11/24 - GEORGE FOX 63, CONCORDIA-PORTLAND 61: Bruins Knock Off Host Cavaliers for Tourney Title

PORTLAND, Ore. - Heather Doud had a double-double with a game-high 21 points and 10 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins to a 63-61 win over the Concordia University-Portland Cavaliers and the championship of the Concordia-Portland women's basketball Tournament Saturday night (Nov. 24) here at the Cavalier Dome.

Doud was joined in the scoring column by Becky Thompson and Darby Cave, who had 10 points apiece. Nicole Prazneau also had 10 rebounds while scoring 9 points, and Thompson grabbed 7 rebounds and handed out 5 assists. The Bruins were out-shot .407 (22-54) to .410 (25-61) and out-rebounded 37-40, but made up the difference by hitting three times as many three-pointers (6-2) and making more free throws (13-9).

Amanda Tweedy also had a double-double for the Cavaliers with 17 points and 13 rebounds, while Niecee Madrigal had 14 points and Angela Rosales 11. Rosales had 6 assists.

George Fox, ranked No. 14 in the NCAA Division III national poll, improved to 3-0 on the season, while Concordia-Portland, an NAIA team, dropped to 3-2. The Bruins play next weekend in the Pacific Lutheran University Classic in Tacoma, meeting Western Baptist, whom they defeated Friday in the Concordia Tournament 62-58, Friday (Nov. 30) at 2:00 p.m. On Saturday, they square off against Northwest College of the Assemblies of God, also at 2:00 p.m.

12/08 - GEORGE FOX, EVERGREEN STATE : Bruins Devour Geoducks to Run Record to 8-0

NEWBERG, Ore. – Closing within one game of their best start to a season, the George Fox University Bruins hammered the Evergreen State College Geoducks 92-35 in a non-conference women's basketball game Saturday night (Dec. 8) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

George Fox, ranked No. 9 in the nation in the latest NCAA Division III national poll, improved to 8-0, the second-best start to a season in team history. Last year's Bruins opened the season 9-0 en route to a 23-3 record. Evergreen State dropped its second in a row to fall to 1-10.

Both teams were slow getting under way as neither scored for over three minutes, but Darby Cave's short jumper broke the ice and gave George Fox a 2-0 lead at the 16:38 mark. The Bruins proceeded to score 15 of the game's first 17 points in the next three minutes, with Becky Thompson hitting a lay-up and a pair of three-pointers in the outburst.

Thompson finished with 13 points in the half as the Bruins stretched their lead to 44-21 at the break. When the second half began, George Fox held the Geoducks scoreless for over seven minutes while going on a 23-0 run, and held them without a field goal until Dodie McCallum hit a short jumper in the lane with 6:19 to play. By then the Bruins held a 50-point lead at 78-28. Evergreen State wound up making only 4-26 from the field in the second half. The final margin was George Fox's biggest lead of the game.

Thompson led all scorers with 17 points and all rebounders with 9, picking up 5 steals and throwing in 4 assists for good measure. Mandy Dunham scored 11 and Melissa Alexander 10 off the bench, career highs for both, while Cave added 11. Liz Clark added 9 points and a career-high 6 assists. George Fox won the rebounding battle 58-33, and made 31-39 from the free throw line, one short of the team record of 32 made.

Kristin Zompetti scored 14 in a reserve role as the only Geoduck in double figures, and Chandra Rathke was Evergreen's top rebounder with 6. The Geoducks shot only .211 (12-57) from the field in the game.

The Bruins are off next week for exams, but return to action Monday, Dec. 17, in the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic in Hilo, Hawaii. George Fox will face Marian College (Wisc.) at 12:00 noon Pacific time, then take on St. Mary's College (Ind.) on Tuesday, also at 12:00 noon. The Geoducks head home Monday (Dec. 10) to take on Seattle University at 7:00 p.m.

1/26 - GEORGE FOX 85, LEWIS & CLARK 56: Red-Hot Doud Ignites Bruins Past Pioneers

NEWBERG, Ore. -- Heather Doud scored all of her game-high 22 points in the first eight-and-a-half minutes of the game, including 12 in a span of 1:02, sparking the George Fox University Bruins to an 85-56 romp past the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 26) here at the snow-covered Wheeler Sports Center.

Leading 11-4 two minutes into the game, George Fox then went on a 16-0 run, Doud scoring 12 of them, to take a 27-4 lead. Her jumper at 12:56 ended the run, then Lindsay Sweetland scored the Pios' first bucket in over four minutes. In the next minute, however, Doud hit a jumper, made a steal and layup, hit a three-pointer off a steal and pass from Becky Thompson, then made another steal, hit a layup, was fouled, and made the free throw.

The Bruins led 48-19 at the half, and stretched the spread to as many as 35 at 69-34 on a Sarah Myhre layup with 8:58 remaining. The Pios got no closer than 27 in the second half, Kim McBride's jumper making it 79-52 with 3:39 to play.

In addition to Doud's 22 (in only 18 minutes), Nicole Prazeau scored 14, Darby Cave 12, and Melissa Alexander tied her career high with 11. Myhre grabbed 10 rebounds as the Bruins controlled the boards, 45-28. Thompson passed out 10 assists and picked up 5 steals.

For the Pios, Sweetland and McBride scored 13 apiece, and Nnenna Lewis added 12. Lewis had a team-high 7 rebounds.

With their third straight win, the Bruins, ranked 22nd in the D3hoops.com poll and 14th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll, climbed to 17-2 overall and 8-2 in the conference. The Pioneers dropped their 7th in a row, falling to 7-11 overall and 1-8 in the league.

George Fox visits Pacific University Tuesday (Jan. 29) at 6:00 p.m., while Lewis & Clark travels to Whitman College Friday (Feb. 1) for a 6:00 p.m. contest. Both will be followed by men's games at 8:00 p.m.

Fresh from a 71-51 road win over Linfield, the Bruins will try to build on that success tonight against the slumping Pioneers. After getting off to one of their best starts in years at 7-4, the Pios have lost their last 6 in a row. One of the biggest reasons for the downturn has been the loss to injury of leading scorer Brynn Henkel (16.3 ppg) after the first 6 games. The Pios were idle last night, but dropped a 78-45 decision at Puget Sound last Tuesday. In last night's game, the Bruins, the NWC leaders in three-pointers per game (5.2), used the 'long ball' again, hitting 10 of 17 from long rangetop defeat their Yamhill County rivals. Heather Doud led the way with 17 points, hitting 6-10 from the field (4-4 on 3's), while Nicole Prazeau added 13 and Darby Cave 12, hitting 6-8 from the floor. Doud had 9 rebounds, and Becky Thompson had 7 assists and 4 steals.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Pioneers 36-7 ... The Bruins have won the last 15 meetings, including an 80-46 win on Jan. 11 in Portland ... Lewis & Clark's last win was 87-61 on Feb. 15, 1994, in Portland ... L&C is 8th in the NWC in scoring (58.2), 9th in defense (66.9), and 2nd in steals (11.50) ... Lindsay Sweetland is 4th in the NWC in scoring (16.4) and 3rd in rebounds (8.4)

1/11 - GEORGE FOX 80, LEWIS & CLARK 46: Stifling Defense by Bruins Buries Pioneers

PORTLAND, Ore. - Trailing 7-2 after the first three minutes, the George Fox University Bruins turned up the defensive heat, holding the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers scoreless over the next nine minutes while scoring 17 unanswered points of their own, and went on to an 80-46 victory in Northwest Conference women's basketball Friday night (Jan. 11) here at the Pamplin Sports Center.

After taking a 19-7 lead with 8:23 left in the half on a jumper by Amy Fitch, the Bruins continued to build on their margin and led by 25 at one point in the first half, 38-13 with 2:23 to go on a steal and layup by Shai Workman. It was 40-20 at the half. The Bruins came up with 13 first-half steals and forced 17 turnovers while holding the Pioneers to only 8-26 (.308) from the field. George Fox shot .474 (18-38) after making only one of their first eight shots.

George Fox went on an 11-1 run in the first four-and-a-half minutes of the second half and eventually stretched their lead to as many as 40, at 71-31 on a fast-break layup by Melissa Alexander with 8:34 remaining.

Nicole Prazeau led the Bruins with 14 points, followed by Darby Cave with 12 and Alexander with a career-high 11. Sarah Myhre grabbed 9 rebounds in leading the Bruins to a 54-37 edge on the boards, while Alexander passed out 7 assists. Eleven players played at least 10 minutes for George Fox and 12 different Bruins scored.

Lindsay Sweetland posted a double-double for the Pioneers with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Deidra Wilson scored 13. Lewis & Clark wound up shooting .296 (16-54) for the game.

George Fox, ranked 16th in the nation, improved to 13-1 overall and 4-1 in the conference. Lewis & Clark dropped to 7-6 overall and 1-3 in the league.

The Bruins are back home Saturday (Jan. 12), hosting Linfield College at 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m. The Pioneers are off until Tuesday (Jan. 15), when they visit Willamette University for a 6:00 p.m. contest.

1/25 - GEORGE FOX 71, LINFIELD 51: Three-Point Barrage by Bruins Buries Wildcats

McMINNVILLE, Ore. - Already leading the Northwest Conference in three-point field goals with an average of 5.2 per game, the George Fox University Bruins used the long ball again, connecting on 10 of 17 from downtown to bury the Linfield College Wildcats 71-51 in women's basketball action Friday night (Jan. 25) here at Ted Wilson Gym.

After taking a 6-4 lead three minutes into the game, the Bruins went cold and did not score for six minutes while Linfield went ahead 9-6. Heather Doud broke the scoring drought for the Bruins with a three-pointer that knotted the game 9-9 with 11:03 left, Becky Thompson's trey made it 12-9 with 9:51 left, and the Bruins led the rest of the way. A 17-7 run in the final five minutes, with Nicole Prazeau, Doud, and Amy Fitch all hitting threes and Darby Cave adding a pair of layups, increased the Bruin lead to 35-23 at the half.

A rebound basket by Cave and a three-point play by Doud upped the Bruin lead to 40-23 to start the second half. The Wildcats then went on a mild run, outscoring the Bruins 13-5 to cut the gap to 45-36 with 13:11 to play, but nine points was as close as Linfield would get. The Bruins gradually increased the margin until a Prazeau free throw with 28 seconds left gave them the biggest lead of the game at 71-49.

Doud led all scorers with 17 points, including a 4-4 night from behind the arc, and grabbed a game-high 9 rebounds. Prazeau added 13 points, making 2-3 on treys, and Cave scored 12, sinking 6-8 from the floor. Thompson had 7 assists and led the Bruin defensive effort with 4 steals, while Fitch picked up 3 steals. The Bruins out-rebounded the Wildcats 36-26.

Monica Schwing was the only Wildcat in double figures with 14.

George Fox, ranked 22nd in the D3hoops.com poll and 14th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III poll, completed a sweep of the season series with their Yamhill County rivals while improving to 16-2 overall and 7-2 in the conference. Linfield slipped to 8-10 overall and 4-5 in the league.

The Bruins are back home Saturday (Jan. 26), hosting the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers at 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m. The Wildcats visit the Willamette University Bearcats Saturday at 6:00 p.m. in Salem.

1/12 - GEORGE FOX 59, LINFIELD 46: Last 10 Minutes Belong to Bruins in Win over Linfield

NEWBERG, Ore. - Heather Doud's layup with 9:23 left in the game broke a 36-36 tie, igniting the 16th-ranked George Fox University Bruins on a 23-10 run over the last 10 minutes and an eventual 59-46 win over the Linfield College Wildcats in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 12) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The first 30 minutes of the contest were tightly contested as neither team could mount more than a five-point lead. Linfield led only once the entire game, at 19-18 with 5:55 to play, but Monica Schwing's layup with two seconds left knotted the score 24-24 at half-time.

George Fox twice took five-point leads early in the second half, the second at 35-30 with 13:31 to go on a layup by Darby Cave. But again the Wildcats rallied, tying it at 36-36 on a Sarah Prewitt free throw.

Doud broke the tie for the last time with her basket, and Liz Clark nailed a three for a 41-36 Bruin lead. Erin Nooy's free throw and a layup by Lindsay Sticka cut it to 41-39 at the 5:51 mark, but the Bruins reeled off the next nine points to seize control. Becky Thompson's layup and free throw after a foul to make it 45-39 with five minutes left was a crucial play for the Bruins.

George Fox took its biggest lead at 59-44 with 14 seconds left on a pair of free throws by Doud, who finished with a double-double of 11 points and 13 rebounds, along with game highs of 6 assists and 7 steals. Nicole Prazeau led all scorers with 15, 11 in the second half, while Cave and Thompson added 10 points apiece.

Heidi Jurgens and Alicia Westley scored 13 each to lead the Wildcats, while Ashlee Tucker was Linfield's top rebounder with 11.

George Fox, winning its third in a row, is now 14-1 overall and 5-1 in the conference, while Linfield dropped to 5-9 overall and 1-4 in the league.

The Bruins hit the road next weekend to eastern Washington, stopping in Spokane first to take on the Whitworth College Pirates Friday (Jan. 18) at 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m. The Wildcats return home to host Lewis & Clark College that same night, same time.

Back in a tie for first in the Northwest Conference after an 80-46 thumping of Lewis & Clark and a 51-42 upset loss by Pacific Lutheran to Whitman last night, the Bruins hope to solidify their hold on the top spot tonight against their Yamhill County rivals. The Linfield Wildcats picked up their first NWC win last night with a 75-51 win over Willamette, led by Monica Schwing, who hit 7-11 shots en route to 22 points. Nicole Prazeau scored 14, Darby Cave 12, and Melissa Alexander has career highs of 11 points and 7 assists to lead the Bruins over the Pioneers. Down 7-2 in the early going, the Bruins then took control with a 17-0 run and held the Pios scoreless for over 9 minutes.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Wildcats 28-17 ... George Fox swept last year's games, 65-44 in McMinnville and 78-56 in Newberg ... The Bruins have won the last 4 meetings ... Linfield's last win was 76-55 on Jan. 7, 2000, in McMinnville ... Linfield is 8th in the NWC in scoring (57.1) and 5th in defense (60.0) ... Monica Schwing (10.5) and Alicia Westley (10.4) are the only Wildcats in double figures.

12/17 - GEORGE FOX 61, MARIAN 48: Doud Scores 24 as Bruins Tie Record for Best Start

HILO, Hawaii – Led by Heather Doud's 24 points, the George Fox University Bruins tied the team record for most wins at the start of a season with their 9th victory in a row, a 61-48 decision over the Marian College (Wisc.) Sabres in the opening game of the AmericSport Coconut Coast Classic Monday morning (Dec. 17) here at Afook-Chinen Civic Auditorium.

The Bruins, ranked No. 6 in the latest NCAA Division III national poll conducted by D3hoops.com, tied the 9-0 mark set by last year's team en route to a best-ever 23-3 record. The Sabres dropped to 3-7.

Doud was the only Bruin in double figures as 11 different players saw 10 or more minutes of playing time. Backup point guard Melissa Alexander led the Bruins with 7 rebounds as George Fox edged Marian on the board, 38-37, including 15 on the offensive end, and had a game-high 4 assists. Jill Barram, the Bruins' valuable "sixth-man" last year who had been expected to step into the starting lineup this season at a wing, scored 4 points in her first action of the year after missing the previous eight games with a knee injury.

The George Fox defense held Marian to a .238 shooting percentage (5-21) in the first half, enabling the Bruins to build up a 35-22 halftime lead. The Bruins, with their offensive board strength, hit 14 of 36 shots (.389). For the game, the Bruins made .424 (25-59) while holding the Sabres to only .366 (15-41).

Anne Doornek was the only Marian player in double figures with 15 points and also had a team-high 7 rebounds.

The Bruins go after the season-opening record Tuesday (Dec. 18) in the second round of the Coconut Coast Classic against the Belles of St. Mary's College (Ind.). Tipoff is 12:00 noon Pacific time (10:00 a.m. in Hawaii).

12/1 - GEORGE FOX 78, NORTHWEST 68: Bruins Nail Northwest to Complete PLU Classic Sweep

TACOMA, Wash. - An 11-0 run midway through the first half enabled the George Fox University to take control, and the Bruins went on to coast past the Northwest College Eagles 78-68 in the first game on the second day of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet women's basketball Classic Saturday afternoon (Dec. 1) here at Olsen Auditorium.

Northwest took a 17-16 lead 10 minutes into the game, but it would be the Eagles' last, as three straight three-pointers and a two-pointer by George Fox gave the Bruins a 27-17 lead they would not relinquish. Amy Fitch, Emily Ruggles, and Liz Clark scored the three-pointers, and Clark added a layup to finish off the 11-0 run.

The Bruins led 45-31 at the half, and stretched that to 72-49 with seven minutes remaining before clearing the bench. Northwest went on a 19-4 run pull within eight at 76-68 with a minute remaining, but got no closer.

Heather Doud and Darby Cave, the Bruins' two starting post players, led George Fox in scoring with 18 points each. Becky Thompson added 12 points and a game-high 7 assists. Doud and Thompson had 9 rebounds apiece as the Bruins controlled the boards 49-43.

Kathy Lockard led four Eagles in double-figure scoring with 17, Sarah Brick had 14, Moriah Hover 13, and Kim Haley 12. Brick led Northwest in rebounds with 11.

George Fox, ranked 10th in the latest NCAA Division III poll conducted by d3hoops.com, improves to 5-0, while the Eagles of the NAIA fall to 2-7.

The Bruins play their home opener Monday (Dec. 3) in a Northwest Conference match-up with Pacific University at 7:30 p.m. The Eagles host Seattle University at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday (Dec. 4).

1/29 - GEORGE FOX 72, PACIFIC 58: Bruins Awake for Second-Half Rush Past Boxers

FOREST GROVE, Ore. - Overcoming a sluggish first half that saw them trailing by as many as 10 points at one time, the George Fox University Bruins awoke in time to race past the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Tuesday night (Jan. 29) here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

After forging a 4-4 tie on a Heather Doud layup four minutes into the game, the Bruins went cold, scoring only four points over the next eight minutes and falling behind 16-8. Pacific eventually stretched its lead to 10 at 27-17 on a pair of free throws by Katannya Kapeli with 4:30 left.

Darby Cave then hit three baskets to spark a 13-2 Bruin run, Melissa Alexander capping the rally with two free throws to give George Fox its first lead, 30-29, with 47 second left in the half. However, two freebies by Janna Vavra and a Kapeli jumper with 2 seconds to go put the Boxers back on top at the break, 33-30.

With Pacific ahead by five, 37-32, early in the second half, the Bruins finally got into gear, scoring 12 unanswered points over a four-minute span, capped by a steal and layup by Becky Thompson, to take a 44-37 lead with 14:13 remaining. Pacific rallied to cut the Bruins' lead to one, 48-47, on a three-pointer by Kristine Callan with 9:30 to go, but the Bruins regrouped and went on a 13-2 run to take a double-digit lead at 59-49 with 5:20 left on a Cave free throw. The Boxers got no closer than nine the rest of the way.

Doud led all scorers with her second 22-point game in a row, including 7-7 from the line, Cave tallied 18, and Nicole Prazneau hit 3 three-pointers en route to 15. Cave had a game-high 9 rebounds, although the Bruins were out-rebounded for one of the few times this season, 32-29. Thompson had 6 assists and 6 steals.

Kapeli scored 17 for the Boxers and Callan chipped in with 16. Kapeli grabbed 5 rebounds and Callan had 4 assists.

Both teams sizzled from the charity stripe, the Bruins hitting 16-18 (.889) and the Boxers 19-24 (.792) after being 14-16 at one point. The Bruins' improvement in ball control was evident in the second half as they made only 4 turnovers after making 12 in the first half.

George Fox is now 18-2 overall after its 4th straight win and 9-2 in the conference. Pacific dropped to 9-9 overall and 5-5 in the league.

The Bruins next face Pacific Lutheran University Friday (Feb. 1) at 6:00 p.m. in Newberg in a showdown for first place. The Boxers visit Linfield College Friday at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's games at 8:00 p.m.

2/1 - GEORGE FOX 62, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 55, OT: Bruins Take Over First in NWC with Overtime Win

NEWBERG, Ore. - Becky Thompson scored seven points in overtime, including a three-point play to open the extra period that put George Fox University ahead for good, and the 21st-ranked Bruins went on to a 62-55 win over the 22nd-ranked Pacific Lutheran University Lutes, moving into first place in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race Friday night (Feb. 1) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The two nationally-ranked teams entered the evening in a virtual deadlock for first place, although the Lutes had the edge in percentage points. With the victory, avenging a 51-45 setback in the teams' first meeting on Jan. 5, the Bruins improved to 19-2 overall and 10-2 in the conference with their 5th straight win. The Lutes saw their own four-game streak snapped and fell to 14-3 overall, 8-2 in the league.

Darby Cave got the Bruins off and running with eight points in the game's first nine minutes, and George Fox was able to mount a 10-point lead at 17-7 on a Nicole Prazeau jumper with 7:59 left in the half. The Bruins maintained the lead up to the halftime, going into the break with a 26-20 lead.

PLU, after shooting only .267 (8-30) in the first half, went on a 12-4 run to start the second half to go ahead 32-30 with 17:07 left. The game seesawed back and forth thereafter, with six ties and 11 lead changes. Cave hit three straight baskets to put George Fox up 47-42 with 4:35 to go, only to have the Lutes respond with an 8-3 run to tie it at 50-50 and send it into overtime. Jessica Iserman hit three shots in that run, her last one a hook that knotted the score at with 41 seconds left.

Thompson broke the tie with her three-point play at 4:33 in the overtime and Prazeau hit a pair of free throws at 3:58, giving the Bruins a five-point lead at 55-50. Prazeau made another free throw and Thompson two in the final 19 seconds to seal the win.

Cave and Prazeau led all scorers with 18 apiece, the only Bruins in double figures. Prazeau grabbed 9 rebounds and Amy Fitch 8 as the Bruins won the rebounding battle, 43-40. George Fox hit 15-19 on free throws (.789), while the defense held the Lutes to only .319 shooting (22-69) from the field.

Iserman led the Lutes with 15 points, Jamie Keatts added 13, and Becky Franza scored 11. Iserman and Courtney Johnson had 10 rebounds each, and Johnson, third in the nation in blocked shots, rejected 6. PLU struggled from the charity stripe, hitting only 7-15 (.467).

The Bruins are off until next Friday (Feb. 8) when they visit the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma for a 6:00 p.m. contest. The Lutes are at Linfield College Saturday (Feb. 2), also at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's games at 8:00 p.m.

First place in the Northwest Conference is on the line tonight in the long-awaited rematch of the NWC's top two teams. The Lutes have the upper hand with their win over the Bruins in Tacoma and only one conference loss (to last-place Whitman), but the Bruins can pretty much even things up with a win. Both are nationally and regionally ranked, the Bruins 21st and the Lutes 22nd in the national poll, the Lutes 5th and the Bruins 7th in the West Region poll. Both are riding four-game winning streaks. The Lutes defeated Whitman 55-44 Saturday in Tacoma in their last game, while the Bruins bounced Pacific 72-58 in Forest Grove Tuesday. Heather Doud scored 22 for the 2nd game in row, Darby Cave tallied 18, and Nicole Prazeau hit 3 three-pointers en route to 15. Cave had a game-high 9 rebounds, while Becky Thompson had 6 assists and 6 steals.

THE SERIES

The Lutes lead the series 11-7 ... PLU won 51-45 on Jan. 5 in Tacoma, snapping GFU's 5-game winning streak in the series ... The Lutes are 3rd in the NWC in scoring (67.0), 1st in defense (50.5, 16th nationally), and 2nd in rebounding (39.6) ... Jessica Iserman leads the NWC in rebounding (8.9), Courtney Johnson leads in blocked shots (3.25, 3rd nationally), and Becky Franza is 2nd in assists (4.44).

1/5 — PACIFIC LUTHERAN 51, GEORGE FOX 45: Lutes Hand Bruins First Loss of the Season

TACOMA, Wash. — For three straight years, the George Fox University Bruins have put together record 11-game winning streaks, but for the third year in a row, the streak will go no further as the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes handed the Bruins their first loss of the season, a 51-45 setback in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 5) here at Olson Auditorium.

The Bruins, ranked 6th in the NCAA Division III, fell to 11-1 overall and 2-1 in the conference, while the Lutes, ranked 29th, improved to 10-1 overall and moved a game-and-a-half ahead of George Fox in the league standings at 4-0. The win was the 9th in a row for the Lutes, who edged the Bruins 77-76 for conference favorites in the pre-season NWC coaches' poll, and ended their five-game losing streak to the Bruins.

Nicole Prazeau hit a short jumper from the left baseline to open the scoring, giving the Bruins the only lead they would hold in the first half at 2-0. Pacific Lutheran twice built leads of as much as five points but could never put the Bruins away, and led 25-22 at the break.

Liz Clark gave George Fox its first lead of the second half, 31-30, with a jumper at the 14:28 mark, and Darby Cave added a jump hook at 13:50 for the Bruins's biggest lead of the game at 33-30. But the Lutes rallied behind back-to-back steals and layups by Toni Craig to regain the advantage, 36-35, at 9:07.

A Becky Thompson free throw at 4:22 pulled the Bruins back into a 42-42 tie, the 7th tie of the game, but Jessica Iserman's free toss at 4:02 broke the tie and put the Lutes ahead for good. PLU stretched it to 47-42 at 2:54 on a pair of baskets by Jamie Keatts. Heather Doud's three-pointer with 30 seconds left cut the deficit to 47-45, but Becky Franza hit two free throws with 13 seconds left and Keatts added two more with 0.1 remaining for the final 6-point margin, the largest of the game for either team.

The game was expected to be a defensive struggle, and the final numbers showed it. PLU held the Bruins to a .362 shooting percentage (17-47) while George Fox held the Lutes to .400 (20-50). The Lutes forced 22 Bruin turnovers and blocked 10 shots, while George Fox pressured PLU into 15 turnovers and blocked a pair. PLU edged the Bruins on the boards 32-31.

Doud led the Bruins with 15 points and 9 rebounds, while Cave scored 12 and Clark 11. Prazeau had 8 rebounds and 3 assists, and Thompson made 3 steals.

Franza topped the Lutes with 13 points and 3 assists, while Iserman scored 12 and had 8 rebounds. Courtney Johnson led everyone with 10 rebounds and 6 blocked shots, while Craig picked up 5 steals.

George Fox returns home Tuesday (Jan. 8), hosting the University of Puget Sound at 6:00 p.m., followed by the GFU-UPS men's game at 8:00 p.m. Pacific Lutheran visits Whitman College Friday (Jan. 11) at 6:00 p.m.

12/2 - PLU CLASSIC: Cave, Doud Earn All-Tournament Honors; Rueck Notches 100th Coaching Win

TACOMA, Wash. - Two George Fox University women's basketball players earned All-Tournament honors and Bruin coach Scott Rueck captured his 100th career victory, highlighting the Bruins' two-game sweep in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic here Nov. 30-Dec. 1.

Post players Darby Cave and Heather Doud turned in two outstanding performances each as the Bruins defeated Western Baptist College 84-69 on Friday and Northwest College of the Assemblies of God 78-68 on Saturday.

Against Western Baptist, Cave scored a game-high 19 points, hitting 9-14 from the field and 1-2 from the line, with 4 rebounds, a blocked shot, and 2 steals, while Doud scored 14 points on 5-7 shooting, including 4-4 from three-point range, with 8 rebounds and an assist.

In the Northwest game, Cave had 18 points on 8-16 shooting and 2-3 from the line, with 6 rebounds, a blocked shot and a steal, while Doud added 18 points, sinking 8-14 from the floor and 2-2 from the line, with 9 rebounds, 2 assists, and a steal.

In two games, the pair combined for 69 points while hitting .588 (30-51) from the field, .800 (4-5) from three-point range, and .818 (9-11) from the free throw line, with 27 rebounds, 3 assists, 2 blocked shots, and 4 steals.

The twin wins boosted the Bruins' record to 5-0, the second-best start in team history; only last year's record-setting team bettered that by starting off 9-0. George Fox is currently ranked 10th in the nation in the NCAA Division III national poll conducted by d3hoops.com.

The win over Northwest also raised Rueck's coaching record to 100-33 (.752) in only his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. The 33-year-old coach, a 1991 graduate of Oregon State University, has seen the Bruins' record improve in every one of his previous five years, from 15-10 in his first year (1996-97) up to last year's spectacular 23-3 mark.

2/8 -- PUGET SOUND 55, GEORGE FOX 44: Bruins Felled by Loggers as Offense Disappears

TACOMA, Wash. -- Unable to find the basket with any consistency after taking an early 16-11 lead, the George Fox University Bruins were knocked from the top spot in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race by the University of Puget Sound Loggers, who posted a 55-44 win over the 17th-ranked Bruins Friday night (Feb. 8) here at Memorial Fieldhouse.

With Nicole Prazeau scoring 10 points in the first 11 minutes, including a pair of three-pointers, the Bruins never trailed in taking a 16-11 lead with 8:39 to play in the first half. But the Loggers caught fire while the Bruins went stone-cold, going on a 23-7 run over the remainder of the period to take a 34-23 lead into the break. UPS's Lindsay May scored six of her 10 first-half points to spark the Loggers during that stretch. George Fox shot only .333 in the half (9-27).

After scoring the first two points of the second half on a layup by Heather Doud to make it 34-25, the Bruins went over six-and-a-half minutes without scoring again, but the George Fox defense held the Loggers in check as well. Puget Sound did not score in the half until May hit a layup with 14:36 to play. But despite holding UPS to only 6-20 (.300) shooting in the half, the Bruins were never able to make a serious run at the Loggers because they hit only 10-29 (.345) themselves.

Down 42-29 with 11:10 to play, the Bruins mounted their only threat as Prazeau hit back-to-back jumpers and Liz Clark sank a three, cutting the UPS lead to 42-36 with 8:51 left. But May hit a pair of free throws, Lucy Wilson canned a trey, and Courtney Leybold banked in a 20-footer as the shot clock went off, giving UPS a 49-36 lead with 6:57 left, and the Bruins got no closer than nine the rest of the way. The 44 points scored by the Bruins was their lowest output of the season.

Prazeau finished with 14 points, the only Bruin in double figures, Doud grabbed 12 rebounds, and Becky Thompson had 4 assists and 3 steals. In addition to shooting only .339 (19-56) for the game, the Bruins struggled at the line, making only 2-8 (.250) on free throws., while UPS drained 16-20 (.800) from the charity stripe.

May had 17 for UPS to lead all scorers, Julie Vanni added 13, and Wilson scored 10. Vanni just missed a double-double with 9 rebounds as the Loggers edged the Bruins on the boards, 38-37.

George Fox had its five-game winning streak snapped, dropping to 19-3 overall and 10-3 in the conference. With Pacific Lutheran University winning 60-49 at Willamette University, the Bruins fell a game off the pace set by the Lutes. Puget Sound improved to 16-5 overall and 8-4 in the league, claiming a crucial win in a bid for a spot in the NWC Tournament.

The Bruins continue their road trip Saturday (Feb. 9) at Willamette in Salem, while the Loggers are in Portland Saturday to play Lewis & Clark College. Both games are at 6:00 p.m., followed by men's games at 8:00 p.m.

1/8 - GEORGE FOX 70, PUGET SOUND 49: Bench Play Gives Bruins Lift over Loggers

NEWBERG, Ore. - Reserves Liz Clark, Jill Barram, and Sarah Myhre combined for 42 points, giving the George Fox University Bruins the lift they needed to defeat the University of Puget Sound Loggers 70-49 in Northwest Conference women's basketball Tuesday night (Jan. 8) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

With the Bruin starters struggling on offense, Myhre and Clark came off the bench to score 9 and 7 points respectively in the first half, enabling the Bruins, ranked 16th in the latest NCAA Division III national poll, to forge a 26-26 halftime tie. George Fox shot only .333 (10-30) in the half while Puget Sound managed a .391 mark (9-23).

In the second half, it was Barram with 12 points, Clark with 10, and starter Nicole Prazeau with 8 that sparked the Bruins to an eventual runaway victory. Leading only 45-42 after the Loggers' Angie Cashman made a pair of free throws with 10:06 left, the Bruins went on a 17-0 run over the next six minutes for a 62-42 lead and firm control of the game. The Bruins' shooting improved to .529 (18-34) in the final half while the defense held the Loggers to .318 (7-22) from the field.

Clark finished with a career-high 17 to lead all scorers, Barram had 14 in her first extensive action since rejoining the team during the holidays after a knee injury, Myhre had a career-high 11, and Prazeau added 11. Myhre and Prazeau grabbed 7 rebounds apiece to carry the Bruins to a 37-33 edge on the boards. Prazeau and Heather Doud had 4 steals each as the Bruins forced 20 UPS turnovers while making only 11 of their own. Becky Thompson had a game-high 6 assists.

The Loggers were led by Julie Vanni, the league's leading scorer at 17.8 points per game, with 13, and Jen McLuen came off the UPS bench to score 11. Vanni had a team-high 6 rebounds.

George Fox got back on the winning track after suffering its only loss of the season Saturday at Pacific Lutheran University, improving to 12-1 overall and 3-1 in the conference. Puget Sound slipped to 9-2 overall and 1-1 in the league.

The Bruins next visit Lewis & Clark College Friday (Jan. 11) while the Loggers are at Whitworth College Friday. Both are conference games at 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's games at 8:00 p.m.

After having their record-tying 11-game win streak snapped Saturday by PLU in a 51-45 setback in Tacoma, the 16th-ranked Bruins hope to start another string tonight, but face a stiff challenge in Puget Sound. Led by Julie Vanni, the NWC's leading scorer (17.4) and 2nd-ranked rebounder (8.6), the Loggers have stamped themselves as a legitimate contender for the conference crown with their 9-1 start. Allison McCurdy gives UPS a strong outside threat as she leads the NWC in 3-pointers per game (2.22), while Lindsay May was last week's NWC Player of the Week with a 24-point, 6-rebound performance vs. Pacific. Expect another defensive battle, as the Bruins are 3rd in scoring defense (54.5) and the Loggers are 4th (58.4). Heather Doud with 15 points and 9 rebounds, Darby Cave with 12 points, and Liz Clark with 11 led the Bruins in the PLU game.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Loggers 7-4 ... George Fox swept last year's games, 65-51 in Newberg and 65-58 in Tacoma ... The Bruins have won the last 5 meetings ... Puget Sound's last win was 77-66 on Feb. 23, 1999, in Tacoma ... The Loggers won their first 7 before suffering their only loss, 87-75 at Southern Oregon ...

12/18 - GEORGE FOX 62, ST. MARY'S 48: Tournament Win Boosts Bruins to Best-Ever Start at 10-0

HILO, Hawaii – For the second day in a row, Heather Doud led the George Fox University Bruins to victory, this time with 20 points, as the Bruins set a new team record for best start to a season in a 62-48 win over the St. Mary's College (Ind.) Belles in the women's basketball portion of the AmericSport Coconut Coast Classic Tuesday morning (Dec. 18) here at Afook-Chinen Civic Auditorium.

The Bruins, who were ranked No. 6 for the second week in a row in the NCAA Division III national poll conducted by D3hoops.com which was released Tuesday afternoon, improved to 10-0, breaking the 9-0 mark set by last year's team, which went on to a best-ever 23-3 record. The Belles dropped to 3-7.

Doud connected on 6-10 from the field, including 2-3 from three-point range, and 6-7 from the free throw line for her game-high 20, following up on a 24-point performance the day before against Marian College (Wisc.). Amy Fitch added 12 points, while Nicole Prazneau recorded a double-double with 11 points and a game-high 10 rebounds. Doud also had 9 boards as the Bruins out-rebounded the Belles 38-25.

