Annual Conference of Ministerial Association, to be held at First Friends, Portland, October 6, 7, and 8, 1936

Minutes of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends 1936

1. Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends met, under the blessing and favor of God, in its forty-fourth annual session, at Newberg, Oregon, at 9:30 A. M., June 10, 1936.

2. The meeting opened with a period of silent devotion followed by vocal prayer. The Presiding Clerk gave to the meeting the concern lying upon his heart that the Yearly Meeting might occupy its place in God's program of reconciling the world to Him, through Jesus Christ; the text of the message was 2 Corinthians 5: 20-21. The individual meetings will be as the Yearly Meeting is, hence a great responsibility rests upon the Yearly Meeting in seeking the power of God upon its sessions that this work of reconciliation may be accomplished. A warning was thrown out against the danger which will result from making alliances with those who have not this vision of the mission of the church.

3. In the absence of the reading clerk, C. Glen Rinard, who had been transferred to another Yearly Meeting, Frederick B. Baker was named to fill the vacancy.

4. The names of representatives and alternates appointed by the five Quarterly Meetings were read, and sixty-seven responded.

To Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends:

To co-ordinate the pastoral and fiscal year more closely with the time of holding Yearly Meeting, we propose the following changes:

1st: That our fiscal year end July 31st.

To Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends:

Tacoma Quarterly meeting recommends that a protest be sent to the proper authorities against the advertisements of beer, wine, and all other intoxicating beverages over the radios, in our daily papers, and on bill boards.

Realizing that the youth of today are being influenced by the subtle wording of these advertisements, we, as a body of Christian folk, wish to remove them, if possible, from their vision and hearing.

A letter of appreciation for the help of the Yearly Meeting in organizing this meeting was read.

24. A communication from Portland Quarterly Meeting, relative to the emergency which may arise in connection with a possible future war, was read, and referred to the Peace Department for consideration and recommendation.

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

25. At the hour devoted to the Stewardship department, Marie Haines, the Superintendent, presented the following report which was accepted by the meeting:

Alice Hanson and Pearl Reece sang a duet and A. Clark Smith addressed the meeting on this subject.

Every meeting reports awakened interest in the Stewardship program. One of our out-stations, Prune Hill, has organized a store-house league with four members. Prayer meetings in the interest of Stewardship were held in Boise Valley. The Superintendent of this Quarter visited all six of his Sunday Schools and gave short talks on Stewardship. This was also the subject on the Sunday they had an interchange of pulpits. Five dollars was received during the year for this work which was mostly spent for literature. There is one dollar and sixty cents still on hand.

26. The following report of the Literature Department was given, and accepted by the meeting:

Number of tracts distributed	11,404
Number of papers distributed	12,531

There are literature tables in several of the churches, one hundred and fifty anti-cigarette and beer blotters were distributed in Boise Quarter, and forty-four books and eight hundred booklets were given as prizes, also Gospels of John.

The following was written by a member of the Rosemere Sunday School:

Bible, book of books from God
In my heart I hid its word
Better is thy word than gold
Love and peace may light my way
Every step I take today.

Grace Hadley, Superintendent

Francis Ohse and Leah Holmes, visitors at this session, sang a duet. Frederick B. Baker spoke on the value of good literature, and thoughtful reading. Grace Hadley urged the purchase and circulation of the pamphlet written by Edgar P. Sims, "Why Baptizest Thou?"

27. The recommendation from the Yearly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight that the paper, "Friends and Communion," written by Herman H. Macy, be referred to the Literature Department for their consideration, to be reported back to the Yearly Meeting, was approved.

28. The meeting then adjourned until 9:30 A. M., Thursday.

THURSDAY, 9:30 A. M.

29. The meeting convened according to adjournment and waited upon the Lord for His blessing and presence.

30. The minutes of the previous day were read and approved, with corrections and additions.

31. Florence N. Hanson, a daughter of John Frederick Hanson, well known in this Yearly Meeting in former years for his gospel ministry and labors in the interests of peace, whose minute was read the day before, brought greetings from Friends in Oskaloosa, and a brief message of testimony and encouragement.

32. The Yearly Meeting requested the Meeting on Ministry and Oversight to report for publication in the Minutes the members of the Committee on Ministry, as well as the organization of that body.

33. The Yearly Meeting granted the following request of the Printing Committee:

"The Printing Committee requests the privilege of condensing for the printed Minutes such of the reports and other communications as may be thus treated without loss of informative value. This is in the interest of a very materially lessened expense in the printing of the Minutes."

BIBLE SCHOOL AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

34. The Report of the Bible School and Religious Education was presented and accepted as follows:

Several schools have successfully carried on contests during the past year which have helped to increase attendance and offerings. Many have assisted in worthy enterprises. One reports chalk drawings once each month.

Reports received would indicate that a definite program of instruction in Friends principles should be adopted, a program which could be carried out in all parts of the Yearly Meeting.

There are indications of a need for a literature for use in our own Bible Schools which will meet demands from doctrinal viewpoint.
William C. Eichenberger, Superintendent

Carol Lee rendered a solo, and Dr. George B. Pratt, of Portland, gave an address on the real purpose of the Sunday School, evangelism.

TEMPERANCE

35. The work of the Temperance Department was next presented by W. Morris Heacock, who addressed the meeting on the subject, urging dependence upon God's help in attempting to correct conditions in our land. The statistical reports as accepted by the meeting follows:

Number of Temperance addresses	23
Number of Temperance sermons	22
Number of Temperance talks	121
Number of Temperance programs	34
Number of pages of literature distributed	5650
Amount used in the Temperance work	$54.95
Monthly Meetings reporting regular temperance features on Temperance Sunday	17

Boise Valley meetings are giving a fifteen minute radio broadcast each alternate Sunday.

Individual reports for the past year indicate much concern over the unsatisfactory condition brought about by repeal of the eighteenth amendment. The increase in drinking, with all its attendant evils, and the unprecedented killings by drinking auto drivers prove conclusively that the law, only, was repealed, not the effects of alcohol. The subject of temperance is frequently referred to in sermons and often discussed in our religious gatherings. Most meetings report activities along the line of alcohol education, especially in the Sunday School.

Throughout the country much sentiment is being aroused by the liquor traffic and by the utter failure of all repeal promises. Many communities have recently voted dry through local option elections and many others will vote on this issue at the general election this fall.

If our concern is genuine and we are sincere in our desire that better conditions prevail God will lead each praying Christian to know the part he is to play in the coming reform.

W. M. Heacock, Superintendent

36. The Nominating Committee was asked by the Yearly Meeting to act as a committee to check all addresses for the directory in the Minutes.

37. At 11:30 Hubert C. Mardock gave the second of his inspirational addresses, on the theme, the sufficiency of Jesus Christ and our inheritance in Him.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at 2:00 P. M.

THURSDAY, 2:00 P. M.

38. The meeting convened at the appointed hour and engaged in a period of silent devotion and vocal prayer.

39. A special committee, consisting of Levi T. Pennington, Charles C. Haworth, and Myrtle T. Russell, was appointed to attend to the matter referred to the Temperance Department in Minute 13, in the absence of the heads of that department.

EVANGELISTIC and CHURCH EXTENSION

40. The General Superintendent of Oregon Yearly Meeting, Chester A. Hadley, read his annual report on the work of the Yearly Meeting, at home and abroad. The report was accepted and follows in full:

THE GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT'S ANNUAL REPORT TO OREGON YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS

Introduction

I prepared an article for the June issue of the "Friendly Endeavor," entitled, "It Has Been a Great Year." As I set myself for the preparation of this annual report I am convinced that I could do no better than to enlarge upon that article and use it as a basis for our consideration of the work accomplished during the past fiscal year of our church.

A Great Year Financially

"It has been a great year financially." When I made this statement for the "Friendly Endeavor," I did not have the financial report of the treasurer. I now have it in my hand and by the way of comparison can easily substantiate the statement that it has been a great year from the financial standpoint. It has been interesting indeed to study the various items of the budget and to note the increase of interest in some of the departments over that of other years.

We will consider the United Budget in its relation to the home work. We discover there a decided increase over last year's givings from each of the Quarterly Meetings. The total amount received for 1934-1935 was $1400.00, while this year the receipts total $2219.43, an increase of $818.99. Turning our attention to the Missionary Department we find that the total receipts for last year were $3535.13, while for this year we show a total of $4453.48, an increase of $918.35. Attention must be called to the fact that the decided increase in the Missionary giving was occasioned by special gifts which came outside of the regular askings. These gifts were made for the transportation expenses of Esthel Gulley and Howard and Julia Pearson and also for the purchase of property in La Paz, Bolivia. A further study of this item in the budget reveals that the missionary receipts of the Board have fallen below our regular askings $546.50. We were fortunate, however to begin the year with a cash balance of $949.68 which has helped us to carry on the work and we have been able to close the year with no actual deficit.

A brief review of the Fixed Expenses shows that in this item our askings were $421.44 less than last year and the treasurer's report shows that we have overdrawn $39.51 in this department which will easily be cared for and does not give occasion for concern.

As we look at the other departments of the church for financial undertakings, the Christian Endeavor Department is outstanding, having raised over $1300.00 for construction work for the Twin Rocks Improvement Fund. This is over and above the regular askings for the work which they carry on in the regular channel. "Truly, it has been a great year."

A Note of Warning

With this increase of financial interest and response there comes a responsibility upon the people of the Monthly Meetings relative to their pastors. A review of our statistical report of pastoral support during the year shows that practically every meeting made a drastic cut in the support of its pastor during the depression years. As the trends of business begin to turn upwards the church faces a very definite responsibility to these men who have gladly made sacrifices during these years in order that the work might be carried on. As I have visited in the homes of the various pastors I have never heard one word of complaint, yet many of these men were doing without the actual necessities of life and in some cases were in need of medical attention which was imperative, yet had to be neglected on account of lack of funds. I ask each meeting to face this matter seriously and, if it is at all possible, make a substantial increase in support. In rural meetings where commodities are available and money is scarce I suggest that the Social Service Committee definitely be charged with the responsibility of seeing that the pastor is supplied with those things which are available and which add so much materially to his comfort.

