GREENLEAF (Idaho) FRIENDS CHURCH
Where Yearly Meeting will be held in 1952

MINUTES OF OREGON YEARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS 1951

● 1. It is cause for rejoicing that Oregon Yearly Meeting is privileged to meet under divine guidance in its fifty-ninth session at Newberg, Oregon, this 16th day of August, 1951, at 9:30 a.m.

Let nothing be done through strife or vain-glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Philippians 2:3.

● 2. The Presiding Clerk brought an inspiring message from Romans 8, emphasizing especially Romans 8:14. He said one of the Friends' doctrines was the immediacy of the guidance of the Holy Spirit and that we should be sensitive to spiritual guidance. He asked that the business sessions be permeated with prayer. All around spirituality is devotion and work. Expect great things from God; attempt great things for God.

Charles Haworth and J. Russel Stands continued the spirit of devotion by earnest prayers of thanksgiving and praise.

● 3. Communications came from the Assistant Clerk and the Announcing Clerk that they would be unable to attend.

The following were named from the floor to serve temporarily:

Mahlon Macy—Assistant Clerk

Dorwin Smith—Announcing Clerk

and it was referred to the Representatives to name clerks for these offices for the other sessions.

● 4. A minute from Deertrail Monthly Meeting, Nebraska Yearly Meeting, was read for John A. Baldwin, a minister and his wife, Mildred Baldwin.

Other visiting Friends were introduced.

John W. Wright, from Holtville Monthly Meeting, San Diego Quarterly Meeting, California Yearly Meeting.

Bertha Bales, from Mount Ayr Monthly Meeting, Kansas Yearly Meeting.

Elaine Andrew, Wichita Quarterly Meeting, Kansas Yearly Meeting.

Rita Stuart, Walnut Creek Quarterly Meeting, Kansas Yearly Meeting.

Samuel Wood, from San Diego Quarterly Meeting, California Yearly Meeting.

The meeting is glad to welcome these Friends.

● 5. The following committee was appointed to prepare returning minutes:

Sophia Townsend, Marguerite P. Elliott, and Charles Haworth.

● 6. The epistle from the Bolivian Brethren as translated by Charles Haworth appears below:

To Oregon Yearly Meeting, U.S.A.

Beloved brothers and sisters in Christ. The La Paz Yearly Meeting, held from the 20th to the 25th of March, greets the brethren of the congregations in the North with all fervor and love in the Holy Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We thank the Lord for the letter which we have received; the contents of which have given us much joy. Likewise we are grateful to the Lord for having with us Walter P. Lee, who by the grace of the Lord has brought to us in his messages and sermons the news of the plan of God for mankind.

In this Yearly Meeting we have felt in our hearts the very near presence of the Spirit of the Lord and the continuous miracle in the fishing of souls. Today our church has been fuller than ever, estimating that there were more than 700 present, and for us this is not the end, but next year we expect more responsible for the work of the Lord.

Also we inform you that our Society of Brothers, on being re-organized, trusts with complete faith and hope in the Lord as we carry on the work of the Mission. On being interviewed, Mr. Lee showed us that it was necessary, and that it is the desire of the brethren in the North, that the Bolivian work may be able to support itself, since the church of La Paz is now of age. In regard to this we expect only the will of God for this end, and we will give, as we have given until today, all our energy and more faith to the Lord, so that this purpose may be accomplished.

Many problems have presented themselves, and they still continue appearing, such as the need of more pastors, more building of churches, more schools, more teachers, and even vehicles so necessary for getting around in the country, and in every case sufficient funds are lacking. Our only hope is in the Lord who with His hands can do what we need. Therefore we entreat of all the brethren in the North your most fervent prayers, and if the Lord wills it thus, your collaboration as long as the Lord permits you. As Paul speaks to us in Romans 12:10-13, "Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love: in honor preferring one another: not slothful in business: fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality."

The work has progressed in Bolivia, and it is progressing, and it will progress still more, by the will and love of God.

Without anything more we bid you farewell in the grace of the Lord, and we hope that God may bless you in a great manner.

(Signed) by the committee of the Yearly Meeting of La Paz.

Feliciano Sirpa
Maximo Loza
H. Silas Casas

This was much appreciated.

● 11. The communication from Newberg Quarterly Meeting was referred to the Representatives:

This communication was received from Netarts Preparative Meeting:

Levi T. Pennington, clerk
Newberg Monthly Meeting

Dear Friends:

It has long been my concern that the church and its people should get on a more sound financial basis. Examination of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Budget for 1951-1952 leads me to express some of my feeling in this matter. While leadership is always a reflection of those they lead, it is often the case that many fail to make their voices heard, while a few have great influence. There is no merit in criticism for itself, and I do not wish to cast aspersions on persons or groups who have worked diligently and long to do their best, but I should like to offer some suggestions for what they may be worth.

The Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends is a very small group. It is composed of 50 meetings. At least 30 of these are small struggling meetings with budgets from less than $500 to $5000. Twenty of the meetings have an average attendance of less than 50. There are apparently not over 1311 family heads in the total membership. In the light of its resources the Yearly Meeting has rather heavy obligations. We are attempting to support a college, which we cannot afford, and yet cannot exist without. We have a creditable missionary effort at home and in Bolivia.

It is true that we can and should do more in the support of our meetings, our institutions, and for expansion. The question is: How can this best be brought about? In the past it has been felt that we should challenge ourselves with large budgets. This, however, has tended to foster deficits. Many people who make pledges to support these large budgets later make no pretense of paying. Query 7 asks "Do you frequently inspect your affairs and settle your accounts? Are you just in your dealings, punctual to your promises, prompt in the payment of your debts, and careful to live within your income and to avoid involving yourselves in business beyond your ability to manage?" The principle of this query seems to have become a mockery with many people. The trend with our church, as well as with government, seems to be toward centralization, with the constituents expecting more and more from the central body in matters that they could do better for themselves.

At Twin Rocks Conference, for example, the young people no longer regard their heritage, the labor which earlier young people had expended to hew the camp out of the wilderness. Now some of them wish to be subsidized completely. They expect free board and room for little service. They even ask for transportation allowances. If the direction of the spending of funds gets in the hands of some of these people that had no part in raising them but an unpaid pledge it will not be spent wisely. Yet we find them appearing in responsible positions of the Yearly Meeting. Our boards are usually representative of the different areas and are selected largely on the basis of zeal for a particular field. Where the investment of money is involved, business capacity and experience should be taken into consideration in choosing board members.

Yearly Meeting affairs, instead of becoming large and unwieldy, should be conducted on the same basis as the local meetings. Local meetings are made up of poor people. Salaries of pastors, missionaries, and teachers at the college are very modest. It is fitting that money contributed be judiciously guarded and made to go as far as it would go in the hands of the contributors. The Yearly Meeting has no more right than the individual members to live beyond its actual income, or to become involved in business beyond its ability to manage. Instead of producing larger and larger budgets as a challenge for giving it would be far better to emphasize tithing in the local meetings. It has been figured that if every member would tithe it would provide large sums for expansion. Until such large sums can be reasonably expected through an increase in the number of consistent tithers, the Yearly Meeting should be very conservative about starting any work requiring large sums of money.

A system of the Evangelistic Board in the past few years has been to give some financial aid to new outposts, starting at $50 per month and being reduced by $10 monthly each year until the meeting became self supporting in five years, a total of $1800 having been put into the meeting. Now it is proposed that $200 per month be spent on just one meeting. Under this system the Yearly Meeting will have thousands into the meeting before the results can be appraised. This is rather heavy speculation. There are only ten pastors, out of the 50 in the Yearly Meeting that receive as much as $200.00 in cash. The idea of limiting aid to any meeting to 50% of its requirements would seem to have merit. In any case, where the monthly meeting is already established, the aid should be in the form of a loan to the meeting rather than in the form of missionary support.

The builders Call also has been overexpended. It seems that it would be more successful if it were returned to the original plan of asking $1.00 from each member, with a limit of three calls per year.

We can increase our emphasis on tithing, the giving of at least one-tenth of our income into the local church treasury. The monthly meeting can then support the Yearly Meeting, so that it will be able to expand on a sound financial basis.

Sincerely,
J. Spencer George

This communication was received by Newberg Monthly Meeting. It was their wish that it be sent onto Quarterly Meeting with the recommendation that it be considered carefully.

● 12. The recommendation from Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting was presented as follows and referred to the Representatives:

Dilla Tucker
Clerks

● 13. The memorials were referred to a memorial committee which was named as follows: Edgar P. Sims, Merrill Coffin, Carl F. Miller.

● 14. The summary of the State of the Church which was received from all of the Quarterly Meetings except Puget Sound Quarter appears below:

All meetings report the Sunday morning meetings are regularly held and well attended. Some meetings report an increase in attendance in evening services, mid-week prayer meeting and Sunday school, others say that the attendance at these meetings could be improved. All had a feeling of thankfulness for God's rich blessing to them.

In most of the meetings there was a feeling of harmony and unity among the members but one Quarter reported that there was a need of more unity and love among its members. Another meeting reported that differences had been settled as became Christians.

The revival spirit is prevalent in the meetings—a number of people were saved in the regular meetings as well as in the special meetings. A great deal of personal work has been done and encouragement is given to those who have a special call to work in God's vineyard. Many special prayer meetings have been held.

Family devotions are observed in a great number of families but there is still need for more family altars, especially among the young converts.

The ministry is sound and helpful. Thankfulness was expressed for the ministry of teaching, song and preaching of our young people.

Some of the churches stand openly for peace and try to advise young men as to their stand. Most of them reported that they endeavored to provide suitable education for their children.

All seek to uphold the doctrinal standard of Friends in the choice of officers, teachers, pastors and evangelists.

The need for more liberty and freedom in the Spirit and for more personal evangelism among the unsaved was felt.

● 15. The minute which was given to Forrest W. Cammack last year was returned and with it a letter of appreciation from the Bolivian Brethren was read as translated.

● 16. Lowell Roberts from Friends University, Wichita, Kansas, brought a message during the inspirational hour from the first chapter of Philippians. He said it was a personal letter, a Christ centered, loving and joyful letter. Paul prayed for them and revealed his own personal experience.

- 17. After prayer by Merrill Coffin the meeting adjourned.

THURSDAY, 2:00 P.M.

- 18. The song, "My Jesus, I Love Thee," was sung after a period of silent devotion.
- 19. The Representatives reported that they had chosen Dorwin Smith as Assistant Clerk and Mahlon Macy as Announcing Clerk. This was approved.
- 20. A letter from T. Clio Brown, chairman of the Superintendents and Secretaries, requesting that an appropriation of $50 be made to help defray the expenses of the Superintendent or Secretary who should attend the annual conference which is to be held in December, was read. This was referred to the Finance Committee with the recommendation of the meeting that the appropriation should be made.
- 21. Oliver Weesner explained the legal processes necessary if Oregon Yearly Meeting should wish to change its name.
- 22. The Representatives presented the names of those to serve on the committee to write letters to Aged Friends and also the names of members to serve on George Fox Corporation for five years. The names were approved and will appear in the Appendix.

BOARD OF SERVICE

- 23. The president of the Board, Paul Mills, presided. Dorwin Smith spoke of the need in India where John and Laura Trachsel are working. Bernhard Fedde told of the drive that is soon to be made in the State for clothes and food for Korea. Governor McKay is the nominal chairman and others serve under him. This is not to combat anything but an expression of good will and friendship. Eldon Helm had two concerns—the necessity to find work for the COs and that various members as they return home help to inform their local draft board in regard to the COs. He also spoke on the sending of CARE packages. Paul Mills spoke on the need in Japan where Christie Bundy is working. The following report was presented which was appreciated and approved:
 "But whoso hath this world's good and seeth his brother hath need and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?" 1 John 3:17.
 Relief clothing is one of the greatest ways to find a tender heart entrance and is to be greatly valued as an asset to the winning of souls. Such statements as the above come from missionaries in needy lands. "For whosoever shall give a cup of water to drink in my name because he belong to Christ verily I say unto you he shall not lose his reward." Mark 10:41. We desire to present to you information which will help you to give more effectively. Word which we have received from Christie Bundy in Japan indicates the Japanese desperately need clothing. "For our mission to have such relief clothing to give out judiciously in the name of Jesus would be an immediate way to breaking down of barriers and of winning souls. . . . My work has been with teachers and high school and college students. The teachers are poorly paid and the students live on next to nothing to get an education. Many go into T.B. for lack of proper care so the need is great among my people." Further information from the Japanese field tells us that without the relief that they have had they do not feel that they could have attained the standing with the Japanese that they now possess. "It has been difficult at times to keep it free from blackmarketing and such, but God has helped us and I believe that our reputation both native and as a mission is pure and unsullied. Relief opens the door of the gospel into new communities and homes as nothing else could possibly do."

