1/16/2008 - Tsohantaris to Return for Second Stint as George Fox Men's Soccer Coach

NEWBERG, Ore. – Timotheos (Tim) Tsohantaris, who coached the George Fox University men's soccer team from 1986 to 1989 and led the Bruins to a National Christian College Athletic Association national title in 1988, will return for a second stint as the Bruins' coach.

Tsohantaris, who is a professor of Biblical studies at George Fox, will continue in that capacity while serving as the Bruins' coach once again.

In making the announcement of the hiring of Tsohantaris, George Fox director of athletics Craig Taylor said, "I am very excited that Tim will have the opportunity to shape and lead the next era of Bruin soccer. His soccer coaching background is obviously outstanding. He is also highly respected as a classroom teacher." Tsohantaris was named the George Fox Undergraduate Professor of the Year, an award voted on by the student body, in 1995.

Tsohantaris will be taking over for the man who replaced him, Manfred Tschan, who announced his retirement after 19 seasons as the George Fox head coach to go into private business with Newberg-based Action Equipment Company.

Tsohantaris first came to George Fox in 1985 as an assistant coach for the men's team under Paul Berry, then stepped in as head coach the following season. In his four years as head coach (1986-89), he led the Bruins to four NCCAA Region 8 appearances, region titles in 1986, 1987, and 1988, and to three national tournaments. After going 2-1 in the NCCAA nationals in both 1986 and 1987, the 1988 team defeated LeTourneau, Cedarville, and Bartlesville Wesleyan 3-1 in the championship game. He was selected as the 1988 NCCAA National Coach of the Year. In 1989, he and Tschan shared head coaching duties. His overall record in four seasons was 50-23-4 (.675).

An ordained minister in the Greek Evangelical Church, Tsohantaris left the university and moved to Massachusetts in 1990 to pastor the largest GEC congregation in the United States. Upon his return to George Fox in 1993, he was the men's assistant coach again for four seasons, and the women's assistant coach for three.

A Greek-born U.S. citizen, Tsohantaris played and coached at Barrington College in Rhode Island, where he was 6-6 in his only season in 1979. He has coached both men's and women's teams at the high school level, with an 11-year record of 109-57-8, and has a club team coaching record of 25-7-2. His cumulative coaching record is 190-93-14 (.663). He also played for three East Coast soccer clubs and the U.S. select team.

In taking the George Fox position, Tsohantaris said that "last year was the first time I was not involved in coaching soccer in some capacity, but my passion for the game never left me. I wanted to get back into coaching, which I see as a ministry, but I also wanted to continue teaching at George Fox. God has opened up a door for me to fulfill both of my passions."

The Bruins are coming off an injury-filled 3-13-3 season, but with only three seniors graduating, 19 returning letterwinners, and new soccer facilities under construction, the future appears bright for the program and its new coach.

"There is usually some sense of excitement when a new coach comes in," said Tsohantaris, "and I want to inject that fresh enthusiasm, fresh hope, into the team. When you look at the body of work that Coach Tschan did over his 19 years as head coach, it is pretty impressive, and I hope to continue his hard work. We want to see the players excited, the fans excited, the whole community excited, and will work harder than ever to make that happen."

Tsohantaris is already working the recruiting trail as former coach Tschan, who will continue his teaching duties at George Fox through the academic year, begins to direct prospective recruits his way.

"We have a solid nucleus returning next fall," notes the new coach, "but we hope to add some new blood at each position who will push the current players to improve."

Tsohantaris has a bachelor's degree from Barrington (1977), a master's degree from Ashland Theological Seminary (1985), and a Ph.D. from the University of Athens (2002). From 1986-1990, he served as the George Fox chaplain. He and his wife Valerie have two sons, Demetrius and Thaddeus.

12/21 – Bruins' 2006-07 Men's Soccer Team Cited by NSCAA for Academic Excellence

NEWBERG, Ore. – For the seventh year in a row, the George Fox University men's soccer team has been recognized for its academic excellence as the 2006-07 team has received the NSCAA/adidas Team Academic Award as presented by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

Teams with a cumulative 3.00 grade point average for the entire varsity roster are honored, and last year's Bruins combined for a 3.17 grade point average. The Bruins have been cited each year since 2001.

"This is an award in which we take great pride," said Bruin coach Manfred Tschan, who has announced his retirement after 20 years with the men's soccer program, 19 as the head coach. "Such recognition from the NSCAA on a regular basis signifies that we are fulfilling our responsibilities as an institution to develop these young men both on the field and in the classroom."

A total of 414 programs (114 men's teams, 300 women's teams) from every college organization and at every level were given the Team Academic Awards by the NSCAA for 2006-07. The NSCAA also presents Team Academic Awards to high schools around the country.

11/26 – George Fox Men's Soccer Coach Manfred Tschan Stepping Down after 20 Years

NEWBERG, Ore. – Manfred Tschan, who coached George Fox men's soccer to two National Christian College Athletic Association national titles, two NAIA District 2 championships, one NAIA Area 1 championship and one Northwest Conference title, will leave the university after 20 years with the program. With a career men's soccer coaching record of 224-189-26, he ranks among the top 50 active NCAA Division III coaches in career victories.

Tschan will finish out the academic year as an assistant professor of health and human performance before joining the Newberg-based Action Equipment Company, which manufactures mechanical sorters, conveyers, and other machinery for recycling plants, steel mills, and various other industrial businesses. The company is owned by former Bruins Andy and Dan LaVeine and has 52 employees, including salesman Jai Cook, another former Bruin.

