The Bruins went 13-3 in conference play, sharing the league title with the Puget Sound Loggers, whom they defeated twice during the regular season. The Bruins also beat the Loggers again to win the NWC Tournament and earn an automatic bid to the NCAA National Tournament. George Fox defeated 23rd-ranked Gustavus Adolphus in the first round of the tournament before the season ended with a narrow three-point loss to Puget Sound. The Bruins were ranked 25th in both the final D3hoops.com and the USA Today/ESPN/Women's Basketball Coaches Association NCAA Division III national polls.

3/3 – PUGET SOUND 51, GEORGE FOX 48: Loggers Advance in NCAAs by Beating Bruins on Fourth Try

NEWBERG, Ore. – The fourth time proved to be the charm.

After going 0-3 against the George Fox University Bruins in their previous meetings this season, the University of Puget Sound Loggers gained a measure of revenge over their Northwest Conference counterparts with a hard-fought 51-48 victory in the title game of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Newberg Regional Saturday night here at GFU's Wheeler Sports Center/Miller Gym.

Puget Sound improved to 23-6 and, with two wins over ranked opponents, advances to one of four four-team sectionals March 9-10, site and opponent to be determined. The Loggers had reached the regional final with a 69-57 win Friday over 12th-ranked McMurry University. George Fox, ranked 24th, had defeated 23rd-ranked Gustavus Adolphus College 61-47 Friday, but saw its season end Saturday at 19-7.

The game was a tight one throughout, neither team ever leading by more than seven points. Robin Taylor's three-pointer got the Bruins off on a 7-2 start before the Loggers rallied for a 7-7 tie on a putback by Karen Chase. Another three and two free throws by Taylor made it 12-7 Bruins, but again the Loggers bounced back and took their first lead at 17-15 on a trey by Allison Craven with 6:23 left in the half. Another rebound basket by Brie Adderley gave the Loggers a 28-26 lead at the break.

Baskets by Laura Hirsh and Marissa Cain, the latter on yet another of the Loggers' 15 offensive rebounds, pushed the Puget Sound lead to six at 32-26, and they maintained a lead for most of the half but were never able to pull away. George Fox took its only lead of the half 38-37 with 12 minutes remaining on another three by Taylor which put her over the 1,000-point mark in her career, but UPS regained the lead for good on a jumper by Chase with 11:14 to go.

Puget Sound stretched its lead to seven at 47-40 on a three-pointer by Hirsh with 4:38 left, but the Bruins went on a 6-1 spurt, capped by a Taylor layup, to cut the gap to 48-46 with 22 seconds left. The Bruins immediately fouled, but Shelby Ramirez hit two free throws to make it 50-46 with 19 ticks left. Taylor again drove for two with 13 seconds to go and the Bruins fouled Hirsh, who missed a one-and-one with sxi seconds left, but Cain grabbed the rebound. Morgan Harter hit a free throw with 0.9 left for the final margin, and Harter intercepted the Bruins' desperation downcourt pass as time expired.

Hirsh had 11 points and Chase posted a double-double with 10 points and 10 boards to lead the Loggers. Craven and Ramirez had two assists apiece. Puget Sound shot 35.1% (20-57) from the field and only 40% (6-15) from the line, but out-rebounded the Bruins 37-33, and committed only 16 turnovers to 23 for the home team.

Taylor, the Bruins' only senior, was the only Bruin in double figures with 22 points, ending her career with 1,006. She is the 10th player in team history to reach that mark. Katy Campbell was the top rebounder with eight, and Taylor had four assists. The Bruins shot 38.6% (1-744) and 87.5% (7-8) from the line. The lack of free throws came as Puget Sound was called for only nine fouls, and did not commit a foul in the second half until there was 2:30 left in the game.

3/2 – PUGET SOUND 69, McMURRY 57: Puget Sound Pulls Off Upset of 12th-Ranked McMurry

NEWBERG, Ore. – University of Puget Sound coach Suzy Barcomb called it the “Lo and Mo Show”.

Morgan Harter came off the bench to score 19 points and starter Laura Hirsh scored 18, leading the Puget Sound Loggers to a 69-57 upset of 12th-ranked McMurry University in the first game of the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball Newberg Regional Friday night here at George Fox University's Wheeler Sports Center/Miller Gym.

Puget Sound improved to 22-6, while McMurry saw its season end at 24-5. Puget Sound advances to the regional championship game Saturday at 7:30 p.m. against the winner of the second game between host George Fox and Gustavus Adolphus College. The regional champion will advance to a sectional at a site to be determined next weekend.

The first half was a book of runs. Puget Sound drew first blood, jumping out to a 7-0 lead on a three-pointer by Shelby Ramirez and a pair of baskets by Laura Hirsh. Tarra Richardson's layup four minutes into the game got McMurry rolling on a 19-6 run, capped by a three from Sandra Lewis, that made it 19-13 with 10:35 left. The Loggers responded with an 8-0 burst, Hirsh's three giving them a 21-19 lead, before Richardson tied it for the last time with a bucket with seven minutes to go. Puget Sound then ripped off 11 points and held McMurry scoreless for the rest of the half to take a 32-21 lead at the break.

The Loggers stretched their lead to as many as 16 points three times in the second half, the last at 42-26 on a Hirsh three with 13:25 remaining. McMurry finally got its running game going and began to chip away at the lead, cutting the deficit to four at 54-50 on a layup by Richardson with three minutes to go. McMurry began to foul in an effort to slow the clock, but the strategy backfired as Puget Sound hit 13 of 16 free throws in the final 2:10 to hang on.

“Lo and Mo were a two-man wrecking crew for us tonight,” said Barcomb post-game, “and then we hit some big free throws down the stretch.

Barcomb pointed to McMurry's first-half drought as a key to the game, saying, “I thought both teams came out a little nervous, but after they tied it up late in the half, our defense played well and we went on a run that gave us some confidence. When they made a run in the second half, we were able to get a couple of big back-to-back backdoors by Allison Craven and got a couple of stops in between that slowed them down.”

“Basketball is a game of lost opportunities, and we lost too many of them,” said McMurry coach Sam Nichols. “We had several good looks in the first half that rolled around and then out, and we never could get those back. I thought our defense was adequate – when you hold your opponents to 37 percent shooting you ought to win – but we just didn't shoot the ball well”, noting his team's 34 percent accuracy.

Harter and Hirsh were the only Loggers in double figures. Karen Chase had a game-high 10 rebounds, leading the Loggers to a 44-36 advantage on the boards. Hirsh had three assists. UPS connected on 22-58 from the field and 72 percent (18-25) from the line.

All-America center Tarra Richardson had a game-high 21 points for McMurry, while Allison Nelson and Symbri Tuttle added 10 apiece. Richardson was the leader on the boards with seven. Tuttle, the national leader in assists with a 7.8 per game average, handed out 11 this time. McMurry was 21-61 from the floor and perfect from the line with an 11-11 game.

2/24 - GEORGE FOX 58, PUGET SOUND 51: Furious Bruin Comeback Nets NWC Tourney Title over Loggers

NEWBERG, Ore. - Down by 17 points early in the second half, the George Fox University Bruins mounted a furious second-half comeback with a 34-10 run to end the game and stun the University of Puget Sound Loggers 58-51 in the Northwest Conference Women's Basketball Tournament championship game Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

It was the third win of the season for the Bruins over the Loggers in a match-up of regular-season NWC co-champions. George Fox improved to 18-6 and earned the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Division III National Tournament which starts next week. Puget Sound slipped to 21-6 and must await a possible at-large berth to the post-season. Tournament teams will be announced Sunday night, with pairings, dates, and sites to come Monday morning.

Robin Taylor's layup 20 seconds into the game gave the Bruins a 2-0 lead, but shooting struggles and too many turnovers put them quickly in a hole. Baskets by Karen Chase and Marissa Cain gave the Loggers the lead and sparked a 14-3 run, capped by an Allison Craven three-pointer for a 14-6 lead with 14 minutes left. Threes by Katy Campbell and Nicole Hudson keyed an 8-0 Bruin run that tied the game 14-14 with 12 minutes to go, but Claire Ely's layup 25 seconds later put the Loggers ahead for the rest of the half. Craven's three at the buzzer after a steal by Shelby Ramirez made it 33-20 Loggers at the break.

The Bruins committed 16 turnovers to only seven for the Loggers in the half, allowing the Loggers to take 10 more shots than the Bruins, 30-20. UPS was sharper, too, hitting .467 (14-30) to only .300 (6-20) for George Fox. The Loggers connected on 5-8 from three-point range as well, while the Bruins were only 3-12.

Puget Sound stretched its lead to 17 early in the second half by hitting four of its first five shots for a 41-24 lead with 16:39 left in the game - and then the Loggers went stone-cold, making only three of their final 26 shots. George Fox was able to cut its turnovers down to only three in the final period, another huge factor in the home team's comeback.

With conference Player of the Year Katy Campbell scoring 13 second-half points and First Team All-NWC wing Robin Taylor scoring nine, the Bruins began their rally with a 9-0 run over the next four minutes that cut the deficit to 41-33. Craven, another All-NWC First Teamer, hit a jumper to raise the margin back to 10 at 43-33, but the Bruins slowly chipped away at the Logger lead. Back-to-back threes by Campbell and Jaime Hubka tied the game 49-49 with 2:32 left and sent the crowd of some 1,200 into a frenzy.

The teams traded free throws before Cain sank the second of a two-shot foul for a 51-50 UPS lead with 2:12 left, but it was the last point the Loggers would score. Tiffany Behary's driving layup at 1:34 gave the Bruins a 52-51 lead, and after First Team All-NWC guard Laura Hirsh missed a three-point shot, Taylor drove for a layup to make it 54-51 with 57 seconds to go. Free throws by Melissa Marek-Farris and Taylor and two by Campbell iced the Bruins' fourth NCAA appearance in the last eight years.

Campbell and Taylor carried the Bruins with double-doubles, Campbell scoring 19 with 13 rebounds and Taylor scoring 15 with a career-high 12 boards. Behary passed out five assists, and Marek-Farris added to her conference-leading blocked shots total of 57 with four more. The Bruins improved their shooting in the second half to .44 (12-27) and finished at .383 (18-47) for the game. George Fox also held a decided advantage at the line, making 17-27 to only 3-6 for Puget Sound.

Craven was the only Logger in double figures with 13 as the Puget Sound shooting dropped to .226 (7-31) in the second half, ending at .344 (21-61) for the game. Ramirez and Brie Adderley were the Logger leaders on the boards with seven apiece, while Hirsh had three assists.

COMING UP: NWC Tournament Title Game Saturday at Home

2006-07 Northwest Conference women's basketball co-champion George Fox University has earned the top seed in this week's three-team conference tournament and will host the championship game Saturday night, Feb. 24, at 7 p.m. at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gymnasium in Newberg, Ore.

Tickets for Saturday's championship game are $6.00 for adults and $3.00 for senior citizens 55 or older, students, and children. Students attending the two institutions involved in the title game will be admitted free with the display of a valid student ID from their school. Regular-season passes are not valid for admission to this post-season event. The game will be webcast via KFOX radio, the university's campus station, at www.kfoxradio.net.