Emily Chreachbaum with 14 points and 5 rebounds, and Anne Blair with 12 points and 6 rebounds, were tops in those categories for the Belles.

The Bruins return to action Wednesday, Dec. 31, hosting the Warner Pacific College Knights at 7:30 p.m. George Fox opened the season with a 73-55 win at Warner Pacific on Nov. 17.

1/2 - GEORGE FOX 66, WARNER PACIFIC 62, OT: Bruins Tie Record with 11th Straight Win

NEWBERG, Ore. - Becky Thompson sank four free throws in the last minute of overtime, giving the George Fox University Bruins a 66-62 win over the upset-minded Warner Pacific College Knights and their record-tying 11th straight victory in a non-conference women's basketball game Wednesday night (Jan. 2) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins tied a record set two years ago by the 1999-2000 team and tied by last year's team while extending their overall record this season to 11-0, the best start in team history. Warner Pacific dropped to 2-14 overall, but the Knights of the NAIA threw a major scare into the Bruins, who are ranked 6th in NCAA Division III.

Hitting four of their first five shots, the Knights jumped out to an early lead and were up 14-8 after a Gloria Doud layup with 14:15 to go in the first half. The Bruins, who struggled all night from the field until the overtime period, trailed most of the half but managed to take a 28-27 halftime lead on a Darby Cave jumper with 1:58 left.

George Fox went on an 11-2 run to start the second half to take apparent control with a 39-29 lead at 16:14, and maintained a lead until late in the half. Cave's layup gave the Bruins a 56-47 lead with 3:34 to play, but the Knights scored the final nine points of the period, Alicia Rochelle's two free throws with 1:04 left knotting the score 56-56 and sending the game into overtime.

Shawna Damon's rebound basket gave Warner Pacific their final lead of 62-60 with 1:50 to play, but Heather Doud's layup at 1:20 tied it for the Bruins, setting the stage for Thompson's free-throw heroics. She drained a pair with 41 seconds left for a 64-62 Bruin lead, then after Doud rebounded a miss that could have tied the game with 14 seconds left, Thompson hit two more freebies with 11 seconds remaining to ice the hard-fought win.

George Fox survived despite shooting only .300 (21-70) from the field, and only a 3-5 overtime got them to that mark. The Bruins also committed 23 turnovers, but forced the Knights into 20 and held them to a .356 (21-59) shooting night. The Bruins' rebounding was the decisive factor in the game as George Fox held a 57-38 edge on the boards, including 23 on the offensive end.

Cave and Doud each turned in double-doubles for the Bruins, Cave with 18 points and 10 rebounds and Doud with 14 and 14. Thompson and Nicole Prazeau added 12 points apiece, while Liz Clark had a career-high 9 rebounds and Thompson passed out 5 assists.

Damon scored 15 to lead the Knights, while Jillian Burnett added 12 and Rochelle 11. Gloria Doud and Jennifer Haberly led Warner Pacific with 6 rebounds each, and Rochelle had 4 assists.

George Fox will attempt to gain a record 12th straight win Saturday (Jan. 5) while visiting pre-season Northwest Conference favorite Pacific Lutheran University. Game time is 6:00 p.m. in Tacoma. Warner Pacific hosts Walla Walla College Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Having established a new team record for the best start ever to a season at 10-0, the Bruins will be out to tie the record for most consecutive wins (11) tonight in their final non-conference game of the season. The Bruins, coming off a sweep of Marian (WI) and St. Mary's (IN) in the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic in Hilo, Hawaii, bring an #6 NCAA Division III national ranking into the contest. The Knights opened their season with 6 straight losses, defeated Multnomah Bible for their only win, and have dropped their last 7.

THE SERIES

George Fox leads the series 23-4 after opening the season with a 73-55 win over the Knights in Portland. The Bruins fell behind 7-0, then scored 17 unanswered points to take control. Heather Doud had 25 and Darby Cave 20 to lead the Bruins, while Shawna Damon had 21 for WPC ... The Bruins have won the last 8 meetings ... WPC's last win in the series was an 84-42 victory in Portland on Feb. 3, 1989.

11/16 – SEASON OPENER: 19th-Ranked Bruins Open New Season Saturday at Warner Pacific

NEWBERG, Ore. – With a No. 19 national ranking and expectations of being in the thick of the Northwest Conference race once again, the George Fox University Bruins tip off their 2001-02 women's basketball season against the Warner Pacific College Knights Saturday evening (Nov. 17) at 5:30 p.m. on the road in Portland.

The Bruins are coming off a season in which they went 23-3, won the conference with a 15-1 league mark, were ranked No. 1 in the nation for two weeks, participated in the NCAA Division III National Tournament, and finished with a No. 11 national ranking.

In the national pre-season poll by d3hoops.com, George Fox received 187 points to place 19th. Messiah College was the top pick with 592 points and 11 firsts, unseating three-time defending national champion Washington University (Mo.), which was No. 2 with 553 points and 11 firsts. George Fox is the only team in the past three seasons to be ranked No. 1 besides Washington. The complete poll is available at www.d3hoops.com.

The Northwest Conference schedule does not begin for the Bruins until Dec. 3 at home against Pacific University. Pacific Lutheran University was a one-point favorite (77-76) over George Fox for this year's NWC title in balloting by the league's nine coaches. The NWC pre-season poll and other information about the conference and its teams is available at www.nwcsports.com.

George Fox met Warner Pacific last season for the first time in nine years, taking a 68-64 victory over the Knights on Dec. 9 in Newberg. The Bruins lead the all-time series with the Knights 22-4 and have won the last seven meetings.

The Bruins return three starters from last year's team, including Nicole Prazneau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore. - 11.7 ppg, 4.5 rpg) and Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore. - 8.3 ppg, 3.7 apg), who were both Second Team All-Conference selections, and Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore. - 10.2 ppg, 6.1 rpg). Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore. - 4.2 ppg, 2.6 apg) is expected to move into the starting center position vacated by two-time NWC Player of the Year and Kodak All-American Katie Lacey, who graduated. If an experienced player is to fill the wing position left by the graduation of Tabitha Greller, the Bruins' all-time leader in three-point field goals, it will probably go to Amy Fitch (So., W, Ritzville, Wash. - 2.9 ppg, 2.5 rpg).

Sixth-year coach Scott Rueck begins this season with a record of 95-33 and back-to-back honors as NWC Coach of the Year in 1999-2000 and Co-Coach of the Year in 2000-01.

BRUIN BITS:

Schedule Adjustments:

The Bruins' home match with Willamette University on Wed., Dec. 5, is a 6:00 p.m. game. It is listed incorrectly on George Fox schedule cards at 7:30 p.m. ... Official times for the Bruins' two games in the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic Dec. 17-18 in Hilo, Hawaii, have been moved up half an hour. The Bruins will play Marian College (Wisc.) on Dec. 17 and St. Mary's College (Ind.) on Dec. 18 at 12:00 noon Pacific time instead of 12:30 p.m.

11/17 - GEORGE FOX 73, WARNER PACIFIC 55: Bruins Burst from Blocks with Big Win over Knights

PORTLAND, Ore. -- After falling behind 7-0 to start the game, the George Fox University Bruins responded with 17 unanswered points and went on to post a 73-55 win over the Warner Pacific College Knights in the season-opening women's basketball game for both teams Saturday night (Nov. 17) here at Perry Gymnasium.

The Bruins, ranked No. 19 in the NCAA Division III pre-season poll, blistered the nets in the first half with a .548 shooting percentage, connecting on 17 of 31 shots in building a 46-28 halftime lead. The Bruins led by as many as 26 at one point in the half.

George Fox coach Scott Rueck, picking up his 97th career win, played several newcomers and freshman liberally in the second half as the Bruins kept the gap around 20 points for most of the final period. When the Knights suddenly cut the lead to 64-51 with seven minutes left, the Bruin starters were reinserted at that point to secure the win.

Heather Doud with 25 points and Darby Cave with 20, a career high, were instrumental in the Bruins spoiling the Knights' homecoming game. Nicole Prazeau led all rebounders with 10 boards, tying her career high and pacing the Bruins to a 48-27 rebound differential, while Amy Fitch passed out seven assists, another personal best.

Shawna Damon with 21 points and Jennifer Haberly with 17 were the only Knights in double figures. Michelle Roosa led Warner Pacific on the boards with six caroms.

The Bruins return to action Friday (Nov. 23) against Western Baptist College in the Concordia-Portland Tournament at 5:30 p.m.

11/30 -- GEORGE FOX 84, WESTERN BAPTIST 69: Bruins Stay Unbeaten with Win IN PLU Classic

TACOMA, Wash. -- Nicole Prazeau scored all 16 of her points in the second half after not attempting a shot in the first half, sparking the George Fox University Bruins to an 84-59 win over the Western Baptist College Warriors in the opening game of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Women's Basketball Classic Friday night (Nov. 30) here at Olson Auditorium.

The Bruins, ranked 10th in the nation in the latest NCAA Division III national poll conducted by d3hoops.com, improved their record to 4-0 by shooting 58 percent from the field, including a scorching 55 percent on 11-of-20 from beyond the three-point line. Western Baptist, which earlier this season lost a 62-58 decision to George Fox, fell to 4-4 with the defeat.

George Fox found the shooting touch early in the game as Heather Doud drained a trio of three-point baskets, and the Bruins eventually built their biggest lead of the half at 26-14 on Liz Clark's three-point field goal with 9:17 remaining. The Warriors responded with a 7-0 run over the next 1:40 and pulled to within five points on Toran Lundgren's two free throws, but the Bruins maintained that five-point edge through the remainder of the half and took a 38-33 lead into the intermission.

After the first 20 minutes the Bruins were shooting 55 percent from the field and the same percentage from the three-point line, but they had gotten to the foul line only one time. The Warriors were able to keep the score close by hitting all nine of their charity attempts in the opening half.

Western Baptist went on a 12-6 run in the opening five minutes of the second half, taking its only lead of the game at 45-44 on a three-point play by Chelsey Ward. After that, however, the second half belonged to Prazeau, who was 5-of-9 from the field, including a pair of three-pointers, and hit all four of her free throws.

While Prazeau was doing the damage from the outside, Darby Cave had her way inside and finished with a game-high 19 points. Doud had 14 points and Becky Thompson added 11 with 6 assists for the winners.

Tati Gallardo led the Warriors with 17 points, including a perfect 7-of-7 at the foul line, while Lundgren had a double-double with 13 points and 13 rebounds.

The women's portion of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic continues Saturday (Dec. 1) with George Fox playing Northwest College at 2:00 p.m., followed by host Pacific Lutheran University against Western Baptist at 4:00 p.m. PLU defeated Northwest 84-69 in the other Friday afternoon women's game.

2/15 — GEORGE FOX 69, WHITMAN 31: Bruins Return to Winning Ways with Rout of Missionaries

NEWBERG, Ore. — Putting a quick end to their short two-game losing streak, the George Fox University Bruins jumped ahead of the Whitman College Missionaries 9-0 to start the game and went on to a 69-31 victory in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night (Feb. 15) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The win was a crucial one for the Bruins as they seek to secure a spot in the NWC Tournament next week. George Fox entered the game tied for second with Whitworth College and a game ahead of 4th-place University of Puget Sound. If the Bruins can defeat Whitworth Saturday in their Homecoming game, they would nail down the No. 2 seed in the tournament and host either Whitworth or Puget Sound next Thursday (Feb. 21) at 7:00 p.m. The winner of that game would take on conference champion Pacific Lutheran University Saturday (Feb. 23) in Tacoma.

Whitman made a brief run at George Fox in the first half, closing within four at 11-7 with 12:26 left in the half, but the Bruins then went on a 19-1 run over the next eight minutes to effectively salt the game away. The Bruins led 37-14 at the half after shooting .552 (16-29) in the half, holding the Missionaries to .190 (4-21), and forcing 17 turnovers. The Bruins never led by less than 20 points in the second half, and led by as many as 38 twice, including the final score.

In a statistical oddity, the Bruins shot exactly .500 on total field goals (29-58), three-point field goals (7-14), and free throws (4-8). Whitman finished with a mark of .250 (12-48) from the field in the game and committed 34 turnovers.

Liz Clark led all scorers with 13 points for George Fox, while Becky Thompson recorded a double-double with 11 points, all in the first half, and 10 assists. Clark, Darby Cave, Sarah Myhre, and Emily Ruggles all had 5 rebounds apiece as the Bruins controlled the backboards, 36-33.

Whitman had no one in double figures, Ashley Wright and Lindsey Gehrig scoring 6 each. Wright had a game-high 7 rebounds.

The Bruins, ranked 29th in the D3hoops.com poll and 21st in the WBCA poll, are now 20-4, their third straight season to reach 20 wins or more, and 11-4 in the conference. The Missionaries dropped to 7-16 overall and 3-12 in league play.

George Fox and Whitworth square off at 6:00 p.m., as do Whitman and Pacific University Saturday in Forest Grove.

A critical weekend faces the Bruins as they celebrate Homecoming on campus, and they hold the keys to their destiny in their own hands. A berth in the Northwest Conference Tournament and a shot at the NWC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament are on the line tonight against Whitman and tomorrow against Whitworth. Two wins would give the Bruins the No. 2 seed and a home game next Thursday, but they cannot take the Missionaries lightly; after all, Whitman is the only other team besides George Fox to knock off conference champ Pacific Lutheran. Sunny Gulberg is the fuel in the Missionaries' machine, having gone over 1,000 points in her career and setting the Whitman all-time record for 3-pointers; she had 30 in their previous meeting this season.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Missionaries 13-2 after taking a 69-57 decision in Walla Walla on Jan. 19 ... The Bruins have won the last 12 meetings ... Whitman's last win was 58-50 on Jan. 19, 1996, in Newberg ... Whitman is 9th in the NWC in scoring (52.3), 3rd in defense (55.7), and 4th in rebounding (37.0) ... Sunny Gulberg ranks 4th in scoring (14.9), 1st in 3-pt FG (2.23), and 5th in assists (3.32).

1/19 - GEORGE FOX 69, WHITMAN 57: Bruins Recover from Slow Start to Overcome Missionaries

WALLA WALLA, Wash. - Bouncing back from another slow shooting start that saw them fall behind by 14 points in the first half, the George Fox University Bruins rallied to defeat the Whitman College Missionaries 69-57 in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 19) here at the Sherwood Center.

Making only three field goals in the first 12 minutes and going scoreless for one five-minute stretch, the Bruins fell behind 22-8 as the Missionaries' Sunny Gulberg poured in 12 of those points. The Whitman guard, who broke the team's career three-point field goal record the night before against Pacific, finished with 20 in the first half.

Sparked by Heather Doud, who scored all 14 of her first-half points in the last eight minutes, the Bruins rallied, cutting the deficit at halftime to two at 33-31. A rebound basket by Doud and a jumper by Nicole Prazeau gave the Bruins their first lead at 35-33 with 18:49 to play.

Gulberg's three put Whitman back on top 36-35 one last time, but Liz Clark hit a triple to give the Bruins a 38-37 lead with 17:18 left, and they never trailed again. Amy Fitch's three at 6:42 gave the Bruins their biggest lead at 60-48, and the Bruins hit five free throws in the last 1:07 to ice it. The Bruins shot .808 (21-26) from the line.

Doud finished with 18 points to lead the Bruins, Prazeau scored 16 to give her 1,019 for her career, and Clark added 10. Doud had 8 rebounds and Clark and Sarah Myhre grabbed 7 apiece as George Fox out-rebounded the Missionaries 44-37, including 19 offensive boards.

Gulberg with 30 points was the only Missionary in double figures, but after hitting 8-9 from the field in the first half, tighter defense by Fitch and Becky Thompson held her to only 3-13 in the second half. Ashley Wright had a game-high 10 rebounds for Whitman.

George Fox improved to 15-2 overall and 6-2 in the conference. The Bruins are ranked 14th in the D3hoops.com poll and 10th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III poll. Whitman fell to 5-10 overall and 1-6 in the league.

The Bruins return to action Friday (Jan. 25), visiting NWC and Yamhill County rival Linfield College in McMinnville. Tipoff time is 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m. The Missionaries visit Linfield Tuesday (Jan. 22) at 6:00 p.m. in their next game.

2/16 — WHITWORTH 69, GEORGE FOX 67: Pirates Drop Bruins to 3rd in NWC, Set Up Rematch in Spokane

NEWBERG, Ore. — Tiffany Speer's backdoor layup with 2.7 seconds left gave the Whitworth College Pirates a hard-fought 69-67 win over the George Fox University Bruins, breaking a deadlock for second place and giving the Pirates the home-court advantage for the Northwest Conference women's basketball tournament semi-final game, Friday night (Feb. 16) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

With the win, Whitworth finishes the regular season at 17-8 overall and 12-4 in league play, two games behind conference champion Pacific Lutheran University. George Fox drops to 20-5 overall and 11-5 in the conference, into a tie for third with the University of Puget Sound, a 60-58 winner over Willamette University. However, the Bruins have the tiebreaker by virtue of splitting with UPS and PLU, while UPS lost twice to the Lutes. The Bruins, therefore, will travel to Spokane Thursday, Feb. 21, for a rematch with Whitworth. The winner will go to PLU Saturday at 7:00 p.m.

Whitworth jumped on top 4-0 to start the game on a basket by Chrissy Oneal and two free throws by Tiffany Speer, but with Darby Cave scoring 9 points on four buckets and a free throw, the Bruins went on a 15-6 run to take the largest lead of the half, 15-10, with 14:15 left. The rest of the period was a nip-and-tuck affair, with seven ties and five lead changes. Erica Ewart's jumper broke the last tie with 1:19 left and gave the Pirates a 36-34 halftime advantage.

Speer and Sarah Shogren had 9 points each to lead the Pirates in the half, while Cave had 12 and Heather Doud 10 for the Bruins.

The second half was just as close, the biggest lead either team holding being a six-point advantage for the Bruins, 59-53, with 7:03 left after a layup by Cave. But the Pirates refused to quit, and Oneal scored back-to-back layups at 1:39 and 0:41 to give Whitworth a 67-66 lead.

Nicole Prazeau hit the first of two free throws with 0:27 left to tie it, but the Pirates rebounded the miss, brought the ball down, and called a time out with 0:14 left. The Pirates then worked the ball into the right corner where the Bruins swarmed in, but Speer was left alone under the basket and made an easy layup for the winner.

George Fox worked the ball down quickly and got it to Prazeau for a clear 15-foot jumper on the right baseline, but the potential tying shot went in and out as the horn sounded.

Speer and Oneal scored 17 to lead the Pirates, Shogren added 12, and Ewart chipped in with 10. Speer, Oneal, and Shogren all grabbed 10 rebounds apiece as the Bruins were outrebounded by the widest margin all season, 49-37. Ewart handed out 8 assists. The Pirates also helped themselves at the line, hitting 17-21 (.810) while the Bruins cashed in only 14-24 (.583).

Cave paced the Bruins with 17 points, Doud added 14, and Prazeau tallied 12. Cave had 8 rebounds to top the Bruins on the boards. Prazeau and Doud had 4 assists each, and Becky Thompson had 4 steals.

A Northwest Conference Tournament berth is on the line! Tonight's winner takes 2nd and hosts the semi-final tournament game Thursday, Feb. 21, at 7:00 p.m. The loser ties for the 3rd and final playoff spot with Puget Sound (assuming UPS wins at home vs. Willamette). If the Bruins lose and tie with UPS, the two split, but George Fox gets the tiebreaker by virtue of a split with NWC champ Pacific Lutheran. If the Pirates lose and tie with UPS, the Loggers get the 3rd spot because they swept the series, and Whitworth goes home. If UPS loses tonight, both George Fox and Whitworth are in, and tonight's game is to see who hosts. The Bruins routed Whitman last night 69-31 as Becky Thompson had a double-double (11 points, 10 assists), while the Pirates led from start to finish and Sarah Shogren scored 26 points in a 79-53 romp at Pacific.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Pirates 10-5, but dropped their last meeting 74-64 in Spokane on Jan. 18 ... Whitworth is 2nd in the NWC to the Bruins in 3-pointers per game (5.00) ... The Pirates are 3rd in scoring (66.0), 6th in defense (61.0), and 3rd in rebounding (38.3) ... Erica Ewart is 2nd in scoring (16.0), 3rd in 3-pt field goals (1.70), and 7th in assists (3.17).

1/18 -- WHITWORTH 74, GEORGE FOX 64: Hot Start Propels Pirates Past Bruins

SPOKANE, Wash. -- A 17-2 run midway through the first half enabled Whitworth College to race from a one-point lead to a 16-point lead and the Pirates never led by less than double figures the rest of the way, posting a 74-64 upset of the George Fox University Bruins in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Friday night (Jan. 18) here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse.

The hot hands of the Pirates' Erica Ewart and Chrissy Oneal, who scored 17 and 11 respectively in the first half, and a horrible half of shooting (the Bruins hit only 5-28 in the half, a .179 percentage) led to a 35-18 halftime deficit for the visitors. The Bruins committed 10 turnovers in the half and hit only 1 of 12 three-point tries.

Whitworth stretched its lead to 21 three times early in the second half before the Bruins finally found their range. George Fox shot .692 in the second half (18-26), only to have the Pirates respond by hitting .583 (14-24) to keep the Bruins at bay. George Fox managed to get within 10 with 3:11 left and again at the end of the game.

Ewart finished with 29, hitting 9-13 from the field, including 5-7 from three-point range, and Oneal had 20 on 8-10 shooting. Sarah Shogren added 12 off the bench. The 74 points was the most scored against the Bruins in a game this season. Oneal and Tiffany Speer had 7 rebounds apiece as the Pirates edged the Bruins, the conference's top rebounding team, 35-33.

For George Fox, Heather Doud scored 18 on 7-9 from the field, Amy Fitch chipped in with 12, and Sarah Myhre scored 10 off the bench. Doud and Becky Thompson had 6 rebounds each for the Bruins.

George Fox saw its three-game winning streak end as it fell to 14-2 overall and 5-2 in the conference. The Bruins are ranked 14th in the D3hoops.com poll and 10th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III poll. Whitworth improved to 10-6 overall and 5-2 in the league.

The Bruins continue their eastern Washington swing Saturday (Jan. 19), facing the Whitman College Missionaries at 6:00 p.m. in Walla Walla., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m. The Pirates host the Pacific University Boxers Saturday at 6:00 p.m.

2/9 - WILLAMETTE 53, GEORGE FOX 51: Bearcats Blitz Bruins in Stunning Second-Half Comeback

SALEM, Ore. – For the first time in almost three years, the George Fox University women's basketball has dropped two games in a row as the Bruins once again struggled offensively and suffered a heart-breaking 53-51 upset at the hands of the Willamette University Bearcats in Northwest Conference action Saturday night (Feb. 9) here at the Cone Fieldhouse.

Both teams had trouble getting the ball in the hoop in the early going, Willamette managing an 8-2 lead eight minutes into the game. Bruin coach Scott Rueck then decided to go with his "team of the future", pulling starting seniors Becky Thompson at point, Nicole Prazeau at wing, and Heather Doud at post in favor of freshmen Melissa Alexander, Liz Clark, and Sarah Myhre. The newcomers sparked a 14-2 run that gave George Fox a 16-10 lead, and the Bruins eventually stretched that to 32-18 at the half.

The Bruin starters still struggled offensively as the second half began, and with Nancy Weyler scoring eight of her game-high 18 points, the Bearcats reeled off a 10-0 run to get within four at 32-28. The Bruins upped it back to 10 with 13:26 left on a layup by Emily Ruggles, but then went cold again, missing 12 shots and committing seven turnovers as Willamette posted an 18-1 run to go up 50-43 with five minutes left. Heather Doud's jumper with 1:08 left got George Fox within one at 52-51.

Down 53-51 after a Simmie Muth free throw, the Bruins had a chance to tie as Thompson drove the lane, but Muth fouled her with 1.4 seconds left. As it was only the sixth Willamette foul, the Bruins had to take the ball out under the basket. Thompson's in-bounds pass sailed untouched to the opposite end of the court, however, and the Bearcats got the ball. Muth was fouled with a tenth of a second left and missed her free throw, but time ran out before the Bruins could heave a full-court shot.

Myhre was the only Bruin in double figures with 11 points, hitting 5-6 from the floor, while Doud and Clark led the Bruins to a 39-38 rebound edge with 7 boards apiece. Thompson had 4 assists and 4 steals. However, the Bruins suffered through a horrendous shooting night, finishing 18-59 (.305) from the field, and were only 7-28 (.250) in the second half. From three-point range, the normally-accurate Bruins (NWC leaders and ranked 28th nationally in percentage) this night made only 3-25 (.120) from behind the line.

In addition to Weyler's 18, Muth scored 15 and Kasey Sorenson 11. Rosie Contri grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds, and Sorenson had 6 assists. The Bearcats shot .400 (20-50) in the game, including .522 (12-23) in the second half.

George Fox fell to 19-4 overall and 10-4 in the conference while suffering its first two-game losing streak since Dec. 1 and 4, 1998. Willamette improved to 10-13 overall and 5-9 in the league.

The Bruins will try to turn things around during their Homecoming weekend, starting with Whitman College Friday (Feb. 15) at 6:00 p.m. The Bearcats visit Lewis & Clark College Tuesday (Feb. 12) at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's games at 8:00 p.m.

12/05 - GEORGE FOX 75, WILLAMETTE 46: Bruins Beat Bearcats to Run Winning Streak to 7

NEWBERG, Ore. - On a night when their shooters struggled from the field, the George Fox University defense came through with a stellar performance, lifting the Bruins to a 75-46 rout of the Willamette University Bearcats in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Wednesday night (Dec. 5) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The win was the 7th straight for the Bruins, who are ranked No. 9 in the NCAA Division III national poll, lifting their record to 7-0 overall and 2-0 in the conference. George Fox is now two wins away from tying the team record for best start to a season, 9-0 by last year's team. Willamette dropped to 4-4 overall and 0-1 in the conference.

Three-pointers by Amy Fitch and Heather Doud and three straight inside baskets by Darby Cave put George Fox ahead 12-6 six minutes into the contest, and the Bruins gradually extended that lead to 33-21 at the half. Cave finished with 10 points and 8 rebounds in the half. Neither team shot particularly well, George Fox making only .343 (12-35) to .286 (8-28) for Willamette.

The Bruin defense then turned the defensive pressure up a notch to start the second half, holding the Bearcats to only five points over a 10-minute span as they stretched their lead to 30 points at 56-26. With their second unit in the rest of the way, the Bruins maintained at least a 24-point lead to the end.

Cave ended the game with 14 points, Fitch added a career-high 13, and Doud contributed 11. All 10 Bruins who played scored. Cave with 9 rebounds and Emily Ruggles with 8 led the way on the boards as the Bruins out-rebounded the Bearcats 51-31. Becky Thompson handed out 6 assists.

Rosie Contri topped the Bearcats with 14 and Nancy Weyler scored 10 while grabbing 5 rebounds.

George Fox steps out of the conference for its next game Saturday (Dec. 8) against Evergreen State College at 7:30 p.m. in Newberg. Willamette visits pre-season conference favorite Pacific Lutheran University Saturday at 8:00 p.m. in Tacoma.

Two of the three teams in last year's Northwest Conference Tournament and the 2000-01 Co-Coaches of the Year meet tonight in the second of a three-game home stand for George Fox. The Bearcats are coming off back-to-back wins in the Lewis & Clark/Bon Appetit Classic, while the Bruins are off to the second-best start in team history (last year's record-setting team started off 9-0). Willamette lost two All-Conference stars in Kelly Sorenson, the league's leading scorer, and Heather Ludwig, but Rosie Contri has stepped into the breach and earned Honorable Mention for NWC "Player of the Week" each of the first two weeks of the season. The Bruins, ranked 9th in the nation in the latest D-III poll, are riding high after an 81-53 conference-opening win over Pacific Monday. Nicole Prazeau led the way in that one with 19 points, followed by Heather Doud with 16, Darby Cave 11, and Becky Thompson 10, while Mandy Dunham and Emily Ruggles had career highs of 7 points off the bench.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Bearcats 28-11 ... The teams split last year, George Fox winning 73-62 in Newberg on Jan. 16 and Willamette returning the favor 59-56 in Salem on Feb. 13 ... The Bearcats' win stopped a record-tying 11-game winning streak by the Bruins and ended George Fox's two-week stay at No. 1 in the nation ... The Bearcats were picked 6th in the pre-season NWC coaches' poll.

4/11 - LITTLE ALL-NORTHWEST: Doud, Prazeau Earn Little All-Northwest Recognition

NEWBERG, Ore. – Two members of the 2001-02 George Fox University women's basketball team – Heather Doud and Nicole Prazeau – have been recognized among the best players in the Pacific Northwest, as evidenced by their positions on the Little All-Northwest Women's Basketball Teams announced today.

The Little All-Northwest teams are voted on by a 31-member panel that includes sportswriters and sports information directors from newspapers and colleges in the NAIA and NCAA Divisions II and III from Oregon, Washington, Alaska, and Idaho. The voting is coordinated by Jack Sareault of the Northwest Collegiate Sports Service.

Doud, a senior post from Corvallis, Ore., was named to the Little All-Northwest Third Team, while Prazeau, a senior wing from Portland, Ore., received Honorable Mention. The pair played key roles in the Bruins' highly-successful 2001-02 campaign in which they were 20-6 overall, 11-5 and tied for third in the Northwest Conference, and were nationally ranked throughout most of the season.

Doud, who earned All-Golden State Conference honors in her first two college seasons at Biola University before transferring to George Fox for her junior and senior years, earned NWC "Player of the Week" three times and First Team All-NWC honors while averaging 14.1 points and 7.3 rebounds a game, both team-leading figures. She posted double-doubles in scoring and rebounding four times, and ranked 4th in the conference in scoring at 14.1; 4th in rebounding at 7.3; 7th in field goal pct. at .475; 3rd in free throw pct. at .812; 1st in 3-pt field goal pct. at .457; 6th in 3-pt field goals per game with 1.42; and 10th in steals at 2.00. In her career, she had 1,370 points (630 at George Fox) and 748 rebounds (349 at George Fox). Her averages in two years with the Bruins were 12.1 points per game and 6.7 rebounds.

Prazeau, one of the best all-around basketball players ever to suit up for the Bruins, was 2nd on the team in scoring (285 points, 11.4 ppg) while averaging 4.4 rebounds a game and ranking 4th in the conference in three-point field goal percentage (.371), 10th in scoring, and 14th in three-point field goals (23, 0.92 3-pt per game). She had 17 double-figure games, and was a First Team All-NWC selection. She became the 8th player in George Fox history to reach 1,000 points for a career against Whitworth on Jan. 18, and finished with 1,133 career points, 7th on the all-time scoring list. She was 10th all-time in assists with 182, and tied for 10th in steals with 130. Her career scoring average was 10.9 and her career rebound average is 4.2.

In balloting for the top teams in the area, the Bruins received 104 votes to place 7th. Western Washington University, at 24-5, was named the top women's team in the Pacific Northwest, receiving 25 firsts to 4 for Pacific Lutheran University.

For more information and a complete list of men's and women's basketball honorees, contact Jack Sareault at Northwest Collegiate Sports Service by mail at P.O. Box 328, Gig Harbor, Wash. 98335, by phone (253-858-9404), or by fax (253-858-9595).

2001-02 LITTLE ALL-NORTHWEST BASKETBALL SELECTIONS

To: Sports Information Directors/Sportswriters:

FOR USE UPON RECEIPT

The Evergreen State College of Olympia landed two players, guards Andre Stewart and Quincy Wilder, on the 2002 Little All-Northwest basketball team. Their coach, John Barbee, was voted regional coach of the year after leading the Geoducks to a 26-7 record that included a 20-game win streak.

Repeat selections were Central Washington forward Justin Thompson, from last year, and Lewis & Clark guard Scott Davis, from two years ago. Wilder led the region's small colleges in scoring with a 22.9-point average.

Central Washington center Rosa Shaw is the only women's repeater. She was voted to the first team for the third year in a row. The women's coach of the year is Anji Welssenfluh of Eastern Oregon, who turned the Mountaineers season around from an 8-17 record to 20-5 and the Cascade Collegiate Conference championship in her second season.

The selections were made by a 31-person panel of sports information directors and sportswriters in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Alaska, listed at the bottom of this memo.

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State '91) has a record of 115-39 (.750) after his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. He notched his 100th career win this season when the Bruins defeated Northwest 78-68 on Saturday, Dec. 1, in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic in Tacoma, Wash. He was Northwest Conference "Coach of the Year" in 1999-2000 and "Co-Coach of the Year" in 2000-01.

BRUIN BITS:

 Four Senior Complete Outstanding Careers:

Four George Fox seniors – Jill Barram (PG, Salem, Ore.), Heather Doud (P, Corvallis, Ore.), Nicole Prazneau (W, Portland, Ore.), and Becky Thompson (PG, Colton, Ore.) – completed their careers when the Bruins bowed out of the Northwest Conference Tournament with a 66-58 setback to the Whitworth Pirates Feb. 21 in Spokane, Wash. All four were honored in pre-game ceremonies at the Bruins' Homecoming game against Whitworth on Feb. 16. The Bruins were 43-9 during Doud's two years with the program, while the Bruins were 84-20 during the four-year careers of Barram, Prazneau, and Thompson.

JILL BARRAM

For four years, Jill Barram was a valuable member of the Bruins as the top "sixth man" off the bench, coming in to provide a spark to the offense or to stop an opponent with her quickness. Anticipating a starting role in her senior season, she was instead beset with injuries this year and played in only eight games, but remained a team leader despite the setbacks.

After appearing briefly in 17 games as a freshman, she played in every game during her sophomore and junior seasons, averaging 5.6 and 6.3 points per game in those two years. She scored a career high of 16 points against Pacific, and had highs of 6 rebounds and 8 assists in one game against Puget Sound, all in her junior year.

This year, she averaged 3.4 points in limited playing time due to her injuries. In her career, she scored 371 points for an average of 4.7 points a game, with 129 rebounds, 135 assists, and 54 steals (0.68) in 79 games.

HEATHER DOUD

Last year, with All-American Katie Lacey attracting all the attention inside, Heather Doud quietly put together a fine season in her first year with the Bruins, and picked up the pace this year to give George Fox the boost it needed to replace Lacey.

After being a two-time all-conference pick at Biola University, Heather joined the Bruins to be closer to home and averaged 10.2 points and 6.1 rebounds a game last year as a junior. She was named Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" once and scored her 1,000th career point against PLU in the conference tournament championship game.

This year, Heather earned conference "Player of the Week" honors three times and First Team All-NWC honors while averaging 14.1 points and 7.3 rebounds a game. She posted double-doubles in scoring and rebounding four times this season, and seven times in her Bruin career. She ranked 4th in the conference in scoring at 14.1; 4th in rebounding at 7.3; 7th in field goal pct. at .475; 3rd in free throw pct. at .812; 1st in 3-pt field goal pct. at .457; 6th in 3-pt field goals per game with 1.42; and 10th in steals at 2.00.

In her career, she had 1,370 points (630 at George Fox) and 748 rebounds (349 at George Fox). Her high point game was 26 last year against St. Mary's, and she had a career-high 14 rebounds in a game this year against Warner Pacific. Her averages in two years with the Bruins were 12.1 points per game and 6.7 rebounds.

NICOLE PRAZEAU

Stepping into the program as a starter from the moment she first came to George Fox, Nicole PrazEAU started every game but one during her outstanding four-year career. She averaged 10.5 points a game her first year and had 14 double-figure games, then had 15 double-figure games as a sophomore while averaging 9.5 points and earning Second Team All-Northwest Conference honors. She repeated that honor last year as a junior while scoring at an 11.7 clip, with 14 double-figure games, including a career-high 27 points against Cascade.

