ABOUT GEORGE FOX COLLEGE

ABOUT GEORGE FOX COLLEGE

George Fox College is the outgrowth of a desire by early Willamette Valley Quaker settlers who established Pacific Academy in 1885 for the Christian education of their children. The college division was organized in 1891 to provide more advanced instruction for students. In 1949, because of the many colleges in the Northwest with Pacific in their name, the College was renamed George Fox in honor of the founder of the Friends (Quaker) Church. The College is governed by a 42-member Board of Trustees elected by Northwest Yearly Meeting of Friends Church, which comprises more than 8,000 members in 57 churches in Oregon, Washington, and Idaho.

The 60-acre rural, tree-shaded campus a half-hour drive from Portland has undergone major expansion in the last seven years with nine new buildings constructed at a total investment of nearly $10 million. The new facilities include a $2.7 million sports complex, an $800,000 academic building, two residence halls in a $1.25 million project, a $1.3 million fine arts/religion center, a $170,000 television center, a $520,000 dining commons/student center expansion, a $320,000 residence hall, and a $2.6 million chapel/auditorium opened in the fall of 1982. A new $100,000 all-weather track has been added, along with a new athletic field complex including baseball field, two softball diamonds and soccer field, completed in 1981.

College enrollment is 625.

Accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools, the College offers 27 majors in six divisions: Education, Fine and Applied Arts, Language Arts, Natural Science, Religion, and Social Science. George Fox is one of 13 members of the national Christian College Consortium. The College has a student-faculty ratio of 15/1.

George Fox students come from 18 states and 5 foreign countries. Nearly 40 religious denominations are represented on campus.

Alumni of George Fox are primarily in service-oriented vocations of Christian ministries, education, social work, and medical fields. The College's most prominent alumnus is the late President Herbert Hoover, who attended Pacific Academy.

GFC ATHLETICS

Intercollegiate athletics is an integral part of the overall education program at George Fox. Men's varsity athletic teams represent the College in baseball, basketball, track, cross country, and soccer. Women students compete in volleyball, basketball, track, softball, and cross country.

George Fox College competes as an independent on the varsity level. Its schedules are coordinated with the Northwest Conference and with other independents in the Northwest. George Fox is a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA), District 2, and the National Christian College Athletic Association, District 7.

For students not participating in the varsity program, GFC has a complete intramural program including flag football, basketball, volleyball, softball, tennis, and racquetball.

Athletic facilities include the Coleman H. Wheeler Center for Sports and Physical Education; Colcord Field, which includes a football/soccer field and new all-weather rubberized track; and tennis courts. A new athletic field complex containing baseball diamond, two softball fields, soccer field, and archery range was completed in 1981.

Wheeler Center, completed in 1977 in a $2.7 million project, includes the James and Lila Miller Gymnasium with three basketball courts and seating for up to 2,500; multipurpose, class, and weight rooms; faculty and administrative offices; handball courts; dressing and therapy rooms.

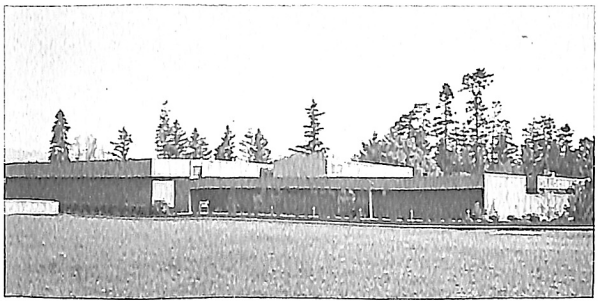
THE BRUIN NICKNAME

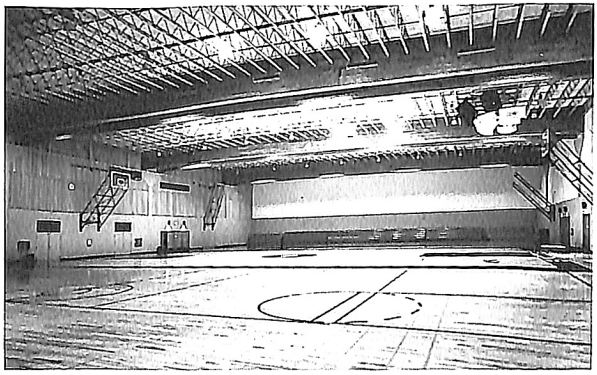
George Fox College is represented by the nickname and mascot "Bruin." But it's not always been so, even though it should have been.

