COMING UP: Bruins to Face Chapman First in NCAA West Regional

Fri., Mar. 7, 5:00 p.m. - vs. Chapman University in Tacoma, Wash. (West Regional)

Sat., Mar. 8, 7:00 p.m. - vs. TBA in Tacoma, Wash. (West Regional, tentative)

George Fox will meet Chapman University in the first round of the NCAA Division III National Championship Tournament Friday in Tacoma, Wash. The University of Puget Sound is the host for the West Regional and will play the University of La Verne in the evening's second game at 7:00 p.m. The two winners will advance to the West Regional final Saturday at 7:00 p.m.

Ticket prices are $7 for adults and $3 for students (with ID), seniors and children (12 and under). Children under 2 will be admitted free of charge. Fans who cannot get to the games may listen to the internet webcast the GFU campus station, KFOX, at www.georgefox.edu/offices/asc/kfoxradio/, or follow the action on the University of Puget Sound's LiveStats program.

George Fox received one of 21 at-large "Pool C" bids after tying for the Northwest Conference crown with Puget Sound but falling to the Loggers in the NWC Tournament title game. Chapman was one of three teams taken out of "Pool B" for independents. Puget Sound and La Verne of the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference earned two of the 39 automatic bids given to conference or conference tournament champions.

George Fox has a 5-4 record in four NCAA Tournament appearances. In 2000, the Bruins defeated Linfield 63-51 and California Lutheran 71-63 at home before losing to St. Thomas (Minn.) 76-64 in Abilene Texas, in the "Sweet 16". In 2001, the Bruins received a first-round bye and then lost at home to St. Thomas (Minn.) 64-52. In 2005, the Bruins received a first-round bye, defeated Chapman 86-55 at home, then in the sectional in Ashland, Va., defeated St. Benedict 74-69 and lost at Randolph-Macon 63-51 in the "Elite 8". Last year, hosting the West Regional, the Bruins defeated Gustavus Adolphus 61-47 before falling to Puget Sound 51-48.

Chapman (24-3) - KFOX radio webcast ... The Panthers from Orange, Calif., are making their 8th straight post-season appearance as an independent, and have reached the second round three of the last four years ... Series record: George Fox leads 1-0 (1-0 home) ... The only previous meeting came in the 2005 NCAA Tournament 2nd round, when the Bruins defeated the Panthers 86-55

 Polls/Rankings: Bruins Ranked 21st/22nd in National Polls

After going 1-1 in the Northwest Conference Tournament, the George Fox Bruins (23-4) slipped one spot to 21st with 44 points in the USA Today / ESPN NCAA Division III poll of Mar. 4 as voted on by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association after being 20th with 60 points the week before. In the D3hoops.com national poll of Mar. 3, the Bruins were down four spots to 22nd with 110 points after being 18th with 208 points the week before. George Fox has been ranked in the polls at some point in the season seven of the past nine years (2000, '01, '02, '05, '06, '07, '08). The Bruins' highest ranking ever was No. 1, a spot they held for two week in February of 2001.

Puget Sound (22-4) was 16th with 210 points in the D3hoops.com poll and 17th with 84 points in the WBCA poll. Chapman (24-3) received 44 points, most among "others receiving votes", in the D3hoops.com poll, and 2 points in the WBCA poll. Hope (27-0), one of three remaining unbeaten, was ranked No. 1 in both polls for the 10th week in a row. No. 2 Howard Payne and No. 3 Thomas More are both 28-0.

In the third NCAA Division III regional rankings of Feb. 27, George Fox was 2nd in the West Region behind Simpson IA (23-2). Other teams ranked in the West were Puget Sound, St. Thomas MN (19-6), Chapman (24-3), and St. Benedict MN (20-5).

 Bruins Secure Fifth NWC Title in Last Nine Years

By finishing with a 14-2 record in Northwest Conference play, the Bruins earned a share of the conference title with Puget Sound, their fifth NWC crown in the last nine years. In 1999-2000, the Bruins were 14-2 in league play and shared the title with Pacific Lutheran. In 2000-01, they were 15-1 and won their first outright championship. The Bruins stood by themselves again in 2004-05, going 14-2. Last year, they shared first place with Puget Sound, both teams at 13-3. This year is the first time the conference has had back-to-back co-champions since the 1984 and 1985 seasons when Willamette and Pacific shared the title in both seasons.

 Bruins Equal Wins Record with 23, Aim for One More

With their 76-71 overtime win over Lewis & Clark in the Northwest Conference Tournament on Feb. 27, the Bruins equaled the school record for wins in a season with 23, reached in both the 1999-2000 (23-5) and 2000-01 (23-3) seasons. Although they could not get the record 24th win two nights later, falling in the tournament finals to Puget Sound 62-52, the Bruins will get another chance to break the record Friday, Mar. 7, when they meet the Chapman Panthers at 5:00 p.m. in the first game of the NCAA Division III West Regional at the University of Puget Sound in Tacoma, Wash. The Bruins long ago sewed up their 15th straight winning season, including one in each of coach Scott Rueck's 12 seasons at George Fox.

* Bruins' Win Over PLU Sets Record with 12th Straight Win

With an 58-35 win at Pacific Lutheran on Feb. 1, the Bruins finally broke through the 11-wins-in-a-row barrier to set a new team record for consecutive wins with 12. The Bruins opened the season with five straight wins before William Smith, now nationally-ranked, handed them their first loss of the season, a 61-58 setback in the Posada Royale No. 1 Tournament in Thousand Oaks, Calif., on Dec. 17. The Bruins began their 12-game streak the next day in the same place with a 72-46 win over California State-East Bay. The added a road win at Northwest and a home win over Worcester State before beginning Northwest Conference play with nine straight victories. The Bruins defeated PLU and Puget Sound at home, Willamette and Linfield on the road, Lewis & Clark at home, then won four straight road games over Pacific, Whitman, Whitworth, and PLU. The streak was halted on Feb. 2 on the road by nationally-ranked Puget Sound.

The previous record of 11 straight wins had been accomplished four previous times. In 1999-2000, the Bruins won 11 in a row from Jan. 8-Feb. 12, and in 2000-01, they did it from Jan. 5-Feb. 10, a stretch that lifted them to a 20-1 overall record and the No. 1 ranking in the nation. They opened the 2001-02 season with 11 in a row from Nov. 17-Jan. 2, and opened the 2005-06 season with 11 straight from Nov. 18-Jan. 2, which earned them a No. 2 national ranking before the streak ended.

* Bruins Have Secured 15th Consecutive Winning Season

With a 20-3 record and two regular-season games remaining, the Bruins have secured their 15th winning season in a row. The first three were achieved under of Sherri Murrell (1993-96), who was 51-33 before leaving for the head coaching position at Washington State and is now the coach at Portland State. The last 12 in a row have come under Scott Rueck, the winningest coach in Bruin women's cage history at 223-83.

* NCAA Stats: Bruins Remain Nation's Best in Points Allowed

In the latest NCAA Division III national statistics reports of 2007-08 (thru Feb. 17), George Fox remained 1st in scoring defense (42.3), where they been in every statistical report this season, while ranking 3rd in fewest personal fouls (12.7), 7th in rebound margin (+11.4), 9th in scoring margin (+22.1), 10th in field goal pct. defense (.325), tied for 19th in won-lost pct. 2/16/2008 – GEORGE FOX 69, PACIFIC 34: Bruins Bounce Boxers to Stay Atop NWC Standings

NEWBERG, Ore. – Maintaining a share of the Northwest Conference lead while posting their 20th win of the season, the George Fox University Bruins jumped on top of the Pacific University Boxers early and cruised to a 69-34 win in women's basketball action Saturday evening here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

In improving to 20-3 overall and 12-2 in the conference, the 12th-ranked Bruins kept pace with the University of Puget Sound, which picked a big road win 64-54 over the Whitworth University Pirates. Pacific, falling to George Fox for the 10th straight time, dropped to 3-19 overall and 2-12 in the league.

Baskets by Katy Campbell around a three-pointer by Kaleigha Ramey got the Bruins off to a quick 7-0 lead before Mallory Goldammer's layup with 15:45 left in the half put the Boxers on the board. After trading baskets, the Bruins ran off a string of 13 unanswered points featuring a pair of threes by Mandee Spotts to make it 22-4 with 11:09 remaining. Shooting .536 (15-28) in the first half to only .296 (8-27) for the Boxers, the Bruins built up a 41-16 halftime lead.

The Bruins remained comfortably ahead throughout the second half, taking a 30-point lead of 52-22 five minutes into the second half on a three by Jaime Hubka. Their largest lead was 37 points at 69-32 with two minutes left on a jumper by Jordan Westering.

George Fox finished with a .481 shooting percentage (26-54) while limiting Pacific to .298 (17-57). The Bruins connected on 10-23 from three-point range and held the Boxers, one of the more prolific long-range teams in the league, to 0-10 from beyond the arc. The Bruins also kept the Boxers completely off the free throw line, committing only nine fouls, while making 7-9 of their own from the stripe.

Thirteen of the 14 Bruins who played scored, Spotts leading all scorers with 11 while making 3-5 from the field with a pair of threes and 3-4 from the line. Melissa Marek-Farris and Ramey had 10 each. Ramey also grabbed a game-high eight rebounds, leading the Bruins to a 38-30 margin on the glass. Campbell handed out seven assists, and Kristen Shielee had three blocked shots.

Kalei Frank and Amy Pedersen led the Boxers with 10 points apiece, and Frank had a team-high seven rebounds.

George Fox closes out the regular season with two home games next weekend, first hosting Whitworth Friday at 6:00 p.m. Pacific hosts Willamette University Friday at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by NWC men's games at 8:00 p.m.