It Has Been a Great Year of Expansion

"It has been a great year of expansion." It can be safely said that more Monthly Meetings are carrying on out-post work than for many years. Here is a complete list as we have been able to secure. We may have missed some, if so, forgive us, and let us know of your work.

The following are listed as—Work, Point and Leader:

Greenleaf Monthly Meeting: Center Point; Edward Baker.

Sunnyside, Portland, Oregon: Kelso, Rose Valley, East Clackamas; Oscar N. Brown, Sunnyside C. E. Society

Piedmont Friends Church: Rosemere; Miller H. Porter, Hazel K. Porter.

Lents Friends Church: Prune Hill and Mt. Pleasant; Frederick B. Baker.

Newberg Friends Church: Ladd Hill, Hood View; Wendell and Marjory Votaw, Dayton Haworth.

Springbrook Friends Church: Oak Hill; Mary Mills.

Rosedale Friends Church: Salem Heights, Cloverdale, Gates, Eldridge; Milo C. Ross, Bert Hamilton, Clyde Thomas, Ellen Jean Heisler.

Entiat: Ardenvoir; Robert Morrill.

Tacoma and N. E. Tacoma: "The Ark"; McKinley Avenue Friends Gospel Band and Lewis Russell.

Besides these Monthly Meeting out-posts the Yearly Meeting Evangelistic Board helps in the following places (Some of these are mentioned above):

Rosemere Church, Vancouver, Washington; Miller H. and Hazel K. Porter.

Vancouver Friends Church, Vancouver, Washington; Kenneth L. Eichenberger.

Kelso Friends Church, Kelso, Washington; Oscar N. Brown.

North East Tacoma Church, Tacoma, Washington; Lewis C. and Myrtle T. Russell.

Woodland Friends Church, Woodland, Idaho; Dillon W. Mills.

Greer - Johnstown - Cottonwood out - posts, Greer, Idaho; Curtis Morse.

Vale Friends Church, Rt. 1, Vale, Oregon; Zenas E. Perisho.

We are sure that there are other places that have not been reported, but think of it, 23 out-post points carried on by a Yearly Meeting with only 23 regular Monthly Meetings reported in the 1935 Minutes.

The Vale Out-post

We are happy to report that on May 23, 1936, the final action was taken by Boise Quarterly Meeting in the establishment of a Monthly Meeting at the East Bench Vale congregation; and on May 24 the new Church was dedicated and there is every indication to cause one to believe that the Lord's hand of blessing is on the work of the people in the community.

Rose Valley Out-post

During the past year Oscar Brown, who has served as our out-post man at Kelso, responded to an invitation to conduct a Sunday School and preaching service in a farming community about seven miles south of Kelso. This work has been very encouraging in attendance and interest and they have extended an official invitation to Portland Quarterly Meeting Evangelistic Board to enter that field and establish a regular Meeting; serious consideration is given to the matter, even to the extent of possible property purchase and to place a man permanently on the field. This community is being cut up into small acreage and sold to workers in the Longview and Long Bell mills in Longview. At least fifteen new homes have been erected this year and when we were on the field a few weeks ago three new homes were in the process of building within a quarter of a mile of the proposed site for the new Church. Truly it has been a great year of expansion.

A Great Year of Missionary Vision

The Missionary Department will receive more attention when the annual report of our Field Superintendent is given and this report will deal mainly with activities at home.

The annual report from Bolivia is full of encouragement. Spiritual victories have been many. Hard problems have been faced and many are being solved. A new missionary and a new missionary family have been placed on the field. Miss Esthel Gulley left last fall, and Howard and Julia Pearson and son Donny have just recently arrived to supplement workers there. We are seriously considering the purchase of property and we hope to have the Tamplins on the field again this fall.

Such growth and development can only be traced to the direct leading of the Lord. Look with me over the five short years of our work there. From a single native worker holding forth in La Paz, Bolivia, we have grown to where we now have six regular missionaries and four national workers, touching a large territory, not only in La Paz, but at Lake Titicaca, and "there is much land ahead to be possessed." Yes, it has been a great year of missionary vision.

We have already analyzed the financial condition and as the Board met to face the challenge of the new year we found that it was necessary to increase our askings this year to $4,000.00. This seems like a sharp increase and at first thought it might be considered too much to ask from so small a Yearly Meeting. If we look back over the past six years, it can readily be seen that our increase in the interest at home can be traced to our increase in interest on the foreign field. We can take this year as an example and we discover that although we gave over $4,000.00 to our missionary interests, we increased our home work to the largest amount that we have given during that period of time. I am confident that this increase in our missionary askings will not be a detriment to the home work, but rather a stimulation that will be normal and invigorating. I fully expect to look back upon 1936-37 as a greater year of financial and spiritual achievement than this year has been.

The critical situation in Bolivia, occasioned by revolution and political uprisings, together with the necessity for property purchase and other matters of real importance, makes it necessary for the Board to consider the immediate return of the Tamplins to the field. Steps have been taken for their return and over a third of their transportation funds have been either raised or promised.

It Has Been a Great Year of Spiritual Victories

It has been a great year of spiritual victories. The tabulated reports from the various meetings, the summer conferences, and the Christian Worker's League show that 1,014 spiritual victories were gained. This does not take into account individual experiences that have been realized outside of regular revival meetings. So it is safe to say that at least 1,200 persons have been spiritually blessed in a particular way during the year, to say nothing of the establishment and growth in grace of believers. This part of the work of the Church is as important, if not more so, than that of bringing into the kingdom the new born babes.

Various Boards

Valuable service has been rendered by the various boards and departments during the year. The Christian Endeavor Departments conduct three summer Conferences, meeting the needs of our young people in a spiritual and recreational way that is invaluable to the Yearly Meeting.

Twin Rocks in Oregon Conference is building a new dormitory; at Quaker Hill, in Idaho, Boise Valley Quarterd is erecting a beautiful log auditorium, and the Tacoma young people are looking toward a permanent location. The Peace and Temperance departments, working with limited funds have done much to meet the emergencies which are constantly arising, and protest and communications have been sent to the proper authorities when occasions arose making it necessary.

A spiritual-financial visitation campaign was conducted during the winter, and the Treasurer, Financial Secretary, Kester L. Mendenhall and the Superintendent visited many of the Monthly Meetings, acquainting them with the program of the Yearly Meeting. These visits were sources of blessing.

God has favored us with good pastors, full of evangelistic passions, and has sent us Spirit-filled evangelists to stir hearts to decision. Hubert C. Mardock, who is our Yearly Meeting evangelist, conducted services for Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting this past winter. He also held a meeting for Clio Brown at Highland and for Arthur J. and Elizabeth M. Haldy at Entiat. He has moved within the limits of Oregon Yearly Meeting with a definite concern to do evangelistic work in our midst and is being scheduled for many of the Monthly Meetings in this section of the Yearly Meeting. Milo C. Ross and Denver B. Headrick held a revival for one another at Rosedale and Springbrook respectively. W. E. Cox, who has been used in quite an extensive way among Friends, conducted services for Calvin R. Choate at the Lents Friends Church and God graciously honored his ministry in that Meeting. Joseph G. Reece, Pastor of First Friends Church in Portland, held his own special meetings, and Wendell Mills held services for Tacoma Friends Church.

The Christian Worker's League, whose report will be read shortly, used Charles A. Beals, Evert Tuning, Robert Mott, George Hopper and Lyman Myers as the evangelists for the different fields entered. Besides these different men, a large number of the workers volunteered for the Children's meetings, pianist work and the leading of singing.

It is further interesting to note the 198 persons were received into membership during the past twelve months. While our statistical report may not show a material gain in members this year, it is significant that at least this many persons were interested enough to cast their lot with us. Truly it has been a great year of spiritual victories.

The Pastoral Situation

The pastoral situation for the coming year is unsettled. Several changes will be made and at the present time it is impossible to say who will fill the places vacated. We hope, if possible, to supply this information before the Minutes are printed. Fred C. Harris has resigned as pastor of the Greenleaf Meeting after four years of labor in that field; Milo C. Ross also has resigned from service at Rosedale, he, too, having served four years in that place; Kenneth L. Eichenberger leaves Vancouver; Arthur J. and Elizabeth M. Haldy are leaving Entiat after four years of faithful ministry in that community. Charles C. Haworth is finishing his labors at South Salem after many years of faithful service. Robert C. Smith, who served many years at Marion Friends Church, passed away on Thursday April 9, leaving a vacancy. His ministry was one of loving, fatherly interest, not only over the member ship of his own flock, but to the entire community. This was evident by the respect paid to him at the funeral when the house was crowded by people who came from miles around to attend the service.

So far as we know these are all the changes that will be made in the pastoral relation this coming year. Of these vacancies, one has been filled. Robert Morrill, who has been preaching at Ardenvoir, an out-post from Entiat, for he past three years will take the pastorate at Marion and begin the latter part of July.

Personal Activities

Immediately following the sessions of Oregon Yearly Meeting I left for San Francisco, California, to attend to Missionary matters pertaining to Esthel Gulley's passport to Bolivia. From there I went to Whittier to attend the sessions of California Yearly Meeting; returning, I attended three summer conferences which were conducted by the Christian Endeavor Union of our Yearly Meeting. I conducted missionary classes and took Esthel Gulley to attend these conference. The number of sermons and addresses given this year has been 150, the miles traveled 22,000; the number of letters written 1150, besides numerous committee and personal interviews.

