GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY "BRUINS"
2005 BASEBALL COACH

27 * PAT BAILEY

Pat Bailey, named the American Baseball Coaches Association National Coach of the Year for leading George Fox University to the 2004 NCAA Division III World Series championship, is now in his 10th season at the helm of a Bruin baseball program that has established itself as one of the finest in the Northwest Conference and at regional and national levels.

Bailey's 9th season at George Fox culminated in the pinnacle of success as the Bruins became the first university team to capture a national championship as a member of the NCAA. The Bruins posted a 40-10 overall record, setting a new single-season record for wins and tying the record for best won-lost percentage (.800). A 20-4 record in Northwest Conference play, the team's best ever, enabled the Bruins to tie Linfield College for the NWC crown.

After receiving an at-large bid to the NCAA playoffs, the Bruins went 4-0 in the West Regional in Orange, Calif., their first regional title, and 5-1 in the World Series in Appleton, Wisc., defeating Eastern Connecticut State 6-3 in the championship game. All nine of the Bruins' post-season wins came against nationally-ranked teams, and four of their five wins in the World Series were against pitchers who were First or Second Team All-Americans. George Fox was a unanimous pick as the No. 1 team in the nation in the final ABCA/NCAA Division III national poll.

Success has been nothing new under Bailey, as the Bruins have posted 9 straight winning seasons since he took the reins in 1995. His career record is 262-120, the most wins of any George Fox baseball coach, and his .686 winning percentage ranks 22nd among active Division III coaches. In home games under Bailey, the Bruins have posted an amazing mark of 123-28 (.815).

George Fox teams have won or shared 6 NWC championships in Bailey's 9 seasons, winning outright titles in 1997, 2000, 2002, and 2003, and co-titles in 1999 and 2004. In 2000, their first year of NCAA eligibility, the Bruins advanced to the West Regional, where they were the No. 1 seed. In 2002, the Bruins went 1-2 in the Midwest Regional, earning their first NCAA post-season victory over Blackburn. In 2003, the Bruins were 2-2 in the West Regional, losing in the finals to eventual national champion Chapman.

Bailey was honored by the Northwest Conference as its Coach of the Year in 1997, 2000, 2002, and 2003, and as Co-Coach of the Year in 1999 and 2004. In addition to his National Coach of the Year award, he also received the Regional Coach of the Year award from the ABCA in 2004.

Many of Bailey's players have earned all-conference, all-district, all-region, and/or all-America recognition, including 9 members of last year's team. In 1999, first baseman Nate Barnett became his first NAIA First Team All-American, and in 2000, staff ace Ryan Alvis was named to the NCAA Division III All-America Third Team. In 2003, first baseman Eric Bell was an All-America First Team selection and pitcher Scott Hyde was All-America Second Team. Bell was a First Team Academic All-American and designated hitter Joshua Sargent was Second Team that same year. Last season, Hyde and shortstop David Peterson were All-America First Team selections, while Hyde was National Co-Pitcher of the Year.

"This university really matches up with me personality-wise and philosophically," says Bailey of his tenure at George Fox. "As a coach, I want to make sure every kid is making the most of his God-given talent. I want them to be a class act in the classroom and the community. I want the kids to match the school and my personality. I stress to my team that we're a family. Family members are more important than themselves. If you're going to be a leader, you must be a servant first."

Bailey took over the Bruin program immediately after guiding West Linn High School into the Oregon Class 4A state championship game in 1995. At West Linn, his teams advanced to the Class 4A state playoffs 7 times, and in his final season were edged 2-1 in the 1995 state championship game. Four times Bailey was named Three Rivers League Coach of the Year while at West Linn, where he served for 10 years as head baseball coach and assistant football coach. His baseball teams won 5 league titles and reached the Oregon semifinals in 1989, 1991, and 1995. Prior to West Linn, Bailey taught and coached at Willamette High School in Eugene, Ore., for 3 years.

At West Linn, Bailey was also a business instructor, and in 1994 was named to Who's Who Among America's Outstanding High School Teachers. In 1995, he was one of 30 outstanding educators honored with a 1995 Education Excellence Award, given by Associated Oregon Industries.

Bailey spent one season as pitching coach at the University of Portland in 1992, and has also coached a number of youth summer programs. From 1981-83, he led the State Junior Baseball program in Eugene to an 84-40 record, and from 1989-95, he produced a 187-64 record as an American Legion coach. Combined with his 223-134 high school record and George Fox totals, he has an overall mark in 23 years of coaching of 756-358 (.677).

Bailey is a 1974 graduate of Moscow High School in Idaho, where he played football, basketball, and was the baseball team's MVP. He earned 2 letters in baseball at North Idaho College in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, then 2 more as a starting outfielder and team captain during his senior season at the University of Idaho. He continued playing semiprofessionally until age 28. In 1978, he completed his business education degree, and earned a master of education degree in educational administration at the University of Oregon in 1983.