"I'll be working for three former All-Americans of mine, only this time, they get to tell me what to do," says Tschan. "They've been after me for about 10 years to come join them, and I'd been thinking about it for a couple of years. Twenty years at one school is a nice, round number, and with new facilities on the way, with a regulation-size lighted field, it just seemed like a good time to step aside and let a new coach come in."

A native of Switzerland and fluent in English, French, Italian and German, Tschan expects to work in sales and travel internationally. "Action has the potential for a lot of global sales, so they thought my language skills would come in handy," he says.

Tschan began his coaching career at the University of Oregon, where he guided the fledgling women's program to a 27-3-3 record in two years (1980-81), a No. 4 Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America national ranking in 1981, and into the 1981 AIAW National Tournament. He followed that up with a 37-26-5 mark with the Concordia University-Portland men's team from 1984-87.

In 1988, Tschan came to George Fox as an assistant coach under Tim Tsohantaris in 1988 and helped direct the Bruins to a National Christian College Athletic Association national championship. He served as co-head coach in 1989, then spent 18 years as the sole head coach. He led the Bruins to a 187-163-21 (.532) record during that time, bringing his career record in 25 years to 251-192-29 (.563).

Under Tschan's leadership, the Bruins made the NCCAA playoffs twice (1989-90), winning the NCCAA District 8 and national championships in 1990. That team went 21-3-1 (.860), setting Bruin records for wins in a season and highest winning percentage. The Bruins made the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics playoffs six times (1990-93, 1996-97), winning District 2 crowns in 1990 and 1993, the Area 1 title in 1993, and participating in the NAIA National Tournament in 1993. From 1991-98, the Bruins' last eight seasons in the NAIA, they were ranked in the Top 25 at some point in six of those years. The Bruins were Northwest Conference champions in 1995, their first season in the conference, and finished second twice.

Tschan was named NAIA District 2 and NAIA Area 1 Coach of the Year in 1993. Nine of his players earned All-America awards, 11 went on to play professional soccer, and one made it to the National Football League as a placekicker.

When asked about his greatest soccer memories at George Fox, Tschan admits, "I suppose it would be easy to say certain championships or classic games, great plays or great players, but my best memories are simply of the people I was with. Whenever we have our alumni barbeques, it is interesting to hear the players talk more of things they remember from certain road trips, or experiences they had during their times together at school, and not just great games. They are what I cherish the most."

"Coach Tschan's greatest legacy will be not just the big wins or the championships or his winning record, but the relationships he developed with his players," said director of athletics Craig Taylor. "Probably no one gets more athletes to return for alumni games, and the affection and respect his former players have for their coach when they come back is evident. He poured his life into his players, and that is what made him a terrific coach and a wonderful mentor."

"Sure, I'll miss it; I haven't lost my passion for soccer or for coaching," Tschan says. "I might get back into coaching some day, but for now, I'll have more time for my family, and I can always catch some good pro games."

Tschan earned a bachelor of science degree in education in 1976 from The Teachers' College of Hofwil, Switzerland, a master of science degree in motor learning from the University of Oregon, and has completed Ph.D. course work in sports psychology. He and his wife Vicki, who works in the Student Financial Services at George Fox, reside in Newberg and have two children: Twila, 17, and Heidi, 15. Twila was recently named Oregon's Junior Miss and will compete in the National Junior Miss Pageant next summer in Mobile, Ala.

The search for a new men's soccer coach at George Fox will begin immediately.

11/3 – LINFIELD 6, GEORGE FOX 0: Bruins' Season Ends with Lopsided Loss to Wildcats

NEWBERG, Ore. – A difficult season filled with enough medical problems to cause 10 players to miss all or parts of the year came to a close for the George Fox University Bruins at the hands of their Yamhill County rivals, the Linfield College Wildcats, who coasted to a 6-0 win in the Northwest Conference men's soccer finale for both teams Saturday afternoon here at Morse Field.

Linfield struck early and often in building up a 4-0 lead in the first 26 minutes. Peter Hong's corner kick was put in by Spencer Hunter, his second goal of the season, at 7:36 to get the Wildcats going. Six minutes later, Hong got a goal of his own, his first, after a pass from Nick Jauregui. Derek Ponce assisted on Roland Mason's first goal of the year at the 25:28 mark, and Kurtis Wong notched his third goal 37 seconds later after a feed from Jacob Burger.

Hoping to start a comeback, the Bruins thought they had ruined the shutout when Peter Luginbill slid in and knocked home a goal after a crossing pass from Erich Hangartner at the 55:04 point in the second half, only to have the shot nullified by an offside call. Taking advantage of the reprieve, the Wildcats made it 5-0 with a goal by Zach Hubbard off an assist from Burger 28 seconds later, and finished off the scoring two minutes after that with a goal by Kevin Donato, assisted by Bryan Alford. It was Hubbard's second goal of the season and the first for Donato.

Despite the lopsided score, the match was fairly evenly contested, Linfield holding only an 18-17 edge in shots and 12-8 in shots on goal. George Fox won the corner kick battle 5-4. The big discrepancy was in the offside category, where the Wildcats were caught too far ahead 11 times to only twice for the Bruins. Mike Belzberg had eight saves in goal for Linfield while posting his seventh shutout, while George Fox keeper Kyle Putnam had six.

Three Bruins were making the final appearances of their four-year careers: midfielder Erich Hangartner, who finished with nine goals, nine assists, and 27 points in his career; midfielder Ryan MacKenzie, who ended with nine goals, three assists, and 21 points; and Putnam, who recorded 296 saves, three shutouts, and the sixth-best goals against average in Bruin history of 2.02.