This year, she had 17 double-figure games, and ranked 10th in the conference in scoring with 11.7 points per game and 15th in 3-pt field goals per game at 0.88. She was a First Team All-NWC selection.

She became the 8th player in George Fox history to reach 1,000 points for a career against Whitworth on Jan. 18, and finished with 1,133 career points, 7th on the all-time scoring list. She was 10th all-time in assists with 182, and tied for 10th in steals with 130. Her career scoring average was 10.9 and her career rebound average is 4.2.

BECKY THOMPSON

Another starter from Day One, Becky Thompson started all but one game during her four-year George Fox career and earned a reputation as one of the finest point guards in Bruin history and in the Northwest Conference.

As a freshman, she led the teams in assists, steals, and free throw pct. while averaging 7.3 points a game. As a sophomore, she earned Honorable Mention All-Conference honors while averaging 6.1 points a game and leading the team again in assists and steals. Last year, as a junior, she was Second Team All-Conference, leading the Bruins for the third straight season in assists and steals, and averaging 8.3 points a game.

This year, she scored at a 6.9 clip and again led the Bruins in assists and steals. A Second Team All-NWC selection, she was 1st in the conference in steals with 2.96 a game; 1st in assists with 4.77 a game; 1st in assists-to-turnovers ratio at 2.95 assists for every turnover; and 14th in blocked shots at 0.38. She led the conference in assists-to-turnovers ratio each of the last three years!

Her career highs included 19 points vs. Puget Sound, 10 rebounds and 12 assists in the same game vs. Lewis & Clark, and a George Fox record 9 steals vs. Whitworth. On the all-time George Fox lists, she finished 3rd in assists with 398, and 2nd in steals with 235, eight short of the record.

Her career averages at George Fox are 7.1 points, 3.9 rebounds, 3.86 assists, and 2.28 steals per game.

* Bruins Ranked 31st, 24th in Final Regular-Season Polls Spent Most of the Year in National Polls:

In the final regular-season polls through games of Feb. 16, the George Fox Bruins garnered enough votes to be listed 31st in the D3hoops.com poll and 24th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll conducted by the Women's Basketball Coaches of America.

In the D3hoops poll, the Bruins slipped from 29th to 31st with 8 points after going 1-1 on their final home stand, while they received 21 points in the WBCA poll. Pacific Lutheran was the only other NWC team in the polls, with 163 points for 19th in the D3hoops poll, and 64 points for 17th in the WBCA poll.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top of both polls, the 11th straight week atop the D3hoops rankings. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every D3hoops poll but two – and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country, and is published weekly. Previous Top 25 results and the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls can be found at www.d3hoops.com

The USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III Top 25 Coaches Poll is voted on by a panel of 8 NCAA Division III coaches who represent all regions in the United States. Their polls can be found at www.wbca.org.

 Bruins Tied Record with 11 Straight Wins while Setting Mark for Best Start Ever

This year's George Fox Bruins opened the season with 11 straight wins before suffering their first setback of the season, a 51-45 loss at Pacific Lutheran on Jan. 5. The 11-0 start surpassed the 9-0 mark by the 2000-01 Bruins. The 11 wins in a row also equaled previous record 11-game streaks by the 1999-2000 and 2000-01 teams.

 Third Straight 20-Win Season for Bruins:

With a final 20-6 record in 2001-02, the George Fox Bruins posted their 3rd straight season of 20 or more wins. Until this string, no Bruin teams had ever posted back-to-back 20-win seasons; in fact, George Fox had only two 20-win seasons in the entire history of women's basketball prior to this, going back to the 1981-82 season when complete records began to be kept.

 Bruins Had Four NWC "Player of the Week" Honors This Season:

Two George Fox players earned four Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" awards this season. Heather Doud has won NWC "Player of the Week" three times (Nov. 18-24, Dec. 10-23, and Jan. 21-27), and Darby Cave has received the honor once (Jan. 28-Feb. 3).

 Three Bruins Earned All-Conference Honors in '01-02:

The George Fox Bruins' three starting seniors all earned All-Northwest Conference honors this season. First Team honors went to post Heather Doud and wing Nicole Prazeau, while point guard Becky Thompson earned Second Team honors. Prazeau was Second Team All-NWC each of the two previous years, while Thompson was Second Team last year and Honorable Mention the year before.

2/21 – WHITWORTH 66, GEORGE FOX 58: Bruins End Season 20-6 as Pirates Advance to NWC Finals

NEWBERG, Ore. – It may be hard to beat a good team three times in one season, as the old sports saw goes, but the Whitworth College Pirates pulled it off Thursday night (Feb. 21) here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse, defeating the George Fox University Bruins 66-58 in the Northwest Conference Women's Basketball Tournament semi-final game to advance to the championship game Saturday (Feb. 23) at Pacific Lutheran University.

The Pirates, who defeated the Bruins 74-64 in Spokane and 69-67 in Newberg last Saturday to nail down the No. 2 seed in the conference tournament, kept their season alive and improved to 18-8 while ending the George Fox season at 20-6.

The first half saw 10 lead changes, most in the early and late moments of the period. After George Fox took an early 4-0 lead on a jumper by Amy Fitch and two free throws by Becky Thompson, Whitworth took off on an 18-6 run, capped by a three-pointer by Sarah Shogren, for an 18-10 lead with 10:46 left.

The Bruins scratched their way back and retook the lead, 28-26, on a three by Thompson with 2:07 left. Back-to-back baskets by Tiffany Speer and NWC Player of the Year Erica Ewart gave Whitworth at 30-28 lead, but Emily Ruggles (Jr., W, Eugene, Ore.) rebound basket and free throw made it 31-30 Bruins with 37 seconds left.

Speer scored again with 28 seconds left, but Heather Doud canned a short jumper with 14 seconds remaining for a 33-32 George Fox halftime lead.

With Nicole Prazeau contributing 9 of her team-high 19 points, the Bruins outscored the Pirates 17-10 to start the second half and took their largest lead of the game, 50-42, with 11:43 to play. But Whitworth went on an 8-0 run over the next four minutes to forge a 50-50 tie at 7:45.

Sarah Myhre's layup put George Fox back in front for the last time, 52-50, but a short jumper by Shogren and Ewart's two free throws at 5:24 gave the Pirates a lead they would not relinquish. The teams swapped three baskets apiece over the next two minutes, but after Prazeau's jumper at 3:23 got the Bruins with two at 60-58, the Pirates sank all six of their free throws the rest of the way while the Bruins did not score. Whitworth made 15-17 free throws in the second half.

Prazeau's 19 points left her with 1,133 in her career, 7th all-time. Doud and Darby Cave added 10 each, while Doud made it a double-double with 10 rebounds as well. Thompson had 4 assists and 1 steal, finishing 3rd all-time in assists with 398 and 2nd all-time in steals with 235.

Speer led all scorers with 22 points and had 14 rebounds for the Pirates, Ewart scored 17, and Shogren added 16. Chrissy Oneal had 4 assists.

GEORGE FOX WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

(Record 20-5: Home 9-1, Road 6-4, Neutral 5-0 / NWC 11-5: Home 7-1, Road 4-4)

HIGHLIGHTS:

- * Bruins Make NWC Tourney but Must Travel to Spokane Thursday
- * Four Seniors Honored Before Homecoming Crowd on Feb. 16
- * George Fox Ranked 29th, 21st Nationally, but Drop Out of Region Rankings

COMING UP:

Thur., Feb. 21, 7:00 pm – at Whitworth College, in Spokane, Wash. (NWC Tournament)

Northwest Conference Tournament semi-final game ... The Pirates earned the #2 seed in the tournament by defeating the Bruins 69-67 in Newberg Saturday ... George Fox tied for 3rd in the NWC with Puget Sound and the two split during the regular season, but the Bruins split with conference champion Pacific Lutheran while the Loggers lost twice to the Lutes, so the Bruins won that tiebreaker ... The Bruins lead the series with the Pirates 10-6, but dropped both regular season meetings, 74-64 in Spokane on Jan. 18 and then Saturday's showdown for 2nd ... Whitworth is 2nd in the NWC to the Bruins in 3-pointers per game (4.88) ... The Pirates are 3rd in scoring (66.7), 6th in defense (60.9), and 3rd in rebounding (38.5) ... Erica Ewart is 2nd in scoring (15.4), 3rd in 3-pt field goals (1.64), and 6th in assists (3.24).

Sat., Feb. 23, 7:00 pm – at Pacific Lutheran University, in Tacoma, Wash. (tentative)

Northwest Conference Tournament championship game ... The Bruins must defeat Whitworth in Spokane Thursday to make to the finals against the NWC champion Lutes ... The winner of the NWC Tournament earns an automatic bid to the 50-team NCAA Division III National Championships, while the loser must hope for one of 7 at-large berths awarded to runners-up from the 35 conferences with automatic bids (the other 8 spots go to teams in non-automatic conferences or independents) ... The Lutes lead the series with the Bruins 11-8 ... PLU won 51-45 on Jan. 5 in Tacoma, snapping the Bruins' record-tying 11-game winning streak and GFU's 5-game winning streak in the series, but the Bruins bounced back with a 62-55 overtime win in Newberg on Feb. 1 ... PLU is ranked 19th in the D3hoops poll, 17th in the WBCA poll, and 3rd in the West Region ... The Lutes are 4th in the NWC in scoring (64.0), 1st in defense (49.8, 12th nationally), and 2nd in rebounding (40.0).

LAST WEEK (recaps below):

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State '91) notched his 100th career win when the Bruins defeated Northwest 78-68 on Saturday, Dec. 1, in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic in Tacoma, Wash. He is 115-38 (.752) in his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. Against this week's opponents, he is 7-5 vs. Whitworth (5-1 in Newberg, 2-4 in Spokane), and 7-7 vs. Pacific Lutheran (5-2 in Newberg, 2-5 in Tacoma).

BRUIN BITS:

 Four Seniors Play Final Regular-Season Home Game:

Four George Fox seniors – Jill Barram (PG, Salem, Ore.), Heather Doud (P, Corvallis, Ore.), Nicole Prazneau (W, Portland, Ore.), and Becky Thompson (PG, Colton, Ore.) – played their final regular-season home game before a Homecoming crowd Saturday, Feb. 16. All four were honored in pre-game ceremonies for their outstanding college cage careers. As the Bruins still have at least one game left with Thursday's NWC Tournament game against Whitworth in Spokane, career summaries and statistics will be held until the season is completed.

 Bruins 29th, 21st in National Polls:

Back-to-back losses for the first time in over three years resulted in the George Fox Bruins dropping out of the top 25 in the NCAA Division III National Top 25 poll of Feb. 12 conducted by D3hoops.com, and from 12th to 21st in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll conducted by the Women's Basketball Coaches of America.

In the D3hoops poll, the Bruins slid from 17th to 29th with 32 votes, while they received votes in the WBCA poll. Pacific Lutheran was the only other NWC team in the polls, with 54 points for 19th in the D3hoop poll, and 44 points for 17th in the WBCA poll.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top of both polls, the 10th straight week atop the D3hoops rankings. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every D3hoops poll but two – and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

In the NCAA Division III West Region rankings, the Bruins fell from 3rd out of the top 8. PLU was 3rd.

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country, and is published weekly. Previous Top 25 results and the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls can be found at www.d3hoops.com

The USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III Top 25 Coaches Poll is voted on by a panel of 8 NCAA Division III coaches who represent all regions in the United States. Their polls can be found at www.wbca.org

 On the All-Time Lists:

Nicole Prazeau became only the 8th player in George Fox women's basketball history to reach 1,000 points for a career when she scored her 6th point in the Bruins' game at Whitworth on Jan. 18. With 19 points in two games this past week, she now has 1,114 career points, ranking 7th on the all-time scoring list. In 6th place is Liz Stephens (1,197). She had 6 assists during the week for 181 in her career, 10th all-time. In 9th is Jennifer Bearse (184). She also had 4 steals for 130 career steals, tying Katie Lacey (130) for 10th on the steals list ...

Becky Thompson had 13 assists and 7 steals in two games last week, holding 3rd in career assists (394) and 2nd on the all-time steals list (234). She will not catch the No. 2 assists leader, Linda Funderhide (538), but could possibly catch the leader in steals, also Funderhide (243), depending on how many post-season games the Bruins play..

 New Personal Highs:

Heather Doud – now has 1,360 career points (740 in two years at Biola, 620 at George Fox) and 738 rebounds (399 at Biola, 339 at George Fox)

Darby Cave – set new career highs in steals (3) vs. Whitman, and in free throw attempts (10) vs. Whitworth

 Newcomers Making Marks:

Mandy Dunham (Fr., W, Richland, Wash.) – set new high in minutes (21) and tied high in field goals (3) vs. Whitman

Liz Clark (Fr., W, Elbe, Wash.) – tied career highs in 3-pt field goals (3) and blocked shots (1) vs. Whitman

Jessica Baynes (Fr., P, Joseph, Ore.) – scored first 2 points on first field goal and tied high in field goal attempts (1) vs. Whitman

 Bruins Suffer First Two-Game Losing Streak in Almost Three Years:

It was a "lost weekend" for the George Fox women's basketball team Feb. 8-9 as the Bruins suffered their first two-game losing streak in over three years, falling at Puget Sound 55-44 and at Willamette 53-51. The last two-game skid for the Bruins was Dec. 1 and 4, 1998, when they dropped home games to Western Baptist 67-51 and Pacific Lutheran 70-64. In between the two, the Bruins posted a record of 82-12 (.872) and had three different 11-game winning streaks!

 Cave Ties Bruin Record for Single-Game Field Goal Pct.:

Darby Cave tied a Bruin record for single-game field goal pct. when she went 6-6 (1.000) from the floor in an 85-56 George Fox win over Lewis & Clark on Jan. 26. She tied a mark set by former All-American Katie Lacey, who was 6-6 in the season opener last year at Cascade in Portland on Nov. 21, 2000.

 Bruins Have Four NWC "Player of the Week" Honors This Season:

Two George Fox players had earned four Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" awards this season. Heather Doud has won NWC "Player of the Week" three times (Nov. 18-24, Dec. 10-23, and Jan. 21-27), and Darby Cave has received the honor once (Jan. 28-Feb. 3).

 Barram Lost for Season with Torn Meniscus:

Jill Barram, who missed the first month of the women's basketball season due to damage to the ACL in her right knee incurred in pre-season practice, was lost to the team for the rest of the season after suffering a torn meniscus and strained ligaments in the knee diving for a ball in the Bruins' 69-57 win at Whitman on Jan. 19. Surgery is pending. She could apply for a medical red-shirt year with the NCAA if she desires to go to graduate school and still play, but if not, her four-year career with the Bruins will come to a close with a total of 371 points (4.7 ppg), 129 rebounds (1.6 rpg), 135 assists (1.7 apg), and 54 steals (0.68) in 79 games.

 Bruins Tie Record with 11 Straight Wins while Setting Mark for Best Start Ever

This year's George Fox Bruins opened the season with 11 straight wins before suffering their first setback of the season, a 51-45 loss at Pacific Lutheran on Jan. 5. The 11-0 start surpassed the 9-0 mark by last year's Bruins. The 11 wins in a row also equaled previous record 11-game streaks by the 1999-2000 and 2000-01 teams.

 Bruins in NCAA Stats (thru Feb. 11):

2/15 – GEORGE FOX 69, WHITMAN 31: Bruins Return to Winning Ways with Rout of Missionaries

NEWBERG, Ore. – Putting a quick end to their short two-game losing streak, the George Fox University Bruins jumped ahead of the Whitman College Missionaries 9-0 to start the game and went on to a 69-31 victory in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night (Feb. 15) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The win was a crucial one for the Bruins as they seek to secure a spot in the NWC Tournament next week. George Fox entered the game tied for second with Whitworth College and a game ahead of 4th-place University of Puget Sound. If the Bruins can defeat Whitworth Saturday in their Homecoming game, they would nail down the No. 2 seed in the tournament and host either Whitworth or Puget Sound next Thursday (Feb. 21) at 7:00 p.m. The winner of that game would take on conference champion Pacific Lutheran University Saturday (Feb. 23) in Tacoma.

Whitman made a brief run at George Fox in the first half, closing within four at 11-7 with 12:26 left in the half, but the Bruins then went on a 19-1 run over the next eight minutes to effectively salt the game away. The Bruins led 37-14 at the half after shooting .552 (16-29) in the half, holding the Missionaries to .190 (4-21), and forcing 17 turnovers. The Bruins never led by less than 20 points in the second half, and led by as many as 38 twice, including the final score.

In a statistical oddity, the Bruins shot exactly .500 on total field goals (29-58), three-point field goals (7-14), and free throws (4-8). Whitman finished with a mark of .250 (12-48) from the field in the game and committed 34 turnovers.

Liz Clark led all scorers with 13 points for George Fox, while Becky Thompson recorded a double-double with 11 points, all in the first half, and 10 assists. Clark, Darby Cave, Sarah Myhre, and Emily Ruggles all had 5 rebounds apiece as the Bruins controlled the backboards, 36-33.

Whitman had no one in double figures, Ashley Wright and Lindsey Gehrig scoring 6 each. Wright had a game-high 7 rebounds.

The Bruins, ranked 29th in the D3hoops.com poll and 21st in the WBCA poll, are now 20-4, their third straight season to reach 20 wins or more, and 11-4 in the conference. The Missionaries dropped to 7-16 overall and 3-12 in league play.

2/16 – WHITWORTH 69, GEORGE FOX 67: Pirates Drop Bruins to 3rd in NWC, Set Up Rematch in Spokane

NEWBERG, Ore. – Dana Bielec's backdoor layup with 2.7 seconds left gave the Whitworth College Pirates a hard-fought 69-67 win over the George Fox University Bruins, breaking a deadlock for second place and giving the Pirates the home-court advantage for the Northwest Conference women's basketball tournament semi-final game, Friday night (Feb. 16) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

With the win, Whitworth finishes the regular season at 17-8 overall and 12-4 in league play, two games behind conference champion Pacific Lutheran University. George Fox drops to 20-5 overall and 11-5 in the conference, into a tie for third with the University of Puget Sound, a 60-58 winner over Willamette University. However, the Bruins have the tiebreaker by virtue of splitting with UPS and PLU, while UPS lost twice to the Lutes. The Bruins, therefore, will travel to Spokane Thursday, Feb. 21, for a rematch with Whitworth. The winner will go to PLU Saturday at 7:00 p.m.

Whitworth jumped on top 4-0 to start the game on a basket by Chrissy Oneal and two free throws by Tiffany Speer, but with Darby Cave scoring 9 points on four buckets and a free throw, the Bruins went on a 15-6 run to take the largest lead of the half, 15-10, with 14:15 left. The rest of the period was a nip-and-tuck affair, with seven ties and five lead changes. Erica Ewart's jumper broke the last tie with 1:19 left and gave the Pirates a 36-34 halftime advantage.

Speer and Sarah Shogren had 9 points each to lead the Pirates in the half, while Cave had 12 and Heather Doud 10 for the Bruins.

The second half was just as close, the biggest lead either team holding being a six-point advantage for the Bruins, 59-53, with 7:03 left after a layup by Cave. But the Pirates refused to quit, and Oneal scored back-to-back layups at 1:39 and 0:41 to give Whitworth a 67-66 lead.

Nicole Prazeau hit the first of two free throws with 0:27 left to tie it, but the Pirates rebounded the miss, brought the ball down, and called a time out with 0:14 left. The Pirates then worked the ball into the right corner where the Bruins swarmed in, but Bielec was left alone under the basket and made an easy layup for the winner.

George Fox worked the ball down quickly and got it to Prazeau for a clear 15-foot jumper on the right baseline, but the potential tying shot went in and out as the horn sounded.

Speer and Oneal scored 17 to lead the Pirates, Shogren added 12, and Ewart chipped in with 10. Speer, Oneal, and Shogren all grabbed 10 rebounds apiece as the Bruins were outrebounded by the widest margin all season, 49-37. Ewart handed out 8 assists. The Pirates also helped themselves at the line, hitting 17-21 (.810) while the Bruins cashed in only 14-24 (.583).

Cave paced the Bruins with 17 points, Doud added 14, and Prazeau tallied 12. Cave had 8 rebounds to top the Bruins on the boards. Prazeau and Doud had 4 assists each, and Becky Thompson had 4 steals.

2/16 – WHITWORTH 69, GEORGE FOX 67: Pirates Drop Bruins to 3rd in NWC, Set Up Rematch in Spokane

NEWBERG, Ore. — Tiffany Speer's backdoor layup with 2.7 seconds left gave the Whitworth College Pirates a hard-fought 69-67 win over the George Fox University Bruins, breaking a deadlock for second place and giving the Pirates the home-court advantage for the Northwest Conference women's basketball tournament semi-final game, Friday night (Feb. 16) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

With the win, Whitworth finishes the regular season at 17-8 overall and 12-4 in league play, two games behind conference champion Pacific Lutheran University. George Fox drops to 20-5 overall and 11-5 in the conference, into a tie for third with the University of Puget Sound, a 60-58 winner over Willamette University. However, the Bruins have the tiebreaker by virtue of splitting with UPS and PLU, while UPS lost twice to the Lutes. The Bruins, therefore, will travel to Spokane Thursday, Feb. 21, for a rematch with Whitworth. The winner will go to PLU Saturday at 7:00 p.m.

Whitworth jumped on top 4-0 to start the game on a basket by Chrissy Oneal and two free throws by Tiffany Speer, but with Darby Cave scoring 9 points on four buckets and a free throw, the Bruins went on a 15-6 run to take the largest lead of the half, 15-10, with 14:15 left. The rest of the period was a nip-and-tuck affair, with seven ties and five lead changes. Erica Ewart's jumper broke the last tie with 1:19 left and gave the Pirates a 36-34 halftime advantage.

Speer and Sarah Shogren had 9 points each to lead the Pirates in the half, while Cave had 12 and Heather Doud 10 for the Bruins.

The second half was just as close, the biggest lead either team holding being a six-point advantage for the Bruins, 59-53, with 7:03 left after a layup by Cave. But the Pirates refused to quit, and Oneal scored back-to-back layups at 1:39 and 0:41 to give Whitworth a 67-66 lead.

Nicole Prazeau hit the first of two free throws with 0:27 left to tie it, but the Pirates rebounded the miss, brought the ball down, and called a time out with 0:14 left. The Pirates then worked the ball into the right corner where the Bruins swarmed in, but Speer was left alone under the basket and made an easy layup for the winner.

George Fox worked the ball down quickly and got it to Prazeau for a clear 15-foot jumper on the right baseline, but the potential tying shot went in and out as the horn sounded.

Speer and Oneal scored 17 to lead the Pirates, Shogren added 12, and Ewart chipped in with 10. Speer, Oneal, and Shogren all grabbed 10 rebounds apiece as the Bruins were outrebounded by the widest margin all season, 49-37. Ewart handed out 8 assists. The Pirates also helped themselves at the line, hitting 17-21 (.810) while the Bruins cashed in only 14-24 (.583).

Cave paced the Bruins with 17 points, Doud added 14, and Prazeau tallied 12. Cave had 8 rebounds to top the Bruins on the boards. Prazeau and Doud had 4 assists each, and Becky Thompson had 4 steals.

A Northwest Conference Tournament berth is on the line! Tonight's winner takes 2nd and hosts the semi-final tournament game Thursday, Feb. 21, at 7:00 p.m. The loser ties for the 3rd and final playoff spot with Puget Sound (assuming UPS wins at home vs. Willamette). If the Bruins lose and tie with UPS, the two split, but George Fox gets the tiebreaker by virtue of a split with NWC champ Pacific Lutheran. If the Pirates lose and tie with UPS, the Loggers get the 3rd spot because they swept the series, and Whitworth goes home. If UPS loses tonight, both George Fox and Whitworth are in, and tonight's game is to see who hosts. The Bruins routed Whitman last night 69-31 as Becky Thompson had a double-double (11 points, 10 assists), while the Pirates led from start to finish and Sarah Shogren scored 26 points in a 79-53 romp at Pacific.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Pirates 10-5, but dropped their last meeting 74-64 in Spokane on Jan. 18 ... Whitworth is 2nd in the NWC to the Bruins in 3-pointers per game (5.00) ... The Pirates are 3rd in scoring (66.0), 6th in defense (61.0), and 3rd in rebounding (38.3) ... Erica Ewart is 2nd in scoring (16.0), 3rd in 3-pt field goals (1.70), and 7th in assists (3.17).

2/15 – GEORGE FOX 69, WHITMAN 31: Bruins Return to Winning Ways with Rout of Missionaries

NEWBERG, Ore. – Putting a quick end to their short two-game losing streak, the George Fox University Bruins jumped ahead of the Whitman College Missionaries 9-0 to start the game and went on to a 69-31 victory in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night (Feb. 15) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The win was a crucial one for the Bruins as they seek to secure a spot in the NWC Tournament next week. George Fox entered the game tied for second with Whitworth College and a game ahead of 4th-place University of Puget Sound. If the Bruins can defeat Whitworth Saturday in their Homecoming game, they would nail down the No. 2 seed in the tournament and host either Whitworth or Puget Sound next Thursday (Feb. 21) at 7:00 p.m. The winner of that game would take on conference champion Pacific Lutheran University Saturday (Feb. 23) in Tacoma.

Whitman made a brief run at George Fox in the first half, closing within four at 11-7 with 12:26 left in the half, but the Bruins then went on a 19-1 run over the next eight minutes to effectively salt the game away. The Bruins led 37-14 at the half after shooting .552 (16-29) in the half, holding the Missionaries to .190 (4-21), and forcing 17 turnovers. The Bruins never led by less than 20 points in the second half, and led by as many as 38 twice, including the final score.

In a statistical oddity, the Bruins shot exactly .500 on total field goals (29-58), three-point field goals (7-14), and free throws (4-8). Whitman finished with a mark of .250 (12-48) from the field in the game and committed 34 turnovers.

Liz Clark led all scorers with 13 points for George Fox, while Becky Thompson recorded a double-double with 11 points, all in the first half, and 10 assists. Clark, Darby Cave, Sarah Myhre, and Emily Ruggles all had 5 rebounds apiece as the Bruins controlled the backboards, 36-33.

Whitman had no one in double figures, Ashley Wright and Lindsey Gehrig scoring 6 each. Wright had a game-high 7 rebounds.

The Bruins, ranked 29th in the D3hoops.com poll and 21st in the WBCA poll, are now 20-4, their third straight season to reach 20 wins or more, and 11-4 in the conference. The Missionaries dropped to 7-16 overall and 3-12 in league play.

George Fox and Whitworth square off at 6:00 p.m., as do Whitman and Pacific University Saturday in Forest Grove.

A critical weekend faces the Bruins as they celebrate Homecoming on campus, and they hold the keys to their destiny in their own hands. A berth in the Northwest Conference Tournament and a shot at the NWC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament are on the line tonight against Whitman and tomorrow against Whitworth. Two wins would give the Bruins the No. 2 seed and a home game next Thursday, but they cannot take the Missionaries lightly; after all, Whitman is the only other team besides George Fox to knock off conference champ Pacific Lutheran. Sunny Gulberg is the fuel in the Missionaries' machine, having gone over 1,000 points in her career and setting the Whitman all-time record for 3-pointers; she had 30 in their previous meeting this season.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Missionaries 13-2 after taking a 69-57 decision in Walla Walla on Jan. 19 ... The Bruins have won the last 12 meetings ... Whitman's last win was 58-50 on Jan. 19, 1996, in Newberg ... Whitman is 9th in the NWC in scoring (52.3), 3rd in defense (55.7), and 4th in rebounding (37.0) ... Sunny Gulberg ranks 4th in scoring (14.9), 1st in 3-pt FG (2.23), and 5th in assists (3.32).

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State '91) notched his 100th career win when the Bruins defeated Northwest 78-68 on Saturday, Dec. 1, in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic in Tacoma, Wash. He is 114-37 (.755) in his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. Against this week's opponents, he is 11-0 vs. Whitman (5-0 in Newberg, 6-0 in Walla Walla), and 7-4 vs. Whitworth (5-0 in Newberg, 2-4 in Spokane).

BRUIN BITS:

 One Week Left with Post-Season Play on the Line for Bruins:

With one week and two games left in the regular season, the George Fox Bruins are gearing up for a final assault on post-season play – and the possibilities are seemingly endless.

As far as the Northwest Conference is concerned, the only certainty is that Pacific Lutheran will host the championship game of the NWC Tournament on Saturday, Feb. 23. PLU has clinched at least a tie for the conference title, and none of the three teams that could possibly catch the Lutes – George Fox, Puget Sound, or Whitworth – would have the tie-breaker against them.

With GFU, UPS, and Whitworth all at four losses apiece, this final week will be filled with drama as they battle for the two remaining tournament spots and the right to host the semi-final game on Thursday, Feb. 21 (not Wednesday, Feb. 20, as posted on some schedules). UPS has three left at home vs. PLU, Linfield, and Willamette, Whitworth goes to Pacific and George Fox, and the Bruins host Whitman and Whitworth.

The Bruins can secure second and the home-court advantage by sweeping Whitman and Whitworth during Homecoming weekend and having Puget Sound drop one of its three remaining games. If the Bruins and Loggers win out, Whitworth is eliminated and UPS gets the tie-breaker, because both would have split with #1 PLU but UPS would be 2-0 vs. #4 Whitworth while the Bruins split with the Pirates.

Whitworth and George Fox can tie if the Bruins lose to Whitman and then beat the Pirates on Saturday, or if Whitworth loses Friday at Pacific and then beats George Fox. If the former were to happen, the tie-breaker would go to the Bruins by virtue of their split with #1 PLU while the Pirates lost twice to the Lutes. If the latter happens, Whitworth gets the tiebreaker with two wins over the Bruins.

Then throw in the possibility that UPS might win two out of three, and there could be a three-way tie for second! If there is a three-way tie with GFU beating Whitworth, then UPS is 3-1 vs. GFU and Whitworth, GFU 2-2 vs. the other two, and Whitworth 1-2 and out. If there is a three-way tie with Whitworth beating George Fox, then UPS is 3-1, Whitworth is 2-2, and GFU is 1-3 against each other.

Then there are the NCAA Division III National Championships, which begin on Thursday, March 28. The NWC Tournament winner gets the automatic bid, and an at-large bid for the loser is problematic at best, given the past history of NCAA selections. There are 50 spots in the NCAA Tournament – 35 automatic bids to conference champions or conference tournament winners (Pool A), 8 spots for independents and conferences without automatic bids (Pool B), and 7 spots for conference runner-ups (Pool C). If the Bruins win the NWC Tournament, they are in, of course – but if they were to lose in the title game and finish 22-5, would they get in? Who knows?

Yes, this week is BIG! Let the fun begin – take it one game at a time and see what happens!

 Bruins 17th, 12th in National Polls, 3rd in West Region:

An important win over Northwest Conference co-leader Pacific Lutheran on Feb. 1 provided a lift for the George Fox Bruins to 17th and 12th in the two national polls and to 3rd in the West Region in releases of Feb. 5.

In the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 poll conducted by D3hoops.com, the Bruins, 19-2 at the time, jumped from 21st to 17th, receiving 238 points. In the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll conducted by the Women's Basketball Coaches of America, the Bruins were up one spot to 12th with 110 points.

Pacific Lutheran was the only other NWC team in the polls, with 54 points for 27th in the D3hoop poll, and 44 points for 20th in the WBCA poll.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion and one of only two remaining unbeaten (No. 2 Hardin-Simmons is the other), remained on top of both polls, the 9th straight week atop the D3hoops rankings. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every D3hoops poll but two – and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

In the NCAA Division III West Region rankings, the Bruins also jumped four spots to 3rd, while PLU dropped from 5th to 6th. The NCAA regional committee, which selects teams according to records against regional competition only, have Wartburg (12-2) 1st, St. Benedict (17-3) 2nd, George Fox (10-2) 3rd, Chapman (11-1) 4th, Carleton (15-3) 5th, Pacific Lutheran (9-2) 6th, St. Thomas (15-3) 7th, and Luther (12-4) 8th.

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country, and is published weekly. Previous Top 25 results and the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls can be found at www.d3hoops.com

The USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III Top 25 Coaches Poll is voted on by a panel of 8 NCAA Division III coaches who represent all regions in the United States. Their polls can be found at www.wbca.org.

 Bruins Suffer First Two-Game Losing Streak in Almost Three Years:

It was a "lost weekend" for the George Fox women's basketball team Feb. 8-9 as the Bruins suffered their first two-game losing streak in almost three years, falling at Puget Sound 55-44 and at Willamette 53-51. The last two-game skid for the Bruins was Dec. 1 and 4, 1998, when they dropped home games to Western Baptist 67-51 and Pacific Lutheran 70-64. In between the two, the Bruins posted a record of 82-12 (.872) and had three different 11-game winning streaks!

 On the All-Time Lists:

Nicole Prazneau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) became only the 8th player in George Fox women's basketball history to reach 1,000 points for a career when she scored her 6th point in the Bruins' game at Whitworth on Jan. 18. With 16 points in two games this past week, she now has 1,095 career points, ranking 7th on the all-time scoring list. In 6th place is Liz Stephens (1,197). She had 2 assists during the week for 175 in her career, 10th all-time. In 9th is Jennifer Bearse (184). She also had 2 steals for 126 career steals, and needs 5 to pass Katie Lacey (130) for 10th on the steals list ...

Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) had 8 assists and 7 steals in two games last week, holding 3rd in career assists (381) and 2nd on the all-time steals list (227). She will not catch the No. 2 assists leader, Linda Funderhide (538), but could possibly catch the leader in steals, also Funderhide (243).

 New Personal Highs:

Heather Doud – now has 1,337 career points (first 740 in two years at Biola) and 727 rebounds (399 at Biola)

Darby Cave – tied career high in free throw pct. (1.000, 3-3) at Willamette

Amy Fitch (So., W, Ritzville, Wash.) – set new career high in 3-pt field goal attempts (6) at Willamette

Emily Ruggles (Jr., W, Eugene, Ore.) – set new high in field goal pct. (.600, 3-5) and tied career high in field goals (3), 3-pt field goals (1), assists (2), and blocked shots (1) at Willamette

 Newcomers Making Marks:

Liz Clark (Fr., W, Elbe, Wash.) – set new high in 3-pt field goal attempts (8) and tied highs in field goal attempts (11) and minutes (27) at Willamette

Sarah Myhre (Fr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) – set new highs in field goal pct. (.833) and steals (2), tied marks in field goals (5) and points (11) while leading team in scoring for the first time at Willamette

Melissa Alexander (Fr., PG, Portland, Ore.) – set new marks in free throws and attempts (5-6) at Willamette

 Cave Ties Bruin Record for Single-Game Field Goal Pct.:

Darby Cave tied a Bruin record for single-game field goal pct. when she went 6-6 (1.000) from the floor in an 85-56 George Fox win over Lewis & Clark on Jan. 26. She tied a mark set by former All-American Katie Lacey, who was 6-6 in the season opener last year at Cascade in Portland on Nov. 21, 2000.

 Bruins Have Four NWC "Player of the Week" Honors This Season:

Two George Fox players had earned four Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" awards this season. Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) has won NWC "Player of the Week" three times (Nov. 18-24, Dec. 10-23, and Jan. 21-27), and Darby Cave (So. P, Portland, Ore.) has received the honor once (Jan. 28-Feb. 3).

 Barram Lost for Season with Torn Meniscus:

Jill Barram (Sr., PG, Salem, Ore.), who missed the first month of the women's basketball season due to damage to the ACL in her right knee incurred in pre-season practice, was lost to the team for the rest of the season after suffering a torn meniscus and strained ligaments in the knee diving for a ball in the Bruins' 69-57 win at Whitman on Jan. 19. She is expected to have surgery on the knee some time in the next month. She could apply for a medical red-shirt year with the NCAA if she desires to go to graduate school and still play, but if not, her four-year career with the Bruins will come to a close with a total of 371 points (4.7 ppg), 129 rebounds (1.6 rpg), 135 assists (1.7 apg), and 54 steals (0.68) in 79 games.