As to the needs on the field, they can use anything that people need at home. "Our home needs furnishings and paint and everything", says Christie Bundy. As to foodstuffs, she could use anything in the way of fruit cake and cookies, cake mixes, waffle flour, dried fruits, peanut butter canned in tin, honey, cubed sugar, powdered milk, coffee, dried soups, postum, cocoa, malted milk, etc. One of the customs of the Japanese is to serve visitors with a cup of weak tea and a piece of cake or cookie. Large quantities of used clothing can be used. The clothes should be clean and mended and ready to wear and have considerable wear left in them. They may be for all ages and sizes of people and for all kinds of weather. Do not send high-heeled shoes or ladies' hats for the Japanese do not wear them. Head scarves are fine. In shipping all relief materials it should be packed in corrugated paper boxes not exceeding 22 pounds in weight and not exceeding 100 inches in size (length plus girth). The box should be addressed on the outside and also a paper with name and address on the inside. Then it is best to put the package into a heavy cloth sack, sew it up and put address on that. Also fill out a custom declaration card (get it at your post office), and tie on outside of package. Also mark on the outside of the package "Gift parcel for relief." Christie Bundy has asked us to pack in cloth sacks because the box is usually broken when it reaches her, but the sack holds together. You can purchase heavy feed sacks from the feed store. It would be well for you to check with your post office in regard to postal rates. Letters which have been received have indicated not only a great need among the Japanese people, but likewise as indicated, a great opportunity as the Japanese people seem to be hungry for the gospel. Address all relief materials for Japan as follows: Christie Ann Bundy, Shalom-Ni-Wa, #60—4 Cho-me, Yamasaka Cho, Higashi Sumiyoshi Ku, Osaka, Japan.

We have received correspondence from John and Laura Trachsel and find an open door for relief materials in India. Quoting from a recent letter from John, he says "India is trying to reach self-sufficiency in food, and rationing is the order of the day. The quantity of rice that one receives is very insufficient. Even our students have had a hard time in getting enough food to eat unless they are willing to deal in the blackmarket and pay high prices for what they get. I have been helping one Catholic family. The father is palsied. There is a Catholic church here but he prefers to come to a Protestant for help. He has a family of about five children. I have also helped a high school student from one of the depressed classes in his school fees. There are always calls for help." John tells us that packages of wheat or rice done up in cloth bags would be very acceptable. Just mark the package "food parcel" and the price should not be marked too high as they probably will have to pay some duty on the parcels. This includes all parcels as duty is sometimes exorbitant. They also have need for home made bandages, torn in varying widths. They could use a considerable quantity of these. Other items which would be useful are flannel baby garments. Their address is: John J. Trachsel, South India Bible Institute, Kolar, Mysore State, India.

If desired, you can send food packages through CARE. If sending through CARE you can place orders for delivery of a maximum of 3 packages per month of each type to one individual. However, if packages are intended for distribution to others, you may send an unlimited number provided that you indicate on the order that the packages are "for distribution by —" (recipient's name and address). Write to CARE, 20 Broad Street, New York, 5, New York.

We wish to impress upon your minds the Scripture which you will find at the beginning of this report. "But whoso hath this world's good and seeth his brother have need and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?" We desire to encourage you to do a little more in behalf of those who are in need, whose homes have been ravaged by war. Through our representatives which we have in these countries we can send relief with the assurance that it will be given out with the message of the gospel in Christian love.

Emmett W. Gulley gave a rather full and interesting report of his work among the Doukhobours. He said it was a very difficult problem which must be met with sympathetic understanding.

4. The Nominating Committee. A nominating committee appointed annually shall present to the monthly meeting names of persons to fill all offices except those otherwise provided for, including a chairman for each committee, and of persons to fill any vacancies occurring during the year.

The Representatives made the following report:

In response to the communication concerning the clarification of the ruling concerning the Quarterly Meeting nominating committee appointing the Quarterly Meeting superintendents, the Representatives recommend to the Yearly Meeting that the Constitution and Discipline be amended (Section III, sub-section B, paragraph 2, page 42) to read as follows:

2. Other Committees. Each Quarterly Meeting shall appoint annually, on recommendation by the nominating committee, one committee to correspond to and cooperate with each of the Yearly Meeting boards (see pages 89-98) except the Board of Publication, designating one member of each committee to serve as Quarterly Meeting superintendent of that department of work. He shall serve also as chairman of the committee. Other committees may be appointed as found necessary.

P. 89 Ch. II, Sec. I, sub-section 4.

Each Quarterly and Monthly Meeting committee may appoint a secretary, with such other officers as are needed, making sure that the work does not suffer at any time for lack of initiative and direction. This form of organization is separate from the appointment of members (in certain cases) to care for the different phases of the work.

been to them, and Jack Willcuts spoke on behalf of the missionaries and Bolivian brethren of the high esteem in which Joseph Reece is held.

It was the wish of the meeting that some lasting gift might be given to them in remembrance of their ten years of service among us. An offering was taken for a gift and amounted to $57.00.

It was left with the clerks to purchase and present the gift with a suitable inscription.

● 40. Elbert and Delphian Allen, from Bellview, Washington, formerly from Kansas Yearly Meeting, were presented to the meeting.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY UNION

● 41. Marjorie Crisman, the president, gave the following report:

The Women's Missionary Union of Oregon Yearly Meeting is ten years old. In the past year we have rounded out a decade of development from a small beginning into a healthy organization with several departments of service. Not only have the gifts, prayers, and interest of the unions been a lift on the mission field and in our outposts, but membership in the Yearly Meeting Union has brought a strong bond of fellowship to the women of our churches.

The membership in the 37 unions reporting totals 584, the largest group having 77 members, and the smallest 5. The average attendance at the meetings is 12.

The monthly, or twice-monthly, meetings held by the unions have been enriched by missionary speakers, two groups having had eight during the year, and 30 unions listening to at least one. Besides the times for work and business, 129 special prayer meetings were held, sessions of presenting to the Lord the needs of our missionaries and outpost workers.

Under the excellent leadership of our six vice-presidents, missionary rallies were held in each of the Quarterly Meetings this past year. Our missionaries home on furlough spoke at several of the rallies, as well as Forrest Cammack and Joy Ridderhof. Two hundred forty-two women attended and received inspiration, challenge, and new vision.

The vice-presidents have been faithful in visiting the unions in their area, encouraging and giving ideas, information, and project suggestions. The home and foreign project chairmen have kept the unions interested and informed as to their responsibilities.

Four new unions have joined our ranks in the past year: Spokane, Hayden Lake and Holly Park from Puget Sound Quarterly Meeting, and an evening Missionary Union composed of young women from the Newberg church. We are glad for this evidence of growth and interest.

The Preacher-Teacher fund has been faithfully supported. $1470 has been received for this fund to help support the national school teachers and pastors on our Bolivian field.

Hours have been spent in making useful articles and in packing gift boxes to be sent to our outpost pastors, and our missionaries in Bolivia, Japan and at Sprague River. The traveling library has been used extensively.

Presenting the theme, "Singing I Go," the annual banquet was served this year to 218 women. The program featured musical numbers from the Quarterly Meetings, inspiring talks by Geraldine Willcuts and Julia Pearson, and a colored film taken at last year's banquet. Highlight of the evening was the offering march in which the women contributed $292 to pay for the printing of 1,000 new Aymara song books.

Looking forward to the coming year we are trusting the Lord to guide us into useful service for Him. We have assumed again the $1,200 pledge which this time is to be used entirely for teachers in the day schools in Bolivia. Our home project is to be improvements on the local parsonages and church buildings throughout the Yearly Meeting. A $100 surplus in our Home Missions fund is being sent as a gift to George Fox College. The Foreign Missions fund surplus will be used to purchase a folding organ for Bolivia and a musical instrument of her choice for Christie Bundy in Japan.

We rejoice in the realization that as homemakers and lay women of the church we share with our missionaries the reward of souls brought from darkness to light, and that in so doing we are "laborers together with Him."

Marjorie Crisman
President

Lela Morrill and Geraldine Willcuts cleverly presented the work of the Home Project and the Foreign Project.

This was the celebration of the tenth birthday of the organization, and Julia Pearson gave a brief summary of some of the activities of the Women's Missionary Union in the past ten years, and gave some suggestions for the future, mentioning especially unified prayer groups and the need for sacrificial giving.

The reports were approved.

FRIENDS BROTHERHOOD

● 42. Robert Morrill presided at this time in the absence of the president. He said about $1500 had been given to the Spokane project.

He then introduced A. Clark Smith who told how God had marvelously led in their work at Spokane and especially in their securing suitable locations.

A. Clark Smith also told briefly of the new camp ground at Twin Lakes.

This informal report was approved.

Memorials were presented for the following deceased Friends: Arthur J. Hadley, Laura Lewis Roberts, Anna Hobson Blair, Zimri Mills, Charles Dennis Mills, Anna M. Peirson, Lela C. Wallace, Carrie Pickerall, Endre E. Hanson.

The memorials were uniform in expressions of appreciation of these friends who were used of the Lord in blessing to all in the sphere of their influence.

In addition to the above, mention should be made of the passing of Lewis C. Russell, who was serving in pastoral relation of Riverside meeting, Greenleaf Quarterly Meeting, at the time of his death.

On behalf of the Memorial Committee

Edgar P. Sims

Memorials were read for Arthur Hadley and Anna Hobson Blair. The names of the members, deceased during the past year, were also read.

A number of members spoke of the sweet benediction these lives had been to them and that their own lives would be better because of the association with those who had gone on before.

● 44. Dean Gregory's resignation from the Public Relations Committee was accepted.

● 45. The nominations for board members to George Fox College Board, made by the College Board of Trustees, were Emel Swanson and Robert Nordyke.

These were approved.

● 46. The nominations for the new corporation members were as follows: Nathan Pierson, Howard Gardin and J. Earl Geil. Two of these were approved, and the name of Howard Gardin was withdrawn for further consideration.

● 47. The Alumni presented their nominations for the corporation as follows: Dr. Ray Pemberton, Dorothy Morse. For the board—Arthur Winters.

These were approved.

● 48. The meeting was adjourned to meet Saturday, August 18 at 9:30.

SATURDAY, August 18, 9:30 A.M.

● 49. The Presiding Clerk brought a short message from Philipians 4:6. Stop worrying about anything in all phases of our lives, but trust in God.

● 50. The minutes were read and corrected.

BOARD OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

● 51. The president, Kelsey Hinshaw, presented the following goals for the coming year:

Peace: Every member informed as to the statements in our Discipline on peace, and the Scriptural basis for our peace principles.

Literature: Encourage the reading of good literature and the establishment of church libraries.

Educate in regard to harmful comics and objectional radio programs and advertising.

Oppose obscene magazines, especially those which cannot pass through the mails.

Stewardship: Every member a tither.

Stewardship of time, talents, and all of life.

Education: Every child in a Christian school.

Encourage the $25 pledge campaign for our college.

Encourage our young people to attend our college.

Encourage an aid fund, raised by our meetings, for deserving students.

Encourage reading the pamphlet, "Teaching Children Obedience."
Public Morals: Help elect and stand behind public officials who have good moral standards.

Total abstinence from the use of alcoholic beverages and from tobacco.

Social purity for both sexes.

Seek to raise our public moral standards.

Bernhard Fedde discussed the Universal Military and Service act. There is still time to act in the next three or four weeks in protesting to our congressmen the passage of this bill.

There are three types of work for the conscientious objector: Civilian work for national health, national safety and work of national interest.

There may be two conditions imposed: First, that CO men work in a non-profit agency, as hospitals, etc.; and second, that they leave their homes.

He said, peace is the fruit of the Spirit.

J. Earl Geil and Eldon Helm graphically illustrated how our money is being spent. They used different lengths of articles to show the great variation in amounts:

Four inches—119 millions for the United Nations

Two feet—749 millions for cosmetics.

Two feet, four inches—810 millions for television.

Three feet, four inches—1200 millions for jewelry.

Five feet, two inches—1846 millions for liquor.

Fifty-eight yards, two feet, six inches— 63,000 billions for war.

Marlin Witt was asked to speak on Stewardship, and he introduced Evert Tuning who spoke on stewardship of life as shown by work among the Klamath Indians. He used the book, "Indians in Transition," by G. E. E. Lindquist, as a basis for his talk. He told of the evils in the reservation that make work there difficult. The most outstanding is the use of intoxicating liquors. Nine crimes out of every ten committed on the reservation are caused by drink. The Klamath Indian reservation is, according to some authorities, the worse place in the world for crime. Law enforcement is needed.

