GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY BRUINS 2004 NCAA CHAMPS!

2005 BRUINS

27 PAT BAILEY - Head Coach

Pat Bailey, named the American Baseball Coaches Association National Coach of the Year for leading George Fox University to the 2004 NCAA Division III World Series championship, is now in his 10th season at the helm of a Bruin baseball program that has established itself as one of the finest in the Northwest Conference and at regional and national levels.

Bailey's 9th season at George Fox culminated in the pinnacle of success as the Bruins became the first university team to capture a national championship as a member of the NCAA. The Bruins posted a 40-10 overall record, setting a new single-season record for wins and tying the record for best won-lost percentage (.800). A 20-4 record in Northwest Conference play, the team's best ever, enabled the Bruins to tie Linfield College for the NWC crown.

After receiving an at-large bid to the NCAA playoffs, the Bruins went 4-0 in the West Regional in Orange, Calif., their first regional title, and 5-1 in the World Series in Appleton, Wisc., defeating Eastern Connecticut State 6-3 in the championship game. All nine of the Bruins' post-season wins came against nationally-ranked teams, and four of their five wins in the World Series were against pitchers who were First or Second Team All-Americans. George Fox was a unanimous pick as the No. 1 team in the nation in the final ABCA/NCAA Division III national poll.

Success has been nothing new under Bailey, as the Bruins have posted 9 straight winning seasons since he took the reins in 1995. His career record is 262-120, the most wins of any George Fox baseball coach, and his .686 winning percentage ranks 22nd among active Division III coaches. In home games under Bailey, the Bruins have posted an amazing mark of 123-28 (.815).

George Fox teams have won or shared 6 NWC championships in Bailey's 9 seasons, winning outright titles in 1997, 2000, 2002, and 2003, and co-titles in 1999 and 2004. In 2000, their first year of NCAA eligibility, the Bruins advanced to the West Regional, where they were the No. 1 seed. In 2002, the Bruins went 1-2 in the Midwest Regional, earning their first NCAA post-season victory over Blackburn. In 2003, the Bruins were 2-2 in the West Regional, losing in the finals to eventual national champion Chapman.

Bailey was honored by the Northwest Conference as its Coach of the Year in 1997, 2000, 2002, and 2003, and as Co-Coach of the Year in 1999 and 2004. In addition to his National Coach of the Year award, he also received the Regional Coach of the Year award from the ABCA in 2004.

Many of Bailey's players have earned all-conference, all-district, all-region, and/or all-America recognition, including 9 members of last year's team. In 1999, first baseman Nate Barnett became his first NAIA First Team All-American, and in 2000, staff ace Ryan Alvis was named to the NCAA Division III All-America Third Team. In 2003, first baseman Eric Bell was an All-America First Team selection and pitcher Scott Hyde was All-America Second Team. Bell was a First Team Academic All-American and designated hitter Joshua Sargent was Second Team that same year. Last season, Hyde and shortstop David Peterson were All-America First Team selections, while Hyde was National Co-Pitcher of the Year.

"This university really matches up with me personality-wise and philosophically," says Bailey of his tenure at George Fox. "As a coach, I want to make sure every kid is making the most of his God-given talent. I want them to be a class act in the classroom and the community. I want the kids to match the school and my personality. I stress to my team that we're a family. Family members are more important than themselves. If you're going to be a leader, you must be a servant first."

Bailey took over the Bruin program immediately after guiding West Linn High School into the Oregon Class 4A state championship game in 1995. At West Linn, his teams advanced to the Class 4A state playoffs 7 times, and in his final season were edged 2-1 in the 1995 state championship game. Four times Bailey was named Three Rivers League Coach of the Year while at West Linn, where he served for 10 years as head baseball coach and assistant football coach. His baseball teams won 5 league titles and reached the Oregon semifinals in 1989, 1991, and 1995. Prior to West Linn, Bailey taught and coached at Willamette High School in Eugene, Ore., for 3 years.

At West Linn, Bailey was also a business instructor, and in 1994 was named to Who's Who Among America's Outstanding High School Teachers. In 1995, he was one of 30 outstanding educators honored with a 1995 Education Excellence Award, given by Associated Oregon Industries.

Bailey spent one season as pitching coach at the University of Portland in 1992, and has also coached a number of youth summer programs. From 1981-83, he led the State Junior Baseball program in Eugene to an 84-40 record, and from 1989-95, he produced a 187-64 record as an American Legion coach. Combined with his 223-134 high school record and George Fox totals, he has an overall mark in 23 years of coaching of 756-358 (.677).

Bailey is a 1974 graduate of Moscow High School in Idaho, where he played football, basketball, and was the baseball team's MVP. He earned 2 letters in baseball at North Idaho College in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, then 2 more as a starting outfielder and team captain during his senior season at the University of Idaho. He continued playing semiprofessionally until age 28. In 1978, he completed his business education degree, and earned a master of education degree in educational administration at the University of Oregon in 1983.

Additional duties for Bailey at George Fox include associate director of athletics, director of the Bruin Club for athletic support, chair of the school's Sports Hall of Fame Committee, and a teacher in the Department of Business and Economics. He and his wife, Susan, live in Newberg and have two children: son Alex, 21, and daughter Ann, 18.

2004 - THE YEAR OF FOX 'N' SOX!

In October 2004, the Boston Red Sox stunned the major league baseball world by winning their first World Series in 86 years. In June 2004, the George Fox University Bruins stunned the college baseball world by winning their first NCAA Division III World Series after entering post-season play as an unranked at-large team. After defeating Eastern Connecticut State 6-3 for the national championship, the Bruins ended the season with a 40-10 record and a No. 1 national ranking. Celebrate with George Fox's "Boys of Spring!"

Scott Hyde (l), Cory Dixon (m), and Mike Beck (r), the Bruins' starting rotation for three years, rewrote the record books. Hyde, a First Team All-American, Co-National Pitcher of the Year, and Most Outstanding Player in the World Series, was 32-5 in his career with 395 strikeouts, third in D-III history. He led the nation in 2005 in wins (14) and strikeouts (191), the second-highest single-season total ever in D-III. Dixon, who was All-NWC Second Team in 2005, was 20-16 in his career and set Bruin records for appearances (64) and innings (304.1). Beck, also All-NWC Second Team in 2005, was 25-3 in his career, setting a Bruin record for consecutive wins (20) and highest winning percentage (.893).

1B Joshua Sargent, an All-NWC First Team member, hit .376, led the league in doubles (17), and was second in RBI (56).

CF Drew Johnson, an All-NWC Second Team pick as a freshman, batted .348 and was second in the league in runs scored (48) and stolen bases (20).

Versatile Derrick Jones was 7-0 with 5 saves as the Bruins' closer and batted .300 as a right fielder, including a home run in the championship win over Eastern Connecticut.

C Greg Dombek, an All-NWC Second Team pick, batted .342 with 42 RBI, led the NWC in home runs with 10, and topped all batters in the World Series with 14 hits.

LF Stephen Donohue, an All-NWC Second Team pick, batted .354 and led the NWC in runs scored (52) and stolen bases (21).