George Fox ends the season with a 3-13-3 overall record and a conference mark of 1-10-3 for seventh in the league standings. Linfield finishes at 9-8-1 overall and in sixth place in the NWC at 5-8-1.

11/2 – PUGET SOUND 4, GEORGE FOX 2: Loggers Win Battle of Corner-Kick Goals over Bruins

NEWBERG, Ore. – Two early goals off corner kicks got the University of Puget Sound off to a fast start and the Loggers later added two more scores, offsetting a pair of corner-kick goals by the George Fox University Bruins in the second half, to take a 4-2 victory in Northwest Conference men's soccer Friday afternoon here at Morse Field.

The Loggers struck two minutes into the game when Daniel Lee sent a kick from the left corner to the far post, where Taylor Hyde headed it back toward the near post, and Andrew Hewitt headed it back into the far corner for his first goal of the season. The Loggers made it 2-0 at the 19-minute mark as Greg Swanson sent a corner from the right side into the middle for Hyde, who banged it home for his fifth goal. At 25:19, the Loggers upped it to 3-0 when Mark Conrad passed from the left side to Kyle Benson near the right corner of the penalty box, and he angled a shot back and into the upper near corner for his fifth score of the season.

The Bruins cut into the Loggers' lead six minutes into the second half when Peter Luginbill centered a corner kick from the right side where, after a brief skirmish in front of the goal, Sean Daughtry came up with ball and snuck it in for his first collegiate goal. The home team's momentum was short-lived, however, as the Loggers scored 24 seconds later, Conrad centering to Jackson Lindeke for his first goal and a 4-1 UPS lead. The final score of the game came when Luginbill again sent a corner kick to the box, this time to the far side where Brian Story trapped the ball and then lined it inside the near post for his first goal.

Puget Sound out-shot George Fox 12-9, had an 8-3 advantage in shots on goal, and might have fared even better had the Loggers not been whistled offside a dozen times. The Bruins held the corner-kick edge 7-3. Kyle Putnam had three saves in the net for the Bruins, while Scott Macha, the third of three UPS keepers, had the only save for the Loggers.

George Fox (3-12-3, NWC 1-9-3) concludes its season Saturday at 1:30 p.m., hosting Linfield College. Puget Sound (14-3-1, NWC 9-3-1) visits Pacific University Saturday at 1:30 p.m., then must wait until Sunday to see if it will receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Division III National Tournament. Either Whitworth University or Pacific Lutheran University will earn the NWC's automatic bid to the playoffs.

11/8 – ALL-CONFERENCE: Pair of Bruin Freshmen Garner All-NWC Recognition

NEWBERG, Ore. – Providing a pair of shining lights in an injury-riddled season of struggle for the George Fox University men's soccer team, freshmen forward/midfielders Carlos Pehr and Justin Meyer have received All-Northwest Conference recognition as voted on by the league's eight coaches.

Pehr, who hails from Woodburn, Ore., was named to the All-NWC Second Team, while Meyer, who comes from Lacey, Wash., was listed among the honorable mention players.

Pehr was the Bruins' leader in goals (5), ranking 12th in the conference, and points (13), while tying for second on the team in assists (3). He had one game-winning goal against Walla Walla, a match in which he scored two goals. He also led the Bruins in total shots (34) and tied for the lead in shots on goal (15).

Meyer became the first Bruin since Brian Erickson and Merrick Brownlee in 2001 to score a "hat trick" when he had three goals in a 7-1 win over Walla Walla on Sept. 3. He finished his rookie year with four goals, three assists, and 11 points, all second on the team. He also was third on the team in shots (25) and shots on goal (13).

The Bruins went 3-13-3 in 2007, their 19th season under veteran coach Manfred Tschan, and finished seventh in the conference at 1-10-3. With only three seniors leaving, and in anticipation of everyone being healthy, the Bruins' outlook for next fall is brighter.

Michael Ferguson and Brian Lubeck of Pacific Lutheran University were named the 2007 NWC Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year respectively, while Sean Bushey of league champion Whitworth University was named Coach of the Year.

The complete list of First, Second, and honorable mention All-Northwest Conference men's soccer athletes is available on the NWC web site at http://www.nwcsports.com/sports/soccer_men/All-NWC.htm.

10/10 – GEORGE FOX 1, WILLAMETTE 1: Bruins and Bearcats Claw to a Draw

SALEM, Ore. – In one of the hardest-fought contests of the season, the George Fox University Bruins and the Willamette University Bearcats clawed each other to a draw, ending with a 1-1 deadlock after two overtimes in a Northwest Conference men's soccer match Wednesday night here at Sparks Field.

The Bruins drew first blood when Keith Marshall scored from 15 yards away in the center of the penalty box after a pass from Garrett Blizzard at the 25:56 mark of the first half. It was Marshall's second goal of the season.

The Bearcats counter-punched in the second half when Conor Costigan notched his second goal of the year at 51:24, sending the ball from the top of the box to the upper right corner of the net for the equalizer.

George Fox dominated the two overtime periods, taking five shots to one for Willamette and earning four corner kicks to the Bearcats' none, but were unable to capitalize on their control of the extra 20 minutes.

The Bruins out-shot the Bearcats 18-16 and held an 11-8 advantage in corners, though the home team did have more shots on goal, 6-5. Bruin keeper Kyle Putnam made six saves while Mark Bennett had five in goal for the Bearcats. A total of 36 fouls were called in the contest, and each team received three yellow cards.

