do these things seem discouraging to you? Then,

Lift Up Your Heads

While the war has brought its trials it has also been the means of great blessing to our faith. While it has caused some to slip backward, it has thrust others to the front of the work; while it was trying our faith it was also winnowing out the unprofitable material; while it has partially driven us from the out-fields it has driven us closer to our Lord in prayer and intercession.

Annual Conference

Due to the war condition many of the Indians were afraid to come into La Paz for fear of being taken up in the service whether it were time yet or not. So we encouraged them to send in the women. This they did. And though the attendance was not nearly as large as it would have been still it was very gratifying and during the three days of classes and preaching the hall was on many occasions as full as was comfortable. Doris Tamplin took charge of the morning prayer hour, just previous to the morning Holiness message; and also the children's hour at 2 P. M. Helen Cammack was richly blessed in the prophecy class at 3 P. M. The native workers took charge of the evangelistic services in the evenings. C. G. T. took charge of the Holiness messages and the afternoon class on practical-living themes. The altar services were richly blessed with seekers and many found their soul's desire there. The business session (not exactly business, but rather the time for reports of activities and blessings in the field) was a time of refreshing and altar service also. God always honors these Sunday afternoons when we look out over the occupied and unoccupied fields. Praise His name!

The Grade Schools

In Amacari, Cipriano Mamani has been holding elementary classes for the children of the believers, in addition to his pastoral work, and he reports that all of the children passed the government examinations.

Here in La Paz the school has continued through the year (with the exception of the vacation period) under Helen Cammack's able direction. It is the thought of the mission that the grade school may be the fountain of native workers from which the thirsty fields may drink in the near future. It has been gratifying to hear the children daily singing Hymns, learning portions of the Bible and crying out in earnest prayer to God. Just recently our hearts were gladdened when one of the boys, Dionicio Medrano (son of Mariano Medrano, elsewhere referred to in the report), told Helen C. that he felt that God was calling him to preach the Gospel. We have had our eyes and prayers centered on him for some time, and were glad to hear this expression voluntarily expressed by him. The school room requires patience and persistence, as well as tears and prayer. But if from it God can choose and send forth young men and women for greater service we shall praise Him for the school-room with its trials. It is not yet possible to put a native in charge of the school for we have none who can comply with the government requirements. We shall have to prepare our teachers also.

The Women's Work

Feeling that God would be pleased to prepare some Bible Women, Doris began two weekly classes to teach those interested to read. It has not met with as hearty a response as we had desired, but we are praying that God will call the women also, and give them a vision of the service that they may perform for Him.

The Spanish Work

The Spanish classes were discontinued temporarily, since our continued absence from the city to care for the needy fields of the altiplano during the dry months made it impractical to carry on. We hope to begin these Bible classes for the Spanish-speaking classes as soon as possible, probably with some change in the method of conducting them so as to attract this element.

The Bible School

Owing to the continued war-conditions, and the scattering of our available young men we have not been able to do anything at all in the Bible School. But we are holding ourselves in readiness so that as soon as it may be possible to re-open we may, without loss of time, take up the work where we left it nearly two years ago.

Among the Congregations

You will recall that here in La Paz we have two congregations, one in the district of Chijini (headquarters) and one in Sopocachi. The services have been held regularly with the exception of a few weeks when all public gatherings were prohibited by municipal order because of a tenacious plague of tyfus fever—propagated by fleas and body-lice. The congregation has been pastored by the following persons at different times; Carroll G. Tamplin, Doris M. Tamplin, Helen Cammack and Felix Hermosa; and has been edified thereby.

Due to the fracture of both legs in an accident in November, 1933, Parnard Paredes was obliged to discontinue his pastoral work in Sopocachi. Since that time the congregation in Sopocachi has been pastored by different persons. Of late Helen Cammack has taken charge of the work there and is being blessed in her ministry.

In Amacari the records show a steady increase in attendance on the Sunday services. During the week Cipriano Mamani holds services in the neighboring villages. The believers of that region are zealous and are doing very nicely with carrying their own burdens. Each member designates a certain number of rows of potatoes, habas, barley and ocas in his harvest field, to be turned over to the support of the pastor. A council of five faithful Indians arranges and settles church matters and disputes. Each Sunday offerings and tithes are received and the pastor keeps a very neat and faithful record. These offerings have been used to purchase a small land-site for the pastor and build a three-room house for him adjoining the school-room. All of their expenses have been taken care of by themselves. It is their hope to build the big chapel building during this next dry season, which will seat between three and four hundred. Pray for them. Frequent journeys of evangelization are made by them, even into Peru.

Evangelization

During the months of June, July, August, September and October, the motorcycle and launch were kept very busy in the bearing of workers and gospels to the islands and villages. The Gospel was taken to many parts where it had never before been heard. We found the doors open to the Gospel in every section. Many begged us to stay and teach them. Many Indian travellers would listen to our roadside testimony, receive a copy of the Gospel, respectfully lift their hats, embrace us in farewell, thanking us for the message of hope, and depart. One of the young men who accompanied me on one trip was arrested for preaching the Gospel in the plaza, and on a second occasion in a little Roman Chapel in Peru he was struck violently. Taking advantage of the Roman fairs and village market days we distribute Gospels and tracts and give our testimonies. On two or three occasions the lives and property of the missionaries were threatened. But God has wonderfully kept us in the midst of many dangers, both by sea and land. From July until October the Tamplin family was at the lake, using Puetro Perez as a base for very extensive evangelization in all directions. During a part of that time Helen Cammack kept up the work in the La Paz and Doris Tamplin pastored the little flock in Pto. Perez while C. G. T. travelled.

