GEORGE FOX
UNIVERSITY VS.
HAMLINE
UNIVERSITY
7 P.M.

One of the nation's fastest growing universities, George Fox's increasing enrollment is matched by its growing national reputation.

Enrollment has nearly quadrupled in the last decade, increasing from 549 in 1986 to 2,250 in the fall of 1997.

In the same time span, George Fox has been named one of "America's Best Colleges" 10 times by U.S. News & World Report. In 1997, George Fox ranked second in academic reputation among Western regional liberal arts colleges. The magazine also named the University one of the region's top values among schools in its category.

George Fox offers unique programs to its students. Every incoming freshman is given a Macintosh computer to use and keep upon graduation. When students reach their third year, they are eligible for the Juniors Abroad program, in which the University pays transportation costs for an overseas study tour.

Early Willamette Valley Quaker settlers established Pacific Academy in 1885. The college division was organized in 1891 to provide more advanced instruction. In 1949, because of the many colleges in the Northwest with "Pacific" in their name, Pacific College was renamed George Fox College in honor of the founder of the Friends (Quaker) Church. In 1996, with the addition of Western Evangelical Seminary, George Fox became a university, offering students a Christ-centered education and the choice of 35 undergraduate majors and 12 graduate degrees.

George Fox's most prominent alumnus is the late President Herbert Hoover, who attended Pacific Academy.

George Fox Athletics

George Fox maintains one of the Northwest's most successful small-college athletic programs.

The teams win. George Fox has earned district or conference titles in eight sports during the 1990s. The University's highest national team finish came in the fall of 1992, when the women's cross country team finished as NAIA national runner-up.

The athletes are successful. George Fox athletes have earned 131 NAIA All-American awards and 57 NAIA All-American Scholar-Athlete honors.

The coaches are award winners as well. Every head coach with more than two years of experience has been named district or conference coach of the year at least once.

Intercollegiate athletics is an integral part of the overall education program at George Fox. Nearly 15 percent of the student body participates in varsity athletics. Men's varsity teams are sponsored in soccer, cross country, basketball, baseball, track, and tennis. Women's teams are fielded in volleyball, cross country, soccer, basketball, softball, track, and tennis.

ATHLETIC AFFILIATION

The landscape of small-college athletics is changing in the Northwest, and George Fox is in the midst of the transformation.

After decades as an independent, George Fox joined the Northwest Conference of Independent Colleges (NCIC) in 1995. That same year, conference presidents voted to apply for membership in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). NCIC members currently hold dual membership in the NCAA and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). In 1999-2000, George Fox plans to be eligible for NCAA Division III national championships.

This year, the Northwest Conference men's and women's basketball teams will compete for the right to advance to the NAIA Division II national tournaments. Four teams will participate in the conference semifinals played Wednesday, Feb. 25. The winner of the Saturday, Feb. 28, championship game will advance to the 32-team national tournament March 11-17.

There are 174 teams in 18 conferences competing to reach the women's tournament at Municipal Auditorium in Sioux City, Iowa.

On the men's side, 169 teams from 17 conferences are aiming for the national tournament hosted by Northwest Nazarene College in Nampa, Idaho. National tournament berths not going to the conference champions will go to the host institution and at-large teams.

WOMEN'S COACHES

Scott Rueck worked his way up to become head coach of the women's basketball team at George Fox. After putting in two seasons as assistant coach and one as interim head coach of the women's program, he earned the permanent head coaching job last summer. He was selected after a national search yielded four finalists.

Last season, he guided George Fox's women's basketball team to a 15-10 season and its second ever NAIA Division II national top-25 ranking.

Rueck, 28, has eight years of coaching experience. He was a George Fox women's basketball assistant in 1993-94 and 1994-95 during which time the Lady Bruins compiled a 37-23 record and made two NAIA postseason appearances. In 1995-96, he served as George Fox's women's tennis head coach. Prior to coming to George Fox, he spent four years as assistant boys' basketball coach at Santiam Christian High School in Corvallis.

In addition to coaching duties, Rueck also teaches courses in the Department of Health and Human Performance. He holds a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science and a master of arts degree in physical education teaching, both from Oregon State University.

Rueck is in his fourth year as director of Victory Hoop Camp for Portland youth. He and his wife, Kerry, live in Newberg.

Kristy Fleming is in her third season on the George Fox coaching staff.

Fleming transferred from Lower Columbia Community College to George Fox in 1992 as a basketball and track athlete. Her senior season, she led the Lady Bruin basketball squad in scoring and rebounding and won first-team Cascade Conference honors. She finished as the conference's top rebounder. In just two seasons, she totalled 533 rebounds, fifth on the George Fox career list at the time.

Fleming plays with the Portland Saints, a women's basketball club team.

She earned her degree in athletic training from George Fox in 1995. A resident of Newberg, she works as a lab technician for a local eye surgeon and as a personal fitness trainer.

First-year assistant coach Mike Warmanen brings head coaching experience at the high school and college level. He will work specifically with the guards. A Forest Grove native, Warmanen was an All-Northwest League point guard for Portland Adventist before graduating in 1989. He went on to play two seasons at Walla Walla College in Washington. He coached the boys' team at Portland Adventist Academy for three seasons and was head men's basketball coach at Walla Walla College in 1994-95.

