BRUINS REACH 20-WIN SEASON-BEST EVER

COMING UP

Assured of its best season ever, the George Fox College Bruins end their regular schedule this Friday (Feb. 22) with a home game with Columbia Christian.

George Fox, the first Oregon college to reach 20 wins this season, brings a 20-5 mark into the contest.

The Newberg team will finish either number one or number two in NAIA District 2--the first time the Bruins have ever been in the top four in the district to host a playoff contest.

The game with the Clippers will determine the final standings, with a win needed to keep the Bruins in contention for the top spot. But more important is a game at Northwest Nazarene Tuesday night. If the College of Idaho wins that game with the Crusaders, the Coyotes could be the top team with a victory at home Friday night with Western Baptist.

George Fox has stopped the Columbia Christian Clippers twice this season: 90-74 in the season opener, 88-80 in overtime in Portland Jan. 12.

George Fox has never lost to the Portland team, out on top 10-0 in NAIA competition.

LOOKING BACK

George Fox College basketball coach Mark Vernon became the college's winningest coach ever as he guided his Bruins to their 20th win of the season Monday night (Feb. 18) in La Grande.

He is just the second coach to reach that plateau. Sam Willard reached 20 in the 1976-77 season, hitting that mark after 27 games. Vernon did it in 25.

The 105-77 victory over Eastern Oregon following two back-to-back losses--just the first of the season for the Bruins--kept George Fox at the top of the NAIA District 2, but just barely.

GFC had a 2.56 Sempert System ranking Tuesday, College of Idaho 2.50 in the tight race for the right to host the championship game in district playoffs. The Coyotes could move ahead of the Bruins with a win in a game scheduled Tuesday night (Feb. 19) at Northwest Nazarene.

The Coyotes took a big step to overtake the Bruins with a 94-74 thumping of the Newberg team Friday in Caldwell--just the fourth loss of the season by GFC.

Saturday night the Bruins were stopped 106-97 at Northwest Nazarene.

The Idaho losses are not unusual for Oregon visitors. George Fox, for example, has not win in Nampa in eight years, and has not had a victory in Caldwell in six.

It's not just George Fox with the no-win problem in Idaho. The NNC Crusaders have won 21 straight at home, the Coyotes 29.

The weekend losses stopped George Fox's 10-win string, and a stretch of 14 wins in 15 starts.

At Eastern Oregon it was a game only for a quarter. Ahead by four (26-22) after 10 minutes, George Fox poured through 25 more in the rest of the half while holding Eastern to 10 and raced to a 19-point bulge--51-32 at the break.

Up by 16 at 59-43 after 4 1/2 minutes of the second half, the Bruins then exploded for four unanswered buckets in 70 seconds to go on top by 24 (67-43) after six minutes. With the Bruins ahead by 32 (81-49) and 10:09 left in the game Vernon called off his starters after just three-fourths of a game and played his bench the rest of the way.

When back-up guard Dwight Patterson threw one in from underneath at the 5:06 mark the Bruins had run away to a 39-point margin at 97-58--the widest lead of the evening.

The game was the second highest scoring contest of the year--topped only by the 107 points against the University of California-San Diego in December.

George Fox dominated in every statistical category: shooting at a 56 percent rate from the field (43-76), 83 percent at the line (19 of 23), grabbing 45 rebounds to 36 for Eastern, recording 29 assists to 18 for the Mounties, and picking off 21 steals to 12 for Eastern.

Guard Larry Jury topped all players with 19 points in a balanced Bruin attack. Forward Greg Bolt netted 17, and center Kenny Stone and forward Curtis Kimbrough 14 points each. Kimbrough had nine rebounds, Stone 8, along with 3 blocked shots.

At Northwest Nazarene the teams battled even-up in the first half, the Crusaders taking a 43-42 edge to the dressing room on the strength of two free throws after the buzzer.

The Bruins' downfall came in the opening 90 seconds of the second half as the hosts reeled off eight straight points for a nine-point margin that stood up at the end.

George Fox shot a respectable 55 percent for the contest, but could not overcome the sizzling 76 percent second half shooting of NNC, which finished 64 percent for the night.

The Bruins were at the line 34 times, and connected on an impressive 29. The Crusaders were there 43 times putting through 28.

Senior Guard Larry Jury hit for 19 points for George Fox, forward Kenny Stone and Mark Smith 17 and 15, respectively. Stone had eight rebounds, Smith had seven.

At the College of Idaho, the Coyotes used a home court advantage to hammer out a 20-point win, mostly on the strength of a strong start that had the Bruins down 11-4 after three minutes and behind 17-8 after five.

The Bruins kept pace and with 4:30 to go in the opening half were behind by eight (30-22) before a Coyote flurry that swarmed GFC 15-6 in the final minutes to leave the Newberg team behind 45-28 at the half.

When Stone drove the lane and scored and connected on a free throw, the Bruins were within nine, 53-44 at 14:09, but that was as close as it came.

With a quarter of the game left, Curtis Kimbrough--the Bruins top scorer for the night with 19--was knocked in the face by an elbow and out of the rest of the game.

Two minutes later, with 7:19 left Stone went to the bench with five fouls on what a Boise newspaper called "a doubtful charging call."

But that was the way it went in Caldwell. The teams matched up on field goals--34 each. The Coyotes picked up 26 points on 36 tries at the free throw line. George Fox got there just 14 times, hitting on eight.

George Fox was whistled for 28 fouls, C of I for 17.

George Fox shot 46 percent from the field, College of Idaho 50 percent. The Coyotes won the board battle 50-39. For the first time all season George Fox committed more turnovers than opponent (30-21) as the Coyotes repeatedly snatched the ball from Bruin hands.

Kimbrough picked up his points on a 9 for 14 night. Stone had 15, 7 of 10 from the field. Kimbrough grabbed a team-high nine rebounds while guard Les Harrison recorded a game high eight assists.

MARK'S REMARKS

Reflections:

College of Idaho - "They took the game to us; they're the defending district champs and played like it...."

Northwest Nazarene - "I think they're the best No. 8 team the district's seen; they're a team to be reckoned with in the playoffs...."

Eastern Oregon - "I thought we played with intelligence and intensity--something lacking in the previous two games; it was a great team effort in a game that keeps us in a position to be No. 1 in the district...."

Coming Up:

Columbia Christian - "They are probably the scrappiest team in the district and we will have all we can handle Friday night. They are playing well and are always tough for us to beat."

STATISTICALLY

Super soph Kenny Stone continues to lead in four statistical categories. His 18.0 point production, 7.9 rebounds per game, .604 field goal accuracy and 68 blocked shots are tops. His district-leading 83 blocked shots averages to 1 1/3 per game.

Senior Larry Jury has a 17.7 scoring average. Sophomore Curtis Kimbrough is at 7.3 in rebounding.

BRUINS WIN TWO MORE; 19-3 RECORD BEST IN NAIA DISTRICT 2

WHAT'S BRUIN

George Fox College takes its prestigious 19-3 record--the best in NAIA District 2--on the road in perhaps the most important weekend of the year for the Bruins.

It will be a battle for the district's top spot Friday night (Feb. 15) as the Bruins meet College of Idaho. The Coyotes are just behind the Bruins in district standings with a sharp 16-2 record, 2.50 in the playoff-determining Sempert System rankings. George Fox is atop the district at 2.68 in the Sempert System.

George Fox, which has won 10 in a row and 14 of its last 15 contests, will go against a team it has not beaten on its home court in Caldwell in four games over five seasons. A year ago it was an '85-76 setback in the only match between the two teams. In nine years of NAIA competition the record stands seven wins for GFC, five for the Coyotes, who have won four of the last five pairings.

Saturday night GFC goes against another team with a home court advantage--Northwest Nazarene. The Crusaders have won 20 in a row at home over the last two seasons. George Fox has found an unfriendly welcome in Nampa for seven consecutive years, not winning there since 1977. In Nampa the Bruin record is 2 wins, 13 losses in 16 years of NAIA competition. Overall the teams have met 33 times, NNC out front 19-14.

The Crusaders are 13-9 this season, 7-0 at home and 6-9 on the road. George Fox is 10-0 in Miller Gym, 9-3 on the road. George Fox stopped NNC 70-64 Jan. 19 in Newberg.

The five-day road swing continues Monday night at LaGrande as the Bruins take on Eastern Oregon State's Mounties.

GFC took an earlier game this year--83-61 on Jan. 26. Overall that NAIA series stands at GFC 21, EOSC 29 in 20 years.

LOOKING BACK

George Fox College continued its dominance of NAIA District 2 over the weekend with back-to-back home wins over Warner Pacific and Concordia College--91-80 Friday night over the Knights, and 88-70 Saturday over the Cavaliers. In both contests Mark Vernon's Newberg team had leads of more than 20 points.

The wins extend GFC's victory string in 10 in a row--14 wins in the last 15 contests. George Fox remains perfect at home with 10 wins.

With Warner the Bruins' fouls in the first half--15 in all--kept the Knights in the contest. Although connecting on 16 field goals to 14 for Warner, the Knights stepped to the line 19 times, hitting on 12 to post a 40-38 halftime lead. GFC was six of eight at the line.

Larry Jury's bucket in the first 15 seconds of the second half tied the game and the Bruins never again trailed, gradually moving out in front to post a 22-point lead (87-65) with just over three minutes left.

It was Jury's night. The 6-2 guard/forward scored a GFC career high 31 points (15 in the first half) on 10 of 18 from the field, and 11 of 12 at the line. He also dished out six assists.

Super soph Kenny Stone hit for 23 (11 of 18 from the field) and grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds as both Bruins topped Warner's top producer, Marshall Haskins with 21. Stone had six blocked shots. GFC Guard Al Vasey dished out a game-high eight assists.

With a .600 field goal accuracy the second half, the Bruins finished .521 on the night, one of the best in weeks. They outrebounded the Knights 49-45.

With Concordia George Fox scored the opening bucket and never looked back, going out in front 17-6 after seven and a half minutes and taking a 37-29 half time lead.

Bruins were on top 74-56 with seven and a half minutes left and Vernon declared victory, benching his starters for playing time for the rest of the Bruins. They continued the scoring and when center Tom Ketelsen hit a jumper at 5:28 GFC had its largest lead at 27 points--78-51.

George Fox had balanced scoring with 13 from Stone and 12 by Ketelsen. Concordia's Wendell McDowell led all players with 28, 10 of those after Vernon sat down his starters.

GFC won the board battle 45-39 (Stone with 10) and had 14 steals to set a new GFC season record. (See "Statistically")

MARK'S REMARKS

Reflections:

Concordia - "I think the combination of our playing flat coming out and Concordia's playing very well in the first half resulted in a close game to start; McDowell is a very good player and we had trouble stopping him; I thought we played very good in the second half--everyone got a chance to play and that will help us going into Idaho this week...."

Warner Pacific - "It was a close game in the first half and I think we played our best half of the year in the second; we went zone once we got the lead to cut down on (Marshall) Haskins' penetration and it seemed to work...."