Facing The Future

I have called attention each year to my great concern that the Yearly Meeting "balance its budget" of interest in the home and foreign fields. Last year I said that this was gradually coming to pass. This year I am able to say more progress has been made in that direction during the past twelve month than in any other period since I have been superintendent. This calls for real thanksgiving. Again I issue the challenge; first to myself, and then to you, to press forward in this undertaking which has been placed in our hands and may the blessing of the Lord rest upon each one of us as we face our individual responsibilities in this matter.

Chester A. Hadley, Superintendent

41. The statistical report of the Evangelistic and Church Extension Board was read in summary by Oliver Weesner, President of the Board. This was approved by the Yearly Meeting and appears in full in the Appendix. He then presented the work of the Board in the outpost stations and asked for the faithful support of the self sacrificing workers in these stations.

42. After a solo by Iverna Hurst, outpost workers were introduced and told the details of conditions and achievements in their fields: Zenas E. Perisho for Vale, Marjorie B. Votaw for Ladd Hill, Dillon W. Mills for Woodland, Myrtle T. Russell for Northeast Tacoma, Frederick B. Baker for Prune Hill. The program was concluded with a special number in song by Joseph G. Reece.

CHRISTIAN WORKER'S LEAGUE

43. Lyman Myers, President of the Christian Worker's League reported for this organization. The report was accepted and the statistics are as follows:

CHRISTIAN WORKER'S LEAGUE REPORT 1935-1936

As we, the Christian Worker's League, bring the following report it is with thankfulness in our hearts for the Lord's blessing and guidance throughout the past year. It is through His strength that we are able to give the following report. Of our membership, five are on the mission field: Ralph and Esther Choate in Africa, Helen Cammack and Esthel Gulley in Bolivia, and Esther Gulley in China. Three have moved to other meetings during the past year: Charles A. Beals to Kansas Yearly Meeting; Glen and Harriet Rinard to Indiana Yearly Meeting. Our hearts were greatly saddened by the passing of one of our beloved members, Harriet Rinard.

During the year the Executive Committee has held services in most monthly meetings, speaking in the interest of the Christian Worker's League, and telling of its organization and purpose.

44. By a rising vote, the Yearly Meeting expressed their appreciation of the work of Chester A. Hadley as General Superintendent and approved the recommendation of the Executive Committee that he be retained as General Superintendent for the coming year at a salary of $1,500.00 and traveling expenses not to exceed $200.00.

FRIDAY, 9:30 A. M.

47. The meeting convened according to adjournment and engaged in a short period of devotion.

48. The minutes of the previous day were read, corrected, and approved.

49. The Quarterly Meeting reports on the State of Society were read and the Clerk directed to prepare a summary to be printed in the minutes.

SUMMARY OF THE REPORTS ON THE STATE OF SOCIETY:

The reports from the five quarterly meetings on the State of Society are unanimous in affirming that all meetings for worship and business are regularly held, and that the doctrines of Friends are upheld in both pulpit and pew. Members are mostly careful of their relations with each other, preserving harmony in the body of Christ, and parents are watchful in regard to the spiritual nurture of their children. Evangelistic services have been held in a number of meetings with gratifying results. Two meetings maintain gospel bands which have been active in service, and other types of religious and benevolent work have been carried on. One Quarterly Meeting carried on a half-hour broadcast. There is an interest in all who engage in public Christian work, both at home and abroad, and a desire to support them in prayer and finance. So far as is known, Friends are careful to abstain from the manufacture, sale, and use of intoxicants, and some are active in the campaign to eradicate the evil from our land. There is an effort to promote the cause of peace. The needy in our midst are cared for as far as is known.

In several of the reports there was expressed anxiety in regard to a few matters. Greater punctuality is needed, and better attendance at meetings for business, and at prayer meetings and evening worship. The daily Scripture reading and prayer in the home should be more nearly universal. Greater care should be observed that we be not too much absorbed in temporal affairs, and that we be prompt in payment of all obligations, as much as is possible. There is some carelessness in the matter of taking oaths. In one quarter there is a fear that worldly amusements are having an unwholesome influence, especially upon the young people.

May praise and honor be given to our Heavenly Father for preserving us, His people, in these perilous times, and may we ever be overcomers in the name of Jesus Christ.

50. The report of the Statistician was read by totals. The report appears in full in the Appendix.

51. The Permanent Board presented the following report which was accepted by the meeting:

The Permanent Board of Oregon Yearly Meeting met in regular session Sixth Month tenth, 1936; we appoint as clerk of the Board for the ensuing year, Emmor W. Hall.

Memorials for Robert C. Smith and Maude H. Butler, were read and directed to be read in the Yearly Meeting and filed with the Yearly Meeting documents.

We nominate Tyra A. Hutchens and Amanda M. Woodward as members of the Board of Managers of Pacific College.

We appoint Abram Astleford to fill the unexpired term of Charles I. Whitlock, deceased.

Emmor W. Hall, Clerk.

52. A returning minute for Florence N. Hanson was read and directed to be signed by the clerk, and forwarded to her.

PEACE

53. The work of the Peace Department claimed the attention of the meeting at this time.

The Superintendent read his report as follows:

The Yearly Meeting Superintendent of Peace is willing to confess his own measure of inefficiency. But when some meetings have made reports of no peace work done during the year, and a considerable number of meetings have not even made report, it seems that some word ought to be said to "stir up our pure minds by way of remembrance." Friends have the reputation of being leaders in the cause of peace, from the definite angle of religion. Some of our members and some of our meetings have certainly not improved the reputation of our branch of the Church of the Prince of Peace along this line.

But while some of our members and some of our meetings have done little or nothing to advance the cause of peace, other members and other meetings have shown a commendable earnestness and maintained commendable activity in advancing this work which is so definitely Christian and so distinctively Quakerly. And so broad is the field and so varied are the opportunities that these activities have assumed many forms, some of which have had less bearing on the distinctive work of Friends than others. Some of these activities may here be mentioned.

One is the effort to have military training made optional instead of compulsory in the two chief state institutions of higher education in Oregon. Concessions have been made, both, at the University and Oregon State College where conscientious objection to military drill have been urged with sufficient insistence. But so long as the requirement for war preparation either is or can be made compulsory, the situation is not satisfactory. If a man has conscientious objections to war preparation, there is no justice in compelling him to violate his conscience or forego the privilege of an education in the state institutions which his taxes help to support. Even if his objections are on other grounds than those of religion and conscience, on grounds of humanitarianism, for instance, or of economics, or political idealism, it is un-American to compel him to prepare to kill in war.

Efforts having failed to secure action by the State Board of Higher Education eliminating the compulsory feature of military training, an initiative petition has been started to put on the ballot next fall a law making military training optional both at Oregon State and at the University. At the time of the writing of this report it is not known whether this petition will be successful and whether this measure will go on the ballot. Several of our members have been active in pushing this initiative campaign, and at least one has been on the executive committee of the organization sponsoring it. If it does go on the ballot, there will be unlimited opportunity during the coming months for work to secure success for the measure at the polls next fall.

Another enterprise in which many Friends have cooperated is the Pacific Northwest Institute of International Relations. The first session of this Institute was held last July; the second session is scheduled for next month, July 6 to 16. Probably no denomination is so well represented as Friends on the committees in charge of this Institute. The Yearly Meeting Superintendent of Peace is on the executive committee and he, the General Superintendent, the Service Superintendent, and other members of the Yearly Meeting are on the Executive Council, a member of the Pacific College Board who is a monthly meeting clerk is secretary of the organization; its executive secretary is a member of this Yearly Meeting; and numerous other Friends are leaders in its work. The American Friends Service Committee was the original promoter of this movement, and is one of the sponsoring organizations backing it.

The Emergency Peace Campaign has also enlisted the earnest efforts of a considerable number of our members, and will command more of their time and thought for 1936-37, the present Yearly Meeting Peace Superintendent being scheduled for some weeks of service the ensuing year. Many peace organizations, such as the National Committee for Prevention of War, the American Friends Service Committee, the Fellowship of Reconciliation, and others, are uniting in this movement, the purpose of which is by a strenuous and quick campaign to arouse the United States to the danger of a World War and to such action as America can take to prevent it; and to make it possible, if such a war should come, to keep America out of it, that there may be the better opportunity to save the civilization of the world from complete destruction. A considerable number of our members will be enlisted in this Emergency Peace Campaign, which is borrowing workers from many organizations, to return them at the end of the campaign, with these various organizations made the stronger by their cooperative work.

And the importance of the continued maintenance of these organizations must not be overlooked. There will be need for the National Council for the Prevention of War after this Emergency Peace Campaign is over. And every Friends church and every individual Friend should be a center for peace information, peace inspiration, peace agitation, peace propagation. "Blessed are the peacemakers"—Friends ought always to be under that benediction.

Another work in which many of our members have engaged has been in connection with a house to house canvass of the city of Newberg by students of Pacific College, not only to spread information and inspiration in the interests of the peace cause, but by a questionnaire to learn the actual sentiments of the people in regard to matters of war, peace, international relations, etc. The results of this canvass were most interesting, and it constituted a very fine work in the interests of peace, not all of it done by Friends, but largely directed by Friends.

Through the International Relations Club of the college, and various agencies of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A., efforts have been made to promote international understanding and good-will. This also is a work largely directed by Friends, but in which members of other denominations have cooperated.

Many of our members are realizing more and more that we should bring to bear on our representatives in government the force of our peace convictions. It is not enough to multiply these convictions by developing them in others; we must bring them to bear on those who determine our national actions. When Congress makes a billion dollar appropriation for war preparation in time of peace, do your representatives vote for it over your protest, or do they by your silence judge that you are favorable, or that you do not care? If the world again is plunged into a war vastly worse than that of 1914-18, and if this war shall take your son or daughter, will you be able to say to that son or daughter, "I did my best to save you from this fate. It is not by my negligence that my children must 'pass through the fire to Moloch'."

