ABOUT GEORGE FOX UNIVERSITY/THE ARENA

THE UNIVERSITY

George Fox University, an evangelical Christian liberal arts college, is expanding, both in size and in reputation. Enrollment has more than quadrupled in the last 14 years, increasing from 549 in 1986 to 2,636 in the fall of 2000.

Since 1986, George Fox has been named one of "America's Best Colleges" 12 times by U.S. News & World Report. In 1999, the school ranked second overall and third in academic reputation among Western regional liberal arts colleges. The magazine also named the University one of the region's best values among schools in its category.

George Fox offers unique programs to its students. Every incoming freshman is given a computer to use and keep upon graduation. When students reach their third year, they are eligible for the Juniors Abroad program, in which the University pays transportation costs for an overseas study tour.

The school opened in 1885 when Willamette Valley Quaker settlers established Pacific Academy. It was during those early days that George Fox's most prominent alumnus attended — Herbert Hoover, later the 30th President of the United States. The college division was organized in 1891 to provide more advanced instruction and the name became Pacific College. In 1949, because of the many schools in the West with "Pacific" in their title, the name was changed to George Fox College, honoring the founder of the Friends (Quaker) Church.

In 1996, with the addition of Western Evangelical Seminary, George Fox became a university, offering students a Christ-centered education and the choice of 35 undergraduate majors and nine graduate degrees. On Jan. 1, 2000, the seminary was renamed George Fox Evangelical Seminary.

George Fox University is located in Newberg, Oregon (pop. 17,355), 24 miles southwest of Portland, the state's largest metropolitan center of 1.7 million, and 32 miles north of Salem, the state capital.

WHEELER SPORTS CENTER

Entered by crossing a wooded canyon on a 200-foot bridge, the Coleman H. Wheeler Center for Sports and Physical Education, home of the George Fox Bruins' volleyball and men's and women's basketball teams, is a natural place to play sports of all sorts.

The Sports Center was designed by noted architect Pietro Belluschi to sit unpretentiously alongside tree-shaded Hess Creek Canyon. Built using gifts from prominent lumbermen, the building features a two-level oak parquet lobby and a large window area overlooking the adjacent natural terrain. Completed in June 1977, the $2.7 million, 55,000-square-foot complex is the University's largest building. It contains the James and Lila Miller Gymnasium, the Bruins' home court. The Center features a 116x174-foot gymnasium with three full-length basketball courts, three volleyball courts, and 10 badminton courts. The ceilings are 32 feet above the hardwood maple floor. Total seating capacity is 2,750.

Contained on the upper level are a staff room, multipurpose room, classrooms, and athletic administration and faculty offices. A 1,500-square-foot weight room was remodeled in the summer of 1993. The lower level contains a concession area, dressing rooms, team rooms, laundry, equipment-issuing room, and storage space. An east wing of the building houses two racquetball courts.

The building may be entered on two levels. The east-side ground level is accessible from the parking lot by crossing the foot bridge. The on-campus community enters on the west-side second floor.

The building is named for long-time Oregon lumberman Coleman H. Wheeler, former chairman of the board of Willamette Industries. The gymnasium is named for former George Fox board member James Miller, the former president of Cascadia Lumber Co., and his wife, Lila.

WOMEN'S COACHING STAFF

SCOTT RUECK Head Coach

In just four short years, Scott Rueck has established himself as one of the brightest new lights on the horizon of college coaching — at any level. In that time, he has guided the George Fox University women's basketball team to a 72-30 record, a .706 winning percentage, three postseason playoff appearances, and national recognition in the NCAA Division III top 20.

Rueck's 1999-2000 Bruins put together the finest season in the program's 19-year history, posting a 23-5 record to set new records for wins and winning percentage (.821). The team won 11 straight to set another record, tied for its first-ever Northwest Conference title with a 14-2 league mark, won two NCAA playoff games before losing in the "Sweet 16," and earned a No. 19 postseason national ranking. For those achievements, Rueck was honored as Northwest Conference Coach of the Year by his peers.

Though only 31, Rueck has already gained 11 years of coaching experience. While still a student at Oregon State, he was an assistant boys' coach at Santiam Christian High (1989-93). He served as a women's assistant under George Fox head coach Sherri Murrell (1993-95), and coached the women's tennis team (1995-96).