In addition to coaching, Warmanen is an athletic goods salesman for AllTeam Image in Portland. He lives in Portland.

MEN'S COACHES

Mark Vernon enters his 16th season directing the George Fox men's basketball team.

Vernon's is a tenure filled with highlights and the most coaching wins in team history. His teams have ranked as high as No. 2 in the national NAIA Division II poll and have made two trips to NAIA national tournaments in the '90s. Six of the seven 20-win seasons in George Fox history have come under his guidance.

Vernon became one of the nation's youngest coaches to surpass the 250-career-win milestone, eclipsing it at the age of 40. His 15-year record is 282-180.

Vernon's teams have produced two NBA draft picks, four NAIA All-Americans, and one NAIA All-American Scholar-Athlete.

His efforts have not gone unnoticed. In 1985, he was the youngest coach in NAIA District 2 when he was named men's basketball district coach of the year for the first time. In 1987 and 1991 he received the same honor. He was named National Christian College Athletic Association national coach of the year in 1987.

Vernon, 44, has spent his entire collegiate coaching career at George Fox, but his tie with the Bruins is even longer. He came to George Fox in 1975 as a student and basketball player. He transferred from Seattle's Highline Community College, where he received both Best Defense and Hustle awards.

As a George Fox guard, he established what was then the Bruins' highest career assist average (3.9). He was named Most Inspirational Player by his teammates his senior year, a year the Bruins were 20-9. In his two years in a George Fox uniform, the Bruins were 39-17.

A 1977 graduate, Vernon was named George Fox's Outstanding Physical Education Major and Outstanding Young Person in Teacher Education. He remained with Bruin basketball as an assistant for three years (1977-78, 79-80 and 81-82) while working toward a 1982 master's degree in physical education at Linfield College, which he completed in 1982.

In the fall of 1981, he joined the George Fox physical education faculty as volleyball coach and women's tennis coach. Vernon currently teaches physical education classes in addition to his coaching.

He became head coach in 1982 after a nationwide search that began with 70 candidates.

Vernon and his wife, Denise, were married in August 1981 and have three sons: Brett, 6; Brady, 4; and Barry, 2.

Tom Ketelsen returns to George Fox for his third year as assistant coach. Ketelsen played center for George Fox from 1983-85. He came from Grants Pass High School, where he was an Honorable Mention All-

State selection. He transferred to play his junior and senior years at Western Baptist College and won National Christian College Athletic Association All-American and First-Team NAIA District 2 honors. He returned to George Fox to earn an interdisciplinary degree in 1994 and a master of arts in teaching in 1995.

He played with Meadowlark Lemon's Shooting Stars in 1988-90.

Ketelsen now is a substitute teacher in the West Linn School District and is a partner with Quick Handle Basketball Camps in Seattle and Portland.

He and his wife, Teresa, a 1986 George Fox graduate, live in Newberg. They have two children: five-year-old daughter, Jordin, and two-year-old son, Cade.

WHEELER SPORTS CENTER

Entered by crossing a wooded canyon on a 200-foot bridge, the Wheeler Sports Center is a natural place to play basketball.

The sports center was designed by noted architect Pietro Belluschi to sit unpretentiously alongside Hess Creek Canyon. Built using donations from prominent lumbermen, the building features a two-level oak parquet lobby and a large window area overlooking the adjacent wooded terrain.

Completed in June 1977, the $2.7 million, 55,000-square-foot complex is the University's largest building. It contains the James and Lila Miller Gymnasium.

The Wheeler Center features a 116-by-174-foot gymnasium with three basketball courts and seating for 2,000 spectators. The gymnasium ceilings are 32 feet over the hardwood maple floor.

The building is named for longtime Oregon lumberman Coleman H. Wheeler, former chairman of the board of Willamette Industries. The gymnasium is named for former board member James Miller and his wife, Lila. He is the former president of Cascadia Lumber.

THE BRUIN NICKNAME

George Fox University is represented by the nickname and mascot "Bruin." But it has not always been so, even though it should have been.

The nickname comes from a real bear captured in 1887, just two years after Pacific Academy (the University's predecessor) was established. The small cub was captured in the coast range foothills west of Carlton when its mother was shot. Brought to campus by a student, the young cub later lived with a faculty member. When it grew to adulthood, it was kept in a pit in what is now known as Hess Creek Canyon south of the campus. After escaping one too many times, it was turned into steak for the dining table, and the hide was preserved on a frame and displayed in an early campus museum.

When the hide deteriorated several years later, it was taken to a campus furnace room to be destroyed, but the framework proved difficult to dismantle, so it was left sitting in a corner. Students eventually found the old Bruin skin and began skirmishes over ownership, a tradition that continues today.

Under a set of guidelines passed down for years, "Bruin Junior," a replica, is fought over periodically in class competition. The class able to physically drag Bruin Junior off campus is declared the rightful owner until the next "flashing."

Even with the Bruin tradition, somewhere along the line, the "Quaker" tag for athletic teams came into popularity with sports writers because of the University's church affiliation. That nickname was used with another mascot, "Foxy George," a little fox with a Quaker hat. Both gained acceptance for a time in the 1950s and 1960s, until a vote in 1970 of faculty, students and administrators reinstated the Bruin nickname to its rightful place.