George Fox (17-6) deadlocked for first with the University of Puget Sound (20-5), both 13-3 in league play. The Bruins claimed the bye into the tournament finale, however, by virtue of sweeping the two-game head-to-head competition with the Loggers. Puget Sound will host Linfield College (14-10), which tied for third with Lewis & Clark College at 9-7 in the NWC, Thursday night, Feb. 22, at 7 p.m. Linfield earned the third-place tiebreaker by going 2-2 vs. George Fox and Puget Sound while Lewis & Clark was 1-3 against the top teams.

Each of the teams in the tournament swept one series and lost one series to the other two. George Fox swept Puget Sound, Linfield swept George Fox, and Puget Sound swept Linfield. The Bruins defeated UPS 58-50 in Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 2, and 64-

62 in Newberg Jan. 27. They lost to Linfield 55-51 in overtime in Newberg Nov. 28 and 51-50 in McMinnville, Ore., Jan. 23.

The winner of the NWC Tournament receives an automatic bid to the NCAA Division III National Tournament, which tips off Feb. 28. The complete field of teams is expected to be announced Sunday night, Feb. 25, with specific pairings, dates, sites, and times released Monday, Feb. 26, at 9 a.m.

This the fourth time in the last eight years that the Bruins have won or tied for the NWC crown. The Bruins were co-champs in 2000 and won the league outright in 2001 and 2005. Head coach Scott Rueck, now in his 11th season at George Fox, takes a 201-79 record into the post-season.

2/17 - GEORGE FOX 78, LEWIS & CLARK 62: Bruins Pull Away from Pios for Share of NWC Crown

NEWBERG, Ore. - Sparked by Katy Campbell's second straight double-double, the George Fox University Bruins pulled away from the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers for a 78-62 win Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym, earning a share of the Northwest Conference women's basketball title and home court in the championship game of the upcoming NWC Tournament.

The Bruins, defeating the Pioneers for the 26th straight time, finished the regular season 17-6 overall and 13-3 in the conference, sharing the crown with the University of Puget Sound Loggers, 61-57 winners at Linfield College Saturday. The Bruins swept the Loggers in their two meetings, however, earning the first-place tiebreaker. The Pioneers fell to 16-9 overall and 9-7 in the league, sharing third place with Linfield, but the Wildcats held that tiebreaker by virtue of their 2-2 record against the league leaders as opposed to the Pios' 1-3 record, earning the final spot in the three-team NWCTournament.

Linfield will play Puget Sound Thursday in Tacoma, Wash., Thursday, with the winner to face the Bruins in Newberg Saturday. Both games are scheduled for 7 p.m. The winner of the conference tournament earns the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Division III National Tournament.

Lewis & Clark took a brief 4-2 lead when Allison Farr and Sarah Moon hit back-to-back jumpers following a Melissa Marek-Farris layup to open the game, but it was the only time the Pioneers would lead. Robin Taylor, the Bruins' lone senior who was honored before the game, tied it with a layup, and Campbell put the Bruins ahead for good with a layup with 17:39 left. The Bruins held 10-point leads in the half four times before settling for a 36-27 advantage at the break. Farr kept the Pios in the game with 14 first-half markers.

Three short jumpers by Samantha Jonasson and a basket by Moon keyed an 8-2 Pioneer run to open the second half, bringing the visitors within three at 38-35 with 16:37 left. The Pios stayed within striking distance over the next eight minutes and were only down seven, 53-46, when the Bruins took off on an 8-0 run, taking a double-digit lead of 61-46 on a Campbell bucket with 5:52 left. The Bruins then ran out the string as Elise Kuenzi scored eight points in the final five minutes and the team connected on seven of eight free throws in the final two minutes.

Campbell, who had 10 points and 10 rebounds in the Bruins' win over Pacific Lutheran University Friday, led everyone with 21 points and 14 rebounds. Taylor added 16 points, Kuenzi 12, and Marek-Farris 11. Tiffany Behary handed out four assists. The Bruins shot .474 (27-57) from the field, sizzled from the line with a .826 mark (19-23), and controlled the boards 36-33.

Farr finished with 19 points to pace the Pioneers, Crystal Castle added 12, and Moon had 11 with a team-high nine rebounds. Moon and Carrie Centlivre passed out five assists. The Pios shot .397 (23-58) from the field and .667 (14-21) from the line.

2/10 – GEORGE FOX 74, PACIFIC 52: Bruins Secure NWC Tourney Home Game by Beating Boxers

NEWBERG, Ore. – Guaranteeing themselves at least one home game in the upcoming Northwest Conference women's basketball tournament, the George Fox University Bruins broke open a tight game late in the first half and went on to a 74-52 win over the visiting Pacific University Boxers Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

With the win, which was coach Scott Rueck's 199th, the Bruins improved to 15-6 overall and 11-3 in the league. George Fox remains a game behind front-running University of Puget Sound, which defeated Whitman College earlier Saturday. Both have two games remaining. If the Bruins and Loggers should tie, George Fox would have the tiebreaker and host the tournament finale on Feb. 24. If the Bruins finish second, they would host the third-place team on Feb. 22. Pacific, meanwhile, fell to 6-15 overall and 2-12 in conference play.

George Fox led for almost eight minutes to open the game, taking a 14-9 lead six minutes in on a layup by Katy Campbell, who had 13 first-half points. The Boxers then went on a 9-0 run, capped by a three-pointer by Kami Shigematsu, to take an 18-14 lead with 11 minutes left. Back-to-back threes by Jaime Hubka and Kaleigha Ramey gave the Bruins a 20-18 advantage before Shigematsu, who scored 11 in the period, tied it for the first and only time 20-20 with a basket at the 9:17 mark.

Tiffany Behary broke the tie for the Bruins with another trey and the home team began to pull away, capping the half with a 9-0 run that gave them a 40-27 lead at intermission. Shigematsu hit another three to open the second half, cutting the margin to 40-30, but Campbell sparked a 13-0 run with six points to make it 53-30 with 16:12 left, and the Bruins cruised the rest of the way. The largest margin was 26 points at 57-31 with 13:05 left on a pair of Ramey free throws.

Campbell led all scorers with 19 points, while Robin Taylor posted her first career double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds, and Hubka added 11 points. Taylor also had five assists as the efficient Bruins collected 21 assists on 23 field goals. Kristen Shielee had four blocked shots. George Fox shot .451 (23-51) from the field, .880 (22-25) from the line, and out-rebounded the Boxers 38-34.

Shigematsu finished with 15 points, the only Boxer in double digits. Trisha Terhar and Ashley Stewart had five rebounds apiece, and Kaela Zarkovich had three assists. The Boxers shot .295 (18-61) from the floor and .643 (9-14) from the charity stripe.

George Fox hosts Pacific Lutheran University Friday at 6 p.m., followed by the NWC men's game at 8 p.m. Pacific goes to Evergreen State College Sunday for a non-conference game at 2 p.m., making up a game that was postponed by bad weather in the Puget Sound area back in December.

2/9 -- GEORGE FOX 75, WILLAMETTE 32: (Almost) Everyone Scores as Bruins Blow Out Bearcats

SALEM, Ore. -- With a well-balanced attack that saw 15 of their 16 players get in the scoring column, the George Fox University Bruins jumped out to a 10-0 lead and never looked back in routing the Willamette University Bearcats 75-32 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Cone Fieldhouse.

The win improved the Bruins' record to 14-6 overall and 10-3 in the conference, keeping them one game behind the 11-2 University of Puget Sound, which cut down Whitworth College 73-55 Friday. The Bearcats, playing without top scorer and rebounder Keilyn Fujioka, dropped to 4-18 overall and 2-11 in the league.

The presence of Fujioka probably would have made little difference as the Bruins were in total control the whole way. Melissa Marek-Farris and Katy Campbell scored four points each in the Bruins' 10-0 start, and the George Fox defense held the Bearcats scoreless until Tracie Nygaard hit a jumper with 13:19 left in the first half. Willamette got within six on another Nygaard basket at 14-8 with 9:42 left, but the Bruins then went a 9-0 run to up the margin to 23-8 on a Robin Taylor bucket with 7:44 left. The Bruins' lead remained in double digits the rest of the way, and they led 35-14 at the break.

The George Fox lead continued to grow in the second half, finally reaching its zenith of 43 points on Elisha Kampfe's layup with 1:20 remaining that made it 75-32, which was the final score. The Bruins held the Bearcats to a .226 shooting percentage (14-62) in the game, and with only 11 fouls, sent the home team to the line only five times all night.

Campbell with 11 points and Taylor with 10 were the only double-figure scorers for either team. The only Bruin who did not score, B.B. Gardner, helped everyone else get a few points as she passed out a game-high six assists. Kristen Shielee had a career-high nine rebounds, pacing the Bruins to a sizeable 47-33 rebound advantage, and also blocked three shots. The Bruins shot .466 (27-58) and sparked at the line, sinking 14-16 (.875).

Laura Payne and Rebekah Wells had seven points apiece for the Bearcats, and Sara Brooks handed out three assists. Kari Woody had nine rebounds and three blocks.

George Fox plays its final three regular-season games at home, starting Saturday with Pacific University at 6 p.m. Willamette, which has concluded its home season, visits Linfield College Saturday, also at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC games at 8 p.m.

Puget Sound was the only other Northwest Conference school in the poll with 8 votes in the "others" list. Bowdoin (21-1) remained No. 1 with 243 points and eight first-place votes.

In the D3hoops.com poll of Feb. 5, which is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors, and media members, the Bruins picked up 3 points, up one from the week before. Puget Sound was also among "others" with 14 points. Messiah remained No. 1 ahead of Bowdoin with 600 points and 12 first-place votes.

* Bruins Nail Down 14th Consecutive Winning Season

The Bruins' 64-62 win over 20th-ranked Puget Sound on Jan. 27 meant a lot of things - it was their third win in as many games against opponents nationally ranked in NCAA Division III, it gave them the tiebreaker over UPS if the teams tie by virtue of a season sweep, and it secured the 14th straight winning season for the Bruins. The winning streak began in 1993-94 in the first of three years under Sherrie Murrell, now the head coach at Washington State. The Bruins were 51-33 under Murrell, and have gone 197-79 in 10+ winning seasons under Scott Rueck. The Bruins have won three NWC championships and made three NCAA Tournament appearances during their streak.

* NCAA Stats: Bruins Climb in National Defensive Rankings

In the latest NCAA national statistics (thru Feb. 4), Melissa Marek-Farris was 30th in blocked shots (2.4) ... As a team, the Bruins were 36th in defense (52.6 ppg) and 31st in field goal pct. defense (.342) ...

2/3 -- WHITWORTH 63, GEORGE FOX 62: Pirates Prevail to Knock Bruins Out of First-Place Tie

SPOKANE, Wash. -- In a battle that featured 10 ties, 16 lead changes, and never more than a seven-point lead for either team, it was Susan McDaniel's free throw with 14.9 seconds left that gave the Whitworth College Pirates a 63-62 win over the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's basketball nail-biter Saturday night here at the Whitworth Fieldhouse.

