Jessica Hollen, the 2012 Northwest Conference Coach of the Year, enters her fifth season as the George Fox softball head coach in 2013 after bringing the Bruins to the point of serious contention in one of the strongest NCAA Division III conferences in the country.

In her first three seasons of rebuilding, Hollen's teams turned in record of 5-23, 13-27, and 12-28, finishing seventh in the NWC each time. Her efforts began to bear fruit in 2012 as the Bruins went 20-22 overall and 15-13 in the conference, finishing fourth in the NWC and earning a berth in the four-team NWC Tournament, where they were eliminated with losses to No. 1-ranked Linfield and Willamette. Picked to finish sixth in the pre-season conference poll, the Bruins' tremendous improvement caught the attention of league coaches, who awarded Hollen with her first NWC Coach of the Year selection. Her career record after four seasons stands at 50-109 (.314).

A graduate of North Salem (Ore.) High School, Hollen played for a season at the Colorado-Corona Springs, then transferred to Chemeketa Community College and earned Junior College All-America honors as a sophomore.

After a year as an assistant coach at Chemeketa in 2004, she served as the varsity coach at Stayton (Ore.) High School in 2005-06 while completing her bachelor of science degree in history at Western Oregon, which she received in 2006. She then returned to Chemeketa as the co-head coach for the 2007 season. After attending the Willamette College of Law, she spent a year as a law clerk in the office of the Marion County District Attorney, but decided to return to coaching when the George Fox position became available.

Hollen is married to John Hollen, a former baseball player at Corban who serves as one of her assistant coaches. During her spare time, she enjoys outdoor activities such as skiing and camping. The Hollens are members of the Newberg Foursquare Church, and have two daughters: Riley May, who born on Sept. 1, 2011, and Kinley Grace, who was born on Aug. 28, 2012.