Coming Up:

College of Idaho - "It's number one and number two in the district--it should be an exciting college basketball game; we hope a 10-game winning string will give us some confidence going into Idaho...."

Northwest Nazarene - "We beat them in a tough game over here, but they're tough at home and are playing well...."

Eastern Oregon - "Eastern is a scary team on the road; they play much better at home than on the road and we know we have to play well to win...."

STATISTICALLY

The 1984-85 Bruins are assured of being George Fox's winningest NAIA team ever. With a 19-3 record and four games to play, the lowest they could finish in regular season action is 19-7, a .730 winning percentage. The previous season record was 19-8 (.704) recorded in 1975-76. Currently the winning percentage at 19-3 is .864.

This year's Bruin squad now owns the school record in steals in one season. Over the weekend the total reached 304, besting the previous record of 295 set in 1978-79 in 29 games. The new record was set in 22 contests. The steal average record of 10.17 per game, also set in 1978-79, is being battered by this year's team, currently at 13.8 per game.

A new school record in team blocks in a season also has been set. Last year's 129 total (4.61 average) was surpassed over the weekend, now at 140, a 6.4 per game average. Kenny Stone, who earlier set the new individual record, now has 78, 3.5 a game.

George Fox, with its 9.4 winning margin over opponents (79.4 to 70.0) is setting a new record. The previous winning margin was 8.1 set by the 1973-74 team.

Super soph Kenny Stone continues to lead GFC in four categories: scoring - 18.4, field goal average - .596, rebounding - 8.0, and blocked shots - 78. With 59 steals, he's just two behind team leader Les Harrison, who also leads the team in assists with 94, a 4.4 average.

Larry Jury has moved his scoring average to 18.0. Curtis Kimbrough is averaging 7.4 rebounds and has 90 assists, a 4.1 average.

College basketball

It's the Stone age at Fox thanks to 'the franchise'

By Mike Puckett
The Daily News

NEWBERG, Ore. — Every so often a college basketball player comes along so spectacular that his play spawns large ticket sales and championship seasons. He is called "the franchise."

Larry Bird was one, so was Lew Alcindor (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar) and Ralph Sampson. And now there's Kenny Stone.

Kenny Stone?

Backtrack a couple of years and you may remember a tall, skinny kid who spent most of his Tuesday and Friday nights during the winter, slapping down opponent's shots and lighting up the scoreboard for the Winlock Cardinals.

In his four years at Winlock, the 6-foot-8 center rewrote the school's record book. He was named the most valuable player of the Cowlitz Division of the Southwest A League his senior season. That year he was also tabbed by The Daily News as the MVP for schools class B through AAA.

From Winlock, the heavily recruited Stone chose George Fox College, a small Christian, four-year school here in Newberg.

Stone's success with the Cardinals is being duplicated at Fox. So much so, that the super sophomore of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Bruins has been labeled "The Franchise."

"I don't consider myself a franchise," Stone said last Saturday after hitting a short jumper with six seconds to play to give the Bruins a 52-50 homecourt win over Western Baptist.

"I just consider myself another Bruin. There are 13 guys here and they all contribute. The thing about this team is that one night someone can really be off and someone else can pick up the slack and have a good game."

One look at his statistics and game performances and it's easy to see why Coach Mark Vernon and the Bruin athletic department are so high on Stone.

As a part-time starter his freshman season, Stone led the Bruins in career field goal accuracy. He hit 117 of 198 shots, a .591 mark. He also led the NAIA District 2 in blocked shots with 72, almost double the next highest.

This season Stone has connected on 134 of 223 shots for a .601 mark. More shots and more baskets have given Stone a 18.5 average, tops for the Bruins and the district's No. 4 scorer. He also leads the squad in rebounds with a 7.6 average (eighth in the district) and is third in steals (55) and fourth in assists (43). Those numbers have helped the Bruins to a 17-3 mark this season, their best ever.

"We're on top right now and we'd like to stay there," said Stone. "We've got a good road trip coming in about two weeks where we play the College of Idaho which is right behind us in second. If we can play well on that trip, we have a realistic shot at doing well in the district playoffs and going to Kansas City for the nationals."

Stone's success surprises him. The switch from the do-everything man at Winlock to just one-of-five at George Fox has been easier than he thought.

"The style of play here is a little more intense, and it is not quite as physical as I thought it would be," said Stone. "On defense, coach told me I got away with a lot. That I was able to just stand behind a guy and wait till he shot and then block it. Now I've got to work more on defense. I still can block shots, but not as many."

Nevertheless, he leads the team and the district in blocked shots with 67. His one-and-a-half season total of 123 has bettered the school's career mark of 121 set by Hille van der Kooy in 1979-81.

"Rebounding and free throws are two areas that have room for improvement," said Stone of his play.

"I set a goal early this season to hit 10 rebounds a game. I'm not quite there, but I don't see myself as not performing well in that area. I just see that everyone else is getting rebounds also. They're all performing well. But I can do better. And I will. I've got two more years, two more summers."

While he leads the team in field goal accuracy, Stone is close to the bottom in free-throw percentage at 69 percent.

"Confidence plays a big part for me when it comes to free throws," he said. "I've really been struggling a lot in that part of my game. I hope that maybe I'll have a couple of good games in a row at the line and build the confidence."

He's on track to challenge two of the Bruins' all-time great basketball players — Paul Cozens (1974-78) and Randy Dunn (1981-84) — in several record categories. Both were all-everything and both were draft choices of the Portland Trail Blazers. Cozens' Bruin jersey is retired.

Stone wouldn't mind seeing his No. 34 right next to Cozens' 44 in the school's trophy case. "I don't really think about that," Stone said. "It would be a honor. But I've still got a lot of time to go. It would be nice ... who knows."

GEORGE FOX COLLEGE BRUINS NUMBER ONE IN NAIA

WHAT'S BRUIN

Solidly on top NAIA District 2, the George Fox College Bruins risk their lofty ranking in two home games this weekend, both rematches with teams previously beaten.

The 17-3 Bruins, off to their best season ever after 20 games and three-fourth the way through their schedule, host Warner Pacific Friday (Feb. 8) and Concordia Saturday.

George Fox, which has won 12 of its last 13 contests, will seek to extend an eight-game winning string, one that includes wins over this weekend's opponents on their own courts.

Coach Mark Vernon's squad bested Warner's Knights 80-78 Jan. 21 in Portland to move the GFC NAIA series lead to 26-15 in 20 years.

GFC stopped Concordia 84-77 in Portland Jan. 18 and has a 7-5 NAIA series lead since competition began six years ago.

LOOKING BACK

The weekend was a moving experience for George Fox College basketball coach Mark Vernon. He and his wife moved to a new home closer to the Newberg campus.

Oh, yes, incidentally, he took time out to guide his Bruins to two more basketball wins. And, some might call that in itself a moving experience.

Vernon advanced his team up the NAIA District 2 ranking ladder to number 1. And it also was an emotionally moving experience Friday night for many as his team stopped Western Oregon State 73-70 in Monmouth. It took an overtime, but the Bruins ended a 19 year "jinx" of never having won at Western Oregon in NAIA competition--22 straight games.

That victory, backed up with a 52-50 win over number four ranked Western Baptist the next night back in Newberg moved the Newberg team even higher in the NAIA District 2 Sempert system rankings with a 2.70. Second place College of Idaho is at 2.47.

The wins came over two of the only three teams to stop the Bruins this season.

At Western Oregon GFC started slowly, behind 16-7 after five minutes. After a time out GFC shut down the Wolves for six minutes, moving out to a 21-16 lead and held it until the final three seconds when Western went out on top at the half break, 37-35.

The two teams fought it out even up for the next 14 minutes to a 58-all standoff at 6:28. Then GFC did not score another bucket--until it counted--at 1 second. Meantime, the Wolves had taken a 63-61 lead, on two field goals and a charity toss, while GFC picked up three free throws. At seven seconds a missed free throw by Western resulted in a Curtis Kimbrough rebound. He tossed it to a streaking Mark Smith who drove the count and down the lane for a bucket at the buzzer that sent the game into overtime.

In the extra period Smith collected the first points at 3:31 followed by Larry Jury's basket at 2:25 and GFC went up 67-66 to keep the lead for good. Smith, who finished with 14 points, added two more charity throws and Al Vasey sank four in a row to wind up the scoring and seal the long-sought win.

The Bruins were an even .500 from the floor and .793 at the line. GFC won the board battle 37-31. It was a balanced scoring attack: Smith's 14, then 13 each by Jury and Vasey, and 10 by Kenny Stone, not feeling well that day.

As the night before, George Fox trailed at the half by two (25-23) in the next night's game at home with Western Baptist.

GFC dominated the second half, twice going out on top by six points (40-34) after 10 minutes, 50-44 after 15), but the Warriors came back to tie the game at 50-each at 1:50.

At that point GFC went to a four corner offense and pulled the trigger with Kenny Stone underneath on an alley-oop from Curtis Kimbrough at six seconds. It put the Bruins on top for the final score. But it gave the ball to Western, which after two time outs, had an in-bounds pass knocked away by Kimbrough, then at 1 second Greg Bolt tipped the ball to Stone on another Western inbound try.

In a strange game, the lowest scoring contest of the year for the Bruins, George Fox scored just one field goal in the final nine minutes before Stone's game-winner. That previous bucket was Stone's eight footer at the 7 minute mark.

George Fox won the game despite a .388 shooting night--.615 on 8 of 13 the second half not offsetting an 11 for 36 opening half (.306)

It was an all-around, All-District night for Stone, who was 7 for 12 from the field, a perfect 4 of 4 at the line, with team-high seven rebounds, game-high 18 points, four steals and five blocked shots.

Jury was the only other double-figure scorer, with 14.

MARK'S REMARKS

Reflections:

Western Oregon--"It's really nice to get the monkey off our back of 22 straight losses there; but more than that, it was a good sign that this (GFC) team--beating a team that good and in overtime--is learning how to win....."

Western Baptist--"It was a chess game, both teams reacting to the moves of the other and we were lucky to be two ahead at the end; (Kenny) Stone had an outstanding game and his blocked shots took the air out of them (Western)....."

Coming Up:

Warner Pacific--"It's a rematch and the first (game) could have gone either way; hopefully, we'll be all healthy again and I look for a very good game...."

Concordia--"They've been having some problems and it will depend on which team shows up--they can be very good or not so tough; they played very well last time against us...."

STATISTICALLY

George Fox College goes into the week with a .850 win average (17 of 20 games). The previous season best winning average was .704 (19-8) in the 1975-76 season.

Only one George Fox NAIA team has reached 20 wins: the 1976-77 team that went 20-9.

This year's 8.8 scoring margin over opponents tops the school record 8.1 set in the 1973-74 season. GFC this year is averaging 78.4, opponents 69.6.