George Fox (3-8-2, NWC 1-5-2) hosts Pacific Lutheran University Sunday at 2:30 p.m. Willamette (2-9-2, NWC 0-7-1) hosts the 11th-ranked University of Puget Sound Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

10/7 – PUGET SOUND 2, GEORGE FOX 0: 18th-Ranked Loggers Reign Over Bruins in Downpour

TACOMA, Wash. – On a wet and windy Sunday afternoon, the 18th-ranked University of Puget Sound Loggers rained on George Fox University's hopes of a major upset, earning a 2-0 win over the visiting Bruins in a Northwest Conference men's soccer match here on Peyton Field at Baker Stadium.

The Loggers broke a scoreless game open in the 35th minute when Alex Lehecka took advantage of an overplay by Bruin keeper Jake Maguire following a cross by Mark Conrad to put the ball into an open net. The goal gave the Loggers a 1-0 halftime lead.

In the second half, the Loggers' second goal came at the 80-minute mark when a quick-thinking Greg Swanson took advantage of a quick whistle on a Bruin foul and put a free kick from just outside the box past Maguire while the Bruins were trying to get set up on defense.

The game was physical on both sides, with 30 total fouls called and six yellow cards shown, three to each team. UPS took 28 shots, 10 on goal, to 11 and five for George Fox, and also had a 9-2 advantage in corners. Logger keeper Pete Van Sant made five saves to collect the shutout, his eighth of the season, while Maguire made eight saves for the Bruins.

Both teams play again Wednesday. George Fox (3-8-1, NWC 1-5-1) visits Willamette University for a 7:00 p.m. game. Puget Sound (10-1, NWC 5-1) hosts Pacific Lutheran University in a cross-town rivalry, with game time set for 3:30 p.m.

10/6 – LINFIELD 4, GEORGE FOX 0: Second-Half Outburst Carries Wildcats Past Bruins

McMINNVILLE, Ore. – A tight game in the first half turned into a second-half runaway for the Linfield College Wildcats as they handed a 4-0 loss to their Yamhill County counterparts, the George Fox University Bruins, in a Northwest Conference men's soccer game Saturday afternoon here at the Linfield soccer field.

The Wildcats took a 1-0 lead in the 36th minute when Kevin Donato hooked up with Travis Isaacs, who hit a line drive to the top left corner of the net past Bruin goalkeeper Jake Maguire. That score stood until halftime.

Linfield got out quickly in the second half when Zach Hubbard scored his first goal of the season two minutes into the period. The final two goals came in the last six minutes from Andy Sharp and Brice Land, with Isaacs getting an assist on Land's goal.

Linfield's defense was stellar, holding the Bruins to four shots, all on goal, and Wildcat keeper Mike Belzberg stopped all four in posting his fourth shutout of the season. The Wildcats took 15 shots, eight on goal, with Maguire making four saves for the Bruins

George Fox played a man down for the final 12:28 of the match, hindering their chances of a late game surge.

Both teams play again Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in Tacoma, Wash. George Fox (3-7-1, NWC 1-4-1) visits 18th-ranked University of Puget Sound, while Linfield (6-3-1, NWC 2-3-1) goes to Pacific Lutheran University.

9/29 – GEORGE FOX 2, PACIFIC 2: Bruins and Boxers Battle Through Two Overtimes to Tie

FOREST GROVE, Ore. – After taking turns scoring two goals in a half - the George Fox University Bruins in the first half and the Pacific University Boxers in the second half - the two teams battled through two overtimes to a 2-2 tie in a Northwest Conference men's soccer match Saturday afternoon here at Lincoln Park Stadium.

The Bruins got on the board in the 24th minute of the first half when Garrett Blizzard shot from 20 yards out but had the attempt blocked off of Pacific defender Jared Komo, then collected his own rebound and drilled a 15-yard shot to the right corner for his second goal of the season. Carlos Pehr gave the Bruins a 2-0 lead in the 38th minute when he knocked in Kyle Story's corner kick from the left side for his third score of the year.

After being out-shot 13-5 in the first half and getting only one shot on goal, the Boxers came out firing in the second half, out-shooting the Bruins 13-8 the rest of the way. Jasem Jaihouni cut the lead in half in the 68th minute, connecting to the left side off a centering pass from Todd Gienger for his first goal of the season. Danny Williams hit the equalizer in the 79th minute with his fifth goal, connecting on a long cross from Kizamu Tsutakawa that beat George Fox goalie Kyle Putnam to the left side.

The Boxers controlled efforts in the extra periods, limiting the Bruins to just one shot. Pacific had five looks at the goal, but found themselves unable to put anything past Putnam, who made five saves in the game. Pacific keeper Andrew Stevermer finished with seven saves.

George Fox (3-6-1, NWC 1-3-1) returns to play next Saturday at Yamhill County rival Linfield College, while Pacific (3-3-2, NWC 1-2-2) visits the University of Puget Sound the same day. Both games start at 2:30 p.m.

9/23 – WHITWORTH 2, GEORGE FOX 0: Pirates Blank Bruins for 5th Straight Shutout

NEWBERG, Ore. – Ryan Powers and Matt Friesen scored a goal apiece, one in each half, and the Whitworth University defense recorded its fifth straight shutout and sixth in eight games as the visiting Pirates posted a 2-0 win over the home-standing George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference men's soccer match Sunday afternoon here at Morse Field.

Whitworth got its first-half goal at 30:34 when Brent Zahn crossed from the left corner to the far post, where Skye Henderson headed the ball back to the center of the penalty box for Powers, who drove the ball home for his third score of the season. The Pirates made that 1-0 lead stand until midway through the second half, when Zahn and Keith Kirsch sent passes around the top of the box to Friesen on the right side, from where the Pirates' leading scorer sent a shot inside the far post for his fifth goal at 68:59.