 Bruins Tie Record with 11 Straight Wins while Setting Mark for Best Start Ever

This year's George Fox Bruins opened the season with 11 straight wins before suffering their first setback of the season, a 51-45 loss at Pacific Lutheran on Jan. 5. The 11-0 start surpassed the 9-0 mark by last year's Bruins. The 11 wins in a row also equaled previous record 11-game streaks by the 1999-2000 and 2000-01 teams.

2/8 – PUGET SOUND 55, GEORGE FOX 44: Bruins Felled by Loggers as Offense Disappears

TACOMA, Wash. – Unable to find the basket with any consistency after taking an early 16-11 lead, the George Fox University Bruins were knocked from the top spot in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race by the University of Puget Sound Loggers, who posted a 55-44 win over the 17th-ranked Bruins Friday night (Feb. 8) here at Memorial Fieldhouse.

With Nicole Prazeau scoring 10 points in the first 11 minutes, including a pair of three-pointers, the Bruins never trailed in taking a 16-11 lead with 8:39 to play in the first half. But the Loggers caught fire while the Bruins went stone-cold, going on a 23-7 run over the remainder of the period to take a 34-23 lead into the break. UPS's Lindsay May scored six of her 10 first-half points to spark the Loggers during that stretch. George Fox shot only .333 in the half (9-27).

After scoring the first two points of the second half on a layup by Heather Doud to make it 34-25, the Bruins went over six-and-a-half minutes without scoring again, but the George Fox defense held the Loggers in check as well. Puget Sound did not score in the half until May hit a layup with 14:36 to play. But despite holding UPS to only 6-20 (.300) shooting in the half, the Bruins were never able to make a serious run at the Loggers because they hit only 10-29 (.345) themselves.

Down 42-29 with 11:10 to play, the Bruins mounted their only threat as Prazeau hit back-to-back jumpers and Liz Clark sank a three, cutting the UPS lead to 42-36 with 8:51 left. But May hit a pair of free throws, Lucy Wilson canned a trey, and Courtney Leybold banked in a 20-footer as the shot clock went off, giving UPS a 49-36 lead with 6:57 left, and the Bruins got no closer than nine the rest of the way. The 44 points scored by the Bruins was their lowest output of the season.

Prazeau finished with 14 points, the only Bruin in double figures, Doud grabbed 12 rebounds, and Becky Thompson had 4 assists and 3 steals. In addition to shooting only .339 (19-56) for the game, the Bruins struggled at the line, making only 2-8 (.250) on free throws., while UPS drained 16-20 (.800) from the charity stripe.

May had 17 for UPS to lead all scorers, Julie Vanni added 13, and Wilson scored 10. Vanni just missed a double-double with 9 rebounds as the Loggers edged the Bruins on the boards, 38-37.

George Fox had its five-game winning streak snapped, dropping to 19-3 overall and 10-3 in the conference. With Pacific Lutheran University winning 60-49 at Willamette University, the Bruins fell a game off the pace set by the Lutes. Puget Sound improved to 16-5 overall and 8-4 in the league, claiming a crucial win in a bid for a spot in the NWC Tournament.

2/9 – WILLAMETTE 53, GEORGE FOX 51: Bearcats Blitz Bruins in Stunning Second-Half Comeback

SALEM, Ore. – For the first time in almost three years, the George Fox University women's basketball has dropped two games in a row as the Bruins once again struggled offensively and suffered a heart-breaking 53-51 upset at the hands of the Willamette University Bearcats in Northwest Conference action Saturday night (Feb. 9) here at the Cone Fieldhouse.

Both teams had trouble getting the ball in the hoop in the early going, Willamette managing an 8-2 lead eight minutes into the game. Bruin coach Scott Rueck then decided to go with his "team of the future", pulling starting seniors Becky Thompson at point, Nicole Prazeau at wing, and Heather Doud at post in favor of freshmen Melissa Alexander, Liz Clark, and Sarah Myhre. The newcomers sparked a 14-2 run that gave George Fox a 16-10 lead, and the Bruins eventually stretched that to 32-18 at the half.

The Bruin starters still struggled offensively as the second half began, and with Nancy Weyler scoring eight of her game-high 18 points, the Bearcats reeled off a 10-0 run to get within four at 32-28. The Bruins upped it back to 10 with 13:26 left on a layup by Emily Ruggles, but then went cold again, missing 12 shots and committing seven turnovers as Willamette posted an 18-1 run to go up 50-43 with five minutes left. Doud's jumper with 1:08 left got George Fox within one at 52-51.

Down 53-51 after a Simmie Muth free throw, the Bruins had a chance to tie as Thompson drove the lane, but Muth fouled her with 1.4 seconds left. As it was only the sixth Willamette foul, the Bruins had to take the ball out under the basket. Thompson's in-bounds pass sailed untouched to the opposite end of the court, however, and the Bearcats got the ball. Muth was fouled with a tenth of a second left and missed her free throw, but time ran out before the Bruins could heave a full-court shot.

Myhre was the only Bruin in double figures with 11 points, hitting 5-6 from the floor, while Doud and Clark led the Bruins to a 39-38 rebound edge with 7 boards apiece. Thompson had 4 assists and 4 steals. However, the Bruins suffered through a horrendous shooting night, finishing 18-59 (.305) from the field, and were only 7-28 (.250) in the second half. From three-point range, the normally-accurate Bruins (NWC leaders and ranked 28th nationally in percentage) this night made only 3-25 (.120) from behind the line.

In addition to Weyler's 18, Muth scored 15 and Kasey Sorenson 11. Rosie Contri grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds, and Sorenson had 6 assists. The Bearcats shot .400 (20-50) in the game, including .522 (12-23) in the second half.

George Fox fell to 19-4 overall and 10-4 in the conference while suffering its first two-game losing streak since Dec. 1 and 4, 1998. Willamette improved to 10-13 overall and 5-9 in the league

2/9 - WILLAMETTE 53, GEORGE FOX 51: Bearcats Blitz Bruins in Stunning Second-Half Comeback

SALEM, Ore. - For the first time in almost three years, the George Fox University women's basketball has dropped two games in a row as the Bruins once again struggled offensively and suffered a heart-breaking 53-51 upset at the hands of the Willamette University Bearcats in Northwest Conference action Saturday night (Feb. 9) here at the Cone Fieldhouse.

Both teams had trouble getting the ball in the hoop in the early going, Willamette managing an 8-2 lead eight minutes into the game. Bruin coach Scott Rueck then decided to go with his "team of the future", pulling starting seniors Becky Thompson at point, Nicole Prazneau at wing, and Heather Doud at post in favor of freshmen Melissa Alexander, Liz Clark, and Sarah Myhre. The newcomers sparked a 14-2 run that gave George Fox a 16-10 lead, and the Bruins eventually stretched that to 32-18 at the half.

The Bruin starters still struggled offensively as the second half began, and with Nancy Weyler scoring eight of her game-high 18 points, the Bearcats reeled off a 10-0 run to get within four at 32-28. The Bruins upped it back to 10 with 13:26 left on a layup by Emily Ruggles, but then went cold again, missing 12 shots and committing seven turnovers as Willamette posted an 18-1 run to go up 50-43 with five minutes left. Heather Doud's jumper with 1:08 left got George Fox within one at 52-51.

Down 53-51 after a Simmie Muth free throw, the Bruins had a chance to tie as Thompson drove the lane, but Muth fouled her with 1.4 seconds left. As it was only the sixth Willamette foul, the Bruins had to take the ball out under the basket. Thompson's in-bounds pass sailed untouched to the opposite end of the court, however, and the Bearcats got the ball. Muth was fouled with a tenth of a second left and missed her free throw, but time ran out before the Bruins could heave a full-court shot.

Myhre was the only Bruin in double figures with 11 points, hitting 5-6 from the floor, while Doud and Clark led the Bruins to a 39-38 rebound edge with 7 boards apiece. Thompson had 4 assists and 4 steals. However, the Bruins suffered through a horrendous shooting night, finishing 18-59 (.305) from the field, and were only 7-28 (.250) in the second half. From three-point range, the normally-accurate Bruins (NWC leaders and ranked 28th nationally in percentage) this night made only 3-25 (.120) from behind the line.

In addition to Weyler's 18, Muth scored 15 and Kasey Sorenson 11. Rosie Contri grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds, and Sorenson had 6 assists. The Bearcats shot .400 (20-50) in the game, including .522 (12-23) in the second half.

George Fox fell to 19-4 overall and 10-4 in the conference while suffering its first two-game losing streak since Dec. 1 and 4, 1998. Willamette improved to 10-13 overall and 5-9 in the league.

The Bruins will try to turn things around during their Homecoming weekend, starting with Whitman College Friday (Feb. 15) at 6:00 p.m. The Bearcats visit Lewis & Clark College Tuesday (Feb. 12) at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's games at 8:00 p.m.

2/8 - PUGET SOUND 55, GEORGE FOX 44: Bruins Felled by Loggers as Offense Disappears

TACOMA, Wash. - Unable to find the basket with any consistency after taking an early 16-11 lead, the George Fox University Bruins were knocked from the top spot in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race by the University of Puget Sound Loggers, who posted a 55-44 win over the 17th-ranked Bruins Friday night (Feb. 8) here at Memorial Fieldhouse.

With Nicole Prazeau scoring 10 points in the first 11 minutes, including a pair of three-pointers, the Bruins never trailed in taking a 16-11 lead with 8:39 to play in the first half. But the Loggers caught fire while the Bruins went stone-cold, going on a 23-7 run over the remainder of the period to take a 34-23 lead into the break. UPS's Lindsay May scored six of her 10 first-half points to spark the Loggers during that stretch. George Fox shot only .333 in the half (9-27).

After scoring the first two points of the second half on a layup by Heather Doud to make it 34-25, the Bruins went over six-and-a-half minutes without scoring again, but the George Fox defense held the Loggers in check as well. Puget Sound did not score in the half until May hit a layup with 14:36 to play. But despite holding UPS to only 6-20 (.300) shooting in the half, the Bruins were never able to make a serious run at the Loggers because they hit only 10-29 (.345) themselves.

Down 42-29 with 11:10 to play, the Bruins mounted their only threat as Prazeau hit back-to-back jumpers and Liz Clark sank a three, cutting the UPS lead to 42-36 with 8:51 left. But May hit a pair of free throws, Lucy Wilson canned a trey, and Courtney Leybold banked in a 20-footer as the shot clock went off, giving UPS a 49-36 lead with 6:57 left, and the Bruins got no closer than nine the rest of the way. The 44 points scored by the Bruins was their lowest output of the season.

Prazeau finished with 14 points, the only Bruin in double figures, Doud grabbed 12 rebounds, and Becky Thompson had 4 assists and 3 steals. In addition to shooting only .339 (19-56) for the game, the Bruins struggled at the line, making only 2-8 (.250) on free throws., while UPS drained 16-20 (.800) from the charity stripe.

May had 17 for UPS to lead all scorers, Julie Vanni added 13, and Wilson scored 10. Vanni just missed a double-double with 9 rebounds as the Loggers edged the Bruins on the boards, 38-37.

George Fox had its five-game winning streak snapped, dropping to 19-3 overall and 10-3 in the conference. With Pacific Lutheran University winning 60-49 at Willamette University, the Bruins fell a game off the pace set by the Lutes. Puget Sound improved to 16-5 overall and 8-4 in the league, claiming a crucial win in a bid for a spot in the NWC Tournament.

The Bruins continue their road trip Saturday (Feb. 9) at Willamette in Salem, while the Loggers are in Portland Saturday to play Lewis & Clark College. Both games are at 6:00 p.m., followed by men's games at 8:00 p.m.

University of Puget Sound AthleticsWOMEN'S Basketball*Media Release 02.08.02Robin Hamilton • Sports Relations Director • rhamilton@ups.edu 253.230.1974<http://www.ups.edu/athletics>UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND VS. GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY*MEMORIAL FIELDHOUSE - TACOMA, WASH - NORTHWEST CONFERENCE*LOGGERS DOWN BRUINS TO STAY IN PLAYOFF HUNT

The Puget Sound Loggers used stingy defensive play and road the offensive performance of freshman Lindsay May to hold off the Northwest Conference leading Bruins of George Fox University 55-44 Friday night at Memorial Fieldhouse.

The Bruins, ranked 12th in the WBCA ESPN/USA Today poll, had won six straight over the Loggers dating back to January of 1998. The Loggers remain undefeated on their home hardwoods at 8-0 but most importantly remain in the race for one of three Northwest Conference playoff spots.

May scored 10 of her 17 points in the first stanza as the Logger defense forced 10 turnovers and held the Bruins to 33% from the floor and raced to a 34-23 halftime advantage. The Loggers trailed by as many as 6 points to start the contest but took the lead for good a 19-18 with 4:44 to go in the first half. The Bruins got as close at 6 points at 8:51 in the second half when Liz Clark nailed a three-pointer. Puget Sound held the lead throughout the second and extended the margin to as many as 13 points with 6:50 remaining. The Bruins Darby Cave hit a bucket with 5:50 to go to pull to 49-40 but the Loggers were solid at the free throw line down the stretch hitting on five of six from the charity stripe.

The Loggers had three players in double figures led by May with 17 points and 8 rebounds while Julie Vanni who was slowed by three first-half fouls, hit for 13 points and pulled down 9 rebounds. Lucy Wilson added 10 points for the Loggers who shot 37% from the floor and 80% from the line. The Bruins were led by Nicole Prazeau with 14 points and Liz Clark added 9 points. Heather Doud was outstanding on the boards with 12 rebounds and contributed 8 points. The Bruins were 19-56 (34%) from the floor and just 2-8 (25%) from the line. The Loggers won the battle of the boards by a slim 38-37 margin.

Puget Sound, 16-5 overall and 8-4 in league play, travels to Lewis & Clark on Saturday night for another NWC affair while the Bruins (19-3 and 10-3) travel to face the Willamette Bearcats.

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State '91) notched his 100th career win when the Bruins defeated Northwest 78-68 on Saturday, Dec. 1, in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic in Tacoma, Wash. He is 114-35 (.765) in his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. Against this week's opponents, he is 8-4 vs. Puget Sound (6-0 in Newberg, 2-4 in Tacoma), and 9-2 vs. Willamette (6-0 in Newberg, 3-2 in Salem).

BRUIN BITS:

 Cave Earns NWC "Player of the Week" Honors for First Time:

Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore.) had two big games as the Bruins defeated Pacific 72-58 Tuesday and Pacific Lutheran 62-55 Saturday to move into first in the Northwest Conference this week, earning her first NWC "Player of the Week" award for Jan. 28-Feb. 3. At Pacific, she scored 18 points on 8-14 from the field and 2-3 from the line, with a game-high 9 rebounds, 2 assists, and 2 blocked shots. Vs. PLU, she led all scorers with 18 points on 9-15 from the floor, with 6 rebounds, 1 assist, and 1 block. She had 8 of her points as the Bruins took an early 17-7 lead, then scored 6 straight to give GFU a 47-42 lead late in the 2nd half. In 2 games, she scored 36 points (18.0) on 17-29 from the field (.586) and 2-3 from the line (.667), with 15 rebounds (7.5), 3 assists (1.5), and 3 blocked shots (1.5).

The Bruins' Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) has won NWC "Player of the Week" three times this season: Nov. 18-24, Dec. 10-23, and Jan. 21-27.

 Bruins 21st in D3hoops Poll, 7th in West Region:

Despite sweeping Linfield and Lewis & Clark last weekend, the George Fox University Bruins advanced only one spot to 21st in the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 poll of Jan. 29 conducted by D3hoops.com, perhaps because there were very few upsets of higher-ranked teams during the week. The USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Top 25 poll conducted by the Women's Basketball Coaches of America was not available.

George Fox received 189 points for 21st in the D3hoops poll after having 145 for 22nd the week before. Pacific Lutheran, 14-2 at the time of the poll, was the only other Northwest Conference team in the poll, with 114 points for 22nd, up three spots.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top of the poll for the 8th straight week. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every D3hoops poll but two - and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

In the NCAA Division III West Region rankings, the Bruins were up one spot to 7th. The NCAA regional committee, which selects teams according to records against regional competition only, have Wartburg (10-2) 1st, St. Benedict (15-2) 2nd, Carleton (13-2) 3rd, St. Thomas (13-2) 4th, Pacific Lutheran (8-1) 5th, Chapman (11-1) 6th, George Fox (6-2) 7th, and Simpson (11-4) 8th.

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country, and is published weekly. Previous Top 25 results and the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls can be found at www.d3hoops.com.

The USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III Top 25 Coaches Poll is voted on by a panel of 8 NCAA Division III coaches who represent all regions in the United States. Their polls can be found at www.wbca.org.

 On the All-Time Lists:

Nicole PrazEAU (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) became only the 8th player in George Fox women's basketball history to reach 1,000 points for a career when she scored her 6th point in the Bruins' game at Whitworth on Jan. 18. With 33 points in two games this past week, she now has 1,079 career points, ranking 7th on the all-time scoring list. In 6th place is Liz Stephens (1,197). She had 5 assists during the week, passing Tabitha Greller (168) for 10th on the assists list. In 9th is Jennifer Bearse (184). With 124 steals, she needs 7 to pass Katie Lacey (130) for 10th on the steals list ...

Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) had 9 assists and 7 steals in two games last week, holding 3rd in career assists (373) and 2nd on the all-time steals list (220). She will not catch the No. 2 assists leader, Linda Funderhide (538), but could possibly catch the leader in steals, also Funderhide (243).

 New Personal Highs:

Heather Doud – tied career high in free throws (7) and set new mark for free throw pct. (1.000, 7-7) at Pacific; now has 1,325 career points (first 740 in two years at Biola) and 708 rebounds (399 at Biola)

Darby Cave – tied career high in field goals (9), blocked shots (2), and minutes (37) vs. Pacific Lutheran

Nicole PrazEAU – set new career high in minutes (43) vs. Pacific Lutheran; tied career highs in 3-pt field goal pct. (.750, 3-4) at Pacific and in free throw attempts (10) vs. Pacific Lutheran

Becky Thompson – set new career high in minutes (42) vs. Pacific Lutheran

Amy Fitch (So., W, Ritzville, Wash.) – set new career high in rebounds (8) and minutes (45) vs. Pacific Lutheran

 Cave Ties Bruin Record for Single-Game Field Goal Pct.:

Darby Cave tied a Bruin record for single-game field goal pct. when she went 6-6 (1.000) from the floor in an 85-56 George Fox win over Lewis & Clark on Jan. 26. She tied a mark set by former All-American Katie Lacey, who was 6-6 in the season opener last year at Cascade in Portland on Nov. 21, 2000.

 Barram Lost for Season with Torn Meniscus:

Jill Barram (Sr., PG, Salem, Ore.), who missed the first month of the women's basketball season due to a strained ligaments in her right knee incurred in pre-season practice, appears lost to the team for the rest of the season after suffering a torn meniscus in the knee diving for a ball in the Bruins' 69-57 win at Whitman on Jan. 19. She was to have further examinations this week, but it seems likely that surgery will be performed on the knee some time in the next month. If so, her four-year career with the Bruins will come to a close with a total of 371 points (4.7 ppg), 129 rebounds (1.6 rpg), 135 assists (1.7 apg), and 54 steals (0.68) in 79 games.

 Bruins Tie Record with 11 Straight Wins while Setting Mark for Best Start Ever

This year's George Fox Bruins opened the season with 11 straight wins before suffering their first setback of the season, a 51-45 loss at Pacific Lutheran on Jan. 5. The 11-0 start surpassed the 9-0 mark by last year's Bruins. The 11 wins in a row also equaled previous record 11-game streaks by the 1999-2000 and 2000-01 teams.

 Bruins in NCAA Stats (thru Jan. 28):

Team – 17th in Rebound Margin (+8.6); 25th in Scoring Margin (+16.2); 23rd in 3-Pt FG (5.6); 11th in 3-Pt FG% (.363); 13th in Won-Lost Pct. (.895, 17-2, tie)

1/29 – GEORGE FOX 72, PACIFIC 58: Bruins Awake for Second-Half Rush Past Boxers

FOREST GROVE, Ore. – Overcoming a sluggish first half that saw them trailing by as many as 10 points at one time, the George Fox University Bruins awoke in time to race past the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Tuesday night (Jan. 29) here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

After forging a 4-4 tie on a Heather Doud layup four minutes into the game, the Bruins went cold, scoring only four points over the next eight minutes and falling behind 16-8. Pacific eventually stretched its lead to 10 at 27-17 on a pair of free throws by Katannya Kapeli with 4:30 left.

Darby Cave then hit three baskets to spark a 13-2 Bruin run, Melissa Alexander capping the rally with two free throws to give George Fox its first lead, 30-29, with 47 second left in the half. However, two freebies by Janna Vavra and a Kapeli jumper with 2 seconds to go put the Boxers back on top at the break, 33-30.

With Pacific ahead by five, 37-32, early in the second half, the Bruins finally got into gear, scoring 12 unanswered points over a four-minute span, capped by a steal and layup by Becky Thompson, to take a 44-37 lead with 14:13 remaining. Pacific rallied to cut the Bruins' lead to one, 48-47, on a three-pointer by Kristine Callan with 9:30 to go, but the Bruins regrouped and went on a 13-2 run to take a double-digit lead at 59-49 with 5:20 left on a Cave free throw. The Boxers got no closer than nine the rest of the way.

Doud led all scorers with her second 22-point game in a row, including 7-7 from the line, Cave tallied 18, and Nicole PrazEAU hit 3 three-pointers en route to 15. Cave had a game-high 9 rebounds, although the Bruins were out-rebounded for one of the few times this season, 32-29. Thompson had 6 assists and 6 steals.

Kapeli scored 17 for the Boxers and Callan chipped in with 16. Kapeli grabbed 5 rebounds and Callan had 4 assists.

Both teams sizzled from the charity stripe, the Bruins hitting 16-18 (.889) and the Boxers 19-24 (.792) after being 14-16 at one point. The Bruins' improvement in ball control was evident in the second half as they made only 4 turnovers after making 12 in the first half.

George Fox is now 18-2 overall after its 4th straight win and 9-2 in the conference. Pacific dropped to 9-9 overall and 5-5 in the league.

2/1 - GEORGE FOX 62, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 55, OT: Bruins Take Over First in NWC with Overtime Win

NEWBERG, Ore. – Becky Thompson scored seven points in overtime, including a three-point play to open the extra period that put George Fox University ahead for good, and the 21st-ranked Bruins went on to a 62-55 win over the 22nd-ranked Pacific Lutheran University Lutes, moving into first place in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race Friday night (Feb. 1) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The two nationally-ranked teams entered the evening in a virtual deadlock for first place, although the Lutes had the edge in percentage points. With the victory, avenging a 51-45 setback in the teams' first meeting on Jan. 5, the Bruins improved to 19-2 overall and 10-2 in the conference with their 5th straight win. The Lutes saw their own four-game streak snapped and fell to 14-3 overall, 8-2 in the league.

Darby Cave got the Bruins off and running with eight points in the game's first nine minutes, and George Fox was able to mount a 10-point lead at 17-7 on a Nicole Prazeau jumper with 7:59 left in the half. The Bruins maintained the lead up to the halftime, going into the break with a 26-20 lead.

PLU, after shooting only .267 (8-30) in the first half, went on a 12-4 run to start the second half to go ahead 32-30 with 17:07 left. The game seesawed back and forth thereafter, with six ties and 11 lead changes. Cave hit three straight baskets to put George Fox up 47-42 with 4:35 to go, only to have the Lutes respond with an 8-3 run to tie it at 50-50 and send it into overtime. Jessica Iserman hit three shots in that run, her last one a hook that knotted the score at with 41 seconds left.

Thompson broke the tie with her three-point play at 4:33 in the overtime and Prazeau hit a pair of free throws at 3:58, giving the Bruins a five-point lead at 55-50. Prazeau made another free throw and Thompson two in the final 19 seconds to seal the win.

Cave and Prazeau led all scorers with 18 apiece, the only Bruins in double figures. Prazeau grabbed 9 rebounds and Amy Fitch 8 as the Bruins won the rebounding battle, 43-40. George Fox hit 15-19 on free throws (.789), while the defense held the Lutes to only .319 shooting (22-69) from the field.

Iserman led the Lutes with 15 points, Jamie Keatts added 13, and Becky Franza scored 11. Iserman and Courtney Johnson had 10 rebounds each, and Johnson, third in the nation in blocked shots, rejected 6. PLU struggled from the charity stripe, hitting only 7-15 (.467).

2/1 - GEORGE FOX 62, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 55, OT: Bruins Take Over First in NWC with Overtime Win

NEWBERG, Ore. - Becky Thompson scored seven points in overtime, including a three-point play to open the extra period that put George Fox University ahead for good, and the 21st-ranked Bruins went on to a 62-55 win over the 22nd-ranked Pacific Lutheran University Lutes, moving into first place in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race Friday night (Feb. 1) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The two nationally-ranked teams entered the evening in a virtual deadlock for first place, although the Lutes had the edge in percentage points. With the victory, avenging a 51-45 setback in the teams' first meeting on Jan. 5, the Bruins improved to 19-2 overall and 10-2 in the conference with their 5th straight win. The Lutes saw their own four-game streak snapped and fell to 14-3 overall, 8-2 in the league.

Darby Cave got the Bruins off and running with eight points in the game's first nine minutes, and George Fox was able to mount a 10-point lead at 17-7 on a Nicole Prazeau jumper with 7:59 left in the half. The Bruins maintained the lead up to the halftime, going into the break with a 26-20 lead.

PLU, after shooting only .267 (8-30) in the first half, went on a 12-4 run to start the second half to go ahead 32-30 with 17:07 left. The game seesawed back and forth thereafter, with six ties and 11 lead changes. Cave hit three straight baskets to put George Fox up 47-42 with 4:35 to go, only to have the Lutes respond with an 8-3 run to tie it at 50-50 and send it into overtime. Jessica Iserman hit three shots in that run, her last one a hook that knotted the score at with 41 seconds left.

Thompson broke the tie with her three-point play at 4:33 in the overtime and Prazeau hit a pair of free throws at 3:58, giving the Bruins a five-point lead at 55-50. Prazeau made another free throw and Thompson two in the final 19 seconds to seal the win.

Cave and Prazeau led all scorers with 18 apiece, the only Bruins in double figures. Prazeau grabbed 9 rebounds and Amy Fitch 8 as the Bruins won the rebounding battle, 43-40. George Fox hit 15-19 on free throws (.789), while the defense held the Lutes to only .319 shooting (22-69) from the field.

Iserman led the Lutes with 15 points, Jamie Keatts added 13, and Becky Franza scored 11. Iserman and Courtney Johnson had 10 rebounds each, and Johnson, third in the nation in blocked shots, rejected 6. PLU struggled from the charity stripe, hitting only 7-15 (.467).

The Bruins are off until next Friday (Feb. 8) when they visit the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma for a 6:00 p.m. contest. The Lutes are at Linfield College Saturday (Feb. 2), also at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's games at 8:00 p.m.

First place in the Northwest Conference is on the line tonight in the long-awaited rematch of the NWC's top two teams. The Lutes have the upper hand with their win over the Bruins in Tacoma and only one conference loss (to last-place Whitman), but the Bruins can pretty much even things up with a win. Both are nationally and regionally ranked, the Bruins 21st and the Lutes 22nd in the national poll, the Lutes 5th and the Bruins 7th in the West Region poll. Both are riding four-game winning streaks. The Lutes defeated Whitman 55-44 Saturday in Tacoma in their last game, while the Bruins bounced Pacific 72-58 in Forest Grove Tuesday. Heather Doud scored 22 for the 2nd game in row, Darby Cave tallied 18, and Nicole Prazeau hit 3 three-pointers en route to 15. Cave had a game-high 9 rebounds, while Becky Thompson had 6 assists and 6 steals.

THE SERIES

The Lutes lead the series 11-7 ... PLU won 51-45 on Jan. 5 in Tacoma, snapping GFU's 5-game winning streak in the series ... The Lutes are 3rd in the NWC in scoring (67.0), 1st in defense (50.5, 16th nationally), and 2nd in rebounding (39.6) ... Jessica Iserman leads the NWC in rebounding (8.9), Courtney Johnson leads in blocked shots (3.25, 3rd nationally), and Becky Franza is 2nd in assists (4.44).

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State '91) notched his 100th career win when the Bruins defeated Northwest 78-68 on Saturday, Dec. 1, in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic in Tacoma, Wash. He is 112-35 (.762) in his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. Against this week's opponents, he is 11-0 vs. Pacific (6-0 in Newberg, 5-0 in Forest Grove), and 6-7 vs. Pacific Lutheran (4-2 in Newberg, 2-5 in Tacoma).

BRUIN BITS:

 Doud Earns NWC "Player of the Week" Honors for Third Time:

Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) had two great shooting games that sparked the Bruins to a pair of conference wins last week, earning Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" honors for the third time this season. In a 71-51 win at Linfield on Friday, she scored a game-high 17 points, hitting 6-10 from the field (4-4 on 3's) and 1-1 from the line, with 9 rebounds, 3 assists, 1 blocked shot, and 1 steal. On Saturday, she played only 18 minutes in an easy 85-56 win over Lewis & Clark, but scored a game-high 22 points, all in the game's first 8 ½ minutes, hitting 9-14 from the field (3-5 on 3's) and 1-1 from the line, with 1 rebound and 3 steals. She scored 12 points in only 1:02 at one stretch! In 2 games for the week, she scored 39 points (19.5), hitting 15-24 (.625) from the field, 7-9 (.778) on 3's, and 2-2 (1.000) from the line, with 10 rebounds (5.0), 3 assists (1.5), 1 blocked shot (0.5), and 4 steals (2.0). She won two NWC "Player of the Week" awards for Nov. 18-24 and Dec. 10-23.

 On the All-Time Lists:

Nicole Prazeau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) became only the 8th player in George Fox women's basketball history to reach 1,000 points for a career when she scored her 6th point in the Bruins' game at Whitworth on Jan. 18. With 27 points in two games this past week, she now has 1,046 career points, ranking 7th on the all-time scoring list. In 6th place is Liz Stephens (1,197). She is also closing in on the top 10 in assists and steals. With 168 assists, she has tied Tabitha Greller (168) for 10th, and with 123 steals, she needs 8 to pass Katie Lacey (130) ... Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) had 17 assists and 9 steals in two games last week, remaining 3rd in career assists (364) and passing Nancy Rissmiller (205) for 2nd on the all-time steals list (213). She will not catch the No. 2 assists leader, Linda Funderhide (538), but could possibly catch the leader in steals, also Funderhide (243).

 Bruins 22nd in D3hoops Poll, 14th in WBCA Poll, 8th in West Region:

A 1-1 road trip to eastern Washington, with a 74-64 loss at Whitworth and a 69-57 win at Whitman, resulted in the George Fox Bruins dropping to 22nd in the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 poll of Jan. 22 conducted by D3hoops.com, and into a tie for 14th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Top 25 poll conducted by the Women's Basketball Coaches of America.

George Fox, now 15-2 on the season, was 14th in the previous D3hoops poll and 10th in the WBCA poll. The Bruins received 145 points for 22nd in the D3hoops poll and 86 points for 14th in the WBCA poll, tying with St. Thomas MN. Pacific Lutheran was the only other NWC team in the top 25, with 71 points for 25th in the D3hoops poll, and 43 points for 21st in the WBCA poll.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top of both polls. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every D3hoops poll but two – and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

In the West Region, in which rankings are based only on results within the region (which means NWC games only for the Bruins this season), George Fox is rated 8th. The Bruins are 6-2 against region competition, all NWC games. St. Thomas MN is 1st (12-1), followed by St. Benedict (13-2), Chapman (10-1), Simpson (10-2), Pacific Lutheran (6-1), Carleton (11-2), Wartburg (8-2), and George Fox. Five teams (all but St. Thomas and St. Benedict) ranked ahead of the Bruin in the region are ranked behind them in the national polls.

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country, and is published weekly. Previous Top 25 results, the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls, and the regional rankings, can be found at www.d3hoops.com

The USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III Top 25 Coaches Poll is voted on by a panel of 8 NCAA Division III coaches who represent all regions in the United States. Their polls can be found at www.wbca.org.

 Cave Ties Bruin Record for Single-Game Field Goal Pct.:

Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore.) tied a Bruin record for single-game field goal pct. when she went 6-6 (1.000) from the floor in an 85-56 George Fox win over Lewis & Clark on Jan. 26. She tied a mark set by former All-American Katie Lacey, who was 6-6 in the season opener last year at Cascade in Portland on Nov. 21, 2000.

 Barram Lost for Season with Torn Meniscus:

Jill Barram (Sr., PG, Salem, Ore.), who missed the first month of the women's basketball season due to a strained ligaments in her right knee incurred in pre-season practice, appears lost to the team for the rest of the season after suffering a torn meniscus in the knee diving for a ball in the Bruins' 69-57 win at Whitman on Jan. 19. She was to have further examinations this week, but it seems likely that surgery will be performed on the knee some time in the next month. If so, her four-year career with the Bruins will come to a close with a total of 371 points (4.7 ppg), 129 rebounds (1.6 rpg), 135 assists (1.7 apg), and 54 steals (0.68) in 79 games.

 New Personal Highs:

Heather Doud – tied career highs in 3-pt field goals and pct. (4-4, 1.000) at Linfield; now has 1,301 career points (first 740 in two years at Biola) and 697 rebounds (399 at Biola)

Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore.) – set career high and tied team record in field goal pct. (1.000, 6-6) vs. Lewis & Clark; hit 12-14 (.857) from the field in 2 games during the week

Amy Fitch (So., W, Ritzville, Wash.) – tied career highs in free throws, attempts, and pct. (4-4, 1.000), and steals (3) at Linfield

 Newcomers Making Marks:

Liz Clark (Fr., W, Elbe, Wash.) – tied career high in 3-pt attempts (7) at Linfield;

Sarah Myhre (Fr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) – set new career high in rebounds (10) vs. Lewis & Clark;

Melissa Alexander (Fr., PG, Portland, Ore.) – tied career high in points (11) and field goals (4), set new high for field goal pct. (.571, 4-7) vs. Lewis & Clark;

Christine McCandless (Fr., W, Medford, Ore.) – set new career high in points (3), field goals, attempts, and pct. (1-6, .167), 3-pt field goals, attempts, and pct. (1-3, .333), and steals (1), and tied high in minutes (13) vs. Lewis & Clark;

Mandy Dunham (Fr., W, Richland, Wash.) – set new career high in 3-pt attempts (3) vs. Lewis & Clark

 Bruins Tie Record with 11 Straight Wins while Setting Mark for Best Start Ever

1/25 – GEORGE FOX 71, LINFIELD 51: Three-Point Barrage by Bruins Buries Wildcats

McMINNVILLE, Ore. – Already leading the Northwest Conference in three-point field goals with an average of 5.2 per game, the George Fox University Bruins used the long ball again, connecting on 10 of 17 from downtown to bury the Linfield College Wildcats 71-51 in women's basketball action Friday night (Jan. 25) here at Ted Wilson Gym.

After taking a 6-4 lead three minutes into the game, the Bruins went cold and did not score for six minutes while Linfield went ahead 9-6. Heather Doud broke the scoring drought for the Bruins with a three-pointer that knotted the game 9-9 with 11:03 left, Becky Thompson's trey made it 12-9 with 9:51 left, and the Bruins led the rest of the way. A 17-7 run in the final five minutes, with Nicole Prazeau, Doud, and Amy Fitch all hitting threes and Darby Cave adding a pair of layups, increased the Bruin lead to 35-23 at the half.