With an average night in steals Friday, George Fox should set a new school record in steals. This year's team has 282 and a 14.1 per game average. The best average previously was 10.17 by the 1978-79 team and the highest total previously was 295 the same year, in 29 games. This year's team could set it in 21 games. Curtis Kimbrough leads the way with 59.

Kenny Stone's .601 field goal average (134/223) is the highest ever for a Bruin. His .591 average last year was the previous best. He is averaging 18.5 this year to lead the team and also leads the Bruins in rebounding at 7.6, and in blocked shots with 67, 3.55 a game.

George Fox Bruins find best of times in new 'Stone Age'

By JOHN NOLEN
of The Oregonian staff

Around the George Fox College campus in Newberg, there's already talk of the "Stone Age."

Kenny Stone is the reason.

Stone is a 6-foot-6 center on the Bruins basketball team that, when its record reached 15-3 last week, surpassed the best start ever for a GFC basketball squad.

The "Stone Age" is under way because Stone is a superb sophomore in every sense of the word.

He went into last week as the No. 4 scorer in the 15-team National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics District 2, averaging 18.9 points per game. He also was the district's eighth-leading rebounder, 7-7, and was fourth in field-goal shooting percentage at 60 percent.

"There's no doubt he's an offensive player," Bruins coach Mark Vernon said. "But he's an amazing all-around player as well. You look at his scoring and rebounding averages, but there are all the other things he does so well."

Stone also leads his team in blocked shots with 60 and is third in both assists (39) and steals (49).

His 1½-season total of 132 blocked shots already has surpassed the school career mark held by Hille van der Kooy, who was 6-10.

Defensively, Stone plays inside, where his quick hands play a big part in his rebound and steals totals.

But on offense, he's involved in the Bruins' motion offense. "He's like a small forward," Vernon said, "but when he's far away from the hoop, he's not much of a factor."

Vernon mentioned Lebro Bates of Northwest Nazarene and Gary Williamson of Western Baptist — both 6-6 forwards — when comparing Stone with the district's best players.

Bates is second in district scoring, averaging 21.8, while Williamson leads in rebounds with a 9.9 average and leads the Salem college in scoring at 16.5. Bates is almost impossible to stop inside down low.

"I personally like Williamson and Bates," Vernon said, "but I would take Stone. The best thing about him is his desire to win. He is very intense."

Stone, a 19-year-old from Winlock (Wash.) High School, was the most valuable player for the Southwest Washington A League Cowlitz Division. And a newspaper named him the MVP of all players in Class B through AAA schools in Southwest Washington.

He was most valuable in Vernon's mind long before that.

"I got his name in his sophomore year," Vernon said. "The first time I went to see him, I knew he would be the player. He had such great hands ..."

Vernon said he "told some people that by his (Stone's) sophomore year here, he'd take over. I don't think they believed me. I think they believe it now."

It's hard to believe the Bruins could replace Randy Dunn, who graduated last year as the school's No. 2 career leader in both scoring and rebounding.

"This is no knock on Randy," Vernon said, "because he got so much out of what talent he had. But I think Kenny is a much better all-around player."

"Kenny is like Clyde Drexler in a way. You remember their points. If Clyde Drexler scores four points or 20, you remember them because he's spectacular. Stone is the same way.

"He's very special."

The Oregonian/BRENT

SUPER SOPHOMORE — Kenny Stone (35), George Fox College foot-6 center, has carved out a niche as one of the top three players in NAIA District 2. He also has led Bruins to their best start ever.

GFC HOSTS WHEELCHAIR BASKETBALL FEB. 5

Wheelchair basketball rolls into Newberg Tuesday, Feb. 5 as the "Rollin' Rebels" take on four George Fox College teams in a 7:30 p.m. benefit basketball game.

The exhibition contest is sponsored by the George Fox PE Majors and Minors Club.

The game will be played in Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gymnasium with four 10-minute quarters. Different GFC teams will play five minutes each.

Scheduled are members of the GFC varsity men's team, the Lady Bruins, a faculty and staff squad, and student team.

At the halftime break Rollin' Rebels members will demonstrate their basketball talents. Team members come from the Portland-Salem area. "We want to broaden people's horizons, and make them aware of some of the misconceptions of the handicapped," said Newberg senior Grant Gerke, vice president of the PE majors and Minors organization. The group's president is Newberg senior Vicki Baugh.

Proceeds from the contest will go toward purchase of mirrors for the Wheeler Center weight room. Tickets, available at the door, are 50 cents for students, and $1 for adults.

Highest Athletic Honor

GFC RETIRES DUNN'S JERSEY

George Fox College has awarded its highest athletic honor for only the second time in its NAIA history.

Saturday night (Jan. 26), before a Homecoming crowd of more than 1,400, the college retired the jersey of basketball all-star Randy Dunn.

The "All-Everything" athlete joins former NAIA All-American Paul Cozens, who had his jersey retired after the 1978 season.

Dunn, a 6-5 forward from Portland, is the current NAIA District 2 Athlete of the Year for all sports. Earlier he had been named the district's basketball Player of the Year.

Dunn, who averaged 21.6 points a game, topped all small college players in Oregon, Washington Idaho, Alaska and British Columbia in scoring. He averaged 9.0 rebounds a game for the best scoring-rebounding combination in the district.

Retirement of Dunn's jersey after his three-year career came in ceremonies involving basketball Coach Mark Vernon, Athletic Director Rich Allen, George Fox President Edward Stevens, and Dunn's parents, LeRoy and Donna Dunn.

His jersey will join Cozens' in the school's athletic awards display area in Wheeler Sports Center.

The school's ceremony followed these other honors:

...A ninth round NBA draft choice by the Portland Trail Blazers.

...The number one pick to the All-Northwest team of players in four states and British Columbia.

....Most Valuable Player for the national Christian College Athletic Association region.

...An NCCAA national All-American.

...An NAIA All-American honorable mention.

Dunn, who transferred to GFC from Portland State where he played just briefly as a freshman, finished his Bruin career second in all-time scoring. His 1,736 points is topped only by the four-year total of Cozens.

Dunn grabbed just nine less than 1,000 rebounds, third in GFC all-time rebounding. He averaged 11.39 a game.

A three-time District 2 All-Star selection, Dunn set seven George Fox school records. His career scoring average was 19.95, just two baskets under a 20.0 average. His .550 scoring average is the best ever. At the free throw line Dunn sizzled in his final year at .883, 14th in the nation in the NAIA.

Dunn recorded 355 offensive rebounds, a new GFC record. He holds the school's offensive rebound record at 15 in a game. He had a career high of 23 rebounds in one contest.

Dunn is putting his 1984 GFC degree in business into use. He is an insurance representative for the John Hancock Co., in Portland.

BRUINS WIN THREE MORE; REMAIN OREGON'S TOP NAIA TEAM

WHAT'S BRUIN

Oregon's winningest small college basketball team is now George Fox College's winningest team of all time as the Bruins prepare for two rematches this weekend.

Coach Mark Vernon's Bruins, winning three games in a week, have pushed their season record to a glittering 15-3, the best start ever for a GFC squad, topping 1975-76 and 1976-77 teams that were 14-4 at the same point.

With just eight games left in the season the Bruins face seven teams in rematches and just one not met yet--the only squad ahead of the Bruins, College of Idaho.

The rematches start this weekend as GFC faces two of the only three teams to best them--Western Baptist and Western Oregon.

The Western Oregon Game Friday (Feb. 1) at Monmouth interrupts a string of five home games for the Bruins. Saturday's contest with Western Baptist is back in Newberg.

The Bruins Friday will be up against a "jinx" of having never won in Monmouth in 19 years--22 consecutive losses, including a 79-72 edging in thier second game of the season in the NAIA District 2 Tip-Off. GFC romped at home 78-64 in the followup game in Newberg. Over 20 years of NAIA competition GFC has won just five contests, Western 38.

The record's much better with Western Baptist's Warriors. In 15 years of NAIA competition, GFC leads 25-9, but lost the previous encounter this year, 68-55 in an off night in Salem.

LOOKING BACK

The 15-3 George Fox College Bruins made it six wins in a row with three more victories in six nights to keep their position as Oregon's top small college basketball team.

Coach Mark Vernon's team, winners of 10 of their last 11 games, downed, in order, Warner Pacific (80-78), Lewis and Clark (74-61) and Eastern Oregon (82-61).

The trio of wins leaves the Bruins perfect at home (7-0) and 8-3 on the road.

The weekend wins came before Homecoming crowds of 2,400 in the two nights.

The win over Eastern's Mountaineers, perhaps, was not unexpected. The Mounties came to Miller Gym with a 3-16 mark. Giving up the first bucket, the Bruins never again trailed and were on top 35-26 at the half. Outscoring the Mounties 22-8 in the first seven minutes of the second, GFC raced to its largest lead--29--at 70-41 with seven and a half minutes left and Vernon retired his starters and the Bruins coasted home.

Sophomore forward Kenny Stone came within one of his career high with 28 points, on 10 of 12 from the field and 8 of 10 at the line. He also grabbed six rebounds, blocked five shots and had four assists in his 30 minutes. The only other Bruin in double figures as 11 Bruins played and 10 scored, was sophomore forward Curtis Kimbrough with 10. Mark Smith led the Bruins with eight rebounds as GFC totaled 46 to Eastern's 42. GFC collected 20 steals, forcing 32 Eastern turnovers. GFC hit just .400 on the night.

It took a little longer to shake off the Lewis and Clark Pioneers, but the Bruins prevailed over a team that had won seven in a row, including a win over the only team ahead of GFC in the district.

The Bruins trailed 20-19 after nearly 15 minutes in the opening half, but then scored a second 20 in the next five minutes, holding Lewis and Clark to 10 to go out front 39-30 at the half.

Vernon put his team in a four-corner pattern to open at the half, a plan that kept the Bruins in front as the Pioneers were forced to foul. GFC went to the line 49 times, connecting on 36, 21 of 28 in the second half.

Despite building up a 14 point lead twice, it was another poor shooting night--.352 for the evening on 19 of 54. The Pioneers were 24 of 58 and 13 of 14 at the line. GFC owned the boards 50-33, led by the game-high 11 of Stone and Kimbrough. Guard Larry Jury had a game-high 20 points, 7 of 17 from the field, six of 8 at the line. Forward Greg Bolt followed with 15, Stone 12 and Kimbrough 11.

The Bruins held district scoring leader Bill Olds to just 12 points, six of 13 from the field.

In the Warner Pacific game, the contest was as close as the score would indicate. At the half it was 36-34 for the host Knights. The largest lead either team could produce was six.

The Bruins led for the final 13 minutes, and had a five-point margin with just over four minutes left after a Stone dunk inspired the Bruins. But Warner rallied back to within two before Kimbrough connected on back-to-back buckets underneath and then two free throws to seal the win, with Stone adding the final two free throws for the Bruins.

Jury led all players with 28 points, 16 in the first half, 13 of 20 for the evening.