While the Whitworth offense was shooting 19 times (nine on goal), the defense limited the Bruins to five shots, only one on goal, and that was stopped by keeper Scott Barnum four-and-a-half minutes into the game. The Pirates also held a 10-0 advantage in corners. George Fox keeper Kyle Putnam made seven saves, including one sensational grab of a high liner that he might not have reached were he not 6'8".

George Fox fell to 3-6 overall and 1-3 in the conference, while Whitworth remained in first place by improving to 6-1-1 overall and 4-0 in the NWC. Both teams play again Saturday at 2:30 p.m., the Bruins visiting Pacific University and the Pirates going to Pacific Lutheran University.

9/22 – WHITMAN 1, GEORGE FOX 0: Missionaries Edge Bruins in Unusual Defensive Struggle

NEWBERG, Ore. – In a match-up of two of the highest-scoring teams in the Northwest Conference, it was defense that carried the day as the Whitman College Missionaries finally broke through for a late goal to edge the George Fox University Bruins 1-0 in a men's soccer battle Saturday afternoon here at Morse Field.

Whitman entered the contest second in the league in goals (22) and points (58), while George Fox was third in goals (13) and points (39). For over 74 minutes, however, both teams turned away the other's best offensive efforts.

The Missionaries out-shot the Bruins 9-2 in the first half, denying the Bruins any shots on goal while getting five on goal of their own. George Fox keeper Kyle Putnam swapped them all away, including a catch of a booming line drive by Andy Huntington, the league's leading scorer with 15 points, early in the game.

The Bruins had their best chance to score at the 58-minute mark when Matt Gurldes sent a cross from the right corner to Garrett Blizzard about eight yards from the near post. Blizzard headed a sharp shot toward the crossbar, but Whitman keeper Brett Axelrod leaped high into the air for a spectacular catch.

The Missionaries finally took advantage of a Bruin foul to score. Craig Yuen was give a free kick from the left corner following the foul, and he sent a ball to the far post for Matt Manley, whose shot hit the crossbar and angled down and back across the goal line for the game's only score at 74:35. It was Manley's second goal of the season. The Whitman defense then ran out the clock, preventing the Bruins from getting another shot thereafter.

Putnam finished with nine saves while Axelrod had three. Whitman out-shot George Fox 16-6 (10-3 in shots on goal), and held a 6-2 advantage in corner kicks.

George Fox (3-5, NWC 1-2) hosts Whitworth University and Whitman (5-3, NWC 2-1) visits Willamette University Sunday, both games beginning at 2:30 p.m.

9/15 – PACIFIC LUTHERAN 4, GEORGE FOX 0: Lutes Break Loose to Run Away from Bruins

TACOMA, Wash. – Picked in the pre-season by the conference coaches to challenge for the Northwest Conference men's soccer crown, the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes began the year 0-4 against a rugged non-league schedule but showed why they were rated so high with a 4-0 win over the George Fox University Bruins Saturday afternoon here at the PLU Field.

PLU, picking up its first win of the season, broke onto the board just 2:03 into the match when midfielder Jason Bjorgo scored his second goal of the season, a 12-yard shot following a goal mouth scramble after the Bruins failed to get a good clearance. The first half ended with the Lutes leading 1-0, but they dominated second-half action.

Just 50 seconds into the second period, defender Brian Lubeck headed home a cross from Brennan Brown for his first tally of the season. Mike Ferguson scored his second goal of the campaign at 71:09, beating Bruin goalkeeper Kyle Putnam with a left-footed shot from 15 yards out. Putnam had made several excellent saves among his five in the game to keep Ferguson from scoring at least two more goals.

PLU's final tally came at 79:22 when Joern Hella, who had assisted on Ferguson's goal, took a pass from Derek MacLean and beat Putnam with a low shot to the far post.

The Lutes out-shot the Bruins 18-3, held a 9-1 advantage in shots on goal, and out-cornered the Bruins 7-1. Daniel Mangum, making his first start, picked up one save in earning the shutout for PLU.

George Fox (3-4, NWC 1-1) plays next Saturday at home vs. Whitman College at 2:30 p.m. Pacific Lutheran (1-4, NWC 1-0) returns to action at 2:30 p.m. Sunday when the Lutes host Simpson College (Iowa) in a non-conference match.

9/12 – GEORGE FOX 3, WILLAMETTE 1: Unusual Goal Helps Bruins Win NWC Opener over Bearcats

NEWBERG, Ore. – An unusual “own goal” enabled George Fox University to take the lead for good just moments after Willamette University had tied it in the second half, and the Bruins went on to defeat the Bearcats 3-1 in the Northwest Conference men's soccer opener for both teams Wednesday afternoon here at Morse Field.

After 40 minutes of scoreless defense, the Bruins finally broke the scoring ice at the 40:28 mark when Justin Meyer crossed from the left corner to the mouth of the goal, where John Zaganiacz shot the ball into the right corner for his second goal of the season. The Bearcats responded at 64:25 in the second half as Luke Lagattuta crossed from the right corner to the left post, and Trevor Jones headed the pass back into the right side of the net for his second goal.

The 1-1 tie lasted only 31 seconds. The Bruins worked the ensuing possession to Keith Marshall coming down the middle, and his shot was punched out by Bearcat keeper Scott Klein - straight into the back of a teammate's head. The subsequent rebound sailed over Klein and trickled into the unprotected net as the Bearcats scrambled to clear the errant ball.

The Bruins sealed the win with a more conventional goal at 71:51. Carlos Pehr passed from the right sideline to Matt Gurlides coming down the right side of midfield, Gurlides flicked the ball to Garrett Blizzard near the top of the keeper's box, and Blizzard notched his first goal of the season with a shot to the middle of the net.

