Men's and Women's Track and Field/Cross Country Head Coach

Wes Cook

After a highly successful career in high school coaching, Wes Cook has turned George Fox University into a small college powerhouse in cross country and track and field.

In his 11 years at the Newberg institution, his men's and women's teams have become regulars at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) national meets. All four of his squads have finished among the top 15 in the nation, and they occasionally reach up and knock off NCAA Division 1 opponents.

In 1992, following the George Fox men's fifth-place and women's second-place finishes at the national meet, Cross Country Express magazine declared his cross country program best in the nation at the NAIA level. In George Fox's final year in the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA), his women's cross country team won the 1988 NCCAA national title with a record low score.

His athletes have won 78 NAIA All-American awards and have performed just as well in the classroom, earning 45 NAIA All-American Scholar-Athlete awards. In 1995, George Fox was the only school to put both men's and women's teams in the top five of the NAIA cross country national meet team scholastic competition.

Cook's accomplishments haven't gone unrecognized. He was named National Coach of the Year in women's cross country by the NCCAA in 1988 and the NAIA in 1992. In the West Coast region (NAIA Area I), he won Coach of the Year honors for men's cross country in 1990 and 1992.

At the district and conference level, he's earned Coach of the Year honors 12 times, at least once in each sport he coaches. In 1992-93, he was named NAIA District 2 Coach of the Year for all women's sports.

He's involved nationally as an NAIA national rater and has served on the NAIA women's track and field games committee and is a member of the U.S. Track Coaches Association.

A Nebraska native, Cook rose to the highest rank (Eagle) in the Boy Scouts of America before going on to become a four-time conference track scorer at the University of Northern Colorado. He set the school record at the 800-meter distance and helped the mile relay team to four consecutive conference titles. He was the national winner of the Holmes Award, given to the most outstanding senior in Alpha Kappa Lambda, a national collegiate fraternity.

In 1961, he graduated with a degree in physical education and history. He earned a Master of Arts in Teaching at Lewis & Clark College in Portland in 1975.

Cook served 26 years as a head coach at five high schools in three states. During his 15 years at Gladstone High School, his track and cross country teams finished as Oregon state champion or runner-up 10 times. His boy's cross country team went undefeated for 51 straight dual meets, and he was named Oregon class 2A (now 3A) High School Coach of the Year for all sports three times.

In 1983, his son Toby set the Oregon class 3A state record in the 1,500-meter race.

Cook has served as president of the Oregon Track and Cross Country Coaches Association and the Oregon Association of The Athletics Congress (now U.S. Track and Field). He's been active in Fellowship of Christian Athletes and summer track and basketball camps. He's led four international tour teams and has traveled to 15 countries.

Cook has spoken at clinics and seminars nationwide and authored articles in state and national publications.

In addition to his coaching duties, Cook also is associate professor of health and human performance at George Fox.

He has three adult children; Tammy, Toby and Brad.

Dave Guzman and 1997 400-meter national champion Ryan Chaney

Assistant Track Coaches

SCOTT BROWN came to George Fox as a student-athlete in 1987, the same year Wes Cook took the head coaching position.

A member of Madison High School's 1986 state championship track team, he earned first-team all-state honors in the 4x400-meter relay in 1987.

At George Fox, he was a four-year letterwinner in track and cross country and qualified for the NAIA national decathlon and 400-meter hurdles. Three of his years, he was the leading point scorer on the track team.

He earned his bachelor's degree in math teaching in 1991. After serving as an assistant coach at Clackamas Community College in 1992, he joined the George Fox coaching staff. His responsibilities are the hurdles, jumps and multi-events. In his five years, George Fox athletes coached by Brown have qualified for NAIA national competition in 57 events. Those student-athletes scored in 26 events, won 19 NAIA All-American awards and three won national titles.

This past year, he maintained the NAIA national women's track and field individual rankings. He has also written an article on hurdling titled "Hurdling 101" in "Sprinting and Hurdling" by Keeba Tolbert.

Brown currently is working on his master of education degree at George Fox and lives in Newberg.