* Bruins' Win Over PLU Sets Record with 12th Straight Win

With their 58-35 win at Pacific Lutheran on Feb. 1, the Bruins finally broke through the 11-wins-in-a-row barrier to set a new team record for consecutive wins with 12. The Bruins opened the season with five straight wins before William Smith, currently ranked 15th nationally, handed them their first loss of the season, a 61-58 setback in the Posada Royale No. 1 Tournament in Thousand Oaks, Calif., on Dec. 17. The Bruins began their 12-game streak the next day in the same place with a 72-46 win over California State-East Bay. The added a road win at Northwest and a home win over Worcester State before beginning Northwest Conference play with nine straight victories. The Bruins defeated PLU and Puget Sound at home, Willamette and Linfield on the road, Lewis & Clark at home, then won four straight road games over Pacific, Whitman, Whitworth, and PLU. The streak was halted on Feb. 2 on the road by 23rd-ranked Puget Sound.

The previous record of 11 straight wins had been accomplished four previous times. In 1999-2000, the Bruins won 11 in a row from Jan. 8-Feb. 12, and in 2000-01, they did it from Jan. 5-Feb. 10, a stretch that lifted them to a 20-1 overall record and the No. 1 ranking in the nation. They opened the 2001-02 season with 11 in a row from Nov. 17-Jan. 2, and opened the 2005-06 season with 11 straight from Nov. 18-Jan. 2, which earned them a No. 2 national ranking before the streak ended.

* Bruins Have Secured 15th Consecutive Winning Season

With a 19-2 record and four regular-season games remaining, the Bruins have secured their 15th winning season in a row. The first three were achieved under of Sherri Murrell (1993-96), who was 51-33 before leaving for the head coaching position at Washington State and is now the coach at Portland State. The last 12 in a row have come under Scott Rueck, the winningest coach in Bruin women's cage history at 220-82.

* NCAA Stats: Bruins Continue to Pace Nation in Defense

In the latest NCAA Division III national statistics reports of 2007-08 (thru Feb. 10), George Fox remained 1st in scoring defense (42.6), where they been in every statistical report this season, while ranking 7th in rebound margin (+11.8) and fewest personal fouls (13.0), 9th in scoring margin (+23.0), tied for 9th in won-lost pct. 2/11/2008 – Bruins to "Think Pink" and Celebrate National Girls and Women in Sports Day on Feb. 16

NEWBERG, Ore. — George Fox University's men's and women's basketball teams will join forces this Saturday, Feb. 16, to participate in the "Think Pink" campaign for breast cancer awareness, as well as to celebrate National Girls and Women in Sports Day, as a part of the Bruins' basketball doubleheader that evening in the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

Pacific University will provide the Northwest Conference competition for the women's game at 6:00 p.m. and the men's game at 8:00 p.m. The first 150 fans to arrive at the games will receive pink wristbands, anyone wearing pink will get in free with a $2.00 donation to the Breast Cancer Fund, and all women under the age of 18 will be admitted free.

Joining the George Fox basketball teams as sponsors for the evening's events are three area businesses: Newberg Ford, West Coast Bank, and Technocom.

The "Think Pink" initiative is a global, unified effort by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association to assist in raising breast cancer awareness on the court, across campuses, in communities and beyond. George Fox University is one of over 900 schools nationally that will be taking part in the campaign, which officially runs from Feb. 8-17, but teams may participate at any time.

In conjunction with "Think Pink," George Fox will be celebrating the 22nd Annual National Girls and Women in Sports Day by honoring its senior women student-athletes from all eight of the Bruin varsity women's sports at halftime of the men's basketball game. Awards will be presented to 24 outstanding women student-athletes.

This award celebration is one of more than 1,000 events taking place across the country for National Girls and Women in Sports Day. Congress has proclaimed this national day each year since 1987 as a time to recognize the progress of girls and women in sports, and to acknowledge the benefits that sports and fitness activities can bring to the lives of all girls and women.

In addition to the awards celebration, there will be some competition activities for girls and women during halftime of the women's game, as well as raffle prizes to be given away.

For more information about either the "Think Pink" initiative or the National Girls and Women in Sports Day celebration, please call the George Fox department of athletics at 503-554-2910.

2/9/2008 – GEORGE FOX 69, LINFIELD 36: Bruins Regain NWC Co-Lead by Whipping Wildcats

NEWBERG, Ore. – Senior center Melissa Marek-Farris posted a double-double with 19 points and 10 rebounds, leading the 18th-ranked George Fox University Bruins past the Linfield College Wildcats 69-36 and back into a share of the Northwest Conference lead in women's basketball action Saturday evening here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

The Bruins dominated play early, hitting their first five shots (two each by Marek-Farris and Katy Campbell and one by Tiffany Behary) to take an 11-2 lead four minutes into the game. They eventually built up a 14-point lead of 20-6 on a Jaime Hubka three-pointer from the right corner with seven minutes left before the Wildcats rallied with nine unanswered points, cutting the lead to 20-15 with four minutes to go. A layup by Katy Campbell ended the Wildcats' streak, and the Bruins clung to a 25-18 lead at the break.

George Fox shot .417 (10-24) in the first half while holding Linfield to .211 (4-19). An 8-10 performance from the line kept the Wildcats in the game. Marek-Farris had eight points and Campbell seven in the half for the Bruins, while Jenny Carlos led the Wildcats with seven.

The Bruins then exploded for a 13-0 run to start the second half, building a 20-point margin of 38-18 with 15 minutes remaining on a pair of Marek-Farris free throws. Casey Stepan finally put the Wildcats on the board in the second half with a three from the left wing at 14:09, but the visitors got no closer than 12 the rest of the way. The Bruins' largest lead was 34 on a three by MaryAnne Samples from the right wing with 1:10 left that made it 69-35.

Playing before a crowd estimated at 1,000, the Bruins burned the nets for a .519 percentage (14-27) in the second half to finish at .471 (24-51) for the game while holding the Wildcats to a .220 mark (9-41). Rebounds were a big factor in the game as the Bruins doubled the Wildcats on the boards 42-21 and, including a 16-5 advantage in offensive rebounds.

Marek-Farris connected on 5-11 from the field and 9-13 from the line for her 19 points, and also had three steals and four of the Bruins' nine blocks in the game. Campbell narrowly missed a double-double with 16 points and nine boards, and she and Behary passed out five assists apiece.

No one reached double figures in points for the Wildcats; Stepan and Emily Shoemaker were the top scorers with eight each. Shoemaker pulled down seven rebounds, and Stepan had three steals.

George Fox (19-2, NWC 11-1), now tied atop the league standings with the 17th-ranked University of Puget Sound, which was idle Saturday, returns to action Friday for its final road game of the season against Lewis & Clark College at 6:00 p.m. Linfield (9-12, NWC 2-10) travels to Willamette University Tuesday, also at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by NWC men's contests at 8:00 p.m.

2/7/2008 – ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT: Campbell Named Academic All-District VIII Second Team

NEWBERG, Ore. – Senior forward Katy Campbell, who has led the George Fox University Bruins to a 17-2 record and a No. 18 NCAA Division III national ranking this season, has been named to the ESPN The Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII College Division Women's Basketball Second Team as voted on by members of the College Sports Information Directors of American (CoSIDA).

Campbell, who hails from Springfield, Ore., and Thurston High School, has compiled a grade point average of 3.34 in her four years at George Fox while majoring in biology. She is the daughter of Glen and Cindy Campbell of Springfield, Ore.

A three-year starter for the Bruins, she was the 2006-07 Northwest Conference Player of the Year and was named a 2007-08 pre-season Fourth Team All-American by D3hoops.com. Picking up where she left off last year, she leads the NWC this season in field goal pct. (.552), and is 4th in free throw pct. (.789), 5th in scoring (13.9, T) and rebounding (7.4) and 7th in blocked shots (0.63, T). Her .552 field goal pct. ranks 25th nationally. She was conference Player of the Week for Jan. 7-13, and has been nominated for the award six other times. She was named MVP of the Trinity (TX) Thanksgiving Classic and made the Posada Royale #1 All-Tournament Team. This season, she has reached double figures in points 16 times and rebounds seven times, with six double-doubles, and posted career highs of 26 points at Linfield and 20 rebounds at Trinity (TX).

In her four-year Bruin career, Campbell has collected 657 rebounds, which ranks 7th on the all-time GFU list, and 936 points. She needs 64 points in the Bruins' final six games to become the 11th player in team history to reach 1,000 for a career, and 66 to move into 10th on the all-time list. She also ranks 5th in career field goal pct. (.473) and 7th in career free throw pct. (.754) at George Fox.

The Academic All-America Teams program honors 816 male and female student-athletes annually who have succeeded at the highest level on the playing field and in the classroom. Individuals are selected through voting by CoSIDA, a 2,000-member organization consisting of sports public relations professionals for colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. To be eligible, a student-athlete must be a varsity starter or key reserve, maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.20 on a scale of 4.00, have reached sophomore athletic and academic standings at his/her current institution and be nominated by his/her sports information director. Since the program's inception in 1952, CoSIDA has bestowed Academic All-America honors on more than 14,000 student-athletes in Divisions I, II, III and the NAIA. District VIII of CoSIDA consists of all institutions in Oregon, Washington, Alaska, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, California, Hawaii, and British Columbia.

Now in its fourth season of sponsoring the Academic All-America Teams program, ESPN The Magazine – winner of the 2003 National Magazine Award for General Excellence – is a provocative and innovative sports publication. Full of insight, analysis, impact and wit, the oversized bi-weekly with a circulation of some two million looks ahead to give fans a unique perspective on the world of sports.

A complete list all 2007-08 Academic All-District teams at the university and college levels is available on the CoSIDA web site at <http://www.cosida.com/Awards/allamerica.aspx>.