GFC shot at a .547 pace, and put in 35 field goals to 30 for the Knights. GFC was outrebounded 49-37, but countered with better team play--26 assists to 14 for Warner.

MARK'S REMARKS

Reflections:

Warner Pacific - "A great overall game--we did the things we needed to do to win; it's nice to win over at Warner...."

Lewis and Clark - "It was a big win for us over a team that had won seven in a row; I was very pleased with the way we played; Curtis (Kimbrough) had a great all-around effort holding (Bill) Olds to 12...."

Eastern Oregon - "We had a sluggish first half, but in the second played aggressively on defense forcing many turnovers that led to easy baskets...."

Coming Up:

Western Oregon - "They are a team that is tougher with more (players) now eligible; they beat us there before; we're looking forward to the game...."

Western Baptist - "This is another rematch for us and maybe the most important game of the year for us...."

STATISTICALLY

NAIA District 2's super soph Kenny Stone, in the Warner Pacific game, swatted back four shot attempts to push his season total to 53 at that point and his career total to 125, surpassing the previous career record of 121 set by Hille van der Kooy in the 1979-81 season. Stone did it in just a year and a half and now has 60 this year, 132 total. He's averaging 3.3 a game.

Stone leads the Bruins in scoring (18.9), in rebounding (7.7), and shooting accuracy (.600).

Winning is a team effort, with three others in double figure scoring, Larry Jury at 17.7. Curtis Kimbrough backs up Stone in rebounding at 7.6. Guard Les Harrison has a team high 87 assists, 4.8 a game. And, he has 55 steals, as the Bruins are stealing their way to a record in steals at a 14.6 per game average. Their 264 season total exactly doubles opponents.

BRUINS WIN THREE MORE; REMAIN OREGON'S TOP NAIA TEAM

WHAT'S BRUIN

Oregon's winningest small college basketball team is now George Fox College's winningest team of all time as the Bruins prepare for two rematches this weekend.

Coach Mark Vernon's Bruins, winning three games in a week, have pushed their season record to a glittering 15-3, the best start ever for a GFC squad, topping 1975-76 and 1976-77 teams that were 14-4 at the same point.

With just eight games left in the season the Bruins face seven teams in rematches and just one not met yet--the only squad ahead of the Bruins, College of Idaho.

The rematches start this weekend as GFC faces two of the only three teams to best them--Western Baptist and Western Oregon.

The Western Oregon Game Friday (Feb. 1) at Monmouth interrupts a string of five home games for the Bruins. Saturday's contest with Western Baptist is back in Newberg.

The Bruins Friday will be up against a "jinx" of having never won in Monmouth in 19 years--22 consecutive losses, including a 79-72 edging in thier second game of the season in the NAIA District 2 Tip-Off. GFC romped at home 78-64 in the followup game in Newberg. Over 20 years of NAIA competition GFC has won just five contests, Western 38.

The record's much better with Western Baptist's Warriors. In 15 years of NAIA competition, GFC leads 25-9, but lost the previous encounter this year, 68-55 in an off night in Salem.

LOOKING BACK

The 15-3 George Fox College Bruins made it six wins in a row with three more victories in six nights to keep their position as Oregon's top small college basketball team.

Coach Mark Vernon's team, winners of 10 of their last 11 games, downed, in order, Warner Pacific (80-78), Lewis and Clark (74-61) and Eastern Oregon (82-61).

The trio of wins leaves the Bruins perfect at home (7-0) and 8-3 on the road.

The weekend wins came before Homecoming crowds of 2,400 in the two nights.

The win over Eastern's Mountaineers, perhaps, was not unexpected. The Mounties came to Miller Gym with a 3-16 mark. Giving up the first bucket, the Bruins never again trailed and were on top 35-26 at the half. Outscoring the Mounties 22-8 in the first seven minutes of the second, GFC raced to its largest lead--29--at 70-41 with seven and a half minutes left and Vernon retired his starters and the Bruins coasted home.

Sophomore forward Kenny Stone came within one of his career high with 28 points, on 10 of 12 from the field and 8 of 10 at the line. He also grabbed six rebounds, blocked five shots and had four assists in his 30 minutes. The only other Bruin in double figures as 11 Bruins played and 10 scored, was sophomore forward Curtis Kimbrough with 10. Mark Smith led the Bruins with eight rebounds as GFC totaled 46 to Eastern's 42. GFC collected 20 steals, forcing 32 Eastern turnovers. GFC hit just .400 on the night.

It took a little longer to shake off the Lewis and Clark Pioneers, but the Bruins prevailed over a team that had won seven in a row, including a win over the only team ahead of GFC in the district.

The Bruins trailed 20-19 after nearly 15 minutes in the opening half, but then scored a second 20 in the next five minutes, holding Lewis and Clark to 10 to go out front 39-30 at the half.

Vernon put his team in a four-corner pattern to open at the half, a plan that kept the Bruins in front as the Pioneers were forced to foul. GFC went to the line 49 times, connecting on 36, 21 of 28 in the second half.

Despite building up a 14 point lead twice, it was another poor shooting night--.352 for the evening on 19 of 54. The Pioneers were 24 of 58 and 13 of 14 at the line. GFC owned the boards 50-33, led by the game-high 11 of Stone and Kimbrough. Guard Larry Jury had a game-high 20 points, 7 of 17 from the field, six of 8 at the line. Forward Greg Bolt followed with 15, Stone 12 and Kimbrough 11.

The Bruins held district scoring leader Bill Olds to just 12 points, six of 13 from the field.

In the Warner Pacific game, the contest was as close as the score would indicate. At the half it was 36-34 for the host Knights. The largest lead either team could produce was six.

The Bruins led for the final 13 minutes, and had a five-point margin with just over four minutes left after a Stone dunk inspired the Bruins. But Warner rallied back to within two before Kimbrough connected on back-to-back buckets underneath and then two free throws to seal the win, with Stone adding the final two free throws for the Bruins.

Jury led all players with 28 points, 16 in the first half, 13 of 20 for the evening.

GFC shot at a .547 pace, and put in 35 field goals to 30 for the Knights. GFC was outrebounded 49-37, but countered with better team play--26 assists to 14 for Warner.

BRUINS OREGON'S TOP NAIA TEAM

WHAT'S BRUIN

Oregon's top small college, the George Fox Bruins, keep their sharp record at home for a while, playing five of their next six games in Miller Gym, starting with back-to-back Homecoming weekend contests.

The Bruins, 12-3 going into a game Monday night at Warner Pacific, entered that contest trailing only College of Idaho (12-2) in NAIA District 2.

George Fox is perfect at home (5-0) and went into this week 7-3 on the road. At home this weekend its first the Lewis and Clark Pioneers Friday night (Jan. 25) then Eastern Oregon's Mountaineers in an 8 p.m. Saturday Homecoming game, delayed a half hour because of preceding Homecoming events.

The Pioneers were 8-7 going into a game Monday with Concordia. Eastern Oregon Entered the week 2-15, playing two games before coming to Newberg.

Both Eastern Oregon and Lewis and Clark are being met for the first time this season. This will be the 50th meeting of EOSC and GFC in 20 years, the Mountaineers ahead 29-20. George Fox won the single contest a year ago, 78-67 in Newberg.

Lewis and Clark and George Fox have tangled 21 times in 20 years, L & C winning 13. A year ago the Bruins lost 66-46 at home, then won 72-58 in Portland.

LOOKING BACK

A pair of wins against first time opponents this season, one at home and the other on the road, propelled the George Fox Bruins to a 12-3 mark and leadership in Oregon NAIA competition.

The Bruins stopped Concordia Friday night (Jan. 18) in Portland, then came back the next night at home to set back Northwest Nazarene.

At Concordia the Bruins came out early to a 10-2 lead and never trailed in the first half, taking a 36-34 lead to the locker room. But the hosts outscored the Bruins 8 to 4 in the opening four minutes to take a 42-40 lead and stayed ahead for 46 seconds before George Fox regained the lead at 17:44 and stayed in front, building up an 11-point (84-73) lead with 16 seconds left. The Cavaliers scored the last two buckets to bring the final score.

George Fox, paced by Kenny Stone's 19 points on six of eight attempts, hit .519 of its shots, Concordia .561. Larry Jury tossed in 16 points, eight of eight at the line, four of seven from the field. Curtis Kimbrough led all rebounders with 10 as GFC won the board battl 35-29.

At home with NNC George Fox raced to an early nine point lead (15-6) after 7 and a half minutes, but settled for a 34-all standoff at the break. Ahead 46-45 after eight minutes in the next period, George Fox ran off eight unanswered points and outscored the Crusaders 13-2 in four minutes stretch to move out 59-47 with nine minutes left in the game.

In the final three minutes neither team scored a field goal, both teams collecting their final points at the line, GFC adding 7, NNC 6.

Guard Al Vasey's two blocked shots in the final 18 seconds secured the win for the Bruins.

Led by Greg Bolt's 18, the Bruins had four in double figures, Stone at 13, Jury at 12 and Kimbrough at 3. It was a balanced effort in rebounds with Stone, Kimbrough, Bolt and guard Les Harrison with six each as GFC edged the cCrusaders 36-35 on the boards. Stone had four blocked shots, Kimbrough 7 assists.

MARK'S REMARKS

Reflections:

Concordia: "It was a big win against a team that is back at full strength; I thought we played one of our better games of the year...."

Northwest Nazarene: "It was the game we expected; a very tough game in an exciting game for the crowd--basketball at its best...."

Coming Up:

Lewis and Clark: "They're one of the hottest teams in the district, beating College of Idaho (the district leader); they've always given us tough games...."

STATISTICALLY

Kenny Stone (18.9) and Larry Jury (17.5) are giving the Bruins the district's best team scoring attack--Stone fourth last week in the district, Jury sixth. Stone paces the Bruins in rebounds at 7.9, Curtis Kimbrough close behind at 7.4.

It's a triple play for the Bruins in assists with Les Harrison at 5.0, Al Vasey at 4.2 and Kimbrough at 4.1, the only school with three in district's top 15. Last week they were 6, 8, and 12.

Harrison and Kimbrough lead the team in steals at 46 each.

BRUINS, 10-3, OFF TO BEST START IN NINE YEARS

WHAT'S BRUIN

The George Fox College Bruins, winners of two of three games in a week to run their record to a sparkling 10-3 at the half way point in the season, face three games in a four-day span starting Friday (Jan. 18).

Coach Mark Vernon's team will have two of those contests on the road, where they've found it really not too bad--taking 5 of 8 contests. All three of the next teams are being met for the first time this season.

Concordia College in Portland is first, the team that George Fox ended its season with a year ago. The teams have met 11 times in NAIA action, GFC up by one, 6-5.

After four straight games on the road (and seven of the last eight), the Bruins return to Miller Gym Saturday night (Jan. 19) to host Northwest Nazarene. A year ago the teams split, each winning at home. Overall the 17-year NAIA series stands at 19 for the Crusaders, 14 for GFC.