DAVE GUZMAN became the George Fox sprints and relay coach in 1994-95 after spending a dozen years guiding Salem Academy's sprinters to prominence at the state level.

In his eight seasons prior to joining the George Fox coaching staff, 30 of his relay teams qualified for the Oregon Class 2A state meet, 29 scored points, and 17 took state titles. Six athletes won individual state titles.

In three seasons at George Fox, he has coached seven relay teams to NAIA national meet appearances, four finishing in the top five.

Guzman has 21 years of track and field coaching experience, including three years as co-founder and president of the Santiam Striders Track Club.

A graduate of Linfield College, he owns an insurance business in Salem.

He and his wife, Judy, live in Kaiser and have four children.

JOHN LUCCIO draws on more than 37 years of coaching experience to help George Fox student-athletes in the throwing events.

He has been an assistant coach at George Fox since 1989, mentoring his student-athletes to two individual national titles and four other All-American finishes.

His resume includes a five-year stint as an assistant track coach at University of California-Santa Barbara where one team finished as NCAA national runners-up.

He went on to high school head coaching jobs at Sherwood (Ore.) High School and Illinois Valley (Cave Junction, Ore.) High School. His Sherwood boys and girls cross country teams both won district titles. At Illinois Valley, his girls cross country as well as boys and girls track squads all won district championships.

Luccio lettered in track and football while earning a bachelor's degree at Bowling Green State University in Ohio. He went on to earn master's degrees at Bowling Green and the University of Oregon.

He switched from George Fox's sprint and relay coach to throwing coach in 1995.

Luccio continues to be active. He competes in master's division track and field competition, ranking in the nation's top-25 in javelin, 300-meter low hurdles, and triple jump.

Currently, he is a physical education specialist at Archer Glen Elementary in Sherwood.

He and his wife, Margaret, have seven children and live in West Linn.

Looking Back at Significant Bruins in History

Although George Fox's track and cross country programs have achieved most of their national success in the last few decades, they follow an impressive tradition. George Fox student-athletes have been earning distinction since the late 1800s.

Roy Heater (1898-1902)

Roy Heater may have been the finest athlete in the Pacific Northwest at the beginning of the 1900s. In 1902, the Oregonian newspaper wrote that Heater was "recognized as the best all-around athlete ever turned out in the Northwest."

He beat the world record holder at the 1905 National Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) Track and Field Championships to win the pole vault competition. Using a wood pole, he cleared 11-feet, 6 inches. At track meets attended by colleges of all sizes, he would win multiple events, in one meet finishing first in seven events.

In 1902, the Oregonian listed him as the owner of four Pacific Northwest track records.

Roy Heater

He became one of the leading track mentors in the Northwest, coaching at George Fox, Willamette University, Pacific University and Oregon State. Among his students were Slat Gill and A.C. Gilbert, who went on to break the world pole vault record at Yale University.

Janet (Johnson) McClurg (1961-65) was a world-class athlete, winning the 1964 U.S. Track and Field Federation 100- and 220-yard national championships.

She finished sixth in the pentathlon at the 1967 Pan Am Games and her 1967 400-yard time of 53.6 ranked ninth in the world.

Bob Hadlock (1965-70) was George Fox's first NAIA track All-American and the first to be selected in a professional draft. Hadlock made it to the NAIA national meet three times, finishing third in the 1968 shot put. After being named a football All-American in 1970, the 6-foot-6 defensive tackle and center was drafted by the Detroit Lions of the National Football League.

Curt Ankeny (1970-74) was one of the Northwest's top athletes in the early '70s. He was named 1973 NAIA District 2 Athlete of the Year for all sports. He was a three-time track and field NAIA national meet competitor, finishing third in the 1974 marathon. He twice finished 17th at the national cross country meet. Ankeny set NAIA District 2 records in winning the district marathon and six-mile races. He also captured the three-mile title and the cross country championship twice. He was inducted into the NAIA District 2 Players Hall of Fame in 1984.