The nickname comes from a real bear captured in 1887 just two years after Pacific Academy (the College's predecessor) was established. The small cub was captured in the coast range foothills west of Carlton when its mother was shot. The young cub was brought to campus by a student and later lived with a faculty member. When it grew to adulthood it was kept in a pit in what is now known as Hess Creek Canyon south of the campus. It escaped one too many times and was turned into steak for the dining table and the hide preserved on a frame and displayed in an early campus museum. When it deteriorated several years later, it was taken to a campus furnace room to be destroyed, but the framework proved a problem in dismantling, so it was left sitting in a corner. Students found the old Bruin skin later and began skirmishes over ownership, a tradition that continues 98 years later. "Bruin Junior," a replica, under a set of guidelines passed down for years, is fought over periodically in class competition, with the class able to physically drag the Bruin replica off campus declared the rightful owner until next "flashed."

Even with the Bruin tradition, somewhere along the line, the "Quaker" tag to athletic teams came into popularity with sportswriters because of the College's church affiliation, and that nickname was used, along with a mascot "Foxy George," a little fox with a Quaker hat. Both gained acceptance for a period in the 1950s and 1960s until a vote of faculty, students, and administration in 1970 reinstated the Bruin nickname to its rightful place.

THIS IS WHERE THE GAME IS PLAYED





George Fox College begins its eighth year in the Coleman H. Wheeler Center for Sports and Physical Education. Completed in June 1977, the $2.7 million, 55,000-square-foot complex is the College's largest building. It contains the James and Lila Miller Gymnasium, the Bruin home court.

The sports center was designed by noted architect Pietro Belluschi, with a wooded canyon setting chosen as the center's location. The building features wood products and a large window area overlooking the adjacent natural terrain.

Three times larger than Hester Gymnasium, which it replaced, the Wheeler Center features a 116 x 174-foot gymnasium with three basketball courts and seating for 2,500 spectators. The gymnasium ceilings are 32 feet over the hardwood maple floor. The gym provides three volleyball courts and five badminton courts.

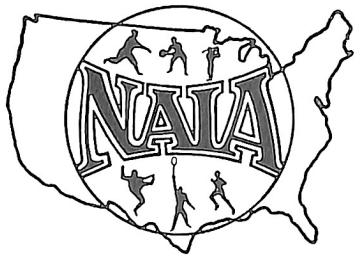
The building is entered on two levels—ground level on the east side through the nine doors for the general public and after crossing a 200-foot bridge; and on the second floor on the west side for campus personnel. There is a two-floor lobby featuring oak parquet floors.

Contained on the upper level are athletic administration and faculty offices, staff room, and class, weight, and multipurpose rooms.

The lower level contains a concession area and ticket sales area, dressing rooms, team rooms, laundry, equipment-issuing room, and storage space. An east wing of the building houses two handball courts.

The building is named for long-time Oregon lumberman Coleman H. Wheeler, former chairman of the board of Willamette Industries. The gymnasium is named for board member James Miller and his wife, Lila. He is the former president of Cascadia Lumber Co. The building was dedicated Oct. 17, 1977.

BRUINS COMPETE IN NAIA



The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) is a completely autonomous association that administers programs leading to national championships in 15 events for more than 530 fully accredited four-year colleges and universities in 32 geographical districts spread over the 50 states and Canada.

Established in 1940 as the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball the NAIB evolved from the institution of a "National Small College Basketball Tournament" that was inaugurated in 1937. In 1952, the NAIB expanded to include tennis, outdoor track, and golf, and that year the organization was renamed the NAIA.