Kyle Putnam went the distance in goal for the Bruins and picked up the win with three saves. Klein had eight saves for the Bearcats. George Fox out-shot Willamette 16-13 overall and 11-4 in shots on goal. Each team also had five corner kicks.

The Bruins (3-3, NWC 1-0) visit Pacific Lutheran University Saturday, while the Bearcats (2-2-1, NWC 0-1) next play at the University of Puget Sound Sunday, both games starting at 2:30 p.m.

BRUIN BITS:

 Meyer BAA Athlete of the Week, HM for NWC Offensive Honors

Forward/midfielder Justin Meyer was named the Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week and received honorable mention for Northwest Conference Men's Soccer Offensive Player of the Week for Sept. 3-9 as the Bruins went 2-2. He scored three goals and added one assist as the Bruins routed Walla Walla 7-1 on Monday, becoming the first Bruin since 2001 to pull a "hat trick". He had only two more shots the rest of the week as the Bruins' offense struggled in their remaining games. Meyer's big game has him 4th in the NWC in points (7) and goals (3, T), 6th in points per game (1.40) and goals per game (0.60), and 9th in shots (9, T).

 2007 Honors:

- Justin Meyer - Bruin Athletic Association Men's Athlete of the Week (Sept. 3-9); NWC Offensive Player of the Week (HM, Sept. 3-9)

 Tschan Notches 250th Career College Coaching Win

With a 1-0 double-overtime victory at Warner Pacific in Portland on Tuesday, Sept. 4, veteran soccer coach Manfred Tschan notched his 250th career win. He was 27-3-3 in two seasons (1980-81) coaching the brand-new women's team at the University of Oregon, and was 37-26-5 in four years (1984-87) with the men's program at Concordia University-Portland. He is now 186-154-18 in 18-plus seasons (1989-present) at George Fox, giving him a combined total in 25 years of 250-183-26, a .573 winning percentage.

 Meyer's Hat Trick First for Bruins Since 2001

Forward/midfielder Justin Meyer scored three goals and threw in an assist for good measure in the Bruins' 7-1 win over Walla Walla in Newberg on Monday, Sept. 3, becoming the first Bruin in six years to collect a "hat trick" in a game. The last time it happened was against Walla Walla in Newberg on Sept. 9, 2001, when two different players accomplished it in a 13-2 rout of the Wolves. Forward Brian Erickson scored four goals and midfielder Merrick Brownlee had three in that game.

 NWC Stats: Bruins Taking More Shots at Goal than Anyone

In Northwest Conference offensive statistics through games of Sept. 9, George Fox is 1st in shots (81), shots per game (16.20), corner kicks (34), 2nd in assists (10), assists per game (2.00, T), 3rd in points (30), points per game (6.00), goals (10), goals per game (2.00) ... Defensively, the Bruins are 4th in shutouts (1, T), saves (21), 5th in goals allowed (6), goals-against avg. (1.17) ...

- Matt Gurlides is 1st in shots (16), assists (3, T), 2nd in shots per game (3.20), 3rd in assists per game (0.60), 6th in points (5, T), 9th in points per game (1.00, T) ...

9/4 - GEORGE FOX 1, WARNER PACIFIC 0: Bruins Nip Knights with Goal in Second Overtime

PORTLAND, Ore. - Ryan MacKenzie scored the only goal of the game just over a minute into the second overtime period, giving the George Fox University Bruins a 1-0 win over the Warner Pacific College Knights in a non-conference men's soccer match Tuesday night here at the Portland Christian High School Field.

The defenses were strong for both teams, each allowing only five shots on goal. Warner Pacific took 21 shots in all, while George Fox took 14. Goalkeepers Jake Maguire and Kyle Putnam had five saves for the Bruins, with Putnam picking up the win, and Brian Kelly had four for the Knights.

The Knights took the only shot of the first overtime, but it was not on goal. The Bruins finally broke through in the second extra period to notch their second straight win when MacKenzie scored his first goal of the season at the 101:08 mark, with an assist from Garrett Blizzard.

George Fox (2-1) visits the Bay Area for its next two games, taking on Menlo College Friday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. in Atherton, Calif., and California State University-East Bay Saturday at 2:00 p.m. in Hayward, Calif. Warner Pacific (0-3) begins Cascade Conference play Friday, visiting Concordia University-Portland at 4:00 p.m.

9/3 – GEORGE FOX 7, WALLA WALLA 1: Bruins Whip Wolves Behind Meyer's Hat Trick

NEWBERG, Ore. - Justin Meyer scored a hat trick and assisted on a fourth goal, sparking the George Fox University Bruins to a 7-1 rout of the Walla Walla University Wolves for their first win of the season in a non-conference men's soccer match Monday afternoon here at Morse Field.

Walla Walla got on the board first five minutes into the game when Dominique Hunt scored on a right cross from Isaac Lopez, one of only five shots the Wolves could muster in the first half. The Bruins tripled the number of shots but could get only one of their 15 tries to go in, Meyer scoring his first goal when John Zaganiacz got loose along the right baseline and fed him in the mouth of the goal for the tying score.

The Bruins finally began to find the gaps in the second half when they out-shot the Wolves 19-3. Meyer fed Carlos Pehr for the go-ahead goal two minutes into the half, and Meyer scored his second goal 41 seconds later when Matt Gurlides crossed to him from the right side.

In the 65th minute, Gurlides scored when Ryan MacKenzie passed ahead to him on a fast break, and Gurlides passed to Pehr two minutes later for another score. Meyer added his third goal in the 74th minute when MacKenzie crossed from the left side of the box to the middle and Meyer scored off a subsequent free ball. Zaganiacz closed out the scoring with a goal seven minutes from the end with an assist from Peter Menig.