The setback dropped the Bruins to 13-6 overall and 9-3 in the conference, one game behind the 10-2 University of Puget Sound, which hammered Pacific University 62-36 Saturday. The Pirates improved to 13-8 overall and 7-5 in the league, tied for third with Lewis & Clark College. It was the 200th win for Whitworth coach Helen Higgs, who is 200-125 in her 13th season with the Pirates.

The first half was a see-saw battle as the Pirates opened up a 13-6 lead after a McDaniel layup seven minutes into the game. The Bruins responded with an 8-0 run which included jumpers by Robin Taylor and Katy Campbell to take a 14-13 lead with 10:27 left in the half. The game was knotted 38-38 at the break as neither team could pull away from the other. The Pirates' Tiffany Corigliano had all 13 of her points in the first half.

The second half remained close as the teams changed leads 10 times. The Pirates' biggest lead was 53-48 after Molly Schlander hit a pair of free throws with 8:06 remaining, but the Bruins tied it 53-53 after Campbell sliced through the Pirate defense for an easy lay-in with 5:10 to go. Natalie Orrell nailed a three-pointer from the top of the arc to put Whitworth up 60-58 at the 2:14 mark, but Melissa Marek-Farris tied the game again at 60-60 with a layup at 1:49.

Teresa Zeitler hit a tough lay-in at 1:26 for a 62-60 Pirate lead, but George Fox responded at the other end with a pair of tying free throws from Kaleigha Ramey with 37 seconds left, setting up the final point. McDaniel was fouled on the low block and knocked down the first of two free throws with 14.9 seconds showing, which turned out to be the difference when the Bruins' Elise Kuenzi fought through a Pirate double team but saw her shot for the win fall short as time expired.

Campbell led all scorers with 19 points for the Bruins, while Jaime Hubka added 11. Campbell had a team-high eight rebounds. Hubka and Taylor had three assists apiece. The Bruins shot well from the field with a mark of .490 (24-49), but their struggles from the free throw line (.444, 8-18) proved costly.

Alida Bower and Corigliano paced the Pirates with 13 points each, while Cassie Snyder handed out six assists. Bower's eight rebounds led the Pirates to a slight edge on the glass, 30-29. The Pirates connected for a .434 percentage from the field (23-53), and were especially effective from long range, sinking .529 (9-17) of their three-pointers.

George Fox plays its final road game of the season Friday, traveling to Salem, Ore., to face Willamette University. Whitworth visits Puget Sound Friday. Both games tip off at 6 p.m., followed by NWC men's games at 8 p.m.

2/2 – GEORGE FOX 53, WHITMAN 31: Defense Stifles Missionaries as Bruins Tie for Top of NWC

WALLA WALLA, Wash. – Displaying a stingy defense that forced 21 turnovers and held their opponent to barely 20% shooting, the George Fox University Bruins pulled back into a first-place tie in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race with a 53-31 thumping of the Whitman College Missionaries Friday night here at the Sherwood Center.

Completing a sweep of the home-and-home series with the Missionaries, George Fox improved to 13-5 overall and 9-2 in the conference, the same record as the idle University of Puget Sound. Whitman saw its record even out at 10-10 overall while dipping to 5-6 in the NWC.

Michelle Krall scored seven straight points to give Whitman a 10-5 lead six minutes into the game, but the Missionaries then went without a field goal for over 13 minutes as the Bruins took over. A 7-0 run, capped by a three-pointer by Tiffany Behary, put the Bruins ahead for good 12-10 with 9:11 left in the half, and after Krall made a free throw with 8:11 to go, the Bruins went on a 10-1 run to take a 10-point lead of 22-12 with 55 seconds left. Katie Patneaude finally broke the Missionaries' basket-less streak with a layup 30 seconds before the break, making it 22-14 Bruins at the intermission. Whitman managed only a .185 shooting percentage (5-27) in the period, while the Bruins shot .320 (8-25).

Patneaude hit two free throws and a layup to open the second half, bringing the Missionaries within four at 22-18 with 17:19 remaining, but that was as close as the home team would come. Robin Taylor hit a bucket and two free throws to key a 7-0 run over the next three minutes as the Bruins moved ahead 29-18, and they eventually led by as many as 22 when MaryAnne Samples canned a three to make it 51-29 with 1:13 left.

Taylor led all scorers with 15 points for the Bruins, the only player in the game to reach double figures. Katy Campbell grabbed 13 rebounds as the Bruins controlled the boards 41-36. Kaleigha Ramey had three assists, Melissa Marek-Farris blocked three shots, and Tiffany Behary had four steals. The Bruins finished with a shooting percentage of .327 (17-52) while holding the Missionaries to a .213 mark (10-47).

Krall topped the Missionaries with nine points, but only one in the second half. Kelsey Krumdieck, the Missionaries' top scorer and second in the conference at 14 points a game, was in early foul trouble and went scoreless while going 0-5 from the field. Emily Shubin was the leading rebounder with eight, and Kristina Francis had three assists.

The Bruins head to Spokane Saturday for a conference tilt with Whitworth College at 6 p.m. The Missionaries hosts Linfield College Saturday at 4 p.m. Both games will be followed two hours later by men's NWC games.

* Bruins Nail Down 14th Consecutive Winning Season

The Bruins' 64-62 win over 20th-ranked Puget Sound meant a lot of things - it was their third win in as many games against opponents nationally ranked in NCAA Division III, it moved the Bruins into a tie for first in the Northwest Conference with the Loggers and gave them the tiebreaker over UPS if the teams tie by virtue of a season sweep, and it secured the 14th straight winning season for the Bruins. The winning streak began in 1993-94 in the first of three years under Sherrie Murrell, now the head coach at Washington State. The Bruins were 51-33 under Murrell, and have gone 196-78 in 10+ winning seasons under Scott Rueck. The Bruins have won three NWC championships and made three NCAA Tournament appearances during their streak.

* Polls: Bruins Remain Among "Others" in National Rankings

With a loss to unranked Linfield and a win over 20th-ranked Puget Sound, the George Fox Bruins continued to be listed among "others receiving votes" in the two D-III women's basketball polls this week.

In the USA Today/ESPN/WBCA Coaches' Poll of Jan. 30, the Bruins received 7 points, down from 13 the week before, in the balloting by 10 head coaches around the country. The Bruins' win over Puget Sound cost the Loggers a spot in the rankings, as they dropped from 20th to "others" with 11 points. Bowdoin (19-1) replaced Chicago as the top-ranked team with 219 points and seven first-place votes.

In the D3hoops.com poll of Jan. 29, which is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors, and media members, the Bruins picked up 2 points, down from 11 the week before. Puget Sound fell from 20th to "others" with 16 points. Messiah replaced Scranton as the top-ranked team with 603 points and 10 first-place votes.

1/27 – GEORGE FOX 64, PUGET SOUND 62: Bruins Lasso #20 Loggers to Regain Share of NWC Lead

NEWBERG, Ore. – Regaining a share of first place in the Northwest Conference women's basketball race, the George Fox University Bruins knocked off the University of Puget Sound Loggers 64-62 to complete a regular season sweep of the nationally-ranked Loggers Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

George Fox improved to 12-5 overall and 8-2 in the conference, while Puget Sound, ranked 20th in the WBCA poll and 22nd in the D3hoops.com poll, slipped to 15-4 overall and 8-2 in the league as their eight-game winning streak ended. The Bruins had defeated the Loggers 58-50 in Tacoma on Dec. 2, so the Bruins will have any tiebreaker between the two if one is necessary. It was also the Bruins' third win in as many tries against an NCAA Division III-ranked opponent this year, with two wins over UPS and one over Bridgewater, then 16th, in Hawaii on Dec. 18.

Led by Laura Hirsh, who scored 16 first-half points on 7-8 shooting with a pair of threes, the Loggers forged a 19-11 lead midway through the first half before the Bruins bounced back. Robin Taylor hit two baskets and a three for seven of her 12 first-half points and Katy Campbell capped off a 10-0 run with a conventional three-point play, giving the Bruins their first lead of 20-19 with 6:40 left in the half. There were three ties and four lead changes the rest of the period before the Loggers took a 34-32 halftime lead on Claire Ely's jumper with four seconds to go.

The Bruin defense tightened down on Hirsh in the second half, holding her to only two more points on 1-4 from the field, but the Loggers still mounted a five-point lead of 47-42 with 12:23 left on a pair of Brie Adderley free throws. The Bruins came back and tied it 51-51 on a three by Taylor, then took the lead for good on another three by Nicole Hudson to make it 54-51 with 8:05 to play.

George Fox eventually built a nine-point lead of 64-55 on a rebound basket by Campbell with 3:06 left, but did not score again as Puget Sound rallied. Baskets by Marissa Cain and Morgan Harter around two free throws by Allison Craven and one by Cain brought the Loggers within 64-62 with 56 seconds left. Melissa Marek-Farris missed a Bruin shot as the clock wound down, but Taylor recovered and was fouled with 13 seconds left. She missed a one-and one and Shelby Ramirez rebounded for UPS, giving the Loggers a chance for the tie or win, but Harter and Ramirez both missed shots inside the lane as time expired.

Taylor led all scorers with 19 for the Bruins, while Campbell added 15 and Marek-Farris 12. Campbell posted her second double-double of the year with 13 rebounds, leading the Bruins to a 44-37 advantage on the boards. B.B. Gardner had three assists. The Bruins shot .426 (23-54) from the field for the game.

Hirsh was the only Logger in double figures with 18 as the UPS offense tailed off in the second half to only .286 shooting (8-28) after a .455 mark (15-33) in the first half. Cain led the way on the glass with eight rebounds.

George Fox heads for eastern Washington next weekend, first taking on Whitman College in Walla Walla Friday at 6 p.m. Puget Sound returns home to host cross-town rival Pacific Lutheran University Tuesday at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC games at 8 p.m.

NGWSD Central

Welcome to the 21st annual celebration of National Girls and Women in Sports Day!<sup>tm</sup>

On February 7, 2007, thousands of sports educators, coaches, athletic directors, recreation directors, association members, sponsors, students, and parents across the country will show their support of the Day and of this year's theme, "Throw like a girl — Lead like a champion!"

NGWSD is celebrated in all 50 states with community-based events, award ceremonies, and activities honoring the achievements and encouraging participation of girls and women in sports. Registering your activity is a way to advertise and allows others in your community or state to become aware of upcoming events and enables them to participate. Please click here to submit your event. A description of all submitted events can be found under the events calendar. Whether you are a new participant or a veteran, your support of the Day will go a long way to increase visibility for female athletes and advance their struggle for equality in sports.

NGWSD began in 1987 as a day to remember Olympic volleyball player Flo Hyman for her athletic achievements and her work to assure equality for women's sports. Hyman died of Marfan's Syndrome in 1986 while competing in a volleyball tournament in Japan. Since that time, NGWSD has evolved into a day to acknowledge the past and recognize current sports achievements, the positive influence of sports participation, and the continuing struggle for equality and access for women in sports.

NGWSD is jointly organized by the National Girls and Women in Sport Coalition. The Coalition combines the experience and resources of the six premiere girls- and women-serving organizations in the United States: Girl Scouts of the USA, Girls Incorporated, the National Association for Girls and Women in Sport, National Women's Law Center, the Women's Sports Foundation, and the YWCA USA.