* Bruins' Win Over PLU Sets Record with 12th Straight Win

With their 58-35 win at Pacific Lutheran on Feb. 1, the Bruins finally broke through the 11-wins-in-a-row barrier to set a new team record for consecutive wins with 12. The Bruins opened the season with five straight wins before William Smith, currently ranked 15th nationally, handed them their first loss of the season, a 61-58 setback in the Posada Royale No. 1 Tournament in Thousand Oaks, Calif., on Dec. 17. The Bruins began their 12-game streak the next day in the same place with a 72-46 win over California State-East Bay. They added a road win at Northwest and a home win over Worcester State before beginning Northwest Conference play with nine straight victories. The Bruins defeated PLU and Puget Sound at home, Willamette and Linfield on the road, Lewis & Clark at home, then won four straight road games over Pacific, Whitman, Whitworth, and PLU. The streak was halted on Feb. 2 on the road by 23rd-ranked Puget Sound.

The previous record of 11 straight wins had been accomplished four previous times. In 1999-2000, the Bruins won 11 in a row from Jan. 8-Feb. 12, and in 2000-01, they did it from Jan. 5-Feb. 10, a stretch that lifted them to a 20-1 overall record and the No. 1 ranking in the nation. They opened the 2001-02 season with 11 in a row from Nov. 17-Jan. 2, and opened the 2005-06 season with 11 straight from Nov. 18-Jan. 2, which earned them a No. 2 national ranking before the streak ended.

* Bruins Have Secured 15th Consecutive Winning Season

With a 17-2 record and six regular-season games remaining, the Bruins have secured their 15th winning season in a row. The first three were achieved under of Sherri Murrell (1993-96), who was 51-33 before leaving for the head coaching position at Washington State and is now the coach at Portland State. The last 12 in a row have come under Scott Rueck, the winningest coach in Bruin women's cage history at 220-82.

* NCAA Stats: Bruins Have Led Nation in Defense All Season

In the latest NCAA Division III national statistics reports of 2007-08 (thru Feb. 3), George Fox remained 1st in scoring defense (43.4), where they been in every statistical report this season, while ranking 8th in fewest personal fouls (12.9), 10th in rebound margin (+11.2), 11th in scoring margin (+21.4), tied for 14th in won-lost pct. (.895), 18th in free throw pct. (.746), 19th in field goal pct. defense (.329), 22nd in field goal pct. 2/2/2008 – PUGET SOUND 59, GEORGE FOX 43: Bruins' Winning Streak Stopped at 12 by Loggers

TACOMA, Wash. – Plagued by too many turnovers that gave the University of Puget Sound almost 45 percent more shots than them, the George Fox University Bruins saw their 12-game winning streak come to an end with a 59-43 setback to the Loggers in a battle of nationally-ranked Northwest Conference women's basketball teams Saturday evening here at Memorial Fieldhouse.

The 12th-ranked Bruins (17-2, NWC 9-1) dropped their first conference game of the season and fell into a first-place tie with the 23rd-ranked Loggers (16-3, NWC 9-1). George Fox had taken the first regular-season meeting between the two teams that shared last year's NWC title 45-39 back on Jan. 5 in Newberg.

With Marissa Cain scoring eight points in the first 10 minutes, the Loggers took a 14-9 lead, but the Bruins rallied behind Katy Campbell, who scored eight points in a span of 1:41 to give the visitors a 17-16 lead. The teams traded leads on a Morgan Harter layup for the Loggers and two free throws by the Bruins' Melissa Marek-Farris, but the home team reeled off nine unanswered points, capped by a Cain fast-break layup with half a second left, to take a 27-19 lead at the half.

Ball control and offensive rebounds were the story of the first half, the Bruins committing 14 turnovers to only two by the Loggers, who also had eight offensive rebounds. As a result, the Loggers got almost twice as many shots as the Bruins, 33-17. UPS shot .333 (11-33) to .412 (7-17) for George Fox. Cain and Campbell each had 10 points to pace their respective clubs.

Hitting four of their first five shots to start the second half, the Loggers opened up a 12-point lead of 36-24 with 16:47 left behind two baskets each by Cain, one a three-pointer, and Harter. The Bruins then began a slow comeback by holding the Loggers scoreless for over eight minutes while closing within six at 36-30. Laura Hirsh broke the string with a jumper from the left side, but a short jumper by Marek-Farris and a rebound basket by Jaime Hubka brought the Bruins within four at 38-34 with seven minutes left.

The teams traded baskets over the next three minutes before Harter hit a three from the top of the key, boosting the Loggers to a nine-point lead at 47-38 and sparking a 15-5 run Logger run over the final three-and-a-half minutes that salted the game away. By the time it was over, the Bruins had turned the ball over 23 times to five for the Loggers, who out-scored the Bruins in points off turnovers 25-2.

Marek-Farris had 13 points, Campbell 12, and Hubka 10 for the Bruins, who shot .359 (14-39) for the game. Marek-Farris and Campbell had eight rebounds apiece as the Bruins held a final advantage on the glass of 37-23.

Cain had 17 points for the Loggers before fouling out, Harter added 16, and Ely scored 10. UPS shot .393 (22-56) from the field. Hirsh and Karen Chase had five rebounds apiece, Hirsh passed out four assists, and Ely had six of the Loggers' 14 steals.

George Fox has a favorable schedule in its drive for the NWC crown with five of its final six games at home, starting with Friday's 6:00 p.m. clash with Willamette University to kick off a weekend of Homecoming activities. Puget Sound travels across town Tuesday to play Pacific Lutheran University, also at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by NWC men's contests at 8:00 p.m.

2/1/2008 – GEORGE FOX 58, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 35: Bruins Down Lutes for Record 12th Win in a Row

TACOMA, Wash. – Breaking a record they had achieved four previous times in their history, the 12th-ranked George Fox University Bruins set a new team record with their 12th consecutive victory, downing the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes 58-35 in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday night here at Olson Auditorium.

The Bruins had won 11 in a row in the middle of the 1999-2000 and 2000-01 seasons, and had opened the 2001-02 and 2005-06 seasons with 11 straight wins.

Both teams were cold from the field in the early going, George Fox making only three of its first 17 attempts and Pacific Lutheran only four of 14. The Bruins held a 9-8 lead midway through the first half when they finally began to find the range, hitting eight of their final 11 tries and out-scoring the Lutes 25-13 the rest of the way. A pair of free throws by Melissa Marek-Farris gave the Bruins their largest lead of the half at 34-19, but Trinity Gibbons, who led PLU with eight first-half points, hit an 18-footer as the buzzer sounded to make it 34-21 at the break. Tiffany Behary led the Bruins with 11 first-half points, including a trio of three-pointers.

The Bruins held the Lutes scoreless for the first five minutes of the second half and continued to extend their double-digit lead, eventually building a 23-point lead of 58-35, which was the final score, with 2:30 left on a layup by Elise Kuenzi. The Bruin defense held Kyle Haag, the national leader in three-point field goals per game at 3.50 coming in, without a point, limiting her to only two three-point attempts.

Kaleigha Ramey led the Bruins with 12 points, Behary finished with 11, and Marek-Farris chipped in with 10. Ramey grabbed eight rebounds as the Bruins held a decisive 44-31 advantage on the boards. Ramey, Jaime Hubka, and Katy Campbell had two assists apiece. Defensively, Behary had four steals and Marek-Farris blocked two shots. The Bruins shot .415 (22-53) for the game and drained 7-19 three-pointers.

Emily Voorhies was the only Lute to score in double figures with 13, while Gibbons was the team's leading rebounder with eight. Gibbons, Amy Spieker, and Nikki Scott had two assists each, and Scott made four steals. The Lutes were held to a .286 shooting percentage, including only .207 (6-29) in the second half.

George Fox (17-1, NWC 9-0) takes on the second-place and 23rd-ranked University of Puget Sound Loggers, who trail the Bruins by a game, Saturday in Tacoma at 6:00 p.m. Pacific Lutheran (11-7, NWC 4-5) hosts Lewis & Clark College Saturday, also at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC contests at 8:00 p.m.

* Bruins Aim for Record-Setting 12th Straight Win at PLU

Riding a nine-game winning streak, the Bruins hope to tie their record for consecutive victories (11) this weekend, but face tough challenges in the Whitman Missionaries Friday and the Whitworth Pirates Saturday. If the Bruins can make it through those two games, they would have a shot at a new record of 12 straight against the Pacific Lutheran Lutes on Feb. 1 in Tacoma, Wash.

The Bruins have won 11 straight four times. In 1999-2000, they won 11 in a row from Jan. 8-Feb. 12, and in 2000-01, they did it from Jan. 5-Feb. 10, a stretch that lifted them to a 20-1 overall record and the No. 1 ranking in the nation. They opened the 2001-02 season with 11 in a row from Nov. 17-Jan. 2, and opened the 2005-06 season with 11 straight from Nov. 18-Jan. 2, which earned them a No. 2 national ranking before the streak ended.

* Bruins Have Secured 15th Consecutive Winning Season

With a 16-1 record and eight regular-season games remaining, the Bruins are assured of another winning season, their 15th in a row over the .500 mark. The first three were achieved under of Sherri Murrell (1993-96), who was 51-33 before leaving for the head coaching position at Washington State and is now the coach at Portland State. The last 12 in a row have come under Scott Rueck, the winningest coach in Bruin women's cage history at 219-81.

* NCAA Stats: Bruins Listed in 14 Stats, Still No. 1 in Defense

In the latest NCAA Division III national statistics reports of 2007-08 (thru Jan. 27), George Fox remained 1st in scoring defense (43.0) while ranking 8th in scoring margin (+23.5), tied for 8th in won-lost pct. (.941), 10th in rebound margin (+10.9), 10th in fewest personal fouls (13.2), 12th in field goal pct. defense (.328), 14th in free throw pct. (.744), 16th in field goal pct. (.449), 20th in blocked shots (5.0), 27th in 3-pt field goals (6.5), 28th in assist/TO ratio (0.93), 29th in fewest turnovers (16.2), 35th in 3-pt field goal pct. (.350), 66th in assists (15.2) ... The Bruins' 111 points vs. Multnomah Bible on Nov. 16 is the 6th-most scoring in a game this season ... Individually, Katy Campbell is 21st in field goal pct. (.570) ... Melissa Marek-Farris is 36th in blocked shots (2.1) ...