In the matter of our statistical report, it is evident that some means should be devised not only to get more work done, but to get it properly reported. The facts recorded below are doubtless not complete, but they represent the work so far as reports could be secured.

Number of public meetings in the interest of peace, seventeen.

Number of peace sermons and addresses (including those of Yearly Meeting Peace Superintendent) fifty, with many other addresses dealing with the subject of world peace among others.

Number of pages of literature distributed and reported, 2,586 from one Quarterly Meeting, with others reporting many pages distributed. This is a difficult matter to estimate, because scores of our members receive certain peace periodicals which are passed about.

A goodly number of communications were sent to government officials, two by resolution or other meeting action, twelve reported by personal communications, (though evidently there have been no adequate reports on this, for one single member of the Yearly Meeting has sent more communications than all others reported), and seven by petitions with one hundred and ninety-four signatures reported, in addition to petitions circulated by students and faculty members of Pacific College, one of which, circulated by a single Friend, contained eighty names.

At least two local peace committees have presented peace programs in the Bible schools at regular intervals throughout the year. Numerous committees have promoted the attendance of Friends at meetings arranged by other peace organizations and addressed by national or international leaders. Numerous high school students are reported to have been active in international relations clubs and in writing peace essays. One Quarterly Meeting program was given at which conscientious objectors spoke of their experiences in military training camps during the World War.

Numerous peace books from church and private libraries have been circulated among Friends.

Christian Endeavor meetings among Friends are giving additional thought to the subject of peace, and Friends are aiding in the peace work of the W. C. T. U.

One meeting reports participation in a union service on peace in which various churches of the city united.

Students of Pacific College participated in the local peace contest, and the college was represented in the state peace contest.

An especially impressive peace service was held at the college on Armistice Day. One of the most encouraging things in the peace movement at present is the increasing interest and intelligent information among the young, who must furnish the peace leadership of the future.

Among the suggestions for the future one Peace Superintendent urges that we "be careful always to keep our consciences and peace testimony clear by active interest in legislation to encourage peace and to discourage war. Encourage our national officials to stand for the right."

Another Quarterly Meeting Superintendent says, "The most important peace work in Oregon is to get the present compulsory military training at the state institutions made optional."

Another Quarterly Meeting Peace Superintendent says, "One plan contemplated for the year has not been carried out, which we hope may be done before long; that is the holding of local peace conferences in our meetings so far as these are desired by local meetings. The speakers for this have been promised and conferred with, but so far there has been no opportune time when these busy people were available."

With gratitude for all the advances which have been made in the cause of peace, with great apprehension as we look at the present menacing situation among the nations of the world, but with confidence that under divine leadership our efforts in the cause of peace will not be in vain, and that we can prevent some wars if not all war, can lead our younger people to a place of real fidelity to God and service to humanity, and can clear our own consciences in the sight of God by being peacemakers, let us renew our efforts in the cause of Him who is the Prince of Peace.

Respectfully submitted,
Levi T. Pennington, Superintendent

The Superintendent of the Service Committee submitted the following report, which was accepted by the meeting:

REPORT OF AMERICAN FRIENDS SERVICE COMMITTEE

For the past year the Committee has carried on its work along the same general lines as in other years. Expenditures for the year 1935 were as follows: General Fund, which covers Foreign Service, Home Service, Peace Section and General Administration, $61,625.36 — Coal Section, $58,164.70—Institutes of International Relations, $34,128.84—Total $153,918.90.

The part of the work carried on within the limits of Oregon Yearly Meeting this year was the Institute of International Relations at Reed College, Portland Oregon, in July, 1935. The records of this Institute showed a registered attendance of one hundred and fifty-two, which included teachers, club women, students, ministers, university professors, secretaries, business men, foreign consuls, school executives, missionaries, writers, engineers, attorneys, and senators. The $3,500. paid all the expenses and left a small balance to start the 1936 Institute, for which students, faculty and sponsors voted on the closing day. Institute students have since been responsible for many activities, study groups, forums, seminars, reports, lectures, and addresses,—in their own communities, in an attempt to acquaint people with world conditions.

The date of the Institute to be held this summer is July 6-16 on the Reed College Campus.

Ward L. Haines,
Superintendent.

Three Friends who went through army camps during the World War as conscientious objectors, Harold P. Mills, H. Paul Michner, and Ward L. Haines, gave talks on their experiences there. Through these talks, and concluding remarks of the Peace Superintendent, Friends were admonished to prepare the young men of this time to meet the crisis which will come in the event of another war.

The Annual report of missionaries on the field was read by Carroll G. Tamplin:

SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE FIELD SUPERINTENDENT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS OF OREGON YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS CHURCH.

La Paz, Bolivia
April 23, 1936

To Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends, "grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

"Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit," saith the Lord. By confidence, trust and faith in the power of the Spirit, resting upon the promise of God to give freely to him that asketh, has the work of the Friends' Mission in La Paz gone forward this past year. The helplessness and inability of the human arm has been recognized and dependence upon the presence and the powerful working of the Spirit has been the attitude of heart of the workers.

Missionaries

This year has seen changes in the missionary staff on the field. Only a few months after the beginning of the year Carroll and Doris Tamplin and family went home on furlough. Since they had been the first missionaries from the Yearly Meeting here, their return to give a report of the work and the field has been of great blessing and interest to the Yearly Meeting. We anxiously anticipate the day of their return to this land, and pray that it may be soon.

Miss Esthel Gulley arrived in La Paz, September 24. Her time has been largely given to language study thus far, but she has been blessedly used also in ministering to the physical needs of the believers, as well as in many other ways. Her presence has added spiritual force to the work.

On March 24th Howard and Julia Pearson and son arrived to join their strength to the battle for souls in the part of the earth. God marvelously opened the way for their coming and the next year opens with their activities added to the work. We praise the Lord of the harvest that when he calls laborers He also thrusts them forth and supplies their every need both physically and spiritually.

National Workers

This year has witnessed the continued faithfulness of Cipriano Mamani in the peninsula of Tiquina. He is a faithful pastor, knowing the spiritual condition of each one in his congregation, faithfully encouraging, rebuking, ministering to the sick, or whatever may be the need. He longs to see the weak become strong in Christ and prays to that end.

Felix Hermosa has spent the majority of the time helping in the work in La Paz. He has preached, visited, and been ready for any service which might be a help. His wife has taught reading and writing classes, helped in the Sunday School work, and willingly fulfilled any call for help in emergencies.

Feliciano Sirpa acceptably helped with the interpreting in the services when Felix Hermosa was away from La Paz.

Bernardo Pardes is ready to respond to any need of leading services or Sunday School classes. He has had a severe trial in his family the past year and needs the prayers of God's people.

In all departments the work has been maintained. The closing of the war in the Chaco has brought back a few, but not all, of those who formerly attended. It cannot be said that the evangelizing which went on in the Chaco caused the soldier boys to "flock" to evangelical chapels on their return. Some have come and as time goes on a few more have come asking for tracts, Bibles, etc., but very few thus far have become regular attenders.

However, the attendance in general has increased much in La Paz. This has been most noticeable in the Sunday School. Many new ones have attended the past few months also and some of them quite regularly.

The children have had their own department during the year and the attendance has improved. During the last few months of the year five of the believers have acted as teachers for the children's classes. They have developed under the responsibility and are learning better how to maintain discipline as well as to teach the lesson. Two of these teachers are women, teaching girls' classes. It is a cause of thankfulness to see the women developing in Christian work.

In Sopacachi the mid-week meeting is maintained, and on Sunday all attend the meeting in Chijini.

The Lord has given revival spirit in the services at various times and we thank the Lord for those who have sought and found Him precious to their hearts.

Daily Vacation Bible School

In November the first Daily Vacation Bible School in the mission was held in La Paz. Preparation was made for this by house to house visits in the vicinity near the mission. The permission of the parents was received, that their children might attend. Many tracts were also given to these parents and invitations to the services. The result of these visits was gratifying. The songs, Bible stories, and texts which the children learned during those two and a half weeks are as precious seed in their hearts.

Special Meetings

The first days of November the semi-annual Conference was held in Amakari. It was a precious three days of Bible study, preaching the Word, seeking the Lord and testifying to His power in the human life to lift from sin and redeem. God gave a real revival. Pardons were asked, and tears of repentance shed.

During November a week of special meetings was also held in La Paz by Miss Martha Moennich, a missionary from China, who is traveling through Central and South America in evangelistic work. Her ministry was a blessing to the church. The messages had to be interpreted in both Spanish and Aymara.

Christmas programs were prepared both in Amakari and La Paz and were listened to by large audiences.

The Annual Conference

The sessions of the annual conference were blessed of the Lord. Each day saw souls seeking. Some sought several times before feeling satisfied. Sunday morning at the close of the holiness class the altar was filled with seekers. The Sunday School was dispensed with because the altar service and testimonies lasted until noon. We praise the Lord for the manifestation of His presence throughout the three days.

Also we thank the Lord for the arrival of Howard and Julia Pearson and for the contribution to the conference in leading services and teaching classes.

The attendance from Tiquina was larger this year. The believers who had come from there enjoyed eating together in the patio. The meals were prepared and served by the Medrano family.

Visitation

The work in Amakari and surrounding territory has been visited quite regularly during the year. Carroll and Doris Tamplin spent some time there before going on furlough. One visit was made in each of the months of August, September, and November by Helen, Felix Hermosa and wife, and by Helen and Esthel together.

During December Hermosas stayed in Amakari the whole month, helping with the Christmas program and holding special meetings. Don Felix also visited in Kalata, Guayllani, and Chicharro.