Taking Sunday off, its back to the court Monday night in Portland at Warner Pacific. George Fox has won 25 of 40 contests in 19 years, but Warner won two of three a year ago, including a 43-42 win in Portland in the last contest.

LOOKING BACK

The Bruins captured two of three contests in five days to move their record to 10-3, second in NAIA District 2.

GFC rolled past Pacific 73-56, was upset 68-55 at Western Baptist, then stopped Columbia Christian 88-80.

It took an overtime for the Bruins to do in the Clippers, who were shooting at a 62 percent pace on their own floor. The Bruins dropped behind by 12 (32-20) after 14 minutes and trailed 40-32 at the half.

But coach Mark Vernon's squad turned on the defense and overpowered the Clippers 22-8 in the first seven minutes of the second half to go out on top 54-48. Columbia came back to catch up at 63-all and then move back out on top by three. George Fox tied it at 73-each and the teams settled for a 76-76 draw at regulation.

The Bruins held the Clippers to just a single field goal in the overtime as GFC put through 12 points on five field goals.

Perhaps the turning point was guard Al Vasey's steal at 1:30 with GFC up by two (80-78) put the Clippers with the ball going for the tie. Vasey grabbed the ball, drove for a layup, was fouled and connected on the free toss to put GFC on top by five.

George Fox hit 52 percent of its shots (33/64) and picked off 31 rebounds (forward Curtis Kimbrough with 10). Columbia Christian grabbed 38.

Guard Larry Jury led the Bruins with 18 points, Kenny Stone had 17, Greg Bolt 16. Les Harrison had eight assists, and six steals.

At Western Baptist the Warriors used a home-court advantage to win at the foul line. Although George Fox outplayed the hosts in field goals (24-23), Western went to the line 27 times and hit 22. George Fox was there 11 times, connecting on 7.

A close game had three ties and seven lead changes in the opening half, before Western took a 32-29 halftime lead after GFC rallied from a nine-point deficit at the three minute mark.

George Fox took a 47-46 lead at 9:39 of the second half. But in the final three minutes, with a narrow 54-50 lead, Western scored 10 of its 14 points at the charity stripe to upset the Bruins, who have won all but nine of the teams' 34 contests.

Stone, who injured his hand on one of two back-to-back dunks midway through the second half did not score in the final ten minutes, but still led the Bruins with 22 points and 7 rebounds.

At Pacific, George Fox toyed with the Boxers for a half, then came out to play in earnest in the second half, going out at one point to a 24 point lead before coasting home.

The Bruins allowed the Boxers just four points in the opening six minutes, going up 13-4. Later in the opening half Vernon gave his back-up players nearly five minutes of playing time and rested his starters with the Boxers coming back for a 63-second lead. GFC went to the half break with a 34-30 lead.

George Fox starters charged back in the opening quarter of the second half to outscore the Boxers and go up 54-39. When back-up center Tom Ketelsen hit a turn-around jumper at 3:44 it was the biggest lead of the night (71-47) and Vernon finished the contest with the starters on the bench.

In a game that appeared to have the Boxer defense centered on fouling the Bruins as they rose to shoot, George Fox went to the line 33 times, connecting on 23. Stone was 9 of 11, helping him to a game-high 19 points. Jury had 17.

Kimbrough topped rebounders with 10 as GFC hauled down 47 to 33 for the Boxers. George Fox shot at a .446 clip and recorded 14 assists.

With the victory, the sixth straight since 1980, George Fox moved ahead in the NAIA series between the schools, 21-20.

MARK'S REMARKS

Coming Up:

Concordia: "They are a team in transition, but they should be tough at home with a group of guys proving they can play."

Northwest Nazarene: "It should be a 'war' between two good teams; I really don't know much about them."

Reflections:

Columbia Christian: "In my three years that was one of the most amazing games. It was a game that could have been won 20 times--10 by each team; we beat a team that shot 62 percent and on their own court."

Western Baptist: "I thought we played poorly that game--we were down for some reason; they did play well at home and I look forward to our home game."

8-2 BRUINS DOWN LINFIELD, WILLAMETTE; FACE THREE ROAD GAMES IN WEEK

WHAT'S BRUIN

The George Fox Bruins, winners of seven of their last eight games for an impressive 8-2 record, take their talents on the road this week for games in Forest Grove, Salem and Portland.

In the midst of a schedule that has the Bruins on the road in seven of eight games, GFC, after meeting Pacific University (2-9 going into the game) Tuesday night (Jan. 8) goes to Western Baptist Friday (Jan. 11) then to Columbia Christian the next night. Two of the contests are rematches.

George Fox overwhelmed Pacific 88-52 Dec. 14 as the Boxers participated in the Bruins' Christmas tourney. That win, the fifth straight since 1980, evened the NAIA series between the teams at 20 games each.

Western's Warriors and GFC will tangle for the first time this year, but the teams are not unfamiliar with each other. Both were participants in the Bruins' Christmas tournament and both played in the Oregon Tech Tourney Dec. 18-19. In the OIT tournament the squads had identical outcomes, both defeating University of California at San Diego, both losing to the host Owls.

The teams have met in NAIA competition 33 times, GFC winning 25, including two of three a year ago.

George Fox will try to continue its perfect string when it meets Columbia Christian for the tenth time in NAIA action. GFC has won the first nine, including a 79-72 victory to open the season in the NAIA District 2 Tip-Off Nov. 30 in Monmouth. The Clippers were 6-7 going into this week.

LOOKING BACK

Yes, George Fox College settled the Yamhill County college basketball supremacy Friday night (Jan. 4) but the 80-76 win, the seventh straight by GFC over cross-county rival Linfield, was nearly overshadowed by the post-game activity of Bruin coach Mark Vernon.

Vernon, who has never lost to Wildcat coach Tim Miller in three years of college coaching, promised his squad he would run back to Newberg--14 miles--if the Bruins would keep alive the win string.

Immediately after the game, Vernon, 31, donned his jogging suit and shoes and took off in the darkness, reaching Newberg in 1 hour 45 minutes--cold, tired and vowing "I'll never do that again!"

Mostly sitting down the next night at home in Miller gym, the muscle-sore Vernon coached the Bruins to an 82-80 victory over visiting Willamette as GFC won its seventh game in eight outings to move its record to a sparkling 8-2.

The win over Linfield followed a 91-61 drubbing of the McMinnville team Dec. 8 in Newberg that had some Wildcats followers blaming an earlier in-the-day football playoff game as a reason for the loss. But the Bruins Friday showed that was no fluke as they handed the Wildcats just their second loss of the season against six wins.

In a game not as close as the final score, George Fox built up an eight-point lead in the first half, only to have the Wildcats rally in the final three minutes to tie the game at 47 at the break.

In the second half Vernon's team slowed the Wildcats to just 10 points in the first 15 minutes as GFC built up a 17 point (74-57) margin, outscoring the Wildcats 27-10. George Fox had a 10-point (80-70) lead with 33 seconds left before a furious Wildcat rally.

Forward Greg Bolt paced the Bruins with 23 points (10 of 16) with Kenny Stone adding 22 along with 10 rebounds. Forward Curtis Kimbrough lead all rebounders with 11. GFC shot at a .526 pace, the Wildcats at .515.

The win over Willamette evened the NAIA series between the schools at 16 each in 18 years of competition and was the second this year for GFC which downed the Bearcats in Salem 71-52 earlier. That 19-point edge appeared assured again in the first half as GFC raced to a 19-point bulge at 41-22 with 3:40 remaining. It was a 17 point, 47-30, halftime lead for the Bruins.

But the Bearcats improved their shooting in the second half to .529 (it was .444 in the first) to gradually creep back on the Bruins, coming within four, 69-65, with 5:32 remaining. George Fox then built it back to 82-75 with 24 seconds left, but like the night before at Linfield, the Bearcats rallied furiously with five points in the final 14 seconds to come the closest since an early 7-6 lead.

Stone and guard Larry Jury combined for 47 points, (Jury with a game-high 24) to lead the Bruins. Bolt had 16. Stone, 10 of 13 for the night from the field, also helped the Bruins mightily with a school record eight blocked shots, bettering the seven of Hille van der Kooy in 1980.

Center Mark Smith hauled down 10 rebounds, also adding 10 points in his best game of the season.

George Fox shot at a steady pace of .588 the first half, .583 the second for a final .586 on 34 of 58 attempts.

The weekend games were the first for starting guard Al Vasey after a four-game layoff with a knee injury. The Bruins court general came back in style--with perfection. In playing 59 minutes in the two games he was 7 of 7 from the floor, also contributing eight assists and four steals.

STONE FIRST DISTRICT PLAYER OF THE WEEK

George Fox's Kenny Stone is NAIA District 2's first Player of the Week for 1984-85. The 6-6 center over the weekend scored 45 points, grabbed 17 rebounds and blocked 12 shots, including a school record 8 Saturday night against Willamette.

Stone has upped his scoring average to 19.3 as he leads the Bruins in three categories. His 8.1 rebounds per game is top, and he has 35 blocks, 3.5 a game. His 29 steals are just three behind guard Les Harrison.

Stone, from Winlock, Wash., is hitting at .612 from the field, 74 of 121.

8-2 BRUINS DOWN LINFIELD, WILLAMETTE; FACE THREE ROAD GAMES IN WEEK

WHAT'S BRUIN

The George Fox Bruins, winners of seven of their last eight games for an impressive 8-2 record, take their talents on the road this week for games in Forest Grove, Salem and Portland.

In the midst of a schedule that has the Bruins on the road in seven of eight games, GFC, after meeting Pacific University (2-9 going into the game) Tuesday night (Jan. 8) goes to Western Baptist Friday (Jan. 11) then to Columbia Christian the next night. Two of the contests are rematches.

George Fox overwhelmed Pacific 88-52 Dec. 14 as the Boxers participated in the Bruins' Christmas tourney. That win, the fifth straight since 1980, evened the NAIA series between the teams at 20 games each.

Western's Warriors and GFC will tangle for the first time this year, but the teams are not unfamiliar with each other. Both were participants in the Bruins' Christmas tournament and both played in the Oregon Tech Tourney Dec. 18-19. In the OIT tournament the squads had identical outcomes, both defeating University of California at San Diego, both losing to the host Owls.

The teams have met in NAIA competition 33 times, GFC winning 25, including two of three a year ago.

George Fox will try to continue its perfect string when it meets Columbia Christian for the tenth time in NAIA action. GFC has won the first nine, including a 79-72 victory to open the season in the NAIA District 2 Tip-Off Nov. 30 in Monmouth. The Clippers were 6-7 going into this week.

LOOKING BACK

Yes, George Fox College settled the Yamhill County college basketball supremacy Friday night (Jan. 4) but the 80-76 win, the seventh straight by GFC over cross-county rival Linfield, was nearly overshadowed by the post-game activity of Bruin coach Mark Vernon.