Human nature must be changed, and can be by Christ coming into their hearts.

● 52. After the song, "Close To Thee", was sung, Lowell Roberts brought a message from Philippians 4. Paul expressed three determinations in this chapter—abandon false trusts, establish and maintain a vital relationship with Christ, and to press forward.

● 53. Carl D. Byrd offered prayer as we adjourned to meet at 2:00 p.m.

SATURDAY, 2:00 P.M.

GREENLEAF ACADEMY

● 59. Greenleaf Academy report was read and accepted:

Under the blessing of the Lord, Greenleaf Academy completed the 1950-51 school year with eighteen seniors graduating on May 22 and Dean Gregory giving the Commencement address.

Commencement day carried special significance this year. Added to the regular activities of the day, the new building was dedicated to the Lord and the furtherance of His cause through the medium of Christian education. Charles A. Beals gave a history of the academy up to the present time, calling to mind the many sacrifices that have been made through the years that the young people of this area might have a secondary education under Christian influences. Dean Gregory gave a short dedicatory address and Joseph Reece offered the dedicatory prayer. The dedication of this class-room unit of the new building culminates four years of anticipation—years of praying, planning, working, giving. Hearts are full of praise to God for His definite leading in all this endeavor; He has gone before and made the crooked places straight and the rough places smooth.

The new building is modern in every respect and meets the state requirements as to sanitation, lighting, and heating. Ample classrooms are provided for all classes, and the home economics department has three complete kitchens and a sewing room. The office is temporarily installed at the end of the corridor. Plumbing installation is being completed, Venetian blinds are going in at the windows, and tile is being laid on the floors. Cement walks are also being laid in front of the building.

While time and money have been spent primarily on the new building, various other improvements have been made in the way of equipment to add to the efficiency of the school. A new electric typewriter and two new manual typewriters were purchased as an addition to the commercial department, and a public address system was installed in the gym.

Advances along material lines, and additions in equipment and improvement of the plant, is of small value without a spiritual emphasis to accompany it. The student revival last October under the ministry of Franklin Allee was a time of spiritual advance. Many victories were won which brought blessing to the school and church.

During the year, many students participated in the Saturday night jail service and street meeting in Caldwell, giving forth the gospel in the form of tracts and gospel songs under the able leadership of our pastor, John Baxter. Students also were active in various forms of Christian work, doing deputation work faithfully in Sunday schools and churches throughout the area. The church revival in January was also a blessing to the students and the school.

In athletics, the academy continued to hold its reputation for good sportsmanship in all games. Under the coaching of Robert Armstrong, the football season closed with only one loss, and the basketball season had a majority of wins. Through the medium of athletics, the students are made to realize that their Christian testimony is of utmost importance.

Of special significance during the school year was the outstanding work performed by the academy choir. Besides making many appearances and giving concerts in many churches and in various meetings, the choir participated in the district and state Music Festival and placed first, according to class, in both events. The performance of the choir prompted many expressions of commendation from hearers, even outside the limits of our Friends denomination. The work of Dick Cadd with the choir is much appreciated.

Students have been coming in from Oregon, Washington, California, and last year there were two students from Costa Rica. The housing of out-of-town students has been a major problem for many years, but definite progress is being made along that line. Greenleaf Monthly Meeting has recently purchased a large house which will serve as a dormitory, and will accommodate from eight to ten students. The acquisition of this property and the setting up of a dormitory will make it possible to accept more requests for housing from out-of-town students.

With added facilities, an increased enrollment is expected for the coming school year. It is the prayer of Greenleaf Monthly Meeting, the Board of Managers, and the Faculty that Greenleaf Academy will continue to be strengthened materially, scholastically, and spiritually. To see young people not only saved from the evils of our present day, but growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, rooted and built up in Him, is worth any amount of sacrifice that it may take. Pray for Greenleaf Academy and the work it is trying to do.

Respectfully submitted,
Arthur H. Winters, Principal

GEORGE FOX COLLEGE ANNUAL REPORT

● 60. The report of Portland Alumnae and their treasurer's report is as follows:

The Portland Alumnae of George Fox College has closed another year of activity with the purpose of benefiting the college.

There were many interesting meetings, including inviting the husbands as guests twice during the year, seeing a film sponsored by the American Cancer Society, and the Christmas party auction of white elephants.

In the fall a group of members went to Salem in an effort to help organize a similar alumnae group there. Dr. Paul Parker spoke, accentuating the benefits of such an organization. The girls again made the annual tour of the college designed to learn needs that could be used as a project for the year.

As itemized in the treasurer's report, this year's main projects were making draperies for Canyon Hall, and a cash donation for a metal lathe, to be used in the physics department.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of Women's Auxiliary (Newberg) and their treasurer's report:

The Newberg Women's Auxiliary to George Fox College has completed another busy year in its work for the school.

The season's activities were high-lighted by a Silver Tea held at the beginning of the school year. This tea served as an informal reception for Dr. and Mrs. Parker, our new president and his wife. Walter P. Lee, as member of the board, spoke our welcome to Dr. Parker.

Another honor guest for the occasion was "Kay West," or Glenna Kneeland, whose presence and talk were greatly enjoyed.

A room-size rug was presented to Dr. Parker to be used in the president's office.

The usual necessary purchases for all dormitory buildings were made, including such things as ironing boards, irons, covers, curtains and a davenport and chair set. The latest project being that of an electric apartment range installed in Helen Willcuts apartment.

Money for these projects came from dues received, from the sale of greeting cards, fancy work and food stuff. Membership in this auxiliary is not limited to Newberg, but anyone wishing to maintain membership may do so by sending in one dollar a year for dues. You are urged to join.

The auxiliary has felt the need of making some cultural contribution to the school and town, so this was attempted through the medium of an art exhibit. This exhibit was held on the college May Day, May 7.

Work exhibited included ceramics, needle-point, metal work, and pictures in oil, water color, chalk and pen. Two rooms of the Music Hall were filled with work exhibited which came from local artists, friends of the college in Washington and other cities in Oregon, and students of the college art class. Hundreds of visitors were present during the day and many new friends were made for the college through this effort.

Campus Activities

Extra-curricular activities under Christian guidance and emphasis are one of the outstanding differences between a Christian college and a secular college. The Student Christian Union conducted weekly prayer meetings on Wednesday evening much to the edification of the majority of our enrollment, who were present. Interest exhibited in worship by prayer and praise is one of the healthful spiritual features of our college.

A bookstore, including candies and sandwiches, was maintained with daily service and was open each evening. This provided a meeting place for students on the campus rather than being downtown. Our Music Department has again won worthy recognition and served our church with inspiration by means of the college choir which traveled in the states of Idaho, Oregon and Washington. The Harmonaires, Four for Christ, the Crusaders and the Uncalled Four male quartets appeared frequently in many meetings and on occasions for representing the college. At Christman time the College and Community Chorus presented Handel's "Messiah" to an appreciative audience in the local meeting house. Commencement week musical programs included much talent, both instrumental and vocal.

Our athletic program continued to be conducted on the same high Christian standards which have prevailed in the past. Frequent opportunities for Christian responses during games were well used by our young people as they sought to live for Christ during athletic contests.

The outstanding dramatic productions of the year were "Young Lincoln," and "Whatsoever Ye Sow." The high ideals and inspiration forcefully portrayed in "Young Lincoln" were deeply appreciated and accepted by the people of Newberg and friends of the college. The Christian testimony of "Whatsoever Ye Sow" was faithfully presented with the persuasive power of the gospel. This production was a witness for Christ.

Among the many student organizations and activities was found a newcomer, "The Scribbler's Club," open only to English majors. Their publication was "A Spring Anthology of Student Literary Efforts."

Outstanding spiritual highlights of the year were two revivals and a missionary conference. The October school revival was conducted by Frederick Baker, Friends pastor at Hillsboro. God's outpoured presence bore fruit in this service to the edification of students, faculty and all hearers. A time of special spiritual manifestation occurred during which period many sought God more fully; some were saved, some were sanctified. The prayers invested in this occasion were fruitful indeed. The February church revival, with Donald Spitler, superintendent of California Yearly Meeting, as evangelist, was a time of full gospel teaching and truth. Again students graciously responded to the Lord's leading and victories were won. In April Joy Ridderhof, of Gospel Recordings, conducted a brief missionary conference. This proved to be an hour of new vision, renewed and deepened Christian experiences, and calls to the mission field. Truly God was present throughout the year in a marked way. His blessings were evidenced by many answers to prayer and increased interest among praying people and liberal giving on the part of friends of the school.

Finances

In an effort to aid worthy students to attain their educational goal, scholarships in the amount of $3305.52 were granted. A little less than $34,000 was received from student tuitions. Gifts from the $25 club amounted to approximately the same figure as that of the preceding year, slightly under $15,000. A number of new subscriptions were obtained, but because of death, sickness or removal from the Yearly Meeting, it was necessary to replace many active subscriptions of the former year. Besides these, some larger gifts were received, two $1,000, one $2,000, and one gift of $2500 in investment stock. The persistent faithfulness of each interested friend, whether the gift has been small or great, has been greatly rewarded by the better financial position in which the college finds itself at present. Strict and imperative economy has been effected in many areas, the greatest of which was a reduction in the total number of teaching staff. This factor was occasioned because the college enrollment, which a few years ago appeared to be on the increase, leading to a somewhat enlarged faculty, became smaller with the beginning of the Korean war. Economy of operation was made possible only by the cooperation and willingness of the faculty and student body. The college bookstore, the dormitories and the dining hall were successfully maintained and operated so that some cash balance remained in each instance. By efficient management, excellent food with but slight increase in fees was served throughout the year.

A new boiler was installed in a central building to furnish heat for the gymnasium and science building, thus requiring but one unit for operation and reducing the insurance costs on each building. The heating plant under Canyon Hall had been condemned two years ago and it was required that we remove it this summer. Installation of a replacement boiler is almost completed and will be tested out before the end of August.

In spite of the fact that there has been a net increase of $6,579.37 of income over expense for the fiscal year, it is imperative because of continual repair and replacement of buildings and equipment, and because of the heavy debt upon the college, to materially reduce our expenditures by every educationally sound economy.

Your president travelled many places in Oregon, Idaho and Washington. Two trips for the purpose of soliciting students and finances were made to southern California, and one to Ohio and Indiana. These efforts were somewhat productive and quite encouraging. Your many and personal kindnesses during the trips within the Yearly Meeting were more than could be expected and are deeply appreciated.

Accreditation

Because Friends have always believed in Christian education and the provision of Christian teachers for the youth of our land, it is hoped that George Fox College may graduate certified school teachers for Oregon and neighboring states. This may be successfully accomplished only by accreditation in the Northwest Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Because of the improved financial picture and strengthened faculty, George Fox College has, during the month of August, made application for accreditation. This step has been carefully taken in view of definite encouragement from the advisor appointed to George Fox College and from the chairman of higher education of the accrediting association. The fact that our departments are now headed by staff members who have attained the doctor's degree, or who have made comparable preparation, removes that former obstacle, and there remains to us today the necessity for further financial economy which can be pronounced creditable by our accrediting association.

Acknowledgments and Thanksgiving

Throughout the school year there have been many times of rejoicing and thanksgiving. Prominent among these have been times of difficulty, times of the Lord's outpoured blessing and times when friends of the college rallied generously to our needs. Acknowledgments and thanks are due each member of the Yearly Meeting and each friend who has prayed for us. Thanks have been expressed by letter and in person to those who gave of their means. Besides the many individuals, there have been the Portland, Newberg and Salem branches of the Women's Auxiliary, which have helped materially throughout the year with provisions of furniture, household supplies and scientific equipment, the latter in the form of a lathe for the Physics Department. To all the college extends sincere gratitude and thanks. Many individuals, including several students, have contributed some time and effort toward helping put the buildings and campus in proper repair and condition. For this also thanks is expressed.

Faculty

Nine faculty members have throughout the summer pursued advanced work either on thesis study or at universities. The reduction of major areas of study, in keeping with the size and preparation of our present faculty, has received the commendation of our advisor of the accrediting association.

Several friendly denominations have expressed a kind interest in the work of George Fox College, particularly the Baptists and Evangelical-United Brethren group. It will not be difficult to secure more students from these evangelical people when someone can be provided for field work and contacts.