The Bruins finished with 34 shots to eight for the Wolves, 20 shots on goal to three, and nine corner kicks to two. Kyle Putnam had two saves in the first half and Jake Maguire covered the goal in the second half for the Bruins. Walla Walla keeper Timothy Lo made 10 saves before coming out with an injury 16 minutes from the end, and Jorge Fernandez had a pair of saves in the remaining time.

George Fox (1-1) plays its first road game of the season Tuesday when the Bruins take on Warner Pacific College at 8:00 p.m. in a match at Portland Christian High School. Walla Walla (0-1) is off for two weeks, playing next on Monday, Sept. 17, at Canadian University College in Lacombe, Alberta, at 4:00 p.m.

9/1 – HOLY NAMES 1, GEORGE FOX 0: Hawks Hold On to Spoil Bruins' Season Opener

NEWBERG, Ore. - Jonathan Tingaka scored 18 minutes into the game and that was enough for the Holy Names University Hawks to spoil the men's soccer season opener for the George Fox University Bruins 1-0 Saturday afternoon here at Morse Field.

Holy Names, the defending champion in the NAIA Division II's California Pacific Conference, controlled the game offensively and defensively, taking 24 total shots and eight on goal while holding George Fox to four shots total and three on goal. The Bruin defense was valiant, however, allowing just the one goal when Henry Goh sent a long cross from the right sideline to the left corner of the keeper's box for Tingaka, who angled a shot into the right corner of the net at the 17:57 mark of the first half.

The Hawks' defense made that stand up as keeper Andreas Lindstrom made three saves. Jake Maguire had two saves for the Bruins in the first half and Kyle Putnam had five saves in the second half. Holy Names had six corner kicks to four for George Fox. The game was a rough one physically as 24 fouls were whistled and three yellow cards were handed out.

George Fox (0-1) is back in action at home Monday, hosting Walla Walla College at 4 p.m. Holy Names (1-0-1) visits Concordia University-Portland Monday at 12 noon.

8/30 – PREVIEW: Balanced Bruins Aim for Winning Record and Higher Finish in Conference

NEWBERG, Ore. – With a team that is relatively young but well-balanced between offense and defense, the George Fox University Bruins are taking aim at a winning season and perhaps a place in the top half of the Northwest Conference standings in men's soccer in 2007.

The Bruins have not had a winning record since the 2000 team went 10-7-1 and tied for second in the conference, but just missed a break-even season last year, ending with an 8-9-2 record that was a six-win improvement over the year before. Included was a season-ending 2-0 upset of NWC champion Puget Sound. A 4-9-1 record in conference play left them seventh in the league.

"It's always hard to predict records," says veteran coach Manfred Tschan, who is 184-151-18 (.547) in 18 years at George Fox and 248-180-26 (.575) in 24 years overall as a college coach. "With the right preparation, a little luck and some good health, we have a chance to be competitive with anybody. Now we must go out and prove it."

Twelve letterwinners, including seven starters, are back for the Bruins. Key losses were All-NWC Second Team defender Brain Zaro, four-year starting midfielder Dan Potter, and third-leading scorer Dylan Durrell (three goals, four assists). Part-time starting defender Jon Maroni was lost for the 2007 season with a torn ACL but hopes to return next year.

Returning between the posts for the Bruins is one of the best goalkeeping tandems in the conference in Kyle Putnam (Sr., Bend, Ore. / Mountain View HS) and Jake Maguire (So., Aurora, Ore. / North Marion HS), who had 98 saves between them. The Bruins' back row is anchored by Keith Marshall (So., Redmond, Ore. / Redmond HS), who had a pair of assists and was a conference Defensive Player of the Week. Kyle Story (So., Graham, Wash. / Bethel HS) and Zach Sanders (So., Puyallup, Wash. / Emerald Ridge HS), who played in 17 and 13 games respectively last year, will vie for starting jobs this season. Story spent some time at midfield as a freshman and had three goals and an assist.

"Replacing Zaro will be big issue, obviously," admits Tschan, "but the number of players we have returning bodes well for our defense. In the pre-season, Connor Campbell (Fr., Salem, Ore. / West Salem HS) has certainly looked good, and Sean Daughtry (Fr., Vancouver, Wash. / Battle Ground HS) and David Rickey (Fr., Richmond, Ind. / Richmond HS) have played effectively in the back."

Versatile Ryan MacKenzie (Sr., Redmond, Ore. / Redmond HS) returns for his fourth year as a starter to a center midfield position, with Brian Story (So., Graham, Wash. / Bethel HS), Kyle's twin brother, at the other center mid spot. Mackenzie had two goals in 2006, while Story had one goal and one assist.

Erich Hangartner (Sr., Central Point, Ore. / Crater HS) will hold down one flanker position after scoring twice and tying for seventh in the conference with five assists in 2006. The other outside mid berth could be filled by returnees Bret Hamilton (So., Medford, Ore. / South Medford HS), who had two goals, or Tony Zamora (So., San Salvador, El Salvador / Newberg HS), who had one goal and one assist.

Injuries have hampered the flankers' pre-season preparations, opening the door for newcomers Carlos Pehr (Fr., Woodburn, Ore. / Woodburn HS) and Justin Meyer (Fr., Lacey, Wash. / Timberline HS). "Both have had an immediate impact with their abilities to pass or score," observes Tschan, "and they will see significant playing time."

