Dear Friend:--

We greatly enjoyed your good letter of May 31, which has just followed us out here where we are trying to rest up a bit in preparation for commencement and yearly meeting.

What a lot of interesting experiences the Miles family are having these days. You and Laura and her mother are starting today, I suppose, for that interesting trip east, and Robert and his family will be off soon, if they are not already started, on their trip around the world.

You'll have a lovely time at Guilford College with Eva and Algie and the two children. They'll never know how much we enjoyed our stay with them. We wanted to stay another week, and they certainly convinced us that we would be welcome, but we felt that it would not be fair to everybody concerned there for us to stay longer.

Please remember us to all the folks there. We certainly want to extend our very best wishes to Ward and Alice. Yes, and our congratulations to Dorothy on her graduation.

Wish we could look forward to yearly meeting with more un-mixed pleasure. The new discipline will be in effect in the organization of the yearly meeting after this session, and there are some queer combinations under one board, as it seems to me. Peace, education, literature, temperance and public morals and perhaps another line or two under the one board of Public Relations. And there are some things in the new discipline that seem to me worse than that.

We hope to get back here after yearly meeting for a longer stay than we are making this time. We must be getting back before the end of the week.

With love to all of you from both of us,

Sincerely your friend and cousin,

Mrs. Anna B. Miles,
c/o Prof. Algie I. Newlin,
Guilford College, N.C.
