HEAD COACH

Luis Del Rio
(503) 554-2919
ldelrio@georgefox.edu

Luis Del Rio, who led Woodburn (Ore.) High School to the Oregon 5A boys' soccer state championships in 2010 and 2011, begins his third year as the head coach of men's soccer at George Fox University with the goal of reviving a Bruins' program that has not posted a winning record since 2001. Del Rio is the seventh coach in the history of George Fox men's soccer, which began in 1977. He replaced Tim Tsohanataridis, who served two stints as the Bruins' coach (1986-89 and 2007-10) before returning to full-time teaching duties in the Christian studies department of the university. The Bruins posted a 2-16-1 in the new coach's initial season and 1-19 in 2013-14.

ABOUT THE TEAM

George Fox University's men's soccer team looks poised to bounce back from last year and make this season one to remember.

"The goal is always the same. We want to win the championship," said head coach Luis Del Rio. "We have a very solid group of players this year, especially skill-wise." In total, 14 of the team's 32 players are freshmen. There are eight sophomores.

Listen to Del Rio speak, and there's no denying it, he's dead serious. "We're trying to change the mind-set of our players and get past the mentality that's been here a long time," he said. "It's time for us to step up ... and show that we belong at this level."

And with the new influx of talent, along with the unquestioned leadership of Luke Hammer and Luke Dickens, the 2014 season looks to be drastically different than in years past.

Hammer added his perspective as well. "I'm really looking forward to this year because of all the new players. It's like a whole new team with a whole different feel. [There's] a lot of new energy."