Columbia Christian, 1/30/93)

- Lowest Opponents' Field Goal Pct., Game - .105 (4-38) vs. Multnomah Bible, 11/16 (previous record was .136, 8-59 at Whitman, 2/19/2000)

 Bruins Hoping to Tie Record Winning Streak this Weekend

Riding a nine-game winning streak, the Bruins hope to tie their record for consecutive victories (11) this weekend, but face tough challenges in the Whitman Missionaries Friday and the Whitworth Pirates Saturday. If the Bruins can make it through those two games, they would have a shot at a new record of 12 straight against the Pacific Lutheran Lutes on Feb. 1 in Tacoma, Wash.

The Bruins have won 11 straight three times. In 2000, they won 11 in a row from Jan. 8-Feb. 12, and in 2001, they did it from Jan. 5-Feb. 10, a stretch that lifted them to a 20-1 overall record and the No. 1 ranking in the nation. They opened the 2001-02 season with 11 in a row from Nov. 17-Jan. 2, which earned them a No. 2 national ranking before the streak ended.

 NCAA Stats: Bruins in Top 20 in 10 Stats, Still No. 1 in Defense

In the latest NCAA Division III national statistics reports of 2007-08 (thru Jan. 20), George Fox remained 1st in scoring defense (42.3) while ranking 7th in scoring margin (+25.0), 8th in rebound margin (+11.1), 10th in field goal pct. defense (.323), tied for 10th in won-lost pct. (.933), 12th in fewest personal fouls (13.4), 14th in field goal pct. (.452), 15th in blocked shots (5.3), 16th in 3-pt field goals (6.9), 17th in free throw pct. (.746), 40th in 3-pt field goal pct. (.352), 32nd in assist/TO ratio (0.94), 36th in assists (15.9), 48th in fewest turnovers (17.0) ... The Bruins' 111 points vs. Multnomah Bible on Nov. 16 is the 6th-most scoring in a game this season ... Individually, Katy Campbell is 20th in field goal pct. (.571), and 71st in free throw pct. (.821) ... Melissa Marek-Farris is 26th in blocked shots (2.3) ...

 NWC Stats: Campbell Takes League Lead in FG, 3-Pt Pct.

1/19/2008 – GEORGE FOX 74, PACIFIC 53: Bruins Make It Nine Straight Wins by Beating Boxers

NEWBERG, Ore. – Post players Katy Campbell and Melissa Marek-Farris combined for 33 points, leading the 16th-ranked George Fox University Bruins to their ninth straight win, a 75-53 decision over the Pacific University Boxers in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Saturday evening here at the Pacific Athletic Center.

Both teams were on target offensively early in the game, with five lead changes in the first six minutes. George Fox took the lead for good 11-9 on a three-pointer by Jaime Hubka with 14:34 to play, and the Bruins used a 12-0 run to extend the margin to 14 points at 25-11 with eight minutes left. Three consecutive baskets in the lane by Ashley Bellamy sparked a 12-2 Pacific run that got the Boxers back in the game, cutting the gap to 27-23 with 1:20 on the clock. After Campbell, who had 11 first-half points, and the Boxers' Kristina Stevens traded baskets, Kaleigha Ramey hit a buzz-beater from just inside the half-court line to give the Bruins a 32-25 lead at the break.

Tiffany Behary hit a three from the top of the arc to open the second half for the Bruins, and the teams essentially traded baskets, George Fox maintaining a lead between seven and 14 points, for most of the half. Marek-Farris kept the Bruins safely in front by scoring 12 points in the period. Amy Pedersen's jumper in the lane brought the Boxers within 10 at 60-50 with 6:44 to play, but the Bruins ended the game with a 14-3 run to clinch the victory.

Campbell had 17 points and Marek-Farris 16 for the Bruins, and Hubka chipped in with 10. Kristen Shielee just missed a double-double with eight points and nine rebounds off the bench, leading the Bruins to a 39-27 advantage on the boards, and also blocked five shots. Hubka handed out five assists. The Bruins shot .450 (27-60) from the floor for the game, including 7-21 from three-point range, and made all 13 of their free throw attempts (the team record is 18-18 in a game at Linfield in 2003).

Pedersen finished with 13 points and eight rebounds to pace the Boxers, and Stevens and Christine Kim added 10 apiece. Kim had three assists. The Boxers shot .364 (20-55) from the field, making 3-11 on threes, and were 10-11 (.909) from the charity stripe.

George Fox (14-1, NWC 6-0) heads for eastern Washington next weekend, starting with Whitman College on Friday at 6:00 p.m. Pacific (2-12, NWC 1-5) visits Willamette University Friday, also at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by NWC men's contests at 8:00 p.m.

1/18/2008 – GEORGE FOX 58, LEWIS & CLARK 41: Hubka's Heroics Help Bruins Pull Away from Pios

NEWBERG, Ore. – Katy Campbell posted a double-double with 16 points and 10 rebounds and Jaime Hubka scored 15 points, all on three-pointers, as the George Fox University Bruins pulled away from the Lewis & Clark College Pioneers late in the second half for a 58-41 win in Northwest Conference women's action Friday evening here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

With Campbell scoring six points and Melissa Marek-Farris four, George Fox jumped out to a 10-2 lead in the first four minutes, but then went scoreless for over eight minutes, allowing Lewis & Clark to get back into the game. An 8-0 run, capped by a three-point play by Allison Farr, brought the Pios into a 10-10 tie with 10:40 left in the period. After a three-pointer by Tiffany Behary gave the Bruins a 13-10 lead, Farr hit back-to-back baskets to give the visitors their only lead at 14-13 with five minutes to go.

Hubka put the Bruins back in front with a three at the 3:07 mark and hit another one with 45 seconds left, sparking a 10-2 closing run by the Bruins that gave them a 23-16 halftime lead. Both teams struggled offensively in the half, Lewis & Clark hitting only .280 (7-25) and George Fox not much higher at .304 (7-23). Marek-Farris paced a balanced Bruin attack with eight points, while Farr was the Pios' only scoring threat with 12 points.

Hubka hit a pair of threes around a layup by the Pios' Laura Snider to open the second half and the Bruins stretched their lead to 11 three times in the first seven minutes of the period. A 6-0 run, capped by a Crystal Castle free throw, pulled the Pios within five at 38-33 with 9:26 remaining, but the rest of the game belonged to the Bruins. Campbell hit a three-point play and a layup and Hubka nailed her fifth three with seven minutes to go, igniting a closing 20-8 burst by the Bruins. The final score was the largest lead of the game for the Bruins, who earned their eighth win in a row.

In addition to the big games by Campbell and Hubka, Marek-Farris finished with 12 points and four blocked shots. Behary, Campbell, and Kaleigha Ramey had three assists apiece, and Behary tied her career high with six steals. The Bruins improved to .481 shooting (13-27) in the second half and ended the game at .400 (20-50). The Bruins also controlled the boards 35-32.

Farr was the only Pioneer in double figures with 18. Castle, the league's leading scorer with 18.3 points per game coming in, was held to only three points on 1-8 shooting, but did grab a team-high eight rebounds. Farr had three assists and three steals, and Kimberly Kittell also had three assists. The Pios finished with a .327 shooting percentage (16-49).

George Fox (13-1, NWC 5-0), ranked 16th in the NCAA Division III by D3hoops.com, goes to Pacific University Saturday for a 6:00 p.m. game, the first of five in a row away from home for the Bruins. Lewis & Clark (6-8, NWC 2-3) returns home to host Willamette University Saturday, also at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by NWC men's contests at 8:00 p.m.

1/12/2008 – GEORGE FOX 56, LINFIELD 47: Campbell's Career-High 26 Lead Bruins by Wildcats

McMINNVILLE, Ore. – Katy Campbell scored a career-high 26 points, 16 in the second half, as the 18th-ranked George Fox University Bruins pulled away from Linfield College for their seventh straight win, a 56-47 decision over the scrappy Wildcats, in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Saturday evening here at Ted Wilson Gym.

The first half was closely contested with six ties, five lead changes, and neither team holding more than a four-point lead through the first 14 minutes. George Fox ran off seven unanswered points on a three-pointer and layup by Campbell and two free throws by Melissa Marek-Farris to take a 23-17 lead with 5:58 left in the half, but went scoreless the rest of the period, allowing the Wildcats to catch up. A free throw by Casey Stepan, a three by Brianna Reichelt, and a jumper by Stephanie Fennimore brought Linfield into a 23-23 deadlock with 2:39 remaining, but neither team could score again before the break.

Inside players Campbell with 10 points and Marek-Farris with nine led the Bruins at the half, but the George Fox guards struggled, hitting only one of 12 shots. Reichelt had six on a pair of threes to pace the Wildcats.

After three more ties early in the second half, a fast break layup by Kaleigha Ramey, a rebound basket by Campbell, a three-pointer by Mandee Spotts, and a drive by Campbell gave George Fox its largest lead of nine points at 41-32 with 10 minutes left. Kate Stadel snapped the streak with a layup, but baskets by Spotts and Campbell and two Campbell free throws gave the Bruins a 13-point lead of 47-34 with 7:07 to go.

The Wildcats scratched back with a three-pointer and short jumper by Brihtani Lassiter and a layup by Emily Shoemaker to make it 47-41 with 4:13 remaining. The Bruins responded, however, with two free throws by Marek-Farris, a rebound basket by Campbell, and a jumper by Tiffany Behary as the shot clock sounded to rebuild a double-digit lead of 53-42 with 1:22 to go, effectively sealing the hard-fought win.