Since that time the NAIA has further enlarged to encompass football (two divisions were formed in 1970), cross country, baseball, and swimming, which were added to the NAIA championship program in 1956, wrestling (1958), soccer (1959), gymnastics (1964), indoor track (1966), ice hockey (1968), and volleyball (1969). In August of 1980 the NAIA, after a two-year study, initiated championships in nine events for women in the newly organized NAIA Women's Division.

NAIA national headquarters and staff are located in Kansas City, Missouri. The district, however, is the basic unit of the NAIA. The District Executive Committee is the governing body in each district, with the district chairman serving as the chief officer. Within the district an eligibility chairman and publicity chairman are appointed to handle various duties.

A major factor in the success of the NAIA program is the importance placed on "grass roots" organizations, in which each district administers and organizes the programs of the schools within their own district. The districts are usually small enough in the number of schools involved that each individual institution has a major voice in the policy and decision-making process within that district. This procedure carries forward to the national level, where each of the 32 districts has an equal voice in national matters.

The NAIA clearly outlines its own responsibilities and those of its members: a sound athletic program, administered and controlled by those responsible for the administration of the college or university. The NAIA's basic premise is that the athletic program is a basic component of the overall general educational process, and not an entity apart.

Member institutions must conduct their intercollegiate athletic programs to the standards of the regulatory Association in which they hold memberships, and the NAIA. They must pay the annual membership dues and be in support of the policies of the Association. Where institutional rules and standards are stricter than those of the regulatory group or the NAIA, those rules and standards of the institution are recognized and supported by the NAIA.

NAIA DISTRICT 2

George Fox College men's athletic teams compete in District 2 of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). Nineteen teams currently make up the district, all but six within the state of Oregon. Four are in Hawaii, two in Idaho. Schools include the four members of the Northwest Conference, four members of the Evergreen Conference, and 11 independent schools, including George Fox.

The district tip-off and play-off guidelines are established by a basketball committee, composed of the coaches. The play-off system this year involves an eight-team tournament including the colleges rated highest by the "Sempert System," which awards points based on wins and losses against teams with winning and losing records. This year, for the second time, Hawaii schools will have their own playoffs. The 15 Northwest schools will conduct a separate District 2 playoff tournament.

Members of NAIA District 2 are Brigham Young—Hawaii, Chaminade University, College of Idaho, Columbia Christian, Concordia, Eastern Oregon State, George Fox, Hawaii Pacific, Lewis and Clark, Linfield, Northwest Nazarene, Oregon Institute of Technology, Pacific, Southern Oregon, University of Hawaii—Hilo, Warner Pacific, Western Baptist, Western Oregon State (formerly OCE) and Willamette.

George Fox College has been in the NAIA District 2 playoffs 10 of the last 14 years.

The Bruin district play-off record:

1970-71—Willamette University (lost 103-69)
1971-72—Willamette University (lost 69-60)
1972-73—Linfield College (won 95-88)
Pacific University (won 68-67) (District Title)
Defiance (Ohio) College (lost 82-62) (NAIA national championships)
1973-74—Pacific University (won 92-72)
Oregon Institute of Technology (lost 55-54)
1974-75—Oregon Institute of Technology (lost 72-56)
1976-77—University of Hawaii—Hilo (lost 85-79)
1977-78—Oregon Institute of Technology (lost 79-65)
1979-80—Oregon Institute of Technology (lost 69-67)
1980-81—Northwest Nazarene (lost 61-58)
1983-84—Western Oregon State (lost 86-72)

THE SEMPERT SYSTEM: GETTING TO THE PLAYOFFS

The Sempert System, named for Coach Dean Sempert of Lewis and Clark College in Portland, is a system of points that are earned by each team in the district in the following manner:

Four (4) points for a win on the road against a better-than-.500 team.

Three (3) points for a win on the road against a less-than-.500 team.

