

1-1-2009

Contributors -- Quaker Religious Thought, no. 112

Paul Anderson
panderso@georgefox.edu

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/qrt>

 Part of the Christianity Commons

Recommended Citation

Anderson, Paul (2009) "Contributors -- Quaker Religious Thought, no. 112," Quaker Religious Thought: Vol. 112, Article 8.
Available at: <http://digitalcommons.georgefox.edu/qrt/vol112/iss1/8>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Digital Commons @ George Fox University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Quaker Religious Thought by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ George Fox University.

CONTRIBUTORS

JAMIE R. JOHNSON is a member of Newberg Friends Church and is the Director of the new Friends Leadership Program at George Fox University. An alumnus of George Fox, he has completed an MA in Church History at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and is currently working on a PhD in Higher Education. He is married to Erin and has three children.

PAUL ANDERSON is Professor of Biblical and Quaker Studies at George Fox University and a member of North Valley Friends Church. He serves as Director of the George Fox University Congregational Discernment Project (www.georgefox.edu/discernment), and his book, The Christology of the Fourth Gospel, is undergoing a third printing this year by Cascade books, including a new introduction and outlines.

CAROLINE WHITBECK is a philosopher of science, technology, and medicine, and she chairs the Online Ethics Center Advisory Group for the National Academy of Engineering. She is Emerita Elmer G. Beamer-Hubert H. Schneider Professor in Ethics at Case Western Reserve University and Emerita Professor of philosophy. A Friend for over 30 years, she serves on the Executive and Steering Committees of the Friends Association of Higher Education and is active in the life of Northampton Monthly Meeting.

GALEN MCNEMAR HAMANN is the Director of Friends Education at Moses Brown School in Providence, RI. A graduate of Earlham College, Galen received a Masters of Education from St. Joseph's University, and she is also finishing a Masters of Divinity at Harvard Divinity School with a focus on Hospital Chaplaincy. Galen is a member of Friends Meeting at Cambridge.

ELIZABETH CAZDEN is a former lawyer and an independent historian, currently researching Quaker slaveowners in colonial Rhode Island. Betsy also teaches writing (adjunct) at Roger Williams University. She has been active for more than thirty years in New England Yearly Meeting, Friends World Committee for Consultation, and other Quaker organizations, including serving as NEYM Clerk, 1990-94.

J. BRENT BILL is a Quaker minister and author who writes about everyday spirituality. In addition to Sacred Compass: The Way of Spiritual Discernment, he is also the author of Holy Silence: The Gift of Quaker Spirituality and Mind the Light: Learning to See with Spiritual Eyes. He serves as the executive vice president of the Indianapolis Center for Congregations, a Lilly Endowment funded organization dedicated to strengthening Indiana congregations.