BRUINS ADVANCE TO "SWEET 16" WITH 71-63 WIN OVER CLU

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior center Katie Greller recorded her 10th double-double of the season and second in as many NCAA tournament games with 23 points and 13 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins past the California Lutheran University Regals 71-63 in the second round of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championships Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins' fifth straight win improves their record to 23-4 and advances them to the "Sweet Sixteen" and a sectional round Friday-Saturday, March 10-11, in Abilene, Texas. The Bruins will join host Hardin-Simmons University (26-1), McMurry University (24-4), and the University of St. Thomas (25-1). Pairings for the sectional will be announced sometime Sunday afternoon.

California Lutheran, champions of the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, finished its season at 19-7.

The game was tied late in the first half before George Fox reeled off the final six points of the period to go up 30-24 at the break. The Bruins never trailed in the second half, and stretched their lead to 10 on a pair of Greller free throws at the 14:10 mark. The lead was still 10 after a Suzanne Santos layup made it 60-50 with 4:13 to play, but the Regals reeled off seven unanswered points over the next three minutes to cut it to 60-57. The Bruins sank 11 of 12 free throws in the final 1:23, however, to hang on.

Greller, the Northwest Conference "Player of the Year", had an off-night shooting, making only 5 of 18 from the field, but nailed 13 of 15 from the line, helping the Bruins to a 25-29 (.862) night at the foul line. Free throws were the difference as the Regals out-shot the Bruins, making 25 of 59 (.424) to only 19 of 61 (.311) for George Fox, but CLU managed only 8-16 from the line (.500).

George Fox also got 10 points off the bench from Greller's sister-in-law, Tabitha Greller, and Bruins coach Scott Rueck, the NWC "Coach of the Year" for leading the Bruins to the league co-championship with Pacific Lutheran, pointed to two other bench players as big keys to the win.

"Two of our starters, Nicole Prazeau and Wendy Clark, only played six minutes combined in the first half," Rueck noted, "but Jill Barram and Suzanne Santos were huge off the bench. Jill has the most confidence in her ability of anyone on our team, and she hit two big three-pointers to get us going, and Suzanne hit a big three and drove the lane for a couple of late baskets when they were coming back at us. In fact, I'd say Santos' play was the turning point for us."

Anna Lindseth scored 16 to lead the Regals, Nicole Sanchez posted a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds, and Haley Jones added 12 points.

BRUINS ROUT CSU-MONTEREY BAY 83-45 IN POST-CHRISTMAS RETURN

SEASIDE, Calif. --- Thirteen George Fox University players played and twelve of them scored as the Bruins, in action for the first time in 18 days, routed California State University-Monterey Bay 83-45 in women's basketball Tuesday night here at the Kelp Bed.

Three starters scored in double figures for the Bruins, led by 13 from Nicole Prazeau, who was the only George Fox player to play more than half the game. She was joined by Jenny Freeman with 12 and Wendy Clark with 11. Three Bruins saw their first action of the season: Janelle Steinmetz, who had 4 points and 3 rebounds, Shelly Schultens, who scored 6 points and grabbed 3 rebounds, and Emily Ruggles, who did not score but had 3 rebounds, a steal and an assist.

George Fox jumped out to a comfortable 34-19 halftime lead by hitting .500 (15-30) from the field to only .320 (8-25) for CSU-MB. The Bruins were even hotter in the second half, making 22 of 43 for a .512 percentage and scoring 49 points. The Bruins controlled the boards 46-34, led by Tabitha Greller's 6 rebounds, and forced 27 turnovers while picking up 20 steals.

For Monterey Bay, a first-year team in Division III, Peggy Huddleston scored 16 and Chris Payne added 12, while Hollie Lees pulled down 10 rebounds.

George Fox improved to 6-1 on the season, and continues its California swing Thursday night at 7:00 p.m., visiting Holy Names College in Oakland. The Bruins next play at home on Tuesday, Jan. 4, against Western Baptist College at 6:00 p.m., prior to the men's game against Warner Pacific College.

BRUINS DROP LAST GAME OF MILLENIUM TO LADY HAWKS 60-56

OAKLAND, Calif. --- The last game of the millenium for any George Fox University athletic team turned out to be a loss as the Bruins' women's basketball team was edged out by the Holy Names College Lady Hawks 60-56 here at Tobin Gym Thursday night.

The game was a tight contest throughout, the biggest lead by either team being seven points by the Lady Hawks midway through the first half. The Bruins cut the lead to one at 29-28 at the half, and there were seven ties in the second half before Holy Names went ahead for good with 13 minutes to go.

A three-pointer by Nicole Prazeau made it a 57-56 game with less than a minute left, but the Lady Hawks hit three free throws in the last 15 seconds to ice the win.

Katie Greller, George Fox' stellar center, scored 14 points and hauled down 9 rebounds to lead the Bruins, while Prazeau finished with 11. Mikki Elftmann led the Lady Hawks with her second straight double-double, scoring 17 points with 12 rebounds, and Amina Hussein added 14 points.

The Bruins outshot the Lady Hawks .415 (22-53) to .302 (19-63), but suffered from a lack of ball control (28 turnovers to 19 for Holy Names) and not enough trips to the free throw line (4-6 while the Lady Hawks shot 16-22).

George Fox, which split on its California swing (the Bruins downed California State-Monterey Bay 83-45 on Tuesday) enters the new year with a 6-2 record, while Holy Names is now 8-9.

The Bruins play their final non-conference game Tuesday, Jan. 4, at home against Western Baptist College at 6:00 p.m., followed by the George Fox's men's team against Warner Pacific College at 8:00 p.m. The Lady Hawks host Mills College Friday, Jan. 7, at 5:30 p.m.

1999-2000 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Game # 19: George Fox University "Bruins" (15-3, NWC 8-1)
vs. Lewis & Clark College "Pioneers" (6-13, NWC 1-9)

Tuesday, February 8, 2000 - 6:00 p.m.

Pamplin Sports Center (2,200), Portland, Oregon

Coming off what coach Scott Rueck called "without a doubt, the biggest win in our five years of being in the NWC", the Bruins must be mentally prepared to play tonight against the current cellar-dwelling Pioneers or face the prospect of an upset. A surprisingly-comfortable 56-41 win Saturday at Pacific Lutheran has put the Bruins in 1st place in the league, but Rueck warns that Lewis & Clark is "a team with a lot of heart and enough talent to be in every game." Point guard Courtney Spellacy and post Rienna Gildner give the Pioneers a good inside-outside punch: Spellacy leads the league in assists while Gildner is the leading rebounder and No. 2 scorer in the NWC behind the Bruins' own Katie Greller. A win over the Pioneers would give the Bruins a new team-record 9 victories in a row.

THE LAST TIME OUT...

Feb. 5 - George Fox 72, at Pacific Lutheran 50

With a resounding 56-41 thumping of the Pacific Lutheran Lutes Saturday in Tacoma, the Bruins took sole possession of first place in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race, and are the only team in the league with one loss.

Their 1s-ever win at PLU gave the Bruins a sweep of the series and an 8-game winning streak, tying the team record.

After falling behind 4-0, the Bruins responded with 12 unanswered points and never trailed after that. They held the Lutes scoreless for 10- and 5-minute stretches in the 1st half, and led 23-13 at the half.

Tara Millet's layup to start the 2nd half got PLU within 8, but the Bruins ran off 9 of the next 11 points and kept a double-digit lead to the end. Katie Greller scored 11 of her game-high 16 points in the final 20 minutes, and Nicole Prazeau added 11 points.

The Bruins held clear advantages in all statistical categories in the surprisingly-easy victory, including a 40% shooting percentage to just 34% for the Lutes and a 40-28 edge in rebounds, led by Becky Thompson's 8.

PLU's top scorers both came off the bench, Jessica Iserman with 14 points and Jamie Keatts with 11. Millet had nine points and a game-high 12 rebounds.

BRUIN BITS

She can become the 7th player to reach 1,000 career points with 44 more. She also has 524 rebounds, good for 10th place behind Heather (Gurney) Cummins' 528 and Kristy Fleming's 533.

*** In the latest poll of Jan. 31, conducted by the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Committee, George Fox was ranked No. 4 in the West Region (1,2,3 were St. Thomas MN, St. Benedict MN, and Simpson IA) ... In the d3hoops.com Top 25 poll, the Bruins received 13 votes, good for 30th.

*** George Fox is currently 2nd in the nation in 3-pt FG per game (7.4 to 7.8 for Sewanee), 15th in free throw pct. (.720), and 22nd in 3-pt FG pct. (.357) ... Lewis & Clark's Rienna Gildner is 24th in rebounding (11.5), and Courtney Spellacy is 21st in assists (5.2).

23RD-RANKED BRUINS WIN 9TH STRAIGHT WITH 84-50 WIN AT L&C

PORTLAND, Ore. --- Enjoying their first game as an NCAA Top 25 team, the visiting George Fox University Bruins showed they deserved the honor by routing the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers 84-50 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Tuesday here at the Pamplin Sports Center.

The Bruins received 72 votes in the D3hoops.com poll, good for 23rd, apparently impressing the voters after last Saturday's 56-41 win over 21st-ranked Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma. The Bruins were almost as impressive Tuesday in recording their ninth straight win, a new team record.

After spotting the home team a 6-0 lead, the Bruins roared back with 12 unanswered points, stretched their first-half lead to as many as 18, and led 31-22 at the half. Katie Greller scored the first basket of the second half to make it 33-22, and the Bruins never led by less than double digits the rest of the way. In the final 5:19, with the bench cleared, the Bruins outscored the Pioneers an astounding 28-9.

George Fox spread the wealth around, Katie Greller and Jill Barram scoring 12 points, Melissa Heuberger 11, and Jenny Freeman and Tabitha Greller 10 each. Barram and Heuberger had career highs in points. Nicole Prazeau had a game-high 7 assists, while Becky Thompson and Barram had 6 each.

The Bruins controlled the boards 44-41, with Katie Greller getting a team-best 6. The Bruins shot .606 (20-33) from the field and .769 (10-13) from three-point range in the second half, finishing at .470 (31-66) on field goals and .516 (16-31) on threes for the game. The defense held Lewis & Clark to a .276 shooting mark (16-58), and had its fourth straight game of holding opponents to 50 points or less.

Rienna Gildner led the Pioneers with 16 points and 14 rebounds.

George Fox (16-3 overall, 9-1 in the NWC) is a half-game ahead of second-place Linfield College, while last-place Lewis & Clark (6-14, 1-10) lost for the seventh straight time. The Bruins host Willamette University and the Pioneers host Pacific University Friday, Feb. 11, both games at 6:00 p.m.

TURNOVERS AND LINFIELD'S HOT SHOOTING DOOM BRUINS 76-55

McMINNVILLE, Ore --- Too many turnovers and a red-hot night from the floor proved to be too much for George Fox University to overcome as the Bruins fell to the Linfield College Wildcats in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at Ted Wilson Gymnasium.

In the early going, it was the Bruins who had the upper hand, holding the Wildcats scoreless for over five minutes and taking a 10-0 lead. But Linfield then went into a full-court press against which the Bruins struggled, eventually turning the ball over 30 times.

Meanwhile, the Wildcats went on a tear of their own, outscoring the Bruins 10-1 to close within a point, then forged ahead to lead 28-18 with four minutes to play. It was 31-25 at the half, but Linfield went on a three-point binge and hit five in the second half to pull away. The Wildcats finished the game with a .525 percentage (32-61) from the field, while the Bruins could manage only a .371 night (23-62).

Katie Greller scored a game-high 17 and pulled down 9 rebounds, and Nicole Prazeau chipped in with 14 points for the Bruins, who fell to 7-3 overall and 0-1 in the conference.

Sarah Jensen scored 16 and Kelly Bradstreet 15 while combining to hit 14-19 from the field for the Wildcats. Summer Gaylord added 11 and Leah Moore 10 Linfield, which climbed to 7-4 overall and 2-0 in the conference.

The Bruins visit Willamette University Saturday night to play at 6:00 p.m., while Linfield is off until next Friday, when they will visit Whitman College, also at 6:00 p.m.

GRELLER LEADS BRUINS PAST LINFIELD 74-71 IN O.T.

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior center Katie Greller scored a layup with 54 seconds left in overtime to give her team the lead, then made a game-saving steal and sank two free throws with 2.1 seconds left to preserve a 74-71 win for the George Fox University Bruins over the Linfield College Wildcats in Northwest Conference women's action Saturday night here at Wheeler Sports Center.

The win avenged a 76-55 loss to the Wildcats in McMinnville back on Jan. 7, the last game the Bruins lost, and stretched their school-record winning streak to 11.

The game, played before 1,800 on Homecoming night at George Fox, was a nip-and-tuck affair the whole way, neither team holding more than a six-point lead at any time. The Bruins held a slim 39-37 lead at the half. Linfield went up 57-51 with 8:40 to play before Greller, who had only six points at the half, went to work. She had five baskets and a pair of free throws for 12 points over the remainder of the half, helping put George Fox ahead 64-62, but Sarah Jensen's jumper with 11 seconds left sent it into overtime.

Greller finished with a career-high 28 points, putting her over the 1,000-point mark with 1,017 and into 6th place all-time at George Fox. She hit 10-18 from the field and 8-10 from the line, grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds, blocked three shots and picked up a steal. Nicole Prazneau also collected a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds, Jenny Freeman scored 11 points, and Becky Thompson passed out seven assists.

Jensen led Linfield with 18 points, followed by Leah Moore with 15 and Kelly Bradstreet with 14. Bradstreet led the Wildcats with 10 rebounds, and Moore had eight assists.

The Bruins, ranked No. 23 in the D3hoops.com national poll and No. 4 in the NCAA West Region, improved to 18-3 overall and 11-1 in the conference, while the Wildcats slipped to 14-7 overall and 9-3 in the league. Both teams are back in conference action Friday, George Fox visiting Whitworth College and Linfield traveling to Pacific Lutheran University. Both games are at 6:00 p.m.

BRUINS TAKE NCAA OPENER 63-51 OVER LINFIELD

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior center Katie Greller recorded her ninth double-double of the season with 20 points and 13 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins past the Linfield College Wildcats 63-51 in the first round of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championships Wednesday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins' fourth straight win improves their record to 22-4 and advances them to the second round of the tournament, a home game Saturday, March 4, at 7:00 p.m. against California Lutheran College, a 72-66 winner on the road over the University of California-San Diego. Linfield's season comes to an end with a 17-9 record.

The first half of the game was a defensive struggle with both teams appearing to have first-time-in-the-NCAAs jitters. The Bruins shot only .304 (7-23) from the field and made 14 turnovers, while the Wildcats hit only .207 (6-29) and threw the ball away 11 times. Though Linfield never led, the half ended in a 21-21 tie.

George Fox took control of the game with a 16-4 run to start the second half, Greller and Becky Thompson contributing six points apiece in that span. With their shooting improving in the second half to a .467 mark (14-30), the Bruins maintained that lead the rest of the way, though the Wildcats did close the gap to 48-45 with 4:22 to play. But a Wendy Clark three-pointer sparked an 8-0 run over the next three minutes that gave the Bruins some breathing room and eventually the win.

Thompson added 15 points to Greller's big night and Jenny Freeman chipped in with 13. Nicole Prazeau added nine rebounds as the Bruins won the battle of the boards 44-42, and passed out five assists, as did Thompson, who moved into ninth place on the all-time assists list at GFU with 171.

Linfield's talented post duo of Sarah Jensen and Kelly Bradstreet scored 14 and 12 points respectively, with Bradstreet also recording a double-double with 10 rebounds.

"That first half, we both looked like two teams that had never been in a tournament before!" laughed a victorious Bruins coach Scott Rueck, whose career record at GFU is now 71-29. "We looked a little shake against an excellent press and had too many turnovers, plus we were getting good shots but just not knocking them down.

"At halftime, we told the team to stick to the game plan. Linfield was giving us the post, playing Katie one-on-one, and we knew if we got the ball to her, eventually some good things would happen. We did much better against their press the second half, kept up the defensive pressure on our own, and finally started scoring.

“I think we learned a lesson, too, when they cut that lead to three late in the game – if you don’t stick to your game plan and relax too much, a 12-point lead against a quality opponent like Linfield is nothing!”

Linfield coach Robyn Stewart admitted, “We got some good shots; they just didn’t go down. Defensively, we played an excellent game, but you can’t spot someone that good a 12-point lead in the second half and expect to comeback very often. We almost got it done, but they outrebounded us down the stretch, and that was the key.

“We had a great effort tonight, forcing them into some turnovers, but we didn’t always take advantage of them. Still, we’ve had a good year and have much to be proud of.

BRUINS TIE WINS RECORD, CLINCH PERCENTAGE MARK

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- Blistering the nets from three-point range, the George Fox University Bruins tied the school record for wins in a season and clinched the bestwinning percentage in team history with a 78-53 win over the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

While the Boxers fell to 11-13, 4-11 in the NWC, the Bruins improved to 20-4, 13-2 in the league. The 1987-88 and 1994-95 teams also won 20. Last year's team posted a .750 winning percentage by going 18-6, but the worst this year's team could finish, even if it lost its final regular-season game and one in the NCAA Tournament, would be 20-6 for a .769 mark. The percentage right now is .833.

The victory also enabled the Bruins to keep pace with NWC co-leader Pacific Lutheran, also 13-2, which pasted Lewis & Clark in Portland 71-35. The regular season ends Saturday, Feb. 26, with PLU at Pacific and George Fox hosting the University of Puget Sound, both games at 6:00 p.m.

The Bruins, who began the game tied with Sewanee University for the national lead in three-pointers per game (7.43), nailed 13-22 for a .591 mark. Darcey Stocking came off the bench to provide the Bruins' outside spark, hitting 4-6 from downtown and 5-8 from the field overall, plus 2-2 free throws, for a team- and career-high 16 points. Katie Greller scored 12, hitting 6-7 from the floor, and Tabitha Greller added 11 and grabbed a team-high 7 rebounds as a sub.

Pacific took an early lead when Margot Patula nailed a lay-up to put the Boxers up 5-2 with 18:07 remaining in the first, but Katie Greller, the NWC's leading scorer, quickly answered, hitting the Bruins' next 6 points to tie the contest at 11-11. However, it was Tabitha Greller, Katie's sister-in-law, who was hot in the first, hitting 10 of her 11 points then to put George Fox up 39-28 at the half. The Bruins maintained a double-digit lead the rest of the way, with Stocking would hit 2 of her 4 three-pointers in the last 2 minutes to build the lead to as much as 26 at 78-52 with 16 seconds left.