Three (3) points for a win at home against a better-than-.500 team.

Two (2) points for a win at home against a less-than-.500 team.

One (1) point for a loss at home or on the road against a better-than-.500 team.

No (0) points for a loss at home or on the road against a less-than-.500 team.

(All neutral court games are counted as away games.)

1983-84 HIGHLIGHTS

For the first time in three years George Fox College reached the NAIA District 2 playoffs, finishing 17-12 for the best record in four seasons and the fifth best ever for an NAIA Bruin team.

The improving Bruins, under second-year coach Mark Vernon, jumped in three seasons from 16th in District 2 to 11th, and last season to 5th spot. At season's end the Bruins were ranked fifth in the nation in the National Christian College Athletic Association.

It was a good year, made even more remarkable by the presence of one person: Randy Dunn, a 6-5 forward. The Bruins' "All-Everything" in basketball was named Athlete of the Year for NAIA District 2—all athletes, all sports.

Dunn topped all players in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Alaska, and British Columbia in scoring, averaging 21.6 a game. Third in NAIA District 2 rebounding, with a 9.0 average, he had the best scoring-rebounding combination in the district.

The awards kept mounting: GFC's Most Valuable, NCCAA Region 7 Most Valuable, unanimous choice NCCAA All-American, number one pick to All-Northwest team, NAIA District 2 basketball player of the year, NAIA national honorable mention All-American, and a ninth round National Basketball Association draft choice by the Portland Trail Blazers.

Dunn set seven GFC school records and was 14th in the nation in NAIA free throw accuracy.

Despite the attention to Dunn it was not a one-man show for the Bruins. Three were in double-figure scoring, Dunn, then forward/guard Larry Jury at 16.3, and freshman center Kenny Stone at 10.4, leading the Bruins in field goal accuracy at .591. Stone blocked 72 shots, a new GFC record, with his 2.57 per game average the highest ever.

Also setting records was guard Al Vasey with 167 assists, the second highest season total ever. His 6.0 per game average was the second highest ever.

Reaching the NAIA playoffs the Bruins had their title hopes ended at Western Oregon State, bowing 86-72 as GFC continued a string of never having won in 23 games in Monmouth in 19 years of NAIA competition.

During the season the Bruins were 10-3 at home and 7-9 on the road. With Northwest Conference teams the Bruins were 4-2; with other district independents they were 13-10 (including 11-6 with other Christian colleges).

A LOOK AT THE PAST

The game of basketball was invented by Dr. James Naismith in 1891, and it took just seven years for it to be brought to George Fox College (then called Pacific College).

College board member and community leader T. W. Hester and others first saw the game played at the Portland YMCA. They were captivated by the new game and secured a ball, which they brought back to the College. The first exhibition game was played shortly thereafter, in the winter of 1898, and the first site was the third floor of the old Commercial Hotel on North Main Street because the College had no adequate space for the new sport.

The first gymnasium on the campus was the upper part of one wing of an old academy building (Hoover Hall), built in 1885 and torn down in the mid-1950s. A one-room wood gymnasium building was constructed in 1916 and served until 1946, when the College opened Hester Gymnasium, a concrete block structure built partly by student/faculty labor at a cost of $40,000. The building, with a single hemlock playing floor and seating for 1,100, served through the 1976-77 season with opening of Wheeler Center.

College athletic affiliation in men's basketball over those years has gone from independent status to membership in the old Willamette Christian College Conference, the Metropolitan Conference, the Oregon Collegiate Conference, and back again to the present status as a major small college independent member of NAIA District 2 (joined in 1965). In 1973 George Fox was the district champion and has been in the district playoffs 10 of the last 14 years.