Vernon, who has never lost to Wildcat coach Tim Miller in three years of college coaching, promised his squad he would run back to Newberg--14 miles--if the Bruins would keep alive the win string.

Immediately after the game, Vernon, 31, donned his jogging suit and shoes and took off in the darkness, reaching Newberg in 1 hour 45 minutes--cold, tired and vowing "I'll never do that again!"

Mostly sitting down the next night at home in Miller gym, the muscle-sore Vernon coached the Bruins to an 82-80 victory over visiting Willamette as GFC won its seventh game in eight outings to move its record to a sparkling 8-2.

The win over Linfield followed a 91-61 drubbing of the McMinnville team Dec. 8 in Newberg that had some Wildcats followers blaming an earlier in-the-day football playoff game as a reason for the loss. But the Bruins Friday showed that was no fluke as they handed the Wildcats just their second loss of the season against six wins.

In a game not as close as the final score, George Fox built up an eight-point lead in the first half, only to have the Wildcats rally in the final three minutes to tie the game at 47 at the break.

In the second half Vernon's team slowed the Wildcats to just 10 points in the first 15 minutes as GFC built up a 17 point (74-57) margin, outscoring the Wildcats 27-10. George Fox had a 10-point (80-70) lead with 33 seconds left before a furious Wildcat rally.

Forward Greg Bolt paced the Bruins with 23 points (10 of 16) with Kenny Stone adding 22 along with 10 rebounds. Forward Curtis Kimbrough lead all rebounders with 11. GFC shot at a .526 pace, the Wildcats at .515.

The win over Willamette evened the NAIA series between the schools at 16 each in 18 years of competition and was the second this year for GFC which downed the Bearcats in Salem 71-52 earlier. That 19-point edge appeared assured again in the first half as GFC raced to a 19-point bulge at 41-22 with 3:40 remaining. It was a 17 point, 47-30, halftime lead for the Bruins.

But the Bearcats improved their shooting in the second half to .529 (it was .444 in the first) to gradually creep back on the Bruins, coming within four, 69-65, with 5:32 remaining. George Fox then built it back to 82-75 with 24 seconds left, but like the night before at Linfield, the Bearcats rallied furiously with five points in the final 14 seconds to come the closest since an early 7-6 lead.

Stone and guard Larry Jury combined for 47 points, (Jury with a game-high 24) to lead the Bruins. Bolt had 16. Stone, 10 of 13 for the night from the field, also helped the Bruins mightily with a school record eight blocked shots, bettering the seven of Hille van der Kooy in 1980.

Center Mark Smith hauled down 10 rebounds, also adding 10 points in his best game of the season.

George Fox shot at a steady pace of .588 the first half, .583 the second for a final .586 on 34 of 58 attempts.

The weekend games were the first for starting guard Al Vasey after a four-game layoff with a knee injury. The Bruins court general came back in style--with perfection. In playing 59 minutes in the two games he was 7 of 7 from the floor, also contributing eight assists and four steals.

BRUINS, 6-2, TAKE HOLIDAY BREAK

WHAT'S BRUIN

The 6-2 George Fox College Bruins take an eight-day holiday break before returning to practice Dec. 28 in preparation for three Northwest Conference teams in five days starting Jan. 4.

The Bruins will meet Linfield College Jan. 4 in McMinnville, Willamette University Jan. 5 in Newberg, and Pacific University Jan. 8 in Forest Grove. All three contests are rematches. The Bruins are in the midst of a string of contests that has them on the road in seven of eight games.

Linfield, 4-1 going into a game Friday night, suffered its only loss at Bruin hands, a 91-61 drubbing in Newberg Dec. 8. The Yamhill County rivals have met 32 times in 14 years of NAIA competition, GFC winning 20, including six straight over a four-year span.

Willamette and George Fox met Dec. 4 in Salem with the Bruins outpacing the Bearcats 71-52. GFC has a chance to even the NAIA series between the schools. The Bearcats hold a 16-15 advantage over 18 years of competition.

George Fox already has evened-up the NAIA series at 20 each with Pacific with an 88-52 thumping of the Boxers Dec. 13 in Newberg. The Bruins have won five straight since 1980, but the teams did not meet a year ago.

LOOKING BACK

George Fox combined a record shattering 11 steals by forward Curtis Kimbrough and a Bruin season-high 30 points by guard Larry Jury to easily down the University of California at San Diego 107-93 Wednesday night (Dec. 19) in Klamath Falls.

The Bruins came within just two points of tying the most points ever scored by a GFC team in regulation time.

Kimbrough shattered the old GFC mark of seven steals in a game set four different times in the last 10 years. Jury's 30 points topped the 29 of forward Kenny Stone in the season opener this year.

The GFC win came against a school of 12,000 based in La Jolla. The Tritons came into the Oregon Tech Christmas tourney 5-3 and lost to Western Baptist in the opening round. George Fox, meanwhile was stopped by the hosts, 95-77, to set up the Triton matchup.

The final outcome could have been worse for UCSD. With a 31-point lead and a quarter of the game remaining, Coach Mark Vernon elected to sit down his starters and give experience to his backups.

George Fox jumped out early, leading by 10 (20-10) less than five minutes into the game, and by 18 after 10 minutes. At the half it was 58-41 for the Bruins, with Jury having 22.

The Bruins methodically pulled away to a 31 point margin, 88-57, after nine minutes of the second half as the Bruins outscored the Tritons 30-16.

Jury's 30 points came on 14 field goals. Forward Kenny Stone had 21 points as all five Bruin starters were in double figures with Kimbrough adding 12, forward Greg Bolt 13 and guard Les Harrison 11, as he also dealt out eight assists.

Warming up from the night before, George Fox hit .563 from the field with Jury connecting on 14 of 17 attempts.

In the Tuesday (Dec. 18) Oregon Tech game it took the Owls a tournament record 35 free throws to best the Bruins. Both teams hit 30 field goals, but the hosts paraded to the charity line for 49 attempts as GFC was whistled for 31 fouls, 20 in the second half. That's where the Owls won it as George Fox went to the line to collect just 17 points on 26 attempts.

But the Bruins were nearly as cold as the 10 degree weather outside, hitting just .370 on the night. In the opening half GFC shut down totally for a seven minute stretch, going into that period one point behind (25-24) at 9:07 and coming out trailing by six, before settling for a 42-30 halftime deficit.

George Fox roared back in the next period, however, outscoring the Owls 15-4 in the first four minutes to come again within one, 46-45. The Bruins eventually took a lead (56-55)--briefly--at 10:24 but for just 12 seconds.

The cold shooting in the cold country showed in the stats: Stone was 6 of 17, Jury 6 of 21, Harrison 1 of 6.

Kimbrough, although he led in no statistical category for the Bruins except steals in the two-game tourney, was named to the all-tourney team. The 6-3 sophomore recorded 12 points each night; 17 rebounds in the two games, including a team-leading eight with San Diego; 14 steals in all, and seven assists to earn the honor.

MARK'S REMARKS

Upcoming: Linfield - "They will be ready for us after losing badly, and they're always tough at home...."

Willamette - "They are a team that has something to prove to us after an earlier loss, and they'll be a tough opponent for us...."

Looking Back: Oregon Tech - "We didn't shoot well and their match-up zone gave us some problems; we had good shots, but they (OIT) seemed to be there contesting...."

UC San Diego - "We played very well and Larry (Jury) had a fantastic offensive game; the score was a little misleading--we should have won by much more...."

STATISTICALLY

The Bruins continue a record-setting pace of 84.3 points a game, 13.0

more than opponents. The previous record 8.1 scoring margin was set in 1973-74.

Two players share identical scoring averages to lead the Bruins--both Jury and Stone at 18.5 on 148 points each. Stone also leads in rebounding (8.0), in blocks (23) and is one behind Harrison in steals, 25 and 24. Harrison leads the team in assists with 40, 5.0 a game.

George Fox has racked up 126 steals--16 per game. The previous school season record was 10.17 a game in 1978-79.

The Bruins will meet Linfield College Jan. 4 in McMinnville, Willamette University Jan. 5 in Newberg, and Pacific University Jan. 8 in Forest Grove. All three contests are rematches. The Bruins are in the midst of a string of contests that has them on the road in seven of eight games.

Linfield, 4-1 going into a game Friday night, suffered its only loss at Bruin hands, a 91-61 drubbing in Newberg Dec. 8. The Yamhill County rivals have met 32 times in 14 years of NAIA competition, GFC winning 20, including six straight over a four-year span.

Willamette and George Fox met Dec. 4 in Salem with the Bruins outpacing the Bearcats 71-52. GFC has a chance to even the NAIA series between the schools. The Bearcats hold a 16-15 advantage over 18 years of competition.

George Fox already has evened-up the NAIA series at 20 each with Pacific with an 88-52 thumping of the Boxers Dec. 13 in Newberg. The Bruins have won five straight since 1980, but the teams did not meet a year ago.

George Fox combined a record shattering 11 steals by forward Curtis Kimbrough and a Bruin season-high 30 points by guard Larry Jury to easily down the University of California at San Diego 107-93 Wednesday night (Dec. 19) in Klamath Falls.

The Bruins came within just two points of tying the most points ever scored by a GFC team in regulation time.

Kimbrough shattered the old GFC mark of seven steals in a game set four different times in the last 10 years. Jury's 30 points topped the 29 of forward Kenny Stone in the season opener this year.

The GFC win came against a school of 12,000 based in La Jolla. The Tritons came into the Oregon Tech Christmas tourney 5-3 and lost to Western Baptist in the opening round. George Fox, meanwhile was stopped by the hosts, 95-77, to set up the Triton matchup.

The final outcome could have been worse for UCSD. With a 31-point lead and a quarter of the game remaining, Coach Mark Vernon elected to sit down his starters and give experience to his backups.

George Fox jumped out early, leading by 10 (20-10) less than five minutes into the game, and by 18 after 10 minutes. At the half it was 58-41 for the Bruins, with Jury having 22.

The Bruins methodically pulled away to a 31 point margin, 88-57, after nine minutes of the second half as the Bruins outscored the Tritons 30-16.

Jury's 30 points came on 14 field goals. Forward Kenny Stone had 21 points as all five Bruin starters were in double figures with Kimbrough adding 12, forward Greg Bolt 13 and guard Les Harrison 11, as he also dealt out eight assists.

Warming up from the night before, George Fox hit .563 from the field with Jury connecting on 14 of 17 attempts.

In the Tuesday (Dec. 18) Oregon Tech game it took the Owls a tournament record 35 free throws to best the Bruins. Both teams hit 30 field goals, but the hosts paraded to the charity line for 49 attempts as GFC was whistled for 31 fouls, 20 in the second half. That's where the Owls won it as George Fox went to the line to collect just 17 points on 26 attempts.

But the Bruins were nearly as cold as the 10 degree weather outside, hitting just .370 on the night. In the opening half GFC shut down totally for a seven minute stretch, going into that period one point behind (25-24) at 9:07 and coming out trailing by six, before settling for a 42-30 halftime deficit.