Patula led all players with 25 points and 8 boards, while Angela Edwards finished with 10.

BRUINS BLISTER NETS IN SECOND HALF FOR 57-54 UPSET OF PLU

NEWBERG, Ore --- A hot-shooting second half by the home team and a stone-cold effort by the visitors resulted in the George Fox University Bruins upsetting the 23rd-ranked Pacific Lutheran University Lutes 57-54 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

PLU, which entered the game on a six-game winning streak, went on a tear in the first half, building as much as a 13-point lead, and held a 34-25 halftime margin. But the Bruins sank 12 of 22 shots in the second half (.545), including 4 of 6 from three-point range, while the Lutes connected on only 5 of 29 (.172) and were outscored in the half 32-20.

Becky Thompson's three-point basket with 1:52 to play put the Bruins ahead for good 53-51, and she and Katie Greller each hit a pair of free throws down the stretch to offset a final three-pointer by the Lutes' Lucy Barker.

Greller finished with a game-high 20 points and grabbed 9 rebounds to lead the Bruins, who improved to 9-3 overall and 2-1 in the conference. Jill Barram added a career-high 11, including 3 for 3 from three-point range. Suzanne Santos came off the bench to contribute personal bests of 7 points, 6 rebounds, and led the Bruins defensively with 4 steals.

For PLU, now 7-4 overall and 2-1 in the conference, Tara Millet scored 18 and had 9 rebounds, Barker scored 12, and Betsy Ruud added 10. Amber Hahn led all rebounders with 10, while Betsy Franza had a game-high 5 assists.

George Fox is off until Tuesday, Jan. 18, when the Bruins will host Lewis & Clark College at 6:00 p.m. Pacific Lutheran returns home to host Willamette University Saturday, Jan. 15, also at 6:00 p.m.

BRUINS THUMP PLU 56-41 TO TAKE CHARGE OF NWC

TACOMA, Wash. --- With a resounding 56-41 thumping of the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes Saturday night here at Olson Auditorium, the George Fox University Bruins have taken over sole possession of first place in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race.

George Fox improved to 15-3 overall and 8-1 in the conference, while Pacific Lutheran dropped to 13-5 overall and 8-2 in the conference. With Linfield College have fallen at home Friday night to Whitworth College, the Bruins are now the only team in the league with only one loss. Most important, however, is the fact that the Bruins swept the two-game season series from the Lutes and thus have the tie-breaker advantage for determining the conference champion. PLU has won the last two NWC titles.

The win was the 8th straight for the Bruins, tying the team record, gave the team its first win ever over PLU in Tacoma, and ended the Lutes' 24-game conference home-court winning streak.

The Lutes took an early 4-0 lead on a pair of baskets by senior center Tara Millet, but the Bruins responded with 12 unanswered points, including a Jenny Freeman three-pointer that gave George Fox a 5-4 lead at the 15:29 mark of the first half. The Bruins never trailed after that. They held the Lutes scoreless for 10- and 5-minute stretches in the opening half, eventually building a 21-8 advantage on Darcey Stocking's three-point basket with 2:39 left in the first half. George Fox led 23-13 at the intermission, the Lutes' lowest point total for a half ever in Gil Rigell's three years as head coach.

Pacific Lutheran made several runs at the Bruins in the second half, getting as close as eight points when Millet hit a layup to start the second half. But just when the home court crowd was getting back into the game, the Bruins ran off nine of the next 11 points. Wendy Clark's three-pointer with 16:01 gave George Fox a 32-17 lead, and the Bruins never let their lead get under 10 points after that. Junior post Katie Greller was the primary reason as she scored 11 of her game-high 16 points in the final 20 minutes. Greller, who is making a strong claim on the Northwest Conference Player of the Year honors, used a variety of low post moves for the majority of those points. Sophomore wing Nicole Prazneau added 11 points.

The Bruins held clear advantages in all statistical categories in the surprisingly-easy victory, including a 40% shooting percentage to just 34% for the Lutes and a 40-28 edge in rebounds, led by Becky Thompson's 8.

Pacific Lutheran's top scorers both came off the bench, Jessica Iserman with 14 points and Jamie Keatts with 11. Millet had nine points and a game-high 12 rebounds.

George Fox returns to conference action Tuesday, Feb. 8, visiting Lewis & Clark College for a 6:00 p.m. game. Pacific Lutheran visits Whitworth College Friday, Feb. 11, also at 6:00 p.m.

BRUINS SET RECORD FOR WINS, CLAIM NWC CO-TITLE

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Overcoming their worst shooting night of the season with plenty of free throws and rebounds, the George Fox University Bruins downed the University of Puget Sound Loggers 64-47 Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center to claim a school record for wins in a season and a share of their first Northwest Conference women's basketball crown.

The Bruins' third straight victory and 14th in the last 15 games gives them a 21-4 overall record, breaking the former record of 20 wins in a season set by the 1987-88 and 1994-95 squads. With a 14-2 NWC record, George Fox tied for the league championship with Pacific Lutheran University, which squeezed out a 57-56 win at Pacific University on a free throw with five seconds left.

Puget Sound, which finished 9-16 overall and 3-13 in the conference, played an aggressive full-court defense that held the Bruins to only .314 shooting (16-51) and forced 23 turnovers. Though the Bruins led most of the game, they never could put the pesky Loggers away, and the final score was the largest margin the home team had all night.

George Fox hit 25-37 from the free throw line to only 16-23 for UPS, and outrebounded the Loggers 58-32, including 24 offensive rebounds that gave the Bruins numerous second-chance points. The Bruin defense also held UPS to a .250 shooting percentage (14-56).

Jenny Freeman led the Bruins with 14 points, Katie Greller added 12, 10 in the second half, and Nicole PrazEAU and Wendy Clark scored 11 apiece. Greller recorded her seventh double-double of the season with a game-high 12 rebounds, while Clark and Tabitha Greller also hit the boards hard with 9 caroms each.

The Loggers had no one in double figures, Julie Vanni and Allison McCurdy scoring eight each. Tina Garrett was UPS' top rebounder with six.

The Bruins now await the decisions of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Committee to see if they will receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Championship Tournament. George Fox is currently ranked third in the West Region and No. 26 in the D3hoop.com national poll.

Brackets will be announced during a televised selection show at 6:30 p.m. Pacific time Sunday night, Feb. 27, and may be seen via a C-Band downlink satellite dish, coordinates C-Band, Telstar 6, Transponder 7 (downlink frequency 3840 MHz), audio sent 6.2/6.8 mixed program, or via a small consumer DSS dish by Empire Sports (DirecTV channel 626 and Dish Network channel 432). Brackets will also be posted on the web at 6:55 Pacific time on www.ncaa.org.

BRUINS' BEST SEASON ENDS WITH 76-64 LOSS TO ST. THOMAS IN SECTIONALS

ABILENE, Tex. --- A record-setting season came to an end for the George Fox University Bruins as they dropped a 76-64 decision to the University of St. Thomas Tommies in the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Sectional here Friday evening at the Mabee Center.

The loss snapped a five-game winning streak for the 21st-ranked Bruins and leaves them at 23-5, with new school records for wins in a season (23) and a best-ever winning percentage (.821). St. Thomas, 4th-ranked in the nation, won its 25th in a row and will take a 26-1 record into the sectional finals Saturday at 7:00 p.m. (Central time) against the winner between McMurry University (24-4) and sectional host Hardin-Simmons University (26-1). The sectional champion will advance to the Final Four March 17-18 at the O'Neil Center at Western Connecticut State University in Danbury, Conn.

Opening up with guns blazing, the Tommies hit their first five shots, including three three-pointers, and six of their first seven to take a 15-2 lead four minutes into the game. Mary Thomes had 12 of those 17.

The Tommies' inside bulk enabled them to control the backboards, giving the Bruins only one shot most times down the court, and the Bruins were as cold as St. Thomas was hot. Katie Greller's two free throws were the only George Fox points until Jenny Freeman hit a jumper at the 14:41 mark, making it 17-4 at that point.

St. Thomas eventually stretched its lead to 24 at 36-12 with four minutes to go, but a three-pointer and short jumper by Nicole Prazeau and two Greller free throws cut the deficit to 36-19 at the 2:43 mark. Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference "Player of the Year" Mollie Hayden hit a 12-footer and Missy Pederson and Thomes each hit a pair of free throws to push the Tommies' lead to 42-21 at the half.

St. Thomas finished the half hitting .560 from the field (14-25) and .917 from the line (11-12), while the Bruins shot only .381 (8-21) and committed 12 turnovers.

The Bruins went on a 7-0 run five minutes into the second half to cut the Tommies' lead to 51-40 with 13:43 to play, Prazeau hitting a bucket and three free throws and Greller making a steal and a layup. A three-pointer and a free throw by Wendy Clark got the Bruins within eight at 65-57 with two minutes left, but the Tommies answered with a Hayden bucket and nine free throws down the stretch to hang on for their 25th straight win.

Greller, the Northwest Conference "Player of the Year", finished with 18 points for the Bruins, while Prazeau had 17 and Clark 11. Hayden scored a game-high 21 to lead St. Thomas, Thomes added 18, and Jennifer Ulsted and Sarah Grudnowski scored 11 each.

St. Thomas ended up shooting .511 (24-47) for the game, while George Fox improved to .418 (23-55) by game's end.

"We just didn't play with the intensity and aggressiveness we needed in the first half, especially offensively," Bruins coach Scott Rueck assessed his team's performance. "We didn't put enough pressure on them defensively, and we had too many turnovers, and that allowed them to play real loose. Then they hit their shots to start the game and that gave them a lot of confidence. Their rebounding strength killed us in the first half.

"In the second half, I thought the real George Fox team showed up and we proved we are capable of playing with anyone, but unfortunately, we were down too much. We lost to the best team we played all year.

"But nothing can take away from the fact that we had a great year, and it was a lot of fun. We exceeded everyone's expectations, and I am very proud of this team."

BRUINS BOUNCE BACK TO MAUL MISSIONARIES 68-28

WALLA WALLA, Wash. --- Bouncing back from a Friday night defeat at Whitworth College that snapped their record 11-game winning streak, the George Fox University Bruins tied a team record for fewest points allowed in a 68-28 pasting of the Whitman College Missionaries in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at the Sherwood Center.

In surrendering only 28 points, and just 10 in the first half, the Bruins tied a mark set on Jan. 30, 1993, in a 104-28 romp over Columbia Christian College. The Bruins held the Missionaries to a meager .136 shooting percentage (8-59), believed to be another all-time defensive record.

The win raised the Bruins' overall record to 19-4 and 12-2 in the conference, moving them back into a dead-even tie for first with Pacific Lutheran University, which was idle. Both teams have two conference games remaining. The Missionaries dropped to 8-15 overall and 4-10 in the league.

The Bruins, who played 13 people in the game, were led by Tabitha Greller with 14 points off the bench, including four three-pointers, and Katie Greller with 13 points. Wendy Clark corraled a team-high eight rebounds as George Fox out-rebounded Whitman 53-40.

The Missionaries had no one in double figures, Tati Gallardo scoring eight to top the team. Kim Evanger had a game-high nine rebounds.

The Bruins close out the regular season next weekend, visiting Pacific University on Friday, Feb. 25, and hosting the University of Puget Sound on Saturday, Feb. 26. The Missionaries are at Whitworth on Tuesday, Feb. 22. All games are at 6:00 p.m.

GRELLER'S DOUBLE-DOUBLE DOES IN MISSIONARIES 64-44

NEWBERG, Ore --- Katie Greller recorded her fourth double-double of the season with 22 points and 11 rebounds, pacing the George Fox University Bruins over the Whitman College Missionaries 64-44 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Greller, a junior center, hit 8 of 14 shots from the field and 6 of 6 from the free throw line, while her rebound total helped the Bruins to a 48-35 margin on the boards – and did it all in only 21 minutes of play. She was the only George Fox player in double figures as the Bruins spread the rest of the scoring wealth around among eight other players.

The Bruins struggled early, trailing 17-13 before Tabitha Greller came off the bench to hit a couple of three-pointers, sparking a run that gave George Fox a 33-25 halftime lead. The Bruins went on a 17-5 run to start the second half and stretched the lead to as much as 24 at 64-40 with two minutes left. It was the Bruins' best effort of the second defensively in terms of fewest points allowed.

Ashley Wright led the Missionaries in scoring with 8 points, all in the first half, while Sunny Gulberg and Kim Evanger had 6 rebounds apiece.

George Fox, currently ranked No.5 in the NCAA Division III West Region, improved to 11-3 overall and 4-1 in the conference with its fourth win in a row, while Whitman fell to 6-8 overall and 1-4 in the conference.

Both teams are back in action for conference games Saturday, the Bruins hosting Whitworth College and the Missionaries visiting Lewis & Clark College. Both games are at 6:00 p.m.

WHITWORTH ENDS BRUINS' WIN STREAK WITH 55-49 UPSET

SPOKANE, Wash. --- Hitting 7-10 free throws in the final 1:20, the Whitworth College Pirates held off a late charge by visiting George Fox University to defeat the Bruins 55-49 Friday night here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse, hurting the Bruins' chances of winning an outright Northwest Conference title.

George Fox's loss, combined with Pacific Lutheran's 54-46 win over Linfield, leaves the Bruins a half-game behind the Lutes in the NWC standings. PLU is 12-2, while George Fox is 11-2 and 18-4 overall. The loss also snapped a team-record 11-game winning streak for the Bruins. Whitworth, improving to 15-7 overall and 9-4 in the NWC, is tied with Linfield for third place.

The Bruins, who trailed at the half 26-19, pulled to within 48-46 on a three-point play by wing Nicole Prazeau, but Whitworth's Jennifer Bennett was fouled by Bruin post Katie Greller at the 1:20 mark and made one of two free throws. It was Greller's fifth foul.

The Bruins missed their next three shot attempts and the ball was rebounded by Whitworth each time. The Pirates made 4-6 free throws to take a seemingly-comfortable 53-46 lead, but Tabitha Greller drained a 25-foot three-pointer for George Fox to pull within 53-49 with :19 to play. Whitworth's Myra Slwooko was fouled with :12 to play and made both shots to seal the win.

Defense dominated the action as George Fox made .375 of their attempts (21-56), while Whitworth made only .290 (18-62). The Bruins were even worse at the line, hitting only 2-9 (.222) to 14-18 (.778) for Whitworth. The Pirates outrebounded the Bruins 46-40, including a 14-7 advantage on the offensive glass. Whitworth also forced 15 turnovers while committing only 10.

Jamie Wakefield led all scorers with 16 points and a team-high nine rebounds for Whitworth, while Emily Stuenkel added 13 points. With Greller in foul trouble all night, Prazeau responded with 11 points for the Bruins. Greller finished with a season-low five points and 10 rebounds.

The Bruins visit Whitman Saturday while the Pirates host Lewis & Clark, both games at 6 p.m.

FREEMAN'S OFFENSE, DEFENSE SPARK BRUINS PAST BEARCATS 67-64

SALEM, Ore --- Junior guard Jenny Freeman scored 17 points and blocked a potential game-tying three-point shot with six seconds to play, sparking the George Fox University Bruins past the Willamette University Bearcats 67-64 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at Cone Fieldhouse.

Freeman scored 14 of her game-high total in the second half, including four of her five three-pointers, as the Bruins overcame a 32-30 halftime deficit and led most of the final 20 minutes. The Bearcats hung close, however, and had a chance to tie it late in the game, but Freeman got a hand on Kelly Sorenson's three-point attempt and Katie Greller recovered the block for the Bruins.

Nicole Prazeau added 13 points and Greller and Becky Thompson scored 11 each for George Fox. Greller also pulled down a game-high 9 rebounds as the Bruins out-rebounded the Bearcats 39-27. Thompson passed out 5 assists.

For Willamette, Sorenson finished with 16 points, Tyan Sanderson scored 14, and Kim Wright added 13. Sanderson was the Bearcats' top rebounder with 8, while Katie Edmonds had 4 assists and 5 steals.

Willamette slipped to 8-3 overall and 1-1 in the conference, while George Fox is also 8-3 and 1-1. Both teams return to the court Friday, Jan. 14, the Bruins hosting defending conference champion and pre-season favorite Pacific Lutheran University and the Bearcats hosting Lewis & Clark College, both games at 6:00 p.m.

BRUINS HOLD OFF WILLAMETTE 64-55 FOR 10TH STRAIGHT WIN

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Exploding from the starting blocks with an 11-0 run, the 23rd-ranked George Fox University Bruins stretched their school-record winning streak to 10 in a row with a 64-55 win over the Willamette University Bearcats in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Katie Greller, the Bruins' stellar center, collected three field goals and a pair of free throws to spark the early run, and finished the half with 12 points in only nine minutes. The Bruins led by as many as 13 in the half, at 33-20 with just over a minute to go.

The visiting Bearcats would not go away, however, cutting the lead to two, 41-39, on a Kelly Sorenson layup with 10:53 left. But three-pointers by Melissa Heuberger, Tabitha Greller, and Jenny Freeman, and five points by Katie Greller over the next four minutes enabled the Bruins to push the lead up to a comfortable 54-43 margin.

Katie Greller finished as the game's high scorer with 22 points in 22 minutes, hitting 8-10 from the field and 6-6 from the line. Freeman added 13 points, while Nicole Prazeau grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds. Freeman and Becky Thompson had 5 assists apiece.

Sorenson scored 17 to lead the Bearcats, Heather Ludwig added 12 points with a game-high 11 rebounds, and Rosie Contri chipped in with 11 points.

The Bruins improved to 17-3 overall and 10-1 in the conference, while the Bearcats slipped to 11-9 overall and 4-7 in the league. Both teams are back in action Saturday, George Fox hosting Linfield College in its Homecoming game and Willamette hosting Pacific University in Salem. Both games are at 6:00 p.m.

GEORGE FOX WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

GRELLER TOP VOTE-GETTER ON LITTLE ALL-NORTHWEST TEAM

Katie Greller, George Fox University's standout center, has been named to the Little All-Northwest Women's Basketball First Team, tying for the top number of votes for the team.