"Our greatest basketball year," according to a College publication, "The First Fifty Years" (published in 1941), "was reached in 1917 when Pacific College won the [Willamette Valley] league championship and defeated Oregon State College 34-25." There have, of course, been many significant wins, seasons, and players throughout the last 84 years. Much of that history, however, has been lost because of the lack of available information and incomplete records prior to NAIA membership in 1965. Highlights and records since that time appear on the following pages. Pre-NAIA statistics available show these marks: Bill Hopper with a 42-point game and 17 field goals, March 2, 1956, against the Greenleaf, Idaho, Town Team, and Cub Grimm in 1952-53 season with a 21.0 game average, and 26 free throws in a contest with the Oregon Medical School in 1953.

HOW IT LOOKS FOR 1984-85

George Fox Coach Mark Vernon has a goal. If he reaches it the Bruins will not only have a good season, they'll have one of their best ever.

But, to answer the most obvious questions first—no, the Bruins have not replaced "All-Everything" Randy Dunn, GFC's most honored player ever. His efforts and honors (detailed on page 6) will be missed, but Vernon says it's not devastating.

In fact, the third-year Bruin coach says "we'll be a better team." He doesn't say that negatively against Dunn, but positively in the fact that he believes this year's players will be required to do more individually without relying on one outstanding player.

Vernon, in fact, is not hedging his forecast with the usual "cautiously optimistic" prediction. He's removing that standard qualifier and he's "very optimistic."

The bright outlook is bolstered by more experience and some good recruiting. For example, last year the Bruins started with a total of 11 years of experienced college ball. This year 17 years are on hand. "This added college-level experience should show up in our play," says Vernon.

Now about that goal: Vernon wants not only to make the NAIA District 2 playoffs, he wants to host a game. That means a finish in the top four. It would be a first for George Fox, which has never hosted a district playoff game in 11 contests in the nine years they've reached the playoffs.

The Bruins will feature fast-break basketball, with a press-oriented team "looking to run at every opportunity," according to Vernon. The Bruins should have a good rebounding squad, a help in the running game. While last season the Bruins set up for Dunn, this year's team, according to Vernon, probably will score more points than last year because it will have more ways to score.

Some of those ways will be with forward/center Kenny Stone and guard/forward Larry Jury. Stone, expected to take over the point production leadership, averaged 10.4 last year as a freshman and was the most accurate at .591. Stone also is an intimidator on defense, blocking 72 shots last year to lead the district. Jury followed Dunn in scoring last season at 16.3 and is expected to continue. Also expected to score more is junior forward Al Vasey, who has been more in the habit of feeding the ball to his teammates—167 assists last year for a 6.0 average. And there's Greg Bolt, who contributed 8.6 points a game and is the fourth returning starter.

Among the top newcomers is Mark Smith, a junior transfer from Chemeketa Community College, where he averaged 10.0 points a game.

COACH MARK VERNON

Mark S. Vernon begins his third season at the George Fox College basketball helm. But the Bruin connection is much longer.

Vernon, 31, came to the College in 1975 as a student and basketball Bruin. Upon completion of his eligibility, he remained with GFC as an assistant for three years (1977-78, 79-80, and 81-82).

Then, with the departure of Sam Willard after six years as Bruin coach, the College began a six-week nationwide search that started with more than 70 names. In the end, the search committee found the new Bruin coach they were looking for was already on campus. Vernon was tapped in May of 1982. In his first season the Bruins were 15-16. Last year the Bruins improved to 17-12.

A 1977 George Fox graduate, Vernon, as a senior, was named the College's Outstanding Physical Education Major. The same year he was named George Fox's Outstanding Young Person in Teacher Education by Phi Delta Kappa, a national professional educators society.

In the fall of 1981 Vernon joined the GFC physical education faculty as women's volleyball coach, women's tennis coach, and basketball assistant, along with teaching assignments and supervision of the College's Wheeler Sports Center.

The new coach was assistant for the Bruins while working on a master's degree in physical education at Linfield College, with work completed in 1982. Vernon teaches physical education classes in addition to his coaching duty.

In 1981 Vernon led the volleyball Bruins to a 14-14 season, a turnaround from a 4-16 season the year before. In 1982 he took the women's tennis to a 9-1 record. Previously, on a part-time basis, Vernon served as women's softball coach in 1980 and 1981.

