Dear Friend:

I finally finished the paper I wrote about the Silas Moon family and their missionary work in Alaska. I sent it yesterday, but it is coming 4th Class, so it will probably come about the time you get this.

After I sent it I realized I had made a mistake, on page 75. I wrote "Orchestra Started", but it should have been "Band Started." So would you please mark out the word 'orchestra' and write 'band'?

I didn't have time to type it over so there are quite a few corrections with a pen, which I hope you will excuse please.

Royal and I had been married 40 years when he passed away, and five years later Ray and I were married, as his wife had passed away, so I learned a lot about the Alaska work from both of them. I'm glad we now have it in shape so we can browse through it occasionally.

I'm sorry I didn't get it sent to you sooner, but I'm not well and I can't do my work as fast as I used to.

Will you please let Frankie Martin and Alice Coulson read the paper as soon as convenient. I suppose you will want to keep it on file with the Yearly Meeting records, will you not?

Pleas let me know if you received it.

Sincerely

Rosella Moon