Greller, a junior from Orange City, Iowa, collected 45 points in balloting by a panel of 29 sportswriters and sports information directors covering NAIA, NCAA II, and NCAA III teams in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Alaska, and British Columbia. Western Washington University forward Celeste Hill also received 45 votes.

Five times the Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" in 1999-2000 and an easy choice by conference coaches as "Player of the Year", Greller led the conference in scoring (16.3 ppg) and was second in field goal percentage (.534), third in rebounding (8.9 rpg), and fourth in free throw percentage (.795). Her efforts helped the Bruins to a school-record 23-5 record, a share with Pacific Lutheran University of their first NWC title with a 14-2 league mark, and a trip to the "Sweet 16" of the NCAA Division III Championships in George Fox's first year of NCAA eligibility.

Greller finished the year with the fourth-highest point total in school history (457 points), and established a new school record for best field-goal percentage with a miss, going 9-10 (.900) against Menlo (11/27/99). Her field goal percentage was second only to the record of .582 she set her freshman year, and her free throw mark was the sixth-best in a season. After three years, she stands sixth all-time at George Fox in career points (1,122), fifth in rebounds (615), first in field goal accuracy (.536), and third in free throw accuracy (.781).

Other members of the Little All-Northwest First Team include Ashley Miller, a junior forward from Seattle Pacific University; Amanda Olsen, a senior guard from Western Washington; sophomore forward Jessica Kaczowka of Simon Fraser University; and Teresa Kleindienst, a junior guard from Simon Fraser. "Coach of the Year" honors went to Carmen Dolfo of Western Washington, who guided the Vikings to a 27-4 record and the semifinals of the NCAA Division II Championships.

Team-wise, George Fox was voted the region's fifth-best team behind Western Washington (27-4), Simon Fraser (30-3), Lewis-Clark State University (28-2), and Northwest Nazarene College (28-3).

GEORGE FOX WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Overall 23-5, Northwest Conference 14-2, Home 14-1, Road 8-3, Neutral 1-1

HIGHLIGHTS:

No. 21 Bruins Fall to No. 4 St. Thomas in NCAA Sectionals George Fox Resets 12 School Marks in Record-Breaking Season

George Fox's 1999-2000 season came to a close with a 76-64 loss to No. 4-ranked University of St. Thomas in the NCAA Division III Sectional semi-final game in Abilene, Texas. St. Thomas went on to defeat host Hardin-Simmons University 68-56 to advance to the Final Four in Danbury, Connecticut. The Tommies will face Southern Maine in a national semi-final on March 17, while Washington University (Mo.) hopes to add to its 66-game winning streak against Scranton in the other match-up.

The 1999-2000 squad is definitely the best women's basketball team George Fox has ever seen. As a team, they broke 10 school records and tied one. They established new records for most wins (23), fewest losses (5), best winning pct. (.821), and longest winning streak (11). On offense, they set records for highest team season 3-point pct. (.370, 8th in the nation), most 3-pointers made and attempted in a season (213-576) and in a game (16-31 against Lewis & Clark, 2/8/00), and highest 3-pointers per game average (7.6, 2nd in the nation). Defensively, they matched a school record for fewest points allowed in a game (28 vs. Whitman, 2/19/00) and set a new record for lowest field goal pct. allowed in a game (.136 vs. Whitman, 2/19/00).

The Bruins' tear from the 3-point line is evident in the individual stats. Five of the top 12 marks for season 3-point accuracy came from the 1999-2000 squad. Reserve point guard Jill Barram (So., Salem, Ore.) established a new school record for long bomb accuracy at 48.6%. Wing Melissa Heuberger (Sr., Yamhill, Ore.) is No. 2 with a season average of 46.4%. Becky Thompson (So., Colton, Ore.) is tied fourth (.400), Tabitha Greller (Jr., Eagle, Idaho) sixth (.387), and Jenny Freeman (Jr., Tonasket, Wash.) is 11th (.355).

Center Katie Greller (Jr., Orange City, Iowa) finished the year with the fourth-highest point total in school history (457 points). She established a new school record for best field-goal pct. with a miss, going 9-10 (.900) against Menlo (11/27/99). She made 53.4% of her field goals, a mark second only to the record of 58.2% she set her freshman year. She also is No. 6 in season free throw pct. (.795). After three years, she is sixth in career points (1,122), fifth in rebounds (615), first in field goal accuracy (.536), and third in free throw accuracy (.781).

Two Bruins finished their athletic careers against St. Thomas: Wendy Clark (Sr., Bainbridge Island, Wash.) and Melissa Heuberger.

Clark, a transfer from Skagit Valley Community College a year ago, started all 28 games for the Bruins this season and led the team in blocked shots (22), was second in rebounding (5.2 rpg), and fourth in scoring average (7.3 ppg). She is seventh on the George Fox career 3-point accuracy list, hitting 31-90 (.344) from behind the arc in her two seasons with the Bruins.

Heuberger walked onto the Bruin basketball squad four years ago. She concluded her senior season with the second-highest field goal pct. (.465) and 3-point pct. (.464) on the team. Her 3-point pct. is also second all-time at George Fox.

LAST WEEK: March 10 – St. Thomas 76, George Fox 64 (in Abilene, Texas)

BRUINS' BEST SEASON ENDS WITH 76-64 LOSS TO ST. THOMAS IN SECTIONALS

ABILENE, Tex. --- A record-setting season came to an end for the George Fox University Bruins as they dropped a 76-64 decision to the University of St. Thomas Tommies in the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Sectional here Friday evening at the Mabree Center.

The loss snapped a five-game winning streak for the 21st-ranked Bruins and leaves them at 23-5, with new school records for wins in a season (23) and a best-ever winning percentage (.821). St. Thomas, 4th-ranked in the nation, won its 25th in a row and will take a 26-1 record into the sectional finals Saturday at 7:00 p.m. (Central Time) against the winner between McMurry University (24-4) and sectional host Hardin-Simmons University (26-1). The sectional champion will advance to the Final Four March 17-18 at the O'Neil Center at Western Connecticut State University in Dunbury, Conn.

Opening up with guns blazing, the Tommies hit their first five shots, including three 3-pointers, and six of their first seven to take a 15-2 lead four minutes into the game. Mary Thomes had 12 of the 17.

The Tommies' inside bulk enabled them to control the backboards, giving the Bruins only one shot most times down the court, and the Bruins were as cold as St. Thomas was hot. Katie Greller's (Jr., C, Orange City, Iowa) two free throws were the only George Fox points until Jenny Freeman (Jr., W, Tonasket, Wash.) hit a jumper at the 14:41 mark, making it 17-4 at that point.

St. Thomas eventually stretched its lead to 24 at 36-12 with four minutes to go, but a 3-pointer and short jumper by Nicole PrazEAU (So., W, Portland, Ore.) and two Greller free throws cut the deficit to 36-19 at the 2:43 mark. Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference "Player of the Year" Mollie Hayden hit a 12-footer and Missy Pederson and Thomes each hit a pair of free throws to push the Tommies' lead to 42-21 at the half.

St. Thomas finished the half hitting .560 from the field (14-25) and .917 from the line (11-12), while the Bruins shot only .381 (8-21) and committed 12 turnovers.

The Bruins went on a 7-0 run five minutes into the second half to cut the Tommies' lead to 51-40 with 13:43 to play, with PrazEAU hitting a bucket and three free throws and Greller making a steal and a layup. A 3-pointer and free throw by Wendy Clark (Sr., P, Bainbridge Island, Wash.) got the Bruins within eight at 65-57 with two minutes left, but the Tommies answered with a Hayden bucket and nine free throws down the stretch to hang on for their 25th straight win.

Greller, the Northwest Conference "Player of the Year," finished with 18 points for the Bruins, while PrazEAU had 17 and Clark 11. Hayden scored a game-high 21 to lead St. Thomas, Thomes added 18, and Jennifer Ulsted and Sarah Grudnowski scored 11 each.

St. Thomas ended up shooting .511 (24-47) for the game, while George Fox improved to .418 (23-55) by game's end.

BRUIN BITS:

***Jill Barram and Melissa Heuberger both topped assistant Coach Kerri Rueck's single season 3-pt. accuracy mark of .414, Barram with a school record .486 and Heuberger close behind at .464. What's ironic is that neither was considered a 3-point threat last season. Barram did not even attempt a 3-point shot last season, while Heuberger had made only four 3-pointers in her previous three years.

*** Sophomore point guard Becky Thompson has moved into 9th on the all-time assists chart with 178.

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State'91), the 1999-2000 Northwest Conference "Coach of the Year", is 72-30 (.706) after four seasons as a head coach, all at George Fox.

On St. Thomas: "We just didn't play with the intensity and aggressiveness we needed in the first half, especially offensively. We didn't put enough pressure on them defensively, and we had too many turnovers and that allowed them to play real loose. Then they hit their shots to start the game and that gave them a lot of confidence. Their rebounding strength killed us in the first half. In the second half, I thought the real George Fox team showed up and we proved we are capable of playing with anyone, but unfortunately, we were down too much. We lost to the best team we played all year."

On the season: "Nothing can take away from the fact that we had a great year, and it was a lot of fun. We exceeded everyone's expectations, and I am very proud of this team."

BRUINS' BEST SEASON ENDS WITH 76-64 LOSS TO ST. THOMAS IN SECTIONALS

ABILENE, Tex. --- A record-setting season came to an end for the George Fox University Bruins as they dropped a 76-64 decision to the University of St. Thomas Tommies in the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Sectional here Friday evening at the Mabee Center.

The loss snapped a five-game inning streak for the 21st-ranked Bruins and leaves them at 23-5, with new school records for wins in a season (23) and a best-ever winning percentage (.821). St. Thomas, 4th-ranked in the nation, won its 25th in a row and will take a 26-1 record into the sectional finals Saturday at 7:00 p.m. (Central time) against the winner between McMurry University (24-4) and sectional host Hardin-Simmons University (26-1). The sectional champion will advance to the Final Four March 17-18 at the O'Neil Center at Western Connecticut State University in Danbury, Conn.

Opening up with guns blazing, the Tommies hit their first five shots, including three three-pointers, and six of their first seven to take a 15-2 lead four minute into the game. Mary Thomes had 12 of those 17.

The Tommies' inside bulk enabled them to control the backboards, giving the Bruins only one shot most times down the court, and the Bruins were as cold as St. Thomas was hot. Katie Greller's two free throws were the only George Fox points until Jenny Freeman hit a jumper at the 14:41 mark, making it 17-4 at that point.

St. Thomas eventually stretched its lead to 24 at 36-12 with four minutes to go, but a three-pointer and short jumper by Nicole Prazeau and two Greller free throws cut the deficit to 36-19 at the 2:43 mark. Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference "Player of the Year" Mollie Hayden hit a 12-footer and Missy Pederson and Thomes each hit a pair of free throws to push the Tommies' lead to 42-21 at the half.

St. Thomas finished the half hitting .560 from the field (14-25) and .917 from the line (11-12), while the Bruins shot only .381 (8-21) and committed 12 turnovers.

The Bruins went on a 7-0 run five minutes into the second half to cut the Tommies' lead to 51-40 with 13:43 to play, Prazeau hitting a bucket and three free throws and Greller making a steal and a layup. A three-pointer and a free throw by Wendy Clark got the Bruins within eight at 65-57 with two minutes left, but the Tommies answered with a Hayden bucket and nine free throws down the stretch to hang on for their 25th straight win.

Greller, the Northwest Conference "Player of the Year", finished with 18 points for the Bruins, while Prazeau had 17 and Clark 11. Hayden scored a game-high 21 to lead St. Thomas, Thomes added 18, and Jennifer Ulsted and Sarah Grudnowski scored 11 each.

The Bruins now travel to Abilene, Texas, for the NCAA Div. III National Championship Tournament Sectional Round. They will face No. 4-ranked University of St. Thomas (25-1), a 64-45 winner over Pacific Lutheran last weekend in the Second Round. The Tommies are the top ranked team in the West Region heading into the Sectional Tournament. In the other sectional game, McMurry University (24-4) will face host Hardin-Simmons University (26-1) in a battle of Abilene hometown teams.

***How does George Fox match up to St. Thomas? Well, both teams feature three all-conference athletes (Greller, Prazeau, and Thompson for the Bruins, and Molly Hayden, Mary Thomes, and Missy Pederson for the Tommies). Both teams' centers were Honorable Mention All-Americans last season, and this season were named conference "Player of the Year" (Greller – GFU, Hayden – St. Thomas). In addition, both team's coaches were named conference "Coach of the Year" (Scott Rueck for George Fox, Tricia Domish for St. Thomas).

*** Center Katie Greller is 6th on the all-time GFU scoring list with 1,104 points in her three-year career, behind Liz Stephens' (1992-96) 1,197. Greller's 607 career rebounds is good enough for 6th behind '97 alum Angela Pettit's 613.

*** Sophomore point guard Becky Thompson (So., Colton, Ore.) has moved into 9th place on the all-time assists chart with 174. She needs 10 to move past Jennifer Bearse's (1985-89) 184.

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State'91), the 1999-2000 Northwest Conference "Coach of the Year", is 72-29 in his 4th season as a head coach, all at George Fox.

On Linfield: "That first half, we both looked like two teams that had never been in a tournament before! We looked a little shaky against an excellent press and had too many turnovers, plus we were getting good shots but just not knocking them down. At halftime, we told the team to stick to the game plan. Linfield was giving us the post, playing Katie one-on-one, and we knew if we got the ball to her, eventually some good things would happen. We did much better against their press the second half, kept up the defensive pressure on our own, and finally started scoring. I think we learned a lesson, too, when they cut that lead to three late in the game – if you don't stick to your game plan and relax too much, a 12-point lead against a quality opponent like Linfield is nothing!"

On Cal Lutheran: "Two of our starters, Nicole Prazeau and Wendy Clark, only played six minutes combined in the first half, but Jill Barram and Suzanne Santos were huge off the bench. Jill has the most confidence in her ability of anyone on our team, and she hit two big three-pointers to get us going, and Suzanne hit a big three and drove the lane for a couple of late baskets when they were coming back at us. In fact, I'd say Santos' play was the turning point for us."

BRUINS TAKE NCAA OPENER 63-51 OVER LINFIELD

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior center Katie Greller (Orange City, Iowa) recorded her ninth double-double of the season with 20 points and 13 rebounds, to lead the George Fox University Bruins past the Linfield College Wildcats 63-51 in the first round of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championships Wednesday night (March 1).

The first half of the game was a defensive struggle with both teams appearing to have first-time-in-the-NCAAs jitters. The Bruins shot only .304 (7-23) from the field and made 14 turnovers, while the Wildcats hit only .207 (6-29) and threw the ball away 11 times. Though Linfield never led, the half ended in a 21-21 tie.

George Fox took control of the game with a 16-4 run to start the second half, Greller and Becky Thompson (So., Colton, Ore.) contributing six points apiece in that span. With their shooting improving in the second half to a .467 mark (14-30), the Bruins maintained that lead the rest of the way, though the Wildcats did close the gap to 48-45 with 4:22 to play. But a Wendy Clark (Sr., Bainbridge Island, Wash.) three-pointer sparked an 8-0 run over the next three minutes that gave the Bruins some breathing room and eventually the win.

Thompson added 15 points to Greller's big night and Jenny Freeman (Jr., Tonasket, Wash.) chipped in with 13. Nicole Prazeau (So., Portland, Ore.) added nine rebounds as the Bruins won the battle of the boards 44-42, and passed out five assists, as did Thompson, who moved into ninth place on the all-time assists list at GFU with 171.

Linfield's talented post duo of Sarah Jensen and Kelly Bradstreet scored 14 and 12 points respectively, with Bradstreet also recording a double-double with 10 rebounds.

BRUINS ADVANCE TO "SWEET 16" WITH 71-63 WIN OVER CLU

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior center Katie Greller recorded her 10th double-double of the season and second in as many NCAA tournament games with 23 points and 13 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins past the California Lutheran University Regals 71-63 in the second round of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championships Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins' fifth straight win improves their record to 23-4 and advances them to the "Sweet Sixteen" and a sectional round Friday-Saturday, March 10-11, in Abilene, Texas. California Lutheran, champions of the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, finished its season at 19-7.

The game was tied late in the first half before George Fox reeled off the final six points of the period to go up 30-24 at the break. The Bruins never trailed in the second half, and stretched their lead to 10 on a pair of Greller free throws at the 14:10 mark. The lead was still 10 after a Suzanne Santos (Fr., Bellevue, Wash.) layup made it 60-50 with 4:13 to play, but the Regals reeled off seven unanswered points over the next three minutes to cut it to 60-57. The Bruins sank 11 of 12 free throws in the final 1:23, however, to hang on.

Greller, the Northwest Conference "Player of the Year", had an off-night shooting, making only 5 of 18 from the field, but nailed 13 of 15 from the line, helping the Bruins to a 25-29 (.862) night at the foul line. Free throws were the difference as the Regals out-shot the Bruins, making 25 of 59 (.424) to only 19 of 61 (.311) for George Fox, but CLU managed only 8-16 from the line (.500). The Bruins also got 10 points off the bench from Tabitha Greller (Jr., Eagle, Idaho).

Anna Lindseth scored 16 to lead the Regals. Nicole Sanchez posted a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds, and Haley Jones added 12 points.

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior center Katie Greller recorded her 10th double-double of the season and second in as many NCAA tournament games with 23 points and 13 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins past the California Lutheran University Regals 71-63 in the second round of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championships Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins will join host Hardin-Simmons University (26-1), McMurry University (24-4), and the University of St. Thomas (25-1). Pairings for the sectional will be announced sometime Sunday afternoon.

California Lutheran, champions of the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, finished its season at 19-7.

The game was tied late in the first half before George Fox reeled off the final six points of the period to go up 30-24 at the break. The Bruins never trailed in the second half, and stretched their lead to 10 on a pair of Greller free throws at the 14:10 mark. George Fox also got 10 points off the bench from Greller's sister-in-law, Tabitha Greller, and Bruins coach Scott Rueck, the NWC "Coach of the Year" for leading the Bruins to the league co-championship with Pacific Lutheran, pointed to two other bench players as big keys to the win.