As a basketball Bruin, Vernon was a guard, establishing the Bruins' all-time career high average in assists (3.9) at that time. He was named the team's Most Inspirational Player by his teammates as a senior, a year the Bruins were 20-9. During Vernon's two years in a Bruin uniform his teams were 39-17, and Vernon compiled statistics that place him number 2 in the Value Point System, preceded only by All-American Paul Cozens.

Vernon also played one year at Highline Community College, Seattle, receiving both Best Defense and Hustle awards. He also played ball at West Seattle High School, where he was named Outstanding Athlete of the Year as a senior.

While attending graduate school and helping with the Bruin program, Vernon also was a part-time teacher in the Newberg, McMinnville, and Canby school districts.

His previous coaching included elementary basketball teams in Newberg, helping with the Jack Ramsay summer basketball camps, and summers as sports director for Perry's basketball camp. He continues to assist with the Ramsay camps.

Vernon and his wife, Denise, were married in August 1981. She is a George Fox senior majoring in physical education, returning to school this year after a couple of years out for work.

ASST. COACH STEVE GRANT

Steve Grant is in his third year with the Bruins, being named in 1982 to the George Fox physical education teaching faculty and to serve as men's basketball assistant and head women's volleyball coach.

Grant, 37, replaced Mark Vernon as Vernon stepped up to the head basketball position. The Bruin assistant is a 1969 graduate of Biola, where as a guard for the Eagles he was named Most Valuable both his junior and senior years. He then was named assistant basketball coach for two years, also assisting in soccer.

At Western Baptist in 1981-82, Grant coached the women's basketball team and was head men's soccer coach, guiding the Warriors to an 8-4-3 mark. Grant previously was at Salem Academy for 10 years. For nine years, until 1980, he guided the basketball Crusaders. He coached varsity baseball for five seasons, then varsity women's volleyball for five years, leading Salem Academy to the playoffs each of those years.

In his first season with the volleyball Bruins, Grant guided his squad to a 15-6 record and regional playoffs. In his second year it was 11-18. This year it was 30-10 as George Fox won the National Christian College Athletic Association national championship in Chicago. Grant was named NCCAA national Coach of the Year as well as NAIA District 2 Coach of the Year as his Lady Bruins finished third in district play.

Currently working on a master's degree from Western Oregon State University, Grant and his wife, Kathleen, live in Salem. They have two children, Jeff, 12, and Bryan, 9.

ASST. COACH BOB LOWE

Bob Lowe is in his second year in the coaching lineup, but he has a longer background as a Bruin.

Filling the new position of jayvee coach and as a second assistant to Mark Vernon, Lowe is helping coach this year's Baby Bruins while completing his bachelor's degree in education, with an emphasis in physical education.

A starting guard for the Bruins in the 1982-83 season, Lowe (rhymes with "how") had his senior year and collegiate basketball career cut short after 11 games with a severe knee injury. The Bruins lost a shooting touch and a person with sharp court sense.

Now, that court sense is put to use daily in practices as he instructs his young players.

A transfer to George Fox from Carrol College and Lassen Community College, Lowe averaged six points a game at Lassen, where as a sophomore he received the "Super Sub" award.

Lowe, 24, now a Newberg resident, originally was from Redding, Calif.

BRUIN STAFF

ROB PARKER is the second to hold the full-time athletic trainer position at George Fox, one of the first small colleges in Oregon with such a position. In addition, Parker supervises the athletic trainers program at the College, which began in 1979-80.

New to the physical education faculty this year, Parker is the former head athletic trainer at Whitworth College, from which he received a bachelor's degree in 1982. He served as trainer the following year, then attended the University of Arizona, from which he received a master's degree in physical education/athletic training in July, 1984, after serving as a graduate assistant athletic trainer. Previously Parker was a physical therapist/athletic trainer at Sports Medicine Northwest in Spokane.

Parker is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association.

In addition to his athletic training responsibilities for the Bruins, Parker also is an assistant track coach, responsible for recruiting women track athletes.