Collectively, these organizations have been in existence for over 427 years and have a membership reach of 5.5 million girls and women.

1/23 – LINFIELD 51, GEORGE FOX 50: Wildcats Knock Bruins Out of Share of League Lead

McMINNVILLE, Ore. – Porcia Jackson sank both ends of a one-and-one with 21.7 seconds left, giving the Linfield College Wildcats a 51-50 victory and a season sweep of the George Fox University Bruins in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game that knocked the Bruins out of a first-place tie Tuesday night here at Ted Wilson Gym.

Suffering the second gut-wrenching loss of the season to their Yamhill County rivals (Linfield had taken a 55-51 overtime win in Newberg on Nov. 28), the Bruins fell to 11-5 overall and 7-2 in the conference as their seven-game winning streak came to an end. The Bruins now trail idle University of Puget Sound, 7-1 in the league, by half a game. The Wildcats improved to 9-8 overall and 4-5 in the NWC.

Sara Burgoyne hit a three-pointer for an early 3-0 Linfield lead before the Bruins, with six different players scoring, went on a 14-2 run to go up 14-5 with 13:16 left in the period. The Bruins held 10-point leads three times, the last at 21-11 with 9:39 left on a power move by Elise Kuenzi. After taking a 25-17 lead with four minutes left, however, the Bruins went scoreless the rest of the way, enabling the Wildcats to close within 25-22 at the break on a steal and layup by Burgoyne and a banked three by Casey Stepan.

George Fox upped its lead back to eight points on a short jumper by Robin Taylor to make it 33-25 with 16:32 left in the game, but Linfield used a 7-0 run to gain a 35-35 tie with 12:18 left on a basket by Jamie Godfrey. The game remained tight the rest of the way, with three ties, five lead changes, and no more than a four-point lead either way.

Melissa Marek-Farris sank two free throws with three minutes left for the Bruins' last lead of 50-49, but Jackson gave the Wildcats the lead back with her two freebies with 21.7 seconds left after a costly Bruin turnover with 40 seconds to go. Katy Campbell's short jumper in the lane for the tie with 4.5 seconds left was off and was rebounded by Linfield's Kate Stadel, who was fouled and went to the line for a one-and-one with 0.7 showing on the clock. She missed the basket completely on the first try, giving the Bruins one desperation shot, but Taylor's heave from half-court bounced twice on the rim before falling off as time expired.

Marek-Farris led the Bruins with 13 points, seven rebounds, and four blocked shots, while Taylor added 10 points. The Bruins had a tough shooting night, making only .298 (14-47) from the field, including a meager .238 (5-21) in the second half. A big advantage from the line (George Fox made 19-26 to only 5-10 for Linfield) kept the Bruins in the game.

Brihtani Lassiter led Linfield with 11 points and Burgoyne finished with 10. Stadel grabbed eight rebounds, pacing the Wildcats to a 39-32 edge on the glass. The Wildcats shot .377 (20-53) from the field for the game.

George Fox, with a four-game NWC road stretch over, returns home Saturday to host Puget Sound at 6 p.m. in a showdown for at least a share of the conference lead. Puget Sound visits Willamette University Friday before meeting the Bruins. Linfield hosts Pacific Lutheran University Friday at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC games at 8 p.m.

1/20 – GEORGE FOX 77, LEWIS & CLARK 73: Bruins Hold Off Pioneers for 7th Win in a Row

PORTLAND, Ore. – Buoyed by a hot early hand that saw them hit eight of their first 10 three-point tries, the George Fox University Bruins took a 13-point first-half lead but had to fight off a feisty Lewis & Clark College team that would not go away to beat the Pioneers 77-73 in Northwest Conference women's basketball Saturday night here at the Pamplin Sports Center.

With their seventh straight win, the Bruins improved to 11-4 overall and 7-1 in the conference, remaining tied for first in the league with the University of Puget Sound, a 61-44 winner over Linfield College Saturday. The Pioneers dropped to 10-7 overall and 3-5 in league play. It was the 25th straight win for the Bruins over the Pios in the series.

George Fox came out blazing from long range as Katy Campbell, Jaime Hubka, and Campbell again hit the Bruins' first three shot attempts from downtown for a 9-0 lead three minutes into the game. Allison Farr's rebound basket got Lewis & Clark going, igniting a 16-7 run that pulled the Pios into a 16-16 tie when Samantha Jonasson scored on a fast break layup with 11:53 left. The Bruins responded with an 8-0 run on a basket by Robin Taylor and a pair of threes by Nicole Hudson, taking a 24-16 lead with 9:30 to go, and eventually stretched it to 13 at 36-23 on a jumper by Campbell with three minutes left. It was 42-32 Bruins at the half.

With five different players scoring, the Pioneers went on a 10-2 run and closed within two at 44-42 five minutes into the second half, and the game remained tight the rest of the way. Twice the Bruins took eight-point leads, the last at 71-63 with 5:06 left on a three by Tiffany Behary, but the Pios again closed within two at 73-71 on a three-point play by Farr with 1:19 to go.

Taylor hit a pair of free throws for a 75-71 Bruin lead at 1:04, only to have Farr hit a drive in the lane to make it 75-73 with 56 seconds left. A backcourt violation gave the Pioneers the ball with 20 seconds left, but Crystal Castle missed a baseline drive and the Bruins recovered on a jump ball possession with 4.5 seconds left. Taylor iced the game with two more free throws with 3.4 seconds to go.

Taylor had 19 points to lead the Bruins, while Campbell added 17, Hudson had 12 on four three-pointers, and Melissa Marek-Farris had 11. Taylor had six rebounds and five assists, and Marek-Farris and Kristen Shielee blocked three shots each. The Bruins shot .500 (26-52) as a team, including .556 (10-18) from three-point range, and made .750 (15-20) on free throws.

Castle led all scorers with 20 for the Pioneers, Farr scored 16, Jonasson had 12, and Carrie Centlivre added 10. Jonasson made it a double-double with 11 rebounds as the Pios controlled the glass 37-32. Sarah Moon handed out eight assists. The Pios shot .387 (24-62) and were only .250 (3-12) from beyond the arc, but befitting the 8th-best free throw shooting team in the nation, they hit .880 (22-25) from the line.

George Fox begins the second half of the conference season Tuesday with a visit to Yamhill County rival Linfield College for a 6 p.m. game. Lewis & Clark hosts Whitman College Friday, also at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC games at 8 p.m.

1/19 – GEORGE FOX 72, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 35: Bruins Make It Six Straight with Win over Lutes

TACOMA, Wash. – Katy Campbell scored the go-ahead basket with two minutes left, then blocked Trish Buckingham's last-second three-point attempt for a tie, preserving a pressure-packed 50-47 win for the George Fox University Bruins over the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes in a Northwest Conference women's basketball thriller Friday night here at Olson Auditorium.

It was the sixth straight win for George Fox, which improved to 10-4 overall and 6-1 in the conference, assuring the Bruins of remaining tied for the league lead with the University of Puget Sound. Pacific Lutheran, the pre-season conference favorite, dropped its third in a row and fell to 8-7 overall and 3-4 in NWC play.

The first half was a tight defensive struggle, as both teams had trouble getting shots to fall and neither team held more than a five-point lead. Robin Taylor's three-pointer gave George Fox an early 5-2 lead before PLU reeled off eight in a row, taking its largest lead of 10-5 on a jumper by Nikki Johnson six minutes into the contest. The Bruins took a 21-19 lead on two foul shots by Melissa Marek-Farris with 3:51 left, but the Lutes went into the intermission with a 22-21 lead following Trish Buckingham's three-point field goal with 1:05 remaining in the half.

A layup by Marek-Farris and another three by Taylor gave the Bruins a 26-22 lead to open the second half, but the Lutes responded with buckets by Buckingham and Nikki Scott to tie it 26-26 with 15:21 left. The teams virtually traded scores over the next 13 minutes as there were 10 ties and three lead changes during that span, neither team leading by more than three.

George Fox took the lead for good when Campbell made a spin move in the lane to break a 47-47 deadlock with 1:51 to play. When Johnson missed a shot for a tie with 20 seconds left, Nicole Hudson grabbed the rebound for the Bruins, was fouled, and hit the front end of a one-and-one to make it 50-47 with 16.4 seconds to go.

The Lutes tried to set up lefty Kyle Haag, who had already made three treys in the second half, for a tying three, but she was closely guarded and had to pass off to Buckingham, a post player at the top of the key. Unable to find another guard, Buckingham finally had to toss the ball up herself, and Campbell cleanly blocked it as time ran out.

Marek-Farris led the Bruins with 10 points, nine rebounds, and five blocked shots, while Campbell had nine points and eight boards and Tiffany Behary scored nine on three three-pointers. Campbell and Jaime Hubka had three assists apiece. The Bruins held a 39-36 edge on the board, and finished with a .432 shooting percentage (19-44) after hitting .550 (11-20) in the second half.

Buckingham led the Lutes with 14 points, Johnson had a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds, and Haag scored nine. Scott handed out three assists. The Lutes never did get untracked offensively, shooting only .297 (19-64) for the game.

George Fox continues its conference road swing Saturday, visiting Lewis & Clark College for a 6 p.m. game. Pacific Lutheran hosts Pacific University Saturday, also at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC games at 8 p.m.

1/13 – GEORGE FOX 70, PACIFIC 59: Bruins Remain Tied for NWC Lead by Beating Boxers

FOREST GROVE, Ore. – Erupting for 33 points over the final 13 minutes of the game, the George Fox University Bruins overcame the upset-minded Pacific University Boxers and maintained a share of the Northwest Conference women's basketball lead with a hard-fought 70-59 victory Saturday night here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

George Fox improved to 9-4 overall with its fifth straight win and to 5-1 in the conference, keeping them in a tie for the league lead with the University of Puget Sound, a 68-56 winner at Whitman College. Pacific remained winless in conference play, falling to 0-6, and is 4-9 overall.

The first half was tightly contested through the first 11 minutes, with neither team taking more than a four-point lead. Robin Taylor sank a pair of three-point field goals to give the Bruins a nine-point lead of 30-21 with 2:54 to go in the period, but baskets by Kristina Stevens and Trisha Terhar pulled the Boxers back within five at 30-25 with 1:29 left. The Bruins upped it back to nine for a 34-25 halftime lead when Katy Campbell hit a pair of fast-break layups. Campbell had 10 first-half points, while the Boxers' Amy Pedersen nearly had a double-double with nine points and nine rebounds.

Pacific opened the second half with an 13-3 run, capped by a jumper by Pedersen with 13:43 left, to overtake the Bruins for a 38-37 lead, but the Bruins regained the advantage on a basket inside by Melissa Marek-Farris. Two free throws by Campbell and a three by Tiffany Behary pushed the Bruins back up to a 44-38 lead with 8:51 remaining, and they eventually stretched it to 13 points at 57-44 on a three-pointer by Nicole Hudson with 4:36 to go. Campbell gave the Bruins their largest lead at 64-49 with a pair of free throws at the 2:39 mark.