Matters for Praise

WE praise God for some outstanding characters in our midst. First, is Don Felix Hermosa, Juan's step-father, who has stepped in so nobly and ably since his wife's death and Juan's removal to C. A. He is a steady plodder and is developing as a preacher. He is willing to fill in any place that we desire to place him, high or lowly. He is a master carpenter and cabinet maker; and can demand the highest prices for his work. He is a mestizo with the firm step of a "white". At his profession he earns from 200 to 350 bolivianos per month. He has been willing to leave his work entirely or in part to receive the small sum of 40 bolivianos per month for the sake of the Gospel. This amount we have been able to pay through the contribution of friends in the U. S. for the help of native workers. We would like very much to increase his pay so that we might require his full time.

There is also Cipriano Mamani, full-blood Indian pastor over on the lake. About him has grown a thoroughly native Aymara work which is already much larger than the parent congregation here in La Paz. His methods are his own. He is an exhorter and faithful circuit "rider" though he makes his circuits on foot. He is not eloquent nor of an outstandingly intelligent type; but he is a man of sterling good character, honest, zealous, a plodder. The inhabitants of Peru are feeling the weight of his work, as also the Bolivian-catholic "mecca", Copacabana. His work as teacher, pastor, and settler of disputes among the inhabitants of that section, has established him in the hearts of his enemies as well as of his friends. All speak well of him. In his report for the year, he told how some believers from Kalata never fail to attend Sunday Services in Amacari—a distance of 18 miles roundtrip, and four hours of walking on foot. They come in the heat; they come in the snow, barefoot; they come in the mud and rain. When the several rivers that must be crossed are swollen because of the rains, they strip off their clothing, bind themselves with cords and push their way across the boiling streams, carrying their clothes high over head. Such fidelity on their part shows the esteem in which they hold their pastors as well as the zeal of their hearts for Jesus.

Then there is Bernardo Paredes, elderly Indian pastor of the congregation in the district of Sopocachi, who has suffered many afflictions, as his written testimony which accompanies this report will declare. His smiles and firm faith in the midst of suffering and need have brought blessing to us many times as we have knelt and prayed by his bedside. A man of judgment, faith and vision.

And so it is, that while the workers have been few and our young men taken from us (in large measure) our hearts have been cheered by the substantial, unwavering character of our older men. Take this one from the rank and file: Mariano Medrano, unlettered Indian, fisherman, burden bearer, mason's helper, former chief, drunkard, farm slave, dancer, fighter and rebel against the "whites". He travels by foot and evangelizes tirelessly. He has been taken up as a draft-evader on several occasions, though he is much too old to be taken. He has improved the opportunities to testify of the change that God has wrought in him both to officials and soldiers.

Recently, as he was going from a hut to sleep in his balsa, bearing a lighted candle encased in a glass frame as lantern, he was challenged by a gruff voice asking, "Who goes there?"

"Mariano Medrano," was the reply.

"Capture him, quickly, for this Medrano is a stirrer up of trouble," came the command.

He was rudely captured and taken to Taraco, where he passed the night. There his captors asked him, "Why did you leave the Catholic religion?"

He replied, "Senores, I was born and raised a catholic and was a fanatical catholic all my life, as you, my neighbors, know. But, being catholic, I got to be a worse sinner; until one day, in La Paz, I heard the Gospel. Since that day I have been a new man."

"But why don't you confess (to the priest)?"

Again he replied, "I have confessed many times to many priests and have received absolution, but I could not keep from sinning. But one day I confessed all my sin to Jesus and he both pardoned me and took from my heart the desire to sin, to fight, to lie, to drink, as you all can witness by my capture tonight."

He was taken on the following day to Guaqui to the Military Police where he was given to understand that he had been arrested because he had accepted the Gospel, and because of his reputation of being a trouble-maker. He gave his testimony to the officers of how God had saved and changed him, but he was slapped, searched and imprisoned. He began his work of evangelization among three fellow-prisoners, one of whom was a woman. Before daybreak the woman and one of the men knelt and wept in that filthy prison and found pardon for their sin.

Arriving in La Paz, as a prisoner, he sent to advise us of his condition and to ask our aid. He was formally charged with complicity in the movement among the Aymaras to refuse military service and the atrocities committed by the uprising. He was ignorant of this charge and thought that he was suffering all because he was a believer. Here, in the prison, he testified to the guards and fellow-prisoners, and God comforted him with visions in the night. We did what we could for him but were told that his irrevocable punishment would be to go immediately to the front of the battle. He was as a man condemned to die. But he was radiant and told them that he was not afraid to die—that sin made men afraid, but God had taken all his sin away and he was innocent of any crime. We prayed for him, that God would either release him or give him grace to bear his punishment as an innocent man and be made a blessing to his fellow-soldiers. We were told that he had been taken to the barracks and expected to be uniformed on the following day and sent to the front within a week. We despaired of his release for it was a very delicate matter for a foreigner to interfere with in time of war.

Imagine our surprise and joy when, on the eve of the proposed departure for the war-zone we saw him come walking up the stairs of the mission, smiling, rejoicing and free! He told us of his sufferings, his testimony, the comforting presence of Jesus in the prison, and of his unexpected release. We knelt with him in thanks to God for his delivery, for like Peter in the book of Acts, he was to us as one raised from the dead. Great also was the surprise and praise to the Lord when, that night, Mariano Medrano walked into the meeting!

And thus we have many things for which to thank the Lord. If all were easy the tender plants would not be strengthened. God has given the missionaries health during the year, though, for a time, we were under some burden due to Helen Cammack's condition. But we feel that God has undertaken definitely for her and that she will be able to go ahead with the work that He has called her to.