A rebound basket by Cave and a three-point play by Doud upped the Bruin lead to 40-23 to start the second half. The Wildcats then went on a mild run, outscoring the Bruins 13-5 to cut the gap to 45-36 with 13:11 to play, but nine points was as close as Linfield would get. The Bruins gradually increased the margin until a Prazeau free throw with 28 seconds left gave them the biggest lead of the game at 71-49.

Doud led all scorers with 17 points, including a 4-4 night from behind the arc, and grabbed a game-high 9 rebounds. Prazeau added 13 points, making 2-3 on treys, and Cave scored 12, sinking 6-8 from the floor. Thompson had 7 assists and led the Bruin defensive effort with 4 steals, while Fitch picked up 3 steals. The Bruins out-rebounded the Wildcats 36-26.

Monica Schwing was the only Wildcat in double figures with 14.

George Fox, ranked 22nd in the D3hoops.com poll and 14th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III poll, completed a sweep of the season series with their Yamhill County rivals while improving to 16-2 overall and 7-2 in the conference. Linfield slipped to 8-10 overall and 4-5 in the league.

1/26 – GEORGE FOX 85, LEWIS & CLARK 56: Red-Hot Doud Ignites Bruins Past Pioneers

NEWBERG, Ore. – Heather Doud scored all of her game-high 22 points in the first eight-and-a-half minutes of the game, including 12 in a span of 1:02, sparking the George Fox University Bruins to an 85-56 romp past the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 26) here at the snow-covered Wheeler Sports Center.

Leading 11-4 two minutes into the game, George Fox then went on a 16-0 run, Doud scoring 12 of them, to take a 27-4 lead. Her jumper at 12:56 ended the run, then Lindsay Sweetland scored the Pios' first bucket in over four minutes. In the next minute, however, Doud hit a jumper, made a steal and layup, hit a three-pointer off a steal and pass from Becky Thompson, then made another steal, hit a layup, was fouled, and made the free throw.

The Bruins led 48-19 at the half, and stretched the spread to as many as 35 at 69-34 on a Sarah Myhre layup with 8:58 remaining. The Pios got no closer than 27 in the second half, Kim McBride's jumper making it 79-52 with 3:39 to play.

In addition to Doud's 22 (in only 18 minutes), Nicole Prazeau scored 14, Darby Cave 12, and Melissa Alexander tied her career high with 11. Myhre grabbed 10 rebounds as the Bruins controlled the boards, 45-28. Thompson passed out 10 assists and picked up 5 steals.

For the Pios, Sweetland and McBride scored 13 apiece, and Nnenna Lewis added 12. Lewis had a team-high 7 rebounds.

With their third straight win, the Bruins, ranked 22nd in the D3hoops.com poll and 14th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll, climbed to 17-2 overall and 8-2 in the conference. The Pioneers dropped their 7th in a row, falling to 7-11 overall and 1-8 in the league.

1/26 – GEORGE FOX 85, LEWIS & CLARK 56: Red-Hot Doud Ignites Bruins Past Pioneers

NEWBERG, Ore. – Heather Doud scored all of her game-high 22 points in the first eight-and-a-half minutes of the game, including 12 in a span of 1:02, sparking the George Fox University Bruins to an 85-56 romp past the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 26) here at the snow-covered Wheeler Sports Center.

Leading 11-4 two minutes into the game, George Fox then went on a 16-0 run, Doud scoring 12 of them, to take a 27-4 lead. Her jumper at 12:56 ended the run, then Lindsay Sweetland scored the Pios' first bucket in over four minutes. In the next minute, however, Doud hit a jumper, made a steal and layup, hit a three-pointer off a steal and pass from Becky Thompson, then made another steal, hit a layup, was fouled, and made the free throw.

The Bruins led 48-19 at the half, and stretched the spread to as many as 35 at 69-34 on a Sarah Myhre layup with 8:58 remaining. The Pios got no closer than 27 in the second half, Kim McBride's jumper making it 79-52 with 3:39 to play.

In addition to Doud's 22 (in only 18 minutes), Nicole Prazeau scored 14, Darby Cave 12, and Melissa Alexander tied her career high with 11. Myhre grabbed 10 rebounds as the Bruins controlled the boards, 45-28. Thompson passed out 10 assists and picked up 5 steals.

For the Pios, Sweetland and McBride scored 13 apiece, and Nnenna Lewis added 12. Lewis had a team-high 7 rebounds.

With their third straight win, the Bruins, ranked 22nd in the D3hoops.com poll and 14th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll, climbed to 17-2 overall and 8-2 in the conference. The Pioneers dropped their 7th in a row, falling to 7-11 overall and 1-8 in the league.

George Fox visits Pacific University Tuesday (Jan. 29) at 6:00 p.m., while Lewis & Clark travels to Whitman College Friday (Feb. 1) for a 6:00 p.m. contest. Both will be followed by men's games at 8:00 p.m.

Fresh from a 71-51 road win over Linfield, the Bruins will try to build on that success tonight against the slumping Pioneers. After getting off to one of their best starts in years at 7-4, the Pios have lost their last 6 in a row. One of the biggest reasons for the downturn has been the loss to injury of leading scorer Brynn Henkel (16.3 ppg) after the first 6 games. The Pios were idle last night, but dropped a 78-45 decision at Puget Sound last Tuesday. In last night's game, the Bruins, the NWC leaders in three-pointers per game (5.2), used the 'long ball' again, hitting 10 of 17 from long rangetop defeat their Yamhill County rivals. Heather Doud led the way with 17 points, hitting 6-10 from the field (4-4 on 3's), while Nicole Prazneau added 13 and Darby Cave 12, hitting 6-8 from the floor. Doud had 9 rebounds, and Becky Thompson had 7 assists and 4 steals.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Pioneers 36-7 ... The Bruins have won the last 15 meetings, including an 80-46 win on Jan. 11 in Portland ... Lewis & Clark's last win was 87-61 on Feb. 15, 1994, in Portland ... L&C is 8th in the NWC in scoring (58.2), 9th in defense (66.9), and 2nd in steals (11.50) ... Lindsay Sweetland is 4th in the NWC in scoring (16.4) and 3rd in rebounds (8.4)

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State '91) notched his 100th career win when the Bruins defeated Northwest 78-68 on Saturday, Dec. 1, in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic in Tacoma, Wash. He is 110-35 (.759) in his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. Against this week's opponents, he is 9-3 vs. Linfield (6-1 in Newberg, 3-2 in McMinnville), and 11-0 vs. Lewis & Clark (5-0 in Newberg, 6-0 in Portland).

BRUIN BITS:

 On the All-Time Lists: Prazeau Joins 1,000-Point Club

Nicole Prazeau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) became only the 8th player in George Fox women's basketball history to reach 1,000 points for a career when she scored her 6th point in the Bruins' game at Whitworth on Jan. 18. She finished the game with 9 points, then added 16 more on Jan. 19 at Whitman, giving her 1,019 and moving her past Tracy Nelson (1,001) into 7th on the all-time scoring list. In 6th place is Liz Stephens (1,197). She is also closing in on the top 10 in assists and steals. With 163 assists, she needs 6 to pass Tabitha Greller (168) for 10th, and with 123 steals, she needs 8 to pass Katie Lacey (130) ... Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) had 7 assists and 3 steals in three games during the week, remaining 3rd in career assists (347) and 3rd in steals (204). It is unlikely she will catch the No. 2 assists leader, Linda Funderhide (538), but she needs only 2 more steals to pass Nancy Rissmiller (205) for 2nd. No. 1 is Linda Funderhide (243).

 Doud Honorable Mention for NWC "Player of the Week":

Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) led the team in scoring in both games as the Bruins went 1-1 on their eastern Washington swing, earning Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for Jan. 14-20. In a 74-64 loss at Whitworth on Friday, she scored 18 points, hitting 7-9 from the field (3-5 on 3's) and 1-2 from the line, with 6 rebounds, 2 assists, and 1 steal. In a 69-57 win at Whitman on Saturday, she again scored 18, 14 in a 7-minute span at the end of the first half to rally the Bruins from a 14-point deficit, hitting 7-13 from the field (1-4 on 3's) and 3-4 from the line, with 8 rebounds, 1 assist, 1 blocked shot, and 2 steals. For the week, she totaled 36 points (18.0) on 14-22 from the field (.636), 4-9 on 3's (.444), and 4-6 from the line (.667), grabbed 14 rebounds (7.0), and had 3 assists, 1 blocked shot, and 3 steals. She has won two NWC "Player of the Week" awards this season (Nov. 18-24 and Dec. 10-23).

NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to Erica Ewart of Whitworth, who scored 42 points with 13 rebounds and 11 assists as the Pirates went 3-0.

 Bruins 14th in D3hoops Poll, 10th in WBCA Poll:

A 3-0 week with Northwest Conference wins over Puget Sound, Lewis & Clark, and Linfield enabled the George Fox Bruins to climb to 14th in the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 poll of Jan. 15 conducted by D3hoops.com, and to 10th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Top 25 poll conducted by the Women's Basketball Coaches of America.

George Fox, 14-1 at the time of the voting, was 16th in the previous D3hoops poll and 13th in the WBCA poll. The Bruins received 294 points for 14th in the D3hoops poll and 117 points for 10th in the WBCA poll.

Pacific Lutheran was the only other NWC team in the polls, with 113 points for 22nd in the D3hoops poll, and 44 points for 20th in the WBCA poll.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top of both polls. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every D3hoops poll but two – and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country. Previous Top 25 results and the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls can be found at www.d3hoops.com.

The USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll is voted on by a committee of eight coaches from various regions of the country. Their polls are available at www.wbca.com.

1/14 – SPORTS HALL OF FAME: George Fox Announces Sports Hall of Fame Class of 2002

George Fox University will induct its newest Sports Hall of Fame members, the Class of 2002, in ceremonies on Saturday, Jan. 26, beginning at 4:00 p.m., according to Hall of Fame Committee chair and associate director of athletics Pat Bailey.

Joining the George Fox Hall of Fame will be four individuals and two teams: men's basketball player Dave Wilson, women's cross country and track athlete Jill (Jamison) Beals, men's soccer player Andy LaVeine, former associate director of athletics Hal Adrian in the category of meritorious service, the 1972-73 men's basketball team, and the 1992 women's cross country team.

The special induction ceremonies will begin with a dinner at 4:00 p.m. in the Klages Dining Room of the Heacock Commons on the Newberg campus. Honorees will attend the women's basketball game with Lewis & Clark College which begins at 6:00 p.m., then an informal social gathering of family and friends of the inductees will be held in Room 209 of the Wheeler Sports Center between the women's and men's basketball games. The inductees will then be honored at halftime of the men's game, which begins at 8:00 p.m..

Tickets to the Hall of Fame ceremonies are $20 for adults, $12 for children 12 and under, and are available from the George Fox department of athletics at 503-554-2910.

1/18 – WHITWORTH 74, GEORGE FOX 64: Hot Start Propels Pirates Past Bruins

SPOKANE, Wash. – A 17-2 run midway through the first half enabled Whitworth College to race from a one-point lead to a 16-point lead and the Pirates never led by less than double figures the rest of the way, posting a 74-64 upset of the George Fox University Bruins in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Friday night (Jan. 18) here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse.

The hot hands of the Pirates' Erica Ewart and Chrissy Oneal, who scored 17 and 11 respectively in the first half, and a horrible half of shooting (the Bruins hit only 5-28 in the half, a .179 percentage) led to a 35-18 halftime deficit for the visitors. The Bruins committed 10 turnovers in the half and hit only 1 of 12 three-point tries.

Whitworth stretched its lead to 21 three times early in the second half before the Bruins finally found their range. George Fox shot .692 in the second half (18-26), only to have the Pirates respond by hitting .583 (14-24) to keep the Bruins at bay. George Fox managed to get within 10 with 3:11 left and again at the end of the game.

Ewart finished with 29, hitting 9-13 from the field, including 5-7 from three-point range, and Oneal had 20 on 8-10 shooting. Sarah Shogren added 12 off the bench. The 74 points was the most scored against the Bruins in a game this season. Oneal and Tiffany Speer had 7 rebounds apiece as the Pirates edged the Bruins, the conference's top rebounding team, 35-33.

For George Fox, Heather Doud scored 18 on 7-9 from the field, Amy Fitch chipped in with 12, and Sarah Myhre scored 10 off the bench.. Doud and Becky Thompson had 6 rebounds each for the Bruins.

George Fox saw its three-game winning streak end as it fell to 14-2 overall and 5-2 in the conference. The Bruins are ranked 14th in the D3hoops.com poll and 10th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III poll. Whitworth improved to 10-6 overall and 5-2 in the league.

1/19 – GEORGE FOX 69, WHITMAN 57: Bruins Recover from Slow Start to Overcome Missionaries

WALLA WALLA, Wash. – Bouncing back from another slow shooting start that saw them fall behind by 14 points in the first half, the George Fox University Bruins rallied to defeat the Whitman College Missionaries 69-57 in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 19) here at the Sherwood Center.

George Fox Women's Basketball ... Jan. 21, 2002 ... page 5

Making only three field goals in the first 12 minutes and going scoreless for one five-minute stretch, the Bruins fell behind 22-8 as the Missionaries' Sunny Gulberg poured in 12 of those points. The Whitman guard, who broke the team's career three-point field goal record the night before against Pacific, finished with 20 in the first half.

Sparked by Heather Doud, who scored all 14 of her first-half points in the last eight minutes, the Bruins rallied, cutting the deficit at halftime to two at 33-31. A rebound basket by Doud and a jumper by Nicole Prazeau gave the Bruins their first lead at 35-33 with 18:49 to play.

Gulberg's three put Whitman back on top 36-35 one last time, but Liz Clark hit a triple to give the Bruins a 38-37 lead with 17:18 left, and they never trailed again. Amy Fitch's three at 6:42 gave the Bruins their biggest lead at 60-48, and the Bruins hit five free throws in the last 1:07 to ice it. The Bruins shot .808 (21-26) from the line.

Doud finished with 18 points to lead the Bruins, Prazeau scored 16 to give her 1,019 for her career, and Clark added 10. Doud had 8 rebounds and Clark and Sarah Myhre grabbed 7 apiece as George Fox out-rebounded the Missionaries 44-37, including 19 offensive boards.

Gulberg with 30 points was the only Missionary in double figures, but after hitting 8-9 from the field in the first half, tighter defense by Fitch and Becky Thompson held her to only 3-13 in the second half. Ashley Wright had a game-high 10 rebounds for Whitman.

George Fox improved to 15-2 overall and 6-2 in the conference. The Bruins are ranked 14th in the D3hoops.com poll and 10th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III poll. Whitman fell to 5-10 overall and 1-6 in the league.

1/19 - GEORGE FOX 69, WHITMAN 57: Bruins Recover from Slow Start to Overcome Missionaries

WALLA WALLA, Wash. - Bouncing back from another slow shooting start that saw them fall behind by 14 points in the first half, the George Fox University Bruins rallied to defeat the Whitman College Missionaries 69-57 in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 19) here at the Sherwood Center.

Making only three field goals in the first 12 minutes and going scoreless for one five-minute stretch, the Bruins fell behind 22-8 as the Missionaries' Sunny Gulberg poured in 12 of those points. The Whitman guard, who broke the team's career three-point field goal record the night before against Pacific, finished with 20 in the first half.

Sparked by Heather Doud, who scored all 14 of her first-half points in the last eight minutes, the Bruins rallied, cutting the deficit at halftime to two at 33-31. A rebound basket by Doud and a jumper by Nicole Prazeau gave the Bruins their first lead at 35-33 with 18:49 to play.

Gulberg's three put Whitman back on top 36-35 one last time, but Liz Clark hit a triple to give the Bruins a 38-37 lead with 17:18 left, and they never trailed again. Amy Fitch's three at 6:42 gave the Bruins their biggest lead at 60-48, and the Bruins hit five free throws in the last 1:07 to ice it. The Bruins shot .808 (21-26) from the line.

Doud finished with 18 points to lead the Bruins, Prazeau scored 16 to give her 1,019 for her career, and Clark added 10. Doud had 8 rebounds and Clark and Sarah Myhre grabbed 7 apiece as George Fox out-rebounded the Missionaries 44-37, including 19 offensive boards.

Gulberg with 30 points was the only Missionary in double figures, but after hitting 8-9 from the field in the first half, tighter defense by Fitch and Becky Thompson held her to only 3-13 in the second half. Ashley Wright had a game-high 10 rebounds for Whitman.

George Fox improved to 15-2 overall and 6-2 in the conference. The Bruins are ranked 14th in the D3hoops.com poll and 10th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III poll. Whitman fell to 5-10 overall and 1-6 in the league.

The Bruins return to action Friday (Jan. 25), visiting NWC and Yamhill County rival Linfield College in McMinnville. Tipoff time is 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m. The Missionaries visit Linfield Tuesday (Jan. 22) at 6:00 p.m. in their next game.

1/18 - WHITWORTH 74, GEORGE FOX 64: Hot Start Propels Pirates Past Bruins

SPOKANE, Wash. - A 17-2 run midway through the first half enabled Whitworth College to race from a one-point lead to a 16-point lead and the Pirates never led by less than double figures the rest of the way, posting a 74-64 upset of the George Fox University Bruins in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Friday night (Jan. 18) here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse.

The hot hands of the Pirates' Erica Ewart and Chrissy Oneal, who scored 17 and 11 respectively in the first half, and a horrible half of shooting (the Bruins hit only 5-28 in the half, a .179 percentage) led to a 35-18 halftime deficit for the visitors. The Bruins committed 10 turnovers in the half and hit only 1 of 12 three-point tries.

Whitworth stretched its lead to 21 three times early in the second half before the Bruins finally found their range. George Fox shot .692 in the second half (18-26), only to have the Pirates respond by hitting .583 (14-24) to keep the Bruins at bay. George Fox managed to get within 10 with 3:11 left and again at the end of the game.

Ewart finished with 29, hitting 9-13 from the field, including 5-7 from three-point range, and Oneal had 20 on 8-10 shooting. Sarah Shogren added 12 off the bench. The 74 points was the most scored against the Bruins in a game this season. Oneal and Tiffany Speer had 7 rebounds apiece as the Pirates edged the Bruins, the conference's top rebounding team, 35-33.

For George Fox, Heather Doud scored 18 on 7-9 from the field, Amy Fitch chipped in with 12, and Sarah Myhre scored 10 off the bench. Doud and Becky Thompson had 6 rebounds each for the Bruins.

George Fox saw its three-game winning streak end as it fell to 14-2 overall and 5-2 in the conference. The Bruins are ranked 14th in the D3hoops.com poll and 10th in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Division III poll. Whitworth improved to 10-6 overall and 5-2 in the league.

The Bruins continue their eastern Washington swing Saturday (Jan. 19), facing the Whitman College Missionaries at 6:00 p.m. in Walla Walla., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m. The Pirates host the Pacific University Boxers Saturday at 6:00 p.m.

BRUIN BITS:

 Prazeau Honorable Mention for NWC "Player of the Week":

Nicole Prazeau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for her play in helping the Bruins to a 3-0 week Jan. 7-13. She posted double figures in scoring in all three games, leading the Bruins in scoring in the last two. In a 70-49 win over Puget Sound, she was the only GFU starter in double figures with 11 points, hitting 5-19 from the field (0-6 on 3's), and 1-1 from the line, with a game-high 7 rebounds, 2 assists, and 4 steals. In an 80-46 win at Lewis & Clark, she scored 14 on 5-9 from the field (2-3 on 3's) and 2-2 from the line, with 5 rebounds, 2 assists, and 1 steal. In a 59-46 win over Linfield, she scored 15, 11 in the second half, on 6-16 from the field (2-5 on 3's) and 1-2 from the line, with 5 rebounds, 1 assist, and 1 steal. For the week, she scored 40 points (13.3), hitting 16-44 from the field (.364), 4-14 on 3's (.286), and 4-5 from the line (.800), with 17 rebounds (6.3), 5 assists (1.7), and 6 steals (2.0).

NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to Sunny Gulberg of Whitman, who scored 39 points with 9 rebounds and 5 steals in two games, including an upset of Pacific Lutheran.

Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) has won two NWC "Player of the Week" awards this season (Nov. 18-24 and Dec. 10-23).

 Bruins Tie Record with 11 Straight Wins while Setting Mark for Best Start Ever

The George Fox Bruins stretched their record for best start ever to 11-0 with a 66-62 overtime win over Warner Pacific on Jan. 2 before suffering their first setback of the season, a 51-45 loss at Pacific Lutheran on Jan. 5. The 11 straight wins to open up the season surpassed the 9-0 start by last year's Bruins. The 11 wins in a row equaled previous record 11-game streaks by the 1999-2000 and 2000-01 teams.

 Bruins 16th in D3hoop Poll, 13th in WBCA Poll:

A 51-45 setback at Pacific Lutheran on Jan. 5, their first loss of the season, resulted in a drop of 10 spots for the George Fox Bruins in the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 poll of Jan. 8, conducted by D3hoops.com, the sixth poll of the season. George Fox slipped from 6th to 16th with 249 points. The loss also vaulted PLU, 10-1, ahead of the Bruins into 14th with 266 points. They were the only two Northwest Conference teams to receive votes.

In the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll of Jan. 9, the Bruins were ranked 13th with 91 points, while Pacific Lutheran was ranked 15th with 80. Again, they were the only two NWC teams mentioned.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top for the fifth week in a row with 622 points and 22 first-place votes in the D3hoops.com poll, after running second to Messiah College in the pre-season and first weekly polls. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every poll but two – and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year! Washington was also No. 1 in the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll with 7 firsts and 199 points.

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country. Previous Top 25 results and the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls can be found at www.d3hoops.com.

The USA Today/ESPN/WBCA poll is voted on by a committee of eight coaches from various regions of the country. Their polls are available at www.wbca.com.

 On the All-Time Lists:

With 40 points in three games during the week, Nicole Prazneau has moved within 6 points of 1,000 for her career with 994. She should become only the 8th player in Bruin history to score 1,000 career points before the week is over. In the Linfield game, she passed Heidi Rueck, the head coach's sister (990) for 8th place on the all-time scoring list. In 7th place is Tracy Nelson (1,001). She is also closing in on the top 10 in assists and steals. With 161 assists, she needs 8 to pass Tabitha Greller (168), and with 119 steals, she needs 12 to pass Katie Lacey (130) ... Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) had 12 assists and 7 steals in three games during the week, holding 3rd in career assists (340) and passing Tracy Nelson (192) for 3rd in steals (201). It is unlikely she will catch the No. 2 assists leader, Linda Funderhede (538), but she should continue to move up on the steals chart; in 2nd place is Nancy Rissmiller (205).

 New Personal Highs:

Heather Doud – had career highs in assists (6) and steals (7) vs. Linfield while posting her 3rd GFU double-double this season (11 pts-13 reb) and 6th in GFU career; now has 1,226 career points (first 740 in two years at Biola) and 673 rebounds (399 at Biola)

Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore.) – tied personal high for blocked shots (2) at Lewis & Clark; tied career best field goal pct. (4-6, .667) vs. Linfield

Amy Fitch (So., W, Ritzville, Wash.) – tied career best field goal pct. (3-5, .600) at Lewis & Clark

Shai Workman (Jr., W, Moscow, Idaho) – tied personal high for points (4) and field goals (2) at Lewis & Clark

 Newcomers Making Marks:

Liz Clark (Fr., W, Elbe, Wash.) – set new highs vs. Puget Sound for points (17), field goals, attempts, and pct. (6-10, .600), 3-pt field goals and pct. (3-3, 1.000); tied her high in steals (3) vs. Puget Sound and Linfield

Sarah Myhre (Fr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) – set new career highs vs. Puget Sound for points (11), field goals, attempts, and pct. (5-8, .625), and minutes (21); set new high in rebounds (9) at Lewis & Clark

Melissa Alexander (Fr., PG, Portland, Ore.) – set career highs at Lewis & Clark in points (11), field goals, attempts, and pct. (4-9, .444), free throws attempts (4), assists (7), steals (2), and minutes (27); set new marks for free throws and pct. and tied mark for attempts vs. Linfield (4-4, 1.0000)

Mandy Dunham (Fr., W, Richland, Wash.) – set new high for rebounds (5) at Lewis & Clark

Jessica Baynes (Fr., P, Joseph, Ore.) – had high in free throw attempts (2) and rebounds (3) at Lewis & Clark

1/8 – GEORGE FOX 70, PUGET SOUND 49: Bench Play Gives Bruins Lift over Loggers

NEWBERG, Ore. – Reserves Liz Clark, Jill Barram (Sr., PG, Salem, Ore.), and Sarah Myhre combined for 42 points, giving the George Fox University Bruins the lift they needed to defeat the University of Puget Sound Loggers 70-49 in Northwest Conference women's basketball Tuesday night (Jan. 8) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

With the Bruin starters struggling on offense, Myhre and Clark came off the bench to score 9 and 7 points respectively in the first half, enabling the Bruins, ranked 16th in the latest NCAA Division III national poll, to forge a 26-26 halftime tie. George Fox shot only .333 (10-30) in the half while Puget Sound managed a .391 mark (9-23)

In the second half, it was Barram with 12 points, Clark with 10, and starter Nicole Prazeau with 8 that sparked the Bruins to an eventual runaway victory. Leading only 45-42 after the Loggers' Angie Cashman made a pair of free throws with 10:06 left, the Bruins went on a 17-0 run over the next six minutes for a 62-42 lead and firm control of the game. The Bruins' shooting improved to .529 (18-34) in the final half while the defense held the Loggers to .318 (7-22) from the field.

Clark finished with a career-high 17 to lead all scorers, Barram had 14 in her first extensive action since rejoining the team during the holidays after a knee injury, Myhre had a career-high 11, and Prazeau added 11. Myhre and Prazeau grabbed 7 rebounds apiece to carry the Bruins to a 37-33 edge on the boards. Prazeau and Heather Doud had 4 steals each as the Bruins forced 20 UPS turnovers while making only 11 of their own. Becky Thompson had a game-high 6 assists.

The Loggers were led by Julie Vanni, the league's leading scorer at 17.8 points per game, with 13, and Jen McLuen came off the UPS bench to score 11. Vanni had a team-high 6 rebounds.

George Fox got back on the winning track after suffering its only loss of the season Saturday at Pacific Lutheran University, improving to 12-1 overall and 3-1 in the conference. Puget Sound slipped to 9-2 overall and 1-1 in the league.

1/11 – GEORGE FOX 80, LEWIS & CLARK 46: Stifling Defense by Bruins Buries Pioneers

PORTLAND, Ore. – Trailing 7-2 after the first three minutes, the George Fox University Bruins turned up the defensive heat, holding the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers scoreless over the next nine minutes while scoring 17 unanswered points of their own, and went on to an 80-46 victory in Northwest Conference women's basketball Friday night (Jan. 11) here at the Pamplin Sports Center.

After taking a 19-7 lead with 8:23 left in the half on a jumper by Amy Fitch, the Bruins continued to build on their margin and led by 25 at one point in the first half, 38-13 with 2:23 to go on a steal and layup by Shai Workman. It was 40-20 at the half. The Bruins came up with 13 first-half steals and forced 17 turnovers while holding the Pioneers to only 8-26 (.308) from the field. George Fox shot .474 (18-38) after making only one of their first eight shots.

George Fox went on an 11-1 run in the first four-and-a-half minutes of the second half and eventually stretched their lead to as many as 40, at 71-31 on a fast-break layup by Melissa Alexander with 8:34 remaining.

Nicole Prazeau led the Bruins with 14 points, followed by Darby Cave with 12 and Alexander with a career-high 11. Sarah Myhre grabbed 9 rebounds in leading the Bruins to a 54-37 edge on the boards, while Alexander passed out 7 assists. Eleven players played at least 10 minutes for George Fox and 12 different Bruins scored.

Lindsay Sweetland posted a double-double for the Pioneers with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Deidra Wilson scored 13. Lewis & Clark wound up shooting .296 (16-54) for the game.

George Fox, ranked 16th in the nation, improved to 13-1 overall and 4-1 in the conference. Lewis & Clark dropped to 7-6 overall and 1-3 in the league.

1/12 – GEORGE FOX 59, LINFIELD 46: Last 10 Minutes Belong to Bruins in Win over Linfield

NEWBERG, Ore. – Heather Doud's layup with 9:23 left in the game broke a 36-36 tie, igniting the 16th-ranked George Fox University Bruins on a 23-10 run over the last 10 minutes and an eventual 59-46 win over the Linfield College Wildcats in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 12) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The first 30 minutes of the contest were tightly contested as neither team could mount more than a five-point lead. Linfield led only once the entire game, at 19-18 with 5:55 to play, but Monica Schwing's layup with two seconds left knotted the score 24-24 at half-time.

George Fox twice took five-point leads early in the second half, the second at 35-30 with 13:31 to go on a layup by Darby Cave. But again the Wildcats rallied, tying it at 36-36 on a Sarah Prewitt free throw.

Doud broke the tie for the last time with her basket, and Liz Clark nailed a three for a 41-36 Bruin lead. Erin Nooy's free throw and a layup by Lindsay Sticka cut it to 41-39 at the 5:51 mark, but the Bruins reeled off the next nine points to seize control. Becky Thompson's layup and free throw after a foul to make it 45-39 with five minutes left was a crucial play for the Bruins.

George Fox took its biggest lead at 59-44 with 14 seconds left on a pair of free throws by Doud, who finished with a double-double of 11 points and 13 rebounds, along with game highs of 6 assists and 7 steals. Nicole PrazEAU led all scorers with 15, 11 in the second half, while Cave and Thompson added 10 points apiece.

Heidi Jurgens and Alicia Westley scored 13 each to lead the Wildcats, while Ashlee Tucker was Linfield's top rebounder with 11.

George Fox, winning its third in a row, is now 14-1 overall and 5-1 in the conference, while Linfield dropped to 5-9 overall and 1-4 in the league.

1/12 – GEORGE FOX 59, LINFIELD 46: Last 10 Minutes Belong to Bruins in Win over Linfield

NEWBERG, Ore. – Heather Doud's layup with 9:23 left in the game broke a 36-36 tie, igniting the 16th-ranked George Fox University Bruins on a 23-10 run over the last 10 minutes and an eventual 59-46 win over the Linfield College Wildcats in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 12) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The first 30 minutes of the contest were tightly contested as neither team could mount more than a five-point lead. Linfield led only once the entire game, at 19-18 with 5:55 to play, but Monica Schwing's layup with two seconds left knotted the score 24-24 at half-time.

George Fox twice took five-point leads early in the second half, the second at 35-30 with 13:31 to go on a layup by Darby Cave. But again the Wildcats rallied, tying it at 36-36 on a Sarah Prewitt free throw.

Doud broke the tie for the last time with her basket, and Liz Clark nailed a three for a 41-36 Bruin lead. Erin Nooy's free throw and a layup by Lindsay Sticka cut it to 41-39 at the 5:51 mark, but the Bruins reeled off the next nine points to seize control. Becky Thompson's layup and free throw after a foul to make it 45-39 with five minutes left was a crucial play for the Bruins.

George Fox took its biggest lead at 59-44 with 14 seconds left on a pair of free throws by Doud, who finished with a double-double of 11 points and 13 rebounds, along with game highs of 6 assists and 7 steals. Nicole Prazeau led all scorers with 15, 11 in the second half, while Cave and Thompson added 10 points apiece.

Heidi Jurgens and Alicia Westley scored 13 each to lead the Wildcats, while Ashlee Tucker was Linfield's top rebounder with 11.

George Fox, winning its third in a row, is now 14-1 overall and 5-1 in the conference, while Linfield dropped to 5-9 overall and 1-4 in the league.

The Bruins hit the road next weekend to eastern Washington, stopping in Spokane first to take on the Whitworth College Pirates Friday (Jan. 18) at 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m. The Wildcats return home to host Lewis & Clark College that same night, same time.

Back in a tie for first in the Northwest Conference after an 80-46 thumping of Lewis & Clark and a 51-42 upset loss by Pacific Lutheran to Whitman last night, the Bruins hope to solidify their hold on the top spot tonight against their Yamhill County rivals. The Linfield Wildcats picked up their first NWC win last night with a 75-51 win over Willamette, led by Monica Schwing, who hit 7-11 shots en route to 22 points. Nicole Prazeau scored 14, Darby Cave 12, and Melissa Alexander has career highs of 11 points and 7 assists to lead the Bruins over the Pioneers. Down 7-2 in the early going, the Bruins then took control with a 17-0 run and held the Pios scoreless for over 9 minutes.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Wildcats 28-17 ... George Fox swept last year's games, 65-44 in McMinnville and 78-56 in Newberg ... The Bruins have won the last 4 meetings ... Linfield's last win was 76-55 on Jan. 7, 2000, in McMinnville ... Linfield is 8th in the NWC in scoring (57.1) and 5th in defense (60.0) ... Monica Schwing (10.5) and Alicia Westley (10.4) are the only Wildcats in double figures.

1/11 – GEORGE FOX 80, LEWIS & CLARK 46: Stifling Defense by Bruins Buries Pioneers

PORTLAND, Ore. – Trailing 7-2 after the first three minutes, the George Fox University Bruins turned up the defensive heat, holding the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers scoreless over the next nine minutes while scoring 17 unanswered points of their own, and went on to an 80-46 victory in Northwest Conference women's basketball Friday night (Jan. 11) here at the Pamplin Sports Center.

After taking a 19-7 lead with 8:23 left in the half on a jumper by Amy Fitch, the Bruins continued to build on their margin and led by 25 at one point in the first half, 38-13 with 2:23 to go on a steal and layup by Shai Workman. It was 40-20 at the half. The Bruins came up with 13 first-half steals and forced 17 turnovers while holding the Pioneers to only 8-26 (.308) from the field. George Fox shot .474 (18-38) after making only one of their first eight shots.

George Fox went on an 11-1 run in the first four-and-a-half minutes of the second half and eventually stretched their lead to as many as 40, at 71-31 on a fast-break layup by Melissa Alexander with 8:34 remaining.

Nicole Prazneau led the Bruins with 14 points, followed by Darby Cave with 12 and Alexander with a career-high 11. Sarah Myhre grabbed 9 rebounds in leading the Bruins to a 54-37 edge on the boards, while Alexander passed out 7 assists. Eleven players played at least 10 minutes for George Fox and 12 different Bruins scored.

Lindsay Sweetland posted a double-double for the Pioneers with 19 points and 11 rebounds, and Deidra Wilson scored 13. Lewis & Clark wound up shooting .296 (16-54) for the game.

George Fox, ranked 16th in the nation, improved to 13-1 overall and 4-1 in the conference. Lewis & Clark dropped to 7-6 overall and 1-3 in the league.

The Bruins are back home Saturday (Jan. 12), hosting Linfield College at 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's game at 8:00 p.m. The Pioneers are off until Tuesday (Jan. 15), when they visit Willamette University for a 6:00 p.m. contest.

1/8 - GEORGE FOX 70, PUGET SOUND 49: Bench Play Gives Bruins Lift over Loggers

NEWBERG, Ore. – Reserves Liz Clark, Jill Barram, and Sarah Myhre combined for 42 points, giving the George Fox University Bruins the lift they needed to defeat the University of Puget Sound Loggers 70-49 in Northwest Conference women's basketball Tuesday night (Jan. 8) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

With the Bruin starters struggling on offense, Myhre and Clark came off the bench to score 9 and 7 points respectively in the first half, enabling the Bruins, ranked 16th in the latest NCAA Division III national poll, to forge a 26-26 halftime tie. George Fox shot only .333 (10-30) in the half while Puget Sound managed a .391 mark (9-23).