Campbell hit 9-14 from the field, including a three-pointer, and 7-9 from the line en route to her all-time best, and notched her fifth double-double of the season and 12th of her career with 10 rebounds, leading the Bruins to a 40-27 advantage on the boards. Marek-Farris finished with 13 points and blocked three shots. Behary passed out three assists. The Bruins hit .550 (11-20) in the second half to finish with a .436 percentage (20-46) for the game.

Lassiter was the only Wildcat in double figures with 15 points, while Stepan had a team-high six rebounds and Stedali blocked three shots. The Wildcats were held to a .315 shooting percentage (17-54) by the Bruins, who lead the nation in scoring defense (41.2 ppg) and are 20th in field goal percentage defense (.320). Linfield also committed 17 fouls to only five by the Bruins.

George Fox (12-1, NWC 4-0) hosts Lewis & Clark College Friday at 6:00 p.m. Linfield (7-6, NWC 0-4) hosts Willamette University Tuesday at 6:00 p.m. Both games will precede NWC men's games at 8:00 p.m.

1/11/2008 – GEORGE FOX 68, WILLAMETTE 37: Bruins Cruise by Bearcats for 6th Straight Win

SALEM, Ore. – With senior posts Melissa Marek-Farris and Katy Campbell scoring 15 and 13 points respectively, the 18th-ranked George Fox University Bruins posted their sixth win in a row with a 68-37 win over the Willamette University Bearcats in a Northwest Conference women's basketball game Friday evening here at Cone Field House.

The Bruins jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the first two-and-a-half minutes on a pair of free throws by Marek-Farris, a layup and free throw by Campbell, and another layup by Campbell. Jenny Fillion finally put the Bearcats on the scoreboard with a jumper in the lane with 16:40 to go in the half, but the Bruins quickly upped their lead to double figures on a basket by Marek-Farris and consecutive steals and layups by Tiffany Behary in the space of 23 seconds, making it 13-2 with 15:18 remaining.

The Bruins eventually built their margin to 26 points at 40-14 on a three-pointer by Nicole Hudson with 38 seconds left before the break, and were up 40-16 at halftime. Campbell had all 13 of her points in the first half and Marek-Farris nine at the break, while Fillion led the Bearcats with 10.

Marek-Farris scored on layups to open the second half as the Bruins continued to extend their advantage. The Bruins' largest lead was 40 points when Kelsi Leach scored on a power move to make it 58-18 with 12 minutes to play, and the Bearcats got no closer than 28 the rest of the game. It was the 11th straight win in the series for the Bruins.

Marek-Farris and Campbell were the only double-figure scorers for the Bruins, who shot .481 (25-52) from the field, including .438 (7-16) from three-point range. Marek-Farris had seven rebounds and a pair of blocked shots, while Campbell had three assists and Behary made four steals.

Fillion was the only Bearcat to reach double digits with 18 points, while twin sister Molly Fillion had 11 rebounds as Bearcats edged the Bruins on the boards 39-37. Jenny Fillion had four steals, and Molly Fillion had two assists. Willamette was held to a .262 shooting percentage (16-61) and struggled from beyond the arc, making only one of 13 attempts.

George Fox (11-1, NWC 3-0) visit s Yamhill County rival Linfield College while Willamette (2-10, NWC 0-3) visits Pacific Lutheran University Saturday, both games at 6:00 p.m. prior to NWC men's games at 8:00 p.m.

1/5/2008 – GEORGE FOX 45, PUGET SOUND 39: Bruins Edge Loggers in Clash of Ranked Clubs

NEWBERG, Ore. – Katy Campbell posted her fourth double-double of the season with 15 points and 10 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins to a hard-fought 45-39 win over the University of Puget Sound Loggers in a clash of nationally-ranked Northwest Conference women's basketball teams Saturday evening here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

It was the first meeting of the year between the 18th-ranked Bruins and the 23rd-ranked Loggers, who tied for the conference championship last year and are picked 1-2 in the league again this season.

The Bruins scored the first point of the game on a free throw by Campbell before the Loggers reeled off eight unanswered points – a jumper by Morgan Harter, a three-pointer by Laura Hirsh, and then a layup and free throw by Hirsh – and never trailed again in the first half. The Bruins tied it twice in the period, 10-10 and 22-22, but Loggers scored the final six points of the half and led 28-22 at the break.

Harter had 12 points and Hirsh nine in the first half as Puget Sound shot .455 (10-22). George Fox, which managed only a .276 (8-29) shooting percentage, was led by Melissa Marek-Farris with eight points and Campbell with seven.

A jumper by Marissa Cain to open the second half gave Puget Sound a 30-22 lead, the largest either team would have. Another basket by Cain with 14:32 left made it 34-29 Loggers – and then the Bruin defense tightened up, holding the visitors scoreless for the next 10 minutes.

Campbell's three-pointer from the right wing tied the game 34-34 at the 13:10 mark, and Tiffany Behary drained a three from the left side to give George Fox its first lead since the opening seconds with 12:31 remaining. A Kaleigha Ramey driving layup made it 39-34 with 10:50 left, but then the Bruins had trouble finding the basket as well, not connecting again until a Marek-Farris layin with five minutes left upped the count to 41-34.

Layups by Hirsh and Claire Ely brought the Loggers within three at 41-38 with 2:25 to go, but a pair of free throws by Marek-Farris and Jaime Hubka in the last minute prevented any Logger comeback.

The Bruins held the Loggers to a .192 (5-26) shooting percentage in the second half, out-scoring them 23-11, and to .313 (15-48) for the game. The Logger defense was equally as stingy, limiting the Bruins to .320 (16-50) for the game. George Fox owned a decided advantage on the boards, however, 41-29, including 12 on the offensive end.

In addition to Campbell's big game, Marek-Farris just missed a double-double of her own with 14 points and nine rebounds. Campbell led the Bruins with four assists, and Marek-Farris, the league leader in blocked shots, rejected four Logger tries.

Harter was held scoreless in the second half but still led the Loggers with 12 points, while Hirsh tallied 11, but only two in the second half. Cain had a team-high five rebounds, and Chelsi Shaw passed out three assists.

George Fox (10-1, NWC 2-0) visits Willamette University Saturday at 6 p.m., while Puget Sound (8-3, NWC 1-1) is back in action Tuesday, traveling across town to play Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Wash., at 6 p.m. Both games will be followed by NWC men's games.

1/4/2008 – GEORGE FOX 64, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 40: Bruins Pluck Lutes in Conference Lidlifter

NEWBERG, Ore. – Opening up a double-digit lead nine minutes into the game and remaining comfortably ahead the rest of the way, the 18th-ranked George Fox University Bruins knocked off the Pacific Lutheran University Lutes 64-40 in the Northwest Conference women's basketball opener for both teams Friday evening here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

Although they never trailed, the Bruins were tied by the Lutes three times in the first two minutes before Katy Campbell nailed a three-pointer at the 17:31 mark, giving the pre-season conference favorites a 9-6 lead which they never relinquished. Another three, this one by Jaime Hubka, made it 17-6 Bruins with 11:53 left in the period. The Lutes twice got back within eight, but a pair of free throws by Elise Kuenzi to make it 23-13 with 8:07 left put the Bruins permanently in front by twin figures. It was 29-17 at the break.

The Bruins opened the second half with a 19-5 run, capped by a Kaleigha Ramey jumper, to take a 26-point lead of 48-22, a margin they equaled twice more, with 12:20 left. The Lutes got no closer than 19 points thereafter, that coming on a Melissa Richardson free throw with 7:33 left that cut the Bruins' lead to 52-33.

Ramey was the only Bruin to reach double figures in points with 12, but Hubka and Tiffany Behary had nine each as 10 different players scored for the home team. The Bruins shot .469 (23-49) for the game, including .522 (12-23) in the second half. Campbell grabbed 11 rebounds in leading the Bruins to a 43-29 advantage on the boards. B.B. Gardner passed out five assists. The Bruins also blocked six shots.

Kyle Haag scored 14 points for the Lutes, who were held to a .254 (15-59) shooting percentage. Meghan Dowling had six rebounds, while Amy Spieker and Trinity Gibbons had two assists apiece.

George Fox (9-1, NWC 1-0) hosts the 23rd-ranked University of Puget Sound in a battle of '07 conference co-champions Saturday at 6:00 p.m. Pacific Lutheran (7-3, NWC 0-1) visits Lewis & Clark College Saturday, also at 6:00 p.m. Both games will be followed by men's NWC contests at 8:00 p.m.

12/29 – GEORGE FOX 87, WORCESTER STATE 32: Bruins Blunt Lancers in Last Non-League Contest

NEWBERG, Ore. – Closing out the non-conference portion of their schedule in fine fashion, the George Fox University Bruins placed 13 different players in the scoring column and cruised past the Worcester State College Lancers 87-32 in a women's basketball contest Saturday evening here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

The Bruins, ranked 16th in the NCAA Division III by D3hoops.com, scored the first seven points of the game and never trailed in posting their third straight win. A three-point field goal by MaryAnne Samples, part of a 13-0 run, gave George Fox its first double-digit lead at 18-6 with 12:15 left in the first half, and the home team maintained a double-figure lead the rest of the way. The Bruins led 45-12 at the half after shooting .500 (17-34) and forcing the Lancers into 19 turnovers.

With all 13 of their players seeing 11 or more minutes of court time in the game, the Bruins continued to extend their lead in the second half. Lindsay Keener, who hit 5-6 from the line, sank a pair of free throws with 55 seconds left for the final score and the Bruins' largest margin of the game.

Mandee Spotts and Kristen Shielee each notched their career high in points to lead the Bruins. Spotts hit 6-9 from the field, including 3-3 on three-pointers, for 15 points, while Shielee was 6-7 inside with a free throw for 13 points. Starters Katy Campbell and Kaleigha Ramey chipped in with 11 and 10 points respectively. Melissa Marek-Farris had eight rebounds as the Bruins owned the boards 37-20, including 18 on the offensive end, and B.B. Gardner passed out six assists. The Bruins shot .516 (33-64) for the game, including 8-15 (.533) from three-point range, and made 14 steals while committing only nine turnovers.