Our hearts go up in praise also, for the removal of a great persecutor among the first authorities of the land. A Soman priest from Mexico, who had been a stirrer up of revolutions there, was made Inspector of Police here in Bolivia and he was beginning to make his hand very heavy for the work of the Gospel. We thank God for this relief for we had cried out much in prayer to Him.

The Onward Look

The onward look is very bright—for it is the UPWARD look. While the present is dark and foreboding, full of fears and tears, fraught with uncertainties and danger, yet the night is far advanced; the dawn must be near. Hated, ridiculed, persecuted and be-deviled as we now are, we look forward with joy to the coming of the day of labor, love and fruitfulness. We do not now feel like "kings and priests unto God and His Father", but we thank God for the blessed Hope. We may walk with our feet on the slimy earth, and our hearts in the celestial atmosphere of the glory-land.

On

"Unto Him that . . . hath made us kings and priests unto God."

We would present for your consideration our urgent needs:

(1) A greater volume of prayer for the strength of the missionaries; the raising up and preparation of native workers; the women's work; the mastering of the Awmara dialect; an extended period of freedom for the preaching of the Gospel in Bolivia; the return of the Ayllons to the field.

(2) We terminate our two-year contract for our present location on December 22, 1934, and we must now be looking for larger quarters into which we may move by that date; or, if the Lord so chooses, the purchase of a site.

(3) In view of the approaching time of the Tamplin furlough, it is very urgent that other missionaries come soon so as to be ready to take hold and lift the burden of the work by that time.

Sincerely and prayerfully,

Carrol G. Tamplin, Superintendent.

Notes

- The average rate of exchange used in the above report was 7.69 (bolivianos) per dollar.
- For your information:
 - The "General Fund", which is made up of the voluntary contributions of the missionaries of whatever surplus they may have on their salaries after paying themselves at the rate of 4.50 per dollar, has been very useful to us in emergencies, when remittances were delayed, a shortage in the rent fund, caring for such items as motorcycle repairs, painting of the launch, etc.

b. The offerings of the native church this year amounted to 357.15 (bolivianos). It was employed as follows

Salary to Cipriano Mamani,

Chapel rent in Sopocachi,

Building expenses in Amacari and

Other current expenses of native church.

They have a balance of ...65 bolivianos.

Respectfully submitted,

Doris M. Tamplin, Secretary-treasurer.

To Oregon Yearly Meeting,

Newberg Oregon, U. S. A.,

We greet our beloved brethren in fervent fraternal love which unites us by the Holy Spirit.

Again this year we gathered in the Annual Conference in the midst of difficulties. In the three days and nights of the Conference, from all of the churches of La Paz, Sopocachi, Amacari, Chicharro, Ojge, (Peru), Kalata, Puerto Perez y Famacachi, we received the blessings that God our Father had prepared for us, through our pastors, Carlos Tamplin and wife and Miss Helen Cammack.

First we give thanks to God and then thanks to all of the beloved who have remembered us in sending some who may give us the good news of life. Oh, brethren in Jesus, how tender and like children we are in these places because of the gospel having entered when the day was already far advanced! And for this reason we ask the help of your prayers and even more for ours which are also yours. Rev. 14:6; 5:9.

We hope that God may give you abundance of spiritual blessings to the salvation of many souls for His Glory. Amen.

Your attentive servants in Jesus,

Signed by:

Cipriano Mamani,

Mariano Medrano,

Felix Hermosa.

Amacari and Tiquina, November 1-3, 1933

Brothers and Sisters of the Churches of Oregon,

Esteemed and beloved Brothers and Sisters:

We are in usual health, with the blessings of our Lord Jesus Christ resting upon us in this meeting being held November 1, 2 and 3. We have received a great blessing through the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit has been present with us in these days and we have received Him with open hearts in order that He may ever be with us.

We give thanks to God and also to you, Brothers, because we have received with joyful hearts and in peace, the workers you have sent to help us.

And now we wish more prayers from you so that we may be deepened by your prayers in order to preach the gospel in this Bolivia. "And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." Mt. 21:22. We have no knowledge of Him, but by the Holy Spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ we are saved, because by the Spirit of God we have known Him.

We are also sending some verses; Rev. 7:11,2. St. John 14:2,3. and Psalms 27:1.

With nothing more we salute you in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ and bid you an affectionate farewell.

Very attentively, your servants,

Signed by:

Baltazar Jucra M. Gregorio Tujra, Esteban Ticona, Marcelino Acahuana, Cruz Chipana, Nicolas Caceres, Cipriano Mamani.

As we listened to the message read from the missionaries, of the marvelous way in which the Lord is working, our hearts were melted in love and sympathy with them. An expression of appreciation was given the Board.

75. The meeting adjourned to meet at 9:30 A. M. Seventh Day.

SEVENTH DAY 9:30 A. M.

76. The meeting convened according to adjournment.

77. The minutes of the previous day were read and approved.

78. The committee on returning minutes, prepared minutes for David E. Henley, Gervas A. Carey, Clarkson Hinshaw, George A. Scherer, and Emily Moore. This report was acceptable to the Meeting.

79. Regarding the communication from Salem Quarterly Meeting referred to the Temperance Department, the following communication was directed sent to the Oregon Liquor Control Commission:

The Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends in its forty second annual session at Newberg, Oregon, June 16th, 1934 protests against the extensive liquor advertising being carried on throughout the state. This through the medium of newspapers, magazines, radio, billboard signs and other means. We request that you use the legislative and administrative authority vested in you, to eliminate all liquor advertising. We believe this can be done in the interest of temperance and control in keeping with the Knox law.