Jaime Hubka led a quartet of Bruins in double figure-scoring with 16 points, 10 in the second half, while Campbell added 15, and Taylor and Behary had 11 each. With Marek-Farris in early foul trouble, Kristen Shielee came off the bench and grabbed eight rebounds, leading the Bruins to a 33-30 advantage on the boards, and blocked four shots. Hudson had five assists. The Bruins shot .480 from the field (24-50), including .550 (11-20) in the second half, and were 9-20 from three-point range.

Pedersen finished with a double-double for the Boxers with 17 points and 10 boards, and Terhar added 14 points. The Boxers also shot over 50% in the second half at .522 (12-23), ending with a .404 mark (21-52) for the game.

George Fox visits Pacific Lutheran University and Pacific goes down the road to Linfield College for conference games Friday, both at 6 p.m., followed by men's NWC games at 8 p.m.

* Post Players Produce in Win over Pirates

When George Fox defeated Whitworth 66-50 Saturday to gain a share of first place in the Northwest Conference (along with Whitworth, Whitman, Pacific Lutheran and Puget Sound, all 3-1!), it was the outstanding play of the Bruin posts that spelled the difference. The Bruins' four inside players combined to score 45 points, shooting 19-27 from the field, with 21 rebounds and 5 blocked shots.

"Our inside players gave us everything we could ask for," said coach Scott Rueck in praise of starting juniors Melissa Marek-Farris and Katy Campbell, sophomore reserve Kristen Shielee, and freshman backup Elise Kuenzi. "Melissa has improved so much, she is now a major force for us with her quickness and athleticism. Katy has given us great play on the boards and is still a constant threat, inside or outside. Elise had a career night against Whitworth and really gave us an offensive lift when she came in. Kristen, who at 6-3 is the tallest post I've ever had, is healthy now and gives another great shot-blocking threat inside."

Individually against Whitworth, Marek-Farris had 15 points, 11 in the first half, on 6-8 shooting with 8 rebounds and 2 blocks. Campbell scored 10 on 5-8 from the field and had 7 rebounds. Kuenzi scored a career-high 17 points, 11 in the second half, hitting 7-10 from the floor and had 4 rebounds. Shielee had a 3-point play on her only shot of the game, secured 2 rebounds, and blocked 3 shots in only 13 minutes.

1/6 -- GEORGE FOX 66, WHITWORTH 50: Bruins Earn Share of NWC Lead as Posts Punish Pirates

NEWBERG, Ore. -- With four post players combining for 45 points on 19-of-27 from the field, the George Fox University Bruins handed the Whitworth College Pirates their first conference loss of the season and earned a share of the league lead with a 66-50 victory in Northwest Conference women's basketball Saturday afternoon here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

George Fox improved to 7-4 overall with its third straight win and 3-1 in the conference, while Whitworth dropped to 9-4 overall and 3-1 in the league. Pacific Lutheran University and Whitman College are also 3-1, and the University of Puget Sound, at 2-1, played later Saturday.

The game was tied five times in the first seven minutes before the Bruins broke away from a 10-10 tie with a 10-0 run. Kristen Shielee's rebound basket and free throw gave the Bruins a 20-10 lead with 9:37 left, and the home team took a 33-26 lead into the half. Melissa Marek-Farris, who scored eight of the Bruins' first 12 points, led all first-half scorers with 11 points.

The Bruins scored the first nine points of the second period, taking a 42-26 lead with 15:22 to go on a layup by Elise Kuenzi, who had 11 second-half points. The Pirates' Natalie Orrell, the league's leading three-point shooter, broke the string with a shot from long range, but the Pirates got no closer than 11 the rest of the way. The Bruins took their largest lead of 23 points at 66-43 on a free throw by Robin Taylor with 2:29 left.

Kuenzi led all scorers with a career-high 17 points off the bench, making 7-10 shots, while Marek-Farris finished with 15 points on 6-8 shooting, and Katy Campbell added 10 while hitting 5-8 from the field. Shielee, who made her only field goal attempt of the game, had three blocked shots. Marek-Farris had eight rebounds and Campbell seven as the Bruins dominated the boards 40-33. Taylor and Campbell had six assists each.

Susan McDaniel was the only Pirate in double figures with 10, and grabbed a team-high eight rebounds, as did Alida Bower. Tiffany Corigliano had four assists.

George Fox plays its third straight home game Friday when Willamette University comes to Newberg for a 6 p.m. conference game, followed by the men's NWC game at 8 p.m. Whitworth returns home to entertain Puget Sound Friday, with the women's game at 6 and men's game at 8.

* Polls: Bruins Get Three Votes in Two National Polls

With a 57-41 upset of 16th-ranked Bridgewater in the Hoop-n-Surf Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii, on Dec. 18 - the Bruins' second win over an NCAA Division III ranked opponent in as many tries this season - George Fox caught the attention of voters in the two D-III national polls this week.

In the USA Today/ESPN Coaches' Poll, the Bruins received three points in the voting by 10 head coaches around the country. Three other Northwest Conference teams were included: Puget Sound was tied for 24th with 16 points, Pacific Lutheran was in "others receiving votes" with 12 points, and Whitworth received one point. Hope was ranked first with 225 points.

George Fox also received three points in the D3hoops.com poll, which is voted on by a panel of 25 coaches, sports information directors, and media members. Pacific Lutheran was 25th with 62 points, and Puget Sound had the most points among "others receiving votes" with 45. Bowdoin was the top-ranked team with 612 points.

* Everybody Gets to Play as Bruins Breeze by TRU

With what is known officially as a "non-counting regular season game" rather than an exhibition against Thompson Rivers University of Kamloops, British Columbia, on Dec. 29 in the Pacific Lutheran Classic in Tacoma, Wash., George Fox coach Scott Rueck was able to give his reserve players plenty of playing time in a 74-40 win. The only Bruin who did not play was starting forward Katy Campbell, who rested a sore ankle. Fifteen others got into the game, and 11 of them logged 10 minutes or more. Among the highlights were nine points each by Tiffany Behary, who hit three three-pointers, Elise Kuenzi, who started and also had six rebounds, and Melissa Eastwold, who hit 5-6 free throws. MaryAnne Samples had eight points in only seven minutes, hitting 3-3 from the field, including two threes.

The Bruins had been scheduled to play Wisconsin-Oshkosh the following afternoon, but that game was canceled when UW-O was unable to travel to due to heavy snow that closed the airport in Denver. The Titans had been routed through Denver but were stranded in Milwaukee, and could not find alternate arrangements that would get them to Tacoma on time. As a result of the cancellation and the non-counting game against TRU, the Bruins will play only 23 regular-season games this season.

* Point Guard Behary Rejoins Team for Second Half

Tiffany Behary, who started at point guard as a freshman and sophomore each of the last two seasons, has rejoined the Bruins after spending the fall semester at Oregon State University. She came off the bench to score nine points, hitting three baskets from three-point range, with two rebounds, two assists, and three steals in her first game back, a 74-40 non-counting win over Thompson Rivers of Canada in the PLU Classic on Dec. 29. With Behary at the point, the Bruins went 22-6 in 2004-05, winning the Northwest Conference crown and reaching the "Elite 8" of the NCAA Division III National Tournament, and 19-6 in 2005-06. In her first two seasons, she started 53 games, scoring 359 points (6.8 ppg) with 157 assists (2.96 apg) and 102 steals (1.92 spg) and ranking among the NWC leaders in assists and steals both years.

- Robin Taylor entered the season with the 5th-best field goal pct. in Bruin history (.468, 237-506). She was 12-26 in the last two games and is now at .451 (275-611), ranking 9th ... ## 12/29 – GEORGE FOX 74, THOMPSON RIVERS 40: Bruins Whip WolfPack in PLU Classic Exhibition

TACOMA, Wash. – Breaking open a close game by scoring the first seven points of the second half, the George Fox University Bruins went on to out-score the Thompson Rivers University WolfPack 45-18 in the second half en route to a 74-40 win in the Pacific Lutheran University Classic women's basketball tournament Friday evening here at PLU's Olson Auditorium.

Because Thompson Rivers of Kamloops, British Columbia, is a member of the Canadian Interuniversity Sport league and plays most of its games against Canadian teams, the game goes down as an exhibition game for George Fox and does not count on the Bruins' record for NCAA purposes. The Bruins' record remains at 5-4, while the WolfPack fell to 1-12.

After spotting the WolfPack an early 4-0 lead, Robin Taylor hit a three-point basket and Elise Kuenzi a layup for a 5-4 Bruin lead. Kellen O'Grady's jumper gave TRU its last lead at 6-5 before Taylor hit a pair of buckets to put GFU up 9-5 six minutes into the game, and the Bruins never trailed again. A layup by Kelsi Leach gave the Bruins their largest lead of the half and a 29-22 lead at the break.

A layup by Melissa Marek-Farris, a pair of free throws by Kaleigha Ramey and Kuenzi, and another free throw by Marek-Farris pushed the George Fox advantage to 36-22 to open the second half, and the lead was never less than double digits the rest of the way. The 34-point margin at the end was the Bruins' biggest lead of the game.

Taylor led all scorers with 15 points and Marek-Farris added 10. Last year's point guard, Tiffany Behary, who missed the first nine games of the season while attending Oregon State University for a semester, had nine points off the bench by hitting 3-4 three-pointers, with two assists and three steals, in her first game back. Marek-Farris had a game-high eight boards as the Bruins held a 49-35 rebound advantage. The defense made 15 steals in forcing 31 TRU turnovers. All 15 available players saw action for the Bruins; starter Katy Campbell was held out with a sore ankle.

Alix Stupich had eight points to lead the WolfPack, and Jaclyn Cummings had a team-high seven rebounds. O'Grady handed out four assists, and Kali Ellis made three steals.

George Fox was scheduled to play the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh in the PLU Classic Saturday at 3 p.m., but that game, as well as the PLU-UWO game Friday, was canceled when the Titans were unable to complete their trip to Tacoma due to the closure of the Denver airport by heavy snow. Thus, the Bruins' next game will be Friday, Jan. 5, when they host Whitman College at 6 p.m. in a Northwest Conference contest, followed by the men's NWC game at 8 p.m. Thompson Rivers will play Pacific Lutheran Saturday at 5 p.m. as planned.

12/18 –GEORGE FOX 57, BRIDGEWATER 41: Bruins Beat Eagles for Second Win vs. Ranked Opponent

HONOLULU, Hawaii – For the second time in as many opportunities this season, the George Fox University Bruins knocked off an NCAA Division III nationally-ranked team as they upset the 16th-ranked Bridgewater College Eagles of Virginia 57-41 in the Hoop-n-Surf Classic women's basketball tournament Monday night here at the McKinley High School gym.

The Bruins also defeated the University of Puget Sound 58-50 on Dec. 2 when the Loggers were ranked 17th in Division III. It was the first loss of the season for Bridgewater (6-1), the favorite in the Old Dominion Athletic Conference this year, while George Fox improved to 5-4.