Lindsay DelleChiaie was the only Lancer in double figures, scoring over half of her team's points with 17 and passing the 1,000-point mark in her career. Brianne Flanders had eight rebounds for Worcester State, and Kristen Beningo handed out three assists. The Lancers connected on 14-37 (.378) from the field and made 27 turnovers.

George Fox (8-1) now turns its attention to Northwest Conference play, opening up with a home game against Pacific Lutheran University Friday, Jan. 4, at 6:00 p.m. The men's NWC game will follow at 8:00 p.m. Worcester State (2-7), after playing only one game on its trip from Massachusetts to the Pacific Northwest, returns home to take on Eastern Connecticut State University on Wednesday, Jan. 9, at 7:00 p.m.

12/28 – GEORGE FOX 72, NORTHWEST 51: Campbell's Double-Double Leads Bruins by Eagles

KIRKLAND, Wash. – Senior forward Katy Campbell posted her third double-double of the season and the 10th of her career with 17 points and 11 rebounds, leading the George Fox University Bruins past the Northwest University Eagles 72-51 in a non-conference women's basketball game Friday evening here at The NU Pavilion.

After trading leads five times in the game's first three minutes, the Bruins took the lead for good 8-7 on a jumper by Campbell with 17:02 left in the first half. The Eagles stayed close, however, and when Rachel Travis nailed a three-pointer with 5:13 left, George Fox's lead was down to a single point at 20-19. MaryAnne Samples then responded with a three-pointer that kick-started a 20-5 Bruin run to close out the period, giving the visitors a 40-24 lead at the intermission.

The Bruins remained comfortably in front throughout the second half as the Eagles were able to get no closer than 11 points at 47-36 on a basket by Dani Drivstuen with 13:21 remaining. The Bruins' largest lead was 25 points at 72-47 after Lindsay Keener made a layup with 1:29 to go.

In addition to Campbell's big game, Jaime Hubka tossed in 16 points by hitting 6-9 from the field, including 4-6 three-pointers, Kaleigha Ramey scored 11, and Tiffany Behary had 10. Behary and Hubka had four assists apiece. The Bruins shot .500 (27-54) from the field, including .478 (11-23) from three-point range, and held a decided advantage on the boards, 35-19.

Brittany Bowsheer paced the Eagles with 17 points and Chelsea Drivstuen added 12. Travis and Dani Drivstuen, who also had a team-high three assists, were the top rebounders with four each. The Eagles connected on .356 (16-45) of their shots.

George Fox (7-1), ranked 16th in the NCAA Division III by D3hoops.com, plays its final non-conference game at home Saturday at 7:00 p.m. against Worcester State College from Massachusetts. Northwest (2-9) hosts Dordt College of Iowa Saturday at 3:00 p.m.

12/18 – GEORGE FOX 72, CAL STATE-EAST BAY 46: Bruins Pound Pioneers in CalLu Consolation

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. – With six different players contributing to a 16-0 run over the final four minutes of the first half, the George Fox University Bruins sprinted away from the California State University-East Bay Pioneers for a comfortable 72-46 win in the consolation game of the Posada Royale #1 Women's Basketball Tournament Tuesday afternoon here at California Lutheran University's Gilbert Arena.

East Bay took its only lead when Ashley Butler opened the game with a jumper 24 seconds in, but a basket by Katy Campbell and a layup by Tiffany Behary put the Bruins up 4-2 and they never trailed again. Campbell hit a three-pointer at the 14:33 mark of the half to break a 6-6 tie for good, and the Bruins took their first double-digit lead on a Behary three with 6:39 left to make it 25-15. It was 28-19 when the Bruin scored 16 points in four minutes to close out the period with a 44-19 advantage. Kelsi Leach had five of the Bruins' 16 points in that span on two free throws and a three-pointer.

George Fox continued to build on its lead at the start of the second half, out-scoring East Bay 18-6 to go up by 37 points, 62-25, on a three by B.B. Gardner with 11:38 remaining. The Bruins made wholesale substitutions shortly thereafter and the Pioneers responded with a 19-0 run, cutting the margin to 18 at 62-44 with 4:05 left. A basket by the Bruins' Elise Kuenzi at 3:47 restored order, however, and the Bruins ended the game with a 10-2 run over the last four minutes.

Campbell was the only Bruin in double figures with a game-high 12 points, but three others - Behary, Leach, and Lindsay Keener - had nine each. Melissa Marek-Farris had seven rebounds to lead the Bruins to a 40-32 edge on the boards. Behary added five assists and three steals. George Fox was red-hot from the field in the first half, hitting 16-28 for a .571 mark, and finished the game at .464 (26-56).

Amy Elliott had 10 points to pace the Pioneers, while Butler scored eight and had a game-high nine rebounds. East Bay was held to a .346 shooting percentage on 18-52 from the field.

In the championship game later in the evening, William Smith College, which had edged George Fox 61-58 on Monday in the first round, knocked off tournament host California Lutheran 79-64.

Campbell was named to the All-Tournament Team, along with tourney MVP Marisa Vespa and Stephanie Czajkowski of William Smith, Maggie Neville and Johanna Rothemel of California Lutheran, and Elliott of California State-East Bay.

George Fox (6-1), ranked 16th in the latest D3hoops.com poll and 18th in the WBCA poll, is off until Friday, Dec. 28, when the Bruins visit Northwest University in Kirkland, Wash., for a 6:00 p.m. non-conference game. California State-East Bay (4-5) next takes on Lewis & Clark College in the Puget Sound Tournament on Saturday, Dec. 29, at 4:00 p.m.

12/17 – WILLIAM SMITH 61, GEORGE FOX 58: Herons Hands Bruins First Loss in CalLu Tournament

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. – Maria Vespa scored the winning free throws with 1:45 left, then made a game-saving steal with seven seconds left as the William Smith College Herons handed the George Fox University Bruins their first loss of the women's basketball season 61-58 in the opening game of the Posada Royale #1 Tournament Monday afternoon here at California Lutheran University's Gilbert Arena.

George Fox, ranked 15th in the latest NCAA Division III national poll by D3hoops.com, jumped out to a 5-0 lead on a three-pointer by Jaime Hubka and a basket by Tiffany Behary, but the Herons went on a 9-2 run, capped by a three from Mollie Danahy, to take the lead and maintained it throughout most of the first half. The Bruins tied it 24-24 on a free throw by Behary late in the half, but Vespa, a three-time All-Liberty League guard, nailed a three with 16 seconds left to put William Smith up 27-24 at the half.

Hubka hit another three 10 seconds into the second half, tying the game 27-27 and igniting a 20-5 run that gave George Fox a 12-point lead of 44-32 with 14:43 left in the game. Hubka, Katy Campbell, and Kaleigha Ramey hit back-to-back-to-back threes to finish off the Bruin outburst. The Bruins were still up by nine at 50-41 with just over eight minutes left when the Herons reeled off nine in a row, tying it 50-50 on a jumper by Erin Cunningham with 5:53 remaining.

Three free throws by Behary and a layup by Campbell moved the Bruins back in front 55-50 with 4:14 to go, but Vespa hit a trey and, after another Campbell free throw, Cunningham and Latasha Coney hit baskets for a 57-56 William Smith lead with 2:26 left. Campbell hit two more free throws with two minutes to go for a 58-57 Bruin lead, but Vespa hit a pair at 1:45 for the eventual winning points.

Vespa missed a free throw with 23 seconds left, giving the Bruins a final chance to win, but redeemed herself by swiping the ball from Campbell with seven seconds to go. Paula Foote was fouled and sank two free throws with three seconds remaining to seal the Herons' win.

Campbell topped the Bruins with 14 points, 12 in the second half, while Behary added 11 and Elise Kuenzi 10. Behary led the Bruins on the boards with five rebounds and picked up three steals, while Campbell passed out three assists. Melissa Marek-Farris had three blocked shots among the nine the Bruins had in the game.

Vespa led all scorers with 19 points, while Stephanie Czajkowski chipped in with 12 and Coney had 10. Cunningham's nine rebounds led the Herons to a 35-32 advantage on the boards. Vespa also handed out six assists and had three steals.

In the second game Monday, host Cal Lutheran met California State University-East Bay. George Fox (5-1) will play in the consolation game Tuesday at 4:00 p.m. against the loser of the CLU-CSUEB game, while William Smith (4-1) will take on the CLU-CSUEB winner at 6:00 p.m.

12/8 – GEORGE FOX 71, WARNER PACIFIC 30: Bruins Build Big Lead Early to Bury Knights

NEWBERG, Ore. – Jumping out to a 7-1 lead and taking a double-digit lead for good eight minutes into the game, the George Fox University Bruins cruised past the Warner Pacific College Knights 71-30 for their fifth straight win in a non-conference women's basketball game Saturday evening here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

The Bruins trailed only once in the game when Lindsey Wells hit a free throw for the Knights 10 seconds into the game. Katy Campbell's three-pointer 25 seconds later sparked a 7-0 run that gave the Bruins the lead for good, and Jaime Hubka hit a trey, one of three for her in the half, to make it 21-9 with 12:13 left in the period. The George Fox lead, which was 34-17 at the break, remained in double figures the rest of the way.

The Bruins continued to build onto their advantage throughout the second half. MaryAnne Samples hit a three to make it a 20-point difference at 39-19 four minutes into the period, and they doubled that to 40 points on a Kelsi Leach layup with 5:48 left which made it 63-22. The largest lead the Bruins had was 43 points at 71-28 on a three-pointer by Jordan Westering with 2:11 to go.

Twelve of the 13 Bruins who played scored, although only Melissa Marek-Farris with 11 points reached double figures. The Bruins were especially hot from three-point range, hitting 10-21 (.476). Kristen Shielee had game highs of 10 rebounds and four blocked shots as the Bruins held a 42-23 margin on the boards and blocked eight shots in all. Campbell had four assists and three steals.