80. The following summary of the reports on State of Society was read and approved.

All of the Quarterly Meetings report that meetings for worship and business are held regularly with faithful attendance by most of the membership. Some report an increase in interest and attendance on the part of the younger members.

The pastors are rendering faithful service in bringing the full gospel messages both spiritual and practical, ever seeking to preach in the will of the Lord.

Family Worship is maintained by many families in all the meetings.

Every Quarterly Meeting reports evangelistic services in most of the meetings resulting in spiritual growth and blessing.

With a few exceptions the conduct of the membership toward each other and toward the world is commendable. One meeting noted the lack of Sabbath observance and two meetings stressed their endeavor to live within their means and meet their obligations.

Interest is manifested in missions, peace, and temperance.

Daily vacation Bible Schools have been conducted in some quarters.

Many of the young people are showing a spirit of co-operation and are assuming more responsibility in the work of the church. Members in each of the Quarters engage in outside efforts to present the gospel such as services in jails, helping in mission work, services in state institutions, and in Sunday Schools in unchurched communities.

81. The epistles from Nebraska and California Yearly Meetings were read.

82. The report of the epistle committee was read and approved. The Meeting was united in directing that copies of the epistle (directed to other yearly meetings) be sent to each monthly meeting in the Yearly Meeting to be read in a Sabbath morning service.

This matter was referred to the Epistle Committee to have these copies made and forwarded.

83. The work of the Department of Education claimed the attention of the meeting.

The report on Education was read and approved.

We feel very keenly the importance of Christian Education. Surely the intellect and talents which God has given should be developed in line with the plan of the Giver. As to what should be done by our Educational Department more than is being done by our church schools, pastors and parents, is an open question to your Superintendent of the past year.

Some activities have been carried on during the year which we feel have been beneficial. Newberg Quarterly Meeting gave a part of one afternoon session to the discussion of the value of a college education.

The young people of the Second Friends Church of Portland gave a luncheon for about thirty members of Pacific College Glee Club and Faculty. The First Friends Church of Portland has a loan fund of about $300.00 which is loaned, without interest, to worthy students in sums not to exceed $50.00, to assist them in securing an education.

No doubt much other work has been done for the encouragement of Christian education but it has not been reported to the department.

Respectfully submitted,

Frank D. Roberts, Superintendent.

The Statistical Report appears in the appendix.

The report of Greenleaf Academy was presented as follows:

We trust it may never seem commonplace or out of place for us to acknowledge the blessings of the Lord upon the work of Greenleaf Academy. Surely He has been good to us during the past year.

Our enrollment was increased over that of last year, and the quality and co-operative spirit of the student-body has been very commendable. The graduating class of 14 is the largest we have ever had. The names of those graduating are: Louise Bates, Wallace Beckett, Dorothy Herlocker, Joy McIntyre, Estella Pruitt, Esther Tish, Gertrude Holton, Dorothy Martin, Robert Macy, Ramond Tuning, Elaine Settle, Lois Roberts, Florence Russel, and Hazel Williams. The Scholarship to Pacific College was won by Dorothy Martin; and the Junior Scholarship offered by the Alumni Association was awarded to Mary Rinard.

At the beginning of the school-year, a week's Revival Service was conducted by Glen Rinard; the day services being held in the Academy Assembly room and the evening services at the church. These services were very profitable to the students.

The work of the teachers has been thorough and very satisfactory. They are to continue in the same positions for the coming year. Aside from the regular teaching Miss Jackson directed the annual Junior-Class Play, and Mr. Choate coached athletics. The Juniors presented a religious drama entitled "The Call", written by Aletha Macy, a teacher and a member of the Friends Church at Lynnville, Iowa.

William Murphy, Pastor of the Friends Church at Star, Idaho, spent one day each week at the school, teaching piano and voice, and directing a chorus class. We have always appreciated Mr. Murphy's work and have enjoyed having him with us.

Mrs. Esther Choate offered her services free of charge to conduct a class in physical education for the girls. She met with the girls once a week and gave them special corrective exercises and general gymnasium work. It was very beneficial for the girls and much appreciated.

Under the Federal plan of the C. W. A. we were able to get funds enough to kalsomine the walls and shingle the roof of the Academy building, and we also received about $200 in tuition from the students who did the work on the building.

Our annual revival services at the church were conducted by Rev. N. W. Nice of Wichita, Kansas, Feb. 25 to March 10. As usual the students attended the day meetings in a body and most of them attended the evening services. When the meetings closed the most of our students were confessing Christ as their redeemer. The usual student prayer meetings were held once a week, and a wholesome spiritual atmosphere prevailed among the student body.

Following the meetings, a large number of students volunteered for Gospel Team Work. These with other members of the church have gone out in small groups to hold gospel services where ever there has been an open door. Their meetings have been a source of encouragement and blessing, not only to the congregations visited but to the young people who took part.

Sunday, May the 13th, Chester Hadley preached the Baccalaureate sermon using as his subject "I Have Learned." The Class Address was delivered by Dr. R. E. Gilmore, President of Northwest Nazarene College who spoke from the subject, "Pay Your Fare."

As we think back through the work of the year it seems very common place. Many of our desires have not been accomplished, however, as we have tried to help to meet the problems of young people and get them established in the fundamental principles of the Christian Faith, we are convinced that our efforts have not been in vain.

Very respectfully submitted,

Frank D. Roberts, Principal

A quartet brought a message in song.