MIKE WIRTA is in his 14th year as George Fox basketball statistician. Called "Biggs" by his friends, Wirta is a 1974 George Fox graduate and perhaps one of the most loyal Bruin fans. A member of the College's physical plant staff, Wirta has the upkeep of the sports center as his major responsibility. A Newberg native, he devotes many volunteer hours to compiling statistics and records for the players and teams recorded in this book.

BARRY HUBBELL has directed the George Fox Sports Information program since 1970. He joined the College staff in 1968 as Director of Information and in 1972 was named Director of College Relations, overseeing all college publicity and promotion. A 1964 graduate of the College, he was a correspondent for Portland and Salem newspapers and a McMinnville radio station before assuming his George Fox positions.

In addition to his college role, he serves as publicity chairman for Northwest Yearly Meeting of Friends Church and is president of the organization's Publication Board.

He is a member of the NAIA Sports Information Directors Association and the College Sports Information Directors Association. In the last five years the organizations have awarded his publications 17 national awards, including five first places; included are those for best basketball press guides, best basketball programs and best track press guides.

BRUIN HOSTS/HOSTESSES

The College's "official greeters" to Bruin sports fans and for other special occasions, the 1984-85 Bruin Hosts/Hostesses, were specially chosen from dozens volunteering. They provide service at home games—giving information, programs, refreshments to press members and statisticians, and smiles to all.

BRUIN RALLY SQUAD

Bruin basketball cheers are led by an eight-member squad chosen by a student-faculty-staff committee in a process too late for them to be pictured. Members are sophomore Carmen Pinkerton, a business major from Seattle, Wash.; and freshmen Julie-Anne Edmundson, an elementary education major from Camas, Wash.; Marcia Snow, a liberal arts major from Camas, Wash.; Tina Sparks, an elementary education major from Gresham, Ore.; and Karen Walker, a physical education major from Bend, Ore.

Male members are Jaime Scott Morgan, a liberal arts major from Haysville, Kan.; Marlan Teeters, a liberal arts major from Kent, Wash.; and Larry Wilkins, a telecommunication major from Newberg. All are freshmen.

WILLCUTS-TWENGE MEMORIAL CLASSIC

Ron Willcuts

Dale Twenge

The seventh annual George Fox College Christmas season Classic is called the "Ron Willcuts-Dale Twenge Memorial Basketball Classic," a name first given four years ago. The renaming honors two Newberg men, both college leaders, who died in an airplane crash in Eastern Oregon in June 1980.

Both men were George Fox alumni, active in the college basketball program as players and later as supporters.

Families of both men, at the time of their death, requested establishment of athletic funds in their names at the College to receive memorial gifts. That procedure established a permanent endowment to partially support the annual tourney.

Willcuts, 41 at his death, was a member of the George Fox Board of Trustees. Twenge, 36 at his death, was a member of the College's Alumni Board and chairman of the Alumni Fund. They died with two others in the crash of a small plane June 26 in a severe thunderstorm near Baker, Ore.

Willcuts and Twenge were brothers-in-law. Willcuts, a 1961 graduate, was a guard during his three years with the GFC basketball program. In his freshman year he scored 442 points, among the top 10 small college scorers in the area. As a sophomore he scored 473 points (16.3 a game), and was the top Bruin scorer. As a senior (he did not play his junior year), he also was the leading scorer, at 22 points a contest.

Willcuts was a contractor and developer. His firm in 1968 built George Fox's Hobson Residence Hall and the addition to the Student Union Building. At the time of his death he was involved in the development of 35 residential subdivisions and a variety of apartment complexes and shopping centers in Medford and Newberg and in Boise, Idaho. Several were related financially to the George Fox College Foundation, of which he was vice-chairman. He was an avid Bruin basketball booster, supporting both financially in person at games, urging GFC to become a national basketball competitor.

Twenge, a member of the Class of 1966, was another three-year GFC basketball player, leading the squad in scoring in the 1964-65 season with 303 points as a junior.