Medical red-shirt Caleb Martin (Fr., Dayton, Ore. / Amith HS) appears healthy and will get a shot at midfield. Newcomer Peter Luginbill (Fr., Caldonia, Ill. / Christian Life HS) is a versatile player who brings strength to either the midfield or the back row.

On offense, the Bruins feature a dynamic duo at the forwards who happen to be cousins: Garrett Blizzard (Jr., Las Vegas, Nev. / Bonanza HS) and Matt Gurlides (So., Las Vegas, Nev. / Palo Verde HS). Blizzard tied for second in the league in assists (6) and scored three goals. Gurlides, a Second Team All-NWC selection, led the conference in shots (70) while ranking fifth in goals (8) and sixth in points (20).

"Blizz and Matt work well together and will present a serious challenge for defenders this year," predicts Tschan, "but we do have other options. Pehr and Meyer were both strikers in high school and we can move them up if we need to. Hamilton and Zamora both played up front last year and give us additional speed wherever they go. We have also been joined by John Zaganiacz (Fr., Wilsonville, Ore. / Wilsonville HS) from the track team, who played soccer in high school and made a good impression when he tried out for us."

Two newcomers who have the skills to play either midfield or forward and will get long looks include Jose Lewis (San Jose Pinula, Guatemala / Tillamook HS) and Peter Menig (Fr., Gilroy, Calif. / Escuela Caribe, Dominican Republic).

"Overall, we could be pretty balanced," Tschan says. "If our players are interested in defense, we could shut down almost anybody. We have some good size and speed, and are very athletic, though we are still a bit young, with only three seniors and one junior. Our sophomores got a lot of experience last year, and that should really pay off for us this season."

"Offensively, we have good speed up front and on the flanks, but we must learn to use it well. If our attackers work well together, we should be able to give people some headaches."

The season gets under way for George Fox this Saturday, Sept. 1, when the Bruins host Holy Names University at 2:30 p.m. at Morse Field in Newberg. The game follows the GFU women's home opener vs. The Master's College at 12 noon. The Bruins continue at home on Monday, Sept. 3, vs. Walla Walla College at 4 p.m. before their first road game Tuesday, Sept. 4, against Warner Pacific College at Portland Christian High School at 8 p.m.

8/16 – NWC POLL: Bruins 7th in Men's Soccer Poll but Return Key Offensive Pieces

NEWBERG, Ore. – Picked to finish seventh in the pre-season poll of the Northwest Conference's eight men's soccer coaches, the George Fox University Bruins are hopeful that a stable full of 19 expected returnees and eight returning starters will enable them to challenge for a higher place in the conference standings in 2007.

The Bruins missed a break-even season by one game in 2006, ending with an 8-9-2 record that was a six-game improvement over the year before. A 4-9-1 record in conference play left them seventh in the league.

Gone from that team are three starters, including Second Team All-NWC defender Brian Zaro and midfielders Dan Potter and Greg Hoiland. Las Vegas cousins Matt Gurlides and Garrett Blizzard lead the large group of returning letterwinners, however, in what could be one of the better offenses in the league. Gurlides, a Second Team All-NWC selection, led the conference in shots (70) while ranking fifth in goals (8) and sixth in points (20). Blizzard tied for second in the league in assists (6) and scored three goals.

Also back are starting midfielders Erich Hangartner, who tied for seventh in the NWC in assists (5), Ryan MacKenzie, Dylan Durrell and Brian Story, defender Keith Marshall, and the talented goalkeeping tandem of Kyle Putnam and Jake Maguire, who had 98 saves between them.

Veteran coach Manfred Tschan enters his 19th season at George Fox with a record of 184-151-18. Coupled with two years leading the women's program at the University of Oregon and four years with the men's team at Concordia University-Portland, he is 248-180-26, and needs only two wins to reach the 250-win milestone in his college career.

Around the rest of the conference, Tacoma, Washington is expected to be the home of the top two teams in 2007. Defending champion University of Puget Sound edged Pacific Lutheran University in the pre-season poll, the Loggers picking up 62 points and four first-place votes to 55 points and three first-place votes for the Lutes.

UPS won the league with a 10-2-2 record last season behind a defense that allowed only 0.38 goals per match. Logger keeper Pete Van Sant, the 2006 NWC Defensive Player of the Year, returns to mind the nets for his senior season. All-NWC defender Cole Peterson also returns, along with all-conference midfielder Scott Blanchett. Pacific Lutheran finished third in the standings last season (9-4-1) and welcomes back three First Team All-NWC players of their own in defender Brian Lubeck, midfielder Beard Asker, and forward Mike Ferguson.

Whitworth University finished third in the poll with 51 points. The Pirates, who won conference titles in 2004 and 2005, will have to overcome the graduation of five First or Second Team All-NWC honorees from last season's squad if they want to return to the top of the standings. Linfield College picked up one first-place vote and 40 points to finish fourth in the poll. The Wildcats graduated two of their three First Team All-NWC selections from last season, but do have defender Chris Nicoletti returning for his senior season.

Pacific University surprised by contending for the NWC title for much of last season. The Boxers are fifth in the poll with 31 points and welcome back midfielder Danny Williams. Whitman College is sixth in the poll with 27 points. The leading scorer from last fall, Stephen Phillips, is back on the attack for the Missionaries.

George Fox garnered 22 points, followed by Willamette University with eight points for eighth in the poll.

The season gets under way for the Bruins at home on Sept. 1 against Holy Names University at 2:30 p.m., following the GFU women's home opener vs. The Master's College at 12 noon. The Bruins continue at home on Sept. 3 vs. Walla Walla College at 4 p.m. before their first road game, against Warner Pacific College at Portland Christian High School, at 8 p.m. under the lights.