84. The Pacific College Corporation submitted the following report which was approved by the meeting.

To Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends:

At the annual meeting of the Pacific College Corporation held Friday evening, June 15, 1934, the following were chosen for members of the Board of Managers of Pacific College for the regular term of three years, and their names are herewith submitted for approval:

Chester A. Hadley and W. E. Crozer, nominated by the Permanent Board of the Yearly Meeting.

Cecil F. Hinshaw and Frank C. Colcord, nominated by the Board of Managers of Pacific College.

Thos. W. Hester, nominated by the Alumni Association.

The annual reports of Levi T. Pennington, President of Pacific College, Oliver Weesner, Treasurer of Pacific College, and Rebecca Pennington, President of the Womens' Auxiliary to Pacific College as presented to the Corporation, are herewith referred to you for consideration and approval.

H. M. Hoskins, Secretary of the Board.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO PACIFIC COLLEGE

Our Auxiliary has endeavored to build up the membership and to keep a lively interest in the welfare and comfort of the students.

Aside from the purchase of some necessary equipment for the dormitories, our one large task of the year has been the roofing of Wood-Mar Hall at a cost of $374.00 of which $279.00 has been paid leaving a balance due of $95.00.

We appreciate the help of all the friends of the college who are keeping up their membership in the Auxiliary.

Respectfully submitted,
Rebecca Pennington, President.

85. The President of Pacific College read his annual report. This report was accepted and appears as follows:

Pacific College has had a year of real success, for which our gratitude extends both to God and those servants of God who have made this success possible.

The largest college enrollment in our history has provided a student body large enough for the maintenance of a college spirit which is very difficult when the group is too small, however high its quality may be. But the increase of the student body this year has not caused any marked decline in quality, as may be judged from the fact that there has not been one case of discipline throughout the year.

Student Aid

This year, as always, more than half of the students have been self-supporting in whole or in part by work during the college year; and twenty-six had scholarships and eight half scholarships provided by the faculty of the college. All of these in applying for the scholarships promised to do service for the college up to the value of the scholarship, and a goodly number of them were provided with work to carry out this promise.

It is not the plan to carry out this same system during the coming year, though the faculty will be administering a fund of approximately $2,000.00 for student aid. This, however, will be handled for the most part by giving the student the opportunity to do service for the college to the amount of the aid given, assuming a definite obligation to do so if the work is provided, and failing to do so to meet the rest of the obligation in cash.

The means of self-support during the year have been, as in former years, mostly of two kinds, work directly for the college and work outside of the college which the college in most cases has helped to secure. Work on the campus has included service in the dormitories, in the library, assistance in instruction, janitor work, clerical work, etc. Off the campus students have worked for board and room, have done work in stores and offices, janitor work, work in factories, etc.

A new feature of the employment this year has been the part-time jobs for college students under the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, by which five young men and four young women students have been able to meet their college expenses for the second semester.

Commencement

At the close of the year a class of seven were graduated with the following degrees:

John Astleford, B. S.
Bernice Coppock, A. B.
Veldon J. Diment, A. B.
Audrey L. France, A. B.

Una Hicks, A. B.
 Carl V. Sandoz, A. B.
 Margaret J. Weesner, B. S.

It is significant of the scholarship spirit of the class that though only 120 semester hours are required for graduation, not one member of the class graduated with merely that number of hours, and the average of the class was nearly a quarter of a year of credit beyond the minimum requirement.

The address for commencement was given by David E. Henley, professor of Religious Education at Whittier College, his subject being, "Christ, the Great Contemporary."

John Astleford won the highest honors of the class, awarded on the basis of scholarship and character throughout the four years of college work.

The Junior Prize, awarded on the same basis, for the work of the current Junior year only, was awarded to Helen Lou Povenmire.

Faculty Changes

The continuity of the teaching force has been one of the outstanding features of the college for many years. During the year that is past the college celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of one member of the faculty, Alexander Hull, who came as Music Teacher in 1908. Another member of the force, Oliver Weesner, joined the faculty in 1909. The average term of service on the force at the close of this year was between fourteen and fifteen years.

Two changes are to occur for the coming year. Dr. George A. Scherer, elected last year to head the Chemistry Department, has resigned to accept a similar position in McKendree College, Illinois. The college board have not yet held a meeting in which action could be taken on this resignation.

Professor Russell W. Lewis, head of the English Department since 1912, and doing actual class work for these twenty-two years with the exception of one year's leave of absence for graduate work, has been granted leave of absence for 1934-35, with hearty expressions of appreciation from the board for his long and faithful and efficient service.

Neither of these vacancies has been filled as yet.

Changes in the Dormitory

The college authorities have felt for some years that much of value is being lost to students and that the college itself is losing money which it can not well spare because of the fact that relatively so few of the students who live outside of their own homes have occupied the dormitory in the last few years. While no student is permitted to live outside the dormitory without the consent of the faculty, many of them during the past two years have found themselves unable to meet the dormitory expenses, and in addition to those who have worked for their board and room outside, a considerable number have been permitted to keep house for themselves and live outside.

This year a very substantial reduction has been made in the price of rooms, and a still larger reduction in the cost of board. The trustees of the college are desirous that the faculty shall encourage students to live in the dormitories much more than heretofore, and that permission to live outside shall be granted less readily than heretofore.

Extra Curricular Work

As always the extra-curricular activities of the college have constituted one of the most important parts of the work of the school. In the realm of athletics the college teams have made a very creditable showing, competing as they have done in almost every case with schools very much larger than Pacific. In the Forensic line the same has been true. But more important than any activities in the nature of inter-collegiate contest have been such things as the work of the Trefian Literary Society, the International Relations Club, the Glee Club, Dramatic performances, the weekly student chapel, the editing and publishing of the college paper, The Crescent, and other activities of the students; and most important of all is the many-sided work of the Christian Associations.

