GEORGE FOX BASEBALL COACH

PAT BAILEY
Head Coach

Under the leadership of Pat Bailey, who begins his eighth season as head baseball coach at George Fox, the Bruins have established themselves as one of the premier programs in the Northwest Conference and at the NCAA Division III national level.

The 2002 season, in which the Bruins went 27-15, was the seventh winning record in as many seasons at George Fox for Bailey. The Bruins captured the NWC crown, earning Bailey conference "Coach of the Year" honors, and participated in the NCAA Division III Midwest Regionals for the second time in three seasons.

Bailey is all-time winning coach at George Fox, with a career record of 191-97. His .663 winning percentage is the best of any Bruin coach, and ranks in the top 30 among active coaches in Division III.

One of the aspects of the program Bailey takes pride in is getting his teams to improve as each season wears on. In evidence of his success, in the final 15 games in each of his six seasons at George Fox, the Bruins have gone anywhere from 10-5 to 14-1.

Other Bailey teams have finished as NWC runners-up in 1996 and 1998, champions in 1997 and 2000, and co-champions in 1999. In 2000, their first year of NCAA eligibility, the Bruins advanced to the Division III West Regional and earned the regional's No. 1 seed.

The Northwest Conference honored Bailey as its Coach of the Year in 1997 and 2000, and in 1999, he was Co-Coach of the Year with Linfield's Scott Carnahan as the two rivals shared the league crown.

Many of Bailey's players have earned all-conference, all-district, all-region, and/or all-America recognition, including eight members of last year's team. In 1999, first baseman Nate Barnett became his first NAIA First Team All-American, and in 2000, staff ace Ryan Alvis was named to the NCAA Division III All-America Third Team.

Bailey took over the Bruin program immediately after guiding West Linn High School into the Oregon Class 4A state championship game. At West Linn, his teams advanced to the Class 4A state playoffs seven times, and in his final season were edged 2-1 in the 1995 state championship game.

Four times Bailey was named Three Rivers League Coach of the Year. He was at West Linn for 10 years as head baseball coach and assistant football coach. His baseball teams won five league titles and reached the Oregon semifinals in 1989, 1991, and 1995. From 1989-95, his combined record as a high school and American Legion coach was 315-105 (.750).

Prior to West Linn, Bailey taught and coached at Willamette High School in Eugene, Ore., for three years. He has worked at various baseball camps, and served as a pitching coach at the University of Portland in 1992.

Bailey is a 1974 graduate of Moscow High School in Idaho, where he played football, basketball, and was the baseball team's MVP. He earned two letters in baseball at North Idaho College in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, then two more as a starting outfielder and team captain during his senior season at the University of Idaho. He continued playing semiprofessionally until age 28.

In 1978, Bailey completed his business education degree, and earned a master of education degree in educational administration at the University of Oregon in 1983.

At George Fox, Bailey is also associate director of athletics, chair of the school's Sports Hall of Fame Committee, and a teacher in the Department of Business and Economics.

Bailey and his wife, Susan, live in Newberg with their children, Alex, 19, and Ann, 16.