"Two of our starters, Nicole Prazeau and Wendy Clark, only played six minutes combined in the first half," Rueck noted, "but Jill Barram and Suzanne Santos were huge off the bench. Jill has the most confidence in her ability of anyone on our team, and she hit two big three-pointers to get us going, and Suzanne hit a big three and drove the lane for a couple of late baskets when they were coming back at us. ### BRUINS TAKE NCAA OPENER 63-51 OVER LINFIELD

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior center Katie Greller recorded her ninth double-double of the season with 20 points and 13 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins past the Linfield College Wildcats 63-51 in the first round of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championships Wednesday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins' fourth straight win improves their record to 22-4 and advances them to the second round of the tournament, a home game Saturday, March 4, at 7:00 p.m. against California Lutheran College, a 72-66 winner on the road over the University of California-San Diego. Linfield's season comes to an end with a 17-9 record.

The first half of the game was a defensive struggle with both teams appearing to have first-time-in-the-NCAAs jitters. The Bruins shot only .304 (7-23) from the field and made 14 turnovers, while the Wildcats hit only .207 (6-29) and threw the ball away 11 times. Though Linfield never led, the half ended in a 21-21 tie.

George Fox took control of the game with a 16-4 run to start the second half, Greller and Becky Thompson contributing six points apiece in that span. With their shooting improving in the second half to a .467 mark (14-30), the Bruins maintained that lead the rest of the way, though the Wildcats did close the gap to 48-45 with 4:22 to play. But a Wendy Clark three-pointer sparked an 8-0 run over the next three minutes that gave the Bruins some breathing room and eventually the win.

Thompson added 15 points to Greller's big night and Jenny Freeman chipped in with 13. Nicole Prazeau added nine rebounds as the Bruins won the battle of the boards 44-42, and passed out five assists, as did Thompson, who moved into ninth place on the all-time assists list at GFU with 171.

Linfield's talented post duo of Sarah Jensen and Kelly Bradstreet scored 14 and 12 points respectively, with Bradstreet also recording a double-double with 10 rebounds.

"That first half, we both looked like two teams that had never been in a tournament before!" laughed a victorious Bruins coach Scott Rueck, whose career record at GFU is now 71-29. "We looked a little shaky against an excellent press and had too many turnovers, plus we were getting good shots but just not knocking them down.

"At halftime, we told the team to stick to the game plan. Linfield was giving us the post, playing Katie one-on-one, and we knew if we got the ball to her, eventually some good things would happen. We did much better against their press the second half, kept up the defensive pressure on our own, and finally started scoring.

"I think we learned a lesson, too, when they cut that lead to three late in the game – if you don't stick to your game plan and relax too much, a 12-point lead against a quality opponent like Linfield is nothing!"

Linfield coach Robyn Stewart admitted, "We got some good shots; they just didn't go down. Defensively, we played an excellent game, but you can't spot someone that good a 12-point lead in the second half and expect to come back very often. We almost got it done, but they out-rebounded us down the stretch, and that was the key.

"We had a great effort tonight, forcing them into some turnovers, but we didn't always take advantage of them. Still, we've had a good year and have much to be proud of."

HIGHLIGHTS:

Bruins to Host Linfield in First Round of NCAA Tournament

George Fox, PLU Northwest Conference Co-Champions

Greller Named NWC "Player of the Year", Rueck "Coach of the Year"

BRUINS TO HOST LINFIELD IN 1ST ROUND OF NCAA TOURNAMENT

In just its first year as an NCAA Division III-only member, George Fox received one of 11 at-large bids reserved for independents and non-automatic-qualifying conferences to the first round of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championship Tournament. The Bruins will host Northwest Conference rival Linfield College in a first round playoff game on Wednesday, March 1. Tip-off is set for 7:00 p.m. at the Wheeler Sports Center, with tickets available at the door, $5 for adults, $3 for students and senior citizens.

The winner of the George Fox-Linfield game will advance to the second round Saturday, March 4, against the winner of the game between California Lutheran University and the University of California-San Diego. While sites for the bracket were not announced, it is believed that George Fox would host that game should the Bruins win, while Linfield would travel should the Wildcats win.

Wednesday night's game will be broadcast live over KFOX, the George Fox campus radio station, and KLYC, Linfield's flagship station in McMinnville.

GEORGE FOX NORTHWEST CONFERENCE CO-CHAMPION WITH PLU

While George Fox downed the University of Puget Sound 64-47, Pacific Lutheran needed a Jessica Iserman free throw with five seconds remaining to beat Pacific 57-56. Both teams finished 14-2 in conference play and were crowned Northwest Conference co-champions. The title is the first ever for George Fox, who has finished at least third in each of the five seasons since joining the Northwest Conference.

The co-title is PLU's third straight.

THREE BRUINS NAMED ALL-NWC, GRELLER "PLAYER OF THE YEAR"

Three players from George Fox's Northwest Conference co-championship team were given all-conference honors in a coaches' vote on Sunday (Feb. 28). Center Katie Greller (Jr., Orange City, Iowa) repeated as a member of the All-Northwest Conference First Team and was named conference "Player of the Year." Wing Nicole PrazEAU (So., Portland, Ore.) was named to the NWC Second Team, and point guard Becky Thompson (So., Colton, Ore.) earned All-NWC Honorable Mention.

Greller, a near unanimous selection, led the conference in scoring (15.8), was second in field goal pct. (.546) fourth in rebounding (8.6), and fifth in free throw pct. (.784). It was Greller's third all-conference honor. She was named to the first team last season and to the All-NWC second team as a freshman.

BRUINS TIE WINS RECORD WITH 78-53 VICTORY OVER PACIFIC

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- Blistering the nets from three-point range, the Bruins tied the school record for wins in a season with a 78-53 win over the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference game Friday night (Feb. 25).

The win was number 20 for the Bruins, tying the 1987-88 and 1994-95 teams which also won 20.

The Bruins, who began the game tied with Sewanee University for the national lead in three-pointers per game (7.43), hit 13-22 for a .591 mark. Darcey Stocking (Fr., W, The Dalles, Ore.) came off the bench to provide the Bruins' outside spark, hitting 4-6 from downtown and 5-8 from the field overall, plus 2-2 free throws, for a team- and career-high 16 points. Katie Greller scored 12, hitting 6-7 from the floor, and Tabitha Greller (Jr., W, Eagle, Idaho) added 11 and grabbed a team-high 7 rebounds as a sub.

Pacific took an early lead when Margot Patula nailed a lay-up to put the Boxers up 5-2 with 18:07 remaining in the first, but Katie Greller, the NWC's leading scorer, quickly answered, hitting the Bruins' next 6 points to tie the contest at 11-11. However, it was Tabitha Greller, Katie's sister-in-law, who was hot in the first, hitting 10 of her 11 points then to put George Fox up 39-28 at the half. The Bruins maintained a double-digit lead the rest of the way, with Stocking hitting 2 of her 4 three-pointers in the last two minutes to build the lead to as much as 26 at 78-52 with 16 seconds left.

Patula led all players with 25 points and 8 boards, while Angela Edwards finished with 10.

BRUINS SET RECORD FOR WINS, CLAIM NWC CO-TITLE

NEWBERG, Ore. --- The Bruins overcame their worst shooting night of the season to down the University of Puget Sound Loggers 64-47 Saturday night (Feb. 27) at the Wheeler Sports Center to claim a school record for wins and a share of their first Northwest Conference women's basketball crown.

Puget Sound, which finished 9-16 overall and 3-13 in the conference, played an aggressive full-court defense that held the Bruins to only .314 shooting (16-51) and forced 23 turnovers. Though the Bruins led most of the game, they never could put the pesky Loggers away, and the final score was the largest margin the home team had all night.

George Fox hit 25-37 from the free throw line to only 16-23 for UPS, and out-rebounded the Loggers 58-32, including 24 offensive rebounds that gave the Bruins numerous second-chance points. The Bruin defense also held UPS to a .250 shooting percentage (14-56).

Jenny Freeman (Jr., W, Tonasket, Wash.) led the Bruins with 14 points, Katie Greller added 12, 10 in the second half, and Nicole PrazEAU and Wendy Clark (Sr., P, Bainbridge Island, Wash.) scored 11 apiece. Greller recorded her seventh double-double of the season with a game-high 12 rebounds, while Clark and Tabitha Greller also hit the boards hard with 9 caroms each.

The Loggers had no one in double figures, Julie Vanni and Allison McCurdy scoring eight each. Tina Garrett was UPS' top rebounder with six.

BRUIN BITS:

***Tough conference. George Fox and Linfield join two other NWC teams in the NCAA Div. III National Championship Tournament, Pacific Lutheran University hosting Whitworth College, also on Wednesday. All four were extended at-large bids, since the Northwest Conference does not get an automatic bid for its champion until the 2000-2001 season. The NWC thus received four of the 11 spots reserved for teams from non-automatic-bid conferences and independents.

***Center Katie Greller is 6th on the all-time GFU scoring list with 1,061 points in her three-year career, behind Liz Stephens' (1992-96) 1,197, and Greller's 581 career rebounds rank 6th behind 1997 alum Angela Petit's 613.

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State'91) is 70-29 in his 4th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. Against Linfield, he is 5-3 (3-1 in Newberg, 2-2 in McMinnville).

on Pacific: "I was very pleased in the way we played on Friday night. I thought we adjusted to their defensive changes very well and we found our open shooters all night. Darcey Stocking had an outstanding game from the perimeter, and Tabitha Greller did an excellent job on the boards."

on Puget Sound: "We have to give credit to UPS and their defense. They were scrappy and aggressive for the entire 40 minutes and didn't give us anything easy. Although it wasn't the prettiest game to watch, it was a great win as it helped us clinch our first conference title. I was especially happy for Melissa Heuberger and Wendy Clark who were playing in their final conference game."

on the NCAA Tournament: "We are very pleased to be invited to the tournament. I am proud of our team for playing so well during the season to merit the possibility of two home games. Linfield is obviously a very good team. We split with them during the season, losing at their place and winning at home in a very physical, close game. I expect nothing different this time. It will be a war and that is exactly what a tournament game should be. It's an exciting time for the Bruins."

TIME AND TICKET PRICES ANNOUNCED FOR BRUINS' NCAA GAME

NEWBERG, Ore. --- George Fox University's first-ever NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championship Tournament game, a match-up with Northwest Conference foe Linfield College, has been set for a 7:00 p.m. start time Wednesday, March 1, here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Tickets will be available on the day of the game at the George Fox ticket windows, which will open one hour before the tip-off. Prices are $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for students from first grade through college. Smaller children will be admitted free. Due to NCAA regulations for tournament games, all students are required to pay.

The host Bruins (21-4) and visiting Wildcats (17-8) are two of four Northwest Conference teams invited to the 50-team field in the league's first year of NCAA eligibility for all nine teams. Whitworth College (18-7) will travel to Pacific Lutheran University (19-5) Wednesday night in another first-round clash between NWC teams. No other conference in the country received as many bids as did the NWC.

The George Fox-Linfield winner will advance to the second round Saturday, March 4, against the winner of the game between California Lutheran University and the University of California-San Diego. While sites for the bracket were not announced, it is believed that George Fox would host that game should the Bruins win, while Linfield would travel should the Wildcats win. The PLU-Whitworth winner would travel to St. Paul, Minnesota, to play the University of St. Thomas, the bracket's top seed which received a first-round bye.

Full brackets for the NCAA Division III tournaments, both men and women, are available on the web at www.ncaa.org or www.d3hoops.com.

Wednesday night's game will be broadcast live over KFOX (1610 AM, 99.1 Stereo FM), the George Fox campus radio station, and KLYC (1260 AM), Linfield's flagship station in McMinnville. Anyone outside the McMinnville listening area may also catch the KLYC feed through TEAMLINE, which provides live coverage by phone for over 500 college and professional sports teams. To access TEAMLINE, dial 1-800-846-4700, ext. 9712, and charge the call to a credit card.

BRUINS TO HOST LINFIELD IN 1ST ROUND OF NCAA WOMEN'S TOURNAMENT

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Earning a berth in the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championship Tournament in their first year of eligibility, George Fox University's record-setting Bruins will host Northwest Conference rival Linfield College in the first round Wednesday, March 1.

A starting time and ticket prices for the game have not been set, but will be announced Monday after a conference between officials of the two institutions and NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Committee area representative Steve Wallo, athletic director at Lewis & Clark College.

George Fox and Linfield join two other NWC teams in the tournament, Pacific Lutheran University hosting Whitworth College, also on Wednesday. All four were extended at-large bids, as the Northwest Conference does not get an automatic bid for its champion until the 2000-2001 season. The NWC thus received four of the 11 spots reserved for teams from non-automatic-bid conferences and independents.

The Bruins posted a 21-4 overall record this year, setting new records for most wins in a season (21), best winning percentage (.840), and most consecutive wins (11). With a 14-2 league mark, the Bruins also captured their first NWC title since joining the conference in 1995, sharing the crown with PLU, which was 14-2 in the NWC and 19-5 overall.

The Linfield Wildcats tied for third in the NWC with Whitworth, both 12-4 in the conference. Linfield finished 17-8 overall, Whitworth 18-7. The Bruins and Wildcats split this year, Linfield winning 76-55 in McMinnville on Jan. 7 and the Bruins returning the favor 74-71 in overtime on Feb. 12 in Newberg.

The winner of the George Fox-Linfield game will advance to the second round Saturday, March 4, against the winner of the game between California Lutheran University and the University of California-San Diego. While sites for the bracket were not announced, it is believed that George Fox would host that game should the Bruins win, while Linfield would travel should the Wildcats win.

In the other situation involving NWC teams, the winner of the PLU-Whitworth game would travel to St. Paul, Minnesota, to play the University of St. Thomas, the bracket's top seed which received a first-round bye.

BRUINS SET RECORD FOR WINS, CLAIM NWC CO-TITLE

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Overcoming their worst shooting night of the season with plenty of free throws and rebounds, the George Fox University Bruins downed the University of Puget Sound Loggers 64-47 Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center to claim a school record for wins in a season and a share of their first Northwest Conference women's basketball crown.

The Bruins' third straight victory and 14th in the last 15 games gives them a 21-4 overall record, breaking the former record of 20 wins in a season set by the 1987-88 and 1994-95 squads. With a 14-2 NWC record, George Fox tied for the league championship with Pacific Lutheran University, which squeezed out a 57-56 win at Pacific University on a free throw with five seconds left.

Puget Sound, which finished 9-16 overall and 3-13 in the conference, played an aggressive full-court defense that held the Bruins to only .314 shooting (16-51) and forced 23 turnovers. Though the Bruins led most of the game, they never could put the pesky Loggers away, and the final score was the largest margin the home team had all night.

George Fox hit 25-37 from the free throw line to only 16-23 for UPS, and outrebounded the Loggers 58-32, including 24 offensive rebounds that gave the Bruins numerous second-chance points. The Bruin defense also held UPS to a .250 shooting percentage (14-56).

Jenny Freeman led the Bruins with 14 points, Katie Greller added 12, 10 in the second half, and Nicole Prazeau and Wendy Clark scored 11 apiece. Greller recorded her seventh double-double of the season with a game-high 12 rebounds, while Clark and Tabitha Greller also hit the boards hard with 9 caroms each.

The Loggers had no one in double figures, Julie Vanni and Allison McCurdy scoring eight each. Tina Garrett was UPS' top rebounder with six.

The Bruins now await the decisions of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Committee to see if they will receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Championship Tournament. George Fox is currently ranked third in the West Region and No. 26 in the D3hoop.com national poll.

Brackets will be announced during a televised selection show at 6:30 p.m. Pacific time Sunday night, Feb. 27, and may be seen via a C-Band downlink satellite dish, coordinates C-Band, Telstar 6, Transponder 7 (downlink frequency 3840 MHz), audio sent 6.2/6.8 mixed program, or via a small consumer DSS dish by Empire Sports (DirecTV channel 626 and Dish Network channel 432). Brackets will also be posted on the web at 6:55 Pacific time on www.ncaa.org.

BRUINS TIE WINS RECORD, CLINCH PERCENTAGE MARK

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- Blistering the nets from three-point range, the George Fox University Bruins tied the school record for wins in a season and clinched the bestwinning percentage in team history with a 78-53 win over the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

While the Boxers fell to 11-13, 4-11 in the NWC, the Bruins improved to 20-4, 13-2 in the league. The 1987-88 and 1994-95 teams also won 20. Last year's team posted a .750 winning percentage by going 18-6, but the worst this year's team could finish, even if it lost its final regular-season game and one in the NCAA Tournament, would be 20-6 for a .769 mark. The percentage right now is .833.

The victory also enabled the Bruins to keep pace with NWC co-leader Pacific Lutheran, also 13-2, which pasted Lewis & Clark in Portland 71-35. The regular season ends Saturday, Feb. 26, with PLU at Pacific and George Fox hosting the University of Puget Sound, both games at 6:00 p.m.

The Bruins, who began the game tied with Sewanee University for the national lead in three-pointers per game (7.43), nailed 13-22 for a .591 mark. Darcey Stocking came off the bench to provide the Bruins' outside spark, hitting 4-6 from downtown and 5-8 from the field overall, plus 2-2 free throws, for a team- and career-high 16 points. Katie Greller scored 12, hitting 6-7 from the floor, and Tabitha Greller added 11 and grabbed a team-high 7 rebounds as a sub.

Pacific took an early lead when Margot Patula nailed a lay-up to put the Boxers up 5-2 with 18:07 remaining in the first, but Katie Greller, the NWC's leading scorer, quickly answered, hitting the Bruins' next 6 points to tie the contest at 11-11. However, it was Tabitha Greller, Katie's sister-in-law, who was hot in the first, hitting 10 of her 11 points then to put George Fox up 39-28 at the half. The Bruins maintained a double-digit lead the rest of the way, with Stocking would hit 2 of her 4 three-pointers in the last 2 minutes to build the lead to as much as 26 at 78-52 with 16 seconds left.

Patula led all players with 25 points and 8 boards, while Angela Edwards finished with 10.

Strong outside shooting lifts Bruins by Boxers

Northwest Conference Women's Basketball
George Fox 78, Pacific 53

FOREST GROVE— The George Fox used 59 percent shooting from the three-point arc to down Pacific Friday night, 78-53, in Northwest Conference women's basketball action at the Pacific Athletic Center.

The loss drops the Boxers to 11-13 overall, 4-11 NWC. The Bruins improve to 20-4 overall, 13-2 NWC. The win ties George Fox's record for most wins in a season and nets the school record for winning percentage.