The weekly meetings, the young men's and young women's associations usually meeting separately, though with occasional joint meetings; the Deputation prayer meetings held weekly; the study classes and the deputation trips where the gospel message is carried to many out-of-the-way places, and to Friends meetings in various parts of the Yearly Meeting, have all been carried on with marked success this year.

The outstanding feature of the deputation work this year has been the presentation of a pageant, "The Challenge of the Cross". This was put on first merely for the students of the college; but so effective was it in the presentation of a definite gospel message that requests kept coming for the presentation of the pageant, almost up to Commencement time. Definite spiritual blessing seemed to be brought by this pageant in numerous places where it was presented.

Financial Situation

All friends of Pacific College, and especially all the Friends of Oregon Yearly Meeting, need to keep facing the fact that a college cannot be maintained with so small a constituency as that which is back of Pacific College without the support and sacrifice of this constituency on a scale which in most places and under most conditions would be deemed utterly impossible. Great denominations feel that they dare not undertake to maintain a college with less than 20,000 member constituents in the immediate field of the college. We have little more than one-seventh of that number scattered over a very wide field. If Pacific College is to be permanently maintained, it can be only by the whole-hearted support, including the financial support, of those by whom and for whom the college is primarily maintained.

One indirect but very effective way in which friends of the college can aid it, both financially and educationally, is by helping in the securing of new students. The college students themselves are seriously pushing this task, and have organized a Student Board of Promotion to assist in the building up of a large student body. There are individuals in the Yearly Meeting, who work effectively along this line every year. Names could be given of Friends who in a sense have their "personal representatives" in the college each year. There is a minimum requirement as to plant and personnel if the college is to have the standing without which it cannot go on. This equipment and force could handle another 100 students with very little additional expense, and this would add almost $10,000.00 to our net income.

With the earnest hope that we shall feel that the maintenance of Pacific College is an inescapable duty, and that we may do the work and make the sacrifices necessary for its maintenance, this report is prayerfully submitted.

Levi T. Pennington, President Pacific College.

The quartet again brought a message in song. Charles C. Haworth gave the address on education.

86. At the inspirational hour, Gervas A. Carey again brought the message, based on the 3rd verse of the 37th Psalm. "Trust in Jehovah and do good. Dwell in the land and feed on his faithfulness."

87. The meeting adjourned to meet at 2:00 P. M.

SEVENTH DAY 2:00 P. M.

88. The meeting convened according to adjournment. The minutes of the morning session were read and approved.

89. The following information from the Meeting on Ministry and Oversight was read:

The following report from the Committee on Ministry was read and approved by the meeting, and the clerks were instructed to issue a certificate to Milo C. Ross:

"The committee on Ministry recommends that this body record Milo C. Ross, of Rosedale Monthly Meeting, a minister. He has appeared before us, has expressed his conviction that God has called him to the ministry and declares that he is in full accord with the doctrines and practices of the Society of Friends. His written statement of doctrine, which we have examined is concise, comprehensive, and clear. The committee has no hesitation in recommending that Milo Ross be recorded."

I. G. Lee, Chairman
Clayton S. Brown, Secretary.

Taken from the Minutes of Oregon Yearly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight held Sixth month 15th, 1930.

Chas. C. Haworth,
Marguerite P. Elliott,
Clerks.

90. The Home Missions and Social Service committee reported on the subject referred to it in Minute 15.

The matter of new blanks for the department has been discussed and queries have been prepared for this coming year.

91. William E. Cox, and C. J. Pike, ministers from the Methodist Church were introduced at this time.

92. The list of deceased members was read and the meeting paused for a few minutes of silence.

93. Several Friends spoke words of appreciation of these lives. The list appears in the Directory.

94. The following report of Pacific College's Visiting Committee was read and approved.

At the meeting of the Pacific College Visiting Committee, we discussed how best we could stimulate interest in this non-functioning committee and recommended to the Nominating Committee that they place on the committee names of parents whose young people are in attendance at Pacific College. It has been impossible in the past year, for the committee as a whole to make any visitations. One member has taken the deputation group out for services at various times.

Signed on behalf of the Committee,
Anna Coffin, Chairman.

95. Report of the Representatives.

(a) The matter referred to that body in minute 13. We recommend that each monthly meeting be given liberty to do this way or any other they may choose.

(b) In reference to the matter referred to that body in Minute 12:

(c) We recommend "That each Quarterly Meeting appoint a statistician to whom the Monthly Meeting statistician shall send a duplicate of the report sent by him to the Yearly Meeting Statistician. The statistician is directed to send three blanks to each Monthly Meeting statistician."

(d) Referring to Minute 14: We recommend that no action be taken.

(e) With reference to Minute No. 16, referring to formulating a uniform set of questions for applicants for church membership, we recommend that no action be taken by the Yearly Meeting.

(f) We recommend that the tenure of office of the trustees be for five years, rotating one new one each year, referring this to the Nominating Committee, for an order of rotation, nominations to be made this year.

(g) We recommend that the treasurer be granted the privilege of borrowing money up to the amount of one thousand dollars, if needed, in the departments of Foreign Missions and Evangelistic and Church Extension.

(h) That we suspend the action of last year. Minute 44. Section 2. for this year.

(i) In reference to the proposition from Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting, that the Yearly Meeting make an appropriation for the Friendly Endeavor, the Representatives recommend that no appropriation be made because of the increase in appropriations this year.