Evangelism

Some journeys of evangelism have been made during the year. Also the believers have been alert to opportunities to testify. Outstanding among the believers for his work in evangelism is Mariano Medrano. He sees the opportunities and tries not to lose them. When at the station to bid Tamplins good-bye the believers sang a farewell hymn. Some standing near began to make fun. When we turned to go I found Tata Mariano giving the gospel to quite a group of those who had sneered. This is only a sample of the way he testifies "in season and out of season."

One journey was made by a believer to Aigachi, a point on the lake about nine miles from Puerto Perez. A good reception was given the message of the gospel.

Various journeys have been made from La Paz to Achocolla, a town about nine miles distant. The people gave a good reception to the gospel and quite a number sought the Lord, but we find that their comprehension of the gospel is very limited as yet. When one of our believers asked some of them about having a gospel service among themselves, some said "Yes, but that man is my enemy and I couldn't join him in anything." Pray that they may have a vision of God's power to give them a forgiving spirit, and comprehend that that is the power of the gospel.

In Amakari the believers have had the joy of seeing an interest awaken in some of the officials in the port of Tiquina. The corregidor visited one gospel service and asked the school children to sing hymns for him. Others have asked for Testaments.

Other journeys have been made which have not been reported to us.

Many tracts and portions of the Bible have been distributed and sold. Following is a partial count of these:

Tracts distributed.....	10,617
Portions given.....	368
Bibles sold.....	35
Testaments sold.....	20
Portions sold.....	43

Schools

During the school months of 1935 night classes were maintained two nights a week. Several adults as well as children profited by these classes. Beginning with March of this year classes in reading and writing are being held for 2 hours each morning for the children. There is good interest and enthusiasm. Bible teaching is given a prominent place even in the short time given to study. The principle reason for these classes is to help the believers' children to learn to read and write and have some of the rudiments of knowledge. Cipriano Mamani closed the school year in Amakari with 11 children taking examinations. There is great interest among the Indians to learn to read and write and various calls have come for schools.

For about three months of the year a Bible class was held on Friday evening and several of the former Bible school students showed interest as well as some others.

Medical Work

With the coming of Esthel Gulley in September the medical work has taken on greater proportions, although there has been no effort to solicit more than to care for the needs of the believers. 94 cases have been treated since October. In some of these cases medicine was sent to the home. God has heard and answered prayer in behalf of some who were seriously ill. During the Conference in Amakari treatments were given before and after services.

Women's Classes

Since December a weekly women's meeting has been held on Wednesday afternoon. The study has been in the Life of Christ. After the lesson questions are asked and the women drilled in the answers until they are beginning to remember better the events in the life of Jesus. They also learn texts and songs and express themselves in prayer and testimony. Our hope is to have it develop into a meeting where they can freely express their spiritual needs and can pray and help one another.

Items for Prayer

1. For the health of the missionaries.
2. That the missionaries may more fully understand the viewpoint and life of the people so they may know better how to present the gospel to them.
3. For the community of Achocolla that gospel services may be established there.
4. For the establishment of a congregation in Puerto Perez.
5. For the believers—that they may become established in grace and live consistent lives.
6. That the spirit of evangelism may possess the believers and they may feel impelled to go forth bearing the message.
7. For the salvation of many young men, who might be workers.
8. For the suburb of Villa Victoria in La Paz, a large district with many people, that we may be able to have services there.
9. For the children of the believers that they may early find Jesus as their Savior and live for Him from youth up.
10. For the special help of the Lord for the missionaries in learning the Aymara language.
11. For the progress of getting a mission home in La Paz.

The surge of human beings all about us, intent on the interests of this life, daily presses upon the soul. We live in the midst of such overwhelming need. Dirt, sickness, and poverty abound, but in the midst of it all we see the worse condition of the soul, pride of carnality, the love of pleasure, the rule of passion, and the selfishness which hunts for personal gain, no matter if that gain be something picked up from the filth of the streets.

As ambassadors sent from the court of heaven to this people we gladly and eagerly proclaim, "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth." We are debtors to Greeks and barbarians, to Bolivians and Aymaras, to the Greeks and to savage, yea to the whole world. Debtors to tell them of Jesus, He who has given to us a lively hope by His own resurrection from the dead.

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye ask anything in my name I will do it."

Let us ask in Jesus' name for these people, our brethren, that they may be brought from darkness to light. Let us accomplish the greater works which Jesus expects of us. How? By asking in the Father's name, in faith, expecting Him to work in these lives. God has blessed our labors together in Bolivia, many working by way of the throne there and a few of us here, and He wants to bless us even in greater measure. Let us have faith which "dares" to go forward. Thus we shall experience the greater blessings which He desires to give.

"NOT BY MIGHT NOR BY POWER BUT BY MY SPIRIT," saith the Lord.

In behalf of the Mission,

Helen Cammack

Acting Field Superintendent

These reports were accepted and by a rising vote the meeting expressed their appreciation for the work of Helen Cammack.

Keith Macy and Mildred M. Raymond sang a duet, "To Me you have not given."

Carroll G. and Doris M. Tamplin then addressed the meeting, telling some of the difficulties and accomplishments of the work in Bolivia.

62. The meeting then adjourned to meet at 9:30 A. M., Saturday.

SATURDAY, 9:30 A. M.

63. The meeting settled into a time of silent devotion, and vocal prayer. Carroll G. and Doris M. Tamplin then sang a duet, "It Is Real."

64. The minutes of the previous day were read and approved with suggested additions.

65. The presence of Roland Cole and wife of Salem, Ohio, members of Ohio Yearly Meeting was noted and the courtesy of the meeting extended to them.

66. The complete report of the Nominating Committee was read and approved by the meeting. These appointments will be found in the Appendix.

67. Relative to the matter referred to the Peace Department in Minute 24, the following recommendations were presented and approved by the meeting:

The members of the Peace Department who are present at the Yearly Meeting make the following recommendations relative to the communication referred to them from Portland Quarterly Meeting:

That Friends endeavor, not only by Yearly Meeting pronouncements and the work of the Peace Department but by all other appropriate means, to make clear the position of our denomination on the subject of peace, especially by the presentation of our disciplinary statement which plainly declares our position; that we show our loyalty to our government by every service which we can conscientiously render, while at the same time recognizing our supreme allegiance to God, and that if our government should require of us that which we understand that God forbids, "we must obey God rather than men."

That we seek to make it clear that our opposition to war is not based on fear of personal danger and suffering, or unwillingness to serve our country, but on our conviction that there is a better way to settle differences than by warfare, and that because war is for us wrong and unchristian; that in time of peace or in time of peril or suffering or any form of human need, we are willing to give our full measure of service and undergo our full measure of suffering; and that in case our country should become involved in another war, we shall be eager, as we hope we shall be permitted, to render service and undergo danger and suffering if need be for the saving of life and the healing of wounds, not for the infliction of wounds and the taking of life.

To the end that we may be the better prepared to offer acceptable and helpful service to our country and the cause of humanity in time of war, famine, pestilence or other form of disaster, we recommend that the Peace Department and the Service Department of the Yearly Meeting consider during the ensuing year, jointly with other peace agencies, the possibility of such training as may better fit our people to render such helpful service. We recommend that they report to this meeting at its session in 1937, that they institute such training if the way opens, and that they do whatever they may unite upon to prepare our members, and especially our younger members, to stand true to our principles as Friends and at the same time to be ready for the service of our country and humanity, in obedience to God and conscience, even to "that last full measure of devotion."

On behalf of the Peace Department:

Levi T. Pennington,
Superintendent

EDUCATION

68. The meeting turned to the consideration of the work of the Department of Education. In the absence of Frank D. Roberts, Superintendent of the Department, Mary C. Sutton acted in his place. The statistical report was read and approved, and will be found in the Appendix.

Rachel Pemberton sang, "Open my Eyes."

Edward Mott gave an address on the value and necessity of a Christian foundation for education. Other reports were as follows:

REPORT OF GREENLEAF ACADEMY FOR THE YEAR 1935-36

In closing this, the 28th, year of Greenleaf Academy we feel very grateful to the Lord, that His guiding hand has been over us. It has been a good year. The unusual number of activities fostered by the school and carried on successfully by the students was possible only because of the industry and co-operation of the students themselves.

Under the direction of Miss Jackson, a school paper has been published every two weeks throughout the year. The quality of this publication has been such that we were given membership in the national organization, "Quill and Scroll."

During the year we have invited people representative of their various vocations to speak to the students concerning those vocations. Some very beneficial talks have been given, which we believe will give the students a clearer view of the field of their life's work.

Music and public speaking were given more attention this year than we have been able to give them during recent years. The public speaking class has been taught by Mrs. Holmes, who has presented her students in several public programs. She has also directed the boys' and girls' Glee Clubs, and boys' quartet. A program was given at Christmas time by these two departments, which was a source of great blessing to all who attended. Our students were entered in both District Music and Dramatic Festivals. All our entrants were given a good rating by the judges. In the District Declamation Festival, Anne Settle's reading, "The Death Disk," qualified to enter the State Festival at Twin Falls. We were told that she gave an excellent performance there. In the Music Festival, Kenneth Williams was rated to enter the State Festival, but because of a conflict with other school activities he was unable to attend. The boys' Glee Club sang before the Canyon County Teachers' Meeting; the Boys' Quartet has been in demand in Gospel Team work as well as radio broadcasting and entertainment at various programs.

The Junior class presented "Skidding" as their public program for the year. The play was much appreciated by a large audience. The success of the play was due in large measure to the coaching of Miss Jackson.

Athletics during the year have been limited to basketball. With Harold Roberts as coach, a full schedule was provided, and the boys were successful in winning more than half of the games played.

Early in the year a series of revival meetings was held in the church with Rev. Hubert C. Mardock as Evangelist. As has been the custom for several years past, school was adjourned to allow the student-body to attend the eleven o'clock services. The meetings were a time of spiritual refreshing to the school. Many of the students have taken advanced ground; the majority of them have been keeping their experiences and living earnest Christian lives throughout the year. Both boys and girls have held their weekly prayer meetings. The attendance and faithfulness of the boys in their prayer meetings is especially outstanding. Many of the students have been eager to go out in gospel team work whenever there was opportunity.