In a material age of great learning, scientific advancement and physical power, it is so imperative that we do not lose sight of the fact that Jesus Christ must be pre-eminent in every aspect of education. The Scriptures declare that by wisdom the world knew not

God. We also read that evil men desired not to keep Him in their minds and their imaginations became darkened. May our Christian education never look to a world dead in trespasses and sins to set for us the standards of Christian conduct, thinking or manner of worship.

The immense task of maintaining a small college by so small a constituency is pronounced impossible by the world, but heroic effort, prayers and sacrifices have led other small colleges through years of struggle and toil until they were able successfully to serve the present age with a holy and godly testimony. George Fox College can only be what those who love it most dearly desire it to be. The Scriptures have stated that the sufferings of Christ are yet to be made up by His body, which is the church. Only by vision and sacrifice, tears and prayer will we be able to go forward under the leadership of Christ and make an impression upon the vast needs of a spiritually hungry world. If God be for us, who can be against us? With God all things are possible.

This was approved.

It was the wish of the meeting that the treasurer should set up a separate account for the Evangelistic Board as has been done for other Boards.

- 62. The report of the Auditing Committee as it appears below was accepted:

We, your Auditing Committee, have examined the records and accounts of the treasurer of Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends for the period from August 12, 1950, to August 12, 1951, and find them correct and kept in a satisfactory manner.

- 63. The following recommendation from the Representative body was approved by the meeting:

The Representatives gave unhurried, thoughtful and prayerful consideration to the communications from Portland and Greenleaf Quarterly Meetings relative to the time of holding Yearly Meeting. Final decision on the matter was deferred to the following day with the desire expressed that the matter be made the subject of prayer during the interim. At the opening of the following session the clerks presented in writing as follows what they felt to be the sense of the meeting in the previous session:

1. There are occupational and other life situations that are so varied that any time set for Yearly Meeting will make it inconvenient or even impossible for some to attend, and these conflicts cannot be resolved. In the very nature of the case we cannot accommodate the desires or conveniences of all.

2. There is a sincere desire by every representative for God's will to be done, and each one is willing to submerge his personal desire to Divine will.

3. There is also the sense of loyalty by every representative to the work of Oregon Yearly Meeting and to the interests of the membership as a whole, and each one is willing to submerge his personal desire to the Yearly Meeting welfare.

4. The weight of remarks, both in number of expressions and reasons given, tip the scales in favor of August.

The Representatives were united that the above statement was an accurate expression of the sense of the meeting.

The Representative body therefore recommends that Yearly Meeting be held in August.

Charles A. Beals
Lela J. Morrill
Clerks

Therefore the Yearly Meeting is to convene in August.

- 64. The meeting approved the recommendation of the Representatives in regard to the uniform sign for Friends Churches:

Recommendation from the Representative body in regard to the communication from Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting relative to a uniform sign for Friends churches.

We recommend that a committee be named to work out a pattern for such a sign to be presented to the next Yearly Meeting for its consideration.

Charles A. Beals
Lela J. Morrill
Clerks

It was the will of the meeting that the committee mentioned in the recommendation should be appointed by the Representatives and that the number to be on the committee should be decided by the Representatives.

● 65. Dr. Titus Frazee, executive director of the Oregon Temperance League, was introduced to the meeting and he gave a brief message. He said that the League planned to use education in order to keep people away from liquor, and legislation to keep liquor away from the people. Individuals must accept their responsibility by prayer and by giving of their means.

- 66. The meeting adjourned to meet Monday, August 20, at 9:30 a.m.

MONDAY, August 20, 9:30 A.M.

● 67. After a period of silent devotion the minutes were read, supplemented and a part omitted.

● 68. It was the will of the meeting that a protest against the Military Training and Service act should be sent to our congressmen. It was left with the Board of Public Relations to formulate the protest.

● 69. A request came from the Boise Valley representatives to seat Paul Barnett and Ruth Washburn as Representatives from their Quarterly Meeting, as two of their number had returned home.

The request was granted.

BOARD OF FINANCE

● 70. Oliver Weesner, president of the Board, presided. He introduced Robert Morrill, financial secretary, who read the totals in his financial report.

This report was accepted with appreciation, and will appear in the Appendix.

The report of the Board of Finance was read as follows:

The following report of the Ministers and Missionaries Retirement Fund is submitted, and we recommend that the request relative to lapsed memberships be approved. We also recommend that ministers employed on salary by George Fox College be included among those eligible to participate in the Ministers and Missionaries Retirement Fund.

Ministers and Missionaries Retirement Fund

This fund now has a total of $5791.86, of which $4836.35 is loaned to various meetings of our Yearly Meeting, and $955.51 in cash on hand. Five ministers are paid-to-date members. Several of the others are from one to five years in arrears. Many of our ministers know but little of the Retirement Fund.

Last year at the request of the Ministerial Association and the Finance Board a change in the administration of the Retirement Fund was provided. (Minute 92, 1950).

The new committee is just now being organized for effective work. In the future notices of payments due are to be sent out quarterly.

This Board requests permission of the Yearly Meeting to allow the lapsed memberships to be made up during the coming year.

Also the Board desires to know if line three, page 108 of the Discipline, shall be construed to include ministers under salary in George Fox College.

The Board recommends that funds for Fixed Expense and United Budget be forwarded by the Monthly Meeting treasurers through the Quarterly Meeting treasurers to the Yearly Meeting treasurer, and that these funds be forwarded regularly and promptly. If this recommendation is approved by the Yearly Meeting we request that the Yearly Meeting instruct the financial secretary to inform each meeting and Quarterly Meeting of this action.

Since it is necessary for the Fixed Expense budget to be paid in full if the Yearly Meeting is to remain on a sound financial basis, we request that each Quarterly Meeting be requested to pay as promptly as possible any unpaid balance of the Fixed Expense budget which they owe.

In the budget submitted below the Board anticipates that the appropriation for office and clerical expense, together with an amount provided for in the United Budget for the same purpose, will be used for such furnishings and equipment as may be needed and purchased for the Yearly Meeting office, incidentals, expenses such as paper, postage, telephone, etc., and for payment for services of an office secretary based upon the time used by her on work for the Yearly Meeting superintendent.

The Board recommends that the appropriation for rent of office and residence of superintendent be used first to pay rent for the space used by the superintendent in the Quaker Apartments and the balance be paid to the superintendent to be used as a payment upon the rent of a residence.

The following budget for Fixed Expense is submitted:

Salary of Yearly Meeting Superintendent . . . . .	$ 3000.00
Travel expense of Superintendent . . . . .	1300.00
Office and clerical expense . . . . .	1100.00
Rent office and residence of Superintendent . . . . .	1200.00
Printing minutes . . . . .	850.00
Repairs on Yearly Meeting House. . . . .	300.00
Yearly Meeting entertainment . . . . .	100.00
Janitor . . . . .	35.00
Stenographer . . . . .	25.00
Preparation and proofreading minutes . . . . .	25.00
Ministerial Association . . . . .	150.00
Ministers and Missionaries Retirement Fund . . . . .	300.00
Insurance on Superintendent's car . . . . .	30.00
George Fox Press . . . . .	156.00
Insurance Yearly Meeting House . . . . .	70.00
Expense Fund of Yearly Meetings' Superintendents Conference	50.00
Total . . . . .	$ 8391.00

The ratio for raising Fixed Expense funds for 1951-52 as follows:

Newberg Quarterly Meeting . . . . .	16.72%
Salem Quarterly Meeting . . . . .	13.05%
Portland Quarterly Meeting . . . . .	31.40%
Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting . . . . .	14.54%
Puget Sound Quarterly Meeting. . . . .	7.48%
Greenleaf Quarterly Meeting . . . . .	16.81%

Oliver Weesner, president

The meeting approved the recommendation that the Quarterly Meetings which had not paid their portion of the Fixed Expense be requested to pay as soon as possible the unpaid balance.

The meeting favors allowing the lapsed membership in the Ministers' Retirement Fund to be made up during the coming year if the members so desire.

The meeting approved the recommendation of the Board of Finance that the Fixed Expense and United Budget be forwarded by the Monthly Meeting treasurers through the Quarterly Meeting treasurers to the Yearly Meeting treasurer.

The Financial Secretary and also the Presiding Clerk are asked to inform the treasurers of this action.

The recommendation that ministers employed on salary by George Fox College be included among those eligible to participate in the Ministers and Missionaries Retirement Fund was considered.

After considerable discussion about the including of other teachers and evangelists the whole matter was referred to the Ministers and Missionaries Retirement Fund Committee.

The budget for Fixed Expense and the ratios were accepted, except $900.00 for rent of office and residence of the General Superintendent.

Many suggestions and proposals in regard to the General Superintendent's residence and the Quaker Apartments were made.

Because of the lack of time it was decided to leave the discussion until the business period of the afternoon.

● 71. Waldo and Frances Hicks and son, Bruce, from Ohio Yearly Meeting, who are to take up the work of the Springbrook Monthly Meeting, were introduced.

Harold Chance, of the Peace Department of the American Friends Service Committee, was introduced.

● 72. The song, "Open My Eyes that I May See," was sung, after which Lowell Roberts brought the inspirational message from Philippians 4. Paul brought to the Philippians a sustaining confidence in the keeping power of the peace of God; the enabling power of the strength of Christ and the supplying power of the riches of glory.

● 73. Nathan Pierson offered the benediction and the meeting adjourned to meet at 2:00 p.m.

MONDAY, 2:00 P.M.

● 74. After the devotions Thomas E. Currier, representative of Security Life and Accident Company, at the request of the Ministerial Association spoke on group life and accident insurance.

● 75. The consideration of the part of the report of the Board of Finance in regard to the $900 for the office and residence of the General Superintendent was continued.

Ray L. Carter spoke on behalf of the printing department.

It was decided to increase the $900.00 appropriation to $1200 and that the rent for the General Superintendent's house should be deducted first and then the rent of his office.

The matter of the Quaker Apartments and a house for the General Superintendent was left with the Trustees to consider the whole matter and report to the Executive Committee for action. If it seemed right to these two bodies to sell the property within the year they are authorized to sell the property and a resolution to that effect should be presented Tuesday.

BOARD OF EVANGELISM

● 76. Ray L. Carter, president of the Board, presided. He read the first chapter of Acts saying that Christ had only one program for His Church, Acts 1:8—"ye shall be witnesses."

Prayer for the work of the church was offered by Carl D. Byrd.

This is the last meeting that Joseph and Pearl Reece will be with us as the General Superintendent. Their ten years of service has been much appreciated.

REPORT OF GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT

This is our tenth annual report.

First of all we would exalt the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who through His abundant mercy has granted strength and courage for the responsibilities which have been ours for the past year. For without the constant sense of His presence and guidance we would not have been able for the work. We praise Him for what accomplishments have been made.

The reports which have come to us from the 50 meetings who make up our Yearly Meeting have been quite encouraging. From each report we catch the expectation that the coming year is going to be a better year, because of the victories God has given this past year.

Some meetings have had heavy trials—division among the leadership of the meeting—thoughtless action by those in place of leadership—those who have been appointed to places of leadership have not been loyal to their appointment. Some seem to feel that they can do as they please with an appointment from a church. Such is not the case. The true church is the bride of Christ and when we fail our church we are not true to Christ. We trust that each Quaker church will so faithfully minister that she will be included in that great host of churches that make up the Church of Christ.

The pastors of Oregon Yearly Meeting are a wonderful group of men and women. They are loyal to the program you have adopted. They can take their place with the ministers of any denomination. They are a dedicated group and are sacrificing much for the privilege of preaching the Gospel. Above all, these men and women love God. They love their meetings. If Oregon Yearly Meeting returns with a glowing report next year it will be due to a large measure to the loyal and sacrificial effort of your pastors. How our hearts have been cheered as we have been in their homes, and have seen a bit of the struggle and the battle, and then later hear of victories won. We were not surprised that victory came, as we had seen a bit of what had been paid to win the victory. Our pastors do not receive adequate salaries in most instances, but there is one way all of us can help, and that is to pray for them. Don't forget to pray for your pastors.

Another group who have meant much to Oregon Yearly Meeting are our Quarterly Meeting superintendents. These men have correlated the work of the Monthly Meetings in their Quarters and in spite of the fact that most of them have been busy pastors they have faithfully visited and ministered in each Monthly Meeting. The work of the General Superintendent has been materially lightened by the good work of these fine Quarterly Meeting superintendents.

Roger Minthorne was our new treasurer this year, and he has done a wonderful job. If every member of the Yearly Meeting gave as much time to the work of the church as Roger Minthorne does, we would double in size within ten years. We greatly appreciate the fine work of Roger and Mildred Minthorne.

We express our thanks to the Southern Pacific Railroad, and the Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway Co. for the courtesy of an annual pass over their lines. These passes have been very helpful.