When Murrell left, Rueck was named interim head coach for a year, then permanent head coach after a national search that yielded four finalists. The Bruins have posted winning records in each of his four years as head coach, with their season record improving each year. Rueck's players have earned four NAIA All-American and 10 All-Northwest Conference awards.

Rueck also teaches courses in the department of health and human performance at GFU, and directs the Victory Hoop Camp for Portland youth. A graduate of Glencoe High in Hillsboro, Ore., he earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science in 1991 and a master of arts degree in physical education teaching in 1992, both from Oregon State. He lives in Newberg with his wife, Kerry, who played basketball for George Fox from 1993-95.

MIKE WARMANEN Assistant Coach

Now in his fourth year as an assistant with the women's basketball team, Mike Warmanen brings to the program head coaching experience at both the high school and college level. A native of Forest Grove, Ore., he was an All-Northwest League point guard for Portland Adventist Academy before graduating in 1989. He went on to play two seasons at Walla Walla College. He coached the boys' team at Portland Adventist Academy for three seasons (1991-1994), and was head men's coach at Walla Walla College for a year (1994-95) before coming to George Fox.

In addition to coaching, Warmanen is an athletic goods salesman for AllTeam Image in Portland, Ore., where he also lives.

KERRY RUECK Assistant Coach

Kerry (Aillaud) Rueck, who married head coach Scott Rueck in 1996, is in her third season as an assistant coach for the George Fox women's basketball team. She first came to George Fox as a transfer from Skagit Valley Community College, and played on the nationally ranked 1993-94 and 1994-95 teams. Arguably the best outside shooter in team history, she holds school records for 3-point accuracy in a season (.414) and a career (.388), and for most 3-pointers in a career (119).

Rueck earned her bachelor of arts degree in elementary education from George Fox in 1995, and now teaches fifth grade in the Newberg School District.

MEN'S COACHING STAFF

MARK SUNDQUIST Head Coach

A new era in George Fox men's basketball begins this year as Mark Sundquist takes over the Bruin program, replacing 18-year veteran Mark Vernon, the winningest coach in school history, who resigned for personal reasons. The 34-year-old coach was named to the post in August after a national search that ended ironically in the Bruins' backyard! He had spent the 1999-2000 season as the boys' basketball coach at Newberg High School, only eight blocks from George Fox, after two seasons as the boys' basketball coach at Woodburn (Ore.) High School.

Sundquist attended Glencoe High in Hillsboro, Ore., then earned four letters at Seattle Pacific (1984-88) as a shooting guard alongside point guard Ritchie McKay, now the men's coach at Oregon State. He led the team in free throw pct. as a junior (.818) and senior (.817), with his career mark of .819 ranking 7th all-time at SPU. He was team captain and MVP as a senior, averaging 14.1 ppg while shooting a team-best .514 from the field and .482 from 3-point range, a school record at the time. He had a career-high 33 points at D-I Stanford while setting records, since broken, for 3's made (7) and attempted (12) in a game. He was All-Great Northwest Conference and All-NCAA Division II District VIII as a senior.

Sundquist graduated in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in social sciences/secondary education. He was an assistant women's coach at SPU for a year, coached in the junior high ranks for three years, and spent the 1992-97 seasons as an assistant for the boys' program at Glencoe.

Sundquist is married to the former Sara Thompson of Bellevue, Wash., and they have one son, Jake, age 3 1/2, and a brand-new daughter, Kaitlyn, born in October. The Sundquists attend Countryside Community Church in Sherwood.

JUSTIN SHERWOOD Assistant Coach

Justin Sherwood, the most prolific 3-point field goal shooter in NAIA history, is now in his fourth year with George Fox as assistant men's basketball coach. In four years at Western Baptist, he attempted 1,110 treys, an NAIA national record, making 464, three fewer than the national record at that time. He averaged 18.4 points a game during his college career (1989-93), setting WBC's scoring record with 2,710 points. Twice he was an NAIA All-District 2 selection and NCCAA All-American. He was named Western Baptist's Male Athlete of the Year as a senior.