George Fox roared back in the next period, however, outscoring the Owls 15-4 in the first four minutes to come again within one, 46-45. The Bruins eventually took a lead (56-55)--briefly--at 10:24 but for just 12 seconds.

The cold shooting in the cold country showed in the stats: Stone was 6 of 17, Jury 6 of 21, Harrison 1 of 6.

Kimbrough, although he led in no statistical category for the Bruins except steals in the two-game tourney, was named to the all-tourney team. The 6-3 sophomore recorded 12 points each night; 17 rebounds in the two games, including a team-leading eight with San Diego; 14 steals in all, and seven assists to earn the honor.

MARK'S REMARKS

Upcoming: Linfield - "They will be ready for us after losing badly, and they're always tough at home...."

Willamette - "They are a team that has something to prove to us after an earlier loss, and they'll be a tough opponent for us...."

Looking Back: Oregon Tech - "We didn't shoot well and their match-up zone gave us some problems; we had good shots, but they (OIT) seemed to be there contesting...."

UC San Diego - "We played very well and Larry (Jury) had a fantastic offensive game; the score was a little misleading--we should have won by much more...."

STATISTICALLY

The Bruins continue a record-setting pace of 84.3 points a game, 13.0

more than opponents. The previous record 8.1 scoring margin was set in 1973-74.

Two players share identical scoring averages to lead the Bruins--both Jury and Stone at 18.5 on 148 points each. Stone also leads in rebounding (8.0), in blocks (23) and is one behind Harrison in steals, 25 and 24. Harrison leads the team in assists with 40, 5.0 a game.

George Fox has racked up 126 steals--16 per game. The previous school season record was 10.17 a game in 1978-79.

BRUINS WIN OWN CLASSIC; ENTER OIT TOURNEY

WHAT'S BRUIN

The 5-1 George Fox Bruins will see if they can make it two tournament championships in a row as they participate this week in the Oregon Tech "Herald and News" basketball tournament in Klamath Falls.

Coach Mark Vernon's squad, victorious in winning GFC's own Willcuts-Twenge Classic last week, is one of four teams competing in the OIT tourney Tuesday and Wednesday (Dec. 18-19), Western Baptist and the University of California at San Diego are the other participants.

The road swing, one of the longest of the year for the Bruins, marks the start of a tough schedule that has GFC on the road in seven of its next eight contests. George Fox so far is a perfect 3-0 at home, and 2-1 on the road.

The Bruins will take on the host Owls in the second game of the opening night. The two schools have not met since 1980, when they were paired in the NAIA District 2 Playoffs in Klamath Falls, GFC losing 69-67. That's been a familiar role for the Bruins, who have had four seasons ended at Oregon Tech in playoff action: in 1978 (79-65), in 1975 (72-56) and in 1974 (55-54), when The Owls won the trip to Kansas City by the single point. In NAIA competition that began between the schools in 1965, GFC has 10 wins, Oregon Tech 21.

George Fox and UC San Diego have never met. Western Baptist, third place finisher in GFC's tournament, and the Bruins have met 33 times, GFC victorious 25 times, including two of three games last season.

LOOKING BACK

George Fox College became the first repeater in seven years as the Bruins won their own Willcuts-Twenge Memorial Classic Friday night (Dec. 14).

The Bruins last won their annual Christmas season tourney in 1979. GFC swamped Western Oregon State, the 1982 winner, for the title and trophy.

Coach Mark Vernon's team reached the championship game by an 88-52 demolishing of Pacific University. Western Oregon came to the final game with an 83-75 victory over Western Baptist, which finished third via a 58-52 win over Pacific.

For George Fox, the victory partially avenged a 79-72 setback by WOSC in an NAIA District 2 Tip-Off game in Monmouth, the only loss of the season for the Bruins, who have won four in a row.

It was a close matchup in the opening half with seven ties and seven lead changes until GFC went ahead for good at 27-25 on a 12-foot jump shot by forward Greg Bolt with 6:25 remaining. At the half the Bruins held their largest opening lead, 38-31.

It was the first time in four contests the Bruins had not run up a 20-point margin by the half. But that came just a few minutes later. The Bruins outplayed the Wolves 16-3 in the first six minutes of the second half to jump to a 54-34 lead with five players contributing.

On the other hand, the Wolves were held scoreless for a 5 1/2 minute stretch and had just a single player scoring for the first 13 minutes. Guard Don James produced all 17 of his squad's points in that span and by that time GFC was out in front 63-48.

George Fox's largest lead came at 74-53 with three minutes remaining and the Bruin bench in action.

Senior guard Larry Jury lead all players with 27 points, his season high. Forward Kenny Stone added 18, along with grabbing a game-high 12 rebounds and blocking four shots. Bolt had 10 points.

Guard Les Harrison produced five assists and stole the ball six times as GFC racked up 16 on the 23 turnovers by WOSC. GFC had 12 turnovers. George Fox outrebounded the Wolves--barely--43-42.

In the Pacific game, George Fox raced to a 10-4 lead after four minutes, a pace that set the tone for the game--the third straight in which the Bruins moved out to a 20-point lead over a Northwest Conference opponent.

After nine minutes George Fox was out front 20-8, with 13 of those by Stone, including a dunk, two layups, a jumper, a tip-in, one from underneath and a free throw. By the half break George Fox was on top 49-20.

With a 35-point lead (66-31) after seven minutes into the second half, Vernon called off his starters, and let his backup players have the game experience.

But for the Boxers it continued to get worse. With a final quarter to go they were behind by 39 (72-33) the biggest margin of the night.

It was a night that went into the GFC records books--14 blocked shots, a new mark topping the 10 blocks set twice in 1981. Stone had five of those and backup center Tom Ketelsen 6.

Stone, 8 of 9 for the night in just 21 minutes, finished with 18 points to lead all players. Jury had 15, Bolt 10.

George Fox, which set a school record with 21 steals just the game before, came close again, with 20. That was nearly half of the Boxer's 42 turnovers for the night. Where the Bruins did not dominate was rebounding--36 for the evening, while Pacific collected 44. Ketelsen led the Bruins with 7.

MARK'S REMARKS

Upcoming: "I really don't know much about any of the teams except Western Baptist; we hope to be playing at our best and it should be a fun tournament."

Western Oregon game: "It was a close first half and both teams played well; I think our pressure defense did it for us in the second half, but also give credit to the 16 steals that turned the game around."

Pacific University game: "Our pressure defense took them out of everything they wanted to do and led to many easy baskets."

STATISTICALLY:

Sophomore Forward Kenny Stone missed just two shots in tournament games (15 of 17) and has a .705 field goal percentage. He leads the team in scoring at 18.2, in rebounding at 7.8, in blocked shots at 22 and steals at 21.

George Fox now is averaging 81.7 points a game, 18 more than opponents.

BASKETBALL BRUINS ANNOUNCE RADIO BROADCASTS

The George Fox College basketball Bruins this season will be broadcast on both radio and television.

Radio station KWIP has announced plans to broadcast Bruin basketball games live throughout the Northern Willamette Valley.

The station, at 880 AM, broadcast NAIA District 2 Tip-Off contests and will broadcast the annual Willcuts-Twenge Classic on the Newberg Campus Dec. 13-14.

In addition, plans call for initial year broadcasts of up to 10 games, according to station manager Eric Norberg, who has guided the station to become one of the Northwest's first with dual-city identification--Dallas/Salem.

Sports announcer will be Don Costa. Game times are 7:30 p.m. during the regular season, and at 9 p.m. the first night of the Christmas-season tourney.

George Fox men's basketball games also will be televised locally in Yamhill County on Liberty Cable Television Channel 7. The cooperative program with the George Fox Video Center videotapes selected home games for the Bruin Broadcasting Network.

Coordination of the BBN is through the GFC Video Center which supplies the production personnel and technicians. Arrangements can be made for distribution of the game tapes to hometowns of opponent teams.

Announcers are Shaun Mcnay, a 1983 GFC grad who now is a member of the college's Admissions staff, and GFC senior Gene Christian, a communication arts major.

It is believed the George Fox television plan, founded in February, 1983, was the first small college program for television in Oregon.

All games will be cablecast at 8 p.m. The schedules is: Jan. 22 Northwest Nazarene; Jan. 29 Lewis and Clark; Jan. 30 Eastern Oregon; Feb. 12 Warner Pacific; Feb. 13 Concordia and Feb. 26 Columbia Christian.

BRUINS OVERWHELM LINFIELD, WILLAMETTE; HOST OWN CLASSIC THIS WEEK

WHAT'S BRUIN:

George Fox, with two impressive wins over Northwest Conference teams, takes its 3-1 early-season mark into its own Willcuts-Twenge Classic starting Thursday (Dec. 13) with an all Willamette Valley lineup.

The Bruins meet Pacific in the 9 p.m. contest preceded by a 7 p.m. game between Western Baptist and Western Oregon.

Winners of opening night games meet at 9 p.m. Friday losers at 7 p.m.

Western Oregon's Wolves are 5-1 going into this week's action. Including 79-72 win over George Fox in the NAIA District 2 Tip-Off in Monmouth, the Bruins' only loss.

Western Baptist is 3-2 while Pacific is 1-4.

The seventh-annual George Fox Christmas season tourney is called the "Ron Willcuts-Dale Twenge Memorial Basketball Classic," honoring two Newberg men, both college leaders, who died in an airplane crash in Eastern Oregon in June, 1980.

Both men were George Fox alumni, active in the college basketball program as players and later as supporters.

Families of both men, at the time of their death, requested establishment of athletic funds in their names at the college.

Willcuts, 41 at his death, was a member of the George Fox Board of Trustees, Twenge, 36 at his death, was a member of the college's Alumni Board and chairman of the alumni fund campaign. They died with two others in the crash of a small plane in a severe thunderstorm near Baker, Ore.

Tickets prices for the tournament are $3 for adults, $2 for students, and $1 for children and senior citizens.

LOOKING BACK:

Ask a George Fox fan about Saturday's Linfield game and you're not likely to get a football response. What you will get, perhaps, is an enthusiastic exclamation of the Bruins' 91-61 demolishing of the basketball Wildcats.

It spoiled the Wildcats perfect 4-0 mark and improved GFC to 3-1.

The Bruins might be accused of stealing the game from the visiting team--GFC produced a record 21 steals, topping the old school mark of 19 set against Willamette 10 years ago.

The 30-point win was the sixth straight victory over four years by George Fox over its cross-county rival and was the biggest margin of victory by either team in 32 games in 14 years of NAIA competition.

It could have been an even bigger win. The Bruins rolled out to a 35-point margin at one point with Coach Mark Vernon deciding to play the last quarter of the game with his subs. But the scoring continued to keep pace as all 11 Bruins scored.

George Fox took command early, racing to a 12-4 spread after five minutes, 22-13 after 10 and 42-21 after 15 minutes on its way to 52-30 halftime bulge.