As to personal activities, we have earnestly tried to minister as well as we know how. The central office has been appreciated, and with the help of Beth Hockett we have been able to carry out the Yearly Meeting program more easily than hitherto. We have travelled about 25,000 miles by auto, and several thousand more by train and bus.

It was 21 years ago that Oregon Yearly Meeting accepted the call to minister to the Aymara Indians of Bolivia. Never at any time have we had more than 10 missionaries on the field. God has richly blessed the work and multiplied all the efforts expended and the money given. Today we have a group of believers in an organized church just about a fourth the size of this Yearly Meeting. We have an excellent headquarters building and a church in La Paz. We have a large farm of about 3000 acres. On it is located our Bible School which had its first graduating class this year. The farm is practically supporting the Bible School. Radiating out from La Paz and from the farm are scores of meetings and groups where the Gospel is being carried. We are instrumental in conducting many Day Schools in near-by villages where the boys and girls are taught reading and writing and arithmetic under Christian influence. God has graciously answered our prayers in Bolivia. Now the problem is—have we the vision and the courage to keep step with God as He opens the doors? Can we sing with happy hearts that song, "I'll Do What You Want Me To Do," when we see brown arms of Bolivian Indians beckoning us—calling to us to hurry with the Gospel message. We have so much of what they need. Will we share a bit with them?

The picture in Japan is tragic. Communism is sweeping over that country like a flood. The only way to stop this force, which would drive the church out of Japan and kill every Christian, is to get the Gospel to Japan at once. Christie Ann Bundy is doing a mighty work with the help of God. She needs assistance. Every dollar spent in Japan now will mean for more than hundreds of dollars we may have to spend a few brief years hence. The call for help to Japan is urgent.

The following pastoral changes are taking place September first:

Greenleaf . . . . .	Oscar N. Brown

More calls are coming to us from southern Oregon, from along the coast line, from many places in Idaho and from the great Inland Empire of Washington. Young people with vision and training are coming to us from George Fox College wanting places of service. Oregon Yearly Meeting is confronted with a great challenge. This great northwest country is now the focal point of the nation. We have great mineral resources, mighty forests, untouched possibilities for developing tremendous hydro-electric power plants, undreamed-of prospects in agriculture and animal husbandry and the dairying industry. Great recreational centers and parks are being developed for both summer and winter enjoyment, and our streams and lakes are being stocked with fish to the joy of the fisherman.

Statistics tell us that the per capita church attendance of this northwest country is about the lowest in the nation.

People flocking to this section of the country are interested in money and an easy life. God is being left out, and any people who forget God are a doomed people. The devil will make this fair country, with all its bright prospects, a veritable hell unless Oregon

Yearly Meeting does her share.

The Quakers can win this northwest country for God. We are large enough to do it—that is we have plenty of people with whom to do the task. We have enough money to do the task. Surely we have the consecrated leadership. Other denominations are also working at this task. We are not competing with any one. We don't plan to over-lap. But if the so-called Quaker message was ever needed, it is needed today, just as it was when George Fox walked the country lanes of England. We feel that people are hungry today to know about the baptism with the Holy Spirit of God. They want to know how to feed on Christ each day. They need to experience the joy of being in the priesthood of believers. And in the pageantry of today people need to be reminded of simplicity in dress, in speech and in life, and that the life of a Christian be consistent with the testimony of his church.

What an opportunity we have, with calls from Bolivia, Japan and this northwest country. What an opportunity we have to move with God into these needy places. This is not a day for the Yearly Meeting to support ten missionaries and fifty pastors. This is a day when the challenge is for individuals to come onto the scene and support a pastor and a missionary personally. Some of you members of Oregon Yearly Meeting should be coming and saying, "I want to support a pastor in some outpost point, or I want to support a missionary, in addition to what I am doing." The pastors and missionaries are ready to go. Are you ready to make it possible? May the membership of Oregon Yearly Meeting work so humbly with God that He may be able to pour out His blessing upon them and thus bless untold thousands in Bolivia, Japan and in this northwest country.

In conclusion, be strong—not in yourselves—but in the Lord, in the power of His boundless resource. Put on God's complete armour so that you can successfully resist all the devil's methods of attack. For, as I suspect you have learned by now, our fight is not against any physical enemy: it is against organizations and powers that are spiritual. We are up against the unseen power that controls this dark world, and spiritual agents from the very headquarters of evil. Therefore you must wear the whole armour of God that you may be able to resist evil in its day of power, and that even when you have fought to a stand-still, you may still stand your ground. Take your stand with Truth as your belt, Righteousness your breastplate, the Gospel of Peace firmly on your feet, Salvation as your helmet and in your hand the Sword of the Spirit, the Word of God. Above all be sure you take Faith as your shield, for it can quench every burning missile the enemy hurls at you. Ephesians 6:10-16.

Our fervent prayer is—God bless Oregon Yearly Meeting.

Prayerfully submitted,
Joseph G. Reece

Pearl Reece said that each one had been a blessing to her, and she would like to thank each individually. She had appreciated all the kindnesses given them, and especially for the prayers of the people. She thanked God for every difficulty that had been overcome. She said that they would remember the meeting in their prayers. Her parting admonition was: "Be true to the Lord for the time is short."

The report of the Board of Evangelism was read by Ray L. Carter

The Board of Evangelism assumed its responsibilities this year with a sense of the need of divine guidance in this all-important work.

Never before in our life-time have the fields been so white unto harvest. We are faced on the right hand, and on the left, with wide-open, unoccupied fields, ready to be entered; and we have consecrated young people, called to the ministry, many of them just out of college, who are asking the Board for a place to serve.

We have the fields and we have the workers, but how to get the workers out into the fields is a problem. This situation offers a great challenge to Oregon Yearly Meeting. Seldom is a Yearly Meeting faced with such a challenge. We doubt if there is another Yearly Meeting in America where there is a surplus of Quaker youth asking to enter fields of gospel service. Word from other quarters indicates that there is a shortage of preachers, but there is no shortage here, thanks to the splendid contribution that is being made by Greenleaf Academy, George Fox College and other Christian schools in this area.

It is the feeling of the Board that the Yearly Meeting as a whole has not yet gotten a vision of her responsibility and opportunity. This is evidenced by the response to the "Calls" that are sent out from time to time. The response to the last few "Calls" have been so disappointing that the Board has seriously considered discontinuing them altogether.

The latest "Call" was for the Talent Church, one of our young, thriving congregations, which was forced out of its place of worship. We tried to make it clear in the "Call" that the need was desperately urgent. Here was a congregation with no place to go except to the City Hall, which they might occupy only temporarily. Yet three months after the "Call" was issued a total of only $600 had come in from the whole Yearly Meeting. Our General Superintendent became so alarmed over the lagging response that he sent a special appeal to all of the churches to get behind the Talent "Call," and now we are glad to report that the amount received, above expense of mailing, is $1011.09. But even this is far below what one would expect, when the urgency of the case is considered. It is hoped that many of our people will even yet send in to this fund.

Our thriving outposts are going to need assistance. Hillsboro is a young, healthy, growing congregation. In the last twelve months its Sunday morning congregation has increased 35.7%, while its Sunday evening congregation has increased 42.8%. It will make still more rapid growth when it is housed in its own church building on its own property. Through a loan of $1000 made by the Board of Evangelism, a large, abandoned school building was purchased, wrecked, and the lumber and plumbing moved to the site purchased for the new church. Hillsboro will need assistance in erecting their new structure.

Spokane will need help. As soon as possible after Yearly Meeting, A. Clark Smith and his wife will move from Hayden Lake into Spokane. He has, as yet, no place to live. The school-house in which the growing Spokane church is meeting can only be used temporarily. Sooner or later we must look forward to assisting in the erection of a parsonage and adequate church building in Spokane.

Our newest outpost, however, comes to us as a pleasant surprise.

The little community of O'Brien, in the southern part of Oregon, near Cave Junction, southwest of Grants Pass, already has a Sunday school organized. They have asked Oregon Yearly Meeting to adopt them as an outpost and send them a preacher. They are not asking for money. They are not asking for support of any kind, except moral. They tell us they will build their own church edifice without assistance from the Yearly Meeting. Plans have already been drawn by Donald Edmundson. They expect to have the building finished before winter. Orrin Ogier will be their pastor, and he and his family have already moved to the field. This is our newest outpost. We welcome the O'Brien congregation into the fellowship of Oregon Yearly Meeting.

And so it goes. Our borders are expanding. Oregon Yearly Meeting is bursting its garments at the seams.

But if we are to grow as we should, and enter new fields of opportunity as we should, it means sacrifice, and an investment of money, time, effort and prayers—not from a few, but from the whole Yearly Meeting. What conquests can be made for Christ when the whole church gets the vision, and applies itself to the task!

In conclusion we wish to take note of the fact that this year Joseph G. Reece, and his wife, Pearl, are terminating a period of ten years service as General Superintendent of Oregon Yearly Meeting. The Board of Evangelism has worked in closest co-operation with these friends, and it wishes to go on record as expressing its deepest appreciation of the splendid contribution that has been made by them to the work of this Yearly Meeting. We sincerely wish them God's richest blessings in their new field of service, and will surely follow them with our prayers.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Board of Evangelism,
Ray L. Carter, president

The president of the Board also read the pastoral reports from the various Quarterly Meetings, and these will appear in the Appendix.

Ray L. Carter then introduced Arthur Drews and his wife, Violet Drews. Mr. Drews is the one that invited Oregon Yearly Meeting to undertake the work at O'Brien. Mr. Drews told of the location and the leading of the Lord in beginning the work at O'Brien.

Orrin Ogier, who is to be pastor of the new work in the Friends Community Church at O'Brien, told of his great desire to bring souls to the Lord Jesus Christ.

This church is to be an outpost of Medford meeting.

Mildred Brown said that 1 Samuel 7:22 was a verse that fitted the work at Spokane. They were thankful for the trained teachers who came to them—William and Esther Thomas and Robert and Deborah Pendergast. On January 14 they held their first Sunday school and church services in the Y.W.C.A. Then the Madison School was wonderfully obtained by them, and on Mothers' Day the first service was held in the school.

Ray L. Carter reported:

A. Clark Smith will be moving to Spokane; Derrol and Lesta Hockett are to go to Hayden Lake; J. D. and Leona Baker and Glen Moor are to go to Coeur d'Alene to find work and help in the community and in Hayden Lake church; Richard Cossel and family are to go to Quilcene; Harold Ankeny and family are to go to Agnew.

The reports of the Board were approved.

It was reported that the work among the Jews was assigned to a committee which would report Tuesday.

● 77. The Representatives sent in nominations for the following Boards: Evangelism, Missions, Christian Education, Service, Public Relations, Finance, Publication. Also nominations for the committees named below: Auditing, George Fox Visiting, Epistle, Press and Publicity, and the ones to receive and distribute documents.

The names of officers to serve next year were also submitted.

All these were approved.

● 78. Levi T. Pennington offered the closing prayer and the meeting adjourned to meet Tuesday, August 21, at 9:30 a.m.

TUESDAY, August 21, 9:30 A.M.

● 79. During the devotional period the Presiding Clerk brought a message from John 7:37. In the last day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried saying, "If any man thirst, let him come unto me and drink." We need to learn that "it is not by might or by power, but my Spirit, saith the Lord." The great need of Oregon Yearly Meeting is dependence on the Holy Spirit. Each church must perpetuate itself as well as extend itself. The Holy Spirit brings us to God and enables us to perform the tasks of God at home and abroad. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever. Church machinery squeaks when it is not oiled by the Holy Spirit. Let us eliminate the squeaks.

Charles Haworth offered a prayer of thanksgiving for all of God's blessings during the sessions of Oregon Yearly Meeting.

● 80. The minutes were read and approved.

● 81. The following note came from Joseph and Pearl Reece:

We wish to express our appreciation for the gift we received after the sessions yesterday. We have used the money according to your wish in buying a tank-type Hamilton Beach vacuum cleaner. We appreciate from the depths of our hearts your kindness and will always remember you when we use it, which we judge will be rather frequent.

Joseph and Pearl Reece

● 82. The Auditing Committee presented the following report:

The financial operations of the Yearly Meeting have grown during the past years until they have reached the proportions where your Auditing Committee feels that the Yearly audit of the treasurer's books should be made by a regular auditing concern.

There is no desire on the part of the Committee to be freed from any work we are able to do for our Yearly Meeting. Rather, it is that we do not feel qualified to do this in a proper business-like way.

The Yearly Meeting treasurer concurs in this recommendation.