In the second half, it was Barram with 12 points, Clark with 10, and starter Nicole Prazeau with 8 that sparked the Bruins to an eventual runaway victory. Leading only 45-42 after the Loggers' Angie Cashman made a pair of free throws with 10:06 left, the Bruins went on a 17-0 run over the next six minutes for a 62-42 lead and firm control of the game. The Bruins' shooting improved to .529 (18-34) in the final half while the defense held the Loggers to .318 (7-22) from the field.

Clark finished with a career-high 17 to lead all scorers, Barram had 14 in her first extensive action since rejoining the team during the holidays after a knee injury, Myhre had a career-high 11, and Prazeau added 11. Myhre and Prazeau grabbed 7 rebounds apiece to carry the Bruins to a 37-33 edge on the boards. Prazeau and Heather Doud had 4 steals each as the Bruins forced 20 UPS turnovers while making only 11 of their own. Becky Thompson had a game-high 6 assists.

The Loggers were led by Julie Vanni, the league's leading scorer at 17.8 points per game, with 13, and Jen McLuen came off the UPS bench to score 11. Vanni had a team-high 6 rebounds.

George Fox got back on the winning track after suffering its only loss of the season Saturday at Pacific Lutheran University, improving to 12-1 overall and 3-1 in the conference. Puget Sound slipped to 9-2 overall and 1-1 in the league.

The Bruins next visit Lewis & Clark College Friday (Jan. 11) while the Loggers are at Whitworth College Friday. Both are conference games at 6:00 p.m., followed by the men's games at 8:00 p.m.

After having their record-tying 11-game win streak snapped Saturday by PLU in a 51-45 setback in Tacoma, the 16th-ranked Bruins hope to start another string tonight, but face a stiff challenge in Puget Sound. Led by Julie Vanni, the NWC's leading scorer (17.4) and 2nd-ranked rebounder (8.6), the Loggers have stamped themselves as a legitimate contender for the conference crown with their 9-1 start. Allison McCurdy gives UPS a strong outside threat as she leads the NWC in 3-pointers per game (2.22), while Lindsay May was last week's NWC Player of the Week with a 24-point, 6-rebound performance vs. Pacific. Expect another defensive battle, as the Bruins are 3rd in scoring defense (54.5) and the Loggers are 4th (58.4). Heather Doud with 15 points and 9 rebounds, Darby Cave with 12 points, and Liz Clark with 11 led the Bruins in the PLU game.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Loggers 7-4 ... George Fox swept last year's games, 65-51 in Newberg and 65-58 in Tacoma ... The Bruins have won the last 5 meetings ... Puget Sound's last win was 77-66 on Feb. 23, 1999, in Tacoma The Loggers won their first 7 before suffering their only loss, 87-75 at Southern Oregon ...

1/8 -- NATIONAL RANKINGS: Bruins Drop 10 Spots to 16th after Loss at PLU

NEWBERG, Ore. -- A 51-45 setback at Pacific Lutheran University on Jan. 5, their first loss of the season, resulted in a drop of 10 spots for the George Fox University Bruins in the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 poll of Jan. 8, conducted by D3hoops.com, the sixth poll of the season.

George Fox, 11-1 on the season, slipped from 6th to 16th with 249 points. The loss also vaulted PLU, 10-1, ahead of the Bruins into 14th with 266 points. They were the only two Northwest Conference teams to receive votes this week.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top for the fifth week in a row with 622 points and 22 first-place votes, after running second to Messiah College in the pre-season and first weekly polls. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every poll but two -- and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country, and is published weekly. Previous Top 25 results and the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls can be found at www.d3hoops.com

1/8 -- NATIONAL RANKINGS: Bruins Drop 10 Spots to 16th after Loss at PLU

NEWBERG, Ore. -- A 51-45 setback at Pacific Lutheran University on Jan. 5, their first loss of the season, resulted in a drop of 10 spots for the George Fox University Bruins in the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 poll of Jan. 8, conducted by D3hoops.com, the sixth poll of the season.

George Fox, 11-1 on the season, slipped from 6th to 16th with 249 points. The loss also vaulted PLU, 10-1, ahead of the Bruins into 14th with 266 points. They were the only two Northwest Conference teams to receive votes this week.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top for the fifth week in a row with 622 points and 22 first-place votes, after running second to Messiah College in the pre-season and first weekly polls. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every poll but two -- and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country, and is published weekly. Previous Top 25 results and the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls can be found at www.d3hoops.com

12/18 -- NATIONAL RANKINGS: Bruins Gain Votes but Stay at No. 6 After Off Week

NEWBERG, Ore. -- After a week off for final exams, the George Fox University Bruins remained in 6th place in the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 conducted by D3hoops.com this week, the fifth poll of the season, but picked up eight additional votes for a total of 471.

George Fox is 9-0 after defeating Marian College (Wisc.) 61-48 in the first round of the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic Monday (Dec. 17) in Hilo, Hawaii. The Bruins' 9-0 start equals the best ever set by last year's team en route to a 23-3 record.

Pacific Lutheran University was the only other Northwest Conference team to receive votes, totaling 22 points to tie for 29th. The Bruins and Lutes will meet for the first time this season on Jan. 5 in Tacoma.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top for the fourth week in a row with 622 points and 22 first-place votes, after running second to Messiah College in the pre-season and first weekly polls. 11-27 -- NATIONAL RANKINGS: Bruins Jump From 14th to 10th in National Rankings

NEWBERG, Ore -- After a 2-0 week that included the championship of the Concordia-Portland Tournament against two NAIA playoff-caliber teams, the George Fox University Bruins have climbed from 14th to 10th in the NCAA Division National Women's Basketball Poll conducted by d3hoops.com.

The Bruins received 349 votes in jumping four spots after having 227 points last week. George Fox was 19th with 187 points in the pre-season poll.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, is back on top after running second to Messiah College in the pre-season and first weekly polls. Messiah dropped to 16th after its first loss this week. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every poll but two -- and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

George Fox will put its 3-0 record on the line this weekend, facing Western Baptist College Friday and Northwest College of the Assemblies of God Saturday in the Pacific Lutheran Classic in Tacoma, Wash. Both games are afternoon contests starting at 2:00 p.m. With a sweep, sixth-year coach Scott Rueck could secure his 100th career coaching victory; he is 98-33 to date.

The complete polls for both men's and women's D-III basketball is available at www.d3hoops.com.

BRUIN BITS:

 Doud Wins 2nd POW Honor:

Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) earned her second NWC Player of the Week award for games of Dec. 10-23 by sparking the Bruins to a pair of wins in the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic in Hilo, Hawaii, Dec. 17-18. In a 61-48 win over Marian (Wisc.), she connected on 8-18 from the field (3-7 on 3's) and 5-6 from the line for 24 points, with 4 rebounds, 1 assist, and 1 steal. In a 62-48 win over St. Mary's (Ind.), she made 6-10 from the field (2-3 on 3's) and 6-7 from the line for 20 points, grabbing 9 rebounds with 1 assist and 3 steals. For the week, she was 14-28 from the field (.500), including 5-10 from 3-pt range (.500), made 11-13 from the line (.846), pulled down 13 rebounds (6.5), and had 2 assists and 4 steals.

Doud was the first NWC Player of the Week this season (Nov. 18-24). She also received Honorable Mention for Player of the Week for Dec. 31-Jan. 6 by scoring 29 points with 23 rebounds in games vs. Warner Pacific and Pacific Lutheran. Lindsay May of Puget Sound earned NWC Player of the Week honors for Dec. 31-Jan. 6 with a 24-point, 6-rebound effort in a win over Pacific that included a 10-10 game from the free throw line.

 Bruins Tie Record with 11 Straight Wins while Setting Mark for Best Start Ever

The George Fox Bruins stretched their record for best start ever to 11-0 with a 66-62 overtime win over Warner Pacific on Jan. 2 before suffering their first setback of the season, a 51-45 loss at Pacific Lutheran on Jan. 5. The 11 straight wins to open up the season surpassed the 9-0 start by last year's Bruins. The 11 wins in a row equaled previous record 11-game streaks by the 1999-2000 and 2000-01 teams.

 Bruins Remain in 6th Place Nationally:

The George Fox University Bruins remained in 6th place in the latest NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 conducted by D3hoops.com on Dec. 18, the fifth poll of the season. The next poll will be released on Jan. 8.

George Fox was 8-0 at the time the vote was take, but has played four games since then, going 3-1 for an 11-1 record. Pacific Lutheran University was the only other Northwest Conference team to receive votes, totaling 22 points to tie for 29th.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top for the fourth week in a row with 622 points and 22 first-place votes, after running second to Messiah College in the pre-season and first weekly polls. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every poll but two – and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country. Previous Top 25 results and the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls can be found at www.d3hoops.com

5th Week	6	471	8-0

 On the All-Time Lists:

With 16 points in two games this past week, Nicole Prazeau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) now has 954 career points, passing Angela Pettit (950) for 9th on the all-time scoring list. Prazeau should become only the 8th player in Bruin history to score 1,000 career points before the season is over ...

Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) had 7 assists and 5 steals in two games this past week, remaining 3rd in career assists (328) and moving past Tracy Nelson into 3rd in steals (194). It is unlikely she will catch the No. 2 assists leader, Linda Funderhide (538), but she should continue to move up on the steals chart; in 2nd place is Nancy Rissmiller (205).

1/2 – GEORGE FOX 66, WARNER PACIFIC 62, OT: Bruins Tie Record with 11th Straight Win

NEWBERG, Ore. – Becky Thompson sank four free throws in the last minute of overtime, giving the George Fox University Bruins a 66-62 win over the upset-minded Warner Pacific College Knights and their record-tying 11th straight victory in a non-conference women's basketball game Wednesday night (Jan. 2) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins tied a record set two years ago by the 1999-2000 team and tied by last year's team while extending their overall record this season to 11-0, the best start in team history. Warner Pacific dropped to 2-14 overall, but the Knights of the NAIA threw a major scare into the Bruins, who are ranked 6th in NCAA Division III.

Hitting four of their first five shots, the Knights jumped out to an early lead and were up 14-8 after a Gloria Doud layup with 14:15 to go in the first half. The Bruins, who struggled all night from the field until the overtime period, trailed most of the half but managed to take a 28-27 halftime lead on a Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore.) jumper with 1:58 left.

George Fox went on an 11-2 run to start the second half to take apparent control with a 39-29 lead at 16:14, and maintained a lead until late in the half. Cave's layup gave the Bruins a 56-47 lead with 3:34 to play, but the Knights scored the final nine points of the period, Alicia Rochelle's two free throws with 1:04 left knotting the score 56-56 and sending the game into overtime.

Shawna Damon's rebound basket gave Warner Pacific their final lead of 62-60 with 1:50 to play, but Heather Doud's layup at 1:20 tied it for the Bruins, setting the stage for Thompson's free-throw heroics. She drained a pair with 41 seconds left for a 64-62 Bruin lead, then after Doud rebounded a miss that could have tied the game with 14 seconds left, Thompson hit two more freebies with 11 seconds remaining to ice the hard-fought win.

George Fox survived despite shooting only .300 (21-70) from the field, and only a 3-5 overtime got them to that mark. The Bruins also committed 23 turnovers, but forced the Knights into 20 and held them to a .356 (21-59) shooting night. The Bruins' rebounding was the decisive factor in the game as George Fox held a 57-38 edge on the boards, including 23 on the offensive end.

Cave and Doud each turned in double-doubles for the Bruins, Cave with 18 points and 10 rebounds and Doud with 14 and 14. Thompson and Nicole Prazneau added 12 points apiece, while Liz Clark (Fr., W, Elbe, Wash.) had a career-high 9 rebounds and Thompson passed out 5 assists.

Damon scored 15 to lead the Knights, while Jillian Burnett added 12 and Rochelle 11. Gloria Doud and Jennifer Haberly led Warner Pacific with 6 rebounds each, and Rochelle had 4 assists.

1/5 - PACIFIC LUTHERAN 51, GEORGE FOX 45: Lutes Hand Bruins First Loss of the Season

TACOMA, Wash. - For three straight years, the George Fox University Bruins have put together record 11-game winning streaks, but for the third year in a row, the streak will go no further as the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes handed the Bruins their first loss of the season, a 51-45 setback in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 5) here at Olson Auditorium.

The Bruins, ranked 6th in the NCAA Division III, fell to 11-1 overall and 2-1 in the conference, while the Lutes, ranked 29th, improved to 10-1 overall and moved a game-and-a-half ahead of George Fox in the league standings at 4-0. The win was the 9th in a row for the Lutes, who edged the Bruins 77-76 for conference favorites in the pre-season NWC coaches' poll, and ended their five-game losing streak to the Bruins.

Nicole Prazneau hit a short jumper from the left baseline to open the scoring, giving the Bruins the only lead they would hold in the first half at 2-0. Pacific Lutheran twice built leads of as much as five points but could never put the Bruins away, and led 25-22 at the break.

Liz Clark gave George Fox its first lead of the second half, 31-30, with a jumper at the 14:28 mark, and Darby Cave added a jump hook at 13:50 for the Bruins's biggest lead of the game at 33-30. But the Lutes rallied behind back-to-back steals and layups by Toni Craig to regain the advantage, 36-35, at 9:07.

A Becky Thompson free throw at 4:22 pulled the Bruins back into a 42-42 tie, the 7th tie of the game, but Jessica Iserman's free toss at 4:02 broke the tie and put the Lutes ahead for good. PLU stretched it to 47-42 at 2:54 on a pair of baskets by Jamie Keatts. Heather Doud's three-pointer with 30 seconds left cut the deficit to 47-45, but Becky Franza hit two free throws with 13 seconds left and Keatts added two more with 0.1 remaining for the final 6-point margin, the largest of the game for either team.

The game was expected to be a defensive struggle, and the final numbers showed it. PLU held the Bruins to a .362 shooting percentage (17-47) while George Fox held the Lutes to .400 (20-50). The Lutes forced 22 Bruin turnovers and blocked 10 shots, while George Fox pressured PLU into 15 turnovers and blocked a pair. PLU edged the Bruins on the boards 32-31.

Doud led the Bruins with 15 points and 9 rebounds, while Cave scored 12 and Clark 11. Prazneau had 8 rebounds and 3 assists, and Thompson made 3 steals.

Franza topped the Lutes with 13 points and 3 assists, while Iserman scored 12 and had 8 rebounds. Courtney Johnson led everyone with 10 rebounds and 6 blocked shots, while Craig picked up 5 steals.

1/5 — PACIFIC LUTHERAN 51, GEORGE FOX 45: Lutes Hand Bruins First Loss of the Season

TACOMA, Wash. — For three straight years, the George Fox University Bruins have put together record 11-game winning streaks, but for the third year in a row, the streak will go no further as the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes handed the Bruins their first loss of the season, a 51-45 setback in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Saturday night (Jan. 5) here at Olson Auditorium.

The Bruins, ranked 6th in the NCAA Division III, fell to 11-1 overall and 2-1 in the conference, while the Lutes, ranked 29th, improved to 10-1 overall and moved a game-and-a-half ahead of George Fox in the league standings at 4-0. The win was the 9th in a row for the Lutes, who edged the Bruins 77-76 for conference favorites in the pre-season NWC coaches' poll, and ended their five-game losing streak to the Bruins.

Nicole Prazeau hit a short jumper from the left baseline to open the scoring, giving the Bruins the only lead they would hold in the first half at 2-0. Pacific Lutheran twice built leads of as much as five points but could never put the Bruins away, and led 25-22 at the break.

Liz Clark gave George Fox its first lead of the second half, 31-30, with a jumper at the 14:28 mark, and Darby Cave added a jump hook at 13:50 for the Bruins's biggest lead of the game at 33-30. But the Lutes rallied behind back-to-back steals and layups by Toni Craig to regain the advantage, 36-35, at 9:07.

A Becky Thompson free throw at 4:22 pulled the Bruins back into a 42-42 tie, the 7th tie of the game, but Jessica Iserman's free toss at 4:02 broke the tie and put the Lutes ahead for good. PLU stretched it to 47-42 at 2:54 on a pair of baskets by Jamie Keatts. Heather Doud's three-pointer with 30 seconds left cut the deficit to 47-45, but Becky Franza hit two free throws with 13 seconds left and Keatts added two more with 0.1 remaining for the final 6-point margin, the largest of the game for either team.

The game was expected to be a defensive struggle, and the final numbers showed it. PLU held the Bruins to a .362 shooting percentage (17-47) while George Fox held the Lutes to .400 (20-50). The Lutes forced 22 Bruin turnovers and blocked 10 shots, while George Fox pressured PLU into 15 turnovers and blocked a pair. PLU edged the Bruins on the boards 32-31.

Doud led the Bruins with 15 points and 9 rebounds, while Cave scored 12 and Clark 11. Prazeau had 8 rebounds and 3 assists, and Thompson made 3 steals.

Franza topped the Lutes with 13 points and 3 assists, while Iserman scored 12 and had 8 rebounds. Courtney Johnson led everyone with 10 rebounds and 6 blocked shots, while Craig picked up 5 steals.

George Fox returns home Tuesday (Jan. 8), hosting the University of Puget Sound at 6:00 p.m., followed by the GFU-UPS men's game at 8:00 p.m. Pacific Lutheran visits Whitman College Friday (Jan. 11) at 6:00 p.m.

LUTES DEFEAT UNDEFEATED #6 GEORGE FOX

TACOMA, Wash. -- The Pacific Lutheran (4-0 NWC, 10-1 overall) women's basketball team foiled George Fox's undefeated season (2-1 NWC, 11-1), 51-45, here Saturday night in a Northwest Conference game. The victory was the eighth straight for the Lutes and gave the previously undefeated Bruins, ranked sixth nationally by d3hoops.com, their first loss in 12 games.

The game was a rematch of last year's NWC championship game in which the Bruins beat the Lutes, 63-58, in Newberg, Ore. PLU ended a five-game losing streak against George Fox. The last previous win occurred Feb. 27, 1999, 61-35.

The largest lead of the game by either team, six points, occurred for the first and only time with 0.1 seconds. Jamie Keatts swished two free throws, giving PLU the final tallics of the game. Surprisingly, for a game so close, there were only three lead changes. A jumper by Hilary Berg gave PLU an early 4-2 lead, a jumper by Bruin Liz Clark with 14:33 remaining gave George Fox a 31-30 lead, and a steal and fastbreak layup by Lute Toni Craig at the 9:24 mark gave PLU its final lead of the game at 36-35. There were seven ties, the final one occurring at 42 with 4:24 remaining.

The Lutes' leading scorer, Becky Franza, played all 40 minutes and scored 13. Jessica Iserman scored 12 and led PLU in rebounds with 12. Craig recorded a game-high five steals. Courtney Johnson, a 6-3 sophomore center, blocked five shots and altered numerous George Fox shot attempts throughout the game.

George Fox was led by Heather Doud's 15 points and nine rebounds. Darby Cave added 12 points and Nicole Prazeau gathered eight rebounds for the Bruins.

A Bruin turnover by Doud, her 10th, with 3:10 remaining led to a subsequent jumper by Jamie Keatts after a Lute timeout. That PLU lead of five, 47-42, with 2:54 remaining would prove insurmountable for George Fox. After Franza made two free throws with 13 seconds remaining, giving PLU a 49-45 lead, George Fox never got a shot off before Nicole Prazeau committed a turnover with two seconds remaining.

PLU returns to action at 6 p.m. Friday, Jan. 11, against Whitman in Walla Walla, Wash. George Fox will host Puget Sound at 6 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 8.

1/2 - GEORGE FOX 66, WARNER PACIFIC 62, OT: Bruins Tie Record with 11th Straight Win

NEWBERG, Ore. - Becky Thompson sank four free throws in the last minute of overtime, giving the George Fox University Bruins a 66-62 win over the upset-minded Warner Pacific College Knights and their record-tying 11th straight victory in a non-conference women's basketball game Wednesday night (Jan. 2) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The Bruins tied a record set two years ago by the 1999-2000 team and tied by last year's team while extending their overall record this season to 11-0, the best start in team history. Warner Pacific dropped to 2-14 overall, but the Knights of the NAIA threw a major scare into the Bruins, who are ranked 6th in NCAA Division III.

Hitting four of their first five shots, the Knights jumped out to an early lead and were up 14-8 after a Gloria Doud layup with 14:15 to go in the first half. The Bruins, who struggled all night from the field until the overtime period, trailed most of the half but managed to take a 28-27 halftime lead on a Darby Cave jumper with 1:58 left.

George Fox went on an 11-2 run to start the second half to take apparent control with a 39-29 lead at 16:14, and maintained a lead until late in the half. Cave's layup gave the Bruins a 56-47 lead with 3:34 to play, but the Knights scored the final nine points of the period, Alicia Rochelle's two free throws with 1:04 left knotting the score 56-56 and sending the game into overtime.

Shawna Damon's rebound basket gave Warner Pacific their final lead of 62-60 with 1:50 to play, but Heather Doud's layup at 1:20 tied it for the Bruins, setting the stage for Thompson's free-throw heroics. She drained a pair with 41 seconds left for a 64-62 Bruin lead, then after Doud rebounded a miss that could have tied the game with 14 seconds left, Thompson hit two more freebies with 11 seconds remaining to ice the hard-fought win.

George Fox survived despite shooting only .300 (21-70) from the field, and only a 3-5 overtime got them to that mark. The Bruins also committed 23 turnovers, but forced the Knights into 20 and held them to a .356 (21-59) shooting night. The Bruins' rebounding was the decisive factor in the game as George Fox held a 57-38 edge on the boards, including 23 on the offensive end.

Cave and Doud each turned in double-doubles for the Bruins, Cave with 18 points and 10 rebounds and Doud with 14 and 14. Thompson and Nicole Prazeau added 12 points apiece, while Liz Clark had a career-high 9 rebounds and Thompson passed out 5 assists.

Damon scored 15 to lead the Knights, while Jillian Burnett added 12 and Rochelle 11. Gloria Doud and Jennifer Haberly led Warner Pacific with 6 rebounds each, and Rochelle had 4 assists.

George Fox will attempt to gain a record 12th straight win Saturday (Jan. 5) while visiting pre-season Northwest Conference favorite Pacific Lutheran University. Game time is 6:00 p.m. in Tacoma. Warner Pacific hosts Walla Walla College Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

Having established a new team record for the best start ever to a season at 10-0, the Bruins will be out to tie the record for most consecutive wins (11) tonight in their final non-conference game of the season. The Bruins, coming off a sweep of Marian (WI) and St. Mary's (IN) in the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic in Hilo, Hawaii, bring an #6 NCAA Division III national ranking into the contest. The Knights opened their season with 6 straight losses, defeated Multnomah Bible for their only win, and have dropped their last 7.

THE SERIES

George Fox leads the series 23-4 after opening the season with a 73-55 win over the Knights in Portland. The Bruins fell behind 7-0, then scored 17 unanswered points to take control. Heather Doud had 25 and Darby Cave 20 to lead the Bruins, while Shawna Damon had 21 for WPC ... The Bruins have won the last 8 meetings ... WPC's last win in the series was an 84-42 victory in Portland on Feb. 3, 1989.

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State '91) notched his 100th career win when the Bruins defeated Northwest 78-68 on Saturday, Dec. 1, in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic in Tacoma, Wash. He is 105-33 (.762) in his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. Against the upcoming opponents, he is 2-0 vs. Warner Pacific (1-0 in Newberg, 1-0 in Portland), and 6-6 vs. Pacific Lutheran (4-2 in Newberg, 2-4 in Tacoma).

BRUIN BITS:

 Bruins' 10-0 Start is Best Ever; Record for Consecutive Wins Looms Ahead

By winning their first 10 games of the season, this year's George Fox Bruins have established a new team record for the most wins at the start of a season, and are closing in on the record for most consecutive wins overall. Last year's team began the season 9-0 before losing to Northwestern of Iowa, the 2nd-ranked team in the NAIA, then went on an 11-0 tear to vault to No. 1 in the nation en route to a best-ever 23-3 record. Both the 2000-01 and 1999-2000 teams recorded record 11-game winning streaks during the season. This year's Bruins can tie the record Wednesday, Jan. 2, if they can defeat Warner Pacific College at home. They would then face perhaps their toughest challenge of the season by trying to break the record on the road against Pacific Lutheran University, the pre-season Northwest Conference favorite and the Bruins' closest competitors the last two seasons.

 Bruins Remain in 6th Place Nationally:

After a week off for final exams, the George Fox University Bruins remained in 6th place in the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 conducted by D3hoops.com this week, the fifth poll of the season, but picked up eight additional votes for a total of 471.

George Fox was 8-0 at the time the vote was taken, and has since improved to 10-0 after defeating Marian College (Wisc.) 61-48 in the first round and St. Mary's College (Ind.) 62-48 in the second round of the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic Dec. 17-18 in Hilo, Hawaii. The Bruins' 10-0 start breaks the previous best start of 9-0 set by last year's team en route to a 23-3 record.

Pacific Lutheran University was the only other Northwest Conference team to receive votes, totaling 22 points to tie for 29th. The Bruins and Lutes will meet for the first time this season on Jan. 5 in Tacoma.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top for the fourth week in a row with 622 points and 22 first-place votes, after running second to Messiah College in the pre-season and first weekly polls. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every poll but two – and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

The D3hoops.com Top 25 is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors and writers from across the country, and is published weekly. Previous Top 25 results and the complete men's and women's D-III basketball polls can be found at www.d3hoops.com

 On the All-Time Lists:

With 19 points in two games in Hawaii, Nicole Prazneau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) now has 938 career points and ranks 10th on the all-time scoring list. In 9th is Angela Pettit (950). Prazneau should become only the 8th player in Bruin history to score 1,000 career points before the season is over ...

Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) had 4 assists and 5 steals in the two Hawaii games, remaining 3rd in career assists (321) and moving past Melody Groeneveld-McMaster into 4th place in steals (189). It is unlikely she will catch the No. 2 assists leader, Linda Funderhide (538), but she should continue to move up on the steals chart; in 3rd place is Tracy Nelson (192).

 Personal Highs:

Amy Fitch (So., W, Ritzville, Wash.) hit a new career high for field goals (6) vs. Marian while coming up one point short (12) of her high of 13 ...

Melissa Alexander (Fr., PG, Portland, Ore.) led the Bruins with 7 rebounds and 4 assists vs. Marian, setting new personal highs in each category ...

Sarah Myhre (Fr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) handed out a career high 3 assists vs. Marian ...

 Bruins in NCAA National Stats (thru Dec. 10):

George Fox – 1st in won-lost pct. (1.000, 8-0, tie); 21st in scoring margin (+20.38); 24th in scoring offense (76.0); 27th in 3-pt field goals per game (5.63); 32nd in 3-pt field goal pct. (.357); 35th in rebound margin (+8.6)

12/17 – GEORGE FOX 61, MARIAN 48: Doud Scores 24 as Bruins Tie Record for Best Start

HILO, Hawaii – Led by Heather Doud's 24 points, the George Fox University Bruins tied the team record for most wins at the start of a season with their 9th victory in a row, a 61-48 decision over the Marian College (Wisc.) Sabres in the opening game of the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic Monday morning (Dec. 17) here at Afook-Chinen Civic Auditorium.

The Bruins, ranked No. 6 in the latest NCAA Division III national poll conducted by D3hoops.com, tied the 9-0 mark set by last year's team en route to a best-ever 23-3 record. The Sabres dropped to 3-7.

Doud was the only Bruin in double figures as 11 different players saw 10 or more minutes of playing time. Backup point guard Melissa Alexander led the Bruins with 7 rebounds as George Fox edged Marian on the board, 38-37, including 15 on the offensive end, and had a game-high 4 assists. Jill Barram (Sr., PG, Salem, Ore.), the Bruins' valuable "sixth-man" last year who had been expected to step into the starting lineup this season at a wing, scored 4 points in her first action of the year after missing the previous eight games with a knee injury.

The George Fox defense held Marian to a .238 shooting percentage (5-21) in the first half, enabling the Bruins to build up a 35-22 halftime lead. The Bruins, with their offensive board strength, hit 14 of 36 shots (.389). For the game, the Bruins made .424 (25-59) while holding the Sabres to only .366 (15-41).

Anne Doornek was the only Marian player in double figures with 15 points and also had a team-high 7 rebounds.

12/18 – GEORGE FOX 62, ST. MARY'S 48: Tournament Win Boosts Bruins to Best-Ever Start at 10-0

HILO, Hawaii – For the second day in a row, Heather Doud led the George Fox University Bruins to victory, this time with 20 points, as the Bruins set a new team record for best start to a season in a 62-48 win over the St. Mary's College (Ind.) Belles in the women's basketball portion of the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic Tuesday morning (Dec. 18) here at Afook-Chinen Civic Auditorium.

The Bruins, who were ranked No. 6 for the second week in a row in the NCAA Division III national poll conducted by D3hoops.com which was released Tuesday afternoon, improved to 10-0, breaking the 9-0 mark set by last year's team, which went on to a best-ever 23-3 record. The Belles dropped to 3-7.

Doud connected on 6-10 from the field, including 2-3 from three-point range, and 6-7 from the free throw line for her game-high 20, following up on a 24-point performance the day before against Marian College (Wisc.). Amy Fitch added 12 points, while Nicole Prazeau recorded a double-double with 11 points and a game-high 10 rebounds. Doud also had 9 boards as the Bruins out-rebounded the Belles 38-25.

Emily Chreachbaum with 14 points and 5 rebounds, and Anne Blair with 12 points and 6 rebounds, were tops in those categories for the Belles.

12/18 - NATIONAL RANKINGS: Bruins Gain Votes but Stay at No. 6 After Off Week

NEWBERG, Ore. - After a week off for final exams, the George Fox University Bruins remained in 6th place in the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 conducted by D3hoops.com this week, the fifth poll of the season, but picked up eight additional votes for a total of 471.

George Fox is 9-0 after defeating Marian College (Wisc.) 61-48 in the first round of the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic Monday (Dec. 17) in Hilo, Hawaii. The Bruins' 9-0 start equals the best ever set by last year's team en route to a 23-3 record.

Pacific Lutheran University was the only other Northwest Conference team to receive votes, totaling 22 points to tie for 29th. The Bruins and Lutes will meet for the first time this season on Jan. 5 in Tacoma.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top for the fourth week in a row with 622 points and 22 first-place votes, after running second to Messiah College in the pre-season and first weekly polls. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every poll but two - and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

12/17 - GEORGE FOX 61, MARIAN 48: Doud Scores 24 as Bruins Tie Record for Best Start

HILO, Hawaii - Led by Heather Doud's 24 points, the George Fox University Bruins tied the team record for most wins at the start of a season with their 9th victory in a row, a 61-48 decision over the Marian College (Wisc.) Sabres in the opening game of the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic Monday morning (Dec. 17) here at Afook-Chinen Civic Auditorium.

The Bruins, ranked No. 6 in the latest NCAA Division III national poll conducted by D3hoops.com, tied the 9-0 mark set by last year's team en route to a best-ever 23-3 record. The Sabres dropped to 3-7.

Doud was the only Bruin in double figures as 11 different players saw 10 or more minutes of playing time. Backup point guard Melissa Alexander led the Bruins with 7 rebounds as George Fox edged Marian on the board, 38-37, including 15 on the offensive end, and had a game-high 4 assists. Jill Barram, the Bruins' valuable "sixth-man" last year who had been expected to step into the starting lineup this season at a wing, scored 4 points in her first action of the year after missing the previous eight games with a knee injury.

The George Fox defense held Marian to a .238 shooting percentage (5-21) in the first half, enabling the Bruins to build up a 35-22 halftime lead. The Bruins, with their offensive board strength, hit 14 of 36 shots (.389). For the game, the Bruins made .424 (25-59) while holding the Sabres to only .366 (15-41).

Anne Doornek was the only Marian player in double figures with 15 points and also had a team-high 7 rebounds.

The Bruins go after the season-opening record Tuesday (Dec. 18) in the second round of the Coconut Coast Classic against the Belles of St. Mary's College (Ind.). Tipoff is 12:00 noon Pacific time (10:00 a.m. in Hawaii).

COACH SCOTT RUECK (Oregon State '91) notched his 100th career win when the Bruins defeated Northwest 78-68 on Saturday, Dec. 1, in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic in Tacoma, Wash. He is 103-33 (.757) in his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. He has not faced either opponent in the Coconut Coast Classic.

BRUIN BITS:

 Cave Honorable Mention for NWC "Player of the Week" for 2nd Straight Week:

In a week in which the 9th-ranked Bruins "shared the wealth" in winning three games, Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore.) was the team's most consistent performer, earning Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for the second week in a row. In an 81-53 win over Pacific, she was 5-8 from the field and 1-2 from the line for 11 points, with 5 rebounds and 1 assist. In a 75-46 win over Willamette, she was 7-13 from the field for a game-high 14 points, with 9 rebounds and 1 steal. In a 92-35 win over Evergreen State, she was 4-9 from the field and 3-4 from the line for 11 points, with 5 rebounds, 1 assist, and 2 blocked shots. For the week, she was 16-30 (.533) from the field and 4-7 (.571) from the line for 36 points (12.0 ppg), with 19 rebounds (6.3 rpg), with 2 assists, 2 blocked shots, and 1 steal.

NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to Julie Vanni of Puget Sound, who scored a conference-high 32 points and had 11 rebounds and 4 steals in the Loggers' win at Warner Pacific.

The Bruins' Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) was the first NWC "Player of the Week" this season, earning the honor for the week of Dec. 19-25.

 Bruin Up to 9th in the Nation:

A 2-0 week in which they defeated NAIA teams Western Baptist and Northwest in the PLU Classic enabled the George Fox Bruins to climb one spot from 10th to 9th in the NCAA Division III National Women's Basketball Top 25 of Dec. 4 conducted by D3hoops.com. With a 5-0 record, George Fox received 387 votes after garnering 349 the week before. George Fox was 19th with 187 points in the pre-season poll and 14th with 227 points after the first week of the season.

Pacific Lutheran was the only other Northwest Conference team to receive votes, totaling 32 which would place the Lutes 30th. Washington (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, remained on top for the second week in a row after running second to Messiah in the pre-season and first weekly polls. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every poll but two – and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!! The complete poll for both men and women is available at www.d3hoops.com.

 Closing in on Best Start Ever:

With an 8-0 record, the George Fox Bruins are closing in on a new record for best start to a season. Last year's team began the season 9-0 before losing to Northwestern of Iowa, the 2nd-ranked team in the NAIA, then went on an 11-0 tear to vault to No. 1 in the nation en route to a best-ever 23-3 record. The Bruins can set a new mark for best start ever if they can defeat Marian (Wisc.) and St. Mary's (Ind.) in the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic Dec. 17-28 in Hilo, Hawaii.

 On the All-Time Lists:

With 7 points in the Willamette game Wednesday, Nicole Prazeau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) now has 919 career points and ranks 10th on the all-time scoring list. In 9th is Angela Pettit (950). Prazeau should become only the 8th player in Bruin history to score 1,000 career points before the season is over ...

Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) had 4 assists and 5 steals vs. Willamette, and now ranks 3rd in career assists (317) and 5th in steals (184). It is unlikely she will catch the No. 2 assists leader, Linda Funderhide (538), but she should continue to move up on the steals chart. In 4th place is Melody Groeneveld-McMaster (186) and in 3rd is Tracy Nelson (192).

 Personal Highs:

Heather Doud set a personal mark for field goal pct. (.714) by sinking 5-7 from the floor vs. Pacific ...

Becky Thompson tied her career best with 2 3-point field goals VS. Evergreen State ...

Amy Fitch (So., W, Ritzville, Wash.) set new career highs for points (13), field goals (5), 3-pointers (3) and 3-point attempts (5) vs. Willamette ...

Emily Ruggles (Jr., P, Eugene, Ore.) tied her career high with 3 field goals vs. Pacific, set new marks for points (9), rebounds (8), free throws and attempts (7-8) vs. Willamette, and tied her most field goal attempts (8) vs. Evergreen State ...