(j) Hervey M. Hoskins being unable to continue as treasurer of the Yearly Meeting, we nominate, Richard C. Kneeland to that office.

(k) We express appreciation for the faithful work of our past treasurer.

(l) We recommend that the Evangelistic Board be granted the privilege of taking offerings as follows:

1. For Curtis and Margaret Morse at Woodland, Seventh day afternoon.

2. For Evangelistic and Church Extension, First day, morning, afternoon and night, and at various meetings in the Yearly Meeting during the year.

3. That the Christian Endeavor Union be given the privilege of taking an offering at the seventh day evening service.

(m) Printing Committee:

|---------------|------------------------|
| M. M. Coffin. | Chester A. Hadley. |
| Edward Mott. | Marguerite P. Elliott. |

(n) We recommend that the following appropriations, as fixed expenses of the Yearly Meeting be made for this fiscal year:

|------------------------------------|-----------|
| Yearly Meeting Superintendent..... | $1200.00 |
| Traveling Expenses..... | 150.00 |
| Printing and Contingent Fund..... | 200.00 |
| Printing of Disciplines..... | 200.00 |
| Janitor..... | 15.00 |
| Entertainment..... | 60.00 |
| Yearly Meeting Stenographer..... | 10.00 |
| Kelso Street Improvement..... | 38.00 |
| Back Pay for Pastors..... | 375.00 |
| | $2248.00 |

(o) We propose the following ratios for the Quarterly Meetings:

| | | | |
|----------|-----|--------------|-----|
| Newberg | 21% | Boise Valley | 32% |
| Salem | 16% | Tacoma | 13% |
| Portland | 28% | | |

96. The Department of Home Missions and Social Service claimed the attention of the meeting at this time. The following report was read and approved.

|--|----------|
| Calls on sick, needy, or shut-ins..... | 2,191 |
| Bouquets given, including potted plants..... | 1,037 |
| Religious meetings, Jails, Missions, and Public Homes..... | 561 |
| Amount of money given for relief..... | $630.77 |
| Garments given..... | 1,891 |
| Bedding given..... | 104 |
| Glasses of jelly or jam given..... | 530 |
| Quarts of fruit or vegetables given..... | 2,294 |
| Fresh fruit or vegetables given | |
| 177 bushels fresh vegetables; 626-lbs. fruit..... | $34.50 |
| Hours of work given..... | 1,873 |
| Letters written to sick..... | 100 |

Remarks: Besides the above there has been reported over 300 lbs. of meat, about 100 lbs. flour, 200 lbs. sugar, about $70.00 furniture, 3 cords of wood, some honey, lots of baked goodies, several garden vegetables, baskets of food, drives and outings given. In all the meetings, programs, talks, and sermons have been given on the subject of Home Missions and Social service, emphasizing the importance of personal evangelism.

Two Quarterly Meetings have caravans of young people doing evangelistic work in the form of Gospel Teams, holding week-end conferences in the Monthly Meetings, and helping in Vacation Bible Schools.

Individual members of every Quarterly Meeting have branch Sunday Schools. Total 12; Enrollment of 295.

Bear in mind that these twelve schools, reaching nearly 300 people, is work not reported through the church extension department though some of these have regular preaching services, nor in the Sunday School report other than the statement, "There are some branch Sunday Schools." These are, more strictly speaking, Community Sunday Schools sponsored and vitalized by Friends. It is work more strictly personal than the effort of any group. Our investigation has been as thorough as we know how to make it and we find that there are many, many more places where this can be done than has been done during this year.

As the work of this department is such that it hardly conforms to statistical report, we suggest that no blanks be sent out by the Yearly Meeting, but that reports be written more as the State of Society report is written, that is, based on a certain set of queries.

Respectfully submitted,

Yearly Meeting Supt. of Home Missions and Social Service.

97. The following recommendations were made and approved:

RECOMMENDATION OF THE HOME MISSIONS AND SOCIAL SERVICE DEPARTMENT

(1) Whereas the work of this Department does not conform to a strict statistical report, we recommend that this report be written much the same as the State of Society report; that is based on a set of queries touching the points to be covered, rather than on blanks as the other departments.

(2) We wish to encourage the formation of personal workers classes under capable leadership in our various meetings for the purpose of instruction in personal work, and for the conducting of personal evangelistic campaigns.

(3) Whereas recreational work with children and young people is needed in our present order of society, also since it affords such splendid opportunities for building confidence in the leaders to do personal work, we recommend that more attention be given to the training of Social welfare workers such as recreational directors, through some such means as a class at the summer conference.

Respectfully submitted,

Marjorie, Votaw,

Yearly Meeting Superintendent of Home Missions and Social Service.

98. The message was brought by J. J. Ray from the Sunday School Union.

S. B. Laughlin gave a short talk calling attention to some needed legislation on social conditions.

99. The report of the board for Aged Ministers met and organized as follows:

President: Edward F. Harmon.

Vice President: Fred Frost.

Secretary: Lenora Pemberton.

100. This board recommends to the yearly meeting that the sum of $60.00 be given Anson Cox this coming year, and also permission is asked that a love offering be taken at this time to meet this need, should the offering exceed this amount the balance shall be held by the board for further use.

Lenora Pemberton,
Secretary

Subscriptions and collections were taken to the amount of $40.75.

101. The following report of the trustees was received and approved.

We are holding the following notes:

|---|----------|
| Second Friends Church of Portland (with interest due from October 26, 1927) | $432.00 |
| Boise Monthly Meeting (With interest from July 20, 1929) | 500.00 |
| Piedmont Church of Portland | 500.00 |
| Walter and Gladys Cook, for the Kelso Church (Interest from January 1, 1932) | 100.00 |

The balance that was due on the Seattle property will not be available.