We therefore recommend that the Executive Committee make the necessary arrangements with an auditing firm for the audit of this coming year's operations.

Homer Hester

Hervy Hoskins

Joseph McCracken

Committee

The meeting concurs with the idea of securing a regular auditing firm to audit the books, and requests the Auditing Committee to have charge of it.

● 83. The Executive Committee recommends that the Financial Secretary, Robert Morrill, present the matter of the response to the budget and the responsibilities that rest upon us as a Yearly Meeting.

The recommendation was approved, and Robert Morrill reported that $19,665 had been pledged up to now. $501.28 came in from the Sunday offerings. $20,166.28 is the amount that has been pledged and received. This is only 70% of the askings.

Ray L. Carter, president of the Board of Evangelism, offered to strike off $2400 of their askings for the Seattle meeting.

Walter P. Lee, president of the Board of Missions, said that they would reduce their askings by $3000 if they were allowed to have appeals for special projects.

It was referred to the Executive Committee to carry out the askings.

It was understood that no pressure should be brought to bear on the meetings which had given with the understanding that there should be no projects. All such meetings are authorized to review and adjust their pledges and inform the Financial Secretary of any changes made.

● 84. The Executive Committee recommends that Forrest W. Cammack serve as Financial Secretary for the year 1951-52.

The recommendation was approved.

● 85. Forrest W. Cammack's resignation from the Board of Finance, due to his appointment as Financial Secretary, was accepted.

● 86. The Representatives recommend that Yearly Meeting be held August 14 to August 19, 1952.

This recommendation was approved.

● 87. The following report from the committee appointed to prepare returning minutes was accepted:

We, your committee appointed to prepare returning minutes for visiting Friends, have attended to the object of our appointment, and submit the accompanying returning minute for John A. and Mildred J. Baldwin.

BOARD OF PUBLICATION

● 88. The president, Frederick B. Baker, read the following report which was approved:

"Because I will publish the name of the Lord: Ascribe ye greatness unto our God," said Moses in his song of many years ago. The Mosaic statement outlines the work of the Board of Publication since its inception in 1942.

The purpose of the Board is outlined in the Discipline as follows:

"The Board of Publication is authorized to publish the Yearly Meeting periodical, and is responsible for the appointment of its editorial staff and for all editorial and financial responsibilities concerning it. It is further authorized to build and administer a revolving fund and to publish books, pamphlets, and other church and Bible school literature as need may arise and the Board may deem wise."

This year Publication Sunday was set for Sunday February 18, 1951, and was observed on that date and other dates when it was more convenient to do so.

The Publication day offering amounted to about $300.00.

The Publication of the Northwest Friend continues to be one of our major responsibilities. Two thousand copies are printed monthly, with the exception of August when no issue is put out.

The Quaker bulletin service is used by 25 of our churches, with 2300 copies printed weekly. This bulletin material was sent to all of our churches for the Publication day presentation.

Inaugurated this year was the printing of 20,000 Gospel tracts for free mass distribution to all of our churches. The tract for Publication Sunday was informative, entitled, "Throwing Ink at the Devil." Other tracts printed were as follows: "The Importance of the Sunday School," "What Would I Rather Have?" "Christian Stewardship," and "Three Cheers."

One of our larger projects this year has been preparation of material for the publication of the book on behalf of the Board of Evangelism entitled, "Church Extension Methods," written by Milo C. Ross. This book will be released for publication on or before January first. It contains 125 pages, is well illustrated and will sell for about $2.00.

We have continued to cooperate with our college in printing its annual publication, "L'Ami", and its bi-monthly bulletins.

One of the valuable contributions of the Board during the year has been the publication of "The Soul Cry of the Aymara," during four issues of the Northwest Friend.

A new publication this year was the "Yearly Meeting Budget" book outlining the financial status of our church.

Two thousand copies of a booklet, "The Bible and War," by Paul M. Mills, were printed for the Board of Public Relations. Five thousand copies of a stewardship tract were also printed.

Three hundred and fifty copies of the Christian Endeavor Manual were printed monthly for the C.E. Unions of the three Yearly Meetings. Five thousand copies of the tract "The Importance of the Sunday School" and numerous publications to our conferences and camps were published. A Christian Endeavor chart was also printed during the year.

Featured for the Board of Missions was the attractive missionary calendar which finds a place in so many of our homes. The "Talent Call" also was sent out for the Board of Evangelism.

We feel that the Board is realizing its goal of being of help to the entire Yearly Meeting.

We appreciate the faithful work of Ray L. Carter, publisher and editor, and Ralph Fletcher, his assistant. Margaret Carter and Myrtle Fletcher, too, have given much valuable time to this work. We invite you to visit the Yearly Meeting printing plant.

We request that Publication Sunday be observed this year on February 17, 1952.

For the coming year we propose:

1. To make the Northwest Friend the best church paper possible. We need the cooperation of everyone to accomplish this goal. The Northwest Friend is supposed to be sent to every family. This goal can only be reached as membership lists are kept up to date. It is desired that every church have a correspondent, and that our editor be supplied with up-to-the minute news, and plenty of glossy pictures.

2. To have an informed constituency. In order to realize this we offer the services of the Board of Publication to every department of our church.

3. That the challenge of the printed page be brought to the attention of our people. There is no more effective way to spread the Gospel than through the printed page. Will you remember the work of the Board in your prayers? We invite designated gifts for the work of the Board, and also that the Publication Board be remembered in the wills of our people.

4. That there be developed an increased loyalty to the publications of "The George Fox Press," printers of evangelical Friends Sunday School literature true to the faith. Will you pray much for the Bible School Publication Board of Evangelical Friends, its editors and board members? This is a joint project of Oregon, Kansas and Ohio Yearly Meetings.

5. That there be a wider release of our own Publication Board material through the medium of the Better Book and Bible House and other such agencies, as other groups are beginning to purchase our literature. The opportunity here is unlimited.

● 98. The Executive Committee made the following report which was approved by the meeting:

The Executive Committee recommends the following communication from the Board of Publication:

The Board of Publication of Oregon Yearly Meeting, in session August 17, 1951, voted to ask the Executive Committee to give consideration to the following proposition:

We recommend that the Yearly Meeting appoint a standing committee on Discipline revision, to serve as long as may be needful and to have these responsibilities:

1. To collect and arrange in order all amendments to the Constitution and Discipline thus far approved, so compiling a fully amended copy, and to maintain the same year by year. This collection shall also be printed on gummed slips to be distributed to Monthly Meetings for inserts in Disciplines already in the hands of Friends.

2. To receive from boards, officers, and members of the Yearly Meeting such suggestions as they may wish to submit for further changes in the Constitution and Discipline, looking toward smoother operation of the meetings and organizations, committees and boards.

3. To give full consideration to all of these suggestions, with a view to being ready to submit to the Yearly Meeting for its consideration a proposed new edition of the Constitution and Discipline at such time in the future as it may seem advisable to plan its publication.

The Board of Publication was united in feeling that this course of action, beginning the preparation for the next edition of our Constitution and Discipline several years ahead of its probable time of publication, would prove to be more satisfactory than waiting until publication becomes a pressing need.

Oregon Friends Bolivian Mission

The Mission Council sends greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends, as it convenes in its fifty-ninth annual session.

We sincerely acknowledge the presence and leadership of the Holy Spirit during the months of this year, and give praise to our God for advancement that He has permitted in all the field program. We feel that the work of our Mission must needs be accelerated as we anticipate the soon return of our Lord and the consequent urgency of laboring while it is yet day. As we think of the call of God upon our individual lives, we desire to say with the Apostle Paul, "I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision." That "vision" for us is the needy Aymara Indian, "unto whom now I send thee, to open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me." Acts 26:17, 18.

As a Mission Council, we respectfully submit the following reports of the mission work and progress during this past year.

Yours on behalf of the Mission Council

Ralph E. Chapman, chairman

Phyllis Cammack, secretary

Field Mission Council

During the major portion of this past year, the Mission Council has had Jack Willcuts as its chairman and Phyllis Cammack as its secretary. Ralph Chapman replaced Jack Willcuts as chairman for the final weeks of the church year. Appointments made by the Mission Board and forwarded to the Mission Council were as follows: Evangelistic Secretary, Jack Willcuts; Agricultural Secretary, Paul Cammack; Educational Secretary, Jack Willcuts, until Nov. 1950, followed by Roscoe Knight; Constructional Secretary, Ralph Chapman; Editor of the "Soul Cry of the Aymara", Phyllis Cammack; Director of the Helen Cammack Memorial Bible Training School, Ralph Chapman; Field Treasurer, Ralph Chapman, Bookkeeper, Marie Chapman.

Howard and Julia Pearson, after completion of three terms of service in our mission, returned to the States in September, 1950, on furlough and in retirement from the work of the Oregon Yearly Meeting Bolivian Mission. God's blessing upon their labors has been evident, and the Mission Council places on record its vote of appreciation for their services here, and pray the Lord's blessing on them in future service as He leads. Roscoe and Tina Knight and children returned from furlough in November, 1950, and have been busily occupied as teachers in the Bible Training School as well as furthering an active evangelistic program in the area in which our farm is located. In May the Willcuts returned to the States on furlough. We express our appreciation of the fine work that they have done, and feel that many shall undoubtedly be counted among the redeemed who came to the saving knowledge of Christ under the ministry here of Jack and Geraldine. We were glad to welcome into our group, Marshal, Catherine, and Christine Cavit who moved into Hadley Hall last November. Their work these past months has been with the Willcuts in the evangelistic field. We appreciate greatly the work they are doing, and are thankful for progress that is being made in the evangelistic program.

National Society of Bolivian Friends

A great step of faith has been taken this year in the reorganization of this national entity in our mission. We express our appreciation for the advice and help relative to the society given to us by Walter P. Lee, our Board president, during his visit to Bolivia. The new organization was formed with an executive committee of six national brethren and one missionary as advisor. This committee has assumed the responsibility for the leadership of the evangelistic program of the field. The mission treasurer remits to the society treasurer the sum corresponding to the mission's monthly aid for pastors and he in turn is charged with the task of paying the pastors. During this year the mission will continue the aid to pastors of the organized churches, but at the Yearly Meeting in La Paz in 1952, these funds shall be withdrawn. This is in order that more funds may be available for evangelistic work, help to new outstations, windows, benches, construction, etc., and in the educational phase of our program. Testimony should be given to the fact that God has manifested Himself in a remarkable manner in the evident zeal and desire on the part of the leadership to make this work a success. The final step in the formation of the National Church shall take place at the La Paz Yearly Meeting, next year. Until that time much depends upon the constant visitation and teaching in the churches, both by the missionaries and national leaders. The average lay member needs to learn that tithing is the plan that God has given for the maintenance of his church and pastor. There is much ground yet to be covered, and it is imperative that Friends of Oregon Yearly Meeting intercede in these vital months of the formation of the Bolivian Friends Church. We long to see that church Spirit-filled and Spirit-led. May 2 Chron. 20:15 be your challenge in prayer as it is ours: "Thus saith the Lord unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's."

Yearly Meeting, 1951

The Easter week of 1951 again brought numbers of brethren of our field to La Paz to attend the Yearly Meeting sessions. The mornings from Wednesday through Sunday were occupied with classes and services directed by missionaries and nationals. Walter P. Lee was the evangelist, bringing doctrinal messages each morning, and messages on Christian living at each night service. The presence of the Holy Spirit was felt, and it was evident that new light was received, and a deeper walk with the Lord was attained by many. Roscoe Knight served as platform manager during the week. Marshal Cavit erected his large tent in the back patio to help in providing a locale for meetings and accommodations at night for brethren from the country. The main emphasis of these days was placed on the initiation of the new national organization, and the endeavor to clarify the need for each professing Christian to be a vital, integral part of the work of his church.

Visitors

This year we were pleased to have Walter P. Lee and Forrest Cammack with us as visitors. Forrest arrived in Bolivia in November, 1950, and promptly busied himself in the task of installing the farm light and water systems. He also worked in trips that permitted him to visit the major portion of the field during his stay. Walter Lee paid his second visit to the field during the months of March to May, 1951. A heavy schedule kept him busy in visitation of the field as well as advising the missionary staff concerning the promotion of the field program.

Respectfully submitted,
Ralph E. Chapman

Helen Cammack Memorial Bible Training School

The Bible Training School, located on Hacienda Copajira, is in its fifth year of existence. Truly the Lord continues to bless the school, and for all progress being made we give Him praise.

The school year began with an enrollment of twenty-eight students. Of this number five have withdrawn, leaving us at present, four third-year, six second-year, and thirteen first-year students. Eight of the students are married, and their families are occupying the cottages made available for them here at the farm.