Holding the Wildcats scoreless for the first six minutes of the second half. George Fox added 13 of its own to build its largest lead at 65-30. Just minutes later Vernon called in the subs.

Although the victory was commanding, the Bruins were not exceptional from the field, just .478 on the night on 32 of 67 field goal attempts. The difference, perhaps, was Linfield's .309 on 21 of 68.

But also give credit to the Bruins' assists: 25 for the night compared to 5 for Linfield. Three Bruins, guards Les Harrison and Al Vasey and forward Curtis Kimbrough, each tallied five. Then there were the blocked shots, eight in all (0 for Linfield) with forward Kenny Stone swatting away five Linfield attempts. GFC recorded 23 turnovers to 37 for the visitors, 21 of those on the steals with Stone and Harrison each picking up six.

Forward Greg Bolt led the scoring attack with 17 as four Bruins were in double-figures. Senior forward/guard Larry Jury had 16 and Stone and Kimbrough 13 each. Stone produced his statistics in just 15 minutes of play as the non-starters picked up half the playing time.

The win was the second in a row in which GFC has overwhelmed a Northwest Conference team in the opening half. Vernon's squad crushed host Willamette University Tuesday (Dec. 4), 71-52. The Bruins excelled in defense in the first half, holding the Bearcats to just 19 points, while rolling up 38 points themselves. The defense kept the Bearcats to just a single basket in a seven minutes stretch as GFC built up a 21-point opening-half margin. It was closer in the second half (nine points), but the Bruins kept control and outpaced Willamette 19-9 in the final five minutes to take the win.

Bolt also led the point production in that game with 16. Kimbrough and Jury had 12 each. Stone who had eight points, collected a game-high seven rebounds as GFC won that battle 36-21. The Bruins had 14 steals (7 for Willamette), 24 assists (12 for Willamette), and shot at 617 from the floor (.404 for Willamette).

MARK'S REMARKS

Linfield Game: "It was a good team effort; our quickness controlled the game and made things difficult for Linfield. We beat a good team--that helps our confidence."

STATISTICALLY:

George Fox is averaging 81.0 points a game, 14.5 more than opponents. Although the Bruin average is just 2.4 more than a year ago, GFC is holding its opponents to nine fewer points a contest.

GFC 1-1; FACES LINFIELD, WILLAMETTE

WHAT'S BRUIN:

George Fox College continues its young season on the road, traveling to Salem Tuesday night (Dec. 4) to meet Willamette University. Saturday the Bruins stage their home opener, hosting Linfield College in a 7:30 p.m. contest in Miller Gymnasium, Wheeler Sports Center.

Willamette and GFC have faced off 30 times in 20 years of NAIA competition dating back to 1965. The Bearcats hold a 16-14 edge. The two teams split a year ago, each team winning at home.

Willamette is being guided by former Portland Trail Blazer Geoff Petrie, filling in for Rich Glas, on a one-year sabbatical.

In the cross-county rivalry with Linfield, GFC has a 19-12 NAIA advantage, winning both games a year ago from Coach Tim Miller's team.

LOOKING BACK:

Ask George Fox College basketball coach Mark Vernon if he believes in jinxes and you might get a positive response.

contest to Western Oregon State Saturday night (Dec. 1). It might have been predicted--George Fox has not won a contest in Monmouth in 19 years of NAIA competition--22 consecutive losses.

It wasn't that the Bruins didn't try, they had a 31-28 half time lead and held it through the first six minutes of the second half when the Wolves reeled off 10 consecutive points to move out to a nine-point lead at 50-41. The Bruins never caught up, but came close. With 1:22 left, sophomore forward Kenny Stone stole an inbounds pass and connected on a three-footer from the right to pull the Bruins within two at 70-68. That was the closest it came as the loss string in Monmouth continues.

George Fox kept in contention despite a poor night from the field, just .391 on 27 of 69 attempts. Meantime, WOSC was hitting more than half its shots (.556 on 30 of 54). The Bruins were paced by sophomore forward Kenny Stone's 23 points by the 14 of guard Larry Jury and 13 of senior Greg Bolt.

George Fox had a 43-41 rebounding edge, led by the 11 of Stone and forward Curtis Kimbrough.

George Fox reached the NAIA Tip-Off championship game via a 90-74 win over Columbia Christian Friday night. Vernon's squad never trailed in that contest, starting out 6-0, then moving it to 9-2 and taking a 10 point lead at (29-19) with just over seven minutes remaining in the half.

The Clippers outscored GFC 14-8 in the opening four minutes of the second half to tie the game 48-each. But it was a short-lived tie--just 21 seconds before Jury popped in a 15 footer from the left side to move the Bruins out in front for good.

George Fox held the Clippers scoreless four minutes in the middle of the half and moved out in front by nine and gradually built its lead.

Stone, expected to be the Bruins' mainstay for the year, proved equal to the task. On his opening night he was 12 of 14 from the floor on his way to 29 points. He grabbed a game-high ten rebounds and blocked four shots.

Jury added 17 points, center Mark Smith 12 and Bolt 10. GFC outrebounded Columbia Christian 44-35.

Although George Fox had a sizzling .690 field goal average in the second half, .600 for the game, the Bruins struggled at the line connecting on just 24 of 39 attempts, .615 on the night.

MARK'S REMARKS:

Upcoming: Willamette - "They graduated a lot of players, but they are playing at home and should be tough..."

Linfield - "They are 3-0 and have got to be happy coming in to us; it should be a good game..."

Looking Back: Columbia Christian - "We played well considering it was our first game; Kenny (Stone) was exceptional..."

Western Oregon - "It was the most frustrating game in my three years of coaching; we dominated in every way except we couldn't put it in the hoop; we played a team on the road and shot 35 percent and were still in the game--that's promising...."

GFC 1-1; FACES LINFIELD; WILLAMETTE

WHAT'S BRUIN:

George Fox College continues its young season on the road, traveling to Salem Tuesday night (Dec. 4) to meet Willamette University. Saturday the Bruins stage their home opener, hosting Linfield College in a 7:30 p.m. contest in Miller Gymnasium, Wheeler Sports Center.

Willamette and GFC have faced off 30 times in 20 years of NAIA competition dating back to 1965. The Bearcats hold a 16-14 edge. The two teams split a year ago, each team winning at home.

Willamette is being guided by former Portland Trail Blazer Geoff Petrie, filling in for Rich Glas, on a one-year sabbatical.

In the cross-country rivalry with Linfield, GFC has a 19-12 NAIA advantage, winning both games a year ago from Coach Tim Miller's team.

LOOKING BACK:

Ask George Fox College basketball coach Mark Vernon if he believes in jinxes and you might get a positive response.

contest to Western Oregon State Saturday night (Dec. 1). It might have been predicted--George Fox has not won a contest in Monmouth in 19 years of NAIA competition--22 consecutive losses.

It wasn't that the Bruins didn't try, they had a 31-28 half time lead and held it through the first six minutes of the second half when the Wolves reeled off 10 consecutive points to move out to a nine-point lead at 50-41. The Bruins never caught up, but came close. With 1:22 left, sophomore forward Kenny Stone stole an inbounds pass and connected on a three-footer from the right to pull the Bruins within two at 70-68. That was the closest it came as the loss string in Monmouth continues.

George Fox kept in contention despite a poor night from the field, just .391 on 27 of 69 attempts. Meantime, WOSC was hitting more than half its shots (.556 on 30 of 54). The Bruins were paced by sophomore forward Kenny Stone's 23 points by the 14 of guard Larry Jury and 13 of senior Greg Bolt.

George Fox had a 43-41 rebounding edge, led by the 11 of Stone and forward Curtis Kimbrough.

George Fox reached the NAIA Tip-Off championship game via a 90-74 win over Columbia Christian Friday night. Vernon's squad never trailed in that contest, starting out 6-0, then moving it to 9-2 and taking a 10 point lead at (29-19) with just over seven minutes remaining in the half.

The Clippers outscored GFC 14-8 in the opening four minutes of the second half to tie the game 48-each. But it was a short-lived tie--just

Bruin Basketball:

HOW IT LOOKS FOR 1984-85

George Fox Coach Mark Vernon has a goal. If he reaches it the Bruins will not only have a good season, they'll have one of their best ever.

But, to answer the most obvious questions first--no, the Bruins have not replaced "All-Everything" Randy Dunn, GFC's most honored player ever. His efforts and honors will be missed, but Vernon says its not devastating.

In fact, the third year Bruin coach says "we'll be a better team." He doesn't say that negatively against Dunn, but positively in the fact that he believes this year's players will be required to do more individually without relying on one outstanding player.

Vernon, in fact, is not hedging his forecast with the usual "cautiously optimistic" prediction. He's removing that standard qualifier and he's "very optimistic."

The bright outlook is bolstered by more experience, and some good recruiting. For example, last year the Bruins started with a total of 11 years of experienced college ball. This year 17 years are on hand. "This added college-level experience should show up in our play," says Vernon.

-more-

With four starters back, four "quality" recruits, and some good bench personnel Vernon claims the Bruins are the deepest in his three seasons. "We're strong at every position and the back up; we're 10 deep," he says.

Now about that goal: Vernon wants not only to make the NAIA district 2 playoffs, he wants to host a game. That means a finish in the top four. It would be a first for George Fox, which has never hosted a district playoff game in 11 contests in 14 years.

The Bruins will feature fast-break basketball, with a press-oriented team "looking to run at every opportunity," according to Vernon. The Bruins should have a good rebounding squad, a help in the running game. While last season the Bruins set up for Dunn, this year's team, according to Vernon, probably will score more points than last year because it will have more ways to score.

Some of those ways will be with forward/center Kenny Stone and guard/forward Larry Jury. Stone, expected to take over the point production leadership, averaged 10.4 last year as a freshman and was the most accurate at .591. Perhaps the district's best freshman, Stone also is an intimidator on defense, blocking 72 shots last year to lead the district.

Jury, the second highest returning scorer in the district, followed Dunn in scoring last season at 16.3 and is expected to continue his output.

Also expected to score more is junior forward Al Vasey, who has been more in the habit of feeding the ball to his teammate--167 assists last year for a 6.0 average. And there's Greg Bolt, who contributed 8.6 points a game and is the fourth returning starter.

Among the top newcomers are Mark Smith, a junior transfer from Chemeketa Community College where he averaged 10.0 points a game, and guard Mark Cramer with two seasons at Warner Pacific College. Also bringing experience is junior transfer Les Harrison with two seasons at Western Iowa Community College. The top freshman in the fold is Eric Lautenbach, a much sought-after recruit who captained his Sunset High team with a 14.0 scoring average.

SEASON OUTLOOK: The Bruins have not replaced "All-Everything" Randy Dunn, but they may have a better team effort. The "very optimistic" outlook by Coach Mark Vernon is based on four returning starters, much more college-level experience, and some bolstering at guard. Kenny Stone, one of the district's best freshman last year, returns, along with Larry Jury, second highest returning scorer in the district.