The baccalaureate services were held Sunday morning, May 24. Rev. Hubert C. Mardock preached the sermon from the text, Esther 4:14, "And who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

Professor Lauren Irwin, who has been giving private music lessons at the Academy this year, presented his pupils in a recital the evening of May 26th. The Senior class gave their program Thursday evening, May 28th. Four members of the class delivered their orations and the Academy quartet furnished a part of the music for the occasion.

The commencement program was held Friday Morning, May 29. Rev. Albert Parrot, pastor of the Methodist church of Caldwell, gave the address. William H. Benedict, president of the Academy Board, presented diplomas to the following eight members of the senior class: Ross McIntyre, Charles Holton, Ladean Martin, Alva Tish, Anne Settle, Marie Rhoads, Marjorie Roberts, and Hazel Ruth Tucker. Hazel is the first graduate whose parents are both members of the Greenleaf Academy Alumni.

Another year has closed and its opportunities are gone. We have tried to train the intellect, develop the talents, establish Christian faith, and thus build a full-rounded Christian character in every student. We have not succeeded in every case. We have, however, sown the seed; we have purposed to exalt the Christ Who shed His blood for our redemption. The claims of the gospel have been kept before the students in both public, chapel, and prayer meeting services as well as in private conferences. It is with boldness that we feel we can ask the blessing of the Lord on the work of the year just closed.

Respectfully submitted,

F. D. Roberts

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO PACIFIC COLLEGE

With a larger membership than we have had for several years, and a better interest, the Auxiliary has accomplished some worthwhile projects on the campus.

In cooperation with the college, we wainscoted the main hall in Wood-Mar Hall—the college furnishing the labor and the Auxiliary the material. Later we secured a landscape gardener to properly plant two hundred dollars worth of shrubbery and trees paid to the college on tuition.

This year marks the completion by the Auxiliary of twenty-five years of service to the college in which thousands of dollars have been earned and expended for the upkeep and improvement of the college buildings and campus, and substantial additions to the endowment. This anniversary was celebrated with a delightful banquet December 10, provided by the Banquet Committee.

Inspired by a great need the Auxiliary has started a fund for a new dormitory, and we hope to enlist the interest of every friend of the college in this much needed improvement.

Respectfully submitted,
Rebecca Pennington,
President.

PACIFIC COLLEGE VISITING COMMITTEE

The Pacific College Visiting Committee has kept in touch with the college activities. Those of the committee who are parents of students have visited the college several times, and all maintain an interest in the welfare of the college and students. Chris Aebischer has taken groups on deputation work several times, even making one one-hundred mile trip.

On behalf of the Committee,
Alison H. Rogers

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF PACIFIC COLLEGE FOR THE YEAR 1935-36

With the commencement exercises on Tuesday of this week, at which diplomas were awarded to the largest group ever to receive their degrees at one time, Pacific College closed a successful year, for which we are grateful to God and the human friends of the college. Especial gratitude is felt toward my fellow workers on the faculty, whose patience under difficulties, cheerfulness in the face of discouragement, and efficiency under the handicap of meager salaries, and the inevitable depression which "the depression" has brought are beyond adequate praise.

Forty-third Commencement

The forty-third commencement saw a class of fifteen graduated, with the degrees indicated:—

Violet E. Braithwaite—A. B.	Ernest E. Kaster—B. S.
Harvey J. Campbell—A. B.	Ruthanna McCracken—B. S.
Charlotte Coleman—A. B.	Maxine Mason—A. B.
Margaret Coulson—A. B.	Lera Rice—A. B.
Rex M. Hampton—B. S.	Marjorie Seely—A. B.
W. Ray Hansberry—A. B.	Ronald E. Sherk—A. B.
Virgil G. Hiatt—B. S.	Isabella Wilson—A. B.
Clayton Hicks—A. B.

The highest honors of the class, awarded on the basis of scholarship and character, went to Marjorie Seely, of Newberg, Oregon.

The Junior prize was awarded to Mary E. Collver, of Portland, Oregon.

The Wood-Mar plaque, awarded by the Senior class to the class which in their judgement had done the college the most service and furnished its best leadership, was awarded to the Sophomore class. This plaque was given by the class of 1935, and the class graduating this year was the first one to win it.

The commencement address this year was given by Dr. J. Hudson Ballard, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Portland, on the subject, "The Interpretation of Life." Paul Cammack gave the closing address to the college Christian Associations. As usual the Baccalaureate sermon was preached by the president of the college.

Faculty Changes

In addition to the changes which were forecast in the report a year ago, three other members of last year's faculty left the teaching force before the year was more than started.

Professor Alexander Hull, who had taught music in Pacific College since 1908, resigned during the summer, to accept a position in the Extension Division of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. He had been teaching voice, piano, and academic music.

For the teaching of academic music and piano, the college secured Earl Wagner, who holds degrees in music from Pacific University and Yale University. Professor Wagner began his work at the beginning of the year.

There was some delay in securing a vocal teacher, and the college year was some weeks along when Joseph A. Finley was secured for the chorus work and private vocal teaching. Mr. Finley has had long experience as vocal teacher and director of choirs, choruses, orchestras, etc.

Somewhat earlier than Professor Hull's resignation, Glenn J. Woodward, professor of chemistry, had resigned. His place was filled by the selection of Laurence F. Skene, who held a bachelor's degree from Pacific University, and a diploma from the State Normal School at Monmouth, and who took his Master of Science degree from Oregon State Agricultural College.

After the college year had begun, Marie Louise Gould, librarian since 1929, and instructor in French, was appointed to a government library position in Washington D. C. Her place was taken by Mary Lee Kirton, who took her bachelor's degree from the University of Washington, and a year later took her degree in librarianship from the same university.

So far as is known there is to be no change on the teaching force for the ensuing year.

Death of Herman O. Miles

Little more than a year ago the college authorities were rejoicing over the acceptance by Herman O. Miles of the position of financial secretary. He was getting his work in that important capacity nicely started, when, after a hard day of work for the college on Monday, December 9th, he was stricken on Tuesday morning and died Thursday morning.

The place thus left vacant by his death has not yet been filled.

Student Aid

The college has continued its policy of offering opportunities for self-help to worthy and needy students, rather than making free gifts of scholarships. During the year the college has given jobs to help toward the meeting of college expenses to 28 young men and 23 young women; it has directly helped 5 young men and three young women to jobs by means of which they could help themselves; and 15 young men and 4 young women of the student body are known to have had jobs during the year by which they supported themselves in whole or in part. This constitutes more than 65 percent of the entire student body, in addition to those who have definite work to do at home or in the businesses in which their parents engage.

Extra Curricular Activities

The usual extra-curricular activities have been carried on during the past year, and a number that have been a bit unusual.

In the realm of the physical, the customary intercollegiate and intramural sports have been engaged in, football, basketball, baseball, volley ball tennis, hiking, etc.

In addition to the usual activities in public speaking, Pacific College this year re-entered debating on a rather extensive scale, engaging in a series of debates for both men and women with four other college of the state, each much larger than Pacific College. The Pacific College men won second place in this debating tournament, while the Pacific College women won first place without the loss of a single debate.

The activities in the interest of peace, social betterment, racial harmony and international goodwill have been very extensive during the year. Perhaps the most striking thing was a house-to-house canvass of the city of Newberg in the interest of peace, though another of almost equal interest was an extensive questionnaire on the peace question conducted among the students themselves.

The college has assumed the task of seeking to maintain the social life of the institution on a basis that will be both wholesome and safe, avoiding unnecessary strictness on the one hand and a laxity which would be unsafe on the other. For the most part the students are willing to give free and unreserved cooperation to this end. Parties of various classes and other organizations as well as of the entire student body are frequent, and the college still maintains its effort to furnish an institution of higher education free from the evil influences of the dance, the use of liquor and tobacco, etc., and with a positive emphasis on scholarship, character, and Christianity.

For the Future

The maintenance of a college by so small a constituency as Friends have in the Pacific Northwest is reckoned by educational authorities as a hopeless and impossible task. And it is unless we can command a degree of loyalty far beyond that which could usually be secured. We believe that Oregon Yearly Meeting would not like to face such a situation as would be ours if Pacific College should cease to be. If this is true, then let us maintain the college, by our prayers, by sending our children as students and helping to secure other students, by our financial contributions, by our counsel, and by our devoted service as opportunity offers.

Respectfully submitted,

Respectfully submitted,
Oliver Weesner,
Treasurer of Pacific College

These reports were approved by the meeting.

69. The Pacific College Corporation submitted the following report which was accepted by the meeting:

To Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends:

At the annual meeting of the Pacific College Corporation held Friday evening, June 12, 1936, the following were chosen members of the Board of Managers of Pacific College for the regular term of three years, and their names are herewith submitted for approval:

Hervey M. Hoskins, nominated by the Alumni Association,
J. Ray Pemberton and Joseph Hollingsworth nominated by the College Board, Amanda W. Woodward and Tyra Hutchens, nominated by the Permanent Board of the Yearly Meeting.
H. M. Hoskins, Secretary.

70. The following report of the special committee appointed to consider the coordination of the church year was submitted and adopted by the Yearly Meeting:

The Committee has considered the co-ordination of the church year and also the communication from Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting referred to this Committee by the Yearly Meeting and submits the following report:

The year ends now, so far as reports are concerned, March 31. Quarterly Meetings are held on the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th seventh days of May and on the 1st seventh day after the first fifth day of June.

Quarterly Meetings usually send considerable money to the Yearly Meeting Treasurer during April, May, and June, and wish it included in the report of the Treasurer to the Yearly Meeting. The Treasurer's report is usually made about the first of June.