The addition of the third-year studies has increased the teaching load, and again this year all the missionaries on the farm have part in the teaching of classes. To the regular classes of the Bible course have been added night classes of a normal school nature for help to students preparing to be teachers.

Preparation for the school year included a limited amount of remodeling, and the building of two new cottages for married students. Major changes were made in the dormitory and dining hall. Double-decked beds were installed. Our potential capacity was increased to twenty-one boys in the dormitory, plus quarters for eight married students in the cottages. Three new tables were made for the dining hall, and these facilitate the serving of the entire group.

The large school garden was spared any damage this year, and the Bible School has been furnished with most of its vegetables from it. In addition to this, all the meat, potatoes, chunos, etc., are furnished by the farm. We have had to buy only such major items as bread, sugar, rice, macaroni, and soap. The purchase of these items has been made possible through farm funds diverted to school use. This has enabled the placement of all gifts received from Oregon Yearly Meeting into a Bible School capital fund, to attend to future building for the school.

Our daily schedule continues with classes each week-day morning except Saturday. The daily chapel services are conducted by the missionaries. Afternoons and Saturday mornings are given over to work in classes and on the farm. Classes in carpentry and for making flannel-graph material to be used over the field are being held this year. An extensive evangelistic program has been carried on, and in addition to obligations in the school and Copajira church, the students are actively engaged in visitation on the farm and in neighboring farms and communities. The first day of each month is designated as a "day of prayer," with all the students participating in maintaining a chain of prayer during the day.

Two series of special meetings have been conducted this year. At the beginning of the year, Roscoe Knight served as evangelist for the services conducted twice daily during the first week. Emphasis was placed on the requisities for the new life in Christ, and his messages were illustrated with object lessons. At the close of the mid-year vacations, a holiness preaching mission was held. Rev. Boyd Skinner, of the La Paz Seminary Mission, was the evangelist. The Lord used his ministry and many of the students were deepened in their Christian experiences during the week.

At the close of this year, as the Lord wills, we shall have the first graduating class go out from the school. Four boys, Casemiro Quaquero, Pedro Guanica, Pablo Mendoza, and Braulio Espejo, shall be sent forth to assume their places in the growing program of the Bolivian Friends Church. Remember these boys in prayer, and be with us, in spirit at least, on Friday, September 7, as the graduation exercises conclude this school year.

Annual Report of Construction Work

The brethren of Amacari have seen the fulfillment of their hopes in the construction of their new, large church building. The construction was carried on under the direction of one of their own brethren, Baltazar Yujra. There is still a considerable amount of work to be done to complete the building, but this will be done as time, laborers, and money make it available.

A new church has been erected in one of the La Paz suburbs called San Antonio. With the help of the Mission, the brethren there have been able to complete the work of erecting the walls and putting on the roof. Finish work on the inside still lacks to adequately prepare the building for use.

The Mission property in La Paz has witnessed a large amount of remodeling this year. Hadley Hall has been converted into living quarters for two families. This has been made possible by the conversion of each floor into separate, complete apartments. The building in the back patio of the Mission property has been completed to make possible larger and more acceptable quarters for the La Paz day school. This work has consisted principally in the placing of concrete floors, and the plastering of the walls and ceilings.

Work has been started on the school building at Chirapaca and on the church at Mina Milluni. The brethren in Mina Milluni are assuming the major responsibilities of their construction, and have asked for help only in placing a roof on the building.

Construction at Copajira has included the remodeling of the house now occupied by Knights, the building of two new Bible School cottages, a large building housing the carpenter shop, and a small house for the light plant. The installation of the light and water systems were completed for the most part in January. Final installation of the light system was made possible in June, upon the arrival of the large motor and generator.

Farm Report

The Copajira farm was distinctly blessed with good crops this year. Catholic owned farms located all about Copajira have been forced to realize that the Evangelical farm had abundant harvests while they were suffering short crops. We give the praise to God and trust Him to convince these people who are so economically superstitious of the truth of the gospel.

This year the farm has its biggest harvests thus far. The potato crop was outstanding with 170 tons harvested or about 100 tons more than last year on about the same sized acreages. The potatoes were larger this year also. Our greatly increased plantings of beardless barley yielded well as did some of the trial plantings of wheat.

Since the prices on farm products—especially potatoes—have risen sharply, we anticipate a substantial income from this year's crops which as yet are in storage. We have just finished harvests.

Farm sheep, cattle, and hogs have increased well and have been sources of profit. At last, wool prices have increased so that we begin to show an income on wool.

The former peons of the farm, with the exception of eight families, have completed their freedom obligations and can now be said to own their houses and acreages. They seem very contented with their new freedom and for the opportunity to work for wages when we can use them. Six families still cling to the traditions, centuries old, and want to continue as peons. We feel that our Indians have more interest in the gospel but so far the real turning to Christ has not come. Let us not "be weary . . . for in due season ye shall reap if ye faint not."

The farm took on the entire support of the operating expenses of the Bible School this year. A great sense of blessing has come as we realize that God's purposes for the farm are becoming realities.

Walter Lee and Forrest Cammack gave personal help this year by visiting us and working with us on the farm. Lawrence McCracken has continued sending veterinary supplies. Vaughn Anderson has sent tools, welding materials, and electrical equipment.

The two major installations this year were the water system and the Diesel-electric system. Both are in successful use. Will Way with others felt a concern that these improvements should be made at Copajira and he released the major portion of the funds used in the necessary purchases. The missionaries and the school are greatly profiting from these utilities by more efficient school work at night and in the time and energy saved.

Some friends in Kansas sent money to buy a road-grader, which has been purchased and used. Many other friends have sent help in money, counsel, and effectual prayer. We again praise God, "For we are laborers together with God. . . ."

Respectfully submitted,
Paul Cammack

Educational Report of Grade Schools

School year of 1950 closed while we were still in the States on furlough, with children in five schools taking final exams in October, Jack Willcuts presiding.

This year three new schools have been started, giving us a total of eight schools with some 225 children in attendance. We now have schools in the following places: La Paz, Copajira, Amacari, Ojje, Achachikala, Chirapaca, Calata and Huaina Pata, the latter having been started by Marshal Cavit in the upper valleys on the Eastern slope of the Andes.

Before starting schools this year, a Teacher's Institute was held for all teachers, giving instruction concerning courses and methods of teaching. Classes started in January in the already established schools and a short time later in the newly founded ones.

We are still lacking much equipment for most of our schools but temporary desks have been placed in Amacari and Ojje, some gym equipment given to all and other types of needed material have been supplied. We are thankful that buildings and equipment do not constitute all the necessities of learning or I am afraid that most of our schools would be woefully lacking. However, with Christian teachers and a spiritual program, we feel that God will train these children and use many of them in His service in the future.

Respectfully submitted,
Roscoe S. Knight

Report of the National Society of Friends

The National Society of Bolivian Friends greets you in the love of our Lord at this time of Yearly Meeting. It is our only desire that God abundantly bless in your great meeting at the foot of the cross of our beloved Jesus.

The National Society, with the blessing of God, is working with all its strength and entire will as the Lord has permitted. In the spiritual as well as the material work, we have learned, as of this date, the steps that are basic for the future church, and we feel that yet there remain endless labors.

As a beginning of our tasks, we have observed the great lack of workers needed to announce the Holy Gospel. Through the will of the Lord, there have been sent those as pastors only to a few places such as Laja, Amacari, Ojje, etc.—with the exception of the addition of two other workers. One of these serves as a traveling pastor, and his visitation to date has been to half or perhaps even less than half of the field. In addition to this, there are 10 or more places where workers are asked for to announce the Gospel. Our goal is to send but we find ourselves with the necessity of special funds. However, we hope that God's will shall decide as to the future of these places.

Our Society holds its meetings monthly; and these are of vital importance for the best control of the field work. In these meetings agreements are reached and reports are given concerning the work done each month. As to the Yearly Conferences in the places that are organized, the load is now placed upon the executive committee which attends to the major part of their activities. The executive committee that was organized in the Yearly Meeting in the month of March is composed of the following brethren: President—Mariano Baptista, Vice president—Pedro Quispe, Secretary—Maximo Loza, Treasurer—Silas Casas, Evangelistic Secretary—Martin Perez, Educational Secretary—Pedro Guanica, Missionary Counselor, Ralph Chapman. These brethren are making personal sacrifices and are doing the same for the work in mutual cooperation.

The report of the treasurer, including four months ending with July, is as follows:

Receipts:

Given by the Mission . . .	.Bs. 44,250.00
Churches and Society . . .	20,000.00
Total Received . . .	Bs 64,250.00

Disbursements:

Pastors' salaries. . . . .	.Bs 63,250.00
----------------------------	---------------

Other expenses . . . . .	9,000.00
Total Disbursements . . . . .	Bs 64,250.00

Yours in Christ,

Signatures of executive committee members

Note: This translation is as exact to the Spanish as is possible to convey the ideas that I felt were desired in the formulation of this report. In view of the fact that the funds in the Society treasury have gradually diminished until this month there is no balance, the brethren desire the following appendix to their report:

The above is report of the use of the funds, but although an effort is made, the churches do not now give their tithes. The reason is that on the altiplano there are poor agricultural returns.

May I here suggest a kind but concise and firm reply including a restatement of our stand with regard to pastors' salaries at the end of this year. This may be directed to the field churches through the executive committee to encourage and warn them relative to the response that they must make to this program.

Ralph Chapman

Walter Lee read the following report for the Board of Missions.

MISSIONARY PROGRAM FOR 1951-52

Presented by the Board of Missions

The Board of Missions is deeply grateful to the Lord for His evident blessings on this Yearly Meeting in its endeavor to work with the "Chief Shepherd" in gathering into His fold Aymara Indians of the Bolivian highlands. The remarkable expansion of the work and increase in the number of believers is an indication of a special visitation of the Holy Spirit in these days. The Lord is leading on and planning the program of our mission work. May our Yearly Meeting have the vision, courage and resources from God's storehouse to follow on.

Our mission program has continued its almost phenomenal growth during this year. The interest and support of the members of the Yearly Meeting has been most encouraging and has proved a blessing to all. The consecrated contributions designated by members of this Yearly Meeting for special needs on the field have made possible some very necessary improvements.

For the past ten years the invaluable help and advise of Joseph G. Reece, our General Superintendent, has been deeply appreciated by the Board of Missions. We shall miss him much, but feel sure of his continued interest.

Field Program

With the addition of the third and finishing year of the Bible School curriculum during the past year, the teaching staff is looking forward to the inclusion in the curriculum of some normal training for the preparation of teachers.

The increasing number of students for the Bible School makes necessary a new administration building and the use of the old building for dormitory space. The Marie McClintick Memorial fund of $500 given by the Melba Monthly Meeting will be used in building the first unit of this new building.

With the enriched curriculum of the Bible School and the increased number of students it becomes increasingly apparent that it will be necessary for four of the five couples on the field to live at the farm. This will necessitate the construction of another home for which we trust the Lord to supply the needed funds.

With the approach of the furlough time within less than a year for Paul and Phyllis Cammack and family, it became necessary for the Board to make immediate preparation to send to the field another couple who could assume the farm responsibilities. After much prayer, careful consideration and contact with the missionaries on the field, it was the unanimous feeling of the Board in cooperation with the missionaries in Bolivia that Leland and Iverna Hibbs should be placed under appointment. It is hoped that preparation will be completed for them to leave about October first of this year.

In view of the high altitude of our mission field with its debilitating effects and the fact that there is no adequate retirement fund for missionaries, the Board has carried in its printed regulations for years a relatively low retirement age. This was to allow missionaries further years of service at lower altitudes and an opportunity to plan for the later years of their lives. Howard and Julia Pearson after a number of years of service with us have reached the retirement age effective this fall. The results of their ministry can adequately be evaluated only in eternity. May they be used of the Lord in other fields as He directs.

Jack and Geraldine Willcuts have recently returned from Bolivia and unfortunately find it necessary to remain in the country for a number of years to permit treatment and plastic surgery on the ear of their small daughter, Susan. They are accepting the pastorate of the Portland Second Friends Church. Their one term on the field was a year of extremely valuable ministry and witnessed the development of Jack's concern for an indigenous church. The Board regrets the necessity of seeking replacement for the Willcuts.

However, in view of the necessity of replacing the Willcuts, Mark and Wilma Roberts have been placed under appointment with the hope that they may go to Bolivia a year from this fall when the Willcuts would have been returning to the field. The Roberts will spend this coming year in gaining experience in some lines, study and other preparation.