Darcey Stocking came off the bench to provide the Bruins' outside spark, hitting 4 of 6 from downtown, 5 of 8 from the field, for a team high 16 points. The Boxers were ice cold from outside, shooting only 10 percent.

Pacific's only lead came in the opening minutes of the contest, after Margot Patula (Jr. Reno, NV) nailed a lay-up to put the Boxers up 5-2 with 18:07 remaining in the first. Katie Greller, the NWC's leading scorer, quickly ended answered, hitting the Bruins' next six points to tie the contest at 11. However, it was Tabitha Greller, Katie's sister-in-law, who was hot in the first, hitting 10 of her 11 points in the first to put George Fox up 39-28 at the half.

The shots would not fall for the Boxers in the second, while the Bruins stayed hot, slowly building a 20 point lead after a Jill Barram jumper with six minutes remaining. Stocking would hit two of her four three-pointers in the last two minutes to build the final 26 point cushion.

Patula led all scorers and rebounds with 25 points and eight rebounds. Angela Edwards (Sr. Hermiston, OR) finished with 10.

Katie Greller finished with 12 points, while Tabitha Greller ended with 11.

Pacific ends the 1999-2000 campaign tomorrow night at home against Pacific Lutheran. George Fox finishes the regular season by hosting Puget Sound.

1999-2000 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Game # 24: George Fox University "Bruins" (19-4, NWC 12-2)
vs. Pacific University "Boxers" (11-12, 4-10 NWC )

Friday, February 25, 2000 - 6:00 p.m.

Pacific Athletic Center (2,000), Forest Grove, Oregon

The Bruins close out the regular season this weekend with tonight's game at Pacific and a home game Saturday vs. Puget Sound, needing wins in both to assure them of at least a tie for their first NWC title. Co-leader Pacific Lutheran ends its season with road games at Lewis & Clark and Pacific. Since there is no NWC tournament and no need to use a tiebreaker, GFU and PLU would be declared co-champs should the two tie. Both GFU and PLU are hopeful of at-large bids to the NCAA Tournament, brackets which will be announced Sunday at 6:30 p.m. Pacific time. The Bruins will try to stretch their winning streak vs. Pacific to 8 behind the stellar play of center Katie Greller, a 5-time NWC Player of the Week, and equal the school record for wins in a season with 20, also achieved by the '88 and '95 teams. One more win would also guarantee a new record winning percentage; last year's .750 (18-6) was the best.

WHITWORTH ENDS BRUINS' WIN STREAK WITH 55-49 UPSET

SPOKANE, Wash. --- Hitting 7-10 free throws in the final 1:20, the Whitworth College Pirates held off a late charge by visiting George Fox University to defeat the Bruins 55-49 Friday night here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse, hurting the Bruins' chances of winning an outright Northwest Conference title.

George Fox's loss, combined with Pacific Lutheran's 54-46 win over Linfield, leaves the Bruins a half-game behind the Lutes in the NWC standings. PLU is 12-2, while George Fox is 11-2 and 18-4 overall. The loss also snapped a team-record 11-game winning streak for the Bruins. Whitworth, improving to 15-7 overall and 9-4 in the NWC, is tied with Linfield for third place.

The Bruins, who trailed at the half 26-19, pulled to within 48-46 on a three-point play by wing Nicole Prazeau, but Whitworth's Jennifer Bennett was fouled by Bruin post Katie Greller at the 1:20 mark and made one of two free throws. It was Greller's fifth foul.

The Bruins missed their next three shot attempts and the ball was rebounded by Whitworth each time. The Pirates made 4-6 free throws to take a seemingly-comfortable 53-46 lead, but Tabitha Greller drained a 25-foot three-pointer for George Fox to pull within 53-49 with :19 to play. Whitworth's Myra Slwooko was fouled with :12 to play and made both shots to seal the win.

Defense dominated the action as George Fox made .375 of their attempts (21-56), while Whitworth made only .290 (18-62). The Bruins were even worse at the line, hitting only 2-9 (.222) to 14-18 (.778) for Whitworth. The Pirates outrebounded the Bruins 46-40, including a 14-7 advantage on the offensive glass. Whitworth also forced 15 turnovers while committing only 10.

Jamie Wakefield led all scorers with 16 points and a team-high nine rebounds for Whitworth, while Emily Stuenkel added 13 points. With Greller in foul trouble all night, Prazeau responded with 11 points for the Bruins. Greller finished with a season-low five points and 10 rebounds.

Whitworth Women Knock Off George Fox 55-49

Spokane, WA -- Whitworth College held off a late charge by visiting George Fox University to defeat the Bruins 55-49, hurting the Bruins chances of winning an outright Northwest Conference title.

The Pirates were 7/10 from the free throw line in the final 1:20 as the Bruins fouled the Pirates attempting to claw their way back into the game.

After George Fox pulled to within 48-46 on a three-point play by wing Nicole Prazeau, Whitworth's Jennifer Bennett was fouled by Bruin post Katie Greller. It was Greller's fifth foul and it came with 1:20 remaining. Bennett made one of two free throws.

The Bruins missed their next three shot attempts and the ball was rebounded by Whitworth each time. The Pirates made 4/6 free throws, the final two coming from point guard Emily Stuenkel with :23 to play that gave Whitworth a seemingly comfortable 53-46 lead.

But Tabitha Greller drained a 25-foot three-pointer for George Fox to pull within 53-49 with :19 to play. Whitworth's Myra Slwooko was fouled with :12 to play and made both shots to seal the win.

Neither team shot well and defenses dominated the action. George Fox made 37.5% of their attempts (21/56), while Whitworth made only 29% (18/62). But the Pirates outrebounded the Bruins 46-40, including a 14-7 advantage on the offensive glass. And Whitworth also forced 15 turnovers, while committing only 10.

Jamie Wakefield led all scorers with 16 points and finished with a team-high nine rebounds for Whitworth. Stuenkel added 13 points and seven boards.

With Greller in foul trouble all night, Prazeau responded with 11 points (9 in the second half) for the Bruins. Greller, a top candidate for NWC player of the year, finished with five points and 10 rebounds.

George Fox's loss, combined with Pacific Lutheran's win over Linfield tonight, leaves the Bruins a half a game behind the Lutes in the NWC standings. PLU is 12-2, while George Fox is 11-2 (18-4 overall). Whitworth improves to 15-7 overall and 9-4 in the NWC. The Pirates are tied with Linfield for third place in the NWC.

BRUINS HOLD OFF WILLAMETTE 64-55 FOR 10TH STRAIGHT WIN

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Exploding from the starting blocks with an 11-0 run, the 23rd-ranked George Fox University Bruins stretched their school-record winning streak to 10 in a row with a 64-55 win over the Willamette University Bearcats in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Katie Greller, the Bruins' stellar center, collected three field goals and a pair of free throws to spark the early run, and finished the half with 12 points in only nine minutes. The Bruins led by as many as 13 in the half, at 33-20 with just over a minute to go.

The visiting Bearcats would not go away, however, cutting the lead to two, 41-39, on a Kelly Sorenson layup with 10:53 left. But three-pointers by Melissa Heuberger, Tabitha Greller, and Jenny Freeman, and five points by Katie Greller over the next four minutes enabled the Bruins to push the lead up to a comfortable 54-43 margin.

Katie Greller finished as the game's high scorer with 22 points in 22 minutes, hitting 8-10 from the field and 6-6 from the line. Freeman added 13 points, while Nicole Prazeau grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds. Freeman and Becky Thompson had 5 assists apiece.

Sorenson scored 17 to lead the Bearcats, Heather Ludwig added 12 points with a game-high 11 rebounds, and Rosie Contri chipped in with 11 points.

The Bruins improved to 17-3 overall and 10-1 in the conference, while the Bearcats slipped to 11-9 overall and 4-7 in the league. Both teams are back in action Saturday, George Fox hosting Linfield College in its Homecoming game and Willamette hosting Pacific University in Salem. Both games are at 6:00 p.m.

1999-2000 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Game # 19: George Fox University "Bruins" (15-3, NWC 8-1)
vs. Lewis & Clark College "Pioneers" (6-13, NWC 1-9)

Tuesday, February 8, 2000 - 6:00 p.m.

Pamplin Sports Center (2,200), Portland, Oregon

Coming off what coach Scott Rueck called "without a doubt, the biggest win in our five years of being in the NWC", the Bruins must be mentally prepared to play tonight against the current cellar-dwelling Pioneers or face the prospect of an upset. A surprisingly-comfortable 56-41 win Saturday at Pacific Lutheran has put the Bruins in 1st place in the league, but Rueck warns that Lewis & Clark is "a team with a lot of heart and enough talent to be in every game." Point guard Courtney Spellacy and post Rienna Gildner give the Pioneers a good inside-outside punch: Spellacy leads the league in assists while Gildner is the leading rebounder and No. 2 scorer in the NWC behind the Bruins' own Katie Greller. A win over the Pioneers would give the Bruins a new team-record 9 victories in a row.

THE LAST TIME OUT...

Feb. 5 - George Fox 72, at Pacific Lutheran 50

With a resounding 56-41 thumping of the Pacific Lutheran Lutes Saturday in Tacoma, the Bruins took sole possession of first place in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race, and are the only team in the league with one loss.

Their 1s-ever win at PLU gave the Bruins a sweep of the series and an 8-game winning streak, tying the team record.

After falling behind 4-0, the Bruins responded with 12 unanswered points and never trailed after that. They held the Lutes scoreless for 10- and 5-minute stretches in the 1st half, and led 23-13 at the half.

Tara Millet's layup to start the 2nd half got PLU within 8, but the Bruins ran off 9 of the next 11 points and kept a double-digit lead to the end. Katie Greller scored 11 of her game-high 16 points in the final 20 minutes, and Nicole Prazeau added 11 points.

The Bruins held clear advantages in all statistical categories in the surprisingly-easy victory, including a 40% shooting percentage to just 34% for the Lutes and a 40-28 edge in rebounds, led by Becky Thompson's 8.

PLU's top scorers both came off the bench, Jessica Iserman with 14 points and Jamie Keatts with 11. Millet had nine points and a game-high 12 rebounds.

GEORGE FOX WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Overall 15-3, Northwest Conference 8-1, Home 9-1, Road 5-2, Neutral 1-0

HIGHLIGHTS:

56-41 Win Over No. 23 PLU Gives Bruins NWC Lead George Fox Matches Win Streak Record with 8 Straight

George Fox improved to 15-3 overall and 8-1 in the conference with a convincing 56-41 win over Pacific Lutheran University on Saturday (Feb. 5). It marked the first time the Bruins had ever beaten PLU in Tacoma. The loss dropped PLU to 13-5 overall and 8-2 in the conference, and ended the Lutes' 24-game conference home-court winning streak.

With Whitworth pulling off an upset win over Linfield College in McMinnville on Friday (Feb. 4), the Bruins move to the top of the NWC standings as the only team in the league with one loss. Most important, however, is that the Bruins swept the two-game season series from the Lutes and thus have the tie-breaker advantage for determining the conference champion. PLU has won the last two NWC titles.

The win over Pacific Lutheran was the 8th straight for the Bruins, tying the team record. The streak matches the accomplishments of four other George Fox teams: 1998-99 (1/29-2/26), 1997-98 (1/29-2/12), 1994-95 (1/6-1/21), and 1987-88 (2/16-3/1).

BRUINS THUMP PLU 56-41 TO TAKE CHARGE OF NWC

TACOMA, Wash. --- With a resounding 56-41 thumping of the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes Saturday night (Feb. 5) at Olson Auditorium, the George Fox University Bruins have taken over sole possession of first place in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race.

The Lutes took an early 4-0 lead on a pair of baskets by Tara Millet, but the Bruins responded with 12 unanswered points, including a Jenny Freeman three-pointer that gave George Fox a 5-4 lead at the 15:29 mark of the first half. The Bruins never trailed after that. They held the Lutes scoreless for 10- and 5-minute stretches in the opening half, eventually building a 21-8 advantage on Darcey Stocking's (Fr., W, The Dalles, Ore.) three-point basket with 2:39 left in the first half. George Fox led 23-13 at the intermission, the Lutes' lowest point total for a half in Gil Rigell's three years as head coach.

Pacific Lutheran made several runs at the Bruins in the second half, getting as close as eight points when Millet hit a layup to start the second half. But just when the home court crowd was getting back into the game, the Bruins ran off nine of the next 11 points. Wendy Clark's (Sr., P, Bainbridge Island, Wash.) three-pointer with 16:01 gave George Fox a 32-17 lead, and the Bruins never let their lead get under 10 points after that. Junior post Katie Greller (Sr., Orange City, Iowa) was the primary reason as she scored 11 of her game-high 16 points in the final 20 minutes. Greller, who is making a strong claim on the Northwest Conference Player of the Year honors, used a variety of low post moves for the majority of those points. Sophomore wing Nicole Prazeau (So., Portland, Ore.) added 11 points.

The Bruins held clear advantages in all statistical categories in the surprisingly easy victory, including a 40% shooting percentage to just 34% for the Lutes and a 40-28 edge in rebounds, led by Becky Thompson's (So., Colton, Ore.) 8.

BRUIN BITS:

*** Not only was the Bruins' 56-41 win over PLU the first time they had won in Tacoma, it also was the lowest score George Fox has allowed since Jan. 10, 1998, when the Bruins beat Lewis & Clark 62-33.

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State'91) is 64-28 in his 4th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. Vs. this week's opponents, he is 7-0 vs. Lewis & Clark (4-0 in Newberg, 3-0 in Portland), 6-1 vs. Willamette (3-0 in Newberg, 3-1 in Salem), and 4-3 vs. Linfield (2-1 in Newberg, 2-2 in McMinnville):

On PLU: "This was, without a doubt, the biggest win in our five years of being in the NWC. I was happy that we won, but I was happier in the way we won. This team is starting to understand how good they can be and played their best game of the season in a place that we have had zero success. We got them down early and responded to every run they made with a basket. It was easily our best defensive game of the year and offensively we played a very smart game keeping control of the tempo. We had outstanding performances by everyone. Our point guards controlled the tempo, our posts controlled the paint, and our wings held the PLU starting wings scoreless. This was a perfect way to start the second half of the conference schedule."

On Lewis and Clark: "LC has struggled in the win column but they are a team with a lot of heart and enough talent to be in every game. Their point guard, Courtney Spellacy, is playing very well and they are having good production from their posts. We will need to be very focused and play well on Tuesday."

On Willamette: "Willamette gave us all we could handle at their place earlier this season. They have two posts who are having great seasons, one of the top wings in the conference, and they are very deep. We will have to do a better job of getting to their three-point shooters. It should be another very tough game."

On Linfield: "There won't be a lack of motivation on Saturday night. Linfield beat us easily at their place in our first conference game. They play with a lot of emotion and they have a lot of talent. We will need to handle the ball much better this week than we did in our first game, and do our best to slow down their two posts on the inside. It may be the game of the season."

BRUINS THUMP PLU 56-41 TO TAKE CHARGE OF NWC

TACOMA, Wash. --- With a resounding 56-41 thumping of the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes Saturday night here at Olson Auditorium, the George Fox University Bruins have taken over sole possession of first place in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race.

George Fox improved to 15-3 overall and 8-1 in the conference, while Pacific Lutheran dropped to 13-5 overall and 8-2 in the conference. With Linfield College have fallen at home Friday night to Whitworth College, the Bruins are now the only team in the league with only one loss. Most important, however, is the fact that the Bruins swept the two-game season series from the Lutes and thus have the tie-breaker advantage for determining the conference champion. PLU has won the last two NWC titles.

The win was the 8th straight for the Bruins, tying the team record, gave the team its first win ever over PLU in Tacoma, and ended the Lutes' 24-game conference home-court winning streak.

The Lutes took an early 4-0 lead on a pair of baskets by senior center Tara Millet, but the Bruins responded with 12 unanswered points, including a Jenny Freeman three-pointer that gave George Fox a 5-4 lead at the 15:29 mark of the first half. The Bruins never trailed after that. They held the Lutes scoreless for 10- and 5-minute stretches in the opening half, eventually building a 21-8 advantage on Darcey Stocking's three-point basket with 2:39 left in the first half. George Fox led 23-13 at the intermission, the Lutes' lowest point total for a half ever in Gil Rigell's three years as head coach.

Pacific Lutheran made several runs at the Bruins in the second half, getting as close as eight points when Millet hit a layup to start the second half. But just when the home court crowd was getting back into the game, the Bruins ran off nine of the next 11 points. Wendy Clark's three-pointer with 16:01 gave George Fox a 32-17 lead, and the Bruins never let their lead get under 10 points after that. Junior post Katie Greller was the primary reason as she scored 11 of her game-high 16 points in the final 20 minutes. Greller, who is making a strong claim on the Northwest Conference Player of the Year honors, used a variety of low post moves for the majority of those points. Sophomore wing Nicole Prazneau added 11 points.

The Bruins held clear advantages in all statistical categories in the surprisingly-easy victory, including a 40% shooting percentage to just 34% for the Lutes and a 40-28 edge in rebounds, led by Becky Thompson's 8.

Pacific Lutheran's top scorers both came off the bench, Jessica Iserman with 14 points and Jamie Keatts with 11. Millet had nine points and a game-high 12 rebounds.

George Fox returns to conference action Tuesday, Feb. 8, visiting Lewis & Clark College for a 6:00 p.m. game. Pacific Lutheran visits Whitworth College Friday, Feb. 11, also at 6:00 p.m.

GEORGE FOX THUMPS PLU, 56-41, TAKES CHARGE IN NWC

PARKLAND, WA – George Fox assumed leadership of the Northwest Conference women's basketball race with a resounding 56-41 thumping of Pacific Lutheran on Saturday night at PLU's Olson Auditorium.

George Fox improves to 15-3 overall and to 8-1 in the conference, while Pacific Lutheran drops to 13-5 overall and 8-2 in the conference. More important, however, is the fact that the Bruins swept the two-game season series from the Lutes and thus have the tie-breaker advantage for determining the conference champion. Pacific Lutheran has won each of the last two Northwest Conference titles, but faces an uphill road in its final six NWC games if it hopes to make it three in a row.

The George Fox win ended Pacific Lutheran's 24-game Northwest Conference home court winning streak. The last time a PLU team lost in Olson Auditorium to a conference opponent was Feb. 18, 1997, when Puget Sound recorded a 71-58 victory.