Danica Wilson led the Knights with eight points and Bethany Baumann had five rebounds. Karissa Boyd passed out five assists.

George Fox (5-0) is off for exams next week, then returns to action in the Posada Royale #1 Tournament Nov. 17-18 at California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks, Calif. The Bruins will first meet William Smith College on Monday at 1:00 p.m. Warner Pacific (2-5) visits St. Martin's University on Friday at 7:00 p.m. in a game that was postponed from Dec. 7 due to the closure of Interstate 5 near Chehalis, Wash.

11/25 – GEORGE FOX 69, ST. MARY'S 58: Bruins Snare Trinity Tournament Title over Ravens

SAN ANTONIO, Texas – Forward Katy Campbell and point guard Tiffany Behary combined for 42 points, 33 of them in the second half, as the George Fox University Bruins rallied from a 12-point first-half deficit to defeat the St. Mary's College Ravens 69-58 and claim the Trinity University Thanksgiving Classic women's basketball tournament title Sunday afternoon here at Sams Gymnasium.

The first half was close through the first 11 minutes, MaryAnne Samples' three-pointer with 9:42 left bringing the Bruins within two points of the Ravens at 16-14. A 12-2 outburst, capped by a three from Megan Conaty, gave the team from Notre Dame, Indiana, a 28-16 lead with 5:42 to go, but the Bruins bounced back behind a pair of threes by Jamie Hubka and one from Behary to close within one at 28-27 with 1:44 remaining. St. Mary's got a basket by Alison Kessler at 1:33 to take a 30-27 lead into halftime.

Behary canned another three 30 seconds into the second half to tie it 30-30, and the teams battled on even terms for the next 12 minutes, with four leads changes and two more ties. Back-to-back baskets by Anna Kammrath secured a 43-43 tie for the Ravens with 7:40 to play, but Campbell sank two free throws with 7:16 remaining to break the deadlock, and the Bruins never trailed again. Over the next five minutes, Campbell scored eight points and Behary seven in a 15-6 Bruin run that raised the score to 60-49 with 2:45 to play. A basket by Melissa Marek-Farris and 7-of-8 free throw shooting by the Bruins in the final 1:20 kept the Ravens at bay.

Campbell finished with 23 points and Behary 19 for the Bruins, who scorched the nets in the second half, hitting .571 (12-21) from the field. Campbell and Marek-Farris had seven rebounds each as the Bruins held a slight edge on the glass, 29-28. Marek-Farris also had a team-high four assists and three blocked shots. Behary and Campbell had three steals apiece.

Kessler, who set a St. Mary's single-season scoring record last year, had 19 points to pace the Ravens, while Erin Newsom added 17 and Kammrath 12. Newsom had nine rebounds, Katie Rashid passed out four assists, and Kammrath had four steals and three blocks.

The pairings for all four games of the tournament were pre-set, but with George Fox defeating Trinity 55-53 and St. Mary's hammering the College of Notre Dame (Md.) 92-44 on Saturday, the second day's matchups featured the two 1-0 teams in the first game and the two 0-1 teams in the second. Trinity knocked off Notre Dame 98-51 in the consolation game.

Campbell was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player, while Behary was also an All-Tournament selection, along with Kessler, Krista Prato Matthews and Megan Scholbe of Trinity, and Sasha Matthew of Notre Dame.

George Fox (4-0) is off until Saturday, Dec. 8, when the Bruins will play their home opener against Warner Pacific College at 6:00 p.m. St. Mary's is now 2-3, Trinity 4-1, and Notre Dame 2-3.

11/24 – GEORGE FOX 55, TRINITY 53: Campbell's Double-Double Lifts Bruins Past Tigers

SAN ANTONIO, Texas – Katy Campbell capped off an 11-point, 20-rebound performance by hitting the game-winning basket with five seconds left, lifting the George Fox University Bruins to a 55-53 win over the host Trinity University Tigers on the first day of the Trinity Thanksgiving Classic women's basketball tournament Saturday afternoon here at Sams Gymnasium.

The game was tied 10-10 when the Bruins took the first-half lead for good on a three-pointer by Kaleigha Ramey with 10:35 left in the period. Tiffany Behary hit a three a minute later, one of three for her in the half, to make it 16-10, and the Bruins built a nine-point lead twice, the last at 26-17 with 1:47 left on a pair of Jamie Hubka free throws. Danielle Hubenak's basket for the Tigers with 33 seconds remaining cut the George Fox lead to 26-19 at the half.

The Bruins then went ice-cold to open the second half, missing their first 11 shots and committing six turnovers in the first seven minutes of the period. That enabled the Tigers to run off 13 unanswered points, capped by a trey from Genevieve Hurlbutt, for a 32-26 lead with 13:06 to play. Hubka broke the string with a three at 12:46, then tied the game with another three at 12:04, and Behary put the Bruins back ahead 35-32 with her fourth three-pointer at 11:11.

Trinity was never able to regain the lead thereafter, but did manage three more ties. George Fox appeared to have the upper hand after Melissa Marek-Farris made a layup with 1:29 to go for a 53-49 lead, but Krista Prato Matthews hit a jumper and Rachel Snyder made a steal, setting up a tying layup by Megan Scholbe to make it 53-53 with 24 seconds left. After a timeout, the Bruins worked the ball around for the last shot, Behary feeding Campbell for the winning shot. Trinity took its last time out to set up a final play, but Scholbe turned the ball over with one second left as the Bruins hung on.

Behary with 16 points and Hubka with 14, each hitting four three-pointers, led the Bruins, while Campbell scored 11 as she recorded her second double-double in as many games. Her 20 rebounds tied for the fourth-highest total in a game in Bruin history - the record is 23 by Debby Wiggers vs. Linfield in 1981 and Tammy Lewis vs. Western Oregon in 1988 - and moved her past Darby Cave into 10th place on the GFU career rebounds list with 552. Behary handed out seven assists. The Bruins hit 10 three-pointers and out-boarded the Tigers 39-34.

Prato Matthews had 17 points and just missed a double-double with nine rebounds for the Tigers. Hurlbutt came off the bench to score 11 points, while Scholbe had a team-high 10 rebounds and four steals.

In the tournament's first game earlier in the day, St. Mary's College (Ind.) hammered the College of Notre Dame (Md.) 92-44.

Sunday's schedule has George Fox (3-0) vs. St. Mary's (2-2) at 2:00 p.m. Central time (12:00 noon Pacific), and Trinity (3-1) vs. Notre Dame (2-2) at 4:00 p.m. Central.

11/15 – PREVIEW: Veteran Bruins Seek Repeat of NWC Title and NCAA Tournament

NEWBERG, Ore. – With a veteran roster that includes seven seniors, four returning starters, and 13 letterwinners in all back, the George Fox University Bruins have high hopes of picking up where they left off last March and extending their 2007-08 season even further.

The Bruins are coming off a 19-7 campaign in which they tied for the Northwest Conference championship at 13-3, defeated co-champion University of Puget Sound in the NWC Tournament title game, and went 1-1 in the NCAA Division III West Regional. George Fox was ranked 25th in both final national polls. It was the 14th straight winning season for the Bruins, 11 of them under veteran coach Scott Rueck, who brings a 203-80 record and .717 winning percentage into the new year.

Others around the country certainly see the Bruins as one of the top teams in the nation. Coaches in the Northwest Conference have established the Bruins as the favorites to repeat as league champions. In the D3hoops.com pre-season poll, George Fox was picked 21st, while the USA Today / ESPN / WBCA poll tabbed them 26th.

"We are blessed to have a group of outstanding post players," says Rueck. "I look for us to once again have an inside-out attack and be able to score the ball no matter what our opponents give us. We have some big shoes to fill this season with loss of Robin Taylor, and I am confident our guards will rise to the occasion."

The Bruins' inside strength begins with 2006-07 NWC Player of the Year Katy Campbell (6-1 Sr., Springfield, Ore. / Thurston HS) and Second Team All-NWC Melissa Marek-Farris (6-1 Sr., Glide, Ore. / Glide HS). Campbell, who also earned Second Team All-West Region honors and is a pre-season Fourth Team All-American as selected by D3hoops.com, averaged 11.4 points and a league-leading 8.9 rebounds a game. Marek-Farris averaged 10.4 points and 6.8 rebounds a game while pacing the conference and ranking 23rd nationally in blocked shots with 2.6 per game.

"Katy took her game to a different level last February and March, especially on the offensive end," recalls Rueck. "She began to recognize that we needed her to be a 'go-to' scorer and that she was capable of providing that for us. This year is certainly no different; we need her to create offense for us each night. Melissa has worked hard in the off-season to expand her game offensively. She has become a scoring threat away from the block and we all will benefit from her efforts. I am excited to watch the two of them this season."

The Bruins are deep at the post with Kristen Shielee (6-3 Jr., Gresham, Ore. / Gresham HS), Elise Kuenzi (5-9 So., Silverton, Ore. / Silverton HS), and Kelsi Leach (6-0 So., Placentia, Calif. / El Dorado HS) as returnees and newcomer Jordan Westering (6-0 Fr., Puyallup, Wash. / Rogers HS). Shielee averaged 2.4 points and 3.5 rebounds a game, and her 1.3 blocks shots per game would have been second in the league but she was one game short of qualifying for conference stats. Kuenzi had 4.7 ppg and 3.3 rpg, while Leach had 1.3 ppg and 1.5 rpg in limited time.

"Kristen has always been a formidable shot-blocking presence in the middle and she has made a lot of progress this off-season," comments Rueck. "She is in the best condition of her life, and it is great to see her be a little quicker and jump a little higher. Elise, who can also play a wing, brings tremendous energy to the game and will play a big role for us inside and out. Kelsi has improved immensely and is tough to guard because of her ability to score one on one in the post and from the perimeter. Jordan does a lot of the things that Katy does, going outside to shoot the three as well as playing with her back to the basket. She will become another in the long line of great post players we have had over the years."