Shannon Scales hit a three-point basket to give Bridgewater a 3-0 lead one minute into the game, but it was the only time the Eagles would lead. After ties at 3-3 and 5-5, Katy Campbell hit a layup with 15:57 left in the half to put the Bruins ahead for good. A jumper by Nicole Hudson gave the Bruins their largest lead of the half at 33-20 with 2:45 left, and it was 33-24 at the break. Melissa Marek-Farris had 11 first-half points to pace the Bruins to their big lead.

Buckets by Jessica Timberlake and Jennifer Saunders to open the second half enabled the Eagles to get within five at 33-28, but with Kaleigha Ramey scoring 13 second-half points, the Bruins again pulled away. Robin Taylor's layup with 12:44 left made it a 12-point game at 44-32, but the Eagles made one last run and again closed within five at 46-41 on a jumper by Amy Childs with 6:41 to go. It was the last time Bridgewater would score, however, as the George Fox defense tightened down. A trey by Ramey and a layup by Taylor made it 51-41 with 4:04 left, and the Bruins were not threatened again.

Ramey, in her first start of the season, led all scorers with 18 points, hitting 7-10 from the field including 3-3 from three-point range. Marek-Farris had her second double-double of the season with 16 points on 5-7 from the field and 11 rebounds, and Taylor scored 10 points. With Campbell adding 11 rebounds, the Bruins dominated the boards 42-27. Hudson passed out four assists and had three steals while scoring nine points. The Bruins shot .465 (20-43) from the field while holding the Eagles to only .268 (15-56).

Childs was the only Eagle in double figures with 10 points, Scales had six rebounds, and Katy Herr-Lovell handed out three assists. Scales and Herr-Lovell had three steals apiece.

George Fox returns to action following the Christmas holidays in the Pacific Lutheran University Tournament Dec. 29-30 in Tacoma, Wash. The Bruins play Thompson Rivers University of Canada in a non-counting game Friday at 5 p.m., then take on the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh Saturday at 3 p.m.

12/17 -- UW-WHITewater 53, GEORGE FOX 47: Warhawks Rally Late to Beat Bruins in Hawaii

HONOLULU, Hawaii -- A 10-0 run over the final five minutes of the game enabled the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater Warhawks to rally for a 53-47 win over the George Fox University Bruins in the Hoop-n-Surf Classic women's basketball tournament Sunday afternoon here at the Kaiser High School gymnasium.

George Fox took an early 7-2 lead behind a three-point play by B.B. Gardner and a pair of buckets by Robin Taylor before Whitewater got rolling. The Warhawks took their first lead on a jumper by Tiffany Morton to make it 17-15 Whitewater with 9:53 to go, and they stretched it to 33-27 at the break on a layup by Rachel Woolever with 10 seconds left. Taylor's 12 first-half points kept the Bruins close.

Taylor hit a pair of three-point field goals to bookend a 10-0 run that gave the Bruins a 37-33 lead at the start of the second half. The Bruins took their largest lead at 44-38 on a three by Jaime Hubka with 11:42 left in the game, and were still up 47-43 after a free throw by Elise Kuenzi with 7:06 to go before going cold the rest of the way.

Lindsay Buechner hit a jumper with five minutes left to start the Whitewater comeback, then completed a three-point play with 3:45 remaining to put the Warhawks ahead for good 48-47. After two missed shots and a turnover by the Bruins, Woolever banked in a three from the top of the key with 36 seconds left to stretch the Whitewater lead, and Nicole Bundy iced the game with two free throws with nine seconds left.

Taylor led all scorers with 20 points, and also had seven rebounds and four steals. Katy Campbell had a game-high 14 rebounds, and Gardner passed out five assists. The Bruins wound up shooting .327 (17-52) from the field.

Buechner was the only Warhawk in double figures with 14, and also had eight rebounds. Morton pulled down 11 boards as Whitewater held a 42-35 edge in rebounds. The Warhawks shot .351 (20-57) from the field.

George Fox (4-4) will be out to end a three-game losing streak Monday when the Bruins meet Bridgewater College of Virginia (6-0), ranked 16th nationally, at 8 p.m. Pacific time (6 p.m. in Hawaii) at McKinley High School. Wisconsin-Whitewater (7-3) takes on Siena Heights College Monday at 2 p.m. (Hawaii time).

Hoop-n-Surf Classic

2006 Hoop-N-Surf Essentials (Dec. 16-20)

FROM: Brad Folkestad – Tournament Media Coordinator

Hello all –

Here are some essential facts for all SID's and media covering the Hoop-N-Surf Classic in Honolulu, Hawaii, Dec. 16-21, 2006. There are four separate tournaments going on in four days with the NAIA/DIII Women and Men on Dec. 18-19 and the DII Women and Men on Dec. 20-21. I am the Assistant SID at Bemidji State University and along with the Harding University Assistant SID Terri Lee, we will serve as statisticians for all games. We will be using the Statcrew in-game scoring package. And will send .bpc and html files back to you at the end of each day of competition.

Each of you all should have received some preliminary e-mail messages from Chad Waller and most of you sent him your Statcrew rosters. Thank you for those. Chad has forwarded them all onto Terri and myself. Chad, however, will not be attending this year's Hoop-n-Surf Classic due to his football team (Northwest Missouri State) playing in the NCAA Division II National Championship on Dec. 16.

WHAT I NEED FROM THE SID'S (email to me at bfolkestad@bemidjistate.edu by Friday, Dec. 16 at 12 p.m.. if you haven't sent them to Chad already):

- **Statcrew roster (if available)
- **Word or text roster
- **Radio members in attendance
- **SID's or members of the media in attendance
- **Cell Phone numbers of attending SID's (if available)
- **Email addresses of 2-3 media who we will email out the stats to at the end of the day
- **Game notes and/or updated stats

THINGS TO KNOW:

- **Any radio crew in attendance needs to be equipped to use cell phones for broadcast – there are no phone lines or Ethernet access available at either the men's or women's site
- **Computerized stats will be printed out at halftime and after the game and given to the head coach (2 copies per team) and attending media
- **Statcrew files will be emailed back to the SID and media members of participating teams at the end of each day of competition (There are no fax machines to use and with more than 30 teams in attendance, it will be challenging enough to manage an e-mail list).
- **Please be patient on receiving the game files. Hawaii is 4 hours behind CST zone and the games files will be emailed out after the tournament is wrapped up each day back at the hotel. With games beginning at 10 a.m. each day and running through 8 p.m., we may not be able to get game files out until 11 p.m. Hawaiian time. If you are on this email list, the stats will be emailed back to you.
- **The Hoop-n-Surf Web site will also be updated with scores at the conclusion of each day of play.
- **All-tournament teams will be selected at the conclusion of the Tournament Dec. 21 with five players from each respective tournament selected. I will send the teams out once those selections have been made.

If you have any questions at any time, feel free to contact me on my cell phone at (218) 371-1996. I will be in Honolulu at 6:15 p.m. Thursday (Dec. 14). Terri will be joining me late in the day Dec. 16th. We are both staying at the Waikiki Sand Villa Hotel. Please keep in mind, we will do everything we can to get results back the day of your game but we are very limited at this point without an on-site fax machine, phone line or Internet access. Mari Maaske serves as the Tournament Director and if there are general questions, please direct those to her at (630) 430-3314.

12/2 – GEORGE FOX 58, PUGET SOUND 50: Postwomen Deliver as Bruins Upset No. 17 Loggers

TACOMA, Wash. – With post players Katy Campbell and Melissa Marek-Farris combining for 27 points and 22 rebounds, George Fox University Bruins built up a big early lead and hung on to upset the 17th-ranked University of Puget Sound Loggers 58-50 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at Memorial Fieldhouse.

A layup by Robin Taylor and a three-pointer by MaryAnne Samples got the Bruins off to an early 5-0 lead, and with the Loggers hitting only one of their first 18 field goal attempts, they were able to stretch that lead to a comfortable margin. Elise Kuenzi came off the bench to score on a jumper, a rebound, and a layup in the space of 67 seconds, boosting the Bruin lead to 18-6 with 5:27 left in the half. A three by Nicole Hudson from the top of the key gave the Bruins their largest lead at 28-14 with 1:10 to go, but the Loggers cut it to 28-19 at the half when Allison Craven banked in a desperation three-pointer from halfcourt at the buzzer.

The Bruins scored the first seven points of the second half to build their lead to 16 at 35-19 on a conventional three-point play by Marek-Farris three minutes into the period. Jaime Hubka boosted the lead to 20 when she sank a three from the left wing with 12:37 left for a 42-22 Bruin advantage before the Loggers went on an 8-0 run, cutting the deficit to 42-30 on a pair of free throws by Karen Chase with 10:17 to go. Another basket by Marek-Farris ended the run, but the Loggers stayed close by hitting five of six at one point, including three three-pointers. Shelby Ramirez brought the Loggers within five at 55-50 on a trey with 1:14 left, but Campbell hit a free throw and a layup to push the Bruin lead to 58-50 with 35 seconds left, and the visitors dribbled out the clock after collaring a final rebound.

Marek-Farris scored a game-high 15 points, hitting 7-8 from the field, and had nine rebounds and three blocked shots, while Campbell scored 12, all in the second half, had her second double-double of the season with a career-high 13 rebounds, and passed out five assists. The Bruins shot .411 from the field (23-56) and won the battle of the boards 42-37.

Chase posted a double-double for the Loggers with a team-leading 14 points and 10 rebounds, including eight on the offensive end, and Craven added 10 points. The Loggers were held to only .311 (19-61) from the floor.

George Fox (4-1, NWC 1-1) plays in the Lewis-Clark State Tournament in Lewiston, Idaho, next weekend, first taking on Montana State University-Northern Friday at 4 p.m. Puget Sound (4-1, NWC 1-1) goes to Evergreen State College Wednesday at 5:30 p.m.

11/28 – LINFIELD 55, GEORGE FOX 51, OT: Wildcats Persevere over Bruins in Conference Opener

NEWBERG, Ore. – After battling back from an 11-point deficit to send the game into overtime and scoring the first seven points of the extra period, the George Fox University Bruins went scoreless over the final two-and-a-half-time minutes while the Linfield College Wildcats scored 11 unanswered points for a 55-51 win in the Northwest Conference women's basketball opener Tuesday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

Baskets by Katy Campbell and Robin Taylor gave George Fox an early 4-0 lead before Linfield began to find the range. Hitting 50% from the field in the first half (12-24), the Wildcats took a 32-26 lead into the break behind seven points from Jamie Godfrey. Campbell kept the Bruins close with 10 points in the half.

Both teams then went ice-cold in the second half, the Bruins making only 23.8% (5-21) and the Wildcats struggling even more at a meager 7.7% (2-26). Turnovers (the Bruins made 27 in the game, the Wildcats 24) kept either team from pulling away, though Linfield did take an 11-point lead at 41-30 with 6:33 left in the half on a pair of free throws by Casey Stepan.

With Robin Taylor scoring five points and the Bruins forcing four Wildcat turnovers, the home team went on a 10-0 run to climb within a point at 41-40 with 1:18 left. Cassey Saunders nailed a three-pointer with 53 seconds to go for a 44-40 Linfield lead, but a layup by Melissa Marek-Farris with 35 seconds left and a pair of Taylor free throws with seven seconds to go sent the contest into overtime.

