GEORGE FOX BASEBALL COACH

PAT BAILEY

Head Coach

Under the leadership of Pat Bailey, who begins his seventh season as head baseball coach at George Fox, the Bruins have established themselves as one of the premier programs in the Northwest Conference, and one that is beginning to make waves even at the NCAA Division III national level.

With six straight winning records (25-16, 29-14, 25-13, 32-8, 31-10, and 22-21), Bailey has a career record of 164-82, and needs only eight more wins to becoming the winningest coach in Bruin baseball history (Pat Casey was 171-113-1 from 1988-94). His .667 winning percentage is the best of any Bruin coach, and ranks 27th among active coaches in Division III with five or more years' experience.

One of the aspects of the program Bailey takes pride in is getting his teams to improve as each season wears on. In evidence of his success, in the final 15 games in each of his six seasons at George Fox, the Bruins have gone anywhere from 11-4 to 14-1!

Bailey's teams were NWC runners-up in 1996 and 1998, champions in 1997 and 2000, and co-champions in 1999. In 2000, their first year of NCAA eligibility, the Bruins advanced to the NCAA Division III West Regional and earned the regional's No. 1 seed.

The Northwest Conference honored Bailey as its Coach of the Year in 1997 and 2000, and in 1999, he was Co-Coach of the Year with Linfield's Scott Camahan as the two rivals shared the league crown.

Many of Bailey's players have earned all-conference, all-district, all-region, and/or all-America recognition, including seven members of last year's team. In 1999, first baseman Nate Barnett became his first NAIA First Team All-American, and in 2000, staff ace Ryan Alvis was named to the NCAA Division III All-America Third Team.

Bailey took over the Bruin program immediately after guiding West Linn High School into the Oregon Class 4A state championship game. At West Linn, his teams advanced to the Class 4A state playoffs seven times, and in his final season were edged 2-1 in the 1995 state championship game.

Four times Bailey was named Three Rivers League Coach of the Year. He was at West Linn for 10 years as head baseball coach and assistant football coach. His baseball teams won five league titles and reached the Oregon semifinals in 1989, 1991, and 1995. From 1989-95, his combined record as a high school and American Legion coach was 315-105 (.750).

Prior to West Linn, Bailey taught and coached at Willamette High School in Eugene, Ore., for three years. He has worked at various baseball camps, and served as a pitching coach at the University of Portland in 1992.

Bailey is a 1974 graduate of Moscow High School in Idaho, where he played football, basketball, and was the baseball team's MVP. He earned two letters in baseball at North Idaho College in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, then two more as a starting outfielder and team captain during his senior season at the University of Idaho. He continued playing semiprofessionally until age 28.

In 1978, Bailey completed his business education degree, and earned a master of education degree in educational administration at the University of Oregon in 1983.

At George Fox, Bailey is also associate director of athletics, chair of the school's Sports Hall of Fame Committee, and a teacher in the Department of Health and Human Performance.

Bailey and his wife, Susan, live in Newberg with their children, Alex, 18, and Ann, 15.