Additional duties for Bailey at George Fox include associate director of athletics, director of the Bruin Club for athletic support, chair of the school's Sports Hall of Fame Committee, and a teacher in the Department of Business and Economics. He and his wife, Susan, live in Newberg and have two children: son Alex, 21, and daughter Ann, 18.

GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY "BRUINS"
2005 BASEBALL ASSISTANT COACHES

6 * MARTY HUNTER
Baseball Assistant Head Coach

After a stellar high school coaching career, Marty Hunter joined the George Fox baseball staff for the 2003 season, and returns for his 3rd year and 1st as the assistant head coach, giving primary focus to the Bruin infielders.

Hunter came to Newberg from Canby (Ore.) High, which he guided to a 132-63 record from 1995-2002. His teams made the state 4A playoffs every year, and won Pacific 9 Conference titles in 1997, 1998, and 2002. He was Conference Coach of the Year in '97, '98, '01, and '02.

Prior to his stint at Canby, Hunter coached Bend (Ore.) High from 1991-94, going 68-40. Bend won the Intermountain Conference championships in 1991 and 1992, and he was named Coach of the Year in the conference both seasons. While working at Bend from 1987-94, he also had the opportunity to serve as an assistant coach with the Bend Bucks, a team in the professional Class A Northwest League, in 1990.

A graduate of Gresham (Ore.) High School, he attended Linfield College, where he earned 2 letters as a football cornerback and 3 as a 2nd baseman and catcher on the baseball team. He earned his degree from Linfield in 1984, then worked at Gladstone, Gresham, and West Albany High Schools before landing in Bend.

Hunter and his wife of 19 years, Kim, have two sons: Taylor, 16, and Tucker, 13. The Hunters reside in Canby.

33 * MIKE THOMPSON
Baseball Assistant Coach

Former NAIA All-American outfielder Mike Thompson is in his 5th season as an assistant coach at George Fox, where he has a major responsibility in assisting head coach Pat Bailey with hitting instruction for Bruin batters.

Thompson, a native of Bellevue, Wash., first came to George Fox after 2 years at Edmonds (Wash.) Community College. He was an Honorable Mention All-American center fielder during his junior year in 1994 under former coach Pat Casey, now the head coach at Oregon State, but missed the 1995 season with a medical redshirt year. As a senior in 1996 in Bailey's first year as coach, he earned All-Northwest Conference honors. He graduated in 1996 with a B.S. degree in fitness management.

After leaving George Fox, Thompson coached at Inglemoor High School in Bothell, Wash., for 2 years, and also coached American Legion ball. He returned to Oregon in August 2000 to open his own private hitting instruction business, and now works for the Newberg School District as a behavior intervention specialist.

Thompson is married to former George Fox athlete Liz Stephens, an NAIA All-American in the 400 hurdles and 4x400 relay and an All-Conference basketball player in 1996 who is in her 3rd year as an assistant coach with the Bruin track teams. She is also a firefighter in the Portland area. The Thompsons reside in Dayton, Ore., with their pet weimaraner, Josie.

18 * RANDY RUTSCHMAN
Baseball Assistant Coach

Randy Rutschman returns to the George Fox baseball staff for his 3rd season, with primary duties as the catching instructor, having previously worked as an assistant with the Bruins in the first year of former coach Pat Casey's tenure in 1988.

Rutschman was a star catcher for Linfield College from 1977-81, earning All-Northwest Conference and NAIA All-District 2 honors his junior and senior seasons. In 1981, he was named First Team All-West Coast and NAIA Honorable Mention All-American.

Born in Hillsboro, Ore., Rutschman moved to McMinnville as a child when his father, the legendary Ad Rutschman, took over as a coach at Linfield. The Ad Rutschman Award, given annually to the outstanding small-college athlete in the state by the Oregon Sports Awards, is named for Randy's father.

Rutschman earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 1981 and a master's in education in 1986, both from Linfield. After two years as a graduate assistant coach at Linfield in 1982-83, he secured a position at Tigard (Ore.) High School, where he continues teach performance psychology.

In addition to assisting the baseball program at Tigard for 13 seasons, Rutschman has also helped the Aloha Knights, a semi-pro team in the Pacific International League coached by former Bruin assistant Geoff Loomis, for the past five summers. The Knights won the 2004 National Baseball Congress Championship, a 32-team tournament in Wichita, Kansas.

Rutschman enjoys listening to Christian music, traveling, and visiting the beach with his family in his spare time. He and his wife Carol, who also teaches at Tigard, have two children: son Adley, age 7, and daughter Josephine, age 5. The Rutschmans reside in Sherwood, Ore., and attend St. Paul's Lutheran Church.