Mission Program at Home

It is a growing concern upon the members of the Board of Missions and many other members of the Yearly Meeting that the needs presented by our rapidly growing work will be met satisfactorily only as we enter into prevailing prayer, exercise a faith that expects the impossible from God, and place in God's hands all that belongs to Him. We would encourage more earnest prayer for our missionaries, the national brethren as they carry the responsibilities of their churches, and the supplying of the financial as well as spiritual needs.

Although there have not been sufficient funds to permit the publishing of the historical pamphlet concerning our mission work, the Board plans the publication of a promotional folder to be distributed over an area even wider than our Yearly Meeting. Sufficient funds for this are anticipated.

In an effort to inform and stimulate interest in the work of the Yearly Meeting, the Board of Missions in cooperation with the Board of Evangelism and the Yearly Meeting Superintendent, is planning conventions on missions and evangelism to be held in the meetings throughout Oregon Yearly Meeting.

Missionary news will continue to appear in the "Soul Cry of the Aymara" and other pages of "The Northwest Friend."

Again it is urged that missionary messages be given at least quarterly and preferably monthly in the meetings of the Yearly Meeting.

Finances

Some rather radical changes were made in the United Budget this year with the inclusion of most of the items for special missionary projects which usually have been raised outside the budget. Failure to pledge the budget by our meetings may necessitate the withdrawal from the budget of some of the items and the placing of them on a special project list for separate appeal. The Board has confidence to believe that the members of this Yearly Meeting will care for the needs as the Lord directs.

The Lord has blessed the farm in an unusual way this year and the returns have been such as to pay all of the expenses of the Bible School which have amounted to approximately $100 per month as well as establish a favorable balance to maintain the school in a possible unfavorable crop year.

These are hours of great opportunity in the evangelizing of the world and they may not be of long duration. Let us all feel the urgency of the times and be at our best in every way for Christ.

On behalf of the Board of Missions
Walter P. Lee, president

These reports were accepted.

The following announcements were made by Walter Lee:

1. Regular yearly reports on the health of our missionaries are made.

2. Transportation to the field is generally by plane and it is practically as cheap as by boat.

3. We have no missionary in Japan, supported by Oregon Yearly Meeting. We are not financially able to support a missionary in Japan. Christie Bundy is an independent missionary.

Forrest Cammack spoke of his new task and on his trip to Bolivia. He said his task this year is to be a home missionary. May God call many to give personal pledges for the United Budget. Let's go back to our meetings with enthusiasm to give liberally to the United Budget. He is thankful that many things that the new missionaries need are being supplied. There is a need for a garden tractor with a mower attachment that may yet be secured.

He had a glorious trip to Bolivia and enjoyed working among the poor people at the high altitude and seeing the great needs there. He has a concern to go to the field again sometime and take others with him. It was as rugged as well as a glorious trip. The brethren are so faithful and earnest. There is a need of the full payment of the United Budget to bring salvation to these Aymara Indians.

Marshal and Catherine Cavit are fitting into the work beautifully and are a great help on the field.

The pictures that were drawn by a Bolivian Indian are to be given to those who help finance the pamphlets that the Board of Missions hope to put out to inform people of our work in Bolivia.

(The money was raised and the pictures assigned.)

Leland and Iverna Hibbs and their two boys, Teryl and Carol, who are planning to go to the field soon were introduced.

They spoke of their call to the field and asked the people not to forget to pray for them. They quoted many Bible texts that have been a help to them.

Jack Willcuts spoke on the Evangelistic and educational work.

He said that the main purpose of Christians is to evangelize. Jesus spoke to eleven men to evangelize the world, and they had two important equipments: first, minds to understand the Scriptures, and second, they tarried until they were endued with power.

National Society has been established. The organization is composed of seven members—all are Indians except the missionary adviser. The leaders have been prayerfully elected.

Roscoe Knight is the director of the educational program. There are eight day schools and the construction of six new buildings is in the process of being made by united action of the Indians and the missionaries.

The following Evangelistic report was read and explained by Jack Willcuts.

Evangelistic Report

Four 3 day conferences were held over the field during the past year. These were in Achachikala, Mina Fabulosa and Amacari. The fourth in Pucarani was held in September being the first Pucarani conference but it is hoped it shall continue as an annual meeting. These services were held in the recently completed chapel. Besides these regular conferences stressing revival and teaching needs, the Yearly Meeting was held at Easter time in La Paz.

Nineteen regular congregations meet each week for services plus several newer outposts or missions where services are held occasionally. The care of these meetings is in the hands of national pastors. The missionaries visit regularly over the field, but in addition to this the National church now maintains an evangelistic secretary, a National believer who also puts in full time in field visitation. This man is a consecrated worker and it is felt this added care will result in stronger churches and more rapid evangelization.

Walter Lee's visit greatly benefitted the evangelistic program and his revival message in many of the churches resulted in the salvation of souls and especially the strengthening of believers. The establishment of the National Church which he was instrumental in assisting is a step forward in the work which will be of eternal value to the Bolivian church.

The missionaries prepared a number of radio messages for broadcast over the Baptist radio station in La Paz.

Phyllis Cammack edits a monthly paper for the pastors and workers entitled, "Your Friend", which contained sermons and sermon helps, news and other helpful material. This has aided the pastors and the evangelistic program immeasurably.

Several thousand tracts were distributed in open air meetings during the year. These were used along with the public address system in visitation at large festival occasions, both state and Catholic festivals.

Marshal Cavit and his wife were active in revival work and other tasks too numberable to mention after November 1 of last year. They came to our mission as full time workers at that time. He held a number of camp meetings in his tent and many new converts were saved in these meetings. This is a new means of evangelization on our field. His use of colored slides, gospel records and so forth as well as his spirit filled message and burning zeal has been greatly blessed of God.

We can only praise God for his providence and blessing in the evangelistic work of the field during the past year. It is a wonder-work, in marvelous opportunity. There is a bright future for our Bolivian Friends as Jesus tarries if we remain faithful to the task.

Respectfully submitted,

Jack L. Willcuts

Jack Willcuts asked the Yearly Meeting to pray for the tent meetings as many Indians are reached that way.

Gervas A. Carey offered prayer for our missionaries as they go forth to minister in His name.

● 105. The clerks are asked to write a letter to the National Holiness Association, expressing to them our appreciation for the services of Marshal and Catherine Cavit on our field in Bolivia.

● 106. The responsibility of appointing persons to serve as a committee to collect the disciplinary changes, etc. was left to the Executive Committee.

● 107. The Representatives sent in the following report:
Communication from the Representatives in regard to the letter from Spencer George referred to them for consideration.

The Representatives have made a study of the letter and have authorized the clerks to make the following summary: We feel that the letter contains three main points of concern:

1. The need of a careful study of the entire financial set up of the Yearly Meeting.

2. The need of an increased emphasis on tithing throughout the entire Yearly Meeting membership and care for our integrity in paying pledges.

3. The need of care in selecting those who will have responsibility in shaping the policies of the Yearly Meeting.

The thinking of the Representatives concerning these matters may be summed up as follows:

1. We express confidence in our boards, recognizing the problems and responsibilities which they face. We would encourage them to use care that they operate within their means, avoiding borrowing or overdrawing.

2. We feel the need of a careful study of the entire financial structure of the Yearly Meeting.

3. We urge an increased emphasis on tithing, with a concern for the fact that our first responsibility in giving is to our own church.

4. We are concerned that all Friends be aware of the importance of maintaining their integrity in the matter of paying pledges made to the church, in keeping with Query 7. It is also recommended that treasurers holding pledges take care to remind those who have made them of their promises.

Charles A. Beals
Lela J. Morrill
Clerks

It was approved.

● 108. It was decided that article 7, page 102 in the Discipline should apply in the reverse next year.

● 109. The report of Epistle Committee was as follows:

This year we have received twenty American Epistles, including one from the Five Years Meeting; four from non-English speaking foreign countries, five from English speaking lands outside of the United States, and one from the La Paz Yearly Meeting, making thirty in all.

With this we are presenting a summary of those epistles, except that from Bolivia, which has been read in full. We are also presenting with this the Epistle from Oregon Yearly Meeting to be sent out to those from whom we have received epistles, if it meets with your approval.

As Chairman of this Committee I have read all the epistles, and have received inspiration and a blessing from them. There is inspiration to know that some, if not all, of our beliefs are so widely disseminated over the earth, and that there is a desire for love and peace to prevail over all the world.

Charles C. Haworth
Chairman

It was accepted.

The General Epistle from London was read.

The Epistle to the Bolivian brethren was read.

It was suggested that the names of the outgoing missionaries should be added to this epistle and a statement of the atoning blood of Christ.

The Epistles to other Yearly Meetings were read and approved with the addition of some statement in regard to the atoning blood of Jesus Christ.

It was the will of the meeting that the Epistle be sent to all the meetings from whom we receive epistles with the same conditions as before.

● 110. The Executive Committee made the following report which was accepted:

The Executive Committee recommends that in the matter of the Epistles as referred to this committee, Minute 79 of the 1950 Minutes, the Yearly Meeting follow the action of the Minutes of 1947 concerning epistolary correspondence:

"By action of Oregon Yearly Meeting, according to Minute 75, Minutes of 1947, the following constitutes the basis of Oregon Yearly Meeting epistolary correspondence hereafter:

"The whole matter concerning to whom epistles should be sent as referred to the Executive Committee as of Minute 73 of the Minutes of 1946 has been considered by the Executive Committee.

"The Executive Committee recommends that Oregon Yearly Meeting change its custom of epistolary correspondence from that of general broadcast letters to that of sending concerned epistles from time to time to individual Yearly Meetings or other groups of Friends.

"It further recommends that all epistles received be acknowledged by the clerk with a statement of our action and then they be referred to the epistle committee. The epistle committee shall report to the Yearly Meeting that which it deems of special concern to us.

"This action provides that hereafter the issuance of Oregon Yearly Meeting correspondence carries with it no recognition of organic or spiritual unity with bodies addressed."

Adelaide A. Barker, sec.

● 111. The following statement from the Caretakers was accepted and appreciation was expressed for their services.

● 116. Appreciation was expressed for the work of the clerks, especially for the messages by the Presiding Clerk.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR UNION

During the past year Christian Endeavor has shown definite progress in several ways. At the beginning of the year a larger budget than usual was accepted and although some thought it too large the Christian Endeavorers met it in a fine way. A 35 mm slide camera was purchased as well as a substantial amount sent to Bolivia to help in equipping one of the Day Schools—all of this plus the salary of the field secretary.

The Quarterly Meeting rallies and business meetings were held regularly. There was special growth in Salem and Puget Sound Quarters. Velda Leach of Puget Sound received the cup for the outstanding superintendent.

Throughout the year a Scripture Memorization contest was sponsored for all of the Junior and Intermediate Societies. The finals were held at Yearly Meeting time with three Quarterly Meetings participating. Janice Bishop of Salem was the winner.

For the young people—ages 14 through 18—there was a Speech Contest. The finals for this were held at the same time as the previous contest with four Quarters participating. Pat Lovegren from Portland was winner.

Meetings with sponsors and officers retreats were held throughout the year. It is the feeling of the Executive Committee that growth has been made this past year both physically and spiritually, and we are looking forward to another outstanding year. Our theme: "Launch out into the Deep."

Christian Endeavor Executive Committee
Laura E. Shook
Field Secretary

DIGEST OF THE MEETINGS OF THE MINISTRY AND OVERSIGHT BODY

The meeting on Ministry and Oversight of Oregon Yearly Meeting convened Wednesday, August 15, 1951 at 2:00 p.m.

There were two sessions of this body during Yearly Meeting. There was a consciousness of the presence of the Holy Spirit in these sessions.

Of the 43 named as representatives, 28 answered the roll call.

Gordon St. George was recommended to the Yearly Meeting to be recorded as a minister of the Gospel.

The meeting once more recommended that pages 77 and 78 regarding inactive resident members be studied.

The summary of the reports of the spiritual condition of the meetings showed that members of this body were faithful in attendance at the Sunday morning services but there was still evidence of laxness in attendance of other services of the church. Each meeting reported that as far as is known all are in harmony with the fundamental principles of our faith.

The meetings were urged to be more careful in presenting the reports of the spiritual condition of the meetings so that a true report of conditions may be presented.

As the Committee on Ministry reported that only four of the 96 ministers not pastors reported their activities for the year, the meeting instructed the General Superintendent to send out requests next year to ministers to remind them of our desire to hear of their activities during the year.

The Committee on Ministry was asked to consider the advisability of a study course for ministers and those preparing for the ministry so that there might be more definitely Scriptural preaching. They are also to consider publishing reviews of worthwhile books.