At one wing, the graduated Taylor, a First Team All-NWC selection, gave the Bruins 13.2 points, 5.3 rebounds, and 2.4 assists per game, and finished as the No. 9 all-time scorer in George Fox history with 1,006 career points. The front-runner for her slot appears to be Kali Ramey (5-8 Sr., Spokane, Wash. / Northwest Christian HS), who averaged 3.5 ppg last year, but Mandee Spotts (6-1 Sr., Hillsboro, Ore. / Century HS) and MaryAnne Samples (5-10 So., Kennewick, Wash. / Kennewick HS) are also available. Spotts averaged 1.6 ppg and Samples 1.5 ppg in limited action last season.

"Kali has been doing a great job on both ends of the floor and will be counted on to play a big role for us," observes Rueck. "She is an amazing athlete and an explosive scorer. Mandee has been playing well and is rising to the occasion in her final year; she is a scoring threat every time she touches the ball. MaryAnne has a great understanding of the game, is an excellent passer, and can handle the ball like a point guard. I can see her playing some point as we did occasionally last year."

Jaime Hubka (5-7 Sr., Bellingham, Wash. / Sehome HS) returns at the other wing and will be looking to increase her 4.8 scoring average of a year ago. She was second on the team with 30 three-point field goals. Says Rueck, "Jaime is a great defender as well as a consistent shooter - she hit over 40 percent of her three-pointers last season - and we anticipate more of the same this year."

The Bruins have an unusual situation at the point guard position with, in effect, two starters. Tiffany Behary (5-6 Sr., Lake Oswego, Ore. / Lake Oswego HS) started there for the Bruins in '05 and '06 before transferring to Oregon State University for last fall. B.B. Gardner (5-4 So., Zigzag, Ore. / Sandy HS) stepped into the role and remained there even after Behary returned to George Fox.

11/6 – NATIONAL POLLS: Bruins 21st in Pre-Season D3hoops Poll, 26th in WBCA

NEWBERG, Ore. – With four starters and 13 letterwinners in all returning, the George Fox University Bruins are expected to be among the nation's top women's basketball teams in the NCAA Division III in 2007-08, according to a pair of widely-recognized national pre-season polls that were recently released.

In the USA Today / ESPN poll as voted on by the Women's Basketball Coaches of America, George Fox was picked 26th with a total of 39 points, one vote behind 25th-ranked Lake Forest College of Illinois. In the D3hoops.com poll, the Bruins were tabbed 21st, tying for that spot with Emmanuel College of Massachusetts with 136 points.

The Bruins are coming off a 19-7 campaign in which they tied for the Northwest Conference championship at 13-3, defeated co-champion University of Puget Sound in the NWC Tournament title game, and went 1-1 in the NCAA Division III West Regional. George Fox was ranked 25th in both final national polls.

Lending validity to the Bruins' high ranking is the return of a pair of All-Conference post players in 2006-07 Player of the Year Katy Campbell and Second Team All-NWC Melissa Marek-Farris. Campbell, who also earned Second Team All-West Region honors, averaged 11.4 points and a league-leading 8.9 rebounds a game. Marek-Farris averaged 10.4 points and 6.8 rebounds a game while pacing the conference and ranking 30th nationally in blocked shots with 2.6 per game.

Also back for coach Scott Rueck are starting wing Jaime Hubka (4.8 ppg, 30 3-pt field goals) and point guard B.B. Gardner (2.4 ppg, 2.0 apg), but the Bruins must replace two-time All-NWC wing Robin Taylor, who led the team with 13.2 points per game and became the 10th player in Bruin history to score over 1,000 points. Rueck, a four-time NWC Coach of the Year, including 2006-07, enters his 12th season at George Fox with a 203-80 (.717) career record.

The only other NWC team in the rankings is Puget Sound, which was picked 19th in both polls. Ironically, in the pre-season poll of conference coaches, George Fox was picked ahead of Puget Sound, the Bruins being favored to win the league with the Loggers finishing second.

The WBCA poll selected Washington University of Missouri as the pre-season No. 1 team, while the D3hoops.com poll had the University of Mary Washington from Virginia as its top team. Defending national champion DePauw University of Indiana was second in the WBCA poll and fifth in the D3hoops.com poll. Six different teams in the WBCA poll and eight in the D3hoops.com poll picked up first-place votes.

11/16 – GEORGE FOX 111, MULTNOMAH 13: Bruins Open with Record-Setting Win over Lions

NEWBERG, Ore. – With all 13 available players scoring, including five in double figures, the George Fox University Bruins opened their 2007-08 women's basketball season by setting six new team records in a 111-13 breeze past the Multnomah Bible College Lions Friday night here at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym.

The Lions, playing their first year of intercollegiate basketball with only one player over 5'8" and five freshman among their eight players, were no match for the bigger and more-experienced Bruins, who feature seven seniors and six players 6'0" or better. George Fox scored the first 34 points of the game before Multnomah snapped the string with a bucket by Carolyn Barger at the 8:23 mark, and led 57-6 at the half.

In the second half, the Bruins torched the nets for a .647 percentage, canning 22-34 from the field to stretch their lead. Jordan Westering's free throw with 3:38 left gave the Bruins their first 100-point game in two years, and her three-point play on a layup and free throw made it 106-11, breaking the previous GFU scoring record of 105 against Western Baptist (now Corban) in 1992.

B.B. Gardner's three-pointer with 49 seconds left gave the Bruins a 100-point bulge of 111-11 before a pair of free throws by Susanna Duke resulted in the final score and a margin of 98 points, another Bruin record. George Fox also established new marks for most field goals (47), most assists (34), fewest points by an opponent (13), and lowest field goal percentage by an opponent (.105, 4-38).

Westering, in her first college game, paced the Bruins with 16 points, Kali Ramey added 14, and Jaime Hubka, Katy Campbell, and Kelsi Leach scored 11 apiece. Lindsay Keener had 9 rebounds and 6 assists to lead the Bruins, and Mandee Spotts also had 6 assists. The Bruins held a 57-18 advantage on the boards and shot .566 (47-83) for the game.

Elizabeth Clemen led the Lions with 5 points, and Camilla Jacobson and Duke had 3 rebounds each.

George Fox (1-0) is back in action Saturday at Warner Pacific College, tipping off at 7:00 p.m. Multnomah (1-7) returns home to host Mt. Hood Community College Saturday at 5:30 p.m.

10/29 – NWC POLL: Bruins Picked to Repeat as Conference Champions in 2007-08

NEWBERG, Ore. – Led by a pair of powerful senior post players in 2007 Player of the Year Katy Campbell and Second Team All-Conference Melissa Marek-Farris, the George Fox University Bruin are favored to repeat as Northwest Conference women's basketball champions in 2007-08 as predicted in a pre-season poll of the league's nine coaches.

Scott Rueck, the 2007 NWC Coach of the Year, has four starters back from a team that finished 19-7 overall and 13-3 in the NWC, sharing the regular season title with the University of Puget Sound. The Bruins earned the NWC's automatic bid to the NCAA Division III Tournament by defeating the Loggers in the NWC Tournament finale and went 1-1 in their fourth post-season appearance in the last eight years.

Campbell, who also earned Second Team All-West Region honors, averaged 11.4 points and a league-leading 8.9 rebounds a game. Marek-Farris averaged 10.4 points and 6.8 rebounds a game while pacing the conference in blocked shots with 2.6 per game. Also back are wing Jaime Hubka (4.8 ppg, 30 3-pt field goals) and point guard B.B. Gardner (2.4 ppg, 2.0 apg), but the Bruins must replace two-time All-NWC wing Robin Taylor, who led the team with 13.2 points per game and became the 10th player in Bruin history to score over 1,000 points in a career.

The Bruins picked up six first-place votes and 84 points in the poll to edge Puget Sound, which had three first-place votes and 75 points. The Loggers return a pair of All-Conference performers in guards Allison Craven and Laura Hirsch, who were both First Team honorees last season. The Loggers got into the NCAA tournament as an at-large team last winter and advanced to the tournament's fourth round, finishing 24-7.

Lewis & Clark College is third in the poll for the second straight season with 61 points. The Pioneers finished 16-9 overall and 9-7 in the NWC last season, and return First Team All-NWC guard Crystal Castle and honorable mention All-NWC forward Allison Farr.

Whitworth University (51 points) is fourth in the poll and returns four starters from last winter, including Second Team All-NWC forward Alida Bower. Linfield College (47 points) was right behind Whitworth in the poll. The Wildcats tied L&C for third place in last season's standings and earned the conference's third bid to the NWC tournament.

Whitman College finished sixth in the poll with 39 points and welcomes back honorable mention All-NWC forward Kelsey Krumdieck. Pacific Lutheran University, a longtime power in the NWC, is seventh in the poll with 28 points. The Lutes will have a new coach this season and must replace Nikki Johnson, the 2006 NWC Player of the Year.

Willamette University (17 points) and Pacific University (12) wind up the poll in eighth and ninth places, respectively. The Bearcats have sophomore forward Keilyn Fujioka back, while the Boxers will look to senior guard Amy Pedersen.

The Northwest Conference will use a conference tournament to decide the automatic (Pool A) bid to the 2008 NCAA tournament. At the conclusion of the regular season, the second-place team in the final standings will host the third-place team in a playoff. The winner will play at the regular season champion for the NCAA bid.

The Bruins open the season Friday, Nov. 16, when they host Multnomah Bible College at the Wheeler Sports Center's Miller Gym at 7:00 p.m. In addition to the 16-game conference schedule, the Bruins are entered in a pair of tournaments: the Trinity University Thanksgiving Classic Nov. 24-25 in San Antonio, Texas, and the Posada Royale #1 Tournament Dec. 17-18 in Thousand Oaks, Calif.