Yearly Meeting is held during the middle part of June.

Young Friends conferences are held during July and August.

The United Budget has been made out to cover the period from September 1 to September 1 of the following year.

The General Superintendent has been employed from September 1 to September 1 of the following year.

The Pastoral year has covered the period from September 1 to September 1 of the following year.

This arrangement has led to some confusion in the making of reports. It has often been difficult for the Superintendent to get reports from Pastors, especially where there has been a change in pastors for the period from April 1 to September 1.

There has been some complaint on account of the budget of the Yearly Meeting for fixed expenses covering the period from Yearly Meeting to the next Yearly Meeting, and the United Budget, which includes askings for the Evangelistic and Church Extension Board, the Missionary Board, and other Boards and Departments of the Yearly Meeting covering the period from September 1 to September 1 of the following year.

Some have felt that too much time elapses between the close of Yearly Meeting about the middle of June, and the beginning of the new pastoral year.

On account of the fact that the pastoral year of most Yearly Meetings begins September 1st, on account of the time of opening and closing schools, and on account of the fact that a considerable number of pastors in the Yearly Meeting find it necessary to supplement their income by work and by raising gardens, it has been considered that September 1 was the best time for beginning the pastoral year.

Upon consultation with the entertainment committee and other Friends who are acquainted with the difficulties involved in providing for the care and comfort of Friends attending Yearly Meeting, we find that it will be much more difficult to provide for this during the latter part of August than during the middle of June.

The committee therefore makes the following recommendation:

That the time for holding Yearly Meeting remain as at present;

That the period covered by reports be from May 1, to May 1 of the following year;

That the period covered by the fixed expenses of the Yearly Meeting and the period for the United Budget, including askings for the Evangelistic and Church Extension Board, Missionary Board, and other Boards and Departments of the Yearly Meeting be from Yearly Meeting to the following Yearly Meeting.

That the pastoral year begin September 1.

That the term of service of the General Superintendent begin September 1.

That meetings be advised to complete raising of fixed expenses and United Budget before May 1 of each year.

That pastors be urged to exercise greater care in getting accurate and complete reports to Quarterly Meeting and Yearly Meeting Superintendents for the period from May 1 to the time of beginning of the new pastoral year.

Submitted by the committee,

Oliver Weesner, Chairman

71. The special committee appointed by Minute 39 presented the following which became the sense of the meeting:

In response to the suggestion from Tacoma Quarterly Meeting, we propose that the Yearly Meeting record its conviction as follows, and that through our Press Committee, our Yearly Meeting and local meeting temperance workers, and other agencies, this action be given adequate publicity, and that it be sent to those in places of authority through whom action might be secured.

We again record our conviction that the use of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes is always hurtful, and that the stimulation of the traffic in intoxicants by advertising through the radio, periodicals, bill-boards, etc., is inimical to the public welfare and therefore should be forbidden by law.

We protest against the encroachment of the liquor traffic into communities that are opposed to it, in violation of promises made during the campaign for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. We are convinced that "Repeal has failed," and we call on Friends and all other lovers of humanity to increase their activity against the drinking of intoxicants as well as against their manufacture and sale. An active, aggressive, and thorough-going campaign of true education concerning the nature and effects of alcohol should be undertaken. We pledge ourselves to unswerving loyalty to the cause of individual total abstinence and the protection of humanity from the liquor traffic by every available means, personal, social, and governmental.

Levi T. Pennington, Chairman

72. The Yearly Meeting approved the following recommendation from the Evangelistic and Church Extension Board:

To Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends:

The Evangelistic and Church Extension Board calls attention to the fact that the other departments of the Yearly Meeting have committees in the Monthly Meetings to stimulate interest in their work. The Evangelistic Board has no such direct connection with the meetings; we feel that the establishment of Church Extension Committees in the Monthly Meetings would stimulate interest in our program; we therefore request the Yearly Meeting to recommend to the Monthly Meetings that they establish such committees if at all possible. It is understood that this committee would charge itself only with the program of the Yearly Meeting, and in no wise hinder the work of the Ministry and Oversight body in its program of Evangelism in the Monthly Meetings.

Oliver Weesner, President,
Marietta Lewis, Secretary.

73. The Yearly Meeting granted the request presented by the Executive Committee that the Board for Aged Ministers be allowed to take an offering for that fund, and that the Evangelistic and Church Extension Board be allowed to take offerings at the morning, afternoon, and evening services on Sunday, and throughout the year as the need arises.

74. At the inspirational hour at 11:30, "Complete in Christ" was the theme of the message of Hubert C. Mardock.

75. The Meeting then adjourned until 2:00 P. M.

SATURDAY, 2:00 P. M.

76. At the appointed hour the meeting convened and was opened with prayer.

77. The names of ministers and of other Friends deceased during the past year were read. Memorials were read for Maude H. Butler and Robert C. Smith, and tributes to the memory of others were voiced by members of the meeting. The list of those who have thus passed to their reward will be found in the Appendix.

78. The final report of the representatives was read and approved as follows:

The representatives make the following recommendations:

1. That Richard C. Kneeland be nominated to act as treasurer for the ensuing year, and that we express to him our sincere thanks for his highly efficient and conscientious service during the past year.

2. The following appropriations as fixed expenses of the Yearly Meeting for this fixed year:

That the askings of the Evangelistic and Church extension Board, and the various departments, all of which comprise the home field work and the askings for foreign missions be placed in one budget, and that the money received for such budget be divided out between the home and foreign work by the Yearly Meeting Treasurer at the fixed ratio determined by the askings of the home and foreign work. It is understood that specially designated gifts shall be applied as designated.

5. That the Yearly Meeting authorize the treasurer to borrow, if necessary, during the year, for use of the Evangelistic Board and Missionary Board, not to exceed one thousand dollars.

Walter P. Lee
Alverda Rice, Clerks

BOARD FOR AGED MINISTERS AND MISSIONARIES

79. The Board for Aged Ministers and Missionaries submitted the following report which was accepted by the meeting:

The caring for our aged ministers and missionaries is an important and serious problem.

Since this is a fairly new venture for us as a Yearly Meeting, we are still feeling around for a suitable plan. The Board has met twice this last year, and plans are being formulated for the creation of a permanent fund.

This year we have been able to give as a love offering to Anson Cox sixty dollars, and to Fredrick J. Cope, ninety-three dollars. While this has not been much, it has been a help to them that was very much appreciated.

With the larger board we are hoping that this coming year will see an increase in our ability to aid these friends.

Respectfully submitted,
Edward F. Harmon,
President

The organization of this Board will be found in the Appendix.

An offering for the Board was received amounting to $32.04 in cash and $2.50 in pledges.

80. The list of ministers of the Yearly Meeting was read and is printed in the Appendix.

HOME MISSIONS AND SOCIAL SERVICE

81. The work of the Department of Home Missions and Social Service was presented by L. Esther Hendricks, in the absence of the Superintendent of that department. The annual report was read and accepted:

REPORT OF HOME MISSIONS AND SOCIAL SERVICE FOR THE YEAR ENDING JUNE 13, 1936

Our people have conducted mission services in the cities. There have been some conversions, and many asked our prayers as they became interested in the work. Those called to mission work feel the urge to continue.

The calls on sick and needy were 2,379.
Religious services by different groups, 375.
Bibles given out numbered 23.

Other ministrations include 1,429 bouquets; 731 outings; 402 bushels of vegetables; 1686 quarts of canned goods; 881 pounds of dried fruit; 2028 garments; 40 pounds of walnuts; 9 boxes of fruit; 50 pounds of meat; 845 loaves of bread; 35 pounds of sugar; 7 cords of wood, and one ton of coal; three complete beds; 40 pieces of bedding, including quilts, comforters, and 6 pillows. Besides these, money to the value of $912.22 went for relief and $598.96 to home missionary work; Japanese Mission, Children's Farm Home, our own outpost work. Many articles of clothing and some money was given to our out going missionaries. Thirty-five Christmas baskets were distributed and one radio was given to a shut in.

Ten boxes of candy were sent to our aged members at Christmas time. Some of our people have held rummage sales, and have been able to distribute a great amount of clothing, 103 pairs of shoes and 120 of stockings. Five dollars worth of garden seed, and many bundles of clothing and boxes of food stuffs have been reported sent out to our outposts. One meeting reports the support of an Indian girl in a mission. One set of dishes was furnished.

The Yearly Meeting office in Portland was also furnished by this committee.

Our hearts are full of thanksgiving and praise, as we read the reports of work that the lay members are doing in the three states that compose our Yearly Meeting, for we know that when one is busy there is no room for any evil thing to enter in. "All things work together for good to those who love the Lord and are called according to His purpose;" so "let us be not weary in well doing, for in due season we will reap if we faint not."

Dolly A. Snow
Superintendent

Pearl Reece addressed the meeting on the need of such service and the blessing resulting from it.

Alice Hanson sang, "Why Stand Ye Here Idle."

FINANCIAL SECRETARY

82. Walter P. Lee, Financial Secretary, read his annual report which was accepted by the meeting, and follows:

Since the office of financial secretary of the Yearly Meeting is comparatively new and there were no duties outlined the present financial secretary has found it necessary to blaze his own trails.

This report is made with the realization that the office deserves better attention than it has received and with the hope that Friends will offer suggestions which will increase its efficiency.

During the year, the financial secretary has mailed three sets of notices to those who made special pledges. He has sent out three general letters to all the meetings in the Yearly Meeting. Considerable correspondence has been exchanged with the various Quarterly Meeting Treasurers and with their splendid cooperation there has been obtained an accurate record of the exact financial standing of each meeting in regard to the fixed expense and the United Budget.

