2011 WOMEN'S SOCCER

ANDY
HETHERINGTON
Head Coach

Now entering his 10th season as the head coach of the George Fox University women's soccer program, Andy Hetherington has brought the Bruins along to a point of serious competitiveness in the rugged Northwest

Conference, a league which always features several teams among the best in the nation.

Only the second coach in the history of George Fox women's soccer, Hetherington has a cumulative 61-103-10 record (.379) in nine years since coming to the university during the summer of 2002. Prior to that time, he had served as assistant men's head coach at Catlin Gabel (Ore.) High School from 1991-92, head men's coach at Corbett (Ore.) High School from 1993-96, and head women's coach at Valley Catholic (Ore.)

High from 1998-2001. All together, his high school teams had a cumulative record of 123-20-5.

At Catlin Gabel, Hetherington's teams went 20-0 in 1991 and 19-0 in 1992, both teams winning District 1 and state championship titles. Establishing the program at Corbett, he guided the team to a 31-11-3 overall record and made the playoffs in each of his three years there. At Valley Catholic, where he was 53-9-2 in four years, his 1998, 2000, and 2001 teams each won the Tri-Valley League and reached the quarterfinals of the state Class 3A playoffs, while the 1999 squad was league runner-up and reached the second round of the state tournament.

Hetherington has worked to develop that kind of consistent winning tradition at George Fox. "My aim," he says, "is to make the women's soccer program not only more competitive, but also more attractive. I am an offensive-minded coach with a total soccer mentality that is designed to develop attacking scenarios from anywhere on the field."

Hetherington, 53, is a native of Manchester, England, where he attended St. John's College. He played soccer semi-professionally in both England and France from 1978-86 before coming to the United States.

2011 MEN'S SOCCER COACHES

TIM TSOHANTARIDIS Head Coach

Timotheos (Tim) Tsohantaris, who previously coached the George Fox University men's soccer team from 1986-89 and led the Bruins to a National Christian College Athletic Association national title in 1988, enters the fourth season of his second stint as the Bruins' coach and eighth season overall in 2011.

A Greek-born U.S. citizen, Tsohantaris first came to George Fox in 1985 as an assistant coach for the men's team under Paul Berry, then stepped in as the head coach the following season. In four seasons, he led the Bruins to four NCCAA Region 8 appearances, region titles in 1986, 1987, and 1988, and to three national tournaments. After going 2-1 in the NCCAA nationals in both 1986 and 1987, the 1988 team defeated LeTourneau and Cedarville in the national tournament, then knocked off Bartlesville Wesleyan 3-1 in the championship game. He was selected as the 1988 NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

In 1989, Tsohantaris and Manfred Tschan shared head coaching duties before Tschan took over the reins and guided the Bruins through the 2007 season. After 19 seasons, Tschan retired to go into private business with Newberg-based Action Equipment Company and Tsohantaris returned to the sidelines for the 2008 season. His overall record at George Fox is now 57-67-9 (.462) after seven seasons.

Tsohantaris played for and first coached the men's program at Barrington College in Rhode Island, where he was 7-6-1 in his only season in 1979. He has coached both men's and women's teams at the high school level, with an 11-year record of 109-57-8, and has a club team coaching record of 25-7-2 in two years. Coupled with a 64-73-10 (.469) record in eight college seasons, his cumulative coaching record is 198-137-20 (.586) in 21 years. He has also played for three East Coast soccer clubs and the U.S. select team.

In announcing the hiring of Tsohantaris for a second time, George Fox director of athletics Craig Taylor said, "I am very excited that Tim has the opportunity to shape and lead the next era of Bruin soccer. His soccer coaching background is obviously outstanding. He is also highly respected as a classroom teacher."

Tsohantaris, a professor of Biblical studies at George Fox, was named the Undergraduate Professor of the Year, an award voted on by the student body, in 1995. From 1986-1990, he served as the George Fox chaplain. An ordained minister in the Greek Evangelical Church, he moved to Massachusetts in 1990 to pastor the largest GEC congregation in the United States. Upon his return to George Fox in 1993, he was the men's assistant again for four seasons, and the women's assistant coach for three.

In returning to the coaching ranks, Tsohantaris said, "2007 was the first time I was not involved in soccer in some capacity, but my passion for the game never left me. I wanted to get back into coaching, which I see as a ministry, but I also wanted to continue teaching at George Fox. God has opened up a door for me to fulfill both of my passions."

Tsohantaris has a bachelor's degree from Barrington (1977), a master's degree from Ashland Theological Seminary (1985), and a Ph.D. from the University of Athens (2002). He and his wife Valerie have two sons, Demetrius and Thaddeus.