Notices have been sent to meetings from which interest is due without response.

We have filed a copy of the minutes for 1933 as the official record of the meeting.

Trustees:

A. R. Mills,
B. C. Miles,
C. N. Terrell.

102. The report of the committee on Children's work was given:

The children of our homes and churches today are just as needful of the blessing and touch of Jesus as when He held them in His arms and said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not." Our meetings with the children this year have been profitable and full of blessing. The children have been faithful to attend and eager and intent to learn, and the Bible lessons and memory work have been appreciated.

A total of 28 children has been enrolled, and we have had an average attendance of 20.

The children have taken part in prayer and evidenced by their responses in the meetings that they had accepted Jesus as their Saviour.

We thank the Lord for His help and guidance, and ascribe all praise to Him.

Mildred Raymond,
Olive M. Terril,
Leaders.

103. Report of Press Committee:

We have endeavored to attend to the object of our appointment. Daily reports have been prepared for the Oregonian, the Journal and the News-Telegram of Portland, and the Oregon Statesman and Capital Journal of Salem; and arrangements have been made for reports to the Newberg papers and to the American Friend, the Evangelical Friend, the Pacific Friend and the Friendly Endeavor.

On behalf of the committee,
Levi T. Pennington, Chairman.

104. The above reports were approved.

105. The following information was presented. Organization of the Foreign Missions Board.

106. Organization of the Evangelistic Board:
These appear in the directory.

107. Report of Ministerial Association:

The Ministerial Association met in its annual conference April 3-5, 1934 at Second Friends Church, Portland, Oregon. The presence of the Spirit was manifest and much help was received from the various sessions. The guest speaker at the conference was Nelson W. Nice from Wichita, Kansas. His presence and messages were much appreciated.

108. An expression of appreciation was given for the services rendered by the Entertainment Committee, the Flower Committee and the Clerks.

109. The Printing Committee reported that it had attended to the business committed to it.

110. The meeting adjourned to meet at 7:30 P. M.

SEVENTH DAY 7:30 P. M.

111. The meeting convened according to adjournment.

112. The minutes of the afternoon were read and approved.

113. The final report of the Nominating Committee was read and approved and appears in the Directory.

114. The report of the organization of the Executive Committee was read and approved, and appears in the Directory.

115. The report of the Christian Endeavor Department claimed the attention of the Meeting. The Christian Endeavor nominating committee made the following report which appears in the Directory.

116. The Christian Endeavor Treasurer made the following report:

Oscar N. Brown, Treasurer.

117. The C. E. President made his Annual Report:

With Thanksgiving and praise to God for enduring spiritual values that have not been swept away in the gale which deprived many of material goods, the Christian Endeavor presents its annual report.

The shock of the storm through which we have been passing in recent years has been felt in the Christian Endeavor work more than ever before. Yet we thank our Heavenly Father that we have been able to withstand the tempest because we have built on the solid rock, Christ Jesus.

A small loss in membership this year, while not serious, calls for new courage and renewed energy. Perhaps the most thought provoking aspect of the work is the considerable loss in membership in Junior societies. This is largely due to a discontinuance in some places of Junior societies. We feel to urge that a new interest be taken in the Junior work for that is an extremely important feature of the Christian Endeavor program.

Last year again three summer conferences were held: one at Twin Rocks, Oregon; one at Payette Lakes, Idaho; and one at American Lake, Washington. More and more the value of the summer conferences is realized in the lives of the young people. The Lord has richly blessed these conferences in every way. These conferences have been potent agencies in soul saving. At the conferences last year, two hundred and fifty two were definitely helped at the altars.

In spite of difficulties, the Christian Endeavor has continued to make a definite contribution to the work of the Church through the publication of the Friendly Endeavor. The paper has come to fill a large place in the work of the Yearly Meeting and has drawn us together in the common interests of the Kingdom of God.

We rejoice that through the Christian Endeavor, God has been preparing young men and women for further service in the church.

Last year has seen several of these young people step up into places of responsibility in the church work.

We rejoice to note the increased zeal for the presentation of the Gospel to needy hearts as evidenced by the organization of gospel teams among the young people in various parts of the Yearly Meeting.

As we face a new year may there be an increased devotion to Christ our Savior and a new determination to be more diligent in the work of the Kingdom in our home communities.

May this be our motto for a new year: "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might."

Respectfully submitted,
Walter P. Lee, President.

The statistical report appears in the appendix.

118. Clarkson Hinshaw gave the message of the evening.

119. The meeting adjourned.

FIRST DAY

120. The meetings for worship were held as follows:
Eight o'clock: Devotional.

At the eleven o'clock meeting Gervas A. Carey brought the message, reading the latter part of the 6th chapter of John and using for his theme the 67th verse. Calvin Choate preached in the tent, the Christian Workers League conducted the afternoon service, and at eight o'clock Clarkson Hinshaw brought the closing message.

Friends ministers preached at the various churches in town.

At the request of the General Superintendent, the outgoing treasurer was asked to pay the bills incurred during the sessions of the Yearly Meeting, before turning over the books to the newly appointed treasurer.

With thankfulness to God for His blessings upon us during the days of our annual gathering, and with confidence that He who hath helped us hitherto will not fail us in our tomorrows, we adjourn the 42nd sessions of Oregon Yearly Meeting to meet again, God willing, at Newberg, Oregon 6th month 11th, 1935.