Shai Workman (Jr., W, Moscow, Idaho) set new personal best for free throws (3), free throw attempts (5), and rebounds (4) vs. Evergreen State ...

 Newcomers Making an Impact:

Christine McCandless (Fr., P, Medford, Ore.), who red-shirted last year, played her first two games for the Bruins, picking up her first assist vs. Pacific, and her first points on free throws (2-2) while grabbing 7 rebounds vs. Evergreen State ...

Liz Clark (Fr., W, Elbe, Wash.) had a new highs of 6 rebounds and 3 steals vs. Pacific, and 9 points and 6 assists vs. Evergreen State ...

Sarah Myhre (Fr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) scored 8 points, hitting 4-4 free throws, and pulled down 6 rebounds vs. Willamette to establish new highs in all those categories, then picked up her first steal vs. Evergreen State ...

Mandy Dunham (Fr., W, Richland, Wash.) had a career-high 4 rebounds vs. Willamette, then scored 13 points, hitting 7-8 free throws, and had 3 steals to set new personal marks vs. Evergreen State ...

Melissa Alexander (Fr., PG, Portland, Ore.) set new highs vs. Evergreen State for points (10), field goals and attempts (3-4), and free throws and attempts (4-5).

12/03 – GEORGE FOX 81, PACIFIC 53: 10th-Ranked Bruins Roll Over Boxers in NWC Opener

NEWBERG, Ore. – Getting the Northwest Conference portion of their schedule off to a good start, the 10th-ranked George Fox University Bruins rolled to an 81-53 victory over the Pacific University Boxers in women's basketball action Monday night (Dec. 3) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The win in the conference opener for both teams boosted the Bruins' record to 6-0, the second-best start in team history; only last year's record-setting 23-3 team bettered that by starting off 9-0. Pacific dropped a game under .500 at 3-4 overall.

It was almost two minutes into the game before either team scored, Nicole Prazeau hitting a jumper at 18:24 to start an 8-0 George Fox run. Mary Lindburg broke the spell with a free throw to get the Boxers on the scoreboard at the 15:58 mark. After a basket by Pacific's Louise Walcott made it 8-3, the Bruins reeled off 13 unanswered points, 6 by Prazeau and 5 by Emily Ruggles, to give George Fox a commanding 21-3 lead.

The Bruins led 34-13 at the break after holding the Boxers to only a .167 (5-30) shooting percentage in the half, and Pacific got no closer than 18 points the rest of the way. George Fox reached its biggest lead at 32 points, 79-47, with 2:26 to play.

Prazeau finished with 19 points, Heather Doud added 16, Darby Cave 11, and Becky Thompson 10 as the Bruins shot .516 (33-64) for the game. Doud and Thompson grabbed 7 rebounds apiece as the Bruins controlled the boards 43-34. Thompson passed out 6 assists.

For Pacific, Janna Vavra was the only player in double figures with 21 points. Lindburg had 9 points and a game-high 8 rebounds, while Walcott had a game-high 7 assists.

12/05 - GEORGE FOX 75, WILLAMETTE 46: Bruins Beat Bearcats to Run Winning Streak to Seven

NEWBERG, Ore. - On a night when their shooters struggled from the field, the George Fox University defense came through with a stellar performance, lifting the Bruins to a 75-46 rout of the Willamette University Bearcats in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Wednesday night (Dec. 5) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The win was the 7th straight for the Bruins, who are ranked No. 9 in the NCAA Division III national poll, lifting their record to 7-0 overall and 2-0 in the conference. George Fox is now two wins away from tying the team record for best start to a season, 9-0 by last year's team. Willamette dropped to 4-4 overall and 0-1 in the conference.

Three-pointers by Amy Fitch and Heather Doud and three straight inside baskets by Darby Cave put George Fox ahead 12-6 six minutes into the contest, and the Bruins gradually extended that lead to 33-21 at the half. Cave finished with 10 points and 8 rebounds in the half. Neither team shot particularly well, George Fox making only .343 (12-35) to .286 (8-28) for Willamette.

The Bruin defense then turned the defensive pressure up a notch to start the second half, holding the Bearcats to only five points over a 10-minute span as they stretched their lead to 30 points at 56-26. With their second unit in the rest of the way, the Bruins maintained at least a 24-point lead to the end.

Cave ended the game with 14 points, Fitch added a career-high 13, and Doud contributed 11. All 10 Bruins who played scored. Cave with 9 rebounds and Emily Ruggles with 8 led the way on the boards as the Bruins out-rebounded the Bearcats 51-31. Becky Thompson handed out 6 assists.

Rosie Contri topped the Bearcats with 14 and Nancy Weyler scored 10 while grabbing 5 rebounds.

12/08 - GEORGE FOX 92, EVERGREEN STATE 35: Bruins Devour Geoducks to Run Record to 8-0

NEWBERG, Ore. - Closing within one game of their best start to a season, the George Fox University Bruins hammered the Evergreen State College Geoducks 92-35 in a non-conference women's basketball game Saturday night (Dec. 8) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

George Fox, ranked No. 9 in the nation in the latest NCAA Division III national poll, improved to 8-0, the second-best start to a season in team history. Last year's Bruins opened the season 9-0 en route to a 23-3 record. Evergreen State dropped its second in a row to fall to 1-10.

Both teams were slow getting under way as neither scored for over three minutes, but Darby Cave's short jumper broke the ice and gave George Fox a 2-0 lead at the 16:38 mark. The Bruins proceeded to score 15 of the game's first 17 points in the next three minutes, with Becky Thompson hitting a lay-up and a pair of three-pointers in the outburst.

Thompson finished with 13 points in the half as the Bruins stretched their lead to 44-21 at the break. When the second half began, George Fox held the Geoducks scoreless for over seven minutes while going on a 23-0 run, and held them without a field goal until Dodie McCallum hit a short jumper in the lane with 6:19 to play. By then the Bruins held a 50-point lead at 78-28. Evergreen State wound up making only 4-26 from the field in the second half. The final margin was George Fox's biggest lead of the game.

Thompson led all scorers with 17 points and all rebounders with 9, picking up 5 steals and throwing in 4 assists for good measure. Mandy Dunham scored 11 and Melissa Alexander 10 off the bench, career highs for both, while Cave added 11. Liz Clark added 9 points and a career-high 6 assists. George Fox won the rebounding battle 58-33, and made 31-39 from the free throw line, one short of the team record of 32 made.

George Fox Women's Basketball ... Dec. 10, 2001 ... page 5

Kristin Zompetti scored 14 in a reserve role as the only Geoduck in double figures, and Chandra Rathke was Evergreen's top rebounder with 6. The Geoducks shot only .211 (12-57) from the field in the game.

The Bruins are off next week for exams, but return to action Monday, Dec. 17, in the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic in Hilo, Hawaii. George Fox will face Marian College (Wisc.) at 12:00 noon Pacific time, then take on St. Mary's College (Ind.) on Tuesday, also at 12:00 noon. The Geoducks head home Monday (Dec. 10) to take on Seattle University at 7:00 p.m.

12/08 - GEORGE FOX, EVERGREEN STATE : Bruins Devour Geoducks to Run Record to 8-0

NEWBERG, Ore. - Closing within one game of their best start to a season, the George Fox University Bruins hammered the Evergreen State College Geoducks 92-35 in a non-conference women's basketball game Saturday night (Dec. 8) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

George Fox, ranked No. 9 in the nation in the latest NCAA Division III national poll, improved to 8-0, the second-best start to a season in team history. Last year's Bruins opened the season 9-0 en route to a 23-3 record. Evergreen State dropped its second in a row to fall to 1-10.

Both teams were slow getting under way as neither scored for over three minutes, but Darby Cave's short jumper broke the ice and gave George Fox a 2-0 lead at the 16:38 mark. The Bruins proceeded to score 15 of the game's first 17 points in the next three minutes, with Becky Thompson hitting a lay-up and a pair of three-pointers in the outburst.

Thompson finished with 13 points in the half as the Bruins stretched their lead to 44-21 at the break. When the second half began, George Fox held the Geoducks scoreless for over seven minutes while going on a 23-0 run, and held them without a field goal until Dodie McCallum hit a short jumper in the lane with 6:19 to play. By then the Bruins held a 50-point lead at 78-28. Evergreen State wound up making only 4-26 from the field in the second half. The final margin was George Fox's biggest lead of the game.

Thompson led all scorers with 17 points and all rebounders with 9, picking up 5 steals and throwing in 4 assists for good measure. Mandy Dunham scored 11 and Melissa Alexander 10 off the bench, career highs for both, while Cave added 11. Liz Clark added 9 points and a career-high 6 assists. George Fox won the rebounding battle 58-33, and made 31-39 from the free throw line, one short of the team record of 32 made.

Kristin Zompetti scored 14 in a reserve role as the only Geoduck in double figures, and Chandra Rathke was Evergreen's top rebounder with 6. The Geoducks shot only .211 (12-57) from the field in the game.

The Bruins are off next week for exams, but return to action Monday, Dec. 17, in the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic in Hilo, Hawaii. George Fox will face Marian College (Wisc.) at 12:00 noon Pacific time, then take on St. Mary's College (Ind.) on Tuesday, also at 12:00 noon. The Geoducks head home Monday (Dec. 10) to take on Seattle University at 7:00 p.m.

12/05 - GEORGE FOX 75, WILLAMETTE 46: Bruins Beat Bearcats to Run Winning Streak to 7

NEWBERG, Ore. – On a night when their shooters struggled from the field, the George Fox University defense came through with a stellar performance, lifting the Bruins to a 75-46 rout of the Willamette University Bearcats in Northwest Conference women's basketball action Wednesday night (Dec. 5) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The win was the 7th straight for the Bruins, who are ranked No. 9 in the NCAA Division III national poll, lifting their record to 7-0 overall and 2-0 in the conference. George Fox is now two wins away from tying the team record for best start to a season, 9-0 by last year's team. Willamette dropped to 4-4 overall and 0-1 in the conference.

Three-pointers by Amy Fitch and Heather Doud and three straight inside baskets by Darby Cave put George Fox ahead 12-6 six minutes into the contest, and the Bruins gradually extended that lead to 33-21 at the half. Cave finished with 10 points and 8 rebounds in the half. Neither team shot particularly well, George Fox making only .343 (12-35) to .286 (8-28) for Willamette.

The Bruin defense then turned the defensive pressure up a notch to start the second half, holding the Bearcats to only five points over a 10-minute span as they stretched their lead to 30 points at 56-26. With their second unit in the rest of the way, the Bruins maintained at least a 24-point lead to the end.

Cave ended the game with 14 points, Fitch added a career-high 13, and Doud contributed 11. All 10 Bruins who played scored. Cave with 9 rebounds and Emily Ruggles with 8 led the way on the boards as the Bruins out-rebounded the Bearcats 51-31. Becky Thompson handed out 6 assists.

Rosie Contri topped the Bearcats with 14 and Nancy Weyler scored 10 while grabbing 5 rebounds.

George Fox steps out of the conference for its next game Saturday (Dec. 8) against Evergreen State College at 7:30 p.m. in Newberg. Willamette visits pre-season conference favorite Pacific Lutheran University Saturday at 8:00 p.m. in Tacoma.

Two of the three teams in last year's Northwest Conference Tournament and the 2000-01 Co-Coaches of the Year meet tonight in the second of a three-game home stand for George Fox. The Bearcats are coming off back-to-back wins in the Lewis & Clark/Bon Appetit Classic, while the Bruins are off to the second-best start in team history (last year's record-setting team started off 9-0). Willamette lost two All-Conference stars in Kelly Sorenson, the league's leading scorer, and Heather Ludwig, but Rosie Contri has stepped into the breach and earned Honorable Mention for NWC "Player of the Week" each of the first two weeks of the season. The Bruins, ranked 9th in the nation in the latest D-III poll, are riding high after an 81-53 conference-opening win over Pacific Monday. Nicole Prazeau led the way in that one with 19 points, followed by Heather Doud with 16, Darby Cave 11, and Becky Thompson 10, while Mandy Dunham and Emily Ruggles had career highs of 7 points off the bench.

THE SERIES

The Bruins lead the series with the Bearcats 28-11 ... The teams split last year, George Fox winning 73-62 in Newberg on Jan. 16 and Willamette returning the favor 59-56 in Salem on Feb. 13 ... The Bearcats' win stopped a record-tying 11-game winning streak by the Bruins and ended George Fox's two-week stay at No. 1 in the nation ... The Bearcats were picked 6th in the pre-season NWC coaches' poll.

12/3 -- GEORGE FOX 81, PACIFIC 53: 10th-Ranked Bruins Roll Over Boxers in NWC Opener

NEWBERG, Ore. -- Getting the Northwest Conference portion of their schedule off to a good start, the 10th-ranked George Fox University Bruins rolled to an 81-53 victory over the Pacific University Boxers in women's basketball action Monday night (Dec. 3) here at the Wheeler Sports Center.

The win in the conference opener for both teams boosted the Bruins' record to 6-0, the second-best start in team history; only last year's record-setting 23-3 team bettered that by starting off 9-0. Pacific dropped a game under .500 at 3-4 overall.

It was almost two minutes into the game before either team scored, Nicole Prazeau hitting a jumper at 18:24 to start an 8-0 George Fox run. Mary Lindburg broke the spell with a free throw to get the Boxers on the scoreboard at the 15:58 mark. After a basket by Pacific's Louise Walcott made it 8-3, the Bruins reeled off 13 unanswered points, 6 by Prazeau and 5 by Emily Ruggles, to give George Fox a commanding 21-3 lead.

The Bruins led 34-13 at the break after holding the Boxers to only a .167 (5-30) shooting percentage in the half, and Pacific got no closer than 18 points the rest of the way. George Fox reached its biggest lead at 32 points, 79-47, with 2:26 to play.

Prazeau finished with 19 points, Heather Doud added 16, Darby Cave 11, and Becky Thompson 10 as the Bruins shot .516 (33-64) for the game. Doud and Thompson grabbed 7 rebounds apiece as the Bruins controlled the boards 43-34. Thompson passed out 6 assists.

For Pacific, Janna Vavra was the only player in double figures with 21 points. Lindburg had 9 points and a game-high 8 rebounds, while Walcott had a game-high 7 assists.

George Fox hosts Willamette University in conference action Wednesday (Dec. 5) at 7:30 p.m., while Pacific visits Evergreen State College Tuesday (Dec. 4) for a 7:00 p.m. non-conference battle.

BRUIN BITS:

 Cave Receives Honorable Mention for NWC "Player of the Week":

Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore.) received Honorable Mention for Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for Nev. 26-Dec. 2 after turning in two strong performances in the Bruins' two wins in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic in Tacoma, Wash. In Friday's 84-69 win over Western Baptist, she went 9-14 from the field and 1-2 from the line for 19 points, with 4 rebounds and 2 steals. Against Northwest on Saturday, a 78-68 Bruin win, she was 8-16 from the field and 2-3 from the line for 18 points, grabbed 6 rebounds, and had 1 block and 1 steal. For the week, she hit 17-30 from the floor (.567) and 3-5 from the line (.600) for 37 points (18.5 ppg), grabbed 10 rebounds (5.0 rpg), and had 1 blocked shot and 3 steals.

NWC "Player of the Week" honors went to Brynn Henkel of Lewis & Clark, who led the Pioneers to a pair of wins in the Bon Appetit Classic by scoring 52 points, grabbing 16 rebounds, and adding 11 steals and 12 assists. The Bruins' Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) was the first NWC "Player of the Week" this season, earning the honor for the week of Dec. 19-25.

 Cave, Doud Earn All-Tournament Honors:

Post players Darby Cave and Heather Doud turned in two outstanding performances each as the Bruins defeated Western Baptist 84-69 and Northwest College 78-68 in the PLU Classic Nov. 30-Dec. 1, earning All-Tournament honors. Against Western Baptist, Cave scored a game-high 19 points, hitting 9-14 from the field and 1-2 from the line, with 4 rebounds, a blocked shot, and 2 steals, while Doud scored 14 points on 5-7 shooting, including 4-4 from three-point range, with 8 rebounds and an assist. In the Northwest game, Cave had 18 points on 8-16 shooting and 2-3 from the line, with 6 rebounds, a blocked shot and a steal, while Doud added 18 points, sinking 8-14 from the floor and 2-2 from the line, with 9 rebounds, 2 assists, and a steal. In two games, the pair combined for 69 points while hitting .588 (30-51) from the field, .800 (4-5) from three-point range, and .818 (9-11) from the free throw line, with 27 rebounds, 3 assists, 2 blocked shots, and 4 steals.

 Rueck Notches 100th Coaching Win:

The Bruins' 78-68 win over Northwest on Saturday, Dec. 1, raised head coach Scott Rueck's coaching record to 100-33 (.752) in only his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. The 33-year-old coach has seen the Bruins' record improve in every one of his previous five years, from 15-10 in his first year (1996-97) up to last year's spectacular 23-3 mark.

 Bruin Up to 10th in the Nation:

George Fox is ranked 10th in the NCAA Division National Women's Basketball Poll of Nov. 27 conducted by d3hoops.com. The Bruins received 349 votes in jumping four spots from 14th after having 227 points the previous week. George Fox was 19th with 187 points in the pre-season poll. Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, is on top after running second to Messiah College in the pre-season and first weekly polls. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every poll but two - and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year! The complete poll for both men and women is available at www.d3hoops.com.

 On the All-Time Lists:

With 22 points in two games this past week, Nicole Prazeau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) now has 889 career points and has moved into 10th place on the all-time scoring list. In 9th is Angela Pettit (950). Prazeau should become only the 8th player in Bruin history to score 1,000 career points before the season is over ...

Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) had 13 assists and 5 steals last week, moving into 3rd place in career assists (301) and 6th in steals (175). It is unlikely she will catch the No. 2 assists leader, Linda Funderhide (538), but she should continue to move up on the steals chart. Just ahead in 5th place is Heidi Rueck, the head coach's sister (177).

 Personal Highs:

Heather Doud tied her career high for 3-point field goals with 4 against Western Baptist, and set a new personal mark for 3-point percentage in a game (1.000) by sinking all 4 of her attempts ...

11/30 – GEORGE FOX 84, WESTERN BAPTIST 69: Bruins Stay Unbeaten with Win IN PLU Classic

TACOMA, Wash. – Nicole Prazeau scored all 16 of her points in the second half after not attempting a shot in the first half, sparking the George Fox University Bruins to an 84-59 win over the Western Baptist College Warriors in the opening game of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Women's Basketball Classic Friday afternoon (Nov. 30) here at Olson Auditorium.

The Bruins, ranked 10th in the nation in the latest NCAA Division III national poll conducted by d3hoops.com, improved their record to 4-0 by shooting 58 percent from the field, including a scorching 55 percent on 11-of-20 from beyond the three-point line. Western Baptist, which earlier this season lost a 62-58 decision to George Fox, fell to 4-4 with the defeat.

George Fox found the shooting touch early in the game as Heather Doud drained a trio of three-point baskets, and the Bruins eventually built their biggest lead of the half at 26-14 on Liz Clark's three-point field goal with 9:17 remaining. The Warriors responded with a 7-0 run over the next 1:40 and pulled to within five points on Toran Lundgren's two free throws, but the Bruins maintained that five-point edge through the remainder of the half and took a 38-33 lead into the intermission.

After the first 20 minutes the Bruins were shooting 55 percent from the field and the same percentage from the three-point line, but they had gotten to the foul line only one time. The Warriors were able to keep the score close by hitting all nine of their charity attempts in the opening half.

Western Baptist went on a 12-6 run in the opening five minutes of the second half, taking its only lead of the game at 45-44 on a three-point play by Chelsey Ward. After that, however, the second half belonged to Prazeau, who was 5-of-9 from the field, including a pair of three-pointers, and hit all four of her free throws.

While Prazeau was doing the damage from the outside, Darby Cave had her way inside and finished with a game-high 19 points. Doud had 14 points and Becky Thompson added 11 with 6 assists for the winners.

12/1 - GEORGE FOX 78, NORTHWEST 68: Bruins Nail Northwest to Complete PLU Classic Sweep

TACOMA, Wash. - An 11-0 run midway through the first half enabled the George Fox University to take control, and the Bruins went on to coast past the Northwest College Eagles 78-68 in the first game on the second day of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet women's basketball Classic Saturday afternoon (Dec. 1) here at Olsen Auditorium.

Northwest took a 17-16 lead 10 minutes into the game, but it would be the Eagles' last, as three straight three-pointers and a two-pointer by George Fox gave the Bruins a 27-17 lead they would not relinquish. Amy Fitch, Emily Ruggles (Jr, W, Eugene, Ore.), and Liz Clark scored the three-pointers, and Clark added a layup to finish off the 11-0 run.

The Bruins led 45-31 at the half, and stretched that to 72-49 with seven minutes remaining before clearing the bench. Northwest went on a 19-4 run pull within eight at 76-68 with a minute remaining, but got no closer.

Heather Doud and Darby Cave, the Bruins' two starting post players, led George Fox in scoring with 18 points each. Becky Thompson added 12 points and a game-high 7 assists. Doud and Thompson had 9 rebounds apiece as the Bruins controlled the boards 49-43.

George Fox, ranked 10th in the latest NCAA Division III poll conducted by d3hoops.com, improves to 5-0, while the Eagles of the NAIA fall to 2-7.

12/2 - PLU CLASSIC: Cave, Doud Earn All-Tournament Honors; Rueck Notches 100th Coaching Win

TACOMA, Wash. - Two George Fox University women's basketball players earned All-Tournament honors and Bruin coach Scott Rueck captured his 100th career victory, highlighting the Bruins' two-game sweep in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic here Nov. 30-Dec. 1.

Post players Darby Cave and Heather Doud turned in two outstanding performances each as the Bruins defeated Western Baptist College 84-69 on Friday and Northwest College of the Assemblies of God 78-68 on Saturday.

Against Western Baptist, Cave scored a game-high 19 points, hitting 9-14 from the field and 1-2 from the line, with 4 rebounds, a blocked shot, and 2 steals, while Doud scored 14 points on 5-7 shooting, including 4-4 from three-point range, with 8 rebounds and an assist.

In the Northwest game, Cave had 18 points on 8-16 shooting and 2-3 from the line, with 6 rebounds, a blocked shot and a steal, while Doud added 18 points, sinking 8-14 from the floor and 2-2 from the line, with 9 rebounds, 2 assists, and a steal.

In two games, the pair combined for 69 points while hitting .588 (30-51) from the field, .800 (4-5) from three-point range, and .818 (9-11) from the free throw line, with 27 rebounds, 3 assists, 2 blocked shots, and 4 steals.

The twin wins boosted the Bruins' record to 5-0, the second-best start in team history; only last year's record-setting team bettered that by starting off 9-0. George Fox is currently ranked 10th in the nation in the NCAA Division III national poll conducted by d3hoops.com.

The win over Northwest also raised Rueck's coaching record to 100-33 (.752) in only his 6th season as a head coach, all at George Fox. The 33-year-old coach, a 1991 graduate of Oregon State University, has seen the Bruins' record improve in every one of his previous five years, from 15-10 in his first year (1996-97) up to last year's spectacular 23-3 mark.

ISERMAN GETS 23 REBOUNDS, LEAD LUTES TO 60-48 WIN

TACOMA, Wash. -- Forward Jessica Iserman grabbed a school-record 23 rebounds in leading the Pacific Lutheran Lutes (4-1) to a 60-48 victory over visiting Western Baptist (4-5). The game was the final women's game in the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic.

Iserman also scored 16 points and was named tournament MVP. In two tournament games, Iserman scored 36 points and grabbed 30 rebounds. Iserman broke Tara Millet's school record of 21 rebounds against Seattle University on Feb. 7, 1998. Iserman's previous high of 19 boards occurred last season at Whitworth.

Lute guard Becky Franza was also named to the all-tournament team as she also scored 16 points.

The entire game was a series of runs. The Lutes jumped out to a 23-6 lead before the Warriors went on an 18-7 burst to cut the lead to 32-24. After an 8-2 Lute run, Western Baptist went on a 18-2 spurt to take a 44-42 lead with 13:12 remaining. PLU then scored 16 of the game's final 20 points.

Iserman scored eight of her points in PLU's opening 23-6 run.

Warrior guard Lindsay Hinkle scored 12 of her 14 points in Western Baptist's ensuing 18-7 run. Western Baptist guard Chelsey Ward scored all eight of her points in the 18-2 run that gave the Warriors their first and only lead.

An over-and-back violation by Western Baptist with the score 48-46 Lutes was the ignition behind PLU's last rally.

Guard Jamie Keatts also scored in double figures for the Lutes with 13.

Western Baptist guard Tara Schmidgall scored 11 points for the Warriors.

The Lutes out-rebounded the Warriors 45-31.

The Lutes host Cascade 7 p.m. Tuesday. Western Baptist's next game is at home at 5:15 p.m. Tuesday against Lewis & Clark.

12/1 - GEORGE FOX 78, NORTHWEST 68: Bruins Nail Northwest to Complete PLU Classic Sweep

TACOMA, Wash. - An 11-0 run midway through the first half enabled the George Fox University to take control, and the Bruins went on to coast past the Northwest College Eagles 78-68 in the first game on the second day of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet women's basketball Classic Saturday afternoon (Dec. 1) here at Olsen Auditorium.

Northwest took a 17-16 lead 10 minutes into the game, but it would be the Eagles' last, as three straight three-pointers and a two-pointer by George Fox gave the Bruins a 27-17 lead they would not relinquish. Amy Fitch, Emily Ruggles, and Liz Clark scored the three-pointers, and Clark added a layup to finish off the 11-0 run.

The Bruins led 45-31 at the half, and stretched that to 72-49 with seven minutes remaining before clearing the bench. Northwest went on a 19-4 run pull within eight at 76-68 with a minute remaining, but got no closer.

Heather Doud and Darby Cave, the Bruins' two starting post players, led George Fox in scoring with 18 points each. Becky Thompson added 12 points and a game-high 7 assists. Doud and Thompson had 9 rebounds apiece as the Bruins controlled the boards 49-43.

Kathy Lockard led four Eagles in double-figure scoring with 17, Sarah Brick had 14, Moriah Hover 13, and Kim Haley 12. Brick led Northwest in rebounds with 11.

George Fox, ranked 10th in the latest NCAA Division III poll conducted by d3hoops.com, improves to 5-0, while the Eagles of the NAIA fall to 2-7.

The Bruins play their home opener Monday (Dec. 3) in a Northwest Conference match-up with Pacific University at 7:30 p.m. The Eagles host Seattle University at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday (Dec. 4).

BRUINS REMAIN UNDEFEATED, WIN 78-68

TACOMA, Wash. -- The George Fox women's basketball team held on to a 78-68 victory over the Northwest College Eagles in the first game on the second day of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic. The Bruins had a 72-49 lead with seven minutes remaining, before Northwest College went on a 19-4 run to pull within eight at 76-68 with a minute remaining.

Northwest College's 17-16 lead ten minutes in the game was their last. Three straight three-pointers and a two-pointer by George Fox gave them a 27-17 lead they would not relinquish. Bruin guard Amy Fitch, forward Emily Ruggles and guard Liz Clark scored the three-pointers, while Clark added the layup to finish off the 11-0 run.

Forward Heather Doud and center Darby Cave led George Fox in scoring with 18 points each. Guard Becky Thompson had 12.

Guard Kathy Lockard lead four Eagles in double scoring with 17. Center Sarah Brick had 14, center Moriah Hover had 13, and guard Kim Haley had 12. Brick led Northwest College in rebounds with 11.

George Fox improves to 5-0, while the Eagles fall to 2-7.

George Fox begins Northwest Conference play hosting Pacific 7:30 p.m. Monday. Northwest College hosts Seattle University at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday.

11/30 - GEORGE FOX 84, WESTERN BAPTIST 69: Bruins Stay Unbeaten with Win IN PLU Classic

TACOMA, Wash. - Nicole Prazeau scored all 16 of her points in the second half after not attempting a shot in the first half, sparking the George Fox University Bruins to an 84-59 win over the Western Baptist College Warriors in the opening game of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Women's Basketball Classic Friday night (Nov. 30) here at Olson Auditorium.

The Bruins, ranked 10th in the nation in the latest NCAA Division III national poll conducted by d3hoops.com, improved their record to 4-0 by shooting 58 percent from the field, including a scorching 55 percent on 11-of-20 from beyond the three-point line. Western Baptist, which earlier this season lost a 62-58 decision to George Fox, fell to 4-4 with the defeat.

George Fox found the shooting touch early in the game as Heather Doud drained a trio of three-point baskets, and the Bruins eventually built their biggest lead of the half at 26-14 on Liz Clark's three-point field goal with 9:17 remaining. The Warriors responded with a 7-0 run over the next 1:40 and pulled to within five points on Toran Lundgren's two free throws, but the Bruins maintained that five-point edge through the remainder of the half and took a 38-33 lead into the intermission.

After the first 20 minutes the Bruins were shooting 55 percent from the field and the same percentage from the three-point line, but they had gotten to the foul line only one time. The Warriors were able to keep the score close by hitting all nine of their charity attempts in the opening half.

Western Baptist went on a 12-6 run in the opening five minutes of the second half, taking its only lead of the game at 45-44 on a three-point play by Chelsey Ward. After that, however, the second half belonged to Prazeau, who was 5-of-9 from the field, including a pair of three-pointers, and hit all four of her free throws.

While Prazeau was doing the damage from the outside, Darby Cave had her way inside and finished with a game-high 19 points. Doud had 14 points and Becky Thompson added 11 with 6 assists for the winners.

Tati Gallardo led the Warriors with 17 points, including a perfect 7-of-7 at the foul line, while Lundgren had a double-double with 13 points and 13 rebounds.

The women's portion of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic continues Saturday (Dec. 1) with George Fox playing Northwest College at 2:00 p.m., followed by host Pacific Lutheran University against Western Baptist at 4:00 p.m. PLU defeated Northwest 84-69 in the other Friday afternoon women's game.

BRUINS STAY UNBEATEN WITH 84-69 WIN OVER WESTERN BAPTIST

TACOMA, WA -- The George Fox women's basketball team remained unbeaten this season, defeating Western Baptist, 84-69, in Friday's opening game of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic at Olson Auditorium.

The Bruins improved their record to 4-0 by shooting 58 percent from the field, including a scorching 55 percent on 11-of-20 from beyond the three-point line. Western Baptist, which earlier this season lost a 62-58 decision to George Fox, falls to 4-4 with the defeat.

The Bruins found the shooting touch early in this game as Heather Doud drained a trio of three-point baskets. George Fox eventually built its biggest lead of the half at 26-14 on Liz Clark's three-point field goal with 9:17 remaining. The Warriors responded with a 7-0 run over the next 1:40 and pulled to within five points on Toran Lundgren's two free throws. George Fox maintained that five-point edge through the remainder of the half and took a 38-33 lead into the intermission.

After the first 20 minutes the Bruins were shooting 55 percent from the field and the same percentage from the three-point line, but they had gotten to the foul line only one time. The Warriors were able to keep the score close by hitting all nine of their charity attempts in the opening half.

Western Baptist went on a 12-6 run in the opening five minutes of the second half, taking its only lead of the game at 45-44 on a three-point play by Chelsey Ward. After that, however, the second half belonged to George Fox wing Nicole Prazeau. The senior from Portland scored all 16 of her points in the period after not attempting a shot in the opening half. Prazeau was 5-of-9 from the field, including a pair of three-pointers, and hit all four of her free throws. While Prazeau was doing the damage from the outside, Darby Cave had her way inside and finished with a game-high 19 points. Doud finished with 14 points and Becky Thompson added 11 and six assists for the winners.

Guard Tati Gallardo led the Warriors with 17 points, including a perfect 7-of-7 at the foul line. Lundgren had a double-double with 13 points and 13 rebounds for Western Baptist.

The women's portion of the PLU Parkland Chevrolet Classic continues today with a game between Pacific Lutheran and Northwest College. Tomorrow at 2 p.m., George Fox plays Northwest, followed by a 4 p.m. contest between PLU and Western Baptist.

11-27 – NATIONAL RANKINGS: Bruins Jump From 14th to 10th in National Rankings

NEWBERG, Ore – After a 2-0 week that included the championship of the Concordia-Portland Tournament against two NAIA playoff-caliber teams, the George Fox University Bruins have climbed from 14th to 10th in the NCAA Division National Women's Basketball Poll conducted by d3hoops.com.

The Bruins received 349 votes in jumping four spots after having 227 points last week. George Fox was 19th with 187 points in the pre-season poll.

Washington University (Mo.), the three-time defending national champion, is back on top after running second to Messiah College in the pre-season and first weekly polls. Messiah dropped to 16th after its first loss this week. In the three previous seasons, Washington ranked first in every poll but two – and the only team to supplant Washington was George Fox for two weeks last year!

George Fox will put its 3-0 record on the line this weekend, facing Western Baptist College Friday and Northwest College of the Assemblies of God Saturday in the Pacific Lutheran Classic in Tacoma, Wash. Both games are afternoon contests starting at 2:00 p.m. With a sweep, sixth-year coach Scott Rueck could secure his 100th career coaching victory; he is 98-33 to date.

The complete polls for both men's and women's D-III basketball is available at www.d3hoops.com.

11-27 – NWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Bruins' Doud Wins First NWC Honor of the Season

NEWBERG, Ore – Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) of George Fox University, who averaged 10.2 points and 6.1 rebounds a game last year but was overshadowed by two-time NWC "Player of the Year" Katie Lacey in the Bruins' inside game, is the first Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for the 2001-02 women's basketball season.

Doud was instrumental in the 14th-ranked Bruins' two wins in the Concordia-Portland Tournament during the week of Nov. 20-26. On Friday in a 62-58 win over Western Baptist, she scored 14 points, hit 3-12 from the floor (1-4 on 3's) and 7-8 from the line, with 9 rebounds, 1 assist, 1 block, and 2 steals. In a 63-61 win over Concordia in the finale, she led all scorers with 21 points, hitting 6-14 from the field (3-4 on 3's) and 6-7 from the line, with 10 rebounds, 1 assist, and 4 steals.

Doud's totals in 2 games were 35 points (17.5 ppg), 9-26 fg% (.346), 4-8 on 3's (.500), 13-15 ft% (.867), 19 rebounds (9.5 rpg), 2 assists (1.0 apg), 1 block (0.5 bspg), and 6 steals (3.0 spg). She was named to the All-Tournament Team.

It was Doud's second NWC "Player of the Week" award, as she also earned the honor last season for the week of Dec. 18-24 while sparking the Bruins to the championship of the adidas D3 Desert Shootout in Las Vegas, Nev.

Doud set new personal highs with 7 free throws and 8 free throw attempts vs. Western Baptist, and tied her best with 4 steals vs. Concordia-Portland. She now has 1,064 career points, but 740 of those came in her first two years at Biola University, where she was All-Golden State Athletic Conference both seasons.

Currently, Doud ranks 3rd in the Northwest Conference in scoring (20.0); 3rd in rebounding (9.0); 9th in FT% (.895); 5th in 3-pt FG% (.417, tie); 4th in 3-pt FG made (1.67); and 4th in steals (3.33, tie).

BRUIN BITS:

 Bruins Ranked No. 14 in Latest National Poll:

After starting the year with a pre-season national ranking of 19th, the George Fox Bruins climbed to the 14th spot in the nation after the first week, according to the latest d3hoop.com NCAA

George Fox Women's Basketball ... Nov. 26, 2001 ... page 2

Division III poll of Nov. 20. George Fox received 227 points to earn its No. 14 ranking. Messiah College was the top pick for the second week in a row with 607 points and 11 firsts, ahead of three-time defending national champion Washington University (Mo.), which had 597 points and 12 firsts. George Fox was the only team in the last three seasons to be ranked No. 1 besides Washington. The complete poll is available at www.d3hoops.com.

