HEAD COACH

Cory Hand
Head Coach

Cory Hand, the director of the Girls Youth Development Westside Timbers program and a staff member of the Portland Timbers Olympic Development Program, is the head women's soccer coach at George Fox University, becoming only the third coach in the 22-year history of the sport at the school.

After graduating from Wilsonville (Ore.) High School, Hand went to Whitworth University in 2001 before injuries ended his own soccer-playing days.

He began his career as a staff coach for Portland City United from 2001-06 before becoming an assistant coach at Willsonville High School a few years later. He created and ran his own goalkeeper academy before he started coaching for the Westside Timbers Soccer Club in 2006, which he continues today. While coaching at Westside Timbers Soccer Club, Hand has led the team to state and regional championships, and has developed athletes who have gone on to receive national recognition.

Players from his club teams have gone on to compete at every level of college soccer.

ABOUT THE TEAM

In only the second year of his tenure as the head coach of the women's soccer team at George Fox University, one thing is clear: Cory Hand knows his team. Ask him about each and every one of his 26 players, and he'll tell you how he sees each one fitting into the puzzle that is his 2014 team. Hand and his coaches not only have the knowledge, but tremendous confidence in the leap he expects his team to make in just one year's time. "We have some very high expectations," Hand said. "Half the team is new, so it's going to take some time, but we've got our vision."

George Fox returns 15 of its players from last year's team. Two of them, Becca Allen and Michelle Young, led the team in multiple categories. Allen led the Bruins in shots, shots on goal and what Hand deems "creating chances." Young has led the team in goals the last two years and topped the team in assists. Allen and Young will be joined by the team's lone seniors in team captain Cassidy Skillings and fourth-year starter Haley Downey.