A three by Campbell and a pair of free throws by both Taylor and Marek-Farris gave the Bruins a 51-44 lead midway through the overtime, but it was the last they would score. Porcia Jackson hit two free throws and a traditional three-point play for the Wildcats before a rebound basket by Kate Stadelé tied it with 41 seconds left. Stadelé rebounded a miss by Campbell before Saunders was fouled and made two go-ahead free throws with 13 seconds left. Stepan iced the Linfield comeback with two freebies with two seconds to go after a Bruin turnover.

Campbell led all scorers with 17 points for the Bruins and Taylor finished with 11. Campbell also had a game-high nine rebounds. The Bruins shot 30.2% (13-43) from the field and 8.3% from three-point range (1-12), but did well from the line at 72.7% (24-33).

Jackson was the only Wildcat in double figures with 11 points, and she and Sara Burgoyne had seven rebounds each as the visitors controlled the boards 43-38. Linfield hit 27.6% from the floor (16-58) and 15.0% on threes (3-20), but sizzled from the stripe at 87.0% (20-23).

The win snapped a five-game George Fox winning streak in the series and was Linfield's first win in Newberg since the 1997-98 season, ending a string of nine Bruin wins at home over the Wildcats.

George Fox (3-1, NWC 0-1) travels to Tacoma, Wash., Saturday to take on the University of Puget Sound. Linfield (2-1, NWC 1-0) goes to Tacoma Friday, visiting pre-season league favorite Pacific Lutheran University. Both games tip off at 6 p.m., followed by men's conference games at 8 p.m.

11/25 – GEORGE FOX 74, CONCORDIA-PORTLAND 45: Bruins Clout Cavs with Second-Half Domination

NEWBERG, Ore. – Sparked by a 14-0 run to start the second half that broke open a close game, the George Fox University Bruins doubled the points total of their opponent in the final period en route to a 74-45 win over the Concordia University-Portland Cavaliers in a non-conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

Katy Campbell hit a layup with 17:25 left in the first half to give George Fox a lead it would not relinquish at 5-4, but the Cavaliers stayed close for the next eight minutes and were only down one at 19-18 with 8:52 to go after a layup by Lyndsee Landon. The Bruins went on a 9-0 run at that point, and eventually built a 12-point lead at 34-22 on a three-pointer from the corner by Mande Spotts with 40 seconds left. A steal by the Cavs' Denise Benedict and a running three from the top of the key by Ashley Baker at the buzzer sent the teams to the locker room with a nine-point margin, the Bruins leading 34-25.

A layup by Robin Taylor ignited the Bruins' 14-point outburst, which also featured threes by B.B. Gardner and Campbell, to open the second half, giving the Bruins a 48-25 lead with 16:14 to play. The lead was never less than 20 thereafter, with the widest gap being 32 points at 69-37 with 3:59 left on a jumper by Melissa Eastwood. The Bruins outscored the Cavaliers in the half 40-20.

Campbell led all scorers with 15 points, Taylor added 13, Gardner 11, and Kaleigha Ramey 10 off the bench. Melissa Marek-Farris pulled down 10 rebounds to lead the Bruins to a 42-32 edge on the boards. Gardner had 6 assists. The Bruins connected for a .468 percentage from the field (22-47) while holding the Cavs to .310 (18-58), and held a decided advantage from the line, hitting 21-26 (.808) to only 8-15 (.533) for the visitors.

Landon and Tonya Baker topped the Cavaliers with 10 points each, while Baker led the way on the boards with 6 rebounds and also picked up 5 steals. Kelsey Schaefer had 3 assists.

George Fox (3-0) enters Northwest Conference play Tuesday, hosting Linfield College at 6 p.m., followed by the men's NWC contest at 8 p.m. Concordia (1-5) visits Walla Walla College Sunday for a 5 p.m. game.

11/18 -- GEORGE FOX 81, NORTHWEST 65: Taylor's Late Flurry Keeps Bruins Ahead of Eagles

NEWBERG, Ore. -- Robin Taylor scored 11 of her game-high 22 points on a three-pointer and 8 of 8 free throws in the final four minutes, enabling the George Fox University Bruins to hold off the Northwest University Eagles 81-65 in a non-conference women's basketball game Saturday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

After a slow start -- neither team scored in the first four minutes as they combined for 11 missed shots and seven turnovers -- the Bruins used a 9-0 run, capped by a Kaleigha Ramey layup, to take a 22-10 lead with eight minutes left in the first half. The Bruins maintained a double-digit lead most of the remainder of the period, taking a 35-36 lead into the break.

Northwest got within six at 39-33 three minutes into the second half on a three by Brittney Marshall, but George Fox then went on a 20-6 run to take its largest lead of 20 points at 59-39 on a steal and layup by Elise Kuenzi with 11:13 to play. Sam McCracken sparked a 21-9 outburst by scoring 10 points, including eight a row to ignite the run, that pulled the Eagles within eight at 68-60 with 3:12 left. Nicole Hudson hit a three to slow the Eagles' momentum, and Taylor hit eight free throws in the final 1:39 to seal the win.

Taylor, who hit four three-pointers in the game, was aided in the scoring column by Melissa Marek-Farris with 15 points and B.B. Gardner with 11. Marek-Farris notched her first career double-double by pulling down 12 rebounds, leading the Bruins to a 39-36 edge on the boards, and blocking four shots. Katy Campbell had seven assists and nine rebounds, and Hudson made four steals.

Brittany Bowsher led the Eagles with 16 points, Kim Sandberg had a double-double with 15 points and 11 rebounds, and McCracken ended with 10. Jasmine Yeldon handed out four assists, and Sandberg had four steals.

George Fox (2-0) hosts Concordia University-Portland next Saturday at 7 p.m. Northwest (3-3) visits the University of Puget Sound Tuesday at 6 p.m.

11/17 -- GEORGE FOX 58, OREGON TECH 44: Bruins Lead Throughout in Taking Opener from Owls

NEWBERG, Ore. -- Racing out to an early 10-0 lead and never trailing again, the George Fox University Bruins opened their 2006-07 season with a 58-44 victory over the Oregon Institute of Technology Hustlin' Owls in a non-conference women's basketball game Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

It took over two minutes for anyone to score, Melissa Marek-Farris putting back an errant George Fox shot with 17:49 left in the period to ignite the Bruins' 10-0 run. Marek-Farris hit another rebound basket for the Bruins' largest lead of the half at 14-2 en route to 10 first-half points. The Owls' Lindsey Carmichael hit a three with 21 seconds left, giving her nine in the half, and Jenna Ball canned a jumper with a second to go to slice the Bruins' lead to 26-21 at the intermission.

Oregon Tech cut the lead to two points when Carmichael hit a three to open the second half, but it was the last points she would score as the Bruin defense clamped down and the offense opened up. The Bruins hit a sizzling 60% from the floor in the final period and out-scored the Owls 18-7 in the final 8:42, with Elise Kuenzi hitting six of her seven second-half points in that stretch to spark the outburst. The Bruins took their biggest lead of 16 points at 57-41 on a three-pointer from the top of the key by B.B. Gardner with 1:23 to play.

Marek-Farris led all scorers with 14 points, hitting 5-6 from the field, and Katy Campbell had 12. Robin Taylor had a game-high nine rebounds, leading the Bruins to a 39-34 advantage on the boards, and four assists. George Fox shot 46.7% for the game (21-45) while holding Oregon Tech to 27.1% (16-59).

Carmichael had 12 points and Cora McVey 10 to lead the Owls, who saw their three-game winning streak snapped. McVey had a team-high six rebounds.

Both teams are back in non-conference action Saturday at 6 p.m., George Fox (1-0) hosting Northwest University and Oregon Tech (4-2) visiting Linfield College.

11/15 – PREVIEW: Bruins Aim for 14th Straight Winning Season with Mix of Experience and Youth

NEWBERG, Ore. – For 13 straight seasons, the George Fox University women's basketball program has posted winning records, creating a legacy of three Northwest Conference championships, six post-season playoff appearances, and regular mention in national polls. What will it take for the 2006-07 Bruins to make it 14 in a row?

"We need to compete every day and be relentless," says veteran coach Scott Rueck, whose teams have gone 184-73 (.716) in his 10 seasons at the helm. "Our seven returning players need to consistently play at a high level and our eight newcomers will need to learn our system and quickly find themselves within it."

The Bruins are coming off a 19-6 campaign that began with an 11-0 start, tying records for most consecutive wins and most wins to open a season, before untimely injuries short-circuited the team's hopes of a conference championship repeat. Gone from that team are eight letterwinners and three starters, including First Team All-Conference and Third Team All-West Region wing Kim Leith, the NWC Player of the Year in 2004-05 when the Bruins reached the NCAA Tournament's "Elite Eight". Leith averaged 13.8 points per game as a senior, ending her career as the Bruins' all-time leader in three-point field goals (205) and free throw percentage (.811) and fourth-highest scorer (1,348 points).

Returnees

If there is anyone on the team capable of producing Leith-type numbers for the Bruins again, it would be the team's lone senior and one of this year's co-captains, wing Robin Taylor (5-7 Sr., Bend, Ore. / Mountain View HS), who had an outstanding year of her own in earning Second Team All-Conference honors. While averaging 13.2 points, 3.5 rebounds, and 2.7 assists a game, she led the conference in field goal percentage (.525), was 4th in three-point field goal percentage (.429), and was 5th in free throw percentage (.784).

"We need Robin to have a year like she had a year ago, when she played at a very high level," says Rueck. "As our only senior, we don't want her to feel the pressure of trying to do too many things, to try to take it all upon her own shoulders, but just to play within herself. She has a great opportunity to lead this team and I am confident she will rise to the occasion throughout the season."

Katy Campbell (6-1 Jr., Springfield, Ore. / Thurston HS), who received All-Conference honorable mention last year after averaging 8.6 points and 6.4 rebounds (7th in the league) with a .461 field goal percentage (11th in the league), is the Bruins' other returning starter and co-captain. A versatile player, she is equally at home at a forward or a wing.

"Katy is just a great all-around basketball player," comments Rueck. "She sees the floor well, can handle the ball, and can step out and shoot the three and is an excellent low post scorer. We need her to produce for us every night, and provide a physical presence and toughness."

Expected to move in at the starting center position is Melissa Marek-Farris (6-1 Jr., Glide, Ore. / Glide HS), who posted numbers of 3.8 points and 2.2 rebounds a game in a reserve role last year and was second on the team with 17 blocked shots.

"Melissa worked hard in the off-season and is playing the best basketball of her life," notes Rueck. "She may be the quickest post player I've coached. She has improved her perimeter game and free throw shooting, and with an opportunity to have a major role on this team, she has absolutely embraced it."

The Bruins' tallest player is Kristen Shielee (6-3 So., Gresham, Ore. / Gresham HS), who was hampered by a foot injury most of her freshman year, averaging 1.3 points and 2.0 rebounds in only three games. Healthy again, she should see a significant increase in playing time as another shot-blocking presence in the middle.

"I am very pleased for Kristen that she is healthy, and for our team because she has a unique impact on games when she's in there," says Rueck. "She is the tallest player and most intimidating shot blocker I've coached. She has worked hard to be ready and we expect her to play significant minutes."