The Lutes took an early 4-0 lead on a pair of baskets by senior center Tara Millet. The Bruins responded with 12 unanswered points, including a Jenny Freeman three-pointer that gave George Fox a 5-4 lead at the 15:29 mark of the first half. The Bruins never trailed after that. They held the Lutes scoreless for 10- and 5-minute stretches in the opening half, eventually building a 21-8 advantage on Darcey Stocking's three-point basket with 2:39 left in the first half.

George Fox led 23-13 at the intermission. The Lutes' point total, which came on horrendous 6-of-25 shooting, was the lowest by a PLU team in Gil Rigell's three years as head coach.

Pacific Lutheran made several runs at the Bruins in the second half, and got as close as eight points when Millet hit a layup to start the second half. But just when the home court crowd was getting back into the game, the Bruins ran off nine of the next 11 points. Wendy Clark's three-pointer with 16:01 gave George Fox a 32-17 lead, and the Bruins never let their lead get under 10 points after that. Junior post Katie Greller was the primary reason as she scored 11 of her game-high 16 points in the final 20 minutes. Greller, who is making a strong claim on the Northwest Conference Player of the Year honors, used a variety of low post moves for the majority of those points.

The Bruins not only won the battle on the scoreboard, they held clear advantages in all statistical categories. They shot 40 percent to just 34 for the Lutes and also dominated the rebounding to the tune of 40 boards to just 28 for Pacific Lutheran. The Lutes managed just three offensive rebounds in the entire game as Becky Thompson, Nicole Prazneau and Wendy Clark combined for 22 rebounds, 18 of them defensive.

Pacific Lutheran's top scorers both came off the bench. Jessica Iserman had 14 points and Jamie Keatts added 11. Millet had nine points and a game-high 12 rebounds.

Wendy Clark (Sr., P, Bainbridge Island, Wash.) scored 12 points, hitting 5-9 from the field, and Nicole Prazeau (So., W, Portland, Ore.) added 11 to carry the brunt of the Bruins' scoring while Greller was out. ### SCOTT SAYS: (Comments from Coach Scott Rueck):

on Puget Sound:

"We battled through a little adversity and won what I think everyone would call an ugly game. Katie Greller played 15 minutes due to foul trouble and UPS did a nice job defensively. We didn't adjust to their defensive scheme as soon as I would have hoped but we still are a fairly young team. It was another learning experience for us."

on Pacific:

"I was very pleased with our first half effort. I thought we came out aggressive on both ends of the floor which is what we've been focusing on. We got to play a lot of people and everyone contributed with a solid performance. Katie had a very strong night for us inside and that opened up the perimeter for our guards."

on the first half of the conference schedule:

"After a very disappointing performance to open conference at Linfield I thought that we really stepped up with some great play. Huge wins against PLU, Willamette and Whitworth have allowed us to challenge for the conference title in the second half of the season. We've put ourselves in a great position."

on PLU:

"If we want to win the conference, Saturday's game is practically a must win. We beat PLU at home playing 20 great minutes of basketball and 20 very average minutes. That will definitely not be good enough in Tacoma. We will again need our best effort of the season. I have no doubt that our team is capable of winning this game...it should be a great night."

BRUINS WIN SEVENTH STRAIGHT 72-50 OVER PACIFIC

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Katie Greller tied her career high with 26 points and grabbed 13 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins to a 72-50 win over the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The victory was the seventh straight for the Bruins, one short of the team record, and raised their record to 14-3 overall and 7-1 in the conference. Pacific, losing its third in a row, dropped to 8-9 overall and 2-7 in the league.

The Bruins used a 17-0 run over a four-minute span late in the first half to spring from a slim 18-15 lead to a 35-15 margin, and led 40-21 at the half. The Boxers got no closer than 16 the second half.

Joining Greller in double figures for the Bruins were Nicole Prazeau and Jenny Freeman with 10 each. Prazeau added 8 rebounds as the Bruins enjoyed a 43-37 margin on the boards, while Wendy Clark and Becky Thompson had 4 assists apiece.

Margot Patula led the Boxers with 19 points and 8 rebounds, while Lesley Upham chipped in with 13 points. Angela Edwards and Amelia Kelsay had 4 assists for Pacific.

George Fox returns to action Saturday, Feb. 5, visiting defending conference champion Pacific Lutheran University for a 6:00 p.m. contest. Pacific goes home to host Whitman College Friday, Feb. 4, at 6:00 p.m. in Forest Grove.

Women's Basketball vs. George Fox University
Memorial Fieldhouse • January 28, 2000
NORTHWEST CONFERENCE BASKETBALL

Loggers Lose NWC Contest To George Fox University

The University of Puget Sound women's basketball team held the Bruins of George Fox down but couldn't stop them losing 58-47 in a Friday night Northwest Conference contest at Memorial Fieldhouse in Tacoma.

The Bruins are the second-leading scoring team in the NWC at 70.4 points per game but a strong Logger defense kept the game within reach. Costly turnovers gave the Bruins a comfortable 32-22 halftime advantage as Puget Sound was unable to convert off their defensive pressure shooting just 29% for the game. The Loggers held the league's second leading scorer Katie Greller to just 11 points and 4 rebounds but no one for the Loggers hit in double figures although eight different players scored. Melissa Heuberger had 12 for the Bruins and Wendy Clark 11 points. Puget Sound finished with 24 turnovers and the Bruins 23 as the physical contest. The Bruins hit on 22-58 for the game (38%). The Loggers Courtney Leybold had 9 points and Julie Vanni 8 points.

Puget Sound will host Linfield College on Saturday night in another NWC game. The Loggers drop to 7-8 overall and 1-5 in league action. George Fox stays in the hunt for the conference title at 6-1 and 13-1

GRELLER WINS NWC "PLAYER OF THE WEEK" -- AGAIN!

It's not a broken record, although it sounds like one: Katie Greller (Jr., C, Orange City, Iowa) was named Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for the second week in a row and fourth time all season. In leading the Bruins to a 3-0 week, Greller scored 47 points (15.7 ppg) and had 23 rebounds (7.7 rpg), all while playing only 51 minutes (17 mpg)! After scoring 8 points in 12 minutes in an 81-63 win over Lewis & Clark, she scored 22 with 11 boards in a 64-44 win over Whitman and had 17 points with 9 rebounds in a 64-61 win over Whitworth. Her two free throws with 40 seconds left put the Bruins ahead for good in the Whitworth game. For the week, she hit 16-29 (.552) from the field and 15-15 (1.000) on free throws, with one assist and one steal. She was also honored as "Player of the Week" on Nov. 28, Dec. 5, and Jan. 16.

SCOTT SAYS: (Comments from Scott Rueck, 61-28 in his 4th season as a head coach, all at GFU):

on Lewis and Clark: "We had some people really step up their game against Lewis and Clark. I felt we came out a little flat and then Tabitha Greller and Wendy Clark took over. Overall I felt our defense was very good for the last 30 minutes of the game."

on Whitman: "Whitman is a challenging team to match up with because of their guard-oriented attack. They have four guards that are interchangeable and that is tough to guard. Katie Greller really stepped up in the second half and set the tone for the rest of the game."

on Whitworth: "Whitworth has a very good team. I am always impressed with how they play on the road. They are composed and aggressive. They were the aggressive team in the first half and the scoreboard showed that. In the second half I felt that we matched their intensity and exceeded it at times. This was a classic game with 12 lead changes in the second half alone. I was very proud of our team effort."

on Puget Sound: "Compared to the Puget Sound teams we are accustomed to, this team's record is different. To me that doesn't matter. They have one of the best players in the conference in Julie Vanni and the best three-point shooter in the conference in Erin Peterson. We have never won in their gym. We will need to play an outstanding game to win up there because they always play with so much heart."

on Pacific: "Pacific is 8-6 and has had a successful season so far. They are a team that is disciplined and very solid defensively. Angela Edwards is back after a year of injuries and she is one of the best three-point shooters in the conference. We will have our hands full Saturday night."

GRELLER'S DOUBLE-DOUBLE DOES IN MISSIONARIES 64-44

NEWBERG, Ore --- Katie Greller recorded her fourth double-double of the season with 22 points and 11 rebounds, pacing the George Fox University Bruins over the Whitman College Missionaries 64-44 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Greller, a junior center, hit 8 of 14 shots from the field and 6 of 6 from the free throw line, while her rebound total helped the Bruins to a 48-35 margin on the boards – and did it all in only 21 minutes of play. She was the only George Fox player in double figures as the Bruins spread the rest of the scoring wealth around among eight other players.

The Bruins struggled early, trailing 17-13 before Tabitha Greller came off the bench to hit a couple of three-pointers, sparking a run that gave George Fox a 33-25 halftime lead. The Bruins went on a 17-5 run to start the second half and stretched the lead to as much as 24 at 64-40 with two minutes left. It was the Bruins' best effort of the second defensively in terms of fewest points allowed.

Ashley Wright led the Missionaries in scoring with 8 points, all in the first half, while Sunny Gulberg and Kim Evanger had 6 rebounds apiece.

George Fox, currently ranked No. 5 in the NCAA Division III West Region, improved to 11-3 overall and 4-1 in the conference with its fourth win in a row, while Whitman fell to 6-8 overall and 1-4 in the conference.

Both teams are back in action for conference games Saturday, the Bruins hosting Whitworth College and the Missionaries visiting Lewis & Clark College. Both games are at 6:00 p.m.

BRUINS BLISTER NETS IN SECOND HALF FOR 57-54 UPSET OF PLU

NEWBERG, Ore --- A hot-shooting second half by the home team and a stone-cold effort by the visitors resulted in the George Fox University Bruins upsetting the 23rd-ranked Pacific Lutheran University Lutes 57-54 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

PLU, which entered the game on a six-game winning streak, went on a tear in the first half, building as much as a 13-point lead, and held a 34-25 halftime margin. But the Bruins sank 12 of 22 shots in the second half (.545), including 4 of 6 from three-point range, while the Lutes connected on only 5 of 29 (.172) and were outscored in the half 32-20.

Becky Thompson's three-point basket with 1:52 to play put the Bruins ahead for good 53-51, and she and Katie Greller each hit a pair of free throws down the stretch to offset a final three-pointer by the Lutes' Lucy Barker.

Greller finished with a game-high 20 points and grabbed 9 rebounds to lead the Bruins, who improved to 9-3 overall and 2-1 in the conference. Jill Barram added a career-high 11, including 3 for 3 from three-point range. Suzanne Santos came off the bench to contribute personal bests of 7 points, 6 rebounds, and led the Bruins defensively with 4 steals.

For PLU, now 7-4 overall and 2-1 in the conference, Tara Millet scored 18 and had 9 rebounds, Barker scored 12, and Betsy Ruud added 10. Amber Hahn led all rebounders with 10, while Betsy Franza had a game-high 5 assists.

George Fox is off until Tuesday, Jan. 18, when the Bruins will host Lewis & Clark College at 6:00 p.m. Pacific Lutheran returns home to host Willamette University Saturday, Jan. 15, also at 6:00 p.m.

BRUINS LISTED IN NCAA NATIONAL STATS

In the first NCAA Division III statistics release of the season on Jan. 4, the George Fox name shows up in a couple of places.

In team statistics, the Bruins are 2nd in the nation in 3-Point Field Goals Per Game, averaging 7.6 per contest. The national leader and only team ahead of them is Sewanee (Tenn.), averaging 8.0. George Fox is also listed in Free Throw Percentage with a .736 mark, good for 8th in the country.

In individual statistics, Katie Greller (Jr., P, Orange City, Iowa) is 18th in the nation in Free Throw Percentage at .857.

BRUINS USE FIRST-HALF EXPLOSION TO ROCKET PAST WARRIORS

NEWBERG, Ore --- A 30-11 run in the last 13 minutes of the first half boosted George Fox to a big lead, and the Bruins hung on to defeat the Western Baptist Warriors 77-64 Tuesday night (Jan.4) at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The game was tied 12-12 six-and-a-half minutes into the contest, but the Bruins used seven three-point shots to race out to a 42-23 halftime lead. The Warriors fell behind by as many as 25 in the second half before rallying to cut the George Fox lead to 10 at 65-55 with three minutes remaining, but the Bruins sank 12 free throws in the time left to clinch the win.

Nicole Prazeau (So., W, Portland, Ore.) led a balanced George Fox attack with 15 points, including 6 of 6 free throws in the final three minutes. She was joined by Katie Greller and Jenny Freeman (Jr., W, Tonasket, Wash.) with 12 apiece and Tabitha Greller (Jr., W, Eagle, Idaho) with 10. All 10 Bruins who played scored. Katie Greller grabbed 14 rebounds, giving her 452 for her three-year career and boosting her into 10th place on the all-time George Fox rebounding list.

Aubrey Dickson with 19 points and Cassee Steed with 13 points and 12 rebounds led the Warriors, who lost for the second time to the Bruins this season.

TURNOVERS AND LINFIELD'S HOT SHOOTING DOOM BRUINS 76-55

McMINNVILLE, Ore --- Too many turnovers and a red-hot night from the floor proved to be too much for George Fox to overcome as the Bruins fell to the Linfield Wildcats in their Northwest Conference opener Friday night (Jan. 7) at Ted Wilson Gymnasium.

In the early going, it was the Bruins who had the upper hand, holding the Wildcats scoreless for over five minutes and taking a 10-0 lead. But Linfield then went into a full-court press against which the Bruins struggled, eventually turning the ball over 30 times.

Meanwhile, the Wildcats went on a tear of their own, outscoring the Bruins 10-1 to close within a point, then forged ahead to lead 28-18 with four minutes to play. It was 31-25 at the half, but Linfield went on a three-point binge and hit five in the second half to pull away. The Wildcats finished the game with a .525 percentage (32-61) from the field, while the Bruins could manage only a .371 night (23-62).

Katie Greller scored a game-high 17 and pulled down 9 rebounds, and Nicole Prazeau chipped in with 14 points for the Bruins.

Sarah Jensen scored 16 and Kelly Bradstreet 15 while combining to hit 14-19 from the field for the Wildcats. Summer Gaylord added 11 and Leah Moore 10.

FREEMAN'S OFFENSE, DEFENSE SPARK BRUINS PAST BEARCATS 67-64

SALEM, Ore --- Junior guard Jenny Freeman scored 17 points and blocked a potential game-tying three-point shot with six seconds to play, sparking the Bruins past the Willamette Bearcats 67-64 in a Northwest Conference game Saturday night (Jan. 8) at Cone Fieldhouse.

Freeman scored 14 of her game-high total in the second half, including four of her five three-pointers, as the Bruins overcame a 32-30 halftime deficit and led most of the final 20 minutes. The Bearcats hung close, however, and had a chance to tie it late in the game, but Freeman got a hand on Kelly Sorenson's three-point attempt and Katie Greller recovered the block for the Bruins.

Nicole Prazeau added 13 points and Greller and Becky Thompson (So., PG, Colton, Ore.) scored 11 each for George Fox. Greller also pulled down a game-high 9 rebounds as the Bruins out-rebounded the Bearcats 39-27. Thompson passed out 5 assists.

For Willamette, Sorenson finished with 16 points, Tyan Sanderson scored 14, and Kim Wright added 13. Sanderson was the Bearcats' top rebounder with 8, while Katie Edmonds had 4 assists and 5 steals.

BRUIN BITS:

FREEMAN'S OFFENSE, DEFENSE SPARK BRUINS PAST BEARCATS 67-64

SALEM, Ore --- Junior guard Jenny Freeman scored 17 points and blocked a potential game-tying three-point shot with six seconds to play, sparking the George Fox University Bruins past the Willamette University Bearcats 67-64 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at Cone Fieldhouse.

Freeman scored 14 of her game-high total in the second half, including four of her five three-pointers, as the Bruins overcame a 32-30 halftime deficit and led most of the final 20 minutes. The Bearcats hung close, however, and had a chance to tie it late in the game, but Freeman got a hand on Kelly Sorenson's three-point attempt and Katie Greller recovered the block for the Bruins.

Nicole Prazeau added 13 points and Greller and Becky Thompson scored 11 each for George Fox. Greller also pulled down a game-high 9 rebounds as the Bruins out-rebounded the Bearcats 39-27. Thompson passed out 5 assists.

For Willamette, Sorenson finished with 16 points, Tyan Sanderson scored 14, and Kim Wright added 13. Sanderson was the Bearcats' top rebounder with 8, while Katie Edmonds had 4 assists and 5 steals.

Willamette slipped to 8-3 overall and 1-1 in the conference, while George Fox is also 8-3 and 1-1. Both teams return to the court Friday, Jan. 14, the Bruins hosting defending conference champion and pre-season favorite Pacific Lutheran University and the Bearcats hosting Lewis & Clark College, both games at 6:00 p.m.

1999-2000 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Game # 11: George Fox University "Bruins" (7-3, NWC 0-1)
vs. Willamette University "Bearcats" (8-2, NWC 1-0)

Saturday, January 8, 2000 - 6:00 p.m.

Cone Fieldhouse (2,600), Salem, Oregon

The Bruins will try to bounce back from a disappointing 76-55 loss at Linfield last night against the "surprise" team of the Northwest Conference in the early going, the Willamette Bearcats. The Bearcats enter tonight's contest with the best overall record in the league, with only losses at Concordia and to Lewis-Clark State, the No. 4 team in the NAIA. Heather Ludwig and Kelly Sorenson give the Bearcats a double-figure scoring punch. Ball control will be the key for George Fox tonight; the Bruins had a season-high 30 turnovers in squandering a fast 10-0 start against the Wildcats. All-NWC center Katie Greller continues to pace the Bruins in scoring and rebounding, and recently moved into 10th on the all-time GFU lists in both categories.

TURNOVERS AND LINFIELD'S HOT SHOOTING DOOM BRUINS 76-55

McMINNVILLE, Ore --- Too many turnovers and a red-hot night from the floor proved to be too much for George Fox University to overcome as the Bruins fell to the Linfield College Wildcats in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at Ted Wilson Gymnasium.

In the early going, it was the Bruins who had the upper hand, holding the Wildcats scoreless for over five minutes and taking a 10-0 lead. But Linfield then went into a full-court press against which the Bruins struggled, eventually turning the ball over 30 times.