Steve Blikstad (1975-79) was George Fox's first NAIA national champion. He won NAIA All-American awards three times in track and once in cross country. After taking second as a sophomore and third as a junior, he took the steeplechase national title his senior season. In track, Blikstad broke five school records and helped

American awards and also made the GTE Academic All-American At-Large First Team. She was twice named NAIA District 2

Jen Christiansen (1993-97) was a pioneer in women's pole vault, earning NAIA All-American honors in 1997. She cleared 9-6.25 to place fifth in the inaugural year of the event.

Ryan Chaney (1993-97) won the 1997 indoor and outdoor NAIA 400-meter titles and was named the spring at-large GTE Academic All-American of the Year.

Chaney's best 400-meter time of 45.98 was the fastest by an Oregon college athlete—at all levels.

He finished his track career with eight NAIA All-American awards and seven school records. He was named co-athlete of the meet at the 1997 NAIA Northwest Regional Meet. Chaney qualified and went on to compete in the 1997 USA Track and Field Championships.

set two school relay records. He competed at the NAIA national cross country meet four times, earning All-American honors for his 19th place finish in 1976.

Jill (Jamison) Beals (1988-92) was George Fox's first student-athlete to be inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame. She was a three-time 10,000-meter national NAIA champion and set the national meet record. She also ran to NAIA national runner-up finishes in the 5,000-meter race and the cross country race. She helped George Fox's women's cross country team to its first-ever No. 1 national ranking.

Jill (Jamison) Beals 13-time All-American, Seattle Marathon winner and NAIA 10,000 meter national meet record holder.

In her track and cross country career, she won a dozen NAIA All-Female Athlete of the Year and went on to win the 1992 Seattle Marathon in her first try. At George Fox, she set records in six events.

In 1992, she was a finalist for the Hayward Award, given to the top amateur athlete in Oregon.

Aaron Young (1991-92; 93-96) saved his best for last, winning the NAIA national triple jump with a career-best and school record 48-11 effort his senior season. Young, as a junior, had finished sixth in the triple jump. He also was a national high jump competitor, an event he had won at the Oregon Class 4A school meet.

Becci Harper (1995-97) won back-to-back NAIA national javelin titles and was an all-conference basketball player at George Fox.

She set the school record with a javelin throw of 156-11 as a junior.

THE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1885 as Friends Pacific Academy, George Fox University is a Christian liberal arts university growing in size and reputation. In the last 10 years enrollment has quadrupled to more than 2,200 students and U.S. News and World

Report in 1997 ranked the school second in academic reputation in its western regional liberal arts colleges category.

The magazine also has listed the university in its "Top Teaching Schools" and "Most Efficient" categories.

George Fox offers innovative programs. Each freshman undergraduate is provided a computer to use and keep upon graduating. Students reaching their junior year are eligible for an international study trip for which the university pays transportation costs.

George Fox offers 36 undergraduate and nine graduate degree programs, as well as a degree-completion program for working adults. Classes also are offered in Portland, Salem, Eugene and Boise, Idaho. George Fox became a university in 1996 when it merged with Western Evangelical Seminary in Portland.

The school is named in honor of the founder of the Friends (Quaker) Church.

The University's most prominent alumnus is the late President Herbert Hoover, who attended Friends Pacific Academy.

ATHLETIC AFFILIATION

The landscape of small-college athletics in the Pacific Northwest is undergoing sweeping changes, and George Fox University is in the midst of the transformation.

In the fall of 1994, the University joined the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges (NCIC), a league of 10 strong academic institutions in Oregon and Washington. That winter, the NCIC applied for membership in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III. The move meant leaving the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA), an association George Fox had held membership in since 1965.

George Fox and the NCIC members have provisional membership in the NCAA but continue to compete in NAIA national championships. George Fox expects to be eligible for NCAA national championships by 1999-2000.

George Fox's men's and women's basketball teams compete in NAIA Division II, while the 11 other sports the University competes in are not divided into divisions by the NAIA.

The NAIA is an autonomous association administering programs leading to 13 men's and 11 women's championships. The NAIA includes about 350 four-year colleges and universities in 49 states and Canada. They are grouped in nine regions and 44 conferences.

The NCAA administers 80 championships in 21 sports for its 1,201 member institutions, involving nearly 21,000 men and women scholar-athletes. There are more than 350 schools in Division III.