At wing, the Bruins have three returning players who will all be counted on for point production: Jaime Hubka (5-7 Jr., Bellingham, Wash. / Sehome HS), Kaleigha Ramey (5-8 Jr., Spokane, Wash. / Northwest Christian HS), and Mandee Spotts (6-1 Jr., Hillsboro, Ore. / Century HS). Hubka averaged 2.0 points a game, Ramey 3.6, and Spotts 2.1 while averaging about 10 minutes per game of playing time last year.

"Jaime, Kali, and Mandee have been playing behind some of the best wing players ever to play at Fox the last couple seasons and have done a great job improving and maturing as basketball players," observes Rueck. "They provide us great depth at those two positions. Each brings a little something different than the others but all have the ability to score and defend. I'm looking for big things from each of them this season."

Newcomers

Leith's spot in the lineup will be filled by Nicole Hudson (5-8 Jr., Redmond, Ore. / Redmond HS), a transfer from Division I St. Francis University of Pennsylvania, where she played for back-to-back Northeast Conference champions. She gives the Bruins an immediate transfusion of skill, savvy, and a winning spirit.

"I've known Nicole since she was a sophomore in high school and am very excited about her being a Bruin," admits Rueck. "She will help fill the void left by Kim Leith. Although her range is what she's best known for, she is a complete player, and brings us toughness and winning experience from strong programs at Redmond and St. Francis."

The point guard position is wide-open, with three candidates vying for the position: B.B. Gardner (5-4 Fr., Zigzag, Ore. / Sandy HS), Lindsay Keener (5-7 Fr., Kenai, Alaska / Kenai Central), and Elisha Kampfe (5-4 Fr., Troy, Mont. / Troy HS).

"Some wonder if you can win with freshmen point guards, but we've had a couple of strong seasons over the years depending on a rookie or two at the point, so I know it's possible," says Rueck. "I think we've got a few who can play. B.B. is quick, sees the floor well, and has three-point range. Lindsay is a physical player who is strong driving the ball and getting us into our offense. Elisha is our fastest player and brings athleticism to the position."

Another possibility at the point is MaryAnne Samples (5-10 Fr., Kennewick, Wash. / Kennewick HS), although her primary position is at wing. Observes Rueck, "She gives us some height at the point, and I like her ability defensively in playing passing lanes and limiting the vision of smaller guards. She does a good job getting the team into its offense, and also has three-point range."

Rounding out the roster are three new posts: Mellisa Eastwold (6-0 Fr., Medford, Ore. / North Medford HS), Elise Kuenzi (5-10 Fr., Silverton, Ore. / Silverton HS), and Kelsi Leach (6-0 Fr., Placentia, Calif. / El Dorado HS).

"Mellisa is a slashing offensive threat and an outstanding defender and rebounder," says Rueck. "Elise is a feisty and physical player; she is an excellent rebounder and plays bigger than her height. Kelsi is a true center who comes from a strong program in Southern California; she's physical and a smart player."

Summary

"Overall, we're somewhat young, but I like our talent," says Rueck. "This group is just a pleasure to coach; they love the game, they work hard, are tough and resilient, and they are eager to learn. There are a lot of reasons for optimism; I like what I am seeing."

The 2006-07 season gets under way for the Bruins on Friday, Nov. 17, with a 6 p.m. home game against the Oregon Institute of Technology. Other NAIA teams the Bruins will meet this season include Northwest University, Concordia University-Portland, Montana State University-Northern, and Lewis-Clark State College, as well as strong NCAA Division III foes Bridgewater (Va.) College and two University of Wisconsin teams, Whitewater and Oshkosh. Toss in 16 games in the always-competitive Northwest Conference, and Rueck observes that "this is probably the toughest schedule we've ever had, there are no breaks, and I am confident our pre-season schedule will prepare us for conference play."

11/10 – NWC POLL: Bruins Picked for 4th in Pre-Season Northwest Conference Poll

NEWBERG, Ore. – With the return of two starters who received All-Conference recognition last year, the George Fox University Bruins have been picked to finish fourth in the 2006-07 Northwest Conference women's basketball chase as predicted in a pre-season vote of the league's nine coaches.

George Fox received 58 points in the balloting, only one point behind third-place Lewis & Clark College. The Bruins are coming off a 19-6 season and a tie for third in the NWC at 10-6. Scott Rueck, the 2004-05 NWC Coach of the Year when he led the Bruins to a 22-6 record and the 'Elite 8' in the NCAA Tournament, has forged a record of 183-67 (.716) in his 10 years at George Fox.

Three starters are gone for the Bruins, including All-Conference First Team and NCAA Division III All-West Region Third Team wing Kim Leith, the Bruins' all-time leader in three-point field goals (205) and free throw percentage (.811) and fourth all-time scorer (1,348 points). This year's squad still has a solid nucleus, however, with All-Conference Second Team wing Robin Taylor and All-Conference Honorable Mention forward Katy Campbell returning. Taylor averaged 13.2 points per game and led the league in field goal percentage (.525), while Campbell averaged 8.6 points and was seventh in the league in rebounding at 6.4 boards a game.

Led by last season's NWC Player of the Year and Coach of the Year, defending champion Pacific Lutheran University is a heavy favorite to repeat its title. The Lutes, who advanced to the NCAA Tournament's third round while finishing 24-4, received seven of nine possible first-place votes and 79 total points in the poll. Wing Nikki Johnson returns to defend her selection as the conference MVP, while Gill Rigell earned his second career selection as NWC Coach of the Year.

The University of Puget Sound, last season's runner-up, is also second in this year's poll with one first-place vote and 63 points. The Loggers were an at-large selection to the NCAA Tournament, finishing 23-6 after making the second round. UPS will have to overcome the graduation of its all-star back court of Sarah Carnahan and Kilty Keaton.

Lewis & Clark is third in the poll with one first-place vote and 59 points. The Pioneers, who only two seasons ago finished 1-15 in conference play, improved to 8-8 in the league last season and 12-12 overall. Second Team All-NWC forward Crystal Castle and honorable mention All-NWC forward Allison Farr return for the Pios.

Behind George Fox, Linfield College with 44 points and Whitworth College with 42 were fifth and sixth in the poll. Both teams finished 7-9 in conference play last season and just above .500 overall. The Wildcats bring back honorable mention All-NWC guard Ashley Covey to lead a veteran lineup. The Pirates must replace four starters for the second straight season.

Whitman College, a conference tournament participant last season, is seventh in the poll with 36 points. While All-NWC forward Lizzy Washburn has graduated, honorable mention All-NWC guard Katie Patneau returns for the Missionaries.

Willamette University with 17 points and Pacific University with 14 round out the poll in eighth and ninth places. The Bearcats hope to improve on last year's 0-16 conference record, while the Boxers will have to overcome the graduation of All-American post DeeDee Amall.

Once again, the Northwest Conference will use a three-team conference tournament to decide the automatic (Pool A) bid to the NCAA Tournament. At the conclusion of the regular season, the second-place team in the final standings will host the third-place team in a playoff game on Feb. 22. The winner of that game will play at the regular season champion for the NCAA bid on Feb. 24.

The 2006-07 season gets under way on Friday, Nov. 17. George Fox hosts the Oregon Institute of Technology in its opener on Nov. 17 at 6 p.m., followed by the men's opener at 8 p.m. against Corban College.

GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY "BRUINS"
2006-07 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

SCOTT RUECK
Head Coach

In 10 years, Scott Rueck has established the George Fox University women's basketball program as one of the finest in the nation at the small-college level. In that time, he has guided the Bruins to a 184-73 record for a winning percentage of .716, five post-season playoff appearances, and regular recognition in national top 25 polls.

An 11-0 start to the 2005-06 season, tying George Fox records for consecutive wins and most wins to start a season, elevated the Bruins, a pre-season top 10 pick, as high as #2 in the Women's Basketball Coaches of American national poll and #4 in the D3hoops.com poll. Untimely injuries in the second half saw the Bruins slump to an 8-6 mark the rest of the way and surrender their 2004-05 Northwest Conference title as they settled for a 10-6 league record, tied for third. Nevertheless, their 19-6 overall record was the Bruins' 13th straight winning season, 10 under Rueck.

In 2004-05, the Bruins went further in the NCAA National Tournament than any previous women's hoops team. After winning the NWC crown with a 14-2 league mark and an automatic bid to the tournament, the Bruins received a first-round bye before defeating Chapman University at home and the College of St. Benedict on a neutral floor to reach the NCAA "Elite Eight". The season ended with a loss to eventual national runner-up Randolph-Macon University on the Yellow Jackets' home court. George Fox finished with a 22-6 overall mark and was nationally ranked in the final polls of the WBCA (#10) and D3hoops.com (#12). For those achievements, Rueck was named NWC Coach of the Year, the third time he has been so honored.

Rueck's first conference coaching honor came in 1999-2000 when he led the Bruins to a 23-5 record, an NWC co-championship (the team's first), two NCAA playoff wins, and a #19 national ranking. In 2000-01, he was named NWC Co-Coach of the Year as the Bruins went 15-1 in the conference to win their first outright league title and 23-3 overall, tying the single-season high in wins and establishing a record winning percentage (.885). With a 20-1 record at one point, the Bruins were voted the #1 team in the nation, a spot they held for two weeks. The season ended with a second-round setback in the NCAA Tournament, and the Bruins were voted #11 in the final D3hoops.com poll.

As a member of the WBCA, Rueck served as the West Region rater for the coaches' poll for two seasons. In addition to his coaching duties, he teaches courses in the department of health and human performance at George Fox, and is in his 13th year as director of Victory Hoop Camp for Portland youth.

Rueck, 37, has 17 years of coaching experience. While still a student at Oregon State University, he began his coaching career as an assistant boys' basketball coach at Santiam Christian High School in Corvallis, working there from 1989-93. From 1993-95, he served as a women's basketball assistant under George Fox head coach Sherri Murrell, now the head coach at Washington State, during which the Bruins went 37-23 and made two NAIA post-season appearances. In 1995-96, he coached the Bruin women's tennis team.

When Murrell left after the 1995-96 season, Rueck was named interim head coach for a year, then was made permanent head coach after a national search that yielded four finalists. During his tenure, his players have earned four NAIA All-America, two NCAA All-America, and 23 All-Northwest Conference awards.

A graduate of Glencoe High School in Hillsboro, Ore., Rueck comes from a basketball family. His sister, 1995 George Fox graduate Heidi Rueck, set the school's career, season, and single-game assist records as an NAIA All-American point guard and was voted into the GFU Sport Hall of Fame in 2005. His father, Marv Rueck, was a long-time member of the basketball coaching staffs at Hillsboro Union and Glencoe High Schools, including a season as head coach when Glencoe opened in 1980.

Rueck earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science in 1991 and a master of arts degree in physical education teaching in 1992, both from Oregon State. He and his wife, the former Kerry Aillaud, who played basketball for George Fox from 1993-95 and served as the Bruins' assistant coach from 1998-2006, reside in Newberg. The Ruecks have one son, Cole Michael, age, 3, and a new daughter, Kate Makenna, born Oct. 17.