 Doud, Prazeau Earn All-Tournament Honors at Concordia:

Two strong performances vs. Western Baptist and Concordia-Portland Nov. 23-24 earned Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) and Nicole Prazeau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) All-Tournament honors at the Concordia-Portland Tournament. In Friday's 62-58 win over Western Baptist, Prazeau scored 19 points, hitting 9-11 from the field, with 2 rebounds, 2 assists, and 3 steals, while Doud had 14 points, including 7-8 on free throws, with 9 rebounds, an assist and 2 steals. In the tournament title game, a 63-61 George Fox win, Doud tossed in 21, making 6-14 from the field (3-4 on three-pointers) and 6-7 on free throws, with 10 rebounds, 4 steals and an assist, while Prazeau scored 9 points and had 10 rebounds, 2 assists and 2 steals.

 On the All-Time Lists:

With 28 points in two games this past week, Nicole Prazeau now has 867 career points and has moved into 10th place on the all-time scoring list. In 9th is Angela Pettit (950). Prazeau should become only the 8th player in Bruin history to score 1,000 career points before the season is over ...

Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) had 8 assists and 10 steals last week, ranking 4th in career assists (288) and 7th in steals (170). Next are Marianne Funderhide in assists (294), and Heather Gurney (173) and Heidi Rueck, the head coach's sister (177), in steals.

 Personal Highs:

Heather Doud set new personal highs with 7 free throws and 8 attempts vs. Western Baptist, and tied her best with 4 steals vs. Concordia-Portland. She now has 1,064 career points, but 740 of those came in her first two years at Biola ...

Amy Fitch (So., W, Ritzville, Ore.) set a new high with 6 field goal attempts vs. both Western Baptist and Concordia-Portland ...

Nicole Prazeau had her best-ever day from the field, sinking 9-11 (.818) vs. Western Baptist, and tied her career high with 10 rebounds vs. Concordia-Portland ...

Liz Clark (Fr., W, Elbe, Wash.) had new highs of 7 points vs. Concordia-Portland and 4 assists vs. Western Baptist, while tying her high of 5 rebounds vs. Western Baptist ...

Melissa Alexander (Fr., PG, Portland, Ore.) had her first assist and steal vs. Western Baptist ...

Sarah Myhre (Fr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) scored her first field goal vs. Western Baptist and her first free throw vs. Concordia-Portland.

11/23 – GEORGE FOX 73, WESTERN BAPTIST: 14th-Ranked Bruins Rally in 2nd Half to Defeat Warriors

PORTLAND, Ore. – A 25-8 run early in the second half enabled the George Fox University Bruins to overcome a 10-point second-half deficit and rally for a 62-58 win over the Western Baptist College Warriors in the opening game of the Concordia-Portland Tournament Friday night (Nov. 23) here at the Cavalier Dome.

George Fox, ranked No. 14 in the NCAA Division III national poll, jumped out to an early 4-0 lead and led most of the first half, taking its largest lead at 19-13 with 8:15 to play on a short jumper by Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore.). But the Warriors, an NAIA team, went on a 12-2 run, with five different players contributing the points, to forge ahead 25-21 with 4:04 to go. The Bruins rallied to knot it 27-27 on a Heather Doud free throw with 1:46 left, but a banked-in three-pointer by Tara Schmidgall and a jumper by Tati Gallardo gave the Warriors a 32-27 halftime lead.

Western Baptist stretched its lead to 10 at 39-29 on a three-pointer by Schmidgall with 17 minutes left in the game, but a 16-6 run over the next three-and-a-half minutes, capped by a pair of free throws by Doud, brought the Bruins to a 45-45 tie.

Gallardo's layup put Western Baptist back up 47-45 at 13:20, but the Bruin defense then held the Warriors scoreless for almost seven minutes. Amy Fitch's tying basket at 12:20 and Becky Thompson's steal and layup moments later gave the Bruins a lead they would never relinquish and sparked a 9-0 run, giving George Fox a 54-47 lead with nine minutes to play.

Gallardo broke the Warriors' scoring drought at 6:37 with two free throws, and they got within three at 61-58 with 1:05 left, but a Thompson free throw with 4.9 seconds left iced the win.

Nicole PrazEAU led the Bruins with 19 points, 13 in the first half, hitting 9-11 from the field, Doud added 14, and Cave finished with 11. Doud led the Bruins on the boards with 9 rebounds, Thompson picked up 6 steals as the Bruins forced 28 Warrior turnovers, and Liz Clark had 4 assists off the bench.

Western Baptist had only two players in double figures in points, with Gallardo tossing in 23 and Schmidgall 20. The Warriors won the battle of the boards 39-33, led by Kristi Born with 6. Born also had 5 assists.

George Fox is now 2-0 on the season, while Western Baptist drops to 2-3.

11/24 – GEORGE FOX 63, CONCORDIA-PORTLAND 61: Bruins Knock Off Host Cavaliers for Tourney Title

PORTLAND, Ore. – Heather Doud had a double-double with a game-high 21 points and 10 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins to a 63-61 win over the Concordia University-Portland Cavaliers and the championship of the Concordia-Portland women's basketball Tournament Saturday night (Nov. 24) here at the Cavalier Dome.

Doud was joined in the scoring column by Becky Thompson and Darby Cave, who had 10 points apiece. Nicole PrazEAU also had 10 rebounds while scoring 9 points, and Thompson grabbed 7 rebounds and handed out 5 assists. The Bruins were out-shot .407 (22-54) to .410 (25-61) and out-rebounded 37-40, but made up the difference by hitting three times as many three-pointers (6-2) and making more free throws (13-9).

Amanda Tweedy also had a double-double for the Cavaliers with 17 points and 13 rebounds, while Niecee Madrigal had 14 points and Angela Rosales 11. Rosales had 6 assists.

George Fox, ranked No. 14 in the NCAA Division III national poll, improved to 3-0 on the season, while Concordia-Portland, an NAIA team, dropped to 3-2.

RUECK'S REMARKS (Quoting coach Scott Rueck):

On Western Baptist: "Friday's game against Western Baptist was a solid win for us. Nicole Prazeau had an outstanding shooting performance. We struggled defensively which was in part due to their execution and by us being a step slow. We are looking for more people to step up their scoring; our starters are carrying us right now. We need contributions from more people."

On Concordia: "This was a great win against a Concordia team made up of seniors and juniors and a team that has experienced a lot of success. We are still trying to figure out how to play without Katie and I think this game was exactly what we needed. Our returners are finding out where they have to step up their games and expand their roles and our new kids are learning what this college game is all about. I am extremely encouraged by the heart and effort I saw on Saturday. This was a win by a team that will not go down easily and one that will fight and scratch until they find a way to get it done. We have a long, long way to go but with efforts like this I believe we can get there. Congratulations to Heather and Nicole for being named to the All-Tournament team."

11/24 - GEORGE FOX 63, CONCORDIA-PORTLAND 61: Bruins Knock Off Host Cavaliers for Tourney Title

PORTLAND, Ore. - Heather Doud had a double-double with a game-high 21 points and 10 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins to a 63-61 win over the Concordia University-Portland Cavaliers and the championship of the Concordia-Portland women's basketball Tournament Saturday night (Nov. 24) here at the Cavalier Dome.

Doud was joined in the scoring column by Becky Thompson and Darby Cave, who had 10 points apiece. Nicole Prazeau also had 10 rebounds while scoring 9 points, and Thompson grabbed 7 rebounds and handed out 5 assists. The Bruins were out-shot .407 (22-54) to .410 (25-61) and out-rebounded 37-40, but made up the difference by hitting three times as many three-pointers (6-2) and making more free throws (13-9).

Amanda Tweedy also had a double-double for the Cavaliers with 17 points and 13 rebounds, while Niecee Madrigal had 14 points and Angela Rosales 11. Rosales had 6 assists.

George Fox, ranked No. 14 in the NCAA Division III national poll, improved to 3-0 on the season, while Concordia-Portland, an NAIA team, dropped to 3-2. The Bruins play next weekend in the Pacific Lutheran University Classic in Tacoma, meeting Western Baptist, whom they defeated Friday in the Concordia Tournament 62-58, Friday (Nov. 30) at 2:00 p.m. On Saturday, they square off against Northwest College of the Assemblies of God, also at 2:00 p.m.

11/23 - GEORGE FOX 73, WESTERN BAPTIST: 14th-Ranked Bruins Rally in 2nd Half to Defeat Warriors

PORTLAND, Ore. - A 25-8 run early in the second half enabled the George Fox University Bruins to overcome a 10-point second-half deficit and rally for a 62-58 win over the Western Baptist College Warriors in the opening game of the Concordia-Portland Tournament Friday night (Nov. 23) here at the Cavalier Dome.

George Fox, ranked No. 14 in the NCAA Division III national poll, jumped out to an early 4-0 lead and led most of the first half, taking its largest lead at 19-13 with 8:15 to play on a short jumper by Darby Cave. But the Warriors, an NAIA team, went on a 12-2 run, with five different players contributing the points, to forge ahead 25-21 with 4:04 to go. The Bruins rallied to knot it 27-27 on a Heather Doud free throw with 1:46 left, but a banked-in three-pointer by Tara Schmidgall and a jumper by Tati Gallardo gave the Warriors a 32-27 halftime lead.

Western Baptist stretched its lead to 10 at 39-29 on a three-pointer by Schmidgall with 17 minutes left in the game, but a 16-6 run over the next three-and-a-half minutes, capped by a pair of free throws by Heather Doud, brought the Bruins to a 45-45 tie.

Gallardo's layup put Western Baptist back up 47-45 at 13:20, but the Bruin defense then held the Warriors scoreless for almost seven minutes. Amy Fitch's tying basket at 12:20 and Becky Thompson's steal and layup moments later gave the Bruins a lead they would never relinquish and sparked a 9-0 run, giving George Fox a 54-47 lead with nine minutes to play.

Gallardo broke the Warriors' scoring drought at 6:37 with two free throws, and they got within three at 61-58 with 1:05 left, but a Thompson free throw with 4.9 seconds left iced the win.

Nicole PrazEAU led the Bruins with 19 points, 13 in the first half, hitting 9-11 from the field, Doud added 14, and Darby Cave finished with 11. Doud led the Bruins on the boards with 9 rebounds, Thompson picked up 6 steals as the Bruins forced 28 Warrior turnovers, and Liz Clark had 4 assists off the bench.

Western Baptist had only two players in double figures in points, with Gallardo tossing in 23 and Schmidgall 20. The Warriors won the battle of the boards 39-33, led by Kristi Born with 6. Born also had 5 assists.

George Fox is now 2-0 on the season, while Western Baptist drops to 2-3. The Bruins take on tournament host the Concordia University-Portland Cavaliers, an 81-60 winner over the Pacific University Boxers, Saturday (Nov. 24) at 7:30 p.m., while the Warriors meet the Boxers at 5:30 p.m.

BRUIN BITS:

 Bruins Ranked No. 19 in Pre-Season Poll

In the national pre-season poll conducted by d3hoops.com, George Fox received 187 points to place 19th. Messiah College was the top pick with 592 points and 11 firsts, unseating three-time defending national champion Washington University (Mo.), which was No. 2 with 553 points and 11 firsts. George Fox is the only team in the past three seasons to be ranked No. 1 besides Washington. The complete poll is available at www.d3hoops.com.

 On the All-Time Lists:

With 10 points in the season opener at Warner Pacific, Nicole Prazeau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore.) now has 839 career points, and needs only 13 to pass Marianne Funderhide (851) for 10th place on the all-time scoring list. She should also become only the 8th player to score 1,000 career points in Bruin history ... Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore.) ranks 4th in career assists (280) and 7th in steals (160). Next are Marianne Funderhide in assists (294) and Heather Gurney in steals (173).

 Personal Highs:

Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore.) set new career highs with 20 points, 8 field goals, 14 fg attempts, and 2 steals in the opener at Warner Pacific ... Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) set a new high with 10 field goals and tied her best with 4 steals ... Amy Fitch (So., W, Ritzville, Ore.) set a new high with 7 assists ... Nicole Prazeau tied her career high with 10 rebounds ... Emily Ruggles (Jr., P, Eugene, Ore.) set a new mark with 2 assists ... Seeing their first action for the Bruins were Mandy Dunham (Fr., W, Richland, Wash.) with 4 points and 2 rebounds, Liz Clark (Fr., W, Elbe, Wash.) with 3 points and 5 rebounds, and Melissa Alexander (Fr., PG, Portland, Ore.) and Sarah Myhre (Fr., P, Corvallis, Ore.), who did not score.

11/17 - GEORGE FOX 73, WARNER PACIFIC 55: Bruins Burst from Blocks with Big Win over Knights

PORTLAND, Ore. - After falling behind 7-0 to start the game, the George Fox University Bruins responded with 17 unanswered points and went on to post a 73-55 win over the Warner Pacific College Knights in the season-opening women's basketball game for both teams Saturday night (Nov. 17) here at Perry Gymnasium.

The Bruins, ranked No. 19 in the NCAA Division III pre-season poll, blistered the nets in the first half with a .548 shooting percentage, connecting on 17 of 31 shots in building a 46-28 halftime lead. The Bruins led by as many as 26 at one point in the half.

George Fox coach Scott Rueck, picking up his 96th career win, played several newcomers and freshman liberally in the second half as the Bruins kept the gap around 20 points for most of the final period. When the Knights suddenly cut the lead to 64-51 with seven minutes left, the Bruin starters were reinserted at that point to secure the win.

Heather Doud with 25 points and Darby Cave with 20, a career high, were instrumental in the Bruins spoiling the Knights' homecoming game. Nicole Prazeau led all rebounders with 10 boards, tying her career high and pacing the Bruins to a 46-28 rebound differential, while Amy Fitch passed out seven assists, another personal best.

Shawna Damon with 21 points and Jennifer Haberly with 17 were the only Knights in double figures. Michelle Roosa led Warner Pacific on the boards with six caroms.

11/16 - SEASON OPENER: 19th-Ranked Bruins Open New Season Saturday at Warner Pacific

NEWBERG, Ore. - With a No. 19 national ranking and expectations of being in the thick of the Northwest Conference race once again, the George Fox University Bruins tip off their 2001-02 women's basketball season against the Warner Pacific College Knights Saturday evening (Nov. 17) at 5:30 p.m. on the road in Portland.

The Bruins are coming off a season in which they went 23-3, won the conference with a 15-1 league mark, were ranked No. 1 in the nation for two weeks, participated in the NCAA Division III National Tournament, and finished with a No. 11 national ranking.

In the national pre-season poll by d3hoops.com, George Fox received 187 points to place 19th. Messiah College was the top pick with 592 points and 11 firsts, unseating three-time defending national champion Washington University (Mo.), which was No. 2 with 553 points and 11 firsts. George Fox is the only team in the past three seasons to be ranked No. 1 besides Washington. The complete poll is available at www.d3hoops.com.

The Northwest Conference schedule does not begin for the Bruins until Dec. 3 at home against Pacific University. Pacific Lutheran University was a one-point favorite (77-76) over George Fox for this year's NWC title in balloting by the league's nine coaches. The NWC pre-season poll and other information about the conference and its teams is available at www.nwcsports.com.

George Fox met Warner Pacific last season for the first time in nine years, taking a 68-64 victory over the Knights on Dec. 9 in Newberg. The Bruins lead the all-time series with the Knights 22-4 and have won the last seven meetings.

The Bruins return three starters from last year's team, including Nicole Prazneau (Sr., W, Portland, Ore. - 11.7 ppg, 4.5 rpg) and Becky Thompson (Sr., PG, Colton, Ore. - 8.3 ppg, 3.7 apg), who were both Second Team All-Conference selections, and Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore. - 10.2 ppg, 6.1 rpg). Darby Cave (So., P, Portland, Ore. - 4.2 ppg, 2.6 apg) is expected to move into the starting center position vacated by two-time NWC Player of the Year and Kodak All-American Katie Lacey, who graduated. If an experienced player is to fill the wing position left by the graduation of Tabitha Greller, the Bruins' all-time leader in three-point field goals, it will probably go to Amy Fitch (So., W, Ritzville, Wash. - 2.9 ppg, 2.5 rpg).

Sixth-year coach Scott Rueck begins this season with a record of 95-33 and back-to-back honors as NWC Coach of the Year in 1999-2000 and Co-Coach of the Year in 2000-01.

BRUIN BITS:

Schedule Adjustments:

The Bruins' home match with Willamette University on Wed., Dec. 5, is a 6:00 p.m. game. It is listed incorrectly on George Fox schedule cards at 7:30 p.m. ... Official times for the Bruins' two games in the AmeriSport Coconut Coast Classic Dec. 17-18 in Hilo, Hawaii, have been moved up half an hour. The Bruins will play Marian College (Wisc.) on Dec. 17 and St. Mary's College (Ind.) on Dec. 18 at 12:00 noon Pacific time instead of 12:30 p.m.

GEORGE FOX WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

HIGHLIGHTS:

 Pre-Season Outlook, Quick Facts, Roster, Schedule, '00-01 Stats and Scores

11/8 – OUTLOOK: Despite Loss of Lacey, Bruins Expect to Fight for NWC Crown Again

NEWBERG, Ore. – A 23-3 record, Northwest Conference regular season and tournament titles, a No. 11 final national ranking with two weeks spent as the No. 1 team in the country, and the second round of the NCAA National Championships – The 2000-01 season was certainly an all-time high for the George Fox University women's basketball team.

Now, as the 2001-02 season approaches, there are two main questions hovering over the team:

One, can the Bruins continue an incredible string of improving their record every year under coach Scott Rueck, now starting his sixth season with the program? Two, how will the Bruins replace starting center Katie Lacey, a Kodak All-American and two-time Northwest Conference Player of the Year?

To the first question, Rueck only laughs. "Sooner or later, that streak is going to end – I could handle one more year, though; wouldn't that be sweet?" he asks with a smile.

As to the second, Rueck knows that replacing Lacey's 15.5 points, 8.7 rebounds, .562 shooting percentage, .803 free throw mark, clutch play and leadership is virtually impossible.

"Katie just might have been the best player this program has ever seen, and no one single player will be able to replace her," Rueck admits. "We'll need to be a more balanced team this year. The past couple years, everyone knew we were going to go to Katie, especially in the last five minutes. We may not focus so much on one person, but several. That would make us a tougher team to defend. This year we're capable of having five scorers on the floor for 40 minutes, and therefore, make up for last year's graduation by committee. I'm looking forward to watching our team step up to that challenge."

The Bruins also lost starting wing Tabitha Greller (5.7 ppg, 4.1 rpg), Lacey's sister-in-law who ended her career as the all-time leader in three-point field goals made (150). But with three starters back, two of them All-Conference Second Team selections, a strong veteran bench, and several talented newcomers, Rueck expects his team to be right back in the thick of the conference race.

Point Guards

Becky Thompson (5-8, Sr., Colton, Ore.) returns at the point, bringing steadiness and leadership to the Bruin offense. A Second Team All-NWC pick, she averaged 8.3 points, 4.3 rebounds, 3.7 assists, and 2.2 steals a game, and led the conference with a 2:1 assists-to-turnovers ratio. "Becky is in the best shape of her life and is set for a huge year," predicts Rueck. "She knows we'll need more offense from her now and is looking for her shot more often. We'll go as far as she can take us."

Jill Barram (5-6, Sr., Salem, Ore.), the Bruins' backup at the point, averaged 6.3 points and 2.6 assists and would probably start on almost any other team in the conference. "Jill is an explosive scorer, the best on the team at creating her own shot, and is very valuable when we get into the open court," says Rueck. She is also a prime candidate for the open spot at the wing, but her contributions may have to wait, as she suffered a knee injury during an early practice that has sidelined her indefinitely.

Melissa Alexander (5-3, Fr., Portland, Ore.), a good ball-handler and solid defensive player, led her Wilson High team to an 18-0 record in the Portland Interscholastic League as a junior. She will also see time at the point as she learns from two of the best in preparation for the future.

Wings

Nicole Prazeau (5-10, Sr., Portland, Ore.) is the other returning Second Team All-NWC player, and will be counted upon for plenty of offense as the team's top perimeter scorer. She posted numbers of 11.7 points, 4.5 rebounds, and 2.0 assists a game last year. "Nicole became a go-to scorer last season by hitting some huge shots for us late in games. She gained confidence and consistency and appears ready to take her game to the next level," Rueck notes. "She, too, will need to take on a little more of the scoring load."

If Barram does not start at the opposite wing, Amy Fitch (5-8, So., Ritzville, Wash.) is the heir apparent to Greller after contributing 2.9 points, 2.5 rebounds, and 18 minutes a game in a reserve role. "Amy is an unbelievable athlete who can hit the three or drive and pull up for the jumper," says Rueck. "We expect her to become a consistent scoring threat and be a big spark for us, either as a starter or off the bench."

Shai Workman (5-8, Jr., Moscow, Idaho) brings a three-point threat and good passing ability to her role as a backup wing. She averaged 1.4 points in 10 games last season after transferring from California Lutheran.

A trio of newcomers who could make significant contributions this year are Liz Clark (5-9, Fr., Elbe, Wash.), Mandy Dunham (5-10, Fr., Richland, Wash.), and Kellie Thomas (5-10, Fr., Medford, Ore.).

Clark was named "Female Athlete of the Year" by the Tacoma News Tribune after earning all-state honors in volleyball, softball, and basketball for Eatonville High, where her jersey was retired. "Liz is an energy player, a physical player with a scorer's mentality and already one of our best rebounders. She will see significant playing time at numerous positions; we've used her everywhere from the one to the five," marvels Rueck.

Dunham became the 15th player in Washington history to score 2,000 points in a career at Liberty Christian High School, was a First-Team all-state selection, and also has what Rueck calls "a scorer's mentality. She just might be our best at moving without the ball and finding ways to create a shot."

Thomas, the all-time scoring leader at South Medford High, is called "the most fundamentally-sound wing I've coached" by Rueck. "She handles the ball like a point guard, equally well with either hand, and has a beautiful shot with three-point range."

Rueck says that all three incoming wings have the ability to be impact players this year as they adjust to the speed and physical style of the Northwest Conference.

Posts

Heather Doud (5-11, Sr., Corvallis, Ore.) was the Bruins' third-leading scorer (10.2 ppg) and second-leading rebounder (6.1 rpg) after transferring from Biola University, where she had been an all-conference pick her first two college seasons. "Heather was playing in the shadows of Katie and our guards last year, but I don't think anyone would have argued had she shown up somewhere on one of the All-Conference teams after a very good year," says Rueck. "We'll be looking for her to bump both of those numbers up a little as we replace Katie."

Moving into the center spot is Darby Cave (6-0, So., Portland, Ore.), who averaged 4.2 points and 2.6 rebounds a game while subbing for Lacey. "Darby got to compete against an All-American every practice last season, so she was taught a new lesson daily and was an outstanding student," Rueck points out. "As the season wore on, she had learned to hold her own, and by the end of the year, she was a handful for Katie. Darby also gained a lot of experience with the summer league team our players have and developed a lot of confidence and strength. She has an outstanding work ethic, is eager to learn, and will be tough to defend one-on-one."

Emily Ruggles (5-11, Jr., Eugene, Ore.), whose improvement over the summer has Rueck enthusiastic, will see "solid minutes, a tribute to how hard she has worked. She can play from the three to the five, and has outstanding jumping and shot-blocking ability that could make an impact for us." She averaged 2.0 points and 2.5 rebounds in eight games.

Christine McCandless (5'11, Fr., Medford, Ore.) benefited from red-shirting last year and should be ready to contribute this season at both post positions. "Christine has worked extremely hard in the past year and has been successful in developing physical strength, while adding skills that will allow her to play both the four and the five," says Rueck.

Sarah Myhre (6-0, Fr., Corvallis, Ore.) and Jessica Baynes (5-11, Fr., Joseph, Ore.) are the Bruins' newest inside players.

Myhre comes from one of the top 4A programs in Oregon at Crescent Valley High and can play either post. She was a First Team All-Valley League selection as a senior. "Sarah is very quick and can shoot the jump hook with either hand, and will be ready to contribute this year," Rueck comments.

Baynes was invited to walk on at Division I Pepperdine last year but chose not to. "Jessica is quick and strong, but she is coming off a foot injury she suffered shortly after she got to school and will need some time to work into our system due to her late start," Rueck points out.

Summary

"We have experienced players at every position, some of whom can play several positions, so we should be a versatile team this year," Rueck assesses the Bruins. "Our starting five are equally capable of producing points, and we have scorers coming off the bench. I really like this group's ability to defend. We have good size throughout our roster, and I think that will be a strength of our team and give some teams trouble. Expectations of this team aren't what they were a year ago because there are more unknowns and we graduated a couple great players. With that said, I really like this team, and I believe we are capable of being as good as last year's".

With Rueck, the 2001-02 NWC co-Coach of the Year who has a 95-33 record and .742 winning percentage in his five years at George Fox, at the helm, it is a cinch that the Bruins, IF they have slipped at all, have not dropped far.

11/2 - NWC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL POLL: Lutes Edge Bruins by One Vote for NWC Favorites

SPOKANE, Wash. - By the narrowest of margins - a single vote - the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes have been picked to unseat the defending Northwest Conference champion George Fox University Bruins in women's basketball, according to a pre-season poll of conference coaches as announced recently by NWC information director Steve Flege at Whitworth College.

The Lutes, who finished second to the Bruins last season, totaled 77 points and picked up six of the nine first place votes. George Fox picked up the other three first place votes and totaled 76 points.

The Bruin, who spent two weeks at the top of the NCAA Division III women's basketball poll, won the 2001 title with a record of 23-3 overall and 15-1 in the conference. The Bruins must replace two-time NWC Player of the Year and All-American post Katie Lacey, but expect to be strong again with senior point guard Becky Thompson and senior wing Nicole Prazneau coming back after both were named to the All-NWC Second Team. Thompson led the conference with a 2:1 assists-to-turnovers ratio while averaging 8.3 points and 3.7 assists a game, and Prazneau was second team in scoring at 11.7 points a game. Also back is starting post Heather Doud, who posted numbers of 10.2 points and 6.1 rebounds per outing.

PLU will be led by Jessica Iserman (Sr., C) and Becky Franza (Sr., PG), both of whom earned First Team All-Northwest Conference selection last season. The Lutes, who won league titles from 1998-2000, were 20-6 overall last season and 13-3 in the NWC.

Linfield College and University of Puget Sound were just as close in running for third place in the poll. The Wildcats totaled 57 points to the Loggers' 56 points. Whitworth finished fifth with 49 points and Willamette was sixth with 41 points. Pacific University (22 points), Whitman College (19) and Lewis & Clark College (17) rounded out the final three places in the coaches' poll.

Once again this season the Northwest Conference has an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament. That bid will go to the winner of the NWC tournament. The top three teams in the conference will qualify for the NWC tournament. The third place team will play at the second place team. The winner will play at the conference champion for the right to the automatic bid. Regardless of that outcome, the regular-season winner will retain the title of conference champion.

For the complete poll, go to the Northwest Conference web site at www.nwcsports.com.

11/2 - NWC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL POLL: Lutes Edge Bruins by One Vote for NWC Favorites

SPOKANE, Wash. - By the narrowest of margins - a single vote - the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes have been picked to unseat the defending Northwest Conference champion George Fox University Bruins in women's basketball, according to a pre-season poll of conference coaches as announced recently by NWC information director Steve Flege at Whitworth College.

The Lutes, who finished second to the Bruins last season, totaled 77 points and picked up six of the nine first place votes. George Fox picked up the other three first place votes and totaled 76 points.

The Bruin, who spent two weeks at the top of the NCAA Division III women's basketball poll, won the 2001 title with a record of 23-3 overall and 15-1 in the conference. The Bruins must replace two-time NWC Player of the Year and All-American post Katie Lacey, but expect to be strong again with senior point guard Becky Thompson and senior wing Nicole Prazeau coming back after both were named to the All-NWC Second Team. Thompson led the conference with a 2:1 assists-to-turnovers ratio while averaging 8.3 points and 3.7 assists a game, and Prazeau was second team in scoring at 11.7 points a game. Also back is starting post Heather Doud, who posted numbers of 10.2 points and 6.1 rebounds per outing.

PLU will be led by Jessica Iserman (Sr., C) and Becky Franza (Sr., PG), both of whom earned First Team All-Northwest Conference selection last season. The Lutes, who won league titles from 1998-2000, were 20-6 overall last season and 13-3 in the NWC

Linfield College and University of Puget Sound were just as close in running for third place in the poll. The Wildcats totaled 57 points to the Loggers' 56 points. Whitworth finished fifth with 49 points and Willamette was sixth with 41 points. Pacific University (22 points), Whitman College (19) and Lewis & Clark College (17) rounded out the final three places in the coaches' poll.

Once again this season the Northwest Conference has an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament. That bid will go to the winner of the NWC tournament. The top three teams in the conference will qualify for the NWC tournament. The third place team will play at the second place team. The winner will play at the conference champion for the right to the automatic bid. Regardless of that outcome, the regular-season winner will retain the title of conference champion.

For the complete poll, go to the Northwest Conference web site at www.nwcsports.com.

This Week's Meet: Northwest Conference Championships, February 15-17 at Whitworth College in Spokane.

The Puget Sound women are defending champions and heavy favorites to win their sixth consecutive NWC title under head coach Chris Myhre. The Loggers are led by Carla Fellezs, Mari Gantner and Susanne Olson, all seniors and NCAA All-Americans. Other individuals looking to score highly include Whitworth freshman Serena Fadel, Willamette sophomore Nadia Markovchick and Linfield sophomore Aven Pendleton.

Whitworth's men are defending champions, but will be hard pressed to hold off a deeper Puget Sound team. The Pirates are led by senior Brent Rice, junior Ryan Freeman and sophomore Kevin Wang. Puget Sound will look to seniors Sherwin Baghai, Kevin Burke and Kevin Cooley. Linfield's men are led by Craig Gonzales and Nathan Muti. Willamette will look to B.J. Wright.

11-27 – NWC PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Bruins' Doud Wins First NWC Honor of the Season

NEWBERG, Ore – Heather Doud (Sr., P, Corvallis, Ore.) of George Fox University, who averaged 10.2 points and 6.1 rebounds a game last year but was overshadowed by two-time NWC "Player of the Year" Katie Lacey in the Bruins' inside game, is the first Northwest Conference "Player of the Week" for the 2001-02 women's basketball season.

Doud was instrumental in the 14th-ranked Bruins' two wins in the Concordia-Portland Tournament during the week of Nov. 20-26. On Friday in a 62-58 win over Western Baptist, she scored 14 points, hit 3-12 from the floor (1-4 on 3's) and 7-8 from the line, with 9 rebounds, 1 assist, 1 block, and 2 steals. In a 63-61 win over Concordia in the finale, she led all scorers with 21 points, hitting 6-14 from the field (3-4 on 3's) and 6-7 from the line, with 10 rebounds, 1 assist, and 4 steals.

Doud's totals in 2 games were 35 points (17.5 ppg), 9-26 fg% (.346), 4-8 on 3's (.500), 13-15 ft% (.867), 19 rebounds (9.5 rpg), 2 assists (1.0 apg), 1 block (0.5 bspg), and 6 steals (3.0 spg). She was named to the All-Tournament Team.

It was Doud's second NWC "Player of the Week" award, as she also earned the honor last season for the week of Dec. 18-24 while sparking the Bruins to the championship of the adidas D3 Desert Shootout in Las Vegas, Nev.

Doud set new personal highs with 7 free throws and 8 free throw attempts vs. Western Baptist, and tied her best with 4 steals vs. Concordia-Portland. She now has 1,064 career points, but 740 of those came in her first two years at Biola University, where she was All-Golden State Athletic Conference both seasons.

Currently, Doud ranks 3rd in the Northwest Conference in scoring (20.0); 3rd in rebounding (9.0); 9th in FT% (.895); 5th in 3-pt FG% (.417, tie); 4th in 3-pt FG made (1.67); and 4th in steals (3.33, tie).

11/2 - NWC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL POLL: Lutes Edge Bruins by One Vote for NWC Favorites

SPOKANE, Wash. – By the narrowest of margins – a single vote – the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes have been picked to unseat the defending Northwest Conference champion George Fox University Bruins in women's basketball, according to a pre-season poll of conference coaches as announced recently by NWC information director Steve Flege at Whitworth College.

The Lutes, who finished second to the Bruins last season, totaled 77 points and picked up six of the nine first place votes. George Fox picked up the other three first place votes and totaled 76 points.

The Bruin, who spent two weeks at the top of the NCAA Division III women's basketball poll, won the 2001 title with a record of 23-3 overall and 15-1 in the conference. The Bruins must replace two-time NWC Player of the Year and All-American post Katie Lacey, but expect to be strong again with senior point guard Becky Thompson and senior wing Nicole Prazeau coming back after both were named to the All-NWC Second Team. Thompson led the conference with a 2:1 assists-to-turnovers ratio while averaging 8.3 points and 3.7 assists a game, and Prazeau was second team in scoring at 11.7 points a game. Also back is starting post Heather Doud, who posted numbers of 10.2 points and 6.1 rebounds per outing.

PLU will be led by Jessica Iserman (Sr., C) and Becky Franza (Sr., PG), both of whom earned First Team All-Northwest Conference selection last season. The Lutes, who won league titles from 1998-2000, were 20-6 overall last season and 13-3 in the NWC.

Linfield College and University of Puget Sound were just as close in running for third place in the poll. The Wildcats totaled 57 points to the Loggers' 56 points. Whitworth finished fifth with 49 points and Willamette was sixth with 41 points. Pacific University (22 points), Whitman College (19) and Lewis & Clark College (17) rounded out the final three places in the coaches' poll.

Once again this season the Northwest Conference has an automatic bid to the NCAA tournament. That bid will go to the winner of the NWC tournament. The top three teams in the conference will qualify for the NWC tournament. The third place team will play at the second place team. The winner will play at the conference champion for the right to the automatic bid. Regardless of that outcome, the regular-season winner will retain the title of conference champion.

For the complete poll, go to the Northwest Conference web site at www.nwcsports.com.

(First-place votes in parenthesis. Points awarded on 10-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis).

Spokane, Wash. — Pacific Lutheran University is a narrow choice to unseat George Fox University as this year's Northwest Conference champions, according to a poll of conference coaches.

The Lutes, who finished second to the Bruins last season, totaled 77 points and picked up six of the nine first place votes. PLU will be led by Jessica Iserman (Sr., C) and Becky Franza (Sr., PG), both of whom earned First Team All-Northwest Conference selection last season. The Lutes are looking to return to the title they held from 1998-2000. They finished 20-6 overall last season and 13-3 in the NWC.

George Fox picked up the other three first place votes and totaled 76 points, only one behind PLU in the poll. George Fox, which spent several weeks at the top of the NCAA Division III women's basketball poll, won the 2001 title with a record of 23-3 overall and 15-1 in the conference. The Bruins must replace two-time NWC Player of the Year Katie Lacey. But George Fox has Becky Thompson (Sr., PG) and Nicole Prouzeau (Sr., W) coming back after both were named to the All-NWC Second Team in 2001.

Linfield College and University of Puget Sound were just as close in running for third place in the poll. The Wildcats totaled 57 points to the Loggers' 56 points. Whitworth finished fifth with 49 points and Willamette was sixth with 41 points.

Pacific University (22 points), Whitman College (19) and Lewis & Clark College (17) rounded out the final three places in the coaches' poll.

Once again this season the Northwest Conference has an automatic (Pool A) bid to the NCAA tournament. That bid will go to the winner of the NWC tournament. The top three teams in the conference will qualify for the NWC tournament. The third place team will play at the second place team. The winner will play at the conference champion for the right to the automatic bid. Regardless of that outcome, the regular-season winner will retain the title of conference champion.

Several teams begin play on November 16th.
