GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY

2012 WOMEN'S SOCCER COACHES

ANDY
HETHERINGTON
Head Coach

Now entering his 11th season as the head coach of the George Fox University women's soccer program, Andy Hetherington has brought the Bruins along to a point of serious competitiveness in the rugged Northwest Conference, a league which always features several teams among the best in the nation.

Only the second coach in Bruin women's soccer history, Hetherington has a 63-115-16 record (.366) in 10 years since coming to the university during the summer of 2002. Prior to that time, he had served as assistant men's head coach at Catlin Gabel (Ore.) High School from 1991-92, head men's coach at Corbett (Ore.) High School from 1993-96, and head women's coach at Valley Catholic (Ore.) High from 1998-

2001. All together, his high school teams had a record of 123-20-5. At Catlin Gabel, Hetherington's teams went 20-0 in 1991 and 19-0 in 1992, both teams winning District 1 and state championship titles. Establishing the program at Corbett, he guided the team to a 31-11-3 overall record and made the playoffs in each of his three years there. At Valley Catholic, where he was 53-9-2 in four years, his 1998, 2000, and 2001 teams each won the Tri-Valley League and reached the quarterfinals of the state Class 3A playoffs, while the 1999 squad was league runner-up and reached the second round of the state tournament.

Hetherington has worked to develop that kind of consistent winning tradition at George Fox. "My aim," he says, "is to make the women's soccer program not only more competitive, but also more attractive. I am an offensive-minded coach with a total soccer mentality that is designed to develop attacking scenarios from anywhere on the field."

Hetherington, 54, is a native of Manchester, England, where he attended St. John's College. He played soccer semi-professionally in both England and France from 1978-86 before coming to the United States.

2012 MEN'S SOCCER COACHES

LUIS
DEL RIO
Head Coach

Luis Del Rio, who led Woodburn (Ore.) High School to Oregon 5A boys' soccer state championships in 2010 and 2011, begins his first year as the head coach of men's soccer at George Fox University in 2012 with the goal of reviving a Bruins' program that has not posted a winning record since 2001.

Del Rio is the seventh coach in the history of George Fox men's soccer, which began in 1977. He replaced Tim Tsohanataridis, who served two stints as the Bruins' coach (1986-89 and 2007-10) before returning to full-time teaching duties in the Religious Studies department.

In three years as the coach at Woodburn, Del Rio led the Bulldogs to records of 16-2 in 2009, 17-1 in 2010, and 18-1 in 2011. Woodburn made the state playoffs each of those years, extending a state record of 25 consecutive post-season appearances. The Bulldogs won the 5A titles in the state's second-highest classification in 2010 and 2011, with Del Rio named the State Coach of the Year in 2010 and the Willamette Valley Coach of the Year, covering schools in all six state levels, in 2011.

A native of Nayarit, Mexico, Del Rio graduated from the Conalep Technical Institute in Tijuana, Mexico, with a Business Administration degree in 1984. After working for several years with different companies, he relocated to Woodburn, Ore., in 1988. He earned a degree in micro-electronics from Chemeketa Community College in 1999, then landed his current position at Cascade Microtech in Beaverton.

Del Rio and his wife Brigida have three children: daughter Gillian (21), a student at the University of Oregon, son Luis Angel (17), a freshman at George Fox, and son Fernando Enrique (5). It was through his daughter's interest in soccer that he began his coaching career, assisting her team when she was 10 years old.

From there, Del Rio established the Woodburn Athletic Soccer Club, advertised for players, and got enough to form four teams. He later worked with his son's U-10 Tigres team for four years, and with the Westside Metros club team for a year before getting the Woodburn High job.

"I enjoy hard work, I love a challenge, and I saw the George Fox job as an opportunity to take the next step on the road to coaching at the highest level possible for me," declared Del Rio. "I want us to build a program that we can be proud of, and I believe we can be successful here with a beautiful facility, support from the administration and the community, and bringing in talented players. George Fox is committed to developing a good program, and I am willing to put in all my effort to develop a competitive soccer team here again."

In announcing the hiring of Del Rio, director of athletics Craig Taylor commented that "Luis' success on the field and, more importantly, his commitment to the overall development of our student-athletes, makes him a great fit for George Fox University."

Del Rio enjoys fishing, exploring rivers, and hiking in the mountains with his children when he has occasional moments of spare time. He and his family are members of the St. Luke's Catholic Church in Woodburn.