Meanwhile, the Wildcats went on a tear of their own, outscoring the Bruins 10-1 to close within a point, then forged ahead to lead 28-18 with four minutes to play. It was 31-25 at the half, but Linfield went on a three-point binge and hit five in the second half to pull away. The Wildcats finished the game with a .525 percentage (32-61) from the field, while the Bruins could manage only a .371 night (23-62).

Katie Greller scored a game-high 17 and pulled down 9 rebounds, and Nicole Prazeau chipped in with 14 points for the Bruins, who fell to 7-3 overall and 0-1 in the conference.

Sarah Jensen scored 16 and Kelly Bradstreet 15 while combining to hit 14-19 from the field for the Wildcats. Summer Gaylord added 11 and Leah Moore 10 for Linfield, which climbed to 7-4 overall and 2-0 in the conference.

The Bruins visit Willamette University Saturday night to play at 6:00 p.m., while Linfield is off until next Friday, when they will visit Whitman College, also at 6:00 p.m.

BRUINS DROP LAST GAME OF MILLENIUM TO LADY HAWKS 60-56

OAKLAND, Calif. --- The last game of the millenium for any George Fox University athletic team turned out to be a loss as the Bruins' women's basketball team was edged out by the Holy Names College Lady Hawks 60-56 here at Tobin Gym Thursday night.

The game was a tight contest throughout, the biggest lead by either team being seven points by the Lady Hawks midway through the first half. The Bruins cut the lead to one at 29-28 at the half, and there were seven ties in the second half before Holy Names went ahead for good with 13 minutes to go.

A three-pointer by Nicole Prazeau made it a 57-56 game with less than a minute left, but the Lady Hawks hit three free throws in the last 15 seconds to ice the win.

Katie Greller, George Fox' stellar center, scored 14 points and hauled down 9 rebounds to lead the Bruins, while Prazeau finished with 11. Mikki Elftmann led the Lady Hawks with her second straight double-double, scoring 17 points with 12 rebounds, and Amina Hussein added 14 points.

The Bruins outshot the Lady Hawks .415 (22-53) to .302 (19-63), but suffered from a lack of ball control (28 turnovers to 19 for Holy Names) and not enough trips to the free throw line (4-6 while the Lady Hawks shot 16-22).

George Fox, which split on its California swing (the Bruins downed California State-Monterey Bay 83-45 on Tuesday) enters the new year with a 6-2 record, while Holy Names is now 8-9.

The Bruins play their final non-conference game Tuesday, Jan. 4, at home against Western Baptist College at 6:00 p.m., followed by the George Fox's men's team against Warner Pacific College at 8:00 p.m. The Lady Hawks host Mills College Friday, Jan. 7, at 5:30 p.m.

Lady Hawks end '90's with a win!

OAKLAND, CA – The Holy Names Lady Hawks eked out a 60-56 win over George Fox University (of Newburg, OR) on Thursday night in their last game before the new year.

For the second night in a row, Mikki Elftmann had a double double with a game-high 17 points and 12 rebounds. Monica Ortega nearly matched her feat from the night before at Davis when she accounted for nine of Holy Names's 14 assists. On Wednesday night, Ortega had a team-high ten assists against the NCAA Division II Aggies.

Both halves started slowly in Thursday's game as Holy Names made the first basket 1:30 into the first half and it took the same time for George Fox to score in the second half. The biggest lead for either team came about midway through the first period as the Lady Hawks took a seven-point advantage on Lorena Ahumada's three-pointer. The score was tied seven times before Holy Names took the lead for good with thirteen minutes to go in the game on a fifteen-footer by Nicole Bailey.

There were some tense moments in the final seconds as George Fox (which has already beaten Cal State-Hayward, Menlo College, and NAIA seventh-ranked Southern Oregon) pulled to within one on a three-pointer by Nicole Parzeau. However, Elftmann and Amina Hussein (14 points) sank three free throws in the final fifteen seconds to seal the win.

George Fox next sees action on January 4th against Western Baptist at home. For Holy Names, California Pacific Conference play opens next Friday at Tobin Gym as the Lady Hawks face new conference member and Oakland rival, Mills College. Later that night, the men's team will take on Cal State Maritime in the second game of a doubleheader. All the action begins with the women's game at 5:30.

FREEMAN, GRELLER TEAM UP TO LEAD BRUINS PAST CONCORDIA 82-78

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Jenny Freeman's first half gave George Fox University the lead, and Katie Greller's second half kept the team there as the Bruins hung on to defeat the Concordia University Lady Cavaliers 82-78 in women's basketball Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Freeman, a wing, scored 15 points in the first half as the Bruins built a 42-35 lead at the break. That gap eventually expanded to 18, the last time at 68-50 with 7:35 to play, before the Lady Cavs rallied.

Concordia got within nine at 72-63 with 3:53 left, but then Greller went to work. The Bruins' center scored nine of her team's final 10 points on two baskets and five free throws, including six points in the final 1:04, to keep George Fox on top. A three-pointer by the Lady Cavs' Lacey Grimm at the buzzer made the four-point margin as close as Concordia would come in the second half.

Greller finished with a game-high 21 points, 17 in the second period, while Freeman ended the game with 20 after her hot first half. Point guard Becky Thompson, who did not start after suffering a leg injury in a game three nights ago, came off the bench to toss in 16 and hand out 6 assists. Greller was high for the Bruins on the boards with 11 rebounds.

For Concordia, five players reached double figures in scoring, led by Alyssa Hopkins with 16. Niecee Madrigal added 14, Sarah Sowers 13, and Rachel Hudson and Grimm chipped in with 10 apiece. Hudson with 11 rebounds and Hopkins with 10 were big in Concordia's 56-44 rebounding edge.

George Fox improved to 5-1 with the win and recorded its 13th straight victory over the Lady Cavs. Concordia's record fell to an even .500 at 5-5.

George Fox is off for over two weeks, swinging back into action with a two-game California trip that starts Tuesday, Dec. 28, with a 7:00 p.m. game at California State University-Monterey Bay in Seaside, Calif. Concordia visits Cascade College in Portland Saturday night, Dec. 11, at 7:00 p.m.

BRUINS' RALLY FALLS SHORTS AS NORTHWEST WINS 76-69

NEWBERG, Ore. --- A 22-point halftime deficit proved too much for George Fox University to overcome as the Bruins fell 76-69 to the Northwest College Eagles in women's basketball action Tuesday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins were bidding for their fifth straight win at the start of a season, which would have broken the record of four they set at the start of the 1988-89 season. Instead, they had to settle for tying the mark while dropping to 4-1, while the visiting Eagles improved to 6-3.

Northwest blistered the nets at a .577 clip in the first half, hitting 15-26 while building an early 7-0 lead and stretching it to 44-22 at the half. The Bruins chipped away and cut the margin to three at 70-67 with 1:54 to play, but Christina Reade nailed four crucial free throws in the last minute-and-a-half to keep the Bruins away.

The real Bruin-killer proved to be LeAnne Swedberg, who came of the Northwest bench to score 29 points, hitting 13 of 19 shots, and grab 14 rebounds. Katy Lockard added 16 points and Reade 13, including a perfect 9-9 from the charity stripe.

George Fox was led by Jenny Freeman with 13 points, while Wendy Clark and Katie Greller each scored 11 before fouling out. Greller led the Bruins on the boards with 9.

"We were coming off a big win over (NAIA 7th-ranked) Southern Oregon last Saturday, and I'm afraid we suffered an emotional letdown," admitted Bruins coach Scott Rueck. "We came out flat, Northwest was hungry, and they ran circles around us that first half. It was just too much to overcome."

George Fox remains home to host Concordia University Friday night at 7:30 p.m., while Northwest continues its road swing at Cascade College in Portland that same night, also at 7:30 p.m.

BRUINS STAY PERFECT WITH 60-56 UPSET OF SOUTHERN OREGON

ASHLAND, Ore. --- Nicole Prazeau scored 20 points and the George Fox University Bruins used the “long ball” to upset the nationally-ranked Southern Oregon University Raiders 60-56 in the SOU women's basketball Classic here Saturday night.

The Bruins sank eight three-pointers to only two for the Raiders, who were ranked 7th in the NAIA Division II pre-season poll. The teams were even in free throws with 14 made apiece, while SOU made one field goal more than George Fox (20-19), so the three-point differential proved crucial.

Prazeau, in scoring her season high, hit three from long range, and also nailed 7 of 8 free throws. Tabitha Greller hit a pair of treys for 6 points, Melissa Heuberger had two threes among her 8 points, and Becky Thompson also sank one from behind the arc. Katie Greller was the only other Bruin in double figures in scoring with 16.

Prazeau had team highs of 8 rebounds, 6 assists, and 4 steals, while Tabitha Greller also had 8 boards.

Southern Oregon was led in scoring by Liz Bresnan with 9, and she also picked up a game-high 7 steals. Emily Wiley's 7 rebounds led the Raiders to a 42-39 edge on the boards.

Southern Oregon fell to 5-3 with the loss, while George Fox remained perfect at 4-0. The Raiders are off until Monday, Dec. 13, when they visit Holy Names College in Oakland, Calif., for a 7:30 p.m. contest. The Bruins return home Tuesday, Dec. 7, to host Northwest College at 7:30 p.m.

BRUINS RUIN RAIDER STRATFORD TITLE DEFENSE

(Ashland, Dec. 4) — George Fox University scored nine of the game's final 11 points to post a 60-56 triumph over seventh-ranked Southern Oregon University for the 1999 Stratford Inn Classic title at McNeal Pavilion tonight.

The win upped the NCAA Division III Bruins to 4-0 and snapped SOU's 12-game home win streak that dated back to last season.

GFU, which trailed by as much as four in the closing minutes, broke a 54-54 tie and took the lead for good with 33 seconds remaining on a 3-point play by junior forward Katie Greller.

The Bruins led 58-56 when Raider hopes for its fourth consecutive Stratford title faded: junior point guard Alison Richards missed a driving layup attempt with seven ticks left, and GFU guard Nicole Prazneau nailed a pair of free throws to seal the game.

The NAIA Division II Raiders (5-3) erased GFU's five-point halftime margin and took their first lead of the second half (42-41) on an inside jumper by freshman post Emily Wiley. And SOU appeared to be in control when freshman Amy Tangedahl 15-footer that staked the Raiders to a 54-51 lead with 2:22 left.

Freshman Liz Bresnan led Southern with nine points and accounted for 10 team points by pilfering a career high seven steals, including six in the second half. Tangedahl finished with eight points, while Wiley tallied seven points and seven rebounds.

GFU, one of only three teams to defeat SOU in Ashland since 1996, was paced by Prazneau's 20-point, eight-rebound, six-assist performance, while Greller tallied 16 points and seven boards. Both were named to the all-tournament team, and Greller, who scored 36 points in two weekend clashes, earned MVP status.

Richards and junior forward Melissa England earned all-tourney honors for Southern. SOU returns to action Dec. 13 at 23rd-ranked Holy Names College in Oakland, Calif.

BRUINS THUNDER PAST LADY OAKS 83-61

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Center Katie Greller scored 23 points, 16 in the first half, as the George Fox University Bruins raced past the Menlo College Lady Oaks 83-61 in women's basketball action Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Greller hit her first five shots and seven of eight in the first half as the Bruins took a 40-26 halftime lead. George Fox then put the game away by scoring the first nine points of the second half, and led by as many as 25 at one point.

Greller was joined in the scoring column by Jenny Freeman with 20, and Nicole Prazeau and Wendy Clark with 12 each. Greller had a game-high 8 rebounds, while Freeman passed out 8 assists.

For Menlo, Nicole Casapulla was high scorer with 18, followed by Barbara Butler with 11 off the bench. Miriam Sanchez picked up 5 steals.

The Bruins were red-hot from the field, hitting 17 of 31 in the first half (.548), and finishing with a .526 mark (30-57). The Lady Oaks managed to hit only .365 (23-63), and turned the ball over 32 times.

George Fox improved to 2-0 on the young season, while Menlo fell to 0-4. The Bruins travel to Ashland, Ore., next weekend to play in the Southern Oregon Classic Friday and Saturday, taking on Western Baptist Friday night, game time to be announced. Menlo continues its road trip Sunday, Nov. 28, visiting Willamette University in Salem for a 5:00 p.m. contest.

BRUINS OPEN SEASON WITH 84-70 WIN OVER CSU-HAYWARD

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Led by Katie Greller's 21 points, the George Fox University Bruins opened their 1999-2000 women's basketball season with an 84-70 win over the California State University-Hayward Pioneers Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

Greller, an All-Northwest Conference center last year, picked up where she left off by hitting five field goals and 11 of 12 free throws, and grabbed a team-high 11 rebounds. She was joined in the scoring column by forward Wendy Clark with 14 and guard Jenny Freeman with 11.

The Pioneers got 20 points and 14 rebounds off the bench from Keisha Robinson, while Shauni Bechdol added 17 points and Christina Lombardo tossed in 10.

Robinson had 18 of her 20 in the first half as the teams fought to a 40-40 deadlock at the break, but after falling behind by five early in the second half, the Bruins reasserted themselves and gradually pulled away. The final score was the biggest margin of the game.

George Fox out-shot the visitors .455 (25-55) to .409 (27-66), but made up the difference in field goals at the free throw line, hitting 26-32 to only 12-16 for the CSUH. The Pioneers won the battle of the boards 41-35, but made a whopping 29 turnovers to 23 for the home team.

George Fox is 1-0 while California State-Hayward fell to 0-2. The Bruins host Menlo College Saturday night at 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's team against Northwest Christian College at 8:00 p.m. The Pioneers continue their road trip with a visit to Willamette University in Salem, game time at 7:00 p.m. against the Bearcats.

George Fox University Bruins 1999-2000 Women's Basketball Pre-Season Outlook---

BRUINS HOPING TO TAKE NEXT STEP INTO POST-SEASON PLAYOFFS IN 1999-2000

NEWBERG, Ore. --- They were "Oh! So close!" in 1998-99, and now, as a new century and a new women's basketball season approach, the George Fox University Bruins are hoping to finally edge over into post-season play.

Last year's 18-6 record left the Bruins tied with Puget Sound for the best record among independents in the NAIA's Pacific Northwest Region – and UPS won an at-large bid based on tiebreakers, leaving the best George Fox team ever (based on the Bruins' school-record .750 won-lost percentage) out of the playoffs, despite a No. 24 national ranking at the end of the regular season.

"We'd been in NAIA post-season play the past six years, and would have again but the conference was split between NAIA and NCAA, and that affected the selection process," recalled head coach Scott Rueck, who has guided the Bruins to a 49-25 record in his three years at GFU. "Any other year, we would have been in. Nationals is another story – That's the next step."

If the Bruins are to take that big step by making it to post-season play in their first year as full-time NCAA Division III-members only, they will have to do so while replacing their top scorer and best rebounder. Wing Christy Brock, an All-Northwest Conference First Team pick, led the league in scoring (17.5 ppg) and set four new GFU records, including most three-pointers in a game (7) and a season (74), while post Rachel Powell, the team's seventh-best career shot blocker (70), grabbed 8.3 boards per game.

Rueck, however, is optimistic as he points out, "We've got a solid nucleus of starters returning, and we think we have some people who can fill in the holes admirably."

Starters returning include Katie Greller (5-11, Jr., Orange City, Iowa) at post, Becky Thompson (5-8, So., Colton, Ore.) at point, and Nicole Prazeau (5-10, So., Portland, Ore.) at a wing. Greller was First Team All-NWC and NAIA Pacific Northwest Region All-Independent while averaging 14.2 ppg and 7.8 rpg, and is called by Rueck "probably the best returning post player in the conference." Thompson and Prazeau were pleasant surprises as freshmen, Prazeau averaging 10.8 ppg and Thompson 7.3 ppg and 3.4 assists a game, fifth-best in the league.

"With Thompson and Jill Barram (5-5, So., Salem, Ore.) in the backcourt, ballhandling is a strength for us," says Rueck. "Becky averaged less than two turnovers a game, and there's not many in our league quicker than Jill. There'll be situations when we'll have both of them out there at the same time."

Good possibilities to replace Brock at the wing include Jenny Freeman (5-6, Jr., Tonasket, Wash.), a juco transfer from Wenatchee (Wash.) Valley College, and Darcey Stocking (5-7, Fr., The Dalles, Ore.), a First Team 3A All-State performer last year.

Two other returning players who saw limited action last season, Janelle Steinmetz (5-11, So., John Day, Ore.) and Melissa Heuberger (5-7, Sr., Yamhill, Ore.) will provide depth at the post and wing respectively.

Among the new post players Rueck will give a look to are Emily Ruggles (5-11, Fr., Eugene, Ore.), Rachel Pfund (5-8, Fr., Seaside, Ore.), Ruth De Young (5-10, Fr., Clackamas, Ore.) and the squad's tallest member, Gina Huck (6-2, Fr., Tillamook, Ore.). Wing depth will come from Suzanne Santos (5-9, Jr., Bellevue, Wash.), Carly Page (5-6, So., Chiloquin, Ore.), and Amy Larson (5-5, Fr., Portland, Ore.).

Two other George Fox volleyball players and one soccer player are expected as well once those seasons are over: post Shelly Schultens (6-0, Fr., The Dalles, Ore.), and wings Heidi Vander Stoep (5-9, So., Woodland, Wash.), and Mindy Venable (5-7, Fr., Newberg, Ore.).

"I think our biggest area of improvement will be in our overall defense," Rueck summarizes. "We'll be a quicker team, and more experienced at the guard positions. We may not be quite as strong inside, but our ability to handle and control the basketball, as well as shoot it, ought to keep us in the top half of the league, maybe even in the top four."

"Pacific Lutheran is definitely the team to beat in the Northwest Conference this year; they were first last year and lost nobody. But we've been in the top three for the last six years, and we could be a little better this year than last; in fact, I'll be a bit disappointed if we're not."

BRUINS HOPING TO TAKE NEXT STEP INTO POST-SEASON PLAYOFFS IN 1999-2000

NEWBERG, Ore. --- They were "Oh! So close!" in 1998-99, and now, as a new century and a new women's basketball season approach, the George Fox University Bruins are hoping to finally edge over into post-season play.

Last year's 18-6 record left the Bruins tied with Puget Sound for the best record among independents in the NAIA's Pacific Northwest Region -- and UPS won an at-large bid based on tiebreakers, leaving the best George Fox team ever (based on the Bruins' school-record .750 won-lost percentage) out of the playoffs, despite a No. 24 national ranking at the end of the regular season.