The Financial Secretary has assisted in planning and presenting spiritual-financial conferences in eight meetings and one quarterly meeting, and has attended two other quarterly meetings and spoken on finances in an effort to promote better financial understanding of the situation. At the request of the program committee of the Ministerial Association, a paper entitled, "Financing the Church," was prepared for presentation to the Ministerial Conference.

A brief summary of the financial situation in the Yearly Meeting might be of interest. Of the total of $1,671.33 received for fixed expenses, $252.16 was received as payment of back fixed expense, and $1,419.07 was received to be applied on the current fixed expense. Five monthly meetings are yet in arrears on fixed expense prior to this year in the amount of $143.37, while twelve monthly meetings are in arrears on the current fixed expense, in the amount of $600.93. This is a considerable amount in arrears in view of the askings of $2,020.00. The total amount of fixed expense due the Yearly Meeting, for this and previous years is $744.30.

If the meetings that owe this money could make a supreme effort to pay up this amount it would help materially in reducing the $1,300.00 debt of the Yearly Meeting incurred because of the necessity to borrow in years past when funds failed to come in as they should.

Any apparent discrepancy between the above figures and those of the Yearly Meeting Treasurer is due to the fact that he received money due on fixed expense of previous years before we were able to establish an accurate record of the standing of the meetings.

It appears that meetings generally could take care of these financial obligations much more easily if they were met by regular monthly payments. As the Missionary Board has always assumed the responsibility for raising the missionary money, the financial secretary has turned more of his attention to the other items of the United Budget, which amounted to $2,035.00. The major portion of this amount was for the use of the Evangelistic Board in carrying on outpost work. Of the $2,035.00 asked, $1,540.81 have been paid by the meetings outside of the special offerings. Because of the shortage the men in the outposts have received only nine months salary during the year. While we should not be entirely satisfied, this is the best showing that the Yearly Meeting has made along this line in several years.

Since the amount of the United Budget mentioned above is nearly the same as the amount of fixed expense, on an average each meeting would need to assume about the same amount that it does of the fixed expense. Ten meetings have done this during the year. If all the meetings would feel their obligation to the same extent, we would not have any difficulty in paying up the salary of our men in the outposts.

The increased interest in finances is encouraging, but your prayers and financial cooperation are essential if Oregon Yearly Meeting is to carry out its program satisfactorily in the future:

Walter P. Lee
Financial Secretary

83. The Epistle Committee presented a summary of the epistles received from other Yearly Meetings. The general epistle prepared to send as a reply to these communications was read. The epistles prepared for Friends in Sweden, Paris, and Germany and for the Bolivian Friends were read also.

The Yearly Meeting approved these epistles and directed that they be signed by the Clerk and forwarded.

84. The Evangelistic and Church Extension Board reported their organization as follows:

The Evangelistic Board organized by electing:

Oliver WeesnerPresident
Herman H. MacyVice president
Marietta LewisSecretary

At a meeting of the Board, January 14, 1936, Joseph G. Reece was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Merrill M. Coffin, as a member of the Board and Portland Quarterly Meeting Superintendent.

At the same meeting, Calvin R. Choate was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Charles A. Beals, a member of the Board in Portland Quarterly Meeting: Merrill M. Coffin, and Charles A. Beals having removed from the limits of Oregon Yearly Meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Marietta Lewis, Secretary

The meeting accepted the report.

85. The Missionary Board and the Ministerial Association then reported their organization which will appear in the Appendix.

86. The following report of the Legislative Committee was read and accepted as follows:

The Legislative Committee has been widely separated during the year, and no effort has been made to have a committee meeting or to work unitedly, since we are located in three states.

As individuals, the members of the committee have sought to promote good legislation and prevent that which was harmful, especially in matters that touch moral and humanitarian issues.

Respectfully submitted,
Levi T. Pennington.

87. The Committee on Letters to Aged Friends reported thus:

Twenty letters were sent to elderly Friends:
Allen Hadley
Frederick B. Baker

This was acceptable to the Yearly Meeting.

88. The Press Committee reported as follows:

Daily reports have been sent during the Yearly Meeting to the "Oregonian," the "Journal," and the "News-Telegram" of Portland, and to the "Oregon Statesman" and the "Capital Journal" at Salem. Arrangements have been made for the furnishing of reports to the two Newberg papers, and to the various Friends periodicals after the Yearly Meeting closes.

On behalf of the Press Committee,
Levi T. Pennington

89. The Printing Committee submitted the following report which was accepted:

The Minutes of the Yearly Meeting were printed and circulated. Two new features were incorporated this year, the Directory, and the statistical reports from the Evangelistic, the Missionary and the Christian Endeavor departments included in one tabulation.

All necessary blanks have been provided.

For the Committee,
Edward Mott,
Chairman

90. The Clerks were directed to send a letter of greeting to Milo P. Elliott and his wife Olive Elliott, for many years prominent in the work of the Yearly Meeting and now detained at home on account of the serious illness of Milo P. Elliott.

91. By a rising vote the Yearly Meeting expressed their appreciation of the splendid work of the entertainment committee.

92. The meeting adjourned to meet at 7:30 P. M.

SATURDAY, 7:30 P. M.

93. The meeting met according to adjournment.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

94. The session was given over to the Oregon Friends Christian Endeavor Union. The meeting opened with a service of song and prayer, followed by a vocal solo by Eugene Coffin.

The President's annual report was read as follows:

The Christian Endeavorers of Oregon Yearly Meeting are glad to make report of their year's activities to the church which has thrown about them every influence for salvation, has backed their enterprises with prayer, interest and support, and which has preserved for them the priceless heritage of a full gospel. We young people are hopelessly in debt for the benefits Oregon Yearly Meeting has provided us.

Encouraging progress has been made in C. E. this year, but while we consider the successful activity we are brought to our knees when we realize how different some things might have been had God's will been wholly followed by everyone. We wish to present our failures as well as our victories.

There has been expansion. Five new societies were organized. Our three conferences held at American Lake, Quaker Hill, and Twin Rocks were again the beacon-lights of the year's work. We are glad we are not asked to evaluate the results of these conferences for we may say 190 knelt at our altar for help, but God alone can say, "This one received pardon for sin," and "That one stood firm in faith and life through the year since conference time." Approximately 650 were in attendance at our summer conferences. A fraternal spirit exists between conferences and found expression is the reciprocal change of delegates. Other than official delegates visited the various conferences. This convinces one of the growth in common interests and burdens among the Endeavorers.

The dormitory at Twin Rocks, while not entirely finished, can be termed "built." The new log tabernacle at Quaker Hill has been substantially started.

Banquets looking towards our three summer conferences were held in Greenleaf, Portland, Newberg, Salem, and Tacoma with 740 attending.

The ever increasing burden of administration duties has been borne admirably by those in office. The members of the Central Executive committee have sought to serve faithfully, and the president extends his thanks to them and to you as well, society executives, for C. E. service which counted for "Christ and the Church."

A portion of the summarized report of the Central Executive committee reads:

Executive meetings held	13
Miles traveled in C. E. work	35,000

The "Friendly Endeavor," with a circulation of 800 copies, is reaching more homes now than ever before. It is deplorable that some have the careless attitude, "we will read and profit by the 'Friendly Endeavor,' but we will not support it financially." This attitude necessitated the edition of a few issues with but four pages, while stacks of good material went stale on the editor's shelf.

The C. E. lesson helps have been published regularly through the twelve months. Twenty-three Societies are subscribers. Our own members write, edit, and publish the helps.

A unified program in the local societies was attempted through work on the chart. The chart point receiving most attention this year was the one concerned with evangelism. Participation in Gospel team work brought to growth many talents heretofore dormant. Calls to full-time Christian service came to some this year as the result of work on a gospel team.

A white gift Christmas was observed, the gifts going to outpost workers.

Including all moneys, the Christian Endeavor has handled nearly $3,000, but still we fail to a degree as stewards in not meeting our budget 100 percent.

The statistical report indicates no gain in the total C. E. membership.

Briefly stated, the spiritual condition of our Christian Endeavor membership as a whole gives us concern. It is becoming too common among our members to sit in a spiritual atmosphere and sing, "Not Made for the Trifling Things of Time," then to go out into the world, forget their promise to God, and fill their lives with the trifles of time and sense. It is a crushing, tragic truth that young people kneel at our church and conference altar year after year, plighting eternal love and service to Jesus Christ each time, and then because of incomplete surrender slip back into the old rut of sin again as soon as the old crowd tests their salvation. We are caused to humble ourselves and to pray God that this travesty on the true, holy, blood-bought redemption be stopped.

We do thank the Lord for the many who have been saved and sanctified and have stood clear-cut for God this year in Christian Endeavor. Despite Satan's attempt to make our conferences ineffective, they are counting more towards the salvation of our ranks than any other part of our program. May they continue to be places where youth hears, meets, and minds God.

All praise be to Christ for the visible results of our labors in Christian Endeavor. In faith we believe there have been results less open to our observation which nevertheless are of as great eternal worth as are the visible. Their review will cause rejoicing in Heaven.

We believe that the activity carried on this year by C. E. has sought to bring Glory to the "Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the World."

Respectfully submitted,
Paul Cammack,
President

101. The leaders of the Children's meetings submitted the following report which was accepted by the meeting:

Meetings for children have been held in the tent each morning from 10:00 o'clock to 11:30 A. M. There has been an average attendance of thirty-two. Lessons on the plan of salvation have been presented to the children through Bible stories, chalk talks and object lessons. Sunday morning Doris Tamplin spoke to the children. Her Indian costumes and stories were of great interest to all those listening.

It is impossible to say what has been accomplished in these few meetings. Our prayer is that the seed which has been sown in these young hearts may bring forth fruit for the Master in future days.

102. Looking back with gratitude for God's blessing and help, and forward with faith that He will be with us for greater achievements in the coming year, we adjourn to meet, in the providence of God, at Newberg, Oregon, June 9, 1937.