He taught science and coached basketball in Lebanon and Prineville, Ore., until 1977, when he moved to Newberg to join his father-in-law at Newberg Realty, becoming a licensed broker. He was vice-president-elect of the Newberg Kiwanis Club and chairman of the Newberg Free Methodist Church finance committee. One of his major projects at the time of his death was in leading the Alumni Fund drive. He frequently, along with his sons, attended GFC home games to boost the Bruins.

This year's participants are Pacific University, Western Oregon State, Western Baptist College, and George Fox College.

VALUE POINT SYSTEM

The Value Point System measures a player's overall effectiveness. It is computed by adding the points scored, plus rebounds, plus twice the number of assists, plus twice the number of steals. That figure is divided by the number received from adding twice the number of missed field goals, plus foul shots missed, plus twice the number of turnovers, plus twice the number of fouls.

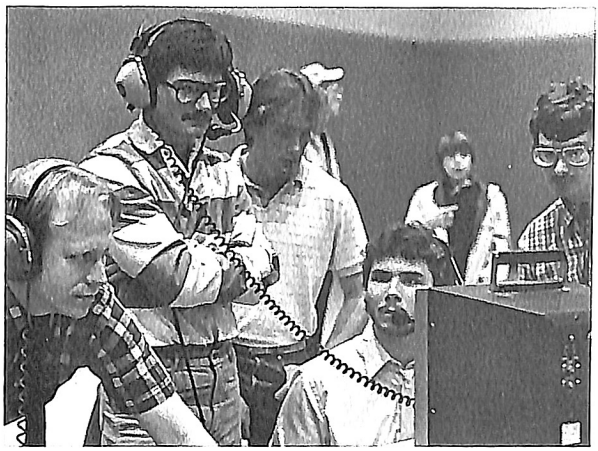
BRUIN BROADCASTING NETWORK



George Fox College basketball games are televised locally in Yamhill County on Liberty Cable Television Channel 7. The cooperative program with the George Fox College Video Center videotapes selected home games.

It is believed the George Fox program, founded in February, 1983, was the first small college program for broadcasting in Oregon.

Arrangements can be made for distribution of the game tapes to hometowns of opponent teams. Coordination of the Bruin Broadcasting Network is through the GFC Video Center, which supplies the production personnel and technicians. Primary announcers are Shaun McNay, a 1983 GFC grad, and Gene Christian, a GFC senior.

The following games will be broadcast: Jan. 19, 25, 26 and Feb. 8, 9, 22.

KWIP RADIO TO BROADCAST LIVE

Radio station KWIP this season will broadcast Bruin basketball games live throughout the northern Willamette Valley. The station at 880 AM, has announced it will begin the broadcasts with the NAIA District 2 Tip-Off and will include the annual Willcuts-Twenge Classic on campus. Plans call for initial year broadcasts of up to 10 games, according to station manager Eric Norberg, who has guided the station to become one of the area's first with dual-city identification—Dallas/Salem.

Sports announcer will be Dan Costa.

COVERING THE BRUINS

Facilities for the working press covering Bruin basketball are provided at the courtside press section on the west side of Miller Gymnasium. Available for each game are team rosters, starting lineups, and pertinent pregame information, including accumulative statistics for the Bruins up to each game. Press box service for each home contest includes quick team and individual statistics at halftime and complete statistics immediately following the game.

Working space and telephones for members of the press desiring them are available in the administrative area off the upper lobby. A courtside telephone also is available. Dressing rooms for both teams are on the lower level, south side.

George Fox College appreciates the cooperation it has shared with the news media. This book has been prepared as a service for area newspapers, radio and television stations, and wire services.

All requests for information, statistics, photographs, and press passes should be directed to Barry Hubbell, Sports Information Director, George Fox College, Newberg, Oregon 97132. Office phone: (503) 538-8383, ext. 220. Home phone: (503) 538-4332. Athletic Department phone: (503) 538-8383, ext. 249.