"We'd been in NAIA post-season play the past six years, and would have again but the conference was split between NAIA and NCAA, and that affected the selection process," recalled head coach Scott Rueck, who has guided the Bruins to a 49-25 record in his three years at GFU. "Any other year, we would have been in. Nationals is another story -- That's the next step."

If the Bruins are to take that big step by making it to post-season play in their first year as full-time NCAA Division III-members only, they will have to do so while replacing their top scorer and best rebounder. Wing Christy Brock, an All-Northwest Conference First Team pick, led the league in scoring (17.5 ppg) and set four new GFU records, including most three-pointers in a game (7) and a season (74), while post Rachel Powell, the team's seventh-best career shot blocker (70), grabbed 8.3 boards per game.

Rueck, however, is optimistic as he points out, "We've got a solid nucleus of starters returning, and we think we have some people who can fill in the holes admirably."

Starters returning include Katie Greller (5-11, Jr., Orange City, Iowa) at post, Becky Thompson (5-8, So., Colton, Ore.) at point, and Nicole Prazeau (5-10, So., Portland, Ore.) at a wing. Greller was First Team All-NWC and NAIA Pacific Northwest Region All-Independent while averaging 14.2 ppg and 7.8 rpg, and is called by Rueck "probably the best returning post player in the conference." Thompson and Prazeau were pleasant surprises as freshmen, Prazeau averaging 10.8 ppg and Thompson 7.3 ppg and 3.4 assists a game, fifth-best in the league.

“With Thompson and Jill Barram (5-5, So., Salem, Ore.) in the backcourt, ballhandling is a strength for us,” says Rueck. “Becky averaged less than two turnovers a game, and there’s not many in our league quicker than Jill. There’ll be situations when we’ll have both of them out there at the same time.”

Wendy Clark (5-11, Sr., Bainbridge Island, Wash.), a George Fox volleyball player, is expected to step into a starting role, replacing Powell, after volleyball is over. “She’s a good shooter who plays like a point guard despite her size,” says Rueck. Tabitha Greller (5-11, Jr., Eagle, Idaho), who played as Tabitha Dawson last year but recently became Katie Greller’s sister-in-law, “is another good three-point shooter who could move from a wing to the four-spot; in fact, with her or Clark playing, we will have four three-point shooters on the floor.”

Good possibilities to replace Brock at the wing include Jenny Freeman (5-6, Jr., Tonasket, Wash.), a juco transfer from Wenatchee (Wash.) Valley College, and Darcey Stocking (5-7, Fr., The Dalles, Ore.), a First Team 3A All-State performer last year.

Two other returning players who saw limited action last season, Janelle Steinmetz (5-11, So., John Day, Ore.) and Melissa Heuberger (5-7, Sr., Yamhill, Ore.) will provide depth at the post and wing respectively.

Among the new post players Rueck will give a look to are Emily Ruggles (5-11, Fr., Eugene, Ore.), Rachel Pfund (5-8, Fr., Seaside, Ore.), Ruth De Young (5-10, Fr., Clackamas, Ore.) and the squad’s tallest member, Gina Huck (6-2, Fr., Tillamook, Ore.). Wing depth will come from Suzanne Santos (5-9, Jr., Bellevue, Wash.), Carly Page (5-6, So., Chiloquin, Ore.), and Amy Larson (5-5, Fr., Portland, Ore.).

Four other George Fox volleyball players are expected as well once that season is over: post Shelly Schultens (6-0, Fr., The Dalles, Ore.), and wings Heidi Vander Stoep (5-9, So., Woodland, Wash.), Mindy Venable (5-7, Fr., Newberg, Ore.), and Mindi Yost (5-7, Fr., Rogue River, Ore.).

“I think our biggest area of improvement will be in our overall defense,” Rueck summarizes. “We’ll be a quicker team, and more experienced at the guard positions. We may not be quite as strong inside, but our ability to handle and control the basketball, as well as shoot it, ought to keep us in the top half of the league, maybe even in the top four.”

“Pacific Lutheran is definitely the team to beat in the Northwest Conference this year; they were first last year and lost nobody. But we’ve been in the top three for the last six years, and we could be a little better this year than last; in fact, I’ll be a bit disappointed if we’re not.”

BRUINS TAKE NCAA OPENER 63-51 OVER LINFIELD

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior center Katie Greller recorded her ninth double-double of the season with 20 points and 13 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins past the Linfield College Wildcats 63-51 in the first round of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championships Wednesday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins' fourth straight win improves their record to 22-4 and advances them to the second round of the tournament, a home game Saturday, March 4, at 7:00 p.m. against California Lutheran University, a 72-66 winner on the road over the University of California-San Diego. Linfield's season comes to an end with a 17-9 record.

The first half of the game was a defensive struggle with both teams appearing to have first-time-in-the-NCAAs jitters. The Bruins shot only .304 (7-23) from the field and made 14 turnovers, while the Wildcats hit only .207 (6-29) and threw the ball away 11 times. Though Linfield never led, the half ended in a 21-21 tie.

George Fox took control of the game with a 16-4 run to start the second half, Greller and Becky Thompson contributing six points apiece in that span. With their shooting improving in the second half to a .467 mark (14-30), the Bruins maintained that lead the rest of the way, though the Wildcats did close the gap to 48-45 with 4:22 to play. But a Wendy Clark three-pointer sparked an 8-0 run over the next three minutes that gave the Bruins some breathing room and eventually the win.

Thompson added 15 points to Greller's big night and Jenny Freeman chipped in with 13. Nicole Prazeau added nine rebounds as the Bruins won the battle of the boards 44-42, and passed out five assists, as did Thompson, who moved into ninth place on the all-time assists list at GFU with 171.

Linfield's talented post duo of Sarah Jensen and Kelly Bradstreet scored 14 and 12 points respectively, with Bradstreet also recording a double-double with 10 rebounds.

"That first half, we both looked like two teams that had never been in a tournament before!" laughed a victorious Bruins coach Scott Rueck, whose career record at GFU is now 71-29. "We looked a little shaky against an excellent press and had too many turnovers, plus we were getting good shots but just not knocking them down.

"At halftime, we told the team to stick to the game plan. Linfield was giving us the post, playing Katie one-on-one, and we knew if we got the ball to her, eventually some good things would happen. We did much better against their press the second half, kept up the defensive pressure on our own, and finally started scoring.

"I think we learned a lesson, too, when they cut that lead to three late in the game – if you don't stick to your game plan and relax too much, a 12-point lead against a quality opponent like Linfield is nothing!"

Linfield coach Robyn Stewart admitted, "We got some good shots; they just didn't go down. Defensively, we played an excellent game, but you can't spot someone that good a 12-point lead in the second half and expect to come back very often. We almost got it done, but they out-rebounded us down the stretch, and that was the key.

"We had a great effort tonight, forcing them into some turnovers, but we didn't always take advantage of them. Still, we've had a good year and have much to be proud of."

BRUINS ADVANCE TO "SWEET 16" WITH 71-63 WIN OVER CLU

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior center Katie Greller recorded her 10th double-double of the season and second in as many NCAA tournament games with 23 points and 13 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins past the California Lutheran University Regals 71-63 in the second round of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championships Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins' fifth straight win improves their record to 23-4 and advances them to the "Sweet Sixteen" and a sectional round Friday-Saturday, March 10-11, in Abilene, Texas. The Bruins will join host Hardin-Simmons University (26-1), McMurry University (24-4), and the University of St. Thomas (25-1). Pairings for the sectional will be announced sometime Sunday afternoon.

California Lutheran, champions of the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, finished its season at 19-7.

The game was tied late in the first half before George Fox reeled off the final six points of the period to go up 30-24 at the break. The Bruins never trailed in the second half, and stretched their lead to 10 on a pair of Greller free throws at the 14:10 mark. The lead was still 10 after a Suzanne Santos layup made it 60-50 with 4:13 to play, but the Regals reeled off seven unanswered points over the next three minutes to cut it to 60-57. The Bruins sank 11 of 12 free throws in the final 1:23, however, to hang on.

Greller, the Northwest Conference "Player of the Year", had an off-night shooting, making only 5 of 18 from the field, but nailed 13 of 15 from the line, helping the Bruins to a 25-29 (.862) night at the foul line. Free throws were the difference as the Regals out-shot the Bruins, making 25 of 59 (.424) to only 19 of 61 (.311) for George Fox, but CLU managed only 816 from the line (.500).

George Fox also got 10 points from Greller's sister-in-law, Tabitha Greller, who scored 10 off the bench, but Bruins coach Scott Rueck, the NWC "Coach of the Year" for leading the Bruins to the league co-championship with Pacific Lutheran, pointed to two other bench players as keys to the win.

"Two of our starters, Nicole Prazeau and Wendy Clark, only played six minutes combined in the first half," Rueck noted, "but Jill Barram and Suzanne Santos were huge off the bench. Jill has the most confidence in her ability of anyone on our team, and she hit two big three-pointers to get us going, and Suzanne hit a big three and drove the lane for a couple of late baskets when they were coming back at us. In fact, I'd say Santos' play was the turning point for us."

Anna Lindseth scored 16 to lead the Regals, Nicole Sanchez posted a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds, and Haley Jones added 12 points.

George Fox, PLU Northwest Conference Co-Champions

BRUINS TO HOST LINFIELD IN 1ST ROUND OF NCAA TOURNAMENT

In just its first year as an NCAA Division III-only member, George Fox received one of 11 at-large bids reserved for independents and non-automatic-qualifying conferences to the first round of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Championship Tournament. The Bruins will host Northwest Conference rival Linfield College in a first round playoff game on Wednesday, March 1. Tip-off is set for 7:00 p.m. at the Wheeler Sports Center, with tickets available at the door, $5 for adults, $3 for students and senior citizens.

The winner of the George Fox-Linfield game will advance to the second round Saturday, March 4, against the winner of the game between California Lutheran University and the University of California-San Diego. While sites for the bracket were not announced, it is believed that George Fox would host that game should the Bruins win, while Linfield would travel should the Wildcats win.

GEORGE FOX NORTHWEST CONFERENCE CO-CHAMPION WITH PLU

While George Fox downed the University of Puget Sound 64-47, Pacific Lutheran needed a Jessica Iserman free throw with five seconds remaining to beat Pacific 57-56. Both teams finished 14-2 in conference play and were crowned Northwest Conference co-champions. The title is the first ever for George Fox, who has finished at least third in each of the five seasons since joining the Northwest Conference.

The co-title is PLU's third straight.

THREE BRUINS NAMED ALL-NWC, GRELLER "PLAYER OF THE YEAR"

Three players from George Fox's Northwest Conference co-championship team were given all-conference honors in a coaches' vote on Sunday (Feb. 28). Center Katie Greller (Jr., Orange City, Iowa) repeated as a member of the All-Northwest Conference First Team and was named conference "Player of the Year." Wing Nicole Prazneau (So., Portland, Ore.) was named to the NWC Second Team, and point guard Becky Thompson (So., Colton, Ore.) earned All-NWC Honorable Mention.

Greller, a near unanimous selection, led the conference in scoring (15.8), was second in field goal pct. (.546) fourth in rebounding (8.6), and fifth in free throw pct. (.784). It was Greller's third all-conference honor. She was named to the first team last season and to the All-NWC second team as a freshman.

BRUINS TIE WINS RECORD WITH 78-53 VICTORY OVER PACIFIC

FOREST GROVE, Ore. --- Blistering the nets from three-point range, the Bruins tied the school record for wins in a season with a 78-53 win over the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference game Friday night (Feb. 25).

The win was number 20 for the Bruins, tying the 1987-88 and 1994-95 teams which also won 20.

The Bruins, who began the game tied with Sewanee University for the national lead in three-pointers per game (7.43), hit 13-22 for a .591 mark. Darcey Stocking (Fr., W, The Dalles, Ore.) came off the bench to provide the Bruins' outside spark, hitting 4-6 from downtown and 5-8 from the field overall, plus 2-2 free throws, for a team- and career-high 16 points. Katie Greller scored 12, hitting 6-7 from the floor, and Tabitha Greller (Jr., W, Eagle, Idaho) added 11 and grabbed a team-high 7 rebounds as a sub.

Pacific took an early lead when Margot Patula nailed a lay-up to put the Boxers up 5-2 with 18:07 remaining in the first, but Katie Greller, the NWC's leading scorer, quickly answered, hitting the Bruins' next 6 points to tie the contest at 11-11. However, it was Tabitha Greller, Katie's sister-in-law, who was hot in the first, hitting 10 of her 11 points then to put George Fox up 39-28 at the half. The Bruins maintained a double-digit lead the rest of the way, with Stocking hitting 2 of her 4 three-pointers in the last two minutes to build the lead to as much as 26 at 78-52 with 16 seconds left.

Patula led all players with 25 points and 8 boards, while Angela Edwards finished with 10.

BRUINS SET RECORD FOR WINS, CLAIM NWC CO-TITLE

NEWBERG, Ore. --- The Bruins overcame their worst shooting night of the season to down the University of Puget Sound Loggers 64-47 Saturday night (Feb. 27) at the Wheeler Sports Center to claim a school record for wins and a share of their first Northwest Conference women's basketball crown.

Puget Sound, which finished 9-16 overall and 3-13 in the conference, played an aggressive full-court defense that held the Bruins to only .314 shooting (16-51) and forced 23 turnovers. Though the Bruins led most of the game, they never could put the pesky Loggers away, and the final score was the largest margin the home team had all night.

George Fox hit 25-37 from the free throw line to only 16-23 for UPS, and out-rebounded the Loggers 58-32, including 24 offensive rebounds that gave the Bruins numerous second-chance points. The Bruin defense also held UPS to a .250 shooting percentage (14-56).

Jenny Freeman (Jr., W, Tonasket, Wash.) led the Bruins with 14 points, Katie Greller added 12, 10 in the second half, and Nicole Prazeau and Wendy Clark (Sr., P, Bainbridge Island, Wash.) scored 11 apiece. Greller recorded her seventh double-double of the season with a game-high 12 rebounds, while Clark and Tabitha Greller also hit the boards hard with 9 caroms each.

The Loggers had no one in double figures, Julie Vanni and Allison McCurdy scoring eight each. Tina Garrett was UPS' top rebounder with six.

BRUIN BITS:

***Tough conference. George Fox and Linfield join two other NWC teams in the NCAA Div. III National Championship Tournament, Pacific Lutheran University hosting Whitworth College, also on Wednesday. All four were extended at-large bids, since the Northwest Conference does not get an automatic bid for its champion until the 2000-2001 season. The NWC thus received four of the 11 spots reserved for teams from non-automatic-bid conferences and independents.

***Center Katie Greller is 6th on the all-time GFU scoring list with 1,061 points in her three-year career, behind Liz Stephens' (1992-96) 1,197, and Greller's 581 career rebounds rank 6th behind 1997 alum Angela Petit's 613.

TURNOVERS AND LINFIELD'S HOT SHOOTING DOOM BUIINS 76-55

McMINNVILLE, Ore --- Too many turnovers and a red-hot night from the floor proved to be too much for George Fox University to overcome as the Bruins fell to the Linfield College Wildcats in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at Ted Wilson Gymnasium.

In the early going, it was the Bruins who had the upper hand, holding the Wildcats scoreless for over five minutes and taking a 10-0 lead. But Linfield then went into a full-court press against which the Bruins struggled, eventually turning the ball over 30 times.

Meanwhile, the Wildcats went on a tear of there own, outscoring the Bruins 10-1 to close within a point, then forged ahead to lead 28-18 with four minutes to play. It was 31-25 at the half, but Linfield went on a three-point binge and hit five in the second half to pull away. The Wildcats finished the game with a .525 percentage (32-61) from the field, while the Bruins could manage only a .371 night (23-62).

Katie Greller scored a game-high 17 and pulled down 9 rebounds, and Nicole Prazeau chipped in with 14 points for the Bruins, who fell to 7-3 overall and 0-1 in the conference.

Sarah Jensen scored 16 and Kelly Bradstreet 15 while combining to hit 14-19 from the field for the Wildcats. Summer Gaylord added 11 and Leah Moore 10 Linfield, which climbed to 7-4 overall and 2-0 in the conference.

The Bruins visit Willamette University Saturday night to play at 6:00 p.m., while Linfield is off until next Friday, when they will visit Whitman College, also at 6:00 p.m.

GRELLER LEADS BRUINS PAST LINFIELD 74-71 IN O.T.

NEWBERG, Ore. --- Junior center Katie Greller scored a layup with 54 seconds left in overtime to give her team the lead, then made a game-saving steal and sank two free throws with 2.1 seconds left to preserve a 74-71 win for the George Fox University Bruins over the Linfield College Wildcats in Northwest Conference women's action Saturday night here at Wheeler Sports Center.

The win avenged a 76-55 loss to the Wildcats in McMinnville back on Jan. 7, the last game the Bruins lost, and stretched their school-record winning streak to 11.

The game, played before 1,800 on Homecoming night at George Fox, was a nip-and-tuck affair the whole way, neither team holding more than a six-point lead at any time. The Bruins held a slim 39-37 lead at the half. Linfield went up 57-51 with 8:40 to play before Greller, who had only six points at the half, went to work. She had five baskets and a pair of free throws for 12 points over the remainder of the half, helping put George Fox ahead 64-62, but Sarah Jensen's jumper with 11 seconds left sent it into overtime.

Greller finished with a career-high 28 points, putting her over the 1,000-point mark with 1,017 and into 6th place all-time at George Fox. She hit 10-18 from the field and 8-10 from the line, grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds, blocked three shots and picked up a steal. Nicole Prazeau also collected a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds, Jenny Freeman scored 11 points, and Becky Thompson passed out seven assists.

Jensen led Linfield with 18 points, followed by Leah Moore with 15 and Kelly Bradstreet with 14. Bradstreet led the Wildcats with 10 rebounds, and Moore had eight assists.

The Bruins, ranked No. 23 in the D3hoops.com national poll and No. 4 in the NCAA West Region, improved to 18-3 overall and 11-1 in the conference, while the Wildcats slipped to 14-7 overall and 9-3 in the league. Both teams are back in conference action Friday, George Fox visiting Whitworth College and Linfield traveling to Pacific Lutheran University. Both games are at 6:00 p.m.