As a senior at McNary High School in Salem, Ore., Sherwood was also Male Athlete of the Year after earning all-league honors in basketball and playing outfield on the state championship baseball team. In addition to his coaching duties, he works for Pauly, Rogers and Co., a CPA firm in Tigard, Ore. He and his wife, Jenni, live in — of all places — Sherwood, Ore., with their year-old son named — naturally — Trey.

MITCH RATZLAFF Assistant Coach

Former George Fox cager Mitch Ratzlaff returns to his alma mater as an assistant coach to begin his coaching career.

The 25-year-old Ratzlaff was a four-sport athlete at Salem Academy, earning all-league honors in soccer, basketball and track while also running cross country. He was named Senior Christian Athlete of the Year. After a year at Chemeketa Community College, he transferred to George Fox and played for three seasons (1993-96). He was a part-time starter as a sophomore, but his last two years were injury-plagued. He broke a finger early in his junior year, and as a senior, he tore an ACL in his knee before the season started, then broke his foot with only four games left after returning. For battling against all odds, he received the Coaches' Award for Outstanding Attitude and Commitment.

Ratzlaff graduated cum laude from George Fox in 1996 with a degree in business and economics, and is now the director of development for International Family Services, which requires him to travel extensively overseas. He and his wife, Kelleigh, reside in Newberg.

THE BRUIN NICKNAME

George Fox University's "Bruin" nickname comes from a real bear captured in 1887, two years after Pacific Academy (the University's predecessor) was established. The young cub was found in the Coast Range foothills west of Carlton after its mother was shot. It was brought to Newberg and raised for a while as a pet.

After the bear grew to adulthood, it was given to Professor Roy Hartley, who kept it in a pit in Hess Creek Canyon, south of campus. When the bruin escaped one too many times, it was turned into steak for the dining table, and the bearskin was preserved on a frame and displayed in an early campus museum. By the 1930s, the hide had deteriorated and eventually it was taken to a furnace room to be destroyed. The framework proved to be a problem in dismantling, however, and the pelt was left standing in a corner.

Some students "rescued" the old bearskin and later began skirmishes over its ownership, a tradition that continues today. Though the original hide has long since been destroyed, "Bruin Junior" has reappeared in various forms over the years and is fought over periodically in class competitions. According to the rules, which have been passed down for decades, the class that is able to drag the Bruin replica off campus is declared the rightful owner until the next time it is displayed or "flashed" on campus.

Today's version of Bruin Junior - a leather "teddy bear" designed to withstand the rigors of competition over ownership - has traveled to Europe and Australia, and stories abound of creative flashings and the spirited "brawls" that ensued. Only time will tell when the next flashing will occur and this longstanding tradition will resume.

ATHLETIC PROGRAM

Intercollegiate athletics are an important part of George Fox University, home to one of the Northwest's most successful small-college sports programs. Winning programs, however, are accompanied by a proper balance between academics and athletics: Bruin teams are members of the Northwest Conference and compete in Division III of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), in which need and academic ability, not athleticism, determine scholarships and financial aid.

At George Fox, intercollegiate athletic competition provides a practical application of what is learned in classrooms and practices. Student-athletes compete for conference and national titles at a Christ-centered university where professors and coaches help them grow in mind, body and spirit. The values of athletics are integrated with the goals of Christian higher education in a process that includes physical conditioning, managing emotions, courage, teamwork, cooperation, and being gracious in winning and losing.

The University features 13 varsity sports, seven for women (volleyball, soccer, cross country, basketball, softball, tennis, and track and field) and six for men (soccer, cross country, basketball, baseball, tennis, and track and field). More than 15 percent of George Fox's traditional undergraduate students participate in these sports. Their records over the years serve as shining testimonies to the administration's conviction that an institution can play for the glory of God, follow the rules and ethics of its governing organizations, and be successful on the fields and courts of competition at the same time.

Consider these facts: George Fox has earned district or conference titles in 10 sports during the last decade; George Fox athletes have earned almost 300 All-American and All-American Scholar-Athlete honors; Seven of the 10 coaches on staff have been named district or conference Coach of the Year at least once; and George Fox coaches have held their positions for an average of over eight years, together accumulating over 1,000 wins.
